

The Everyday Bible

NEW CENTURY VERSION

Clearly Translated For Life

Originally, the Bible was written in the languages of common people—so everyone could read and understand. Yet language has changed, and words that were once easily understood often make little sense to us today.

The Everyday Bible is a new translation that everyone can understand. While it is accurate to the original Hebrew and Greek manuscripts, The Everyday Bible has a simplicity that will revitalize your relationship with God.

What makes The Everyday Bible different?

The Everyday Bible doesn't bog down with difficult words like "siegeworks," "consecration" or "hoarfrost," which are found in other modern translations. Imagine how much clearer God's message is when a word like "covenant" is replaced with "agreement," "overweening" reads "stubborn" or "marauders" is translated "robbers." Biblical terms like "uncircumcised hearts" and "set your face against" simply read "you have not given your heart to God" and "look toward." The Everyday Bible preserves the meaning of the text but in language that is easy to understand.

The Everyday Bible is an edition of the New Century Version, which is also available in the International Children's Bible. Independent studies have shown the New Century Version clearly to be the easiest version to read and understand. With its simplified vocabulary and shorter sentence length, the New Century Version makes God's Word available to everyone.

An outstanding team of evangelical scholars ensure The Everyday Bible is accurate to original biblical manuscripts. These men are from respected seminaries such as Dallas Theological Seminary, Fuller Theological Seminary, Wheaton College, Denver Conservative Baptist Seminary, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Southern California College.

"Beautifully simple and meticulously accurate."

Dr. Alan F. Johnson
Wheaton College

"This needed new translation is top-flight and beautifully done."

Dr. Roland K. Harrison
Wycliffe College

"The New Century Version is a faithful translation that accurately conveys the original text."

Dr. Frederic Bush
Fuller Theological Seminary

"When I started reading the New Century Version I couldn't believe my eyes. It was so clear, so easy to understand, so true to the original. I tell everyone I know about it!"

Because knowing God is important to you...

Read The Everyday Bible.

Why be one of the 58 million adults who are frustrated and unsatisfied in their struggle to understand the Bible?<sup>1</sup>

If you're afraid you'll never find the riches you "just know" are in God's Word, discover for yourself The Everyday Bible. As you read, you'll uncover new treasures that will draw you closer to God.

The Everyday Bible uses familiar, everyday words that speak with warmth and simplicity. It's not a paraphrase, but an all new translation from the original Hebrew and Greek. You'll be amazed to see verses you've read hundreds of times suddenly seem so fresh and alive.

"I heartily commend The Everyday Bible as one of the clearest and easiest-to-read Bibles available today. This new translation will open the Word of God to many who previously found the Bible difficult to read and understand. Read it every day!"

Dr. Billy Graham

Easier to read than any major translation!

The Everyday Bible speaks to 94% of the adult and youth population—more than any other version.<sup>2</sup>

PREFACE

God intended for everyone to be able to understand his Word. Earliest Scriptures were in Hebrew, ideally suited for a barely literate society because of its economy of words, acrostic literary form and poetic parallelism. The New Testament was first written in the simple Greek of everyday life, not in the Latin of Roman courts or the classical Greek of the academies. Even Jesus, the Master Teacher, taught spiritual principles by comparing them to such familiar terms as pearls, seeds, rocks, trees and sheep. Likewise, The Everyday Bible translates the Scriptures in familiar, everyday words of our times.

The Everyday Bible is an edition of the New Century Version, which is a translation of God's Word from the original Hebrew and Greek languages. A previous edition of the complete New Century Version, the International Children's Bible, was published in 1986.

A Trustworthy Translation

Two basic premises guided the translation process of the New Century Version. The primary concern was that the translation be accurate and faithful to the original manuscripts. A team comprised of the World Bible Translation Center and twenty-one additional, highly qualified and experienced Bible scholars and translators was assembled. The team included men with translation experience on such accepted versions as the New International Version, the New American Standard Bible and the New King James Version. The most recent scholarship and the best available Hebrew and Greek texts have been used, principally the third edition of the United Bible Society's Greek text and the latest edition of the Biblia Hebraica, along with the Septuagint.

A Clear Translation

The second concern was to make the language simple enough for anyone to read the Bible and understand it for himself. In maintaining simple language, several guidelines were followed. Sentences have been kept relatively short and uncomplicated. Vocabulary choice has been based upon The Living Word Vocabulary by Dr. Edgar Dale and Dr. Joseph O'Rourke (Worldbook-Childcraft International, 1981), which is the standard used by the editors of The World Book Encyclopedia to determine appropriate vocabulary. For difficult words which have no simpler synonyms, footnotes and dictionary references are provided. Footnotes appear at the bottom of the page and are indicated in the text by an "n" (for "note"). The dictionary/topical concordance is located at the back of the Bible with references indicated in the text by a "d."

The Everyday Bible aids understanding by putting concepts into natural terms. Modern measurements and geographical locations have been used as much as possible. For instance, terms such as "shekels," "cubits," "omer" and "hin" have been converted to modern equivalents of weights and measures. Where geographical references are identical, the modern name has been used, such as the "Mediterranean Sea" instead of "Great Sea" or "Western Sea." Also, to minimize confusion, the most familiar name for a place is used consistently, instead of using variant names for the same place. "Lake Galilee" is used throughout rather than its variant forms, "Sea of Kinnereth," "Lake Gennesaret" and "Sea of Tiberias."

Ancient customs are often unfamiliar to modern readers. Customs such as shaving a man's beard to shame him or walking between the halves of a dead animal to seal an agreement are meaningless to most people. So these are clarified either in the text or in a footnote.

Since meanings of words change with time, care has been taken to avoid potential misunderstandings. Frequently in the Old Testament God tells his people to "devote" something to him, as when he tells the Israelites to devote Jericho and everything in it to him. While we might understand this to mean he is telling them to keep it safe and holy, the exact opposite is true. He is telling them to destroy it totally as an offering to him. The Everyday Bible communicates the idea clearly by translating “devoted,” in these situations, as “destroyed as an offering to the Lord.”

Rhetorical questions have been stated according to their implied answer. The psalmist’s question, “What god is so great as our God?” has been stated more directly as, “No god is as great as our God.”

Figures of speech have been translated according to their meanings. For instance, the expression “the Virgin Daughter of Zion,” which is frequently used in the Old Testament, is simply translated “the people of Jerusalem.”

Idiomatic expressions of the biblical languages are translated to communicate the same meaning to today’s reader that would have been understood by the original audience. For example, the Hebrew idiom “he rested with his fathers” is translated by its meaning — “he died.”

Obscure terms have been clarified. In the Old Testament God frequently condemns the people for their “high places” and “Asherah poles.” The Everyday Bible translates these according to their meanings, which would have been understood by the Hebrews. “High places” is translated “places where false gods were worshiped” and “Asherah poles” is translated “Asherah idols.”

Every attempt has been made to maintain proper English style, while simplifying concepts and communication. The beauty of the Hebrew parallelism in poetry and the word plays have been retained. Images of the ancient languages have been captured in equivalent English images wherever possible.

Study Aids

Other features to enhance understanding of the text include full-color maps of Bible lands; subject headings throughout to identify speakers and topics; book subheadings to give a synopsis of each book’s theme; a dictionary/topical concordance of biblical words and concepts; and footnotes identifying Old Testament quotations in the New Testament.

Our Prayer

It is with great humility and prayerfulness that this Bible is presented. We acknowledge the infallibility of God’s Word and yet our own human frailty. We pray that God has worked through us as his vessels so that we all might better learn his truth for ourselves and that it might richly grow in our lives. It is to his glory that this Bible is given. THE PUBLISHER

THE EVERYDAY READING GUIDE

As a special feature of The Everyday Bible, a daily reading guide has been inserted within the text itself. You can read through the entire Bible in a year by reading an average of only three chapters a day—about five minutes' worth.

The place to begin a day's reading is signaled by the symbol of an open Bible,  placed beside a subject heading or a chapter number. Just read until you come to the next symbol.

Feel free to skip around in your readings. Since the day's portion is not tied to any particular day of the year, this system allows total flexibility. One approach is to read through the books chronologically for six days of each week and then devote your Sunday reading to the Psalms and Proverbs. To help keep track of what you have read, you can even check off each logo as you have read that portion.

The everyday reading program is designed not to make you feel guilty when you miss a daily reading. It's designed to guide you in reading whatever section you wish so you can complete the entire Bible in a year if that is your personal goal.

The Beginning of All Things

The Beginning of the World

1 In the beginning God created the sky and the earth. <sup>2</sup>The earth was empty and had no form. Darkness covered the ocean, and God's Spirit<sup>d</sup> was moving over the water.

<sup>3</sup>Then God said, "Let there be light!" And there was light. <sup>4</sup>God saw that the light was good. So he divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God named the light "day" and the darkness "night." Evening passed, and morning came. This was the first day.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said, "Let there be something to divide the water in two!" <sup>7</sup>So God made the air to divide the water in two. Some of the water was above the air, and some of the water was below it. <sup>8</sup>God named the air "sky." Evening passed, and morning came. This was the second day.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered together so the dry land will appear." And it happened. <sup>10</sup>God named the dry land "earth." He named the water that was gathered together "seas." God saw that this was good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth produce plants. Some plants will make grain for seeds. Others will make fruit with seeds in it. Every seed will produce more of its own kind of plant." And it happened. <sup>12</sup>The earth produced plants. Some plants had grain for seeds. The trees made fruit with seeds in it. Each seed grew its own kind of plant. God saw that all this was good. <sup>13</sup>Evening passed, and morning came. This was the third day.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, "Let there be lights in the sky to separate day from night. These lights will be used for signs, seasons, days and years. <sup>15</sup>They will be in the sky to give light to the earth." And it happened.

<sup>16</sup>So God made the two large lights. He made the brighter light to rule the day. He made the smaller light to rule the night. He also made the stars. <sup>17</sup>God put all these in the sky to shine on the earth. <sup>18</sup>They are to rule over the day and over the night. He put them there to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that all these things were good. <sup>19</sup>Evening passed, and morning came. This was the fourth day.

<sup>21</sup>So God created the large sea animals. He created every living thing that moves in the sea. The sea is filled with these living things. Each one produces more of its own kind. God also made every bird that flies. And each bird produces more of its own kind. God saw that this was good. <sup>22</sup>God blessed them and said, "Have many young ones and grow in number. Fill the water of the seas, and let the birds grow in number on the earth." <sup>23</sup>Evening passed, and morning came. This was the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth be filled with animals. And let each produce more of its own kind. Let there be tame animals and small crawling animals and wild animals. And let each produce more of its kind." And it happened.

<sup>25</sup>So God made the wild animals, the tame animals and all the small crawling animals to produce more of their own kind. God saw that this was good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image and likeness. And let them rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky. Let them rule over the tame animals, over all the earth and over all the small crawling animals on the earth."

<sup>27</sup>So God created human beings in his image. In the image of God he created them. He created them male and female. <sup>28</sup>God blessed them and said, "Have many children and grow in number. Fill the earth and be its master. Rule over the fish in the sea and over the birds in the sky. Rule over every living thing that moves on the earth."

<sup>29</sup>God said, "Look, I have given you all the plants that have grain for seeds. And I have given you all the trees whose fruits have seeds in them. They will be food for you. <sup>30</sup>I have given all the green plants to all the animals to eat. They will be food for every wild animal, every bird of the air and every small crawling animal." And it happened. <sup>31</sup>God looked at everything he had made, and it was very good. Evening passed, and morning came. This was the sixth day.

The Seventh Day—Rest

2 So the sky, the earth and all that filled them were finished. <sup>2</sup>By the seventh day God finished the work he had been doing. So on the seventh day he rested from all his work. <sup>3</sup>God blessed the seventh day and made it a holy day. He made it holy because on that day he rested. He rested from all the work he had done in creating the world.

The First People

<sup>4</sup>This is the story of the creation of the sky and the earth. When the Lord God made the earth and the sky, <sup>5</sup>there were no plants on the earth. Nothing was growing in the fields. The Lord God had not yet made it rain on the land. And there was no man to care for the ground. <sup>6</sup>But a mist often rose from the earth and watered all the ground.

<sup>10</sup>A river flowed through Eden and watered the garden. From that point the river was divided. It had four streams flowing into it. <sup>11</sup>The name of the first stream is Pishon. It flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. <sup>12</sup>That gold is good. Bdelium and onyx <sup>n</sup> are also there. <sup>13</sup>The name of the second river is Gihon. It flows around the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup>The name of the third river is Tigris. It flows out of Assyria toward the east. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord God put the man in the garden of Eden to care for it and work it. <sup>16</sup>The Lord God commanded him, "You may eat the fruit from any tree in the garden. <sup>17</sup>But you must not eat the fruit from the tree which gives the knowledge of good and evil. If you ever eat fruit from that tree, you will die!"

The First Woman

<sup>18</sup>Then the Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is right for him."

<sup>19</sup>From the ground God formed every wild animal and every bird in the sky. He brought them to the man so the man could name them. Whatever the man called each living thing, that became its name. <sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all the tame animals, to the birds in the sky and to all the wild animals. But Adam <sup>n</sup> did not find a helper that was right for him. <sup>21</sup>So the Lord God caused the man to sleep very deeply. While the man was asleep, God took one of the ribs from the man's body. Then God closed the man's skin at the place where he took the rib. <sup>22</sup>The Lord God used the rib from the man to make a woman. Then the Lord brought the woman to the man.

"Now, this is someone whose bones came from my bones.

Her body came from my body.

I will call her 'woman,' because she was taken out of man."

<sup>24</sup>So a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife. And the two people will become one body.

<sup>25</sup>The man and his wife were naked, but they were not ashamed.

The Beginning of Sin

3 Now the snake was the most clever of all the wild animals the Lord God had made. One day the snake spoke to the woman. He said, "Did God really say that you must not eat fruit from any tree in the garden?"

<sup>2</sup>The woman answered the snake, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden. <sup>3</sup>But God told us, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden. You must not even touch it, or you will die.'"

<sup>4</sup>But the snake said to the woman, "You will not die. <sup>5</sup>God knows that if you eat the fruit from that tree, you will learn about good and evil. Then you will be like God!"

<sup>6</sup>The woman saw that the tree was beautiful. She saw that its fruit was good to eat and that it would make her wise. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some of the fruit to her husband, and he ate it.

<sup>7</sup>Then, it was as if the man's and the woman's eyes were opened. They realized they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made something to cover themselves.

Lord God among the trees in the garden. <sup>9</sup>But the Lord God called to the man. The Lord said, "Where are you?"

<sup>10</sup>The man answered, "I heard you walking in the garden. I was afraid because I was naked. So I hid."

<sup>11</sup>God said to the man, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat fruit from that tree? I commanded you not to eat from that tree."

<sup>12</sup>The man said, "You gave this woman to me. She gave me fruit from the tree. So I ate it."

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What have you done?"

She answered, "The snake tricked me. So I ate the fruit."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord God said to the snake,
"Because you did this,

a curse will be put on you.

You will be cursed more than any tame animal or wild animal.

You will crawl on your stomach, and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup>I will make you and the woman enemies to each other.

Your descendants<sup>a</sup> and her descendants will be enemies.

Her child will crush your head.
And you will bite his heel."

<sup>16</sup>Then God said to the woman,
"I will cause you to have much trouble when you are pregnant.

And when you give birth to children,
you will have great pain.

You will greatly desire your husband, but he will rule over you."

<sup>17</sup>Then God said to the man, "You listened to what your wife said. And you ate fruit from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from.

"So I will put a curse on the ground.
You will have to work very hard for food.

In pain you will eat its food all the days of your life.

And you will eat the plants of the field.

<sup>19</sup>You will sweat and work hard for your food.

Later you will return to the ground because you were taken from it.

You are dust.

And when you die, you will return to the dust."

<sup>21</sup>The Lord God made clothes from animal skins for the man and his wife. And so the Lord dressed them. <sup>22</sup>Then the Lord God said, "Look, the man has become like one of us. He knows good and evil. And now we must keep him from eating some of the fruit from the tree of life. If he does, he will live forever." <sup>23</sup>So the Lord God forced the man out of the garden of Eden. He had to work the ground he was taken from. <sup>24</sup>God forced the man out of the garden. Then God put angels on the east side of the garden. He also put a sword of fire there. It flashed around in every direction. This kept people from getting to the tree of life.

The First Family

<sup>3</sup>Later, Cain brought a gift to God. He brought some food from the ground. <sup>4</sup>Abel brought the best parts of his best sheep. The Lord accepted Abel and his gift. <sup>5</sup>But God did not accept Cain and his gift. Cain became very angry and looked unhappy.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord asked Cain, "Why are you angry? Why do you look so unhappy? <sup>7</sup>If you do good, I will accept you. But if you do not do good, sin is ready to attack you. Sin wants you. But you must rule over it."

<sup>8</sup>Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out into the field." So Cain and Abel went into the field. Then Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Cain answered, "I don't know. Is it my job to take care of my brother?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said, "What have you done? Your brother's blood is on the ground. That blood is like a voice that tells me what happened. <sup>11</sup>And now you will be cursed in your work with the ground. It is the same ground where your brother's blood fell. Your hands killed him. <sup>12</sup>You will work the ground. But it will not grow good crops for you anymore. You will wander around on the earth."

<sup>13</sup>Then Cain said to the Lord, "This punishment is more than I can stand! <sup>14</sup>Look! You have forced me to stop working the ground. And now I must hide from you. I will wander around on the earth. And anyone who meets me can kill me."

<sup>15</sup>Then the Lord said to Cain, "No! If anyone kills you, I will punish that person seven times more." Then the Lord put a mark on Cain. It was a warning to anyone who met him not to kill him.

Cain's Family

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice!

You wives of Lamech, listen to what I say.

I killed a man for wounding me.

I killed a young man for hitting me.

Then Lamech's killer will be punished 77 times."

Adam and Eve Have a New Son

<sup>25</sup>Adam had sexual relations with his wife Eve again. And she gave birth to a son. She named him Seth.<sup>a</sup> Eve said, "God has given me another child. He will take the place of Abel, who was killed by Cain." <sup>26</sup>Seth also had a son. They named him Enosh. At that time people began to pray to the Lord.

Adam's Family History

5 This is the family history of Adam. When God created human beings, he made them in God's likeness. <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female. And on that day he blessed them and named them human beings.

<sup>3</sup>When Adam was 130 years old, he became the father of another son. He was in the likeness and image of Adam. Adam named him Seth. <sup>4</sup>After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>So Adam lived a total of 930 years. Then he died.

<sup>6</sup>When Seth was 105 years old, he had a son named Enosh. <sup>7</sup>After Enosh was born, Seth lived 807 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>So Seth lived a total of 912 years. Then he died.

<sup>9</sup>When Enosh was 90 years old, he had a son named Kenan. <sup>10</sup>After Kenan was born, Enosh lived 815 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>So Enosh lived a total of 905 years. Then he died.

<sup>12</sup>When Kenan was 70 years old, he had a son named Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>After Mahalalel was born, Kenan lived 840 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>So Kenan lived a total of 910 years. Then he died.

<sup>15</sup>When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he had a son named Jared. <sup>16</sup>After Jared was born, Mahalalel lived 830 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>So Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years. Then he died.

<sup>18</sup>When Jared was 162 years old, he had a son named Enoch. <sup>19</sup>After Enoch was born, Jared lived 800 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>So Jared lived a total of 962 years. Then he died.

<sup>21</sup>When Enoch was 65 years old, he had a son named Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>After Methuselah was born, Enoch walked with God 300 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup>So Enoch lived a total of 365 years. <sup>24</sup>Enoch walked with God. One day Enoch could not be found, because God took him.

<sup>25</sup>When Methuselah was 187 years old, he had a son named Lamech. <sup>26</sup>After Lamech was born, Methuselah lived 782 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>So Methuselah lived a total of 969 years. Then he died.

The Human Race Becomes Evil

6 The number of people on earth began to grow. Daughters were born to these people. <sup>2</sup>The sons of God saw that these girls were beautiful. And they married any of them they chose. <sup>3</sup>The Lord said, "My Spirit<sup>d</sup> will not remain in human beings forever. This is because they are flesh. They will live only 120 years."

<sup>4</sup>The Nephilim<sup>d</sup> were on the earth in those days and also later. That was when the sons of God had sexual relations with the daughters of men. These women gave birth to children, who became famous. They were the mighty warriors of long ago.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord saw that the human beings on the earth were very wicked. He also saw that their thoughts were only about evil all the time. <sup>6</sup>The Lord was sorry he had made human beings on the earth. His heart was filled with pain. <sup>7</sup>So the Lord said, "I will destroy all human beings that I made on the earth. And I will destroy every animal and everything that crawls on the earth. I will also destroy the birds of the air. This is because I am sorry that I have made them." <sup>8</sup>But Noah pleased the Lord.

Noah and the Great Flood

<sup>9</sup>This is the family history of Noah. Noah was a good man. He was the most innocent man of his time. He walked with God. <sup>10</sup>Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

<sup>11</sup>People on earth did what God said was evil. Violence was everywhere. <sup>12</sup>And God saw this evil. All people on the earth did only evil. <sup>13</sup>So God said to Noah, "People have made the earth full of violence. So I will destroy all people from the earth. <sup>14</sup>Build a boat of cypress wood for yourself. Make rooms in it and cover it inside and outside with tar. <sup>15</sup>This is how big I want you to build the boat: 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high. <sup>16</sup>Make an opening around the top of the boat. Make it 18 inches from the edge of the roof down. Put a door in the side of the boat. Make an upper, middle and lower deck in it. <sup>17</sup>I will bring a flood of water on the earth. I will destroy all living things that live under the sky. This includes everything that has the breath of life. Everything on the earth will die. <sup>18</sup>But I will make an agreement with you. You, your sons, your wife and your sons' wives will all go into the boat. <sup>19</sup>Also, you must bring into the boat two of every living thing, male and female. Keep them alive with you. <sup>20</sup>There will be two of every kind of bird, animal and crawling thing. They will come to you to be kept alive. <sup>21</sup>Also gather some of every kind of food. Store it on the boat as food for you and the animals."

The Flood Begins

7 Then the Lord said to Noah, "I have seen that you are the best man among the evil people of this time. So you and your family go into the boat. <sup>2</sup>Take with you seven pairs, each male with its female, of every kind of clean<sup>d</sup> animal. And take one pair, each male with its female, of every kind of unclean animal. <sup>3</sup>Take seven pairs of all the birds of the sky, each male with its female. This will allow all these animals to continue living on the earth after the flood. <sup>4</sup>Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth. It will rain 40 days and 40 nights. I will destroy from the earth every living thing that I made."

<sup>11</sup>Noah was now 600 years old. The flood started on the seventeenth day of the second month of that year. That day the underground springs split open. And the clouds in the sky poured out rain. <sup>12</sup>The rain fell on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights.

<sup>13</sup>On that same day Noah and his wife, his sons Shem, Ham and Japheth and their wives went into the boat. <sup>14</sup>They had every kind of wild animal and tame animal. There was every kind of animal that crawls on the earth. Every kind of bird was there. <sup>15</sup>They all came to Noah in the boat in groups of two. There was every creature that had the breath of life. <sup>16</sup>One male and one female of every living thing came. It was just as God had commanded Noah. Then the Lord closed the door behind them.

<sup>21</sup>All living things that moved on the earth died. This included all the birds, tame animals, wild animals and creatures that swarm on the earth. And all human beings died. <sup>22</sup>So everything on dry land died. This means everything that had the breath of life in its nose. <sup>23</sup>So God destroyed from the earth every living thing that was on the land. This was every man, animal, crawling thing and bird of the sky. All that was left was Noah and what was with him in the boat. <sup>24</sup>And the waters continued to cover the earth for 150 days.

The Flood Ends

8 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and tame animals with him in the boat. God made a wind blow over the earth. And the water went down. <sup>2</sup>The underground springs stopped flowing. And the clouds in the sky stopped pouring down rain. <sup>3-4</sup>The water that covered the earth began to go down. After 150 days the water had gone down so much that the boat touched land again. It came to rest on one of the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup>This was on the seventeenth day of the seventh month. <sup>6</sup>The water continued to go down. By the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains could be seen.

<sup>6</sup>Forty days later Noah opened the window he had made in the boat. <sup>7</sup>He sent out a raven. It flew here and there until the water had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>Then Noah sent out a dove. This was to find out if the water had dried up from the ground. <sup>9</sup>The dove could not find a place to land because water still covered the earth. So it came back to the boat. Noah reached out his hand and took the bird. And he brought it back into the boat.

Then Noah knew that the ground was almost dry. <sup>12</sup>Seven days later he sent the dove out again. But this time it did not come back.

<sup>13</sup>Noah was now 601 years old. It was the first day of the first month of that year. The water was dried up from the land. Noah removed the covering of the boat and saw that the land was dry. <sup>14</sup>By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the land was completely dry.

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Noah, <sup>16</sup>“You and your wife, your sons and their wives should go out of the boat. <sup>17</sup>Bring every animal out of the boat with you—the birds, animals and everything that crawls on the earth. Let them have many young ones and let them grow in number.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the Lord. Noah took some of all the clean<sup>a</sup> birds and animals. And he burned them on the altar as offerings to God. <sup>21</sup>The Lord was pleased with these sacrifices. He said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of human beings. Their thoughts are evil even when they are young. But I will never again destroy every living thing on the earth as I did this time.

<sup>22</sup>“As long as the earth continues, there will be planting and harvest. Cold and hot, summer and winter, day and night will not stop.”

The New Beginning

9 Then God blessed Noah and his sons. He said to them, “Have many children. Grow in number and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup>Every animal on earth and every bird in the sky will respect and fear you. So will every animal that crawls on the ground and every fish in the sea respect and fear you. I have given them to you.

<sup>3</sup>“Everything that moves, everything that is alive, is yours for food. Earlier I gave you the green plants. And now I give you everything for food. <sup>4</sup>But you must not eat meat that still has blood in it, because blood gives life. <sup>5</sup>I will demand your blood for your lives. That is, I will demand the life of any animal that kills a person. And I will demand the life of anyone who takes another person’s life.

<sup>8</sup>Then God said to Noah and his sons, <sup>9</sup>“Now I am making my agreement with you and your people who will live after you. <sup>10</sup>And I also make it with every living thing that is with you. It is with the birds, the tame animals and the wild animals. It is with all that came out of the boat with you. I make my agreement with every living thing on earth. <sup>11</sup>I make this agreement with you: I will never again destroy all living things by floodwaters. A flood will never again destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>And God said, “I am making an agreement between me and you and every living creature that is with you. It will continue from now on. This is the sign: <sup>13</sup>I am putting my rainbow in the clouds. It is the sign of the agreement between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>When I bring clouds over the earth, a rainbow appears in the clouds. <sup>15</sup>Then I will remember my agreement between me and you and every living thing. Floodwaters will never again destroy all life on the earth. <sup>16</sup>When the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it. Then I will remember the agreement that continues forever between me and every living thing on the earth.”

<sup>17</sup>So God said to Noah, “That rainbow is a sign. It is the sign of the agreement that I made with all living things on earth.”

Noah and His Sons

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Noah came out of the boat with him. They were Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.) <sup>19</sup>These three men were Noah's sons. And all the people on earth came from these three sons.

youngest son, Ham, had done to him. <sup>25</sup>So Noah said, “May there be a curse on Canaan!

May he be the lowest slave to his brothers.”

“May the Lord, the God of Shem, be praised!

May Canaan be Shem's slave.

May Japheth live in Shem's tents, and may Canaan be their slave.”

Nations Grow and Spread

10 This is the family history of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham and Japheth. After the flood these three men had sons.

Japheth's Sons

Ham's Sons

and of Heth. <sup>16</sup>Canaan was also the father of the Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites, <sup>17</sup>Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, <sup>18</sup>Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. The families of the Canaanites scattered. <sup>19</sup>The land of the Canaanites reached from Sidon to Gerar as far as Gaza. And it reached to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Shem's Sons

<sup>32</sup>This is the list of the families from the sons of Noah. They are arranged according to their nations. From these families came all the nations who spread across the earth after the flood.

The Languages Confused

11 At this time the whole world spoke one language. Everyone used the same words. <sup>2</sup>As people moved from the East, they found a plain in the land of Babylonia. They settled there to live.

<sup>3</sup>They said to each other, "Let's make bricks and bake them to make them hard." So they used bricks instead of stones, and tar instead of mortar. <sup>4</sup>Then they said to each other, "Let's build for ourselves a city and a tower. And let's make the top of the tower reach high into the sky. We will become famous. If we do this, we will not be scattered over all the earth."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the people had built. <sup>6</sup>The Lord said, "Now, these people are united. They all speak the same language. This is only the beginning of what they will do. They will be able to do anything they want. <sup>7</sup>Come, let us go down and confuse their language. Then they will not be able to understand each other."

<sup>8</sup>So the Lord scattered them from there over all the earth. And they stopped building the city. <sup>9</sup>That is where the Lord confused the language of the whole world. So the place is called Babel.<sup>f</sup> So the Lord caused them to spread out from there over all the whole world.

The Story of Shem's Family

<sup>10</sup>This is the family history of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, his son Arphaxad was born. <sup>11</sup>After that, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup>When Arphaxad was 35 years old, his son Shelah was born. <sup>13</sup>After that, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

The Story of Terah's Family

<sup>27</sup>This is the family history of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot. <sup>28</sup>Haran died while his father, Terah, was still alive. This happened in Ur in Babylonia, where he was born. <sup>29</sup>Abram and Nahor both married. Abram's wife was named Sarai. Nahor's wife was named Milcah. She was the daughter of Haran.

Haran was the father of Milcah and Iscah. <sup>30</sup>Sarai was not able to have children.

<sup>31</sup>Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (Haran's son) and his daughter-in-law Sarai (Abram's wife). They moved out of Ur of Babylonia. They had planned to go to the land of Canaan. But when they reached the city of Haran, they settled there.

God Calls Abram

12 Then the Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country, your relatives and your father's family. Go to the land I will show you.

<sup>1</sup>I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you.

I will make you famous.

And you will be a blessing to others.

<sup>31</sup>I will bless those who bless you.

I will place a curse on those who harm you.

And all the people on earth will be blessed through you."

<sup>6</sup>Abram traveled through that land. He went as far as the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. The Canaanites were living in the land at that time. <sup>7</sup>The Lord appeared to Abram. The Lord said, "I will give this land to your descendants."<sup>d</sup> So Abram built an altar there to the Lord, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>Then Abram traveled from Shechem to the mountain east of Bethel. And he set up his tent there. Bethel was to the west, and Ai was to the east. There Abram built another altar to the Lord and worshiped him. <sup>9</sup>After this, he traveled on toward southern Canaan.

Abram Goes to Egypt

<sup>10</sup>At this time there was not much food in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to live because there was so little food. <sup>11</sup>Just before they arrived in Egypt, Abram said to his wife Sarai, "I know you are a very beautiful woman. <sup>12</sup>When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This woman is his wife.' Then they will kill me but let you live. <sup>13</sup>Tell them you are my sister. Then things will go well with me. And I may be allowed to live because of you."

<sup>14</sup>So Abram went into Egypt. The people of Egypt saw that Sarai was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>Some of the Egyptian officers saw her also. They told the king of Egypt how beautiful she was. They took her to the king's palace. <sup>16</sup>The king was kind to Abram because he thought Abram was Sarai's brother. He gave Abram sheep, cattle and male and female donkeys. Abram also was given male and female servants and camels.

<sup>17</sup>But the Lord sent terrible diseases on the king and all the people in his house. This was because of Abram's wife Sarai. <sup>18</sup>So the king sent for Abram. The king said, "What have you done to me? Why didn't you tell me Sarai was your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I made her my wife. But now here is your wife. Take her and leave!" <sup>20</sup>Then the king commanded his men to make Abram leave Egypt. So Abram and his wife left with everything they owned.

Abram and Lot Separate

13 So Abram, his wife and Lot left Egypt. They took everything they owned and traveled to southern Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Abram was very rich in cattle, silver and gold.

<sup>3</sup>He left southern Canaan and went back to Bethel. He went where he had camped before, between Bethel and Ai. <sup>4</sup>It was the place where Abram had built an altar before. So he worshiped the Lord there.

<sup>5</sup>During this time Lot was traveling with Abram. Lot also had many sheep, cattle and tents. <sup>6</sup>Abram and Lot had so many animals that the land could not support both of them together. <sup>7</sup>Abram's herders and Lot's herders began to argue. The Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at this time.

<sup>8</sup>So Abram said to Lot, "There should be no arguing between you and me. Your herders and mine should not argue either. We are brothers. <sup>9</sup>We should separate. The whole land is there in front of you. If you go to the left, I will go to the right. If you go to the right, I will go to the left."

<sup>10</sup>Lot looked all around and saw the whole Jordan Valley. He saw that there was much water there. It was like the Lord's garden, like the land of Egypt in the direction of Zoar. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) <sup>11</sup>So Lot chose to move east and live in the Jordan Valley. In this way Abram and Lot separated. <sup>12</sup>Abram lived in the land of Canaan. But Lot lived among the cities in the Jordan Valley. He moved very near to Sodom. <sup>13</sup>Now the people of Sodom were very evil. They were always sinning against the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>So Abram moved his tents. He went to live near the great trees of Mamre. This was at the city of Hebron. There he built an altar to the Lord.

Lot Is Captured

14 Now Amraphel was king of Babylonia. Arioch was king of Ellasar. Kedorlaomer was king of Elam. And Tidal was king of Goiim. <sup>2</sup>All these kings went to war against several other kings: Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela. (Bela is also called Zoar.)

was not captured went to Abram, the Hebrew. He told Abram what had happened. At that time Abram was camped near the great trees of Mamre the Amorite. Mamre was a brother of Eshcol and a brother of Aner. And they had all made an agreement to help Abram.

Abram Rescues Lot

<sup>14</sup>Abram learned that Lot had been captured. So he called out his 318 trained men who had been born in his camp. Abram led the men and chased the enemy all the way to the town of Dan. <sup>15</sup>That night he divided his men into groups. And they made a surprise attack against the enemy. They chased them all the way to Hobah, north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>Then Abram brought back everything the enemy had stolen. Abram brought back the women and the other people. And he also brought back Lot and everything Lot owned.

<sup>17</sup>After defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, Abram went home. As Abram was returning, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh. (That is now called King's Valley.)

<sup>18</sup>Melchizedek king of Salem also went to meet Abram. Melchizedek was a priest for God Most High. He brought bread and wine. <sup>19</sup>Melchizedek blessed Abram and said, "Abram, may God Most High give you blessings.

God made heaven and earth.

<sup>20</sup>And we praise God Most High.

He has helped you to defeat your enemies."

Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he had brought back from the battle.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "You may keep all these things for yourself. Just give me my people who were captured."

<sup>22</sup>But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I make a promise to the Lord. He is the God Most High, who made heaven and earth. <sup>23</sup>I promise that I will not keep anything that is yours. I will not keep even a thread or a sandal strap. That way you cannot say, 'I made Abram rich.' <sup>24</sup>I will keep nothing but the food my young men have eaten. But give Aner, Eshcol and Mamre their share of what we won. They went with me into battle."

God's Agreement with Abram

15 After these things happened, the Lord spoke his word to Abram in a vision. God said, "Abram, don't be afraid. I will defend you. And I will give you a great reward."

<sup>2</sup>But Abram said, "Lord God, what can you give me? I have no son. So my slave Eliezer from Damascus will get everything I own after I die.”<sup>3</sup>Abram said, “Look, you have given me no son. So a slave born in my house will inherit everything I have.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Abram. He said, “That slave will not be the one to inherit what you have. You will have a son of your own. And your son will inherit what you have.”

<sup>5</sup>Then God led Abram outside. God said, “Look at the sky. There are so many stars you cannot count them. And your descendants<sup>a</sup> will be too many to count.”

<sup>7</sup>God said to Abram, “I am the Lord who led you out of Ur of Babylonia. I did that so I could give you this land to own.”

<sup>8</sup>But Abram said, “Lord God, how can I be sure that I will own this land?”

<sup>9</sup>The Lord said to Abram, “Bring me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old goat and a three-year-old male sheep. Also bring me a dove and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup>Abram brought them all to God. Then Abram killed the animals and cut each of them into two pieces. He laid each half opposite the other half. But he did not cut the birds in half.

<sup>12</sup>As the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep. While he was asleep, a very terrible darkness came. <sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Abram, “You can be sure that your descendants will be strangers and travel in a land they don’t own. The people there will make them slaves. And they will do cruel things to them for 400 years. <sup>14</sup>But I will punish the nation where they are slaves. Then your descendants will leave that land, taking great wealth with them. <sup>15</sup>Abram, you will live to be very old. You will die in peace and will be buried. <sup>16</sup>After your great-great-grandchildren are born, your people will come to this land again. It will take that long, because the Amorites are not yet evil enough to punish.”

<sup>17</sup>The sun went down, and it was very dark. Suddenly a smoking firepot and a blazing torch passed between the halves of the dead animals.<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>So on that day the Lord made an agreement with Abram. The Lord said, “I will give this land to your descendants. I will give

Ishmael Is Born

16 Sarai, Abram’s wife, had no children. She had a slave girl from Egypt named Hagar. <sup>2</sup>Sarai said to Abram, “Look, the Lord has not allowed me to have children. So have sexual relations with my slave girl. If she has a child, maybe I can have my own family through her.”

Abram did what Sarai said. <sup>3</sup>This was after Abram lived ten years in Canaan. And Sarai gave Hagar to her husband Abram. (Hagar was her slave girl from Egypt.)

<sup>4</sup>Abram had sexual relations with Hagar, and she became pregnant. When Hagar learned she was pregnant, she began to treat her mistress Sarai badly. <sup>5</sup>Then Sarai said to Abram, “This is your fault. I gave my slave girl to you. And when she became pregnant, she began to treat me badly. Let the Lord decide who is right — you or me.”

Hagar answered, “I am running from my mistress Sarai.”

<sup>9</sup>The angel of the Lord said to her, “Go home to your mistress and obey her.” <sup>10</sup>The angel of the Lord also said, “I will give you so many descendants<sup>a</sup> they cannot be counted.”

<sup>11</sup>The angel also said to her,

“You are now pregnant, and you will have a son.

You will name him Ishmael,<sup>a</sup> because the Lord has heard your cries.

<sup>12</sup>Ishmael will be like a wild donkey.

He will be against everyone.

And everyone will be against him.

He will attack all his brothers.”

<sup>13</sup>The slave girl gave a name to the Lord who spoke to her. She said to him, “You are ‘God who sees me.’” This is because she said to herself, “Have I really seen God who sees me?" <sup>14</sup>So the well there was called Beer Lahai Roi. <sup>15</sup>It is between Kadesh and Bered.

17 When Abram was 99 years old, the Lord appeared to him. The Lord said, "I am God All-Powerful. Obey me and do what is right. <sup>21</sup>I will make an agreement between us. I will make you the ancestor of many people."

<sup>3</sup>Then Abram bowed facedown on the ground. God said to him, <sup>4</sup>"I am making my agreement with you: I will make you the father of many nations. <sup>5</sup>I am changing your name from Abram <sup>a</sup> to Abraham. <sup>n</sup> This is because I am making you a father of many nations. <sup>6</sup>I will give you many descendants. <sup>d</sup> New nations will be born from you. Kings will come from you. <sup>7</sup>And I will make an agreement between me and you and all your descendants from now on: I will be your God and the God of all your descendants. <sup>8</sup>You live in the land of Canaan now as a stranger. But I will give you and your descendants all this land forever. And I will be the God of your descendants."

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Abraham, "You and your descendants must keep this agreement from now on. <sup>10</sup>This is my agreement with you and all your descendants: Every male among you must be circumcised. <sup>d</sup> You must obey this agreement. <sup>11</sup>Cut away the foreskin to show that you follow the agreement between me and you. <sup>12</sup>From now on when a baby boy is eight days old, you will circumcise him. This includes any boy born among your people or any who is your slave. (He would not be one of your descendants.) <sup>13</sup>So circumcise every baby boy. Circumcise him whether he is born in your family or bought as a slave. Your bodies will be marked. This will show that you are part of my agreement that lasts forever. <sup>14</sup>Any male who is not circumcised will be separated from his people. He has broken my agreement."

Isaac—the Promised Son

<sup>15</sup>God said to Abraham, "I will change the name of Sarai, <sup>n</sup> your wife. Her new name will be Sarah. <sup>n</sup> <sup>16</sup>I will bless her. I will give her a son, and you will be the father. She will be the mother of many nations. Kings of nations will come from her."

<sup>17</sup>Abraham bowed facedown on the ground and laughed. He said to himself, "Can a man have a child when he is 100 years old? Can Sarah give birth to a child when she is 90?" <sup>18</sup>Then Abraham said to God, "Please let Ishmael be the son you promised."

<sup>19</sup>God said, "No. Sarah your wife will have a son, and you will name him Isaac. <sup>n</sup> I will make my agreement with him. It will be an agreement that continues forever with all his descendants. <sup>d</sup>

<sup>20</sup>"You asked me about Ishmael, and I heard you. I will bless him. I will give him many descendants. And I will cause their numbers to grow very greatly. He will be the father of 12 great leaders. I will make him into a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But I will make my agreement with Isaac. He is the son whom Sarah will have at this same time next year." <sup>22</sup>After God finished talking with Abraham, God rose and left him.

<sup>23</sup>Then Abraham gathered Ishmael and all the males born in his camp. He also gathered the slaves he had bought. So that day Abraham circumcised every man and boy in his camp. This was what God had told him to do. <sup>24</sup>Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised. <sup>25</sup>And Ishmael, his son, was 13 years old when he was circumcised. <sup>26</sup>Abraham and his son were circumcised on that same day. <sup>27</sup>Also on that day all the men in Abraham's camp were circumcised. This included all those born in his camp and all the slaves he had bought from other nations.

The Three Visitors

18 Later, the Lord again appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre. At that time Abraham was sitting at the door of his tent. It was during the hottest part of the day. <sup>2</sup>He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When Abraham saw them, he ran from his tent to meet them. He bowed facedown on the ground before them. <sup>3</sup>Abraham said, "Sir, if you think well of me, please stay awhile with me, your servant. <sup>4</sup>I will bring some water so all of you can wash your feet. You may rest under the tree. <sup>5</sup>I will get some bread for you, so you can regain your strength. Then you may continue your journey."

The three men said, "That is fine. Do as you said."

"There, in the tent," said Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said, "I will certainly return to you about this time a year from now. At that time your wife Sarah will have a son."

Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent which was behind him. <sup>11</sup>Abraham and Sarah were very old. Sarah was past the age when women normally have children. <sup>12</sup>So she laughed to herself, "My husband and I are too old to have a baby."

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, 'I am too old to have a baby'? <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for the Lord? No! I will return to you at the right time a year from now. And Sarah will have a son."

But the Lord said, "No. You did laugh."

<sup>16</sup>Then the men got up to leave and started out toward Sodom. Abraham walked along with them a short time to send them on their way.

Abraham's Bargain with God

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said, "Should I tell Abraham what I am going to do now? <sup>18</sup>Abraham's children will certainly become a great and powerful nation. And all nations on earth will be blessed through him. <sup>19</sup>I have chosen him so he would command his children and his descendants<sup>d</sup> to live the way the Lord wants them to. I did this so they would live right and be fair. Then I, the Lord, will give Abraham what I promised him."

<sup>20</sup>Then the Lord said, "I have heard many things against the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. They are very evil. <sup>21</sup>So I will go down and see if they are as bad as I have heard."

ham asked, "Lord, do you plan to destroy the good persons along with the evil persons? <sup>24</sup>What if there are 50 good people in that city? Will you still destroy it? Surely you will save the city for the 50 good people living there. <sup>25</sup>Surely you will not destroy the good people along with the evil people. Then the good people and the evil people would be treated the same. You are the judge of all the earth. Won't you do what is right?"

<sup>26</sup>Then the Lord said, "If I find 50 good people in the city of Sodom, I will save the whole city because of them."

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham said, "I am only dust and ashes. Yet I have been brave to speak to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>What if there are only 45 good people in the city? Will you destroy the whole city for the lack of 5 good people?"

The Lord said, "If I find 45 good people there, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>29</sup>Again Abraham said to the Lord, "If you find only 40 good people there, will you destroy the city?"

The Lord said, "If I find 40 good people, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>30</sup>Then Abraham said, "Lord, please don't be angry with me. Let me ask you this. If you find only 30 good people in the city, will you destroy it?"

<sup>31</sup>Then Abraham said, "I have been brave to speak to the Lord. But what if there are 20 good people in the city?"

The Lord answered, "If I find 20 good people there, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>32</sup>Then Abraham said, "Lord, please don't be angry with me. Let me bother you this one last time. What if you find 10 good people there?"

The Lord said, "If I find 10 good people there, I will not destroy it."

Lot Leaves Sodom

19 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening. Lot was sitting near the city gate and saw them. He got up and went to them and bowed facedown on the ground. <sup>2</sup>Lot said, "Sirs, please come to my house and spend the night. There you can wash your feet. Then tomorrow you may continue your journey."

The angels answered, "No, we will spend the night in the city's public square."

<sup>3</sup>But Lot begged them to come to his house. So they agreed and went to his house. Then Lot prepared a meal for them. He baked bread without yeast, and they ate it.

<sup>4</sup>Before bedtime, all the men of the city surrounded Lot's house. These men were both young and old and came from every part of Sodom. <sup>5</sup>They called to Lot, "Where are the two men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us. We want to have sexual relations with them."

<sup>6</sup>Lot went outside to them, closing the door behind him. <sup>7</sup>He said, "No, my brothers! Do not do this evil thing. <sup>8</sup>Look! I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. I will give them to you. You may do anything you want with them. But please don't do anything to these men. They have come to my house, and I must protect them."

<sup>9</sup>The men around the house answered, "Move out of the way!" Then they said to each other, "This man Lot came to our city as a stranger. Now he wants to tell us what to do!" They said to Lot, "We will do worse things to you than to them." So they started pushing Lot back. They were ready to break down the door.

<sup>10</sup>But the two men staying with Lot opened the door and pulled him back inside the house. Then they closed the door. <sup>11</sup>The two men struck the men outside the door with blindness. So these men, both young and old, could not find the door.

<sup>12</sup>The two men said to Lot, "Do you have any other relatives in this city? Do you have any sons-in-law, sons, daughters or any other relatives? If you do, tell them to leave now. <sup>13</sup>We are about to destroy this city. The Lord has heard of all the evil that is here. So he has sent us to destroy it."

<sup>14</sup>So Lot went out and spoke to his future sons-in-law. They were pledged to marry his daughters. Lot said, "Hurry and leave this city! The Lord is about to destroy it!" But they thought Lot was joking.

<sup>15</sup>At dawn the next morning, the angels begged Lot to hurry. They said, "Go! Take your wife and your two daughters with you. Then you will not be destroyed when the city is punished."

<sup>16</sup>But Lot delayed. So the two men took the hands of Lot, his wife and his two daughters. The men led them safely out of the city. So the Lord was merciful to Lot and his family. <sup>17</sup>The two men brought Lot and his family out of the city. Then one of the men said, "Run for your lives! Don't look back or stop anywhere in the valley. Run to the mountains or you will be destroyed."

<sup>18</sup>But Lot said to one of them, "Sir, please don't force me to go so far! <sup>19</sup>You have been merciful and kind to me. You have saved my life. But I can't run to the mountains. The disaster will catch me, and I will die. <sup>20</sup>Look, that little town over there is not too far away. Let me run there. It's really just a little town. I'll be safe there."

<sup>21</sup>The angel said to Lot, "Very well, I will allow you to do this also. I will not destroy that town. <sup>22</sup>But run there fast. I cannot destroy Sodom until you are safely in that town." (That town is named Zoar,<sup>a</sup> because it is little.)

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

<sup>23</sup>The sun had already come up when Lot entered Zoar. <sup>24</sup>The Lord sent a rain of burning sulfur down from the sky on Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>25</sup>So the Lord destroyed those cities. He also destroyed the whole Jordan Valley, everyone living in the cities and even all the plants.

<sup>27</sup>Early the next morning, Abraham got up and went to the place where he had stood before the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Abraham looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the Jordan Valley. He saw smoke rising from the land. It was like smoke from a furnace.

<sup>29</sup>God destroyed the cities in the valley. But he remembered what Abraham had asked. So God saved Lot's life. But he destroyed the city where Lot had lived.

Lot and His Daughters

<sup>30</sup>Lot was afraid to continue living in Zoar. So he and his two daughters went to live in the mountains. They lived in a cave there. <sup>31</sup>One day the older daughter said to the younger, "Our father is old. Everywhere on the earth women and men marry. But there are no men around here for us to marry. <sup>32</sup>Let's get our father drunk. Then we can have sexual relations with him. We can use our father to have children. That way we can continue our family."

<sup>33</sup>That night the two girls got their father drunk. Then the older daughter went and had sexual relations with him. But Lot did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

with my father. Let's get him drunk again tonight. Then you can go and have sexual relations with him, too. In this way we can use our father to have children to continue our family."

<sup>35</sup>So that night they got their father drunk again. Then the younger daughter went and had sexual relations with him. Again, Lot did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>36</sup>So both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father. <sup>37</sup>The older daughter gave birth to a son. She named him Moab. Moab is the ancestor of all the Moabite people who are still living today. <sup>38</sup>The younger daughter also gave birth to a son. She named him Ben-Ammi. He is the father of all the Ammonite people who are still living today.

Abraham Tricks Abimelech

20 Abraham left Hebron and traveled to southern Canaan. He stayed awhile between Kadesh and Shur. Then he moved to Gerar. <sup>2</sup>Abraham told people that his wife Sarah was his sister. Abimelech king of Gerar heard this. So he sent some servants to take her. <sup>3</sup>But one night God spoke to Abimelech in a dream. God said, "You will die. That woman you took is married."

<sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not slept with Sarah. So he said, "Lord, would you destroy an innocent nation? <sup>5</sup>Abraham himself told me, 'This woman is my sister.' And she also said, 'He is my brother.' I am innocent. I did not know I was doing anything wrong."

<sup>6</sup>Then God said to Abimelech in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did not realize what you were doing. So I did not allow you to sin against me. I did not allow you to sleep with her. <sup>7</sup>Give Abraham his wife back. He is a prophet. <sup>8</sup>He will pray for you, and you will not die. But if you do not give Sarah back, you will die. And all your family will surely die."

<sup>9</sup>So early the next morning, Abimelech called all his officers. He told them everything that had happened in the dream. They were very much afraid. <sup>10</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham to him. Abimelech said, "What have you done to us? What wrong did I do against you? Why did you bring this trouble to my kingdom? You should not have done these things to me. <sup>11</sup>What were you thinking that caused you to do this?"

is true that she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father. But she is not the daughter of my mother. <sup>14</sup>God told me to leave my father's house and wander in many different places. When that happened, I told Sarah, 'You must do a special favor for me. Everywhere we go tell people I am your brother.'

<sup>17</sup>Abimelech said to Sarah, "I gave your brother Abraham 25 pounds of silver. I did this to make up for any wrong that people may think about you. I want everyone to know that you are innocent."

<sup>18</sup>Then Abraham prayed to God. And God healed Abimelech, his wife and his servant girls. Now they could have children. <sup>19</sup>The Lord had kept all the women in Abimelech's house from having children. This was God's punishment on Abimelech for taking Abraham's wife Sarah.

A Baby for Sarah

21 The Lord cared for Sarah as he had said. He did for her what he had promised. <sup>2</sup>Sarah became pregnant. And she gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age. Everything happened at the time God had said it would. <sup>3</sup>Abraham named his son Isaac. Sarah gave birth to this son of Abraham. <sup>4</sup>Abraham circumcised<sup>a</sup> Isaac when he was eight days old as God had commanded.

<sup>5</sup>Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born. <sup>6</sup>And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. <sup>7</sup>Everyone who hears about this will laugh with me. <sup>8</sup>No one thought that I would be able to have Abraham's child. But I have given Abraham a son while he is old."

Hagar and Ishmael Leave

and the slave woman. Do whatever Sarah tells you. The descendants<sup>d</sup> I promised you will be from Isaac. <sup>13</sup>I will also make the descendants of Ishmael into a great nation. I will do this because he is your son, too."

<sup>14</sup>Early the next morning Abraham took some food and a leather bag full of water. He gave them to Hagar and sent her away. Hagar carried these things and her son. She went and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.

<sup>15</sup>Later, all the water was gone from the bag. So Hagar put her son under a bush. <sup>16</sup>Then she went away a short distance and sat down. Hagar thought, "My son will die. I cannot watch this happen." She sat there and began to cry.

<sup>17</sup>God heard the boy crying. And God's angel called to Hagar from heaven. He said, "What is wrong, Hagar? Don't be afraid! God has heard the boy crying there. <sup>18</sup>Help the boy up. Take him by the hand. I will make his descendants into a great nation."

<sup>19</sup>Then God showed Hagar a well of water. So she went to the well and filled her bag with water. Then she gave the boy a drink.

<sup>20</sup>God was with the boy as he grew up. Ishmael lived in the desert and learned to shoot with a bow very well. <sup>21</sup>He lived in the Desert of Paran. His mother found a wife for him in Egypt.

Abraham's Bargain with Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>Then Abimelech came with Phicol, the commander of Abimelech's army. They said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do. <sup>23</sup>So make a promise to me here before God. Promise that you will be fair with me and my children and my descendants.<sup>d</sup> Be kind to me and to this land where you have lived as a stranger. Be as kind to me as I have been to you."

from me. That will prove that you believe I dug this well."

<sup>31</sup>So that place was called Beersheba<sup>a</sup> because they made a promise to each other there.

<sup>33</sup>Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba. There Abraham prayed to the Lord, the God who lives forever. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham lived as a stranger in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

God Tests Abraham

22 After these things God tested Abraham's faith. God said to him, "Abraham!"

And he answered, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup>Then God said, "Take your only son, Isaac, the son you love. Go to the land of Moriah. There kill him and offer him as a whole burnt offering. Do this on one of the mountains I will tell you about."

<sup>3</sup>Early in the morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took Isaac and two servants with him. He cut the wood for the sacrifice. Then they went to the place God had told them to go. <sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. <sup>5</sup>He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey. My son and I will go over there and worship. Then we will come back to you."

<sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood for the sacrifice and gave it to his son to carry. Abraham took the knife and the fire. So he and his son went on together.

Abraham answered, "Yes, my son."

Isaac said, "We have the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb we will burn as a sacrifice?"

So Abraham and his son went on together. <sup>9</sup>They came to the place God had told him about. There, Abraham built an altar. He laid the wood on it. Then he tied up his son Isaac. And he laid Isaac on the wood on the altar. <sup>10</sup>Then Abraham took his knife and was about to kill his son.

Abraham answered, "Yes."

<sup>12</sup>The angel said, "Don't kill your son or hurt him in any way. Now I can see that you respect God. I see that you have not kept your son, your only son, from me."

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham looked up and saw a male sheep. Its horns were caught in a bush. So Abraham went and took the sheep and killed it. He offered it as a whole burnt offering to God. Abraham's son was saved. <sup>14</sup>So Abraham named that place The Lord Gives. Even today people say, "On the mountain of the Lord it will be given."

<sup>15</sup>The angel of the Lord called to Abraham from heaven a second time. <sup>16</sup>The angel said, "The Lord says, 'You did not keep back your son, your only son, from me. Because you did this, I make you this promise by my own name: <sup>17</sup>I will surely bless you and give you many descendants.<sup>d</sup> They will be as many as the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. And they will capture the cities of their enemies. <sup>18</sup>Through your descendants all the nations on the earth will be blessed. This is because you obeyed me.'"

Sarah Dies

23 Sarah lived to be 127 years old. <sup>2</sup>She died in Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. Abraham was very sad and cried because of her. <sup>3</sup>After a while Abraham got up from the side of his wife's body. And he went to talk to the Hittites. He said, <sup>4</sup>"I am only a stranger and a foreigner here. Sell me some of your land so that I can bury my dead wife."

<sup>5</sup>The Hittites answered Abraham, <sup>6</sup>"Sir, you are a great leader among us. You may have the best place we have to bury your dead. You may have any of our burying places that you want.

None of us will stop you from burying your dead wife."

<sup>7</sup>Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, the Hittites. <sup>8</sup>Abraham said to them, "If you truly want to help me bury my dead wife here, speak to Ephron for me. He is the son of Zohar. <sup>9</sup>Ask him to sell me the cave of Machpelah. It is at the edge of his field. I will pay him the full price. You can be the witnesses that I am buying it as a burial place."

<sup>12</sup>Then Abraham bowed down before the Hittites. <sup>13</sup>He said to Ephron before all the people, "Please let me pay you the full price for the field. Accept my money, and I will bury my dead there."

A Wife for Isaac

24 Abraham was now very old. The Lord had blessed him in every way. <sup>2</sup>Abraham's oldest servant was in charge of everything Abraham owned. Abraham called that servant to him and said, "Put your hand under my leg.<sup>n</sup> <sup>3</sup>Make a promise to me before the Lord, the God of heaven and earth. Don't get a wife for my son from the Canaanite girls who live around here. <sup>4</sup>Instead, go back to my country, to the land of my relatives. Get a wife for my son Isaac from there."

<sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, "What if this woman does not want to return with me to this land? Then, should I take your son with me back to your homeland?"

<sup>6</sup>Abraham said to him, "No! Don't take my son back there. <sup>7</sup>The Lord is the God of heaven. He brought me from the home of my father and the land of my relatives. But the Lord promised me, 'I will give this land to your descendants.'<sup>4</sup> The Lord will send his angel before you. The angel will help you get a wife for my son there. <sup>8</sup>But if the girl won't come back with you, you will be free from this promise. But you must not take my son back there."<sup>9</sup> So the servant put his hand under his master's leg and made a promise to Abraham about this.

<sup>12</sup>The servant said, "Lord, you are the God of my master Abraham. Allow me to find a wife for his son today. Please show this kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Here I am, standing by the spring of water. The girls from the city are coming out to get water. <sup>14</sup>I will say to one of the girls, 'Please put your jar down so I can drink.' Then let her say, 'Drink, and I will also give water to your camels.' If that happens, I will know she is the right one for your servant Isaac. And I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

one-fifth of an ounce. He also gave her two gold arm bracelets weighing about four ounces each. <sup>23</sup>The servant asked, "Who is your father? Is there a place in his house for me and my men to spend the night?"

<sup>24</sup>Rebekah answered, "My father is Bethuel, the son of Milcah and Nahor."<sup>25</sup> Then she said, "And, yes, we have straw for your camels. We have a place for you to spend the night."

<sup>26</sup>The servant bowed and worshiped the Lord. <sup>27</sup>He said, "Blessed is the Lord, the God of my master Abraham. The Lord has been kind and truthful to him. He has led me to my master's relatives."

<sup>28</sup>Then Rebekah ran and told her mother's family about all these things. <sup>29</sup>She had a brother named Laban. He ran out to Abraham's servant, who was still at the spring. <sup>30</sup>Laban had heard what she had said. And he had seen the ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms. So he ran out to the well. And there was the man standing by the camels at the spring. <sup>31</sup>Laban said, "Sir, you are welcome to come in. You don't have to stand outside. I have prepared the house for you and also a place for your camels."

<sup>32</sup>So Abraham's servant went into the house. Laban unloaded the camels and gave them straw and food. Then Laban gave water to Abraham's servant so he and the men with him could wash their feet. <sup>33</sup>Then Laban gave the servant food. But the servant said, "I will not eat until I have told you why I came."

So Laban said, "Then tell us."

<sup>34</sup>He said, "I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>The Lord has greatly blessed my master in everything. My master has become a rich man. The Lord has given him many flocks of sheep and herds of cattle. He has given Abraham silver and gold, male and female servants, camels and horses. <sup>36</sup>Sarah, my master's wife, gave birth to a son when she was old. My master has given everything he owns to that son. <sup>37</sup>My master had me make a promise to him. He said, 'Don't get a wife for my son from the Canaanite girls who live around here. <sup>38</sup>Instead you must go to my father's people and to my family. There you must get a wife for my son.'<sup>39</sup> I said to my master, 'What if the woman will not come back with me?' <sup>40</sup>But he said, 'I serve the Lord. He will send his angel with you and will help you. You will get a wife for my son from my family and my father's people. <sup>41</sup>Then you will be free from the promise. Or if they will not give you a wife for my son, you will be free from this promise.'

God of my master Abraham, please make my trip successful. <sup>43</sup>Look, I am standing by this spring of water. I will wait for a young woman to come out to get water. Then I will say, "Please give me water from your jar to drink." <sup>44</sup>Then let her say, "Drink this water. I will also get water for your camels." By this I will know the Lord has chosen her for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup>"Before I finished my silent prayer, Rebekah came out of the city. She had her water jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and got water. I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' <sup>46</sup>She quickly lowered the jar from her shoulder. She said, 'Drink this. I will also get water for your camels.' So I drank, and she gave water to my camels also. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, 'Who is your father?' She answered, 'My father is Bethuel son of Milcah and Nahor.' Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms. <sup>48</sup>At that time I bowed my head and thanked the Lord. I praised the Lord, the God of my master Abraham. I thanked him because he led me on the right road to get the granddaughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup>Now, tell me, will you be kind and truthful to my master? And if not, tell me so. Then I will know what I should do."

<sup>52</sup>When Abraham's servant heard these words, he bowed facedown on the ground before the Lord. <sup>53</sup>Then the servant gave Rebekah gold and silver jewelry and clothes. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and mother. <sup>54</sup>The servant and the men with him ate and drank. And they spent the night there. When they got up the next morning, the servant said, "Now let me go back to my master."

<sup>56</sup>But the servant said to them, "Do not make me wait. The Lord has made my trip successful. Now let me go back to my master."

<sup>57</sup>Rebekah's brother and mother said, "We will call Rebekah and ask her what she wants to do." <sup>58</sup>They called her and asked her, "Do you want to go with this man now?"

She said, "Yes, I do."

"Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of people.

And may your descendants<sup>d</sup> capture the cities of their enemies."

<sup>66</sup>The servant told Isaac everything that had happened. <sup>67</sup>Then Isaac brought Rebekah into the tent of Sarah, his mother. And she became his wife. Isaac loved her very much. So he was comforted after his mother's death.

Abraham's Family

25 Abraham married again. His new wife was Keturah. <sup>2</sup>She gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah. <sup>3</sup>Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. Dedan's descendants<sup>d</sup> were the people of Assyria, Letush and Leum. <sup>4</sup>The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were descendants of Keturah. <sup>5</sup>Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac. <sup>6</sup>But before Abraham died, he did give gifts to the sons of his other wives. Abraham sent them to the East to be away from Isaac.

stretching toward Assyria. Ishmael's descendants often attacked the descendants of his brothers.

Isaac's Family

<sup>19</sup>This is the family history of Isaac. Abraham had a son named Isaac. <sup>20</sup>When Isaac was 40 years old, he married Rebekah. Rebekah was from Northwest Mesopotamia. She was Bethuel's daughter and the sister of Laban the Aramean. <sup>21</sup>Isaac's wife could not have children. So Isaac prayed to the Lord for her. The Lord heard Isaac's prayer, and Rebekah became pregnant.

<sup>22</sup>While she was pregnant, the babies struggled inside her. She asked, "Why is this happening to me?" Then she went to get an answer from the Lord.

"Two nations are in your body.

Two groups of people will be taken from you.

One group will be stronger than the other. The older will serve the younger."

<sup>32</sup>Esau said, "I am almost dead from hunger. If I die, all of my father's wealth will not help me."

<sup>33</sup>But Jacob said, "First, promise me that you will give it to me." So Esau made a promise to Jacob. In this way he sold his part of their father's wealth to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob gave Esau bread and vegetable soup. Esau ate and drank and then left. So Esau showed how little he cared about his rights as the firstborn son.

Isaac Lies to Abimelech

26 Once there was a time of hunger in the land. This was besides the time of hunger that happened during Abraham's life. So Isaac went to the town of Gerar to see Abimelech king of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>The Lord appeared to Isaac and said, "Don't go down to Egypt. Live in the land where I tell you to live. <sup>3</sup>Stay in this land, and I will be with you. I will bless you. I will give you and your descendants<sup>d</sup> all these lands. I will keep the agreement I made to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup>I will give you many descendants. They will be as hard to count as the stars in the sky. And I will give them all these lands. Through your descendants all the nations on the earth will be blessed. <sup>5</sup>I will do this because your father Abraham obeyed me. He did what I said. He obeyed my commands, my teachings and my rules."

<sup>6</sup>So Isaac stayed in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>Isaac's wife Rebekah was very beautiful. The men of that place asked Isaac about her. Isaac said, "She is my sister." He was afraid to tell them she was his wife. He thought they might kill him so they could have her.

<sup>8</sup>Isaac lived there a long time. One day as Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out his window, he saw Isaac. Isaac was holding his wife Rebekah tenderly. <sup>9</sup>Abimelech called for Isaac and said, "This woman is your wife. Why did you say she was your sister?"

Isaac said to him, "I was afraid you would kill me so you could have her."

<sup>10</sup>Abimelech said, "What have you done to us? One of our men might have had sexual relations with your wife. Then we would have been guilty of a great sin."

<sup>11</sup>So Abimelech warned everyone. He said, "Anyone who touches this man or his wife will be put to death."

Isaac Becomes Rich

<sup>n</sup>rights . . . son Usually the firstborn son had a high rank in the family. The firstborn son usually became the new head of the family.

very rich man. <sup>14</sup>He had so many slaves and flocks and herds that the Philistines envied him. <sup>15</sup>So they stopped up all the wells the servants of Isaac's father Abraham had dug. (They had dug them when Abraham was alive.) The Philistines filled those wells with dirt. <sup>16</sup>And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Leave our country. You have become much more powerful than we are."

<sup>17</sup>So Isaac left that place. He camped in the Valley of Gerar and lived there. <sup>18</sup>Long before this time Abraham had dug many wells. After Abraham died, the Philistines filled them with dirt. So Isaac dug those wells again. He gave them the same names his father had given them. <sup>19</sup>Isaac's servants dug a well in the valley. From it a spring of water flowed. <sup>20</sup>But the men who herded sheep in Gerar argued with Isaac's servants. They said, "This water is ours." So Isaac named that well Argue because they argued with him. <sup>21</sup>Then Isaac's servants dug another well. The people also argued about it. So Isaac named that well Fight. <sup>22</sup>Isaac moved from there and dug another well. No one argued about this one. So he named that well Room Enough. Isaac said, "Now the Lord has made room for us. We will be successful in this land."

<sup>23</sup>From there Isaac went to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>The Lord appeared to Isaac that night. The Lord said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Don't be afraid because I am with you. I will bless you and give you many descendants. <sup>4</sup>I will do this because of my servant Abraham." <sup>25</sup>So Isaac built an altar and worshiped the Lord there. He made a camp there, and his servants dug a well.

<sup>26</sup>Abimelech came from Gerar to see Isaac. Abimelech brought with him Ahuzzath, who advised him, and Phicol, the commander of his army. <sup>27</sup>Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to see me? You were my enemy. You forced me to leave your country."

<sup>28</sup>They answered, "Now we know that the Lord is with you. We will make a promise to you. And we would like you to make one to us. We would like to make an agreement with you. <sup>29</sup>We did not hurt you. So promise you will not hurt us. And we were good to you, and we sent you away in peace. Now the Lord has blessed you."

<sup>30</sup>So Isaac prepared food for them, and they all ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>Early the next morning the men made a promise to each other. Then Isaac sent them away, and they left in peace.

<sup>32</sup>That day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We found water in that well." <sup>33</sup>So Isaac named it Shibah.<sup>a</sup> And that city is still called Beersheba even now.

<sup>34</sup>When Esau was 40 years old, he married two Hittite women. One was Judith daughter of Beeri. The other was Basemath daughter of Elon. <sup>35</sup>These women brought much sorrow to Isaac and Rebekah.

Jacob Tricks Isaac

27 When Isaac was old, his eyes were not good. He could not see clearly. One day he called his older son Esau to him. Isaac said, "Son."

Esau answered, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup>Isaac said, "I am old. I don't know when I might die. <sup>3</sup>So take your bow and arrows, and go hunting in the field. Kill an animal for me to eat. <sup>4</sup>Prepare the tasty food that I love. Bring it to me, and I will eat. Then I will bless you before I die." <sup>5</sup>So Esau went out in the field to hunt.

Rebekah was listening as Isaac said this to his son Esau. <sup>6</sup>Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Listen, I heard your father talking to your brother Esau. <sup>7</sup>Your father said, 'Kill an animal. Prepare some tasty food for me to eat. Then I will bless you before the Lord before I die.' <sup>8</sup>So obey me, my son. Do what I tell you. <sup>9</sup>Go out to our goats and bring me two young ones. I will prepare them just the way your father likes them. <sup>10</sup>Then you will take the food to your father. And he will bless you before he dies."

<sup>11</sup>But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "My brother Esau is a hairy man. I am smooth! <sup>12</sup>If my father touches me, he will know I am not Esau. Then he will not bless me. He will place a curse on me because I tried to trick him."

<sup>13</sup>So Rebekah said to him, "If your father puts a curse on you, I will accept the blame. Just do what I said. Go and get the goats for me."

<sup>14</sup>So Jacob went out and got two goats and brought them to his mother. Then she cooked them in the special way Isaac enjoyed. <sup>15</sup>She took the best clothes of her older son Esau that were in the house. She put them on the younger son Jacob. <sup>16</sup>She took the skins of the goats. And she put them on Jacob's hands and neck. <sup>17</sup>Then she gave Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

And his father said, "Yes, my son. Who are you?"

<sup>19</sup>Jacob said to him, "I am Esau, your first son. I have done what you told me. Now sit up and eat some meat of the animal I hunted for you. Then bless me."

<sup>20</sup>But Isaac asked his son, "How did you find and kill the animal so quickly?"

Jacob answered, "Because the Lord your God led me to find it."

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near so I can touch you, my son. If I can touch you, I will know if you are really my son Esau."

<sup>22</sup>So Jacob came near to Isaac his father. Isaac touched him and said, "Your voice sounds like Jacob's voice. But your hands are hairy like the hands of Esau." <sup>23</sup>Isaac did not know it was Jacob, because his hands were hairy like Esau's hands. So Isaac blessed Jacob. <sup>24</sup>Isaac asked, "Are you really my son Esau?"

Jacob answered, "Yes, I am."

<sup>25</sup>Then Isaac said, "Bring me the food. I will eat it and bless you." So Jacob gave him the food, and Isaac ate. Jacob gave him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup>Then Isaac said to him, "My son, come near and kiss me." <sup>27</sup>So Jacob went to his father and kissed him. Isaac smelled Esau's clothes and blessed him. Isaac said,

"The smell of my son is like the smell of the field that the Lord has blessed.

<sup>28</sup>May God give you plenty of rain and good soil.

Then you will have plenty of grain and wine.

<sup>29</sup>May nations serve you.

May peoples bow down to you.

May you be master over your brothers.

May your mother's sons bow down to you.

May everyone who curses you be cursed.

And may everyone who blesses you be blessed."

<sup>30</sup>Isaac finished blessing Jacob. Then, just as Jacob left his father Isaac, Esau came in from hunting. <sup>31</sup>Esau also prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. He said, "Father, rise and eat the food that your son killed for you. Then bless me."

<sup>32</sup>Isaac asked, "Who are you?"

He answered, "I am your son—your first-born<sup>d</sup> son—Esau."

<sup>33</sup>Then Isaac trembled greatly. He said, "Then who was it that hunted the animals and brought me food before you came? I ate it, and I blessed him. And it is too late now to take back my blessing."

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he let out a loud and bitter cry. He said to his father, "Bless me—me, too, my father!"

<sup>35</sup>But Isaac said, "Your brother came and tricked me. He has taken your blessing."

<sup>36</sup>Esau said, "Jacob<sup>a</sup> is the right name for him. He has tricked me these two times. He took away my share of everything you own. And now he has taken away my blessing." Then Esau asked, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup>Isaac answered, "I gave Jacob the power to be master over you. And all his brothers will be his servants. And I kept him strong with grain and wine. There is nothing left to give you, my son."

<sup>39</sup>Isaac said to him,

"You will live far away from the best land, far from the rain.

<sup>40</sup>You will live by using your sword and be a slave to your brother.

But when you struggle, you will break free from him."

<sup>41</sup>After that Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing from Isaac. Esau thought to himself, "My father will soon die, and I will be sad for him. After that I will kill Jacob."

<sup>42</sup>Rebekah heard about Esau's plan to kill Jacob. So she sent for Jacob. She said to him, "Listen, your brother Esau is comforting himself by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup>So, son, do what I say. My brother Laban is living in Haran. Go to him at once! <sup>44</sup>Stay with him for a while, until your brother is not so angry. <sup>45</sup>In time, your brother will not be angry. He will forget what you did to him. Then I will send a servant to bring you back. I don't want to lose both of my sons on the same day."

<sup>46</sup>Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am tired of Hittite women. If Jacob marries one of these Hittite women here in this land, I want to die."

Jacob Searches for a Wife

28 Isaac called Jacob and blessed him. Then Isaac commanded him, "You must not marry a Canaanite woman. <sup>2</sup>Go to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, in Northwest Mesopotamia. Laban, your mother's brother, lives there. Marry one of his daughters. <sup>3</sup>May God All-Powerful bless you and give you many children. May you become the father of many peoples. <sup>4</sup>May the Lord give you and your descendants<sup>a</sup> the blessing of Abraham. Then you may own the land where you are now living as a stranger. This is the land God gave to Abraham." <sup>5</sup>So Isaac sent Jacob to Northwest Mesopotamia. Jacob went to Laban, the brother of Rebekah. Bethuel, the Aramean, was the father of Laban and Rebekah. And Rebekah was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>6</sup>Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him to Northwest Mesopotamia to find a wife there. Esau also learned that Isaac had commanded Jacob not to marry a Canaanite woman. <sup>7</sup>And Esau learned that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother. He had gone to Northwest Mesopotamia. <sup>8</sup>So Esau saw that his father Isaac did not want his sons to marry Canaanite women. <sup>9</sup>Now Esau already had wives. But he went to Ishmael son of Abraham. And he married Mahalath, Ishmael's daughter. Mahalath was the sister of Nebaioth.

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

<sup>10</sup>Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran. <sup>11</sup>He came to a place and spent the night there because the sun had set. He found a stone there and laid his head on it to go to sleep. <sup>12</sup>Jacob dreamed that there was a ladder resting on the earth and reaching up into heaven. And he saw angels of God going up and coming down the ladder. <sup>13</sup>And then Jacob saw the Lord standing above the ladder. The Lord said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham, your grandfather. And I am the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants<sup>a</sup> the land on which you are now sleeping. <sup>14</sup>Your descendants will be as many as the dust of the earth. They will spread west and east, north and south. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you and your descendants. <sup>15</sup>I am with you, and I will protect you everywhere you go. And I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob woke from his sleep. He said, "Surely the Lord is in this place. But I did not know it." <sup>17</sup>Jacob was afraid. He said, "This place frightens me! It is surely the house of God and the gate of heaven."

<sup>18</sup>Jacob rose early in the morning. He took the stone he had slept on and set it up on its end. Then he poured olive oil on the top of it. <sup>19</sup>At first, the name of that city was Luz. But Jacob named it Bethel.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Then Jacob made a promise. He said, "I want God to be with me and protect me on this journey. I want God to give me food to eat and clothes to wear. <sup>21</sup>Then I will be able to return in peace to my father's house. If the Lord does these things, he will be my God. <sup>22</sup>This stone which I have set up on its end will be the house of God. And I will give God one-tenth of all he gives me."

Jacob Arrives in Northwest Mesopotamia

29 Then Jacob continued his journey. He came to the land of the people of the East. <sup>2</sup>He looked and saw a well in the field. Three flocks of sheep were lying nearby, because they drank water from this well. A large stone covered the mouth of the well. <sup>3</sup>All the flocks would gather there. The shepherds would roll the stone away from the well and water the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place.

<sup>4</sup>Jacob said to the shepherds there, "My brothers, where are you from?"

They answered, "We are from Haran."

They answered, "We know him."

They answered, "He is well. Look, his daughter Rachel is coming now with his sheep."

<sup>7</sup>Jacob said, "But look, it is still the middle part of the day. It is not time for the sheep to be gathered for the night. So give them water and let them go back into the pasture."

<sup>8</sup>But they said, "We cannot do that until all the flocks are gathered. Then we will roll away the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep."

<sup>9</sup>While Jacob was talking with the shepherds, Rachel came with her father's sheep. It was her job to take care of the sheep. <sup>10</sup>Then Jacob saw Laban's daughter Rachel and Laban's sheep. So he went to the well and rolled the stone from its mouth. Then he watered Laban's sheep. Now Laban was the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's mother. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed Rachel and cried. <sup>12</sup>He told her that he was from her father's family. He said that he was the son of Rebekah. So Rachel ran home and told her father.

ter's son Jacob, Laban ran to meet him. Laban hugged him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban everything that had happened.

Jacob Is Tricked

So Jacob stayed there a month. <sup>15</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, "You are my relative. But it is not right for you to keep on working for me without pay. What would you like me to pay you?"

<sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters. The older was Leah, and the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>Leah had weak eyes, but Rachel was very beautiful. <sup>18</sup>Jacob loved Rachel. So he said to Laban, "Let me marry your younger daughter Rachel. If you will, I will work seven years for you."

<sup>19</sup>Laban said, "It would be better for her to marry you than someone else. So stay here with me." <sup>20</sup>So Jacob worked for Laban seven years so he could marry Rachel. But they seemed to him like just a few days. This was because he loved Rachel very much.

<sup>21</sup>After seven years Jacob said to Laban, "Give me Rachel so that I may marry her. The time I promised to work for you is over."

<sup>26</sup>Laban said, "In our country we do not allow the younger daughter to marry before the older daughter. <sup>27</sup>But complete the full week of the marriage ceremony with Leah. I will give you Rachel to marry also. But you must serve me another seven years."

<sup>28</sup>So Jacob did this and completed the week with Leah. Then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife. <sup>29</sup>(Laban gave his slave girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her servant.) <sup>30</sup>So Jacob had sexual relations with Rachel also. And Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. Jacob worked for Laban for another seven years.

Jacob's Family Grows

<sup>31</sup>The Lord saw that Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. So the Lord made it possible for Leah to have children. But Rachel did not have any children. <sup>32</sup>Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben,<sup>a</sup> because she said, "The Lord has seen my troubles. Surely now my husband will love me."

<sup>33</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She named him Simeon.<sup>a</sup> She said, "The Lord has heard that I am not loved. So he gave me this son."

<sup>34</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She named him Levi.<sup>a</sup> Leah said, "Now, surely my husband will be close to me. I have given him three sons."

<sup>35</sup>Then Leah gave birth to another son. She named him Judah.<sup>a</sup> Leah named him this because she said, "Now I will praise the Lord." Then Leah stopped having children.

30 Rachel saw that she was not giving birth to children for Jacob. So she envied her sister Leah. Rachel said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"

<sup>4</sup>So Rachel gave Bilhah, her slave girl, to Jacob as a wife. And he had sexual relations with her. <sup>5</sup>She became pregnant and gave Jacob a son. <sup>6</sup>Rachel said, "God has declared me innocent. He has listened to my prayer and has given me a son." So Rachel named this son Dan.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Bilhah became pregnant again and gave Jacob a second son. <sup>8</sup>Rachel said, "I have struggled hard with my sister. And I have won." So she named that son Naphtali.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Leah saw that she had stopped having children. So she gave her slave girl Zilpah to Jacob as a wife. <sup>10</sup>Then Zilpah had a son. <sup>11</sup>Leah said, "I am lucky." So she named her son Gad.<sup>a</sup>

But Rachel answered, "If you will give me your son's mandrakes, you may sleep with Jacob tonight."

<sup>16</sup>When Jacob came in from the field that night, Leah went out to meet him. She said, "You will have sexual relations with me tonight. I have paid for you with my son's mandrakes." So Jacob slept with her that night.

<sup>17</sup>Then God answered Leah's prayer, and she became pregnant again. She gave birth to a fifth son. <sup>18</sup>Leah said, "God has given me what I paid for, because I gave my slave girl to my husband." So Leah named her son Issachar.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to a sixth son. <sup>20</sup>She said, "God has given me a fine gift. Now surely Jacob will honor me, because I have given him six sons." So Leah named the son Zebulun.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Then God remembered Rachel and answered her prayer. God made it possible for her to have children. <sup>23</sup>She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She said, "God has taken away my shame." <sup>24</sup>She named him Joseph.<sup>n</sup> Rachel said, "I wish the Lord would give me another son."

Jacob Tricks Laban

<sup>25</sup>After the birth of Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Now let me go to my own home and country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children, and let me go. I have earned them by working for you. You know that I served you well."

<sup>27</sup>Laban said to him, "If I have pleased you, please stay. I know the Lord has blessed me because of you. <sup>28</sup>Tell me what I should pay you, and I will give it to you."

<sup>29</sup>Jacob answered, "You know that I have worked hard for you. Your flocks have grown while I cared for them. <sup>30</sup>When I came, you had little. Now you have much. Every time I did something for you, the Lord blessed you. But when will I be able to do something for my own family?"

Jacob answered, "I don't want you to give me anything. Just do this one thing. Then I will come back and take care of your flocks. <sup>32</sup>Today let me go through all your flocks of white sheep and black goats. I will take every spotted or speckled lamb. I will take every black lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. That will be my pay. <sup>33</sup>In the future you can easily see if I am honest. You can come to look at my flocks. If I have any goat that isn't speckled or spotted or any sheep that isn't black, you will know I stole it."

<sup>34</sup>Laban answered, "Agreed! We will do what you ask." <sup>35</sup>But that day Laban took away all the male goats that had streaks or spots. And he took all the speckled and spotted female goats (all those that had white on them). And he took all the black sheep. He told his sons to watch over them. <sup>36</sup>Laban took these animals to a place that was three days' journey away from Jacob. Jacob took care of all the animals that were left.

31 One day Jacob heard Laban's sons talking. They said, "Jacob has taken everything our father owned. Jacob has become rich in this way." <sup>2</sup>Then Jacob noticed that Laban was not as friendly as he had been before. <sup>3</sup>The Lord said to Jacob, "Go back to the land where your ancestors lived. I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob told Rachel and Leah to meet him in the field where he kept his flocks. <sup>5</sup>He said to them, "I have seen that your father is not as friendly with me as he used to be. But the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>You both know that I have worked as hard as I could for your father. <sup>7</sup>But he cheated me. He has changed my pay ten times. But God has not allowed your father to harm me. <sup>8</sup>At one time Laban said, 'You can have all the speckled goats as your pay.' After that, all the animals gave birth to speckled young ones. But then Laban said, 'You can have all the streaked goats as your pay.' After that, all the animals gave birth to streaked babies. <sup>9</sup>So God has taken the animals away from your father. And God has given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>"I had a dream during the season when the animals were mating. I saw that the only male goats who were mating were streaked, speckled or spotted. <sup>11</sup>The angel of God spoke to me in that dream. He said, 'Jacob!' I answered, 'Yes!' <sup>12</sup>The angel said, 'Look! Only the streaked, speckled or spotted goats are mating. I have seen all the wrong things Laban does to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God who appeared to you at Bethel. There you poured olive oil on the stone you set up on end. There you made a promise to me. Now I want you to leave here. Go back to the land where you were born.'"

<sup>14</sup>Rachel and Leah answered Jacob, "Our father has nothing to give us when he dies. <sup>15</sup>He has treated us like strangers. He sold us to you, and then he spent all of the money you paid for us. <sup>16</sup>God took all this wealth from our father, and now it belongs to us and our children. So you do whatever God told you to do."

<sup>19</sup>Laban was gone to cut the wool from his sheep. While he was gone, Rachel stole the idols of false gods that belonged to him. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob tricked Laban the Aramean. He did not tell Laban he was leaving. <sup>21</sup>Jacob and his family left quickly. They crossed the Euphrates River and traveled toward the mountains of Gilead.

<sup>22</sup>Three days later Laban learned that Jacob had run away. <sup>23</sup>So Laban gathered his relatives and began to chase Jacob. After seven days Laban found him in the mountains of Gilead. <sup>24</sup>That night God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream. The Lord said, "Be careful! Do not say anything to Jacob, good or bad."

The Search for the Stolen Idols

<sup>25</sup>So Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had made his camp in the mountains. So Laban and his relatives set up their camp in the mountains of Gilead. <sup>26</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? Why did you trick me? You took my daughters as if you had captured them in a war. <sup>27</sup>Why did you run away without telling me? Why did you trick me? Why didn't you tell me? Then I could send you away with joy and singing. There would be the music of tambourines<sup>d</sup> and harps. <sup>28</sup>You did not even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-bye. You were very foolish to do this! <sup>29</sup>I have the power to harm you. But last night the God of your father spoke to me. He warned me not to say anything to you, good or bad. <sup>30</sup>I know you want to go back to your home. But why did you steal my idols?"

<sup>31</sup>Jacob answered Laban, "I left without telling you, because I was afraid! I thought you would take your daughters away from me. <sup>32</sup>If you find anyone here who has taken your idols, he will be killed! Your relatives will be my witnesses. You may look for anything that belongs to you. Take anything that is yours." (Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen Laban's idols.)

<sup>35</sup>Rachel said to her father, "Father, don't be angry with me. I am not able to stand up before you. I am having my monthly period." So Laban looked through the camp, but he did not find his idols.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob became very angry. He said, "What wrong have I done? What law have I broken to cause you to chase me? <sup>37</sup>You have looked through everything I own. But you have found nothing that belongs to you. If you have found anything, show it to everyone. Put it in front of your relatives and my relatives. Then let them decide which one of us is right. <sup>38</sup>I have worked for you now for 20 years. During all that time none of the lambs and kids died during birth. And I have not eaten any of the male sheep from your flocks. <sup>39</sup>Any time a sheep was killed by wild animals, I did not bring it to you. I made up for the loss myself. You made me pay for any animal that was stolen during the day or night. <sup>40</sup>In the daytime the sun took away my strength. At night I was cold and could not sleep. <sup>41</sup>I worked like a slave for you for 20 years. For the first 14 years I worked to get your two daughters. The last 6 years I worked to earn your animals. And during that time you changed my pay ten times. <sup>42</sup>But the God of my father was with me. He is the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac. If God had not been with me, you would have sent me away with nothing. But he saw the trouble I had and the hard work I did. And last night God corrected you."

Jacob and Laban's Agreement

<sup>43</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "These girls are my daughters. Their children belong to me, and these animals are mine. Everything you see here belongs to me. But I can do nothing to keep my daughters and their children. <sup>44</sup>Let us make an agreement. Let us set up a pile of stones to remind us of our agreement."

<sup>45</sup>So Jacob took a large rock and set it up on its end. <sup>46</sup>He told his relatives to gather rocks. So they took the rocks and piled them up. Then they ate beside the pile of rocks. <sup>47</sup>Laban named that place in his language A Pile to Remind Us. And Jacob gave the place the same name in Hebrew.

<sup>48</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "This pile of rocks will remind us of the agreement between us." That is why the place was called A Pile to Remind Us. <sup>49</sup>It was also called Mizpah. <sup>a</sup>This was because Laban said, "Let the Lord watch over us while we are separated from each other. <sup>50</sup>Remember that God is our witness even if no one else is around us. He will know if you harm my daughters or marry other women. <sup>51</sup>Here is the pile of rocks that I have put between us. And here is the rock I set up on end. <sup>52</sup>This pile of rocks and this rock set on end will remind us of our agreement. I will never go past this pile to hurt you. And you must never come to my side of them to hurt me. <sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham is the God of Nahor and the God of their fathers. Let God punish either of us if we break this agreement."

So Jacob made a promise in the name of the God of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup>Then Jacob killed an animal and offered it as a sacrifice on the mountain. And he invited his relatives to share in the meal. After they finished eating, they spent the night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup>Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters. He blessed them, and then he left to return home.

Jacob Meets Esau

32 When Jacob also went his way, the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup>When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!" So Jacob named that place Mahanaim. <sup>a</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Jacob's brother Esau was living in the area called Seir in the country of Edom. Jacob sent messengers to Esau. <sup>4</sup>Jacob told the messengers, "Give this message to my master Esau: 'This is what Jacob, your servant, says: I have lived with Laban and have remained there until now. <sup>5</sup>I have cattle, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants. I send this message to you and ask you to accept us.'"

<sup>6</sup>The messengers returned to Jacob and said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you. And he has 400 men with him."

<sup>7</sup>Then Jacob was very afraid and worried. He divided the people who were with him into two camps. He also divided all the flocks, herds and camels into two camps. <sup>8</sup>Jacob thought, "Esau might come and destroy one camp. But the other camp can run away and be saved."

<sup>9</sup>Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham! God of my father Isaac! Lord, you told me to return to my country and my family. You said that you would do good to me. <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of the kindness and continual goodness you have shown me. The first time I traveled across the Jordan River, I had only my walking stick. But now I own enough to have two camps. <sup>11</sup>Please save me from my brother Esau. I am afraid he will come and kill all of us, even the mothers with the children. <sup>12</sup>You said to me, 'I will do good to you. I will make your children as many as the sand of the seashore. There will be too many to count.'"

goats, 200 female sheep and 20 male sheep. <sup>15</sup>There were 30 female camels and their young, 40 cows and 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 male donkeys. <sup>16</sup>Jacob gave each separate flock of animals to one of his servants. Then he said to them, "Go ahead of me and keep some space between each herd." <sup>17</sup>Jacob gave them their orders. To the servant with the first group of animals he said, "My brother Esau will come to you. He will ask you, 'Whose servant are you? Where are you going? Whose animals are these?' <sup>18</sup>Then you will answer, 'These animals belong to your servant Jacob. He sent them as a gift to you my master, Esau. And Jacob also is coming behind us.'"

<sup>19</sup>Jacob ordered the second servant, the third servant and all the other servants to do the same thing. He said, "Say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. <sup>20</sup>Say, 'Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.'" Jacob thought, "If I send this gift ahead of me, maybe Esau will forgive me. Then when I see him, perhaps he will accept me." <sup>21</sup>So Jacob sent the gift to Esau. But Jacob stayed that night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles with God

But Jacob said, "I will let you go if you will bless me."

And he answered, "Jacob."

<sup>28</sup>Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob. Your name will now be Israel, <sup>a</sup> because you have wrestled with God and with men. And you have won."

But the man said, "Why do you ask my name?" Then he blessed Jacob there.

<sup>30</sup>So Jacob named that place Peniel. <sup>a</sup> He said, "I have seen God face to face. But my life was saved." <sup>31</sup>Then the sun rose as he was leaving that place. Jacob was limping because of his leg. <sup>32</sup>So even today the people of Israel do not eat the muscle that is on the hip joint of animals. This is because Jacob was touched there.

Jacob Shows His Bravery

33 Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming. With him were 400 men. So Jacob divided his children among Leah, Rachel and the two slave girls. <sup>2</sup>Jacob put the slave girls with their children first. Then he put Leah and her children behind them. And he put Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup>Jacob himself went out in front of them. He bowed down flat on the ground seven times as he was walking toward his brother.

<sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet Jacob. Esau put his arms around him and hugged him. Then Esau kissed him, and they both cried. <sup>5</sup>Esau looked up and saw the women and children. He asked, "Who are these people with you?"

Jacob answered, "These are the children God has given me. God has been good to me, your servant."

<sup>6</sup>Then the two slave girls and their children came up to Esau. They bowed down flat on the earth before him. <sup>7</sup>Then Leah and her children came up to Esau. They also bowed down flat on the earth. Last of all, Joseph and Rachel came up to Esau. And they, too, bowed down flat before him.

<sup>8</sup>Esau said, "I saw many herds as I was coming here. Why did you bring them?"

Jacob answered, "They were to please you, my master."

<sup>9</sup>But Esau said, "I already have enough, my brother. Keep what you have."

<sup>10</sup>Jacob said, "No! Please! If I have pleased you, then please accept the gift I give you. I am very happy to see your face again. It is like seeing the face of God because you have accepted me. <sup>11</sup>So I beg you to accept the gift I give you. God has been very good to me. And I have more than I need." And because Jacob begged, Esau accepted the gift.

<sup>13</sup>But Jacob said to him, "My master, you know that the children are weak. And I must be careful with my flocks and their young ones. If I force them to go too far in one day, all the animals will die. <sup>14</sup>So, my master, you go on ahead of me, your servant. I will follow you slowly. I will let the animals and the children set the speed at which we travel. I will meet you, my master, in Edom."

"No, thank you," said Jacob. "I only want to please you, my master." <sup>16</sup>So that day Esau started back to Edom. <sup>17</sup>But Jacob went to Succoth. There he built a house for himself. And he made shelters for his animals. That is why the place was named Succoth.<sup>a</sup>

Dinah Is Attacked

34 Dinah was the daughter of Leah and Jacob. At this time Dinah went out to visit the women of that land. <sup>2</sup>Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of that land, saw Dinah. He took her and forced her to have sexual relations with him. <sup>3</sup>Shechem fell in love with Dinah, and he spoke kindly to her. <sup>4</sup>He told his father, Hamor, "Please get this girl for me so I can marry her."

<sup>5</sup>Jacob learned how Shechem had disgraced his daughter. But Jacob's sons were out in the field with the cattle. So Jacob said nothing until they came home. <sup>6</sup>And Hamor father of Shechem went to talk with Jacob.

<sup>7</sup>When Jacob's sons heard what had happened, they came in from the field. They were very angry, because Shechem had done such a wicked thing to Israel. It was wrong for him to have sexual relations with Jacob's daughter. A thing like this should not be done.

<sup>8</sup>But Hamor talked to the brothers of Dinah. He said, "My son Shechem is deeply in love with Dinah. Please let him marry her. <sup>9</sup>Marry our people. Give your women to our men as wives. And take our women for your men as wives. <sup>10</sup>You can live in the same land with us. You will be free to own land and to trade here."

<sup>11</sup>Shechem also talked to Jacob and to Dinah's brothers. He said, "Please accept my offer. I will give anything you ask. <sup>12</sup>Ask as much as you want for the payment for the bride. I will give it to you. Just let me marry Dinah."

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father with lies. They were angry because Shechem had disgraced their sister Dinah. <sup>14</sup>The brothers said to them, "We cannot allow you to marry our sister. You are not circumcised.<sup>d</sup> That would be a disgrace to us. <sup>15</sup>But we will allow you to marry her if you do this one thing: Every man in your town must be circumcised like us. <sup>16</sup>Then your men can marry our women, and our men can marry your women. Then we will live in your land and become one people. <sup>17</sup>If you refuse to be circumcised, we will take Dinah and leave."

Now Shechem was the most respected man in his family. <sup>20</sup>So Hamor and Shechem went to the gate of their city. They spoke to the men of their city. They said, <sup>21</sup>"These people want to be friends with us. So let them live in our land and trade here. There is enough land for all of us. Let us marry their women. And we can let them marry our women. <sup>22</sup>But our men must agree to one thing. All our men must agree to be circumcised as they are. Then they will agree to live in our land. And we will be one people. <sup>23</sup>If we do this, their cattle and their animals will belong to us. Let us do what they say, and they will stay in our land." <sup>24</sup>All the men who had come to the city gate heard this. And they agreed with Hamor and Shechem. And every man was circumcised.

<sup>25</sup>Three days later the men who were circumcised were still in pain. Two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi (Dinah's brothers), took their swords. They made a surprise attack on the city and killed all the men there. <sup>26</sup>Simeon and Levi killed Hamor and his son Shechem. Then they took Dinah out of Shechem's house and left. <sup>27</sup>Jacob's sons went among the dead bodies and stole everything that was in the city. This was to pay them back for what Shechem had done to their sister. <sup>28</sup>So the brothers took the flocks, herds and donkeys. And they took everything in the city and in the fields. <sup>29</sup>They took every valuable thing those people owned. They even took the wives and children and everything that was in the houses.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have caused me a lot of trouble. Now the Canaanites and the Perizzites who live in the land will hate me. There are only a few of us. If they join together to attack us, my people and I will be destroyed."

35 God said to Jacob, “Go to the city of Bethel and live there. Make an altar to the God who appeared to you there. This was when you were running away from your brother Esau.”

<sup>2</sup>So Jacob said to his family and to all who were with him, “Put away the foreign gods you have. Make yourselves clean,<sup>d</sup> and change your clothes. <sup>3</sup>We will leave here and go to Bethel. There I will build an altar to God. He has helped me during my time of trouble. He has been with me everywhere I have gone.”

<sup>4</sup>So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had. And they gave him the earrings they were wearing. He hid them under the great tree near the town of Shechem. <sup>5</sup>Then Jacob and his sons left there. But God caused the people in the nearby cities to be afraid. So they did not follow the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup>And Jacob and all the people who were with him went to Luz. It is now called Bethel. It is in the land of Canaan. <sup>7</sup>There Jacob built an altar. He named the place Bethel, after God, because God had appeared to him there. That was when he was running from his brother.

Jacob’s New Name

<sup>9</sup>When Jacob came back from Northwest Mesopotamia, God appeared to him again. And God blessed him. <sup>10</sup>God said to him, “Your name is Jacob. But you will not be called Jacob any longer. Your new name will be Israel.” So he called him Israel. <sup>11</sup>God said to him, “I am God All-Powerful. Have many children and grow in number as a nation. You will be the ancestor of many nations and kings. <sup>12</sup>I gave Abraham and Isaac land. I will give that same land to you and your descendants.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>Then God left him. <sup>14</sup>Jacob set up a stone on edge in that place where God had talked to him. And he poured a drink offering and olive oil on it to make it special for God. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob named the place Bethel.

Rachel Dies Giving Birth

to the son, but she died. As she lay dying, she named the boy Son of My Suffering. But Jacob called him Benjamin.<sup>n</sup>

The Family of Israel

Jacob had 12 sons. <sup>23</sup>He had 6 sons by his wife Leah. Reuben was his first son. Then Leah had Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

These are Jacob’s sons who were born in Northwest Mesopotamia.

Esau’s Family

36 This is the family history of Esau (also called Edom).

Esau lived in the mountains of Edom. (Esau is also named Edom.)

<sup>14</sup>Esau's third wife was Oholibamah. She was the daughter of Anah. (Anah was the son of Zibeon.) Esau and Oholibamah gave birth to Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

<sup>15</sup>These were the leaders that came from Esau. Esau's first son was Eliphaz. From him came these leaders: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Korah, Gatam and Amalek. These were the leaders that came from Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Adah.

<sup>17</sup>Esau's son Reuel was the father of these leaders: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the leaders that came from Reuel in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

<sup>18</sup>Esau's wife Oholibamah gave birth to these leaders: Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These are the leaders that came from Esau's wife Oholibamah. She was the daughter of Anah. <sup>19</sup>These were the sons of Esau (also called Edom), and these were their leaders.

ers: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>30</sup>Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.

These men were the leaders of the Horite families. They lived in the land of Edom.

<sup>39</sup>When Baal-Hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad became king. He was from the city of Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred. Matred was the daughter of Me-Zahab.

Joseph the Dreamer

37 Jacob lived in the land of Canaan, where his father had lived. <sup>2</sup>This is the family history of Jacob.

Joseph was a young man, 17 years old. He and his brothers cared for the flocks. His brothers were the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph gave his father bad reports about his brothers. <sup>3</sup>Joseph was born when his father Israel, also called Jacob, was old. So Israel loved Joseph more than his other sons. He made Joseph a special robe with long sleeves. <sup>4</sup>Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than he loved them. So they hated their brother and could not speak to him politely.

<sup>5</sup>One time Joseph had a dream. When he told his brothers about it, they hated him even more. <sup>6</sup>Joseph said, "Listen to the dream I had. <sup>7</sup>We were in the field tying bundles of wheat together. My bundle stood up, and your bundles of wheat gathered around mine. Your bundles bowed down to mine.”

<sup>8</sup>His brothers said, “Do you really think you will be king over us? Do you truly think you will rule over us?” His brothers hated him even more now. They hated him because of his dreams and what he had said.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joseph had another dream. He told his brothers about it also. He said, “Listen, I had another dream. I saw the sun, moon and 11 stars bowing down to me.”

<sup>10</sup>Joseph also told his father about this dream. But his father scolded him, saying, “What kind of dream is this? Do you really believe that your mother, your brothers and I will bow down to you?” <sup>11</sup>Joseph’s brothers were jealous of him. But his father thought about what all these things could mean.

Joseph answered, “I will go.”

<sup>14</sup>His father said, “Go and see if your brothers and the sheep are all right. Then come back and tell me.” So Joseph’s father sent him from the Valley of Hebron.

When Joseph came to Shechem, <sup>15a</sup> a man found him wandering in the field. He asked Joseph, “What are you looking for?”

<sup>16</sup>Joseph answered, “I am looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are herding the sheep?”

<sup>17</sup>The man said, “They have already gone. I heard them say they were going to Dothan.” So Joseph went to look for his brothers and found them in Dothan.

Joseph Sold into Slavery

<sup>18</sup>Joseph’s brothers saw him coming from far away. Before he reached them, they made a plan to kill him. <sup>19</sup>They said to each other, “Here comes that dreamer. <sup>20</sup>Let’s kill him and throw his body into one of the wells. We can tell our father that a wild animal killed him. Then we will see what will become of his dreams.”

<sup>21</sup>But Reuben heard their plan and saved Joseph. He said, “Let’s not kill him. <sup>22</sup>Don’t spill any blood. Throw him into this well here in the desert. But don’t hurt him!” Reuben planned to save Joseph later and send him back to his father. <sup>23</sup>So when Joseph came to his brothers, they pulled off his robe with long sleeves. <sup>24</sup>Then they threw him into the well. It was empty. There was no water in it.

sat down to eat. When they looked up, they saw a group of Ishmaelites. They were traveling from Gilead to Egypt. Their camels were carrying spices, balm<sup>d</sup> and myrrh.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Then Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain if we kill our brother and hide his death? <sup>27</sup>Let’s sell him to these Ishmaelites. Then we will not be guilty of killing our own brother. After all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood.” And the other brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup>So when the Midianite traders came by, the brothers took Joseph out of the well. They sold him to the Ishmaelites for eight ounces of silver. And the Ishmaelites took him to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>Reuben was not with his brothers when they sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites. When Reuben came back to the well, Joseph was not there. Reuben tore his clothes to show he was sad. <sup>30</sup>Then he went back to his brothers and said, “The boy is not there! What will I do?” <sup>31</sup>The brothers killed a goat and dipped Joseph’s long-sleeved robe in its blood. <sup>32</sup>Then they brought the robe to their father. They said, “We found this robe. Look it over carefully. See if it is your son’s robe.”

<sup>33</sup>Jacob looked it over and said, “It is my son’s robe! Some savage animal has eaten him. My son Joseph has been torn to pieces!” <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob tore his clothes and put on rough cloth to show that he was sad. He continued to be sad about his son for a long time. <sup>35</sup>All of Jacob’s sons and daughters tried to comfort him. But he could not be comforted. Jacob said, “I will be sad about my son until the day I die.” So Jacob cried for his son Joseph.

<sup>36</sup>Meanwhile the Midianites who had bought Joseph had taken him to Egypt. There they sold him to Potiphar. Potiphar was an officer to the king of Egypt and captain of the palace guard.

Tamar Deceives Judah

38 About that time, Judah left his brothers. He went to stay with a man named Hirah from the town of Adullam. <sup>2</sup>Judah met a Canaanite girl there and married her. Her father was named Shua. And Judah had sexual relations with her. <sup>3</sup>She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Judah named him Er. <sup>4</sup>Later she gave birth to another son and named him Onan. <sup>5</sup>Later she had another son and named him Shelah. She was at Kezib when this third son was born.

<sup>6</sup>Judah chose a girl named Tamar to be the wife of his first son Er. <sup>7</sup>Er was Judah’s oldest son. But he did what the Lord said was evil. So the Lord killed him. <sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Er's brother Onan, "Go and have sexual relations with your dead brother's wife." <sup>9</sup>It is your duty to provide children for your brother in this way."

<sup>9</sup>But Onan knew that the children would not belong to him. Onan was supposed to have sexual relations with Tamar. But he did not complete the sex act. This made it impossible for Tamar to become pregnant. So Er could not have descendants. <sup>10</sup>The Lord was displeased by this wicked thing Onan had done. So the Lord killed Onan also. <sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Go back to live in your father's house. And don't marry until my young son Shelah grows up." Judah was afraid that Shelah also would die like his brothers. So Tamar returned to her father's home.

<sup>15</sup>When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute. <sup>16</sup>This was because she had covered her face with a veil. <sup>17</sup>So Judah went to her and said, "Let me have sexual relations with you." He did not know that she was Tamar, his daughter-in-law.

She asked, "What will you give me if I let you have sexual relations with me?"

She answered, "First give me something to keep as a deposit until you send the goat."

<sup>18</sup>Judah asked, "What do you want me to give you as a deposit?"

Tamar answered, "Give me your seal and its cord,<sup>a</sup> and give me your walking stick." So Judah gave these things to her. Then Judah and Tamar had sexual relations, and Tamar became pregnant. <sup>19</sup>Tamar went home. She took off the veil that covered her face. And she put on the clothes that showed she was a widow.

The men answered, "There has never been a prostitute here."

<sup>22</sup>So he went back to Judah and said, "I could not find the woman. The men who lived there said, 'There has never been a prostitute here.'"

<sup>23</sup>Judah said, "Let her keep the things. I don't want people to laugh at us. I sent her the goat as I promised. But you could not find her."

<sup>24</sup>About three months later someone told Judah, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, is guilty of acting like a prostitute. Now she is pregnant."

Then Judah said, "Bring her out and let her be burned to death."

<sup>25</sup>When the men went to bring Tamar out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. She said, "The man who owns these things has made me pregnant. Look at this seal and its cord and this walking stick. Tell me whose they are."

<sup>26</sup>Judah recognized them. He said, "She is more in the right than I. She did this because I did not give her to my son Shelah as I promised." And Judah did not have sexual relations with her again.

<sup>27</sup>When time came for Tamar to give birth, there were twins in her body. <sup>28</sup>While she was giving birth, one baby put his hand out. The nurse tied a red string on his hand. She said, "This baby came out first." <sup>29</sup>But he pulled his hand back in. So the other baby was born first. The nurse said, "So you are able to break out first." And they named him Perez.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>After this, the baby with the red string on his hand was born. They named him Zerah.

Joseph Is Sold to Potiphar

39 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar was an officer to the king of Egypt. He was the captain of the palace guard. He bought Joseph from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there. <sup>2</sup>The Lord was with Joseph, and he became a successful man. He lived in the house of his master, Potiphar the Egyptian.

<sup>3</sup>Potiphar saw that the Lord was with Joseph. He saw that the Lord made Joseph successful in everything he did. <sup>4</sup>So Potiphar was very happy with Joseph. He allowed Joseph to be his personal servant. He put Joseph in charge of the house. Joseph was trusted with everything Potiphar owned. <sup>5</sup>So Joseph was put in charge of the house. He was put in charge of everything Potiphar owned. Then the Lord blessed the people in Potiphar's house because of Joseph. And the Lord blessed everything that belonged to Potiphar, both in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>So Potiphar put Joseph in charge of everything he owned. Potiphar was not concerned about anything, except the food he ate.

Joseph Is Put into Prison

Now Joseph was well built and handsome. <sup>7</sup>After some time the wife of Joseph's master began to desire Joseph. One day she said to him, "Have sexual relations with me."

<sup>8</sup>But Joseph refused. He said to her, "My master trusts me with everything in his house. He has put me in charge of everything he owns. <sup>9</sup>There is no one in his house greater than I. He has not kept anything from me, except you. And that is because you are his wife. How can I do such an evil thing? It is a sin against God."

<sup>13</sup>When she saw that Joseph had left his coat in her hands and had run outside, <sup>14</sup>she called to the servants in her house. She said, "Look! This Hebrew slave was brought here to shame us. He came in and tried to have sexual relations with me. But I screamed. <sup>15</sup>My scream scared him, and he ran away. But he left his coat with me." <sup>16</sup>She kept his coat until her husband came home. <sup>17</sup>And she told her husband the same story. She said, "This Hebrew slave you brought here came in to shame me! <sup>18</sup>When he came near me, I screamed. He ran away, but he left his coat."

prison. This prison was where the king's prisoners were put. And Joseph stayed there in the prison.

<sup>21</sup>But the Lord was with Joseph and showed him kindness. The Lord caused the prison warden to like Joseph. <sup>22</sup>The prison warden chose Joseph to take care of all the prisoners. He was responsible for whatever was done in the prison. <sup>23</sup>The warden paid no attention to anything that was in Joseph's care. This was because the Lord was with Joseph. The Lord made Joseph successful in everything he did.

Joseph Interprets Two Dreams

40 After these things happened, two of the king's officers displeased the king. These officers were the man who served wine to the king and the king's baker. <sup>2</sup>The king became angry with his officer who served him wine and his baker. <sup>3</sup>So he put them in the prison of the captain of the guard. This was the same prison where Joseph was kept. <sup>4</sup>The captain of the guard put the two prisoners in Joseph's care. They stayed in prison for some time.

<sup>5</sup>One night both the king's officer who served him wine and the baker had a dream. Each had his own dream with its own meaning. <sup>6</sup>When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw they were worried. <sup>7</sup>Joseph asked the king's officers who were with him, "Why do you look so unhappy today?"

Joseph said to them, "God is the only One who can explain the meaning of dreams. So tell me your dreams."

<sup>9</sup>So the man who served wine to the king told Joseph his dream. He said, "I dreamed I saw a vine. <sup>10</sup>On the vine there were three branches. I watched the branches bud and blossom, and then the grapes ripened. <sup>11</sup>I was holding the king's cup. So I took the grapes and squeezed the juice into the cup. Then I gave it to the king."

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said, "I will explain the dream to you. The three branches stand for three days. <sup>13</sup>Before the end of three days the king will free you. He will allow you to return to your work. You will serve the king his wine just as you did before. <sup>14</sup>But when you are free, remember me. Be kind to me. Tell the king about me so that I can get out of this prison. <sup>15</sup>I was taken by force from the land of the Hebrews. And I have done nothing here to deserve being put in prison."

<sup>16</sup>The baker saw that Joseph's explanation of the dream was good. So he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream. I dreamed there were three bread baskets on my head. <sup>17</sup>In the top basket there were all kinds of baked food for the king. But the birds were eating this food out of the basket on my head."

The King's Dreams

41 Two years later the king had a dream. He dreamed he was standing on the bank of the Nile River. <sup>2</sup>He saw seven fat and beautiful cows come up out of the river. They stood there, eating the grass. <sup>3</sup>Then seven more cows came up out of the river. But they were thin and ugly. They stood beside the seven beautiful cows on the bank of the Nile. <sup>4</sup>The seven thin and ugly cows ate the seven beautiful fat cows. Then the king woke up. <sup>5</sup>The king slept again and dreamed a second time. In his dream he saw seven full and good heads of grain growing on one stalk. <sup>6</sup>After that, seven more heads of grain sprang up. But they were thin and burned by the hot east wind. <sup>7</sup>The thin heads of grain ate the seven full and good heads. Then the king woke up again. And he realized it was only a dream. <sup>8</sup>The next morning the king was troubled about these dreams. So he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. The king told them his dreams. But no one could explain their meaning to him.

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief officer who served wine to the king said to him, "I remember something I promised to do. But I had forgotten about it. <sup>10</sup>There was a time when you were angry with me and the baker. You put us in prison in the house of the captain of the guard. <sup>11</sup>In prison we each had a dream on the same night. Each dream had a different meaning. <sup>12</sup>A young Hebrew man was in the prison with us. He was a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he explained their meanings to us. He told each man the meaning of his dream. <sup>13</sup>Things happened exactly as he said they would: I was given back my old position, and the baker was hanged."

<sup>14</sup>So the king called for Joseph. The guards quickly brought him out of the prison. He shaved, put on clean clothes and went before the king.

<sup>15</sup>The king said to Joseph, "I have had a dream. But no one can explain its meaning to me. I have heard that you can explain a dream when someone tells it to you."

<sup>17</sup>Then the king said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile River. <sup>18</sup>I saw seven fat and beautiful cows. They came up out of the river and ate the grass. <sup>19</sup>Then I saw seven more cows come out of the river. They were thin and lean and ugly. They were the worst looking cows I have seen in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>And these thin and ugly cows ate the first seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup>But after they had eaten the seven cows, no one could tell they had eaten them. They just looked as thin and ugly as they did in the beginning. Then I woke up.

<sup>22</sup>"I had another dream. I saw seven full and good heads of grain growing on one stalk. <sup>23</sup>Then seven more heads of grain sprang up after them. But these heads were thin and ugly. They were burned by the hot east wind. <sup>24</sup>Then the thin heads ate the seven good heads. I told this dream to the magicians. But no one could explain its meaning to me."

Joseph Tells the Dreams' Meaning

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph said to the king, "Both of these dreams mean the same thing. God is telling you what he is about to do. <sup>26</sup>The seven good cows stand for seven years. And the seven good heads of grain stand for seven years. Both dreams mean the same thing. <sup>27</sup>The seven thin and ugly cows stand for seven years. And the seven thin heads of grain burned by the hot east wind stand for seven years of hunger. <sup>28</sup>This will happen as I told you. God is showing the king what he is about to do. <sup>29</sup>You will have seven years of good crops and plenty to eat in all the land of Egypt. <sup>30</sup>But after those seven years, there will come seven years of hunger. All the food that grew in the land of Egypt will be forgotten. The time of hunger will eat up the land. <sup>31</sup>People will forget what it was like to have plenty of food. This is because the hunger that follows will be so great. <sup>32</sup>You had two dreams which mean the same thing. This shows that God has firmly decided that this will happen. And he will make it happen soon.

<sup>33</sup>“So let the king choose a man who is very wise and understanding. Let the king set him over the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup>And let the king also appoint officers over the land. They should take one-fifth of all the food that is grown during the seven good years. <sup>35</sup>They should gather all the food that is produced during the good years that are coming. Under the king’s authority they should store the grain in the cities and guard it. <sup>36</sup>That food should be saved for later. It will be used during the seven years of hunger that will come on the land of Egypt. Then the people in Egypt will not die during the seven years of hunger.”

Joseph Is Made Ruler over Egypt

<sup>37</sup>This seemed like a very good idea to the king. All his officers agreed. <sup>38</sup>And the king asked them, “Can we find a better man than Joseph to take this job? God’s spirit is truly in him!”

<sup>39</sup>So the king said to Joseph, “God has shown you all this. There is no one as wise and understanding as you are. <sup>40</sup>I will put you in charge of my palace. All the people will obey your orders. Only I will be greater than you.”

<sup>41</sup>Then the king said to Joseph, “Look! I have put you in charge of all the land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup>Then the king took off from his own finger his ring with the royal seal on it. And he put it on Joseph’s finger. He gave Joseph fine linen clothes to wear. And he put a gold chain around Joseph’s neck. <sup>43</sup>The king had Joseph ride in the second royal chariot. Men walked ahead of his chariot calling, “Bow down!” By doing these things, the king put Joseph in charge of all of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup>The king said to him, “I am the king. And I say that no one in all the land of Egypt may lift a hand or a foot unless you say he may.” <sup>45</sup>The king gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah. He also gave Joseph a wife named Asenath. She was the daughter of Potiphra, priest of On. So Joseph traveled through all the land of Egypt.

in the land grew well. <sup>48</sup>And Joseph gathered all the food which was produced in Egypt during those seven years of good crops. He stored the food in the cities. In every city he stored grain that had been grown in the fields around that city. <sup>49</sup>Joseph stored much grain, as much as the sand of the seashore. He stored so much grain that he could not measure it.

<sup>56</sup>The hunger was everywhere in that part of the world. And Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the people of Egypt. This was because the time of hunger became terrible in Egypt. <sup>57</sup>And all the people in that part of the world came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain. This was because the hunger was terrible everywhere in that part of the world.

The Dreams Come True

42 Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt. So he said to his sons, “Why are you just sitting here looking at one another? <sup>2</sup>I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy grain for us to eat. Then we will live and not die.”

<sup>3</sup>So ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, with them. Jacob was afraid that something terrible might happen to Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>Along with many other people, the sons of Jacob, also called Israel, went to Egypt to buy grain. This was because the people in the land of Canaan were hungry also.

<sup>6</sup>Now Joseph was governor over Egypt. He was the one who sold the grain to people who came to buy it. So Joseph’s brothers came to him. They bowed facedown on the ground before him. <sup>7</sup>When Joseph saw his brothers, he knew who they were. But he acted as if he didn't know them. He asked unkindly, "Where do you come from?"

They answered, "We have come from the land of Canaan to buy food."

<sup>8</sup>Joseph knew they were his brothers. But they did not know who he was. <sup>9</sup>And Joseph remembered his dreams about his brothers bowing to him. He said to them, "You are spies! You came to learn where the nation is weak!"

<sup>10</sup>But his brothers said to him, "No, my master. We come as your servants just to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all sons of the same father. We are honest men, not spies."

<sup>13</sup>And they said, "We are 10 of 12 brothers. We are sons of the same father. We live in the land of Canaan. Our youngest brother is there with our father right now. And our other brother is gone."

<sup>14</sup>But Joseph said to them, "I can see I was right! You are spies! <sup>15</sup>But I will give you a way to prove you are telling the truth. As surely as the king lives, you will not leave this place until your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>One of you must go and get your brother. The rest of you will stay here in prison. We will see if you are telling the truth. If not, as surely as the king lives, you are spies." <sup>17</sup>Then Joseph put them all in prison for three days.

<sup>18</sup>On the third day Joseph said to them, "I am a God-fearing man. Do this thing, and I will let you live: <sup>19</sup>If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison. The rest of you go and carry grain back to feed your hungry families. <sup>20</sup>Then bring your youngest brother back here to me. If you do this, I will know you are telling the truth. Then you will not die."

The brothers agreed to this. <sup>21</sup>They said to each other, "We are being punished for what we did to our brother. We saw his trouble. He begged us to save him, but we refused to listen. That is why we are in this trouble now."

<sup>22</sup>Then Reuben said to them, "I told you not to harm the boy. But you refused to listen to me. So now we are being punished for what we did to him."

<sup>23</sup>When Joseph talked to his brothers, he used an interpreter. So they did not know that Joseph understood what they were saying.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joseph left them and cried. After a short time he went back and spoke to them. He took Simeon and tied him up while the other brothers watched. <sup>25</sup>Joseph told his servants to fill his brothers' bags with grain. They were to put the money the brothers had paid for the grain back in their bags. They were to give them things they would need for their trip back home. And the servants did this.

The brothers were very frightened. They said to each other, "What has God done to us?"

The Brothers Return to Jacob

<sup>29</sup>The brothers went to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. They told him everything that had happened. <sup>30</sup>They said, "The master of that land spoke unkindly to us. He accused us of spying on his country. <sup>31</sup>But we told him that we were honest men, not spies. <sup>32</sup>We told him that we were 10 of 12 brothers—sons of one father. We said that 1 of our brothers was gone. And we said that our youngest brother was with our father in Canaan.

<sup>33</sup>"Then the master of the land said to us, 'Here is a way I can know you are honest men: Leave 1 of your brothers with me. Take back grain to feed your hungry families, and go. <sup>34</sup>And bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies but honest men. And I will give you back your brother whom you leave with me. And you can move about freely in our land.'"

<sup>35</sup>Then the brothers emptied their sacks. And each of them found his money in his sack. When they and their father saw it, they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup>Their father Jacob said to them, "You are robbing me of all my children. Joseph is gone. Simeon is gone. And now you want to take Benjamin away, too. Everything is against me."

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben said to his father, "You may put my 2 sons to death if I don't bring Benjamin back to you. Trust him to my care. I will bring him back to you."

<sup>38</sup>But Jacob said, "I will not allow Benjamin to go with you. His brother is dead. He is the only son left from my wife Rachel. I am afraid something terrible might happen to him during the trip to Egypt. Then I would be sad until the day I die."

The Brothers Go Back to Egypt

43 Still no food grew in the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Jacob's family had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt. So Jacob said to them, "Go to Egypt again. Buy a little more grain for us to eat."

<sup>3</sup>But Judah said to Jacob, "The governor of that country strongly warned us. He said, 'Bring your brother back with you. If you don't, you will not be allowed to see me.' <sup>4</sup>If you will send Benjamin with us, we will go down and buy food for you. <sup>5</sup>But if you refuse to send Benjamin, we will not go. The governor of that country warned us. He said we would not see him if we didn't bring Benjamin with us."

<sup>6</sup>Jacob, also called Israel, said, "Why did you tell the man you had another brother? You have caused me a lot of trouble."

<sup>7</sup>The brothers answered, "He questioned us carefully about ourselves and our family. He asked us, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' We just answered his questions. How could we know he would ask us to bring our other brother to him?"

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to his father Jacob, "Send Benjamin with me. Then we will go at once. Do this so that we, you and our children may live and not die. <sup>9</sup>I will guarantee you that he will be safe. I will be personally responsible for him. If I don't bring him back to you, you can blame me all my life. <sup>10</sup>If we had not wasted all this time, we could have already made two trips."

<sup>11</sup>Then their father Jacob said to them, "If it has to be that way, then do this: Take some of the best foods in our land in your packs. Give them to the man as a gift: some balm,<sup>d</sup> some honey, spices, myrrh,<sup>d</sup> pistachio nuts and almonds. <sup>12</sup>Take twice as much money with you this time. Take back the money that was returned to you in your sacks last time. Maybe it was a mistake. <sup>13</sup>And take Benjamin with you. Now leave and go to the man. <sup>14</sup>I pray that God All-Powerful will cause the governor to be merciful to you. I pray that he will allow Simeon and Benjamin to come back with you. If I am robbed of my children, then I am robbed of them!"

<sup>15</sup>So the brothers took the gifts. They also took twice as much money as they had taken the first time. And they took Benjamin. They hurried down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

house, "Bring those men into my house. Kill an animal and prepare a meal. Those men will eat with me today at noon." <sup>17</sup>The servant did as Joseph told him. He brought the men to Joseph's house.

<sup>18</sup>The brothers were afraid when they were brought to Joseph's house. They thought, "We were brought here because of the money that was put in our sacks on the first trip. He wants to attack us, make us slaves and take our donkeys." <sup>19</sup>So the brothers went to the servant in charge of Joseph's house. They spoke to him at the door of the house. <sup>20</sup>They said, "Sir, we came here once before to buy food. <sup>21</sup>While we were going home, we stopped for the night and opened our sacks. Each of us found all his money in his sack. We brought that money with us to give it back to you. <sup>22</sup>And we have brought more money. It is to pay for the food we want to buy this time. We don't know who put that money in our sacks."

<sup>23</sup>But the servant answered, "It's all right. Don't be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, must have put the money in your sacks. I got the money you paid me for the grain last time." Then the servant brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup>The servant led the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. Then he gave their donkeys food to eat. <sup>25</sup>The men prepared their gift to give to Joseph when he arrived at noon. They had heard they were going to eat with him there.

<sup>26</sup>When Joseph came home, the brothers gave him the gift they had brought into the house. Then they bowed down to the ground to him. <sup>27</sup>Joseph asked them how they were doing. He said, "How is your aged father you told me about? Is he still alive?"

<sup>29</sup>Then Joseph saw his brother Benjamin, who had the same mother as he. Joseph asked, "Is this your youngest brother you told me about?" Then Joseph said to Benjamin, "God be good to you, my son!" <sup>30</sup>Then Joseph hurried off. He had to hold back the tears when he saw his brother Benjamin. So Joseph went into his room and cried there. <sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face and came out. He controlled himself and said, "Serve the meal."

seph's brothers were seated in front of him. They were in order of their ages, from oldest to youngest. And they looked at each other because they were so amazed. <sup>34</sup>Food from Joseph's table was taken to them. But Benjamin was given five times more food than the others. Joseph's brothers drank with him until they were very drunk.

Joseph Sets a Trap

44 Then Joseph gave a command to the servant in charge of his house. Joseph said, "Fill the men's sacks with as much grain as they can carry. And put each man's money into his sack with the grain. <sup>2</sup>Put my silver cup in the sack of the youngest brother. Also put his money for the grain in that sack." The servant did what Joseph told him.

<sup>3</sup>At dawn the brothers were sent away with their donkeys. <sup>4</sup>They were not far from the city when Joseph said to the servant in charge of his house, "Go after the men. When you catch up with them, say, 'Why have you paid back evil for good?' <sup>5</sup>The cup you have stolen is the one my master uses for drinking. And he uses it for explaining dreams. You have done a very wicked thing!"

<sup>7</sup>But the brothers said to the servant, "Why do you say these things? We would not do anything like that! <sup>8</sup>We brought back to you the money we found in our sacks. We brought it back from the land of Canaan. So surely we would not steal silver or gold from your master's house. <sup>9</sup>If you find that silver cup in the sack of one of us, then let him die. And we will be your slaves."

<sup>10</sup>The servant said, "We will do as you say. But only the man who has taken the cup will become my slave. The rest of you may go free."

<sup>14</sup>When Judah and his brothers went back to Joseph's house, Joseph was still there. The brothers bowed facedown on the ground before him. <sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, "What have you done? Didn't you know that a man like me can learn things by signs and dreams?"

<sup>16</sup>Judah said, "Sir, what can we say? And how can we show we are not guilty? God has uncovered our guilt. So all of us will be your slaves, not just Benjamin."

<sup>17</sup>But Joseph said, "I will not make you all slaves! Only the man who stole the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go back safely to your father."

<sup>18</sup>Then Judah went to Joseph and said, "Sir, please let me speak plainly to you. Please don't be angry with me. I know that you are as powerful as the king of Egypt himself. <sup>19</sup>When we were here before, you asked us, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' <sup>20</sup>And we answered you, 'We have an old father. And we have a younger brother. He was born when our father was old. This youngest son's brother is dead. So he is the only one of his mother's children left alive. And our father loves him very much.' <sup>21</sup>Then you said to us, 'Bring that brother to me. I want to see him.' <sup>22</sup>And we said to you, 'That young boy cannot leave his father. If he leaves him, his father would die.' <sup>23</sup>But you said to us, 'You must bring your youngest brother. If you don't, you will not be allowed to see me again.' <sup>24</sup>So we went back to our father and told him what you had said.

<sup>25</sup>"Later, our father said, 'Go again. Buy us a little more food.' <sup>26</sup>We said to our father, 'We cannot go without our youngest brother. Without our youngest brother, we will not be allowed to see the governor.' <sup>27</sup>Then my father said to us, 'You know that my wife Rachel gave me two sons. <sup>28</sup>One son left me. I thought, 'Surely he has been torn apart by a wild animal.' And I haven't seen him since. <sup>29</sup>Now you want to take this son away from me also. But something terrible might happen to him. Then I would be sad until the day I die.' <sup>30</sup>Now what will happen if we go home to our father without our youngest brother? He is the most important thing in our father's life. <sup>31</sup>When our father sees that the young boy is not with us, he will die. And it will be our fault. We will cause the great sorrow that kills our father.

<sup>32</sup>"I gave my father a guarantee that the young boy would be safe. I said to my father, 'If I don't bring him back to you, you can blame me all my life.' <sup>33</sup>So now, please allow me to stay here and be your slave. And let the young boy go back home with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>I cannot go back to my father if the boy is not with me. I couldn't stand to see my father that sad."

Joseph Reveals Who He Is

45 Joseph could not control himself in front of his servants any longer. He cried out, "Have everyone leave me." When only the brothers were left with Joseph, he told them who he was. <sup>2</sup>Joseph cried so loudly that the Egyptians heard him. And the people in the king's palace heard about it. <sup>3</sup>He said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But the brothers could not answer him, because they were very afraid of him.

<sup>4</sup>So Joseph said to them, "Come close to me." So the brothers came close to him. And he said to them, "I am your brother Joseph. You sold me as a slave to go to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Now don't be worried. Don't be angry with yourselves because you sold me here. God sent me here ahead of you to save people's lives. <sup>6</sup>No food has grown on the land for two years now. And there will be five more years without planting or harvest. <sup>7</sup>So God sent me here ahead of you. This was to make sure you have some descendants<sup>d</sup> left on earth. And it was to keep you alive in an amazing way. <sup>8</sup>So it was not you who sent me here, but God. God has made me the highest officer of the king of Egypt. I am in charge of his palace. I am the master of all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>"So leave quickly and go to my father. Tell him, 'Your son Joseph says: God has made me master over all Egypt. Come down to me quickly. <sup>10</sup>Live in the land of Goshen. You will be near me. Also your children, your grandchildren, your flocks and herds and all that you have will be near me. <sup>11</sup>I will care for you during the next five years of hunger. In this way, you and your family and all that you have will not starve.'

<sup>12</sup>"Now you can see for yourselves. The one speaking to you is really Joseph. And my brother Benjamin can see this. <sup>13</sup>So tell my father about how powerful I have become in Egypt. Tell him about everything you have seen. Now hurry and bring him back to me." <sup>14</sup>Then Joseph hugged his brother Benjamin and cried. And Benjamin cried also. <sup>15</sup>Then Joseph kissed all his brothers. He cried as he hugged them. After this, his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup>The king of Egypt and his officers learned that Joseph's brothers had come. And they were very happy about this. <sup>17</sup>So the king said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers to load their animals and go back to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Tell them to bring their father and their families back here to me. I will give them the best land in Egypt. And they will eat the best food we have here. <sup>19</sup>Tell them to take some wagons from Egypt for their children and their wives. And tell them to bring their father back also. <sup>20</sup>Tell them not to worry about bringing any of their things with them. We will give them the best of what we have in Egypt."

<sup>21</sup>So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them wagons as the king had ordered. And he gave them food for their trip. <sup>22</sup>He gave each brother a change of clothes. But he gave Benjamin five changes of clothes. And Joseph gave him about seven and one-half pounds of silver. <sup>23</sup>Joseph also sent his father ten donkeys loaded with the best things from Egypt. And he sent ten female donkeys. They were loaded with grain, bread and other food for his father on his trip back. <sup>24</sup>Then Joseph told his brothers to go. As they were leaving, he said to them, "Don't quarrel on the way home."

<sup>25</sup>So the brothers left Egypt and went to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. <sup>26</sup>They told him, "Joseph is still alive. He is the ruler over all the land of Egypt." Their father was shocked and did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>But the brothers told him everything Joseph had said. Then Jacob saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him back to Egypt. Now Jacob felt better. <sup>28</sup>Jacob, also called Israel, said, "Now I believe you. My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Jacob Goes to Egypt

46 So Jacob, also called Israel, took all he had and started his trip. He went to Beersheba. There he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. <sup>2</sup>During the night God spoke to Israel in a vision. He said, "Jacob, Jacob."

And Jacob answered, "Here I am."

<sup>3</sup>Then God said, "I am God, the God of your father. Don't be afraid to go to Egypt. I will make your descendants<sup>d</sup> a great nation there. <sup>4</sup>I will go to Egypt with you. And I will bring you out of Egypt again. Joseph's own hands will close your eyes when you die."

Jacob's Family

Israel who went into Egypt. (They are Jacob and his descendants.)<sup>4</sup>

Reuben was Jacob's first son. <sup>9</sup>Reuben's sons were Hanoah, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

<sup>12</sup>Judah's sons were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah. (But Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan.) Perez's sons were Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>26</sup>So the total number of Jacob's direct descendants who went to Egypt was 66. (The wives of Jacob's sons were not counted in this number.) <sup>27</sup>Joseph had 2 sons born in Egypt. So the total number in the family of Jacob in Egypt was 70.

Jacob Arrives in Egypt

seph in Goshen. Then Jacob and his people came into the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup>Joseph prepared his chariot and went to meet his father Israel in Goshen. As soon as Joseph saw his father, he hugged his neck. And he cried there for a long time.

<sup>30</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die. I have seen your face. And I know that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>Joseph said to his brothers and his father's family, "I will go and tell the king you are here. I will say, 'My brothers and my father's family have left the land of Canaan. They have come here to me.' <sup>32</sup>They are shepherds and take care of farm animals. And they have brought their flocks and their herds and everything they own with them.' <sup>33</sup>When the king calls you, he will ask, 'What work do you do?' <sup>34</sup>This is what you should tell him: 'We, your servants, have taken care of farm animals all our lives. Our ancestors did the same thing.' Then the king will allow you to settle in the land of Goshen. This is away from the Egyptians. They don't like to be near shepherds."

Jacob Settles in Goshen

47 Joseph went in to the king and said, "My father and my brothers have arrived from Canaan. They have their flocks and herds and everything they own with them. They are now in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup>Joseph chose five of his brothers to introduce to the king.

And they said to him, "We, your servants, are shepherds. Our ancestors were also shepherds." <sup>4</sup>They said to the king, "We have come to live in this land. There is no grass in the land of Canaan for our animals to eat. The hunger is very terrible there. So please allow us to live in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then the king said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>You may choose any place in Egypt for them to live. Give your father and your brothers the best land. Let them live in the land of Goshen. And if any of them are skilled shepherds, put them in charge of my sheep and cattle."

<sup>9</sup>Jacob said to him, "My life has been spent wandering from place to place. It has been short, filled with trouble. I have lived only 130 years. My ancestors lived much longer than I.”

<sup>11</sup>Joseph obeyed the king. He gave his father and brothers the best land in Egypt. It was near the city of Rameses. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph gave his father, his brothers and everyone who lived with them the food they needed.

Joseph Buys Land for the King

<sup>13</sup>The hunger became worse, and there was no food anywhere in the land. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan became very poor because of this. <sup>14</sup>Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan. People paid him this money for the grain they were buying. He brought that money to the king’s palace. <sup>15</sup>After some time, the people in Egypt and Canaan had no money left. So they went to Joseph and said, “Please give us food. Our money is gone. If we don’t eat, we will die here in front of you.”

<sup>18</sup>The next year the people came to Joseph and said, “You know we have no money left. And all our animals belong to you. We have nothing left except our bodies and our land. <sup>19</sup>Surely both we and our land will die here in front of you. Buy us and our land in exchange for food. And we will be slaves to the king, together with our land. Give us seed to plant. Then we will live and not die. And the land will not become a desert.”

<sup>23</sup>Joseph said to the people, “Now I have bought you and your land for the king. So I will give you seed. And you can plant your fields. <sup>24</sup>At harvest time you must give one-fifth to the king. You may keep four-fifths for yourselves. Use it as seed for the field and as food for yourselves, your families and your children.”

lives. If you like, we will become slaves of the king.”

<sup>26</sup>So Joseph made a law in Egypt, which continues today: One-fifth of everything from the land belongs to the king. The only land the king did not get was the priests’ land.

“Don’t Bury Me in Egypt”

<sup>27</sup>The Israelites continued to live in the land of Goshen in Egypt. There they got possessions. They had many children and grew in number.

<sup>28</sup>Jacob, also called Israel, lived in Egypt 17 years. So he lived to be 147 years old. <sup>29</sup>Israel knew he soon would die. So he called his son Joseph to him. He said to Joseph, “If you love me, put your hand under my leg. <sup>a</sup>Promise me you will not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup>When I die, carry me out of Egypt. Bury me where my ancestors are buried.”

Joseph answered, “I will do as you say.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Jacob said, “Promise me.” And Joseph promised him that he would do this. Then Israel worshiped as he leaned on the top of his walking stick.

Blessings for Manasseh and Ephraim

48 Some time later Joseph learned that his father was very sick. So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim and went to his father. <sup>2</sup>When Joseph arrived, someone told Jacob, also called Israel, “Your son Joseph has come to see you.” Jacob was weak. So he used all his strength and sat up on his bed.

<sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, “God All-Powerful appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. God blessed me there. <sup>4</sup>He said to me, ‘I will give you many children. I will make you the father of many peoples. And I will give your descendants <sup>a</sup>this land forever.’ <sup>5</sup>Your two sons were born here in Egypt before I came. They will be counted as my own sons. Ephraim and Manasseh will be my sons just as Reuben and Simeon are my sons. <sup>6</sup>But if you have other children, they will be your own. But their land will be part of the land given to Ephraim and Manasseh. <sup>7</sup>When I came from Northwest Mesopotamia, Rachel died in the land of Canaan. We were traveling toward Ephrath. This made me very sad. I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath.” (Today Ephrath is Bethlehem.)

sons. God has given them to me here in Egypt."

Israel said, "Bring your sons to me so I may bless them."

<sup>10</sup>At this time Israel's eyesight was bad because he was old. So Joseph brought the boys close to him. Israel kissed the boys and put his arms around them. <sup>11</sup>He said to Joseph, "I thought I would never see you alive again. And now God has let me see you and also your children." <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph moved his sons off Israel's lap. Joseph bowed facedown to the ground. <sup>13</sup>He put Ephraim on his right side and Manasseh on his left. (So Ephraim was near Israel's left hand, and Manasseh was near Israel's right hand.) Joseph brought the boys close to Israel. <sup>14</sup>But Israel crossed his arms. He put his right hand on the head of Ephraim, who was younger. He put his left hand on the head of Manasseh. But he was the firstborn<sup>d</sup> son. <sup>15</sup>And Israel blessed Joseph and said,

"My ancestors Abraham and Isaac served our God.

And like a shepherd God has led me all my life.

<sup>16</sup>He was the Angel who saved me from all my troubles.

Now I pray that he will bless these boys. May my name be known through these boys.

And may the names of my ancestors Abraham and Isaac be known through them.

May they have many descendants<sup>d</sup> on the earth."

<sup>19</sup>But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. Manasseh will be great and have many descendants. But his younger brother will be greater. And his descendants will be enough to make a nation."

<sup>20</sup>So Israel blessed them that day. He said, "When a blessing is given in Israel, they will say:

'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'"

In this way he made Ephraim greater than Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Look at me. I am about to die. But God will be with you. He will take you back to the land of your fathers.

<sup>22</sup>I have given you something that I did not give your brothers. I have given you the land of Shechem that I took from the Amorite people. I took it with my sword and my bow."

Jacob Blesses His Sons

49 Then Jacob called his sons to him. He said, "Come here to me. I will tell you what will happen to you in the future.

Your birth showed I could be a father. You have the highest position among my sons.

You are the most powerful.

So you will no longer lead your brothers.

This is because you got into your father's bed.

You shamed me by having sexual relations with my slave girl.

I will not meet with them to plan evil.

They killed men because they were angry.

And they crippled oxen just for fun.

May their violence be cursed, because it is too cruel.

I will divide them up among the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Jacob.

I will scatter them through all the tribes of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>"Judah, your brothers will praise you.

You will grab your enemies by the neck.

Your brothers will bow down to you.

You have returned from killing, my son.

Like a lion, he stretches out and lies down to rest.

No one is brave enough to wake him.

Someone from Judah will always be on the throne.

Judah will rule until the real king comes.

And the nations will obey him.

He ties his young donkey to the best branch.

He can afford to use wine to wash his clothes.

- He even uses grape juice to wash his robes.
- <sup>12</sup>His eyes are bright from drinking wine.
His teeth are white from drinking milk.
- <sup>13</sup>“Zebulun will live near the sea.
His shore will be a safe place for ships.
His land will reach as far as Sidon.
- <sup>14</sup>“Issachar is like a strong donkey.
He lies down while carrying his load.
- <sup>15</sup>He will see his resting place is good.
He will see how pleasant his land is.
Then he will put his back to the load.
He will become a slave.
- <sup>16</sup>“Dan will rule his own people like the other tribes in Israel.
- <sup>17</sup>Dan will be like a snake by the side of the road.
He will be like a dangerous snake lying near the path.
That snake bites a horse’s leg.
And the rider is thrown off backward.
- <sup>18</sup>“Lord, I wait for your salvation.
- <sup>19</sup>“Robbers will attack Gad.
But he will defeat them and drive them away.
- <sup>20</sup>“Asher’s land will grow much good food.
He will grow food fit for a king.
- <sup>21</sup>“Naphtali is like a female deer that runs free.
She has beautiful fawns.
- <sup>22</sup>“Joseph is like a grapevine that produces much fruit.
He is like a healthy vine watered by a spring.
He is like a vine whose branches grow over the wall.
- <sup>23</sup>Men attack him violently with arrows.
They shoot at him angrily.
- <sup>24</sup>But he aims his bow well.
His arms are made strong.
He gets his power from the Mighty God of Jacob.
He gets his strength from the Shepherd, the Rock<sup>d</sup> of Israel.
- <sup>25</sup>Your father’s God helps you.
God All-Powerful blesses you.
He blesses you with rain from above.
He blesses you with water from springs
below.
He blesses you with many babies born to your wives.
He blesses you with many young ones born to your animals.

- <sup>26</sup>The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the oldest mountains.
They are greater than the good things of the long-lasting hills.
May these blessings rest on the head of Joseph.
May they rest on the forehead of the one who was separated from his brothers.
- <sup>27</sup>“Benjamin is like a hungry wolf.
In the morning he eats what he has caught.
In the evening he divides what he has taken.”

<sup>28</sup>These are the 12 tribes of Israel. And this is what their father said to them. He gave each son the blessing that was right for him. <sup>29</sup>Then Israel gave them a command. He said, “I am about to die. Bury me with my ancestors in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite. <sup>30</sup>That cave is in the field of Machpelah east of Mamre in the land of Canaan. Abraham bought that field from Ephron the Hittite for a burying place. <sup>31</sup>Abraham and Sarah his wife are buried there. Isaac and Rebekah his wife are buried there. I buried my wife Leah there. <sup>32</sup>The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittite people.” <sup>33</sup>After Jacob finished talking to his sons, he lay down. He put his feet back on the bed, took his last breath and died.

Jacob’s Burial

50 When Jacob died, Joseph hugged his father and cried over him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>He commanded the doctors who served him to prepare his father’s body. So the doctors prepared Jacob’s body to be buried. <sup>3</sup>It took the doctors 40 days to prepare his body. This was the usual time it took. And the Egyptians had a time of sorrow for Jacob. It lasted 70 days. <sup>4</sup>When this time of sorrow had ended, Joseph spoke to the king’s officers. He said, “If you think well of me, please tell this to the king: <sup>5</sup>When my father was near death, I made a promise to him. I promised I would bury him in a cave in the land of Canaan. This is a burial place that he cut out for himself. So please let me go and bury my father. Then I will return.” <sup>6</sup>The king answered, “Keep your promise. Go and bury your father.” <sup>7</sup>So Joseph went to bury his father. All the king’s officers, the older leaders and all the leading men of Egypt went with Joseph. <sup>8</sup>Everyone who lived with Joseph and his brothers went with him. And everyone who lived with his father also went. They left only their children, their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup>Men in chariots and on horses also went with Joseph. It was a very large group.

<sup>12</sup>So Jacob's sons did what their father commanded. <sup>13</sup>They carried his body to the land of Canaan. They buried it in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre. Abraham had bought this cave and field from Ephron the Hittite to use as a burial place. <sup>14</sup>After Joseph buried his father, he returned to Egypt. His brothers and everyone who had gone with him to bury his father also returned.

The Brothers Fear Joseph

<sup>15</sup>After Jacob died, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph is still angry with us? We did many wrong things to him. What if he plans to pay us back?" <sup>16</sup>So they sent a message to Joseph. It said, "Your father gave this command before he died. <sup>17</sup>He said to us, 'You have done wrong. You have sinned and done evil to Joseph. Tell Joseph to forgive you, his brothers.' So now, Joseph, we beg you to forgive our wrong. We are the servants of the God of your father." When Joseph received the message, he cried.

<sup>18</sup>And his brothers went to him and bowed low before him. They said, "We are your slaves."

<sup>19</sup>Then Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. Can I do what only God can do? <sup>20</sup>You meant to hurt me. But God turned your evil into good. It was to save the lives of many people. And it is being done. <sup>21</sup>So don't be afraid. I will take care of you and your children." So Joseph comforted his brothers and spoke kind words to them.

<sup>22</sup>Joseph continued to live in Egypt with all his father's family. He died when he was 110 years old. <sup>23</sup>During Joseph's life Ephraim had children and grandchildren. And Joseph's son Manasseh had a son named Makir. Joseph accepted Makir's children as his own.

The Death of Joseph

<sup>24</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die. But God will take care of you. He will lead you out of this land. He will lead you to the land he promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob." <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph had the sons of Israel make a promise. He said, "Promise me that you will carry my bones with you out of Egypt."

<sup>26</sup>Joseph died when he was 110 years old. Doctors prepared his body for burial. Then they put him in a coffin in Egypt.

Escape from Egypt

Jacob's Family Grows Strong

1 When Jacob, also called Israel, went to Egypt, he took his sons. And each son took his own family with him. These are the names of the sons of Israel: <sup>2</sup>Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, <sup>3</sup>Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, <sup>4</sup>Dan, Naphtali, Gad and Asher. <sup>5</sup>There was a total of 70 people who were descendants<sup>a</sup> of Jacob. Jacob's son Joseph was already in Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>By some time later, Joseph and his brothers had died, along with all the people who had lived at that same time. <sup>7</sup>But the people of Israel had many children, and their number grew greatly. They became very strong, and the country of Egypt was filled with them.

Trouble for the People of Israel

<sup>8</sup>Then a new king began to rule Egypt. He did not know who Joseph was. <sup>9</sup>This king said to his people, "Look! The people of Israel are too many! And they are too strong for us to handle! <sup>10</sup>We must make plans against them. If we don't, the number of their people will grow even more. Then if there is a war, they might join our enemies. Then they could fight us and escape from the country!"

<sup>11</sup>So the Egyptians made life hard for the people of Israel. They put slave masters over the Israelites. The slave masters forced the Israelites to build the cities Pithom and Rameses for the king. These cities were supply centers in which the Egyptians stored things. <sup>12</sup>The Egyptians forced the Israelites to work even harder. But this made the Israelites grow in number and spread more. So the Egyptians became more afraid of them. <sup>13</sup>They forced the Israelites to work even harder. <sup>14</sup>The Egyptians made life hard for the Israelites. They forced the Israelites to work very hard making bricks and mortar. They also forced them to do all kinds of hard work in the fields. The Egyptians were not merciful to them in all their hard work.

baby live. But if it is a boy, kill it!" <sup>17</sup>But the nurses feared God. So they did not do as the king told them. They let all the boy babies live. <sup>18</sup>Then the king of Egypt sent for the nurses. He said, "Why did you do this? Why did you let the boys live?"

<sup>22</sup>So the king commanded all his people: "Every time a boy is born to the Hebrews, you must throw him into the Nile River. But let all the girl babies live."

Baby Moses

2 There was a man from the family of Levi. He married a woman who was also from the family of Levi. <sup>2</sup>She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She saw how wonderful the baby was, and she hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup>But after three months, she was not able to hide the baby any longer. So she got a basket and covered it with tar so that it would float. She put the baby in the basket. Then she put the basket among the tall grass at the edge of the Nile River. <sup>4</sup>The baby's sister stood a short distance away. She wanted to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup>Then the daughter of the king of Egypt came to the river. She was going to take a bath. Her servant girls were walking beside the river. She saw the basket in the tall grass. So she sent her slave girl to get it. <sup>6</sup>The king's daughter opened the basket and saw the baby boy. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. She said, "This is one of the Hebrew babies."

<sup>9</sup>The king's daughter said to the woman, "Take this baby and nurse him for me. I will pay you." So the woman took her baby and nursed him. <sup>10</sup>After the child had grown older, the woman took him to the king's daughter. She adopted the baby as her own son. The king's daughter named him Moses,<sup>a</sup> because she had pulled him out of the water.

Moses Helps His People

<sup>11</sup>Moses grew and became a man. One day he visited his people, the Hebrews. He saw that they were forced to work very hard. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew man, one of Moses' own people. <sup>12</sup>Moses looked all around and saw that no one was watching. So he killed the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

<sup>13</sup>The next day Moses returned and saw two Hebrew men fighting each other. He saw that one man was in the wrong. Moses said to that man, "Why are you hitting one of your own people?"

<sup>14</sup>The man answered, "Who made you our ruler and judge? Are you going to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?"

Then Moses was afraid. He thought, "Now everyone knows what I did."

<sup>15</sup>When the king heard about what Moses had done, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses ran away from the king and went to live in the land of Midian. There he sat down near a well.

Moses in Midian

<sup>16</sup>There was a priest in Midian who had seven daughters. His daughters went to that well to get water for their father's sheep. They were trying to fill the water troughs for their father's sheep. <sup>17</sup>But some shepherds came and chased the girls away. Then Moses defended the girls and watered their sheep.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went back to their father, Reuel, also called Jethro. He asked them, "Why have you come home early today?"

<sup>23</sup>After a long time, the king of Egypt died. The people of Israel groaned because they were forced to work very hard. They cried for help.

And God heard them. <sup>24</sup>God heard their cries, and he remembered the agreement he had made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>25</sup>God saw the troubles of the people of Israel, and he was concerned about them.

The Burning Bush

3 One day Moses was taking care of Jethro's sheep. Jethro was the priest of Midian and also Moses' father-in-law. Moses led the sheep to the west side of the desert. He came to Sinai, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>There the angel of the Lord appeared to Moses in flames of fire coming out of a bush. Moses saw that the bush was on fire, but it was not burning up. <sup>3</sup>So Moses said, "I will go closer to this strange thing. How can a bush continue burning without burning up?"

And Moses said, "Here I am."

<sup>5</sup>Then God said, "Do not come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. <sup>6</sup>I am the God of your ancestors. I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." Moses covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord said, "I have seen the troubles my people have suffered in Egypt. And I have heard their cries when the Egyptian slave masters hurt them. I am concerned about their pain. <sup>8</sup>I have come down to save them from the Egyptians. I will bring them out of that land. I will lead them to a good land with lots of room. This is a land where much food grows. This is the land of these people: the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>I have heard the cries of the people of Israel. I have seen the way the Egyptians have made life hard for them. <sup>10</sup>So now I am sending you to the king of Egypt. Go! Bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt!"

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, "I am not a great man! Why should I be the one to go to the king and lead the Israelites out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup>God said, "I will be with you. This will be the proof that I am sending you: You will lead the people out of Egypt. Then all of you will worship me on this mountain."

<sup>13</sup>Moses said to God, "When I go to the Israelites, I will say to them, 'The God of your fathers sent me to you.' What if the people say, 'What is his name?' What should I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup>Then God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." When you go to the people of Israel, tell them, 'I AM sent me to you.'"

<sup>15</sup>God also said to Moses, "This is what you should tell the people: 'The Lord is the God of your ancestors. He is the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. And he sent me to you.' This will always be my name. That is how people from now on will know me.

<sup>16</sup>"Go and gather the older leaders and tell them this: 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, has appeared to me. The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob spoke to me. He says: I care about you, and I have seen what has happened to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup>I have decided that I will take you away from the troubles you are suffering in Egypt. I will lead you to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. This land grows much food.'

<sup>18</sup>"The older leaders will listen to you. And then you and the older leaders of Israel will go to the king of Egypt. You will tell him, 'The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, appeared to us. Let us travel three days into the desert. There we must offer sacrifices to the Lord our God.'

<sup>19</sup>"But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go. Only a great power will force him to let you go. <sup>20</sup>So I will use my great power against Egypt. I will make miracles<sup>d</sup> happen in that land. After I do this, he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>And I will cause the Egyptian people to think well of the people of Israel. So when you leave, they will give gifts to your people. <sup>22</sup>Each Hebrew woman will ask her Egyptian neighbor and any Egyptian woman living in her house for gifts. Ask for silver, gold and clothing. You will put those gifts on your children when you leave Egypt. In this way you will take with you the riches of the Egyptians."

Proof for Moses

4 Then Moses answered, "What if the people of Israel do not believe me or listen to me? What if they say, 'The Lord did not appear to you?'"

<sup>2</sup>The Lord said to him, "What is that in your hand?"

Moses answered, "It is my walking stick."

So Moses threw it on the ground. And it became a snake. Moses ran from the snake. <sup>4</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Reach out and grab the snake by its tail." So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake. When he did this, it again became a stick in his hand. <sup>5</sup>The Lord said, "When this happens, the Israelites will believe that the Lord appeared to you. I am the God of their ancestors. I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Put your hand inside your coat." So Moses put his hand inside his coat. When he took his hand out, it was white with a harmful skin disease.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord said, "Now put your hand inside your coat again." So Moses put his hand inside his coat again. When he took it out, his hand was healthy again. It was like the rest of his skin.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said, "The people may not believe you or be convinced by the first miracle.<sup>d</sup> They may believe you when you show them this second miracle. <sup>9</sup>After these two miracles they still may not believe or listen to you. Then take some water from the Nile River. Pour it on the dry ground. The water will become blood when it touches the ground."

<sup>10</sup>But Moses said to the Lord, "But Lord, I am not a skilled speaker. I have never been able to speak well. And now, even after talking to you, I am not a good speaker. I speak slowly and can't find the best words."

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to him, "Who made man's mouth? And who makes him deaf or not able to speak? Or who gives a man sight or makes him blind? It is I, the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Now go! I will help you speak. I will tell you what to say."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord became angry with Moses. He said, "Your brother Aaron, from the family of Levi, is a skilled speaker. He is already coming to meet you. And he will be happy when he sees you. <sup>15</sup>I will tell you what to say. Then you will tell Aaron. I will help both of you know what to say and do. <sup>16</sup>And Aaron will speak to the people for you. You will tell him what God says. And he will speak for you. <sup>17</sup>Take your walking stick with you. Use it to do the miracles."

Moses Returns to Egypt

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law. Moses said to him, "Let me go back to my people in Egypt. I want to see if they are still alive."

<sup>d</sup> . . . I AM The Hebrew words are like the name "YAHWEH." This Hebrew name for God, usually called "Lord," shows that God always lives and is always with his people.

Jethro said to Moses, "You may go. Have a safe trip."

<sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and his sons and put them on a donkey. Then he started back to Egypt. He took with him the walking stick of God.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "When you get back to Egypt, do all the miracles. <sup>d</sup>I have given you the power to do them. Show them to the king of Egypt. But I will make the king very stubborn. He will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>Then say to the king: 'This is what the Lord says: Israel is my firstborn <sup>d</sup>son. <sup>23</sup>And I told you to let my son go. Let him go so he may worship me. But you refused to let Israel go. So I will kill your firstborn son.' "

<sup>27</sup>Meanwhile the Lord said to Aaron, "Go out into the desert to meet Moses." When Aaron went, he met Moses at Sinai, the mountain of God, and kissed him. <sup>28</sup>Moses told Aaron everything the Lord had said to him when he sent him to Egypt. And Moses told him about the miracles which the Lord had commanded him to do.

<sup>29</sup>So Moses and Aaron gathered all the older leaders of the Israelites. <sup>30</sup>Aaron told them everything that the Lord had told Moses. Then Moses did the miracles for all the people to see. <sup>31</sup>So the Israelites believed. They heard that the Lord was concerned about them and had seen their troubles. Then they bowed down and worshiped him.

Moses and Aaron Before the King

S After Moses and Aaron talked to the people, they went to the king of Egypt. They said, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'Let my people go so they may hold a feast for me in the desert.' "

<sup>2</sup>But the king of Egypt said, "Who is the Lord? Why should I obey him and let Israel go? I do not know the Lord. And I will not let Israel go."

<sup>3</sup>Then Aaron and Moses said, "The God of the Hebrews has talked with us. Now let us travel three days into the desert. There we will offer sacrifices to the Lord our God. If we don't do this, he may kill us with a disease or in war."

<sup>4</sup>But the king said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Go back to your hard work! <sup>5</sup>There are very many Hebrews. And now you want them to quit their hard work!"

<sup>6</sup>That same day the king gave a command to the slave masters and foremen. <sup>7</sup>He said, "Don't give the people straw to make bricks as you used to do. Let them gather their own straw. <sup>8</sup>But they must still make the same number of bricks as they did before. Do not accept fewer. They have become lazy. That is why they are asking me, 'Let us go to offer sacrifices to our God.' <sup>9</sup>Make these people work harder. Keep them busy. Then they will not have time to listen to the lies of Moses."

<sup>10</sup>So the slave masters and foremen went to the Israelites and said, "This is what the king says: I will no longer give you straw. <sup>11</sup>Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it. But you must make as many bricks as you made before." <sup>12</sup>So the people went everywhere in Egypt looking for dry stalks to use for straw. <sup>13</sup>The slave masters kept forcing the people to work harder. They said, "You must make just as many bricks as you did when you were given straw." <sup>14</sup>The king's slave masters had chosen the Israelite foremen. They had made them responsible for the work the people did. The Egyptian slave masters beat these men and asked them, "Why aren't you making as many bricks as you made in the past?"

<sup>15</sup>Then the Israelite foremen went to the king. They complained and said, "Why are you treating us, your servants, this way? <sup>16</sup>You give us no straw. But we are commanded to make bricks. Our slave masters beat us. But it is your own people's fault."

<sup>17</sup>The king answered, "You are lazy! You don't want to work! That is why you ask to leave here and make sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Now, go back to work! We will not give you any straw. But you must make just as many bricks as you did before."

<sup>19</sup>The Israelite foremen knew they were in trouble. This was because the king had told them: "You must make just as many bricks each day as you did before." <sup>20</sup>As they were leaving the meeting with the king, they met Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron were waiting for them. <sup>21</sup>So they said to Moses and Aaron, "May the Lord punish you. You caused the king and his officers to hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us.”

Moses Complains to God

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses returned to the Lord and said, “Lord, why have you brought this trouble on your people? Is this why you sent me here? <sup>23</sup>I went to the king and said what you told me to say. But ever since that time he has made the people suffer. And you have done nothing to save them.”

6 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to the king of Egypt. I will use my great power against him, and he will let my people go. Because of my power, he will force them out of his country.”

<sup>2</sup>Then God said to Moses, “I am the Lord. <sup>3</sup>I appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob by the name, God All-Powerful. But they did not know me by my name, the Lord. <sup>4</sup>I also made my agreement with them to give them the land of Canaan. They lived in that land, but it was not their own land. <sup>5</sup>Now I have heard the cries of the Israelites. The Egyptians are treating them as slaves. And I remember my agreement. <sup>6</sup>So tell the people of Israel that I say to them, ‘I am the Lord. I will save you from the hard work the Egyptians force you to do. I will make you free. You will not be slaves to the Egyptians. I will free you by my great power. And I will punish the Egyptians terribly. <sup>7</sup>I will make you my own people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am the Lord your God. I am the One who saves you from the hard work the Egyptians force you to do. <sup>8</sup>I will lead you to the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I will give you that land to own. I am the Lord.’”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses told this to the people of Israel. But they would not listen to him. They were discouraged, and their slavery was hard.

<sup>13</sup>But the Lord told Moses and Aaron to talk to the king. He commanded them to lead the Israelites out of Egypt.

Families of Israel

<sup>14</sup>These are the leaders of the families of Israel:

Israel’s first son, Reuben, had four sons.

They were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These are the family groups of Reuben.

These are the leaders of the family groups of the Levites.

<sup>26</sup>This was the Aaron and Moses to whom the Lord spoke. He said, “Lead my people out of Israel in their divisions.” <sup>27</sup>Aaron and Moses are the ones who talked to the king of Egypt. They told him to let the people of Israel leave Egypt.

God Repeats His Call to Moses

<sup>28</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt. <sup>29</sup>He said, “I am the Lord. Tell the king of Egypt everything I tell you.”

7 The Lord said to Moses, “I have made you like God to the king of Egypt. And your brother Aaron will be like a prophet<sup>d</sup> for you.

my power. And I will bring the Israelites out of that land. Then they will know I am the Lord."

Aaron's Walking Stick Becomes a Snake

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "The king will ask you to do a miracle. <sup>4</sup>When he does, Moses, you tell Aaron to throw his walking stick down in front of the king. It will become a snake."

The Water Becomes Blood

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "The king is being stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>In the morning the king will go out to the Nile River. Go meet him by the edge of the river. Take with you the walking stick that became a snake. <sup>16</sup>Tell him this: The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you. He said, 'Let my people go worship me in the desert.' Until now you have not listened. <sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord says: 'This is how you will know that I am the Lord. I will strike the water of the Nile River with this stick in my hand. And the water will change into blood. <sup>18</sup>Then the fish in the Nile will die, and the river will begin to stink. And the Egyptians will not be able to drink the water from the Nile.'"

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to stretch the walking stick in his hand over the rivers, canals, ponds and pools in Egypt. The water will become blood everywhere in Egypt. There even will be blood in the wooden buckets and stone jars."

ter from it. Blood was everywhere in the land of Egypt.

The Frogs

8 Then the Lord told Moses, "Go to the king of Egypt and tell him, 'This is what the Lord says: Let my people go to worship me. <sup>21</sup>If you refuse, then I will punish Egypt with frogs. <sup>3</sup>The Nile River will be filled with frogs. They will come from the river and enter your palace. They will be in your bedroom and your bed. The frogs will enter the houses of your officers and your people. They will enter your ovens and your baking pans. <sup>4</sup>The frogs will jump up all over you, your people and your officers.'"

<sup>6</sup>So Aaron held his hand over all the waters of Egypt. The frogs came up out of the water and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>The magicians used their tricks to do the same thing. So even more frogs came up onto the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>So the king called for Moses and Aaron. He said, "Pray to the Lord to take the frogs away from me and my people. I will let your people go to offer sacrifices to the Lord."

<sup>9</sup>Moses said to the king, "Please set the time that I should pray for you, your people and your officers. Then the frogs will leave you and your houses. They will remain only in the Nile."

Moses said, "What you want will happen. By this you will know that there is no one like the Lord our God. <sup>11</sup>The frogs will leave you, your houses, your officers and your people. They will remain only in the Nile."

<sup>12</sup>Moses and Aaron left the king. Moses asked the Lord about the frogs he had sent to the king. <sup>13</sup>And the Lord did as Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the yards and in the fields. <sup>14</sup>The Egyptians put them in piles. The whole country began to stink. <sup>15</sup>When the king saw that they were free of the frogs, he became stubborn again. He did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the Lord had said.

The Gnats

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to raise his walking stick and strike the dust on the ground. Then everywhere in Egypt the dust will change into gnats."<sup>17</sup>They did this. Aaron raised the walking stick that was in his hand and struck the dust on the ground. Then everywhere in Egypt the dust changed into gnats. The gnats got on the people and animals.<sup>18</sup>Using their tricks, the magicians tried to do the same thing. But they could not make the dust change into gnats. The gnats remained on the people and animals.<sup>19</sup>So the magicians told the king that the power of God had done this. But the king was stubborn and refused to listen to them. This happened just as the Lord had said.

The Flies

<sup>20</sup>The Lord told Moses, "Get up early in the morning. Meet the king of Egypt as he goes out to the river. Tell him, 'This is what the Lord says: Let my people go so they can worship me.'<sup>21</sup>If you don't let them go, I will send swarms of flies. I will send them into your houses. The flies will be on you, your officers and your people. The houses of Egypt will be full of flies. And they will be all over the ground, too."<sup>22</sup>But I will not treat the people of Israel the same as the Egyptian people. There will not be any flies in the land of Goshen, where my people live. By this you will know that I, the Lord, am in this land.<sup>23</sup>I will treat my people differently from your people. This miracle<sup>d</sup> will happen tomorrow.'"

<sup>24</sup>So the Lord did as he had said. Great swarms of flies came into the king's palace and his officers' houses. All over Egypt flies were ruining the land.<sup>25</sup>The king called for Moses and Aaron. He told them, "Offer sacrifices to your God here in this country."

<sup>26</sup>But Moses said, "It wouldn't be right to do that. The Egyptians hate the sacrifices we offer to the Lord our God. They will see us offer sacrifices they hate. Then they will throw stones at us and kill us.<sup>27</sup>Let us make a three-day journey into the desert. We must offer sacrifices to the Lord our God there. This is what the Lord told us to do."

<sup>28</sup>The king said, "I will let you go. Then you may offer sacrifices to the Lord your God in the desert. But you must not go very far away. Now go and pray for me."

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, "I will leave and pray to the Lord. He will take the flies away from you, your officers and your people tomorrow. But do not try to trick us again. Do not stop the people from going to offer sacrifices to the Lord."

The Disease on the Farm Animals

9 Then the Lord told Moses, "Go to the king of Egypt. Tell him, 'This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go to worship me.<sup>2</sup>You might refuse to let them go and continue to hold them.'<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord will punish you. He will send a terrible disease on all your farm animals. He will cause all of your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle and sheep to become sick.<sup>4</sup>But the Lord will treat Israel's animals differently from the animals of Egypt. None of the animals that belong to the Israelites will die.<sup>5</sup>The Lord has set tomorrow as the time he will do this in the land.'<sup>6</sup>The next day the Lord did as he promised. All the farm animals in Egypt died. But none of the animals belonging to Israelites died.<sup>7</sup>The king sent people to see what had happened to the animals of Israel. They found that not one of them had died. But the king was still stubborn. He did not let the people go.

The Boils

<sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a furnace. Then they went and stood before the king. Moses threw ashes into the air. It caused boils to break out and become sores on people and animals.<sup>11</sup>The magicians could not stand before Moses. This was because all the Egyptians had boils, even the magicians.<sup>12</sup>But the Lord made the king stubborn. So he refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just as the Lord had said.

The Hail

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and go to the king of Egypt. Tell him, 'This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go to worship me. <sup>14</sup>If you do not do this, this time I will punish you with all my power. I will punish you, your officers and your people. Then you will know that there is no one in the whole land like me. <sup>15</sup>By now I could have used my power and caused a bad disease. It would have destroyed you and your people from the earth. <sup>16</sup>But I have let you live for this reason: to show you my power. In this way my name will be talked about in all the earth. <sup>17</sup>You are still against my people. You do not want to let them go. <sup>18</sup>So at this time tomorrow, I will send a terrible hailstorm. It will be the worst in Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>19</sup>Now send for your animals and whatever you have in the fields. Bring them into a safe place. The hail will fall on every person or animal that is still in the fields. If they have not been brought in, they will die.' ” <sup>20</sup>Some of the king's officers respected the word of the Lord. They hurried to bring their slaves and animals inside. <sup>21</sup>But others ignored the Lord's message. They left their slaves and animals in the fields.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord told Moses, “Raise your hand toward the sky. Then the hail will start falling over all the land of Egypt. It will fall on people, animals and on everything that grows in the fields of Egypt.” <sup>23</sup>So Moses raised his walking stick toward the sky. And the Lord sent thunder and hail. And lightning flashed down to the earth. So he caused hail to fall upon the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup>There was hail, and there was lightning flashing as it hailed. This was the worst hailstorm in Egypt since it had become a nation. <sup>25</sup>The hail destroyed everything that was in the fields in all the land of Egypt. The hail destroyed both people and animals. It also destroyed everything that grew in the fields. It broke all the trees in the fields. <sup>26</sup>The only place it did not hail was in the land of Goshen. The people of Israel lived there.

<sup>27</sup>The king sent for Moses and Aaron. He told them, “This time I have sinned. The Lord is in the right. And I and my people are in the wrong. <sup>28</sup>Pray to the Lord. We have had enough of God's thunder and hail. I will let you go. You do not have to stay here any longer.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses told the king, “When I leave the city, I will raise my hands to the Lord in prayer. And the thunder and hail will stop. Then you will know that the earth belongs to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>But I know that you and your officers do not yet fear the Lord God.”

both wheat crops ripen later. So they were not destroyed.

<sup>33</sup>Moses left the king and went outside the city. He raised his hands to the Lord. And the thunder and hail stopped. The rain also stopped falling to the ground. <sup>34</sup>The king saw that the rain, hail and thunder had stopped. Then he sinned again. He and his officers became stubborn again. <sup>35</sup>The king became stubborn and refused to let the Israelites go. This happened just as the Lord had said through Moses.

The Locusts

10 The Lord said to Moses, “Go to the king of Egypt. I have made him and his officers stubborn. I did this so I could show them my powerful miracles.” <sup>2</sup>I also did this so you could tell your children and your grandchildren. Tell them how I made fools of the Egyptians. Tell them about the miracles I did among them. Then all of you will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron went to the king. They told him, “This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: ‘How long will you refuse to be sorry for what you have done? Let my people go to worship me. <sup>4</sup>If you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts’ into your country. <sup>5</sup>They will cover the land, and no one will be able to see the ground. They will eat anything that was left from the hailstorm. They will eat the leaves from every tree growing in the field. <sup>6</sup>They will fill your palaces and all your officers’ houses. They will fill the houses of all the Egyptian people. There will be more locusts than your fathers or ancestors have ever seen. There will be more locusts than there have been since people began living in Egypt.’ ” Then Moses turned and walked away from the king.

<sup>7</sup>The king's officers asked him, “How long will this man make trouble for us? Let the Israelite men go to worship the Lord their God. Don't you know that Egypt is ruined?”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought back to the king. He said to them, “Go and worship the Lord your God. But tell me, just who is going?”

<sup>9</sup>Moses answered, “We will go with our young and our old people, our sons and daughters and sheep and cattle. This is because we are going to have a feast to honor the Lord.”

<sup>10</sup>The king said to them, “The Lord really will have to be with you if ever I let you and all of your children leave Egypt. See, you are planning something evil. <sup>11</sup>No! Only the men may go and worship the Lord. That is what you have been asking for.” Then the king forced Moses and Aaron out of his palace.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord told Moses, “Raise your hand over the land of Egypt, and the locusts will come. They will spread all over the land of Egypt. They will eat all the plants that the hail did not destroy.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses raised his walking stick over the land of Egypt. And the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. It blew across the land all that day and night. When morning came, the east wind had brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup>Swarms of locusts covered all the land of Egypt and settled everywhere. There were more locusts than ever before or after. <sup>15</sup>The locusts covered the whole land so that it was black. They ate everything that was left after the hail. They ate every plant in the field and all the fruit on the trees. Nothing green was left on any tree or plant anywhere in Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>The king quickly called for Moses and Aaron. He said, “I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>Now forgive my sin this time. Pray to the Lord your God. Ask him to stop this punishment that kills.”

The Darkness

<sup>21</sup>Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your hand toward the sky, and darkness will cover the land of Egypt. It will be so dark you will be able to feel it.” <sup>22</sup>So Moses raised his hand toward the sky. Then total darkness was everywhere in Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup>No one could see anyone else. And no one could go anywhere for three days. But the Israelites had light where they lived.

<sup>24</sup>Again the king of Egypt called for Moses. He said, “All of you may go and worship the Lord. You may take your women and children with you. But you must leave your sheep and cattle here.”

<sup>25</sup>Moses said, “You must let us have animals to use as sacrifices and burnt offerings. We have to offer them to the Lord our God. <sup>26</sup>So we must take our animals with us. Not a hoof will be left behind. We have to use some of the animals to worship the Lord our God. We do not yet know exactly what we will need to worship the Lord. We will know when we get there.”

<sup>27</sup>But the Lord made the king stubborn again. So he refused to let them go. <sup>28</sup>Then he told Moses, “Get out of here! Don’t come here again! The next time you see me, you will die.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses told the king, “I’ll do what you say. I will not come to see you again.”

The Death of the Firstborn

11 Now the Lord had told Moses, “I have one more way to punish the king and the people of Egypt. After this, the king will send all of you away from Egypt. When he does, he will force you to leave completely. <sup>2</sup>Tell the men and women of Israel to ask their neighbors for things made of silver and gold.” <sup>3</sup>The Lord had caused the Egyptians to respect the Israelites. The king’s officers and the Egyptian people already considered Moses to be a great man.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord had told Moses, “The king will not listen to you and Aaron. This is so that I may do many miracles<sup>d</sup> in the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron did all these great miracles in front of the king. But the Lord made him stubborn. And the king would not let the people of Israel leave his country.

The First Passover

12 The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: <sup>21</sup>“This month will be the first month of the year for you. <sup>3</sup>Both of you are to tell the whole community of Israel: On the tenth day of this month each man must get one lamb. It is for the people in his house. <sup>4</sup>There may not be enough people in his house to eat a whole lamb. Then he must share it with his closest neighbor. There must be enough lamb for everyone to eat. <sup>5</sup>The lamb must be a one-year-old male. It must have nothing wrong with it. This animal can be either a young sheep or a young goat. <sup>6</sup>Keep the animal with you to take care of it until the fourteenth day of the month. On that day all the people of the community of Israel will kill these animals. They will do this as soon as the sun goes down. <sup>7</sup>The people must take some of the blood. They must put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes. These are the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. <sup>8</sup>On this night they must roast the lamb over a fire. Then they must eat it with bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. <sup>9</sup>Do not eat the lamb raw or boiled in water. Roast the whole lamb over a fire—with its head, legs and inner organs. <sup>10</sup>You must not leave any of it until morning. But if any of it is left over until morning, you must burn it with fire.

<sup>11</sup>“This is the way you must eat it: You must be fully dressed as if you were going on a trip. You must have your sandals on, and you must have your walking stick in your hand. You must eat it in a hurry. This is the Lord’s Passover.”

<sup>12</sup>“That night I will go through the land of Egypt. I will kill all the firstborn<sup>d</sup> of animals and people in the land of Egypt. I will punish all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord. <sup>13</sup>But the blood will be a sign on the houses where you are. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. Nothing terrible will hurt you when I punish the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>“You are always to remember this day. Celebrate it with a feast to the Lord. Your descendants<sup>d</sup> are to honor the Lord with this feast from now on. <sup>15</sup>For this feast you must eat bread made without yeast for seven days. On the first day of this feast, you are to remove all the yeast from your houses. No one should eat any yeast for the full seven days of the feast. If anyone eats yeast, then that person will be separated from Israel. <sup>16</sup>You are to have holy meetings on the first and last days of the feast. You must not do any work on these days. The only work you may do on these days is to prepare your meals. <sup>17</sup>You must celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread. Do this because on this very day I brought your divisions of people out of Egypt. So all of your descendants must celebrate this day. This is a law that will last from now on. <sup>18</sup>You are to eat bread made without yeast. Start this on the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month of your year. Eat this until the evening of the twenty-first day. <sup>19</sup>For seven days there must not be any yeast in your houses. Anybody who eats yeast during this time must be separated from the community of Israel. This includes Israelites and non-Israelites. <sup>20</sup>During this feast you must not eat yeast. You must eat bread made without yeast wherever you live.”

<sup>29</sup>At midnight the Lord killed all the firstborn sons in the land of Egypt. The firstborn of the king, who sat on the throne, died. Even the firstborn of the prisoner in jail died. Also all the firstborn farm animals died. <sup>30</sup>The king, his officers and all the Egyptians got up during the night. Someone had died in every house. So there was loud crying everywhere in Egypt.

Israel Leaves Egypt

<sup>31</sup>During the night the king called for Moses and Aaron. He said to them, “Get up and leave my people. You and your people may do as you have asked. Go and worship the Lord. <sup>32</sup>Take all of your sheep and cattle as you have asked. Go. And also bless me.” <sup>33</sup>The Egyptians also asked the Israelites to hurry and leave. They said, “If you don’t leave, we will all die!”

<sup>34</sup>The people of Israel took their dough before the yeast was added. They wrapped the bowls for making dough in clothing and carried them on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup>The people of Israel did what Moses told them to do. They asked their Egyptian neighbors for things made of silver and gold and for clothing. <sup>36</sup>The Lord caused the Egyptians to think well of the Israelites. So the Israelites took rich gifts from the Egyptians.

The Law of the Firstborn

13 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Give every firstborn<sup>d</sup> male to me. Every firstborn male among the Israelites belongs to me, whether human or animal."

ised to give you the land of these people: the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites. The Lord will lead you to this land where much food grows. There you must celebrate this feast during the first month of every year. <sup>6</sup>For seven days you must eat bread made without yeast. On the seventh day there will be a feast to honor the Lord. <sup>7</sup>So for seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast. There must be no bread made with yeast anywhere in your land. <sup>8</sup>On that day you should tell your son: 'We are having this feast because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt.' <sup>9</sup>This feast will help you remember. It will be like a mark on your hand. It will be like a reminder on your forehead. This feast will remind you to speak the Lord's teachings. This is because the Lord used his great power to bring you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>So celebrate this feast every year at the right time.

<sup>11</sup>"The Lord will take you into the land of the Canaanites. He promised to give this land to you and your ancestors. <sup>12</sup>Then you must give him every firstborn male. And every firstborn male animal must be given to the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Buy back every firstborn donkey by offering a lamb. If you don't want to buy the donkey back, then break its neck. You must buy back from the Lord every firstborn of your sons.

<sup>14</sup>"From now on your son will ask you: 'What does this mean?' You will answer, 'With his great power, the Lord brought us out of Egypt. We were slaves in that land. <sup>15</sup>In Egypt the king was stubborn. He refused to let us leave. But the Lord killed every firstborn male in Egypt, both human and animal. That is why I sacrifice every firstborn male animal to the Lord. And that is why I buy back each of my firstborn sons from the Lord.' <sup>16</sup>This feast is like a mark on your hand. And it is like a reminder on your forehead. It will help you remember that the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power."

The Way Out of Egypt

<sup>17</sup>The king sent the people out of Egypt. God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country. That road is the shortest way. But God said, "They might think they will have to fight. Then they might change their minds and go back to Egypt." <sup>18</sup>So God led them through the desert toward the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup> The Israelites were dressed for fighting when they left the land of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>Moses carried the bones of Joseph with him. Before Joseph died, he had made the sons of Israel promise to do this. He had said,

"When God saves you, remember to carry my bones with you out of Egypt."

14 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"Tell the Israelites to turn back to Pi Hahiroth. Tell them to camp for the night between Migdol and the Red Sea. This is near Baal Zephon. <sup>3</sup>The king will think, 'The Israelites are lost, trapped by the desert.' <sup>4</sup>I will make the king stubborn again so he will chase after them. But I will defeat the king and his army. This will bring honor to me. Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord." The people of Israel did just as they were told.

The King Chases the Israelites

<sup>5</sup>The king of Egypt was told that the people of Israel had already left. Then he and his officers changed their minds about them. They said, "What have we done? We have let the people of Israel leave. We have lost our slaves!" <sup>6</sup>So the king prepared his war chariot and took his army with him. <sup>7</sup>He took 600 of his best chariots. He also took all the other chariots of Egypt. Each chariot had an officer in it. <sup>8</sup>The Lord made the king of Egypt stubborn. So he chased the Israelites, who were leaving victoriously. <sup>9</sup>The king of Egypt came with his horses, chariot drivers and army. And they chased the Israelites. They caught up with the Israelites while they were camped by the Red Sea. <sup>d</sup>This was near Pi Hahiroth and Baal Zephon.

<sup>10</sup>The Israelites saw the king and his army coming after them. They were very frightened and cried to the Lord for help. <sup>11</sup>They said to Moses, "What have you done to us? Why did you bring us out of Egypt to die in the desert? There were plenty of graves for us in Egypt. <sup>12</sup>We told you in Egypt, 'Let us alone! Let us stay and serve the Egyptians.' Now we will die in the desert."

<sup>13</sup>But Moses answered, "Don't be afraid! Stand still and see the Lord save you today. You will never see these Egyptians again after today. <sup>14</sup>You will only need to remain calm. The Lord will fight for you."

you crying out to me? Command the people of Israel to start moving. <sup>16</sup>Raise your walking stick and hold it over the sea. The sea will split. Then the people can cross the sea on dry land. <sup>17</sup>I have made the Egyptians stubborn so they will chase the Israelites. But I will be honored when I defeat the king and all of his chariot drivers and chariots. <sup>18</sup>I will defeat the king, his chariot drivers and chariots. Then Egypt will know that I am the Lord."

<sup>21</sup>Moses held his hand over the sea. All that night the Lord drove back the sea with a strong east wind. And so he made the sea become dry ground. The water was split. <sup>22</sup>And the Israelites went through the sea on dry land. A wall of water was on both sides.

The Song of Moses

15 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord:

- "I will sing to the Lord because he is worthy of great honor.
He has thrown the horse and its rider
into the sea.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord gives me strength and makes me sing.
He has saved me.
He is my God,
and I will praise him.
He is the God of my fathers, and I will honor him.
<sup>3</sup>The Lord is a great warrior.
The Lord is his name.
Egypt
he has thrown into the sea.
The king's best officers are drowned in the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>5</sup>The deep waters covered them.
They sank to the bottom like a rock.
is amazingly strong.
Lord, your right hand broke the enemy into pieces.
<sup>7</sup>In your great victory you destroyed those who were against you.
Your anger destroyed them,
like fire burning straw.
<sup>8</sup>Just a blast of your breath, and the waters were blown back.
The moving water stood up like a wall.
And the deep waters became solid in the middle of the sea.
<sup>9</sup>"The enemy bragged,
'I'll chase them and catch them.
I'll take all their riches.
I'll take all I want.
I'll pull out my sword, and my hand will destroy them.'
<sup>10</sup>But you blew on them with your breath and covered them with the sea.
They sank like lead in the powerful water.
<sup>11</sup>"Are there any gods like you, Lord?
No! There are no gods like you.
You are wonderfully holy.
You are amazingly powerful.
You do great miracles.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>12</sup>You reached out with your right hand,

- and the earth swallowed our enemies.
You lead the people you have saved.
With your strength you will guide them to your holy land.
<sup>14</sup>"The other nations will hear this and tremble with fear.
Terror will take hold of the Philistines.
<sup>15</sup>The leaders of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Edom will be very frightened.
The powerful men of Moab will shake with fear.
The people of Canaan will lose all their courage.
<sup>16</sup>Those people will be filled with fear.
When they see your strength, they will be as still as a rock.
They will be still until your people pass by,
Lord.
They will be still until the people you have bought from slavery pass by.
<sup>17</sup>You will lead your people and place them on your very own mountain.
Lord, that is the place that you made for yourself to live.
Lord, that is the temple that your hands have made.

the king of Egypt went into the sea. And the Lord covered them with water from the sea.
But the Israelites walked through the sea on dry land. <sup>20</sup>Then Aaron's sister Miriam, who was a prophetess,<sup>d</sup> took a tambourine<sup>d</sup> in her hand. All the women followed her, playing tambourines and dancing. <sup>21</sup>Miriam told them:
"Sing to the Lord
because he is worthy of great honor.
He has thrown the horse and its rider
into the sea."

Bitter Water Becomes Good

<sup>22</sup>Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup> The people went into the Desert of Shur. They traveled for three days in the desert but found no water. <sup>23</sup>Then they came to Marah, where there was water. But they could not drink it because it was too bitter.
That is why the place was named Marah.<sup>d</sup> <sup>24</sup>The people grumbled to Moses. They asked,
"What will we drink?"

<sup>25</sup>Moses cried out to the Lord. So the Lord showed him a tree. Moses threw the tree into the water. And the water became good to drink.

Then the Lord gave the people a rule and a law to live by. There he also tested their loyalty to him. <sup>26</sup>He said, "You must obey the Lord, your God. You must do what the Lord said is right. You must obey all his laws and keep his rules. If you do these things, I will not give you any of the sicknesses I gave the Egyptians. I am the Lord. I am the Lord who heals you."

<sup>27</sup>Then the people traveled to Elim. At Elim there were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees. So the people camped there near the water.

The People Demand Food

16 Then the whole Israelite community left Elim. They came to the Desert of Sin. This place was between Elim and Sinai. They came to this place on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Then the whole Israelite community grumbled to Moses and Aaron in the desert. <sup>3</sup>The Israelites said to them, "It would have been better if the Lord had killed us in the land of Egypt. There we had meat to eat. We had all the food we wanted. But you have brought us into this desert. You will starve us to death here."

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "I will cause food to fall like rain from the sky. This food will be for all of you. Every day the people must go out and gather what they need for that day. I will do this to see if the people will do what I teach them. <sup>5</sup>On the sixth day of each week, they are to gather twice as much as they gather on other days. Then they are to prepare it."

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites: "This evening you will know that the Lord is the one who brought you out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Tomorrow morning you will see the greatness of the Lord. He has heard you grumble against him. We are nothing. You are not grumbling against us, but against the Lord." <sup>8</sup>And Moses said, "Each evening the Lord will give you meat to eat. And every morning he will give you all the bread you want. He will do this because he has heard you grumble against him. You are not grumbling against Aaron and me. You are grumbling against the Lord."

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "Speak to the whole community of the Israelites. Say to them, 'Meet together in front of the Lord because he has heard your grumbings.'"

<sup>10</sup>So Aaron spoke to the whole community of the Israelites. While he was speaking, they looked toward the desert. There the greatness of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>"I have heard the grumbings of the people of Israel. So tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat. And every morning you will eat all the bread you want. Then you will know I am the Lord, your God.'"

<sup>13</sup>That evening, quail came and covered the camp. And in the morning dew lay around the camp. <sup>14</sup>When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost were on the desert ground. <sup>15</sup>When the Israelites saw it, they asked each other, "What is that?" They asked this question because they did not know what it was.

So Moses told them, "This is the bread the Lord has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>The Lord has commanded, 'Each one of you must gather what he needs. Gather about two quarts for every person in your family.'"

<sup>17</sup>So the people of Israel did this. Some people gathered much, and some gathered little. <sup>18</sup>Then they measured it. The person who gathered more did not have too much. The person who gathered less did not have too little. Each person gathered just as much as he needed.

<sup>19</sup>Moses said to them, "Don't keep any of it to eat the next day." <sup>20</sup>But some of the people did not listen to Moses. They kept part of it to eat the next morning. But it became full of worms and began to stink. So Moses was angry with these people.

<sup>21</sup>Every morning each person gathered as much food as he needed. But when the sun became hot, it melted away.

<sup>22</sup>On the sixth day the people gathered twice as much food. They gathered four quarts for every person. So all the leaders of the community came and told this to Moses. <sup>23</sup>Moses said to them, "This is what the Lord commanded. Tomorrow is the Sabbath,<sup>d</sup> the Lord's holy day of rest. Bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil today. But save the rest of the food until tomorrow morning."

<sup>24</sup>So the people saved it until the next morning, as Moses had commanded. And none of it began to stink or have worms in it. <sup>25</sup>Moses told the people, "Eat the food you gathered yesterday. Today is a Sabbath, the Lord's day of rest. So you will not find any out in the field today. <sup>26</sup>You should gather the food for six days. But the seventh day is a Sabbath day. On that day there will not be any food on the ground."

<sup>27</sup>On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather food, but they couldn't find any. <sup>28</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "How long will all you people refuse to obey my commands and teachings? <sup>29</sup>Look, the Lord has made the Sabbath a day of rest for all of you. So on the sixth day he will give you enough food for two days. But on the Sabbath each of you must stay where you are. Do not leave your house.” <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the Sabbath.

<sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, “The Lord said, ‘Save two quarts of this food for your descendants.’ Then they can see the food that I gave you to eat. I did this in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’”

Water from a Rock

17 The whole Israelite community left the Desert of Sin. They traveled from place to place as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim. But there was no water there for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>So they quarreled with Moses. They said, “Give us water to drink.”

But Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why are you testing the Lord?”

<sup>3</sup>But the people were very thirsty for water. So they grumbled against Moses. They said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Was it to kill us, our children and our farm animals with thirst?”

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Go ahead of the people of Israel. And take some of the older leaders of Israel with you. Carry with you the walking stick that you used to strike the Nile River. Now go! <sup>6</sup>I will stand in front of you on a rock at Mount Sinai. Hit that rock with the stick, and water will come out of it. Then the people can drink.” Moses did these things as the older leaders of Israel watched. <sup>7</sup>Moses named that place Massah<sup>a</sup> because the Israelites tested the Lord. They asked, “Is the Lord with us or not?” He also named it Meribah<sup>a</sup> because they quarreled.

The Amalekites Fight Israel

<sup>10</sup>Joshua obeyed Moses and went to fight the Amalekites. At the same time Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>As long as Moses held his hands up, the Israelites would win the fight. But when Moses put his hands down, the Amalekites would win. <sup>12</sup>Later, Moses’ arms became tired. So the men put a large rock under Moses, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur held up Moses’ hands. Aaron was on one side of Moses, and Hur was on the other side. They held his hands up like this until the sun went down. <sup>13</sup>So Joshua defeated the Amalekites in this battle.

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write about this battle in a book so people will remember. And be sure to tell Joshua. Tell him because I will completely destroy the Amalekites from the earth.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses built an altar. He named it The Lord is my Banner. <sup>16</sup>Moses said, “I lifted my hands toward the Lord’s throne. The Lord will fight against the Amalekites forever.”

Jethro Visits Moses

18 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, was the priest of Midian. He heard about everything that God had done for Moses and his people, the Israelites. Jethro heard how the Lord had led the Israelites out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Moses had sent his wife Zipporah to Jethro, his father-in-law. <sup>3</sup>Moses had also sent his two sons. The first son was named Gershom.<sup>a</sup> When he was born, Moses said, “I am a stranger in a foreign country.” <sup>4</sup>The other son was named Eliezer.<sup>a</sup> When he was born, Moses said, “The God of my father is my help. He saved me from the king of Egypt.”

Moses. Moses was camped in the desert near Sinai, the mountain of God. Moses' wife and his two sons came with Jethro. <sup>6</sup>Jethro had sent a message ahead to Moses. He said, "I am Jethro, your father-in-law. I am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

<sup>7</sup>So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed down and then kissed him. The two men asked about each other's health. Then they went into Moses' tent. <sup>8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law everything the Lord had done to the king and the Egyptians. The Lord had done these things to help Israel. Moses told about all the problems they had faced along the way. And Moses told him how the Lord had saved them.

<sup>9</sup>Jethro was very happy when he heard all the good things the Lord had done for Israel. He was happy because the Lord had saved them from the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>Jethro said, "Praise the Lord. He has saved all of you from the Egyptians and their king. He has saved the people from the power of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup>Now I know the Lord is greater than all gods. He did this to those who looked down on Israel." <sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, gave a whole burnt offering and other sacrifices to God. Aaron and all the older leaders of Israel came to Moses' father-in-law. They ate the holy meal together before God.

<sup>13</sup>The next day Moses solved disagreements among the people. So the people stood around Moses from morning until night. <sup>14</sup>Moses' father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people. He asked, "What is all this you are doing for the people? Why are you the only one to solve disagreements? All the people are standing around you from morning until night!"

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to his father-in-law, "It is because the people come to me for God's help in solving their disagreements. <sup>16</sup>When people have a disagreement, they come to me. I decide who is right. And I tell them God's laws and teachings."

<sup>17</sup>Moses' father-in-law said to him, "You are not doing this right. <sup>18</sup>You and the people who come to you will get too tired. This is too much work for you. You can't do it by yourself. <sup>19</sup>Now listen to me. I will give you some advice. I want God to be with you. You must talk to God for the people. You must tell him about their disagreements. <sup>20</sup>You should tell them the laws and teachings. Tell them the right way to live and what they should do. <sup>21</sup>But choose some capable men from among the people. Choose men who respect God and who can be trusted. They will not change their decisions for money. Make these men officers over groups of 1,000, 100, 50 and 10 people. <sup>22</sup>Let these officers solve the disagreements among the people all the time. They can bring the hard cases to you. But they can decide the simple cases themselves. That will make it easier for you. These men will share the work with you. <sup>23</sup>Do this if it is what God commands. Then you will be able to do your job. And all the people will go home with their disagreements solved."

<sup>24</sup>So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. <sup>25</sup>He chose capable men from all the Israelites. He made them leaders over the people. They were officers over groups of 1,000, 100, 50 and 10 people. <sup>26</sup>These officers solved disagreements among the people all the time. They brought the hard cases to Moses. But they decided the simple cases themselves.

Israel Camps at Sinai

19 Exactly three months after the Israelites had left Egypt, they reached the Desert of Sinai. <sup>2</sup>They had left Rephidim and had come to the Desert of Sinai. The Israelites camped in the desert in front of Mount Sinai. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses went up on the mountain to God. The Lord called to him from the mountain. The Lord said, "Say this to the family of Jacob. And tell this to the people of Israel: <sup>4</sup>'Every one of you has seen what I did to the people of Egypt. You saw how I carried you out of Egypt. I did it as an eagle carries her young on her wings. And I brought you here to me. <sup>5</sup>So now obey me and keep my agreement. Do this, and you will be my own possession, chosen from all nations. Even though the whole earth is mine, <sup>6</sup>you will be my kingdom of priests. You will be a nation that belongs to me alone.' You must tell the Israelites these words."

<sup>7</sup>So Moses went down and called the older leaders of the people together. He told them all the words the Lord had commanded him to say. <sup>8</sup>And all the people answered together, "We will do everything he has said." Then Moses took their answer back to the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>And the Lord said to Moses, "I will come to you in a thick cloud. I will speak to you. The people will hear me talking to you. I will do this so the people will always trust you." Then Moses told the Lord what the people had said.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Go to the people and have them spend today and tomorrow preparing themselves. They must wash their clothes <sup>11</sup>and be ready by the day after tomorrow. On that day I, the Lord, will come down on Mount Sinai. And all the people will see me. <sup>12</sup>But you must set a limit around the mountain. The people are not to cross it. Tell the people not to go up on the mountain. Tell them not to touch the foot of it. Anyone who touches the mountain must be put to death. <sup>13</sup>He must be put to death with stones or shot with arrows. No one is allowed to touch him. Whether it is a person or an animal, he will not live. But the trumpet will make a long blast. Only then may the people go up on the mountain."

<sup>14</sup>So Moses went down from the mountain to the people. He made them prepare themselves for service to God. And the people washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to the people, "Be ready in three days. Do not have sexual relations during this time."

<sup>16</sup>It was the morning of the third day. There was thunder and lightning with a thick cloud on the mountain. And there was a very loud blast from a trumpet. All the people in the camp were frightened. <sup>17</sup>Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God. They stood at the foot of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>Mount Sinai was covered with smoke. This happened because the Lord came down on it in fire. The smoke rose from the mountain like smoke from a furnace. And the whole mountain shook wildly. <sup>19</sup>The sound from the trumpet became louder. Then Moses spoke, and the voice of God answered him.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord came down on the top of Mount Sinai. Then he called Moses to come up to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up. <sup>21</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people. They must not force their way through to see me. If they do, many of them will die. <sup>22</sup>Even the priests, who may come near me, must first prepare themselves. If they don't, I, the Lord, will punish them."

<sup>23</sup>Moses told the Lord, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai. You yourself told us to set a limit around the mountain. We made it holy."

<sup>24</sup>The Lord said to him, "Go down and bring Aaron with you. But don't allow the priests or the people to force their way through. They must not come up to the Lord. If they do, I will punish them."

The Ten Commandments

20 Then God spoke all these words: <sup>21</sup>"I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves.

<sup>4</sup>"You must not make for yourselves any idols. Don't make something that looks like anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the water below the land. <sup>5</sup>You must not worship or serve any idol. This is because I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God. A person may sin against me and hate me. I will punish his children, even his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. <sup>6</sup>But I will be very kind to thousands who love me and obey my commands.

<sup>7</sup>"You must not use the name of the Lord your God thoughtlessly. The Lord will punish anyone who is guilty and misuses his name.

<sup>8</sup>"Remember to keep the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> as a holy day. <sup>9</sup>You may work and get everything done during six days each week. <sup>10</sup>But the seventh day is a day of rest to honor the Lord your God. On that day no one may do any work: not you, your son or daughter, or your men or women slaves. Neither your animals nor the foreigners living in your cities may work. <sup>11</sup>The reason is that in six days the Lord made everything. He made the sky, earth, sea and everything in them. And on the seventh day, he rested. So the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

<sup>12</sup>"Honor your father and your mother. Then you will live a long time in the land. The Lord your God is going to give you this land.

<sup>17</sup>"You must not want to take your neighbor's house. You must not want his wife or his men or women slaves. You must not want his ox or his donkey. You must not want to take anything that belongs to your neighbor."

<sup>18</sup>The people heard the thunder and the trumpet. They saw the lightning on the mountain and smoke rising from the mountain. They shook with fear and stood far away from the mountain. <sup>19</sup>Then they said to Moses, "Speak to us yourself. Then we will listen. But don't let God speak to us, or we will die."

afraid. God has come to test you. He wants you to respect him so you will not sin.”

<sup>21</sup>The people stood far away from the mountain while Moses went near the dark cloud where God was. <sup>22</sup>Then the Lord told Moses to say these things to the Israelites: “You yourselves have seen that I talked with you from heaven. <sup>23</sup>You must not use gold or silver to make idols for yourselves. You must not worship these false gods in addition to me.

<sup>24</sup>“Make an altar of dirt for me. Offer your whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on this altar as a sacrifice to me. Use your sheep and your cattle to do this. Worship me in every place that I choose. Then I will come and bless you. <sup>25</sup>You may use stones to make an altar for me. But don’t use stones that you have made smooth with tools. You must not use any tools on the stones. If you do, you make them unsuitable for use in worship. <sup>26</sup>And you must not make steps leading up to my altar. If you go up steps, people will be able to see under your clothes.”

Laws for Living

21 Then God said to Moses, “These are the laws for living that you will give to the Israelites:

<sup>2</sup>“If you buy a Hebrew slave, he will serve you for six years. In the seventh year you are to set him free. And he will have to pay nothing. <sup>3</sup>He might not be married when he becomes your slave. Then he must leave without a wife. The man might be married when he becomes your slave. Then he may take his wife with him. <sup>4</sup>The slave’s master might give him a wife, and she might give birth to sons or daughters. Then the woman and her children will belong to the master. When the slave is set free, only he may leave.

<sup>5</sup>“But the slave might say, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children. I don’t want to go free.’ <sup>6</sup>Then the slave’s master will take him to God. The master will take him to a door or doorframe. And he will punch a hole through the slave’s ear using a sharp tool. Then the slave will serve that master all his life.

he must treat her as a daughter. <sup>10</sup>The man who bought her might marry another woman. Then he must not keep his slave woman from having food or clothing or sexual relations. <sup>11</sup>If he does not give her these three things, she may go free. She owes him no money.

Laws About Injuries

<sup>12</sup>“Anyone who hits a person and kills him must be put to death. <sup>13</sup>But if a person kills someone accidentally, God allowed that to happen. So the person must go to a place I will choose. <sup>14</sup>A person might plan and murder another person on purpose. Put him to death, even if he has run to my altar for safety.

<sup>16</sup>“A person might kidnap someone. Then he either sells him as a slave or still has him when he is caught. That person must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>“Two men might argue. And one might hit the other with a rock or with his fist. The hurt man might not be killed. But he might have to stay in bed. <sup>19</sup>Later he might be able to get up. And he might be able to walk around outside with his walking stick. Then the one who hit him is not to be punished. But he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time. And he must support the injured man until he is completely healed.

<sup>28</sup>“A man’s bull might kill a man or woman. Then you must kill that bull with stones. You should not eat the bull. But the owner of the bull is not guilty. <sup>29</sup>But the bull might have hurt people in the past. The owner might have been warned. If he did not keep it in a pen and then it kills a man or woman, the bull must be killed with stones. And the owner must also be put to death. <sup>30</sup>But the family of the dead man might accept money. Then the man who owned the bull may buy back his life. But he must pay whatever is demanded. <sup>31</sup>Use this same law if the bull kills a person's son or daughter. <sup>32</sup>But the bull might kill a male or female slave. Then the owner must pay the master the price for a new slave. That is 12 ounces of silver. And the bull must also be killed with stones.

<sup>33</sup>A man might take the cover off a pit. Or he might dig one and not cover it. Another man's ox or donkey might come and fall into it. <sup>34</sup>The owner of the pit must pay the owner of the animal for his loss. The dead animal will belong to the one who pays.

<sup>35</sup>One man's bull might kill another man's bull. Then they must sell the bull that is alive. Both men get half of the money. And both men will also get half of the bull that was killed. <sup>36</sup>A man's bull might have hurt other animals in the past. But the owner might not have kept it in a pen. Then that owner must pay bull for bull. And the dead animal is his.

Property Laws

22 A man might steal a bull or a sheep and kill or sell it. Then he must pay back five bulls for the one bull he stole. Or he must pay back four sheep for the one sheep he stole.

<sup>24</sup>The robber who is caught must pay back what he stole. He might own nothing. Then he must be sold as a slave to pay for what he stole. The stolen animal might be found alive with the robber. Then he must give the owner two animals for every animal he stole. He must pay, whether he stole a bull, donkey or sheep.

"A thief might be killed while breaking into a house at night. Then the one who killed him is not guilty of murder. But if this happens during the day, he is guilty of murder.

<sup>5</sup>A person might let his farm animal graze in his field or vineyard. And it might wander into another person's field or vineyard. Then the owner of the animal must pay back the loss. The payment must come from the best of his crop.

<sup>6</sup>A man might start a fire that spreads through the thornbushes to his neighbor's field. The fire might burn his neighbor's growing grain or grain that has been stacked. Or it might burn his whole field. Then the person who started the fire must pay for what was burned.

<sup>7</sup>A man might give his neighbor money or other things to keep for him. Those things might be stolen from the neighbor's house. And the thief might be caught. Then he must pay back twice as much as he stole. <sup>8</sup>But maybe the thief is never found. Then the owner of the house must make a promise before God. He must promise that he has not stolen his neighbor's things.

<sup>9</sup>Two men might disagree about who owns something. It might be an ox, donkey, sheep or clothing. Or it might be something else that is lost. Each says, "This is mine." Each man must bring his case to God. God's judges will decide who is guilty. Then he must pay the other man twice as much as the thing is worth.

<sup>10</sup>A man might ask his neighbor to keep his animal for him. This animal might be a donkey, ox, sheep or some other animal. And that animal might die, be hurt or be taken away. And no one saw what happened. <sup>11</sup>That neighbor must promise before the Lord that he did not harm or kill the other man's animal. The owner of the animal must accept his promise made before God. The neighbor does not have to pay the owner for the animal. <sup>12</sup>But the animal might have been stolen from the neighbor. Then he must pay the owner for it. <sup>13</sup>Wild animals might have killed the animal. Then the neighbor must bring the body as proof. He will not have to pay for the animal that was killed.

<sup>14</sup>A man might borrow an animal from his neighbor. It might get hurt or die while the owner is not there. Then the one who borrowed it must pay the owner for the animal. <sup>15</sup>The owner might be with the animal. Then the one who borrowed it does not have to pay. If the animal was rented, the rental price covers the loss.

Laws and Relationships

<sup>16</sup>A man might find a woman who is not pledged to be married. She has never had sexual relations with a man. He might trick her into having sexual relations with him. Then he must give her family the payment to marry her. And she will be his wife. <sup>17</sup>But her father might refuse to allow his daughter to marry him. Then the man must still give the payment for a bride. He must pay the usual charge for a woman who has never had sexual relations.

19<sup>c</sup>Put to death anyone who has sexual relations with an animal.

20<sup>a</sup>Destroy completely any person who makes a sacrifice to any god except the Lord.

21<sup>a</sup>Do not cheat or hurt a foreigner. Remember that you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

22<sup>a</sup>Do not cheat a widow or an orphan. 23<sup>b</sup>If you do, they will cry out to me for help. I certainly will hear their cry. 24<sup>b</sup>And I will be very angry and kill you in war. Then your wives will become widows, and your children will become orphans.

25<sup>a</sup>You might lend money to one of my people who is poor. Then do not treat him as a moneylender would. Charge him nothing for using your money. 26<sup>b</sup>Your neighbor might give you his coat as a promise. He is promising to pay you the money he owes you. But you must give it back to him by sunset. 27<sup>b</sup>That coat is the only cover to keep his body warm. He has nothing else to sleep in. If he cries out to me for help, I will listen because I am merciful.

28<sup>a</sup>You must not speak against God. You must not curse a leader of your people.

29<sup>a</sup>Do not hold back your offering from the first of your harvest. Give me the first grain that you harvest. Give me the first wine that you make. Also, you must give me your firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons. 30<sup>a</sup>You must do the same with your bulls and your sheep. Let the firstborn males stay with their mothers for seven days. On the eighth day you must give them to me.

31<sup>a</sup>You are to be my holy people. You must not eat the meat of any animal that has been killed by wild animals. Instead, give it to the dogs.

Laws About Fairness

23 "You must not tell lies. You might be a witness in court. Don't help a bad person by telling lies.

2<sup>a</sup>You must not do wrong just because everyone else is doing it. You might be a witness in court. Then you must not ruin a fair trial. You must not tell lies just because everyone else is. 3<sup>a</sup>A poor man might be in court. You must not take his side just because he is poor.

4<sup>a</sup>You might see your enemy's ox or donkey wandering away. Then you must return it to him. 5<sup>a</sup>You might see that your enemy's donkey has fallen because its load is too heavy. You must not leave it there. You must help your enemy get the donkey back on its feet.

6<sup>a</sup>You must not be unfair to a poor man when he is in court. 7<sup>a</sup>You must not lie when you accuse someone in court. Never allow an innocent or honest person to be put to death as punishment. This is because I will not treat guilty people as if they were innocent.

8<sup>a</sup>You must not accept money from a person who wants you to lie in court. Such money will not let you see what is right. Such money makes good people tell lies.

9<sup>a</sup>You must not mistreat a foreigner. You know how it feels to be a foreigner. You were foreigners in Egypt.

Laws for the Sabbath

10<sup>a</sup>For six years you are to plant and harvest crops on your land. 11<sup>a</sup>Then during the seventh year, do not plow or plant your land. If any food grows there, allow the poor people to have it. And let the wild animals eat what is left. You should do the same with your vineyards and your orchards of olive trees.

12<sup>a</sup>You should work six days a week. But on the seventh day you must rest. This lets your ox and your donkey rest. This also lets the slave born in your house and the foreigner be refreshed.

13<sup>a</sup>Be sure to do all that I have said to you. You must not even say the names of other gods. The names of those gods must not come out of your mouth.

Three Yearly Feasts

14<sup>a</sup>Three times each year you must hold a feast to honor me. 15<sup>a</sup>You must celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread. Do this in the way I commanded you. For seven days you must eat bread that is made without yeast. You must do this at the set time during the month of Abib.<sup>d</sup> This is the month when you came out of Egypt. No one is to come to worship me without bringing an offering.

16<sup>a</sup>You must celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Harvest. Offer to God the first things you harvest. These are from the crops you planted in your fields.

"You must celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Tents in the fall. Do this when you gather all the crops from your fields.

17<sup>a</sup>So three times during every year all men must come to worship the Lord God.

18<sup>a</sup>You must not offer animal blood along with anything that has yeast in it.

"You must not save any of the fat from the sacrifice for the next day.

19<sup>a</sup>You must bring the best of the firstfruits<sup>d</sup> of your land. Bring them to the Holy Tent<sup>a</sup> of the Lord your God.

“You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

God Will Help Israel

<sup>20</sup>“I am sending an angel ahead of you. He will protect you as you travel. He will lead you to the place I have prepared. <sup>21</sup>Pay attention to the angel and obey him. Do not turn against him. He will not forgive such turning against him because my power is in him. <sup>22</sup>You must listen carefully to all he says. You must do everything that I tell you. If you do this, I will be an enemy to your enemies. I will fight all who fight against you. <sup>23</sup>My angel will go ahead of you. He will take you into the land of these people: the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebusites. And I will destroy them.

<sup>24</sup>“You must not bow down to their gods or worship those gods. You must not live the way those people live. You must destroy their idols. And you must break into pieces stone pillars they use in worship. <sup>25</sup>You must worship the Lord your God. If you do, I will bless your bread and your water. I will take away sickness from you. <sup>26</sup>None of your women will have her baby die before it is born. All women will have children. I will allow you to live long lives.

<sup>27</sup>“I will make your enemies afraid of me. I will confuse any people you fight against. I will make all your enemies run away from you. <sup>28</sup>I will send something like hornets ahead of you. They will force the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way. <sup>29</sup>But I will not force all those people out in only one year. If I did, the land would become a desert. Then the wild animals would become too many for you. <sup>30</sup>Instead, I will force those people out of your land very slowly. I will wait until there are enough of you to take over the land.

<sup>31</sup>“I will give you the land from the Gulf of Aqaba to the Mediterranean Sea. And I will give you the land between the desert and the Euphrates River. I will give you power over the people who now live in the land. You will force them out ahead of you. <sup>32</sup>You must not make an agreement with those people or with their gods. <sup>33</sup>You must not let them live in your land. If they live there, they will make you sin against me. If you worship their gods, you will be like someone caught in a trap.”

God and Israel Make Their Agreement

24 The Lord told Moses, “You, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and 70 of the older leaders of Israel must come up to me. You must worship me from a distance. <sup>2</sup>Then Moses alone must come near me. The other men must not come near. And the rest of the people must not come up the mountain with Moses.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses told the people all the Lord’s words and laws for living. Then all of the people answered out loud together. They said, “We will do all the things that the Lord has said.” <sup>4</sup>So Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord. And he got up early the next morning. He built an altar near the bottom of the mountain. He set up 12 stones, 1 stone for each of the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then Moses sent young Israelite men to offer whole burnt offerings. They also sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Moses took the blood of these animals. He put half of it in bowls. And he sprinkled the other half of the blood on the altar. <sup>7</sup>Then Moses took the book with the agreement written in it. He read it so the people could hear him. And they said, “We will do everything that the Lord has said. We will obey.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses took the blood from the bowls. He sprinkled it on the people. He said, “This is the blood that begins the agreement. This is the agreement which the Lord has made with you about all these things.”

<sup>9</sup>Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and 70 of the older leaders of Israel went up the mountain. <sup>10</sup>They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was a surface. It looked as if it were paved with blue sapphire stones. And it was as clear as the sky! <sup>11</sup>These leaders of the Israelites saw God. But God did not destroy them. Then they ate and drank together.

Moses Gets the Stone Tablets

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Come up the mountain to me. Wait there, and I will give you two stone tablets. On these are the teachings and the commandments. I have written these to teach the people.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses and his helper Joshua set out. Moses went up Sinai, the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>Moses said to the older leaders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you. Anyone who has a disagreement with others can take it to them.”

Moses Meets with God

<sup>15</sup>When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it. <sup>16</sup>The greatness of the Lord came down on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day the Lord called to Moses from inside the cloud. <sup>17</sup>The Israelites could see the greatness of the Lord. It looked like a fire burning on top of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>Then Moses went into the cloud and went higher up the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.

Gifts for the Lord

25 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell the Israelites to bring me gifts. Receive for me the gifts each man wants to give. <sup>3</sup>These are the gifts that you should receive from them: gold, silver, bronze, <sup>4</sup>blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen. Receive cloth made of goat hair. <sup>5</sup>Receive the male sheep skins that are dyed red. Receive fine leather, acacia wood <sup>6</sup>and olive oil to burn in the lamps. And receive spices for sweet-smelling incense<sup>d</sup> and the special olive oil poured on a person’s head to make him a priest. <sup>7</sup>Also accept onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the holy vest<sup>d</sup> and the chest covering.

<sup>8</sup>“The people must build a holy place for me. Then I can live among them. <sup>9</sup>Build this Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> and everything in it by the plan I will show you.

The Ark of the Agreement

will all be one piece. <sup>20</sup>The creatures’ wings should be spread out over the lid. The creatures are to face each other across the lid. <sup>21</sup>Put this lid on top of the Ark. Also put in this Ark the agreement which I will make with you. <sup>22</sup>I will meet with you there, above the lid between the two creatures with wings. These are on the Ark of the Agreement. There I will give you all my commands for the Israelites.

The Table

The Lampstand

<sup>31</sup>“Hammer pure gold to make a lampstand. Its base, stand, flower-like cups, buds and petals must all be joined together in one piece. <sup>32</sup>The lampstand must have three branches on one side and three branches on the other. <sup>33</sup>Each branch must have three cups shaped like almond flowers on it. Each cup must have a bud and a petal. <sup>34</sup>And there must be four more cups made like almond flowers on the lampstand itself. These cups must also have buds and petals. <sup>35</sup>Put a bud under each pair of branches that goes out from the lampstand. <sup>36</sup>The branches, buds and lampstand must be one piece of pure, hammered gold.

The Holy Tent

26 “Make the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> with ten pieces of cloth. These pieces must be made of fine linen and blue, purple and red thread. Have a skilled craftsman sew designs of creatures with wings on the pieces of cloth. <sup>2</sup>Make each piece the same size. Each piece should be 42 feet long and 6 feet wide. <sup>3</sup>Sew five pieces of cloth together for one set. Sew the other pieces together for the second set. <sup>4</sup>Make loops of blue cloth down the edge of the end piece of each set. <sup>5</sup>Make 50 loops on the end piece of the first set. And make 50 loops on the end piece of the second set. These loops must be opposite each other. <sup>6</sup>And make 50 gold hooks. Use these to join the two sets of cloth. This will make the Holy Tent one piece.

<sup>7</sup>Then make another tent that will cover the Holy Tent. Make this tent of 11 pieces of cloth made from goat hair. <sup>8</sup>All these pieces of cloth must be the same size. They must be 45 feet long and 6 feet wide. <sup>9</sup>Sew five of the pieces together into one set. Then sew the other six pieces together into the second set. Fold the sixth piece double over the front of the Tent. <sup>10</sup>Make 50 loops down the edge of the end piece of one set. Do the same for the end piece of the other set. <sup>11</sup>Then make 50 bronze hooks. Put these in the loops to join the two sets of cloth. This will make the covering one piece. <sup>12</sup>Let the extra half piece of cloth hang over the back of the Holy Tent. <sup>13</sup>There will be 18 inches hanging over the sides of the Holy Tent. This will protect the Tent. <sup>14</sup>Make two more coverings for the Holy Tent. One should be made from male sheep skins colored red. The outer covering should be from fine leather.

<sup>15</sup>Use acacia wood to make upright frames for the Holy Tent. <sup>16</sup>Each frame must be 15 feet long and 27 inches wide. <sup>17</sup>Every frame must be made the same way. There must be two pegs side by side in each frame. <sup>18</sup>Make 20 frames for the south side of the Holy Tent. <sup>19</sup>Each frame must have 2 silver bases to go under it. A peg fits into each silver base. You must make 40 silver bases for the frames. <sup>20</sup>Make 20 more frames for the north side of the Holy Tent. <sup>21</sup>Make 40 silver bases for them. Make 2 bases for each frame. <sup>22</sup>You must make 6 frames for the rear or west end of the Holy Tent. <sup>23</sup>Make 2 frames for each corner at the rear. <sup>24</sup>The 2 frames at each corner are to be joined together. Hold them together from bottom to top with a metal ring. Both corner frames must be made this way. <sup>25</sup>So there will be a total of 8 frames at the rear of the Tent.

And there will be 16 silver bases—2 bases under each frame.

<sup>35</sup>“Outside the curtain, put the table on the north side of the Holy Tent. And put the lampstand on the south side of the Holy Tent. This will be across from the table.

The Entrance of the Holy Tent

27 “Make an altar for burnt offerings out of acacia wood. Make it 4½ feet high. It should be square: 7½ feet long and 7½ feet wide. <sup>2</sup>Make each of the four corners of the altar stick out like a horn. The corners with their horns must be all one piece. Then cover the whole altar with bronze.

<sup>3</sup>“Use bronze to make all the tools and dishes that will be used on the altar. Make pots to remove the ashes. Make shovels, bowls for sprinkling blood, meat forks and pans for carrying the burning wood.

burning wood. And put a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the screen. <sup>5</sup>Put the screen inside the altar, under its rim, halfway up from the bottom.

The Courtyard of the Holy Tent

<sup>13</sup>"The west end of the courtyard must have a wall of curtains 75 feet long. It must have 10 posts and 10 bases on that wall. <sup>14</sup>The east end of the courtyard must also be 75 feet long. <sup>15</sup>On one side of the entry, there is to be a wall of curtains. It is to be 22½ feet long. It is to be held up by 3 posts on 3 bases. <sup>16</sup>On the other side of the entry, there is to be a wall of curtains. It is to be 22½ feet long. It is to be held up by 3 posts on 3 bases.

<sup>17</sup>"The entry to the courtyard is to be a curtain 30 feet wide. It is to be made of fine linen with blue, purple and red thread. Someone who can sew well is to sew designs on it. It is to be held up by 4 posts on 4 bases. <sup>18</sup>All the posts around the courtyard must have silver bands and hooks and bronze bases. <sup>19</sup>The courtyard must be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide. The wall of curtains around it should be 7½ feet high. They must be made of fine linen. The bases in which the posts are set must be bronze. <sup>20</sup>All the things used in the Holy Tent must be made of bronze. And all the tent pegs for the Holy Tent and the wall around the courtyard must be made of bronze.

Oil for the Lamp

<sup>21</sup>"Command the people of Israel to bring you pure olive oil. It is to be made from pressed olives. This is to keep the lamps on the lampstand burning. <sup>22</sup>Aaron and his sons must keep the lamps burning before the Lord from evening till morning. This will be in the Meeting Tent. <sup>23</sup>It is outside the curtain which is in front of the Ark. <sup>24</sup>The Israelites and their descendants must obey this rule from now on.

Clothes for the Priests

28 "Tell your brother Aaron to come to you. His sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar must come with him. Separate them from the other Israelites. These men must serve as priests. <sup>2</sup>Make holy clothes for your brother Aaron to give him honor and beauty. <sup>3</sup>Speak to all the people to whom I have given the ability to make clothes. Tell these skilled craftsmen to make the clothes for Aaron. Use these clothes to make him belong to me. Then he may serve me as a priest. <sup>4</sup>These are the clothes they must make: a chest covering, a holy vest, <sup>5</sup>an outer robe, a woven inner robe, a turban and a cloth belt. The craftsmen must make these holy clothes. They are for your brother Aaron and his sons. Then Aaron and his sons may serve me as priests. <sup>6</sup>The craftsmen must use gold and blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen.

The Holy Vest

<sup>5</sup>"Take two onyx stones. Write the name of the 12 sons of Israel on these jewels. <sup>6</sup>Write 6 names on one stone and 6 names on the other stone. Write the names in order, from the oldest son to the youngest. <sup>7</sup>Carve the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Do this the same way a person carves words and designs on the seals. <sup>8</sup>Put gold around the stones to hold them on the holy vest. <sup>9</sup>Put the two stones on the two straps of the holy vest. These stones are reminders of the 12 sons of Israel. Aaron is to wear their names on his shoulders. They are before the Lord as reminders of the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Make two gold pieces to hold the stones. <sup>11</sup>Then make two chains of pure gold. Twist them together like a rope. Attach the chains to the two gold pieces that hold the stones.

The Chest Covering

be nine inches long and nine inches wide. Fold it double to make a pocket. <sup>17</sup>Put four rows of beautiful gems on the chest covering. The first row of jewels must have a ruby, topaz and yellow quartz. <sup>18</sup>The second row must have turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald. <sup>19</sup>The third row must have a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst. <sup>20</sup>The fourth row must have a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Put gold around these jewels to attach them to the chest covering. <sup>21</sup>There must be 12 jewels on the chest covering. That is 1 jewel for each of the names of the sons of Israel. Carve the name of one of the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> on each of the stones. Carve them as you would carve a seal.<sup>d</sup>

there should be a gold bell and a pomegranate ball, a gold bell and a pomegranate ball. <sup>35</sup>Aaron must wear this robe when he serves as priest. The ringing of the bells will be heard. They will ring when he enters and leaves the Holy Place before the Lord. This way Aaron will not be killed.

Appointing the Priests

29 <sup>d</sup>This is what you must do to appoint Aaron and his sons. Then they may serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two male sheep that have nothing wrong with them. <sup>2</sup>Use fine wheat flour without yeast to make bread and cakes mixed with olive oil. Also use wheat flour without yeast to make wafers brushed with olive oil. <sup>3</sup>Put these in one basket. Bring them in the basket along with the bull and two male sheep. <sup>4</sup>Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> Then wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>Take the clothes. Dress Aaron in the inner robe and the outer robe of the holy vest.<sup>d</sup> Then put on him the holy vest and the chest covering. Then tie the holy vest on him with its skillfully woven belt. <sup>6</sup>Put the turban on his head. Put the holy crown, the strip of gold, on the turban. <sup>7</sup>Take the special olive oil and pour it on his head to make him a priest.

<sup>22</sup>Then take the fat from the male sheep. Take the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner organs. Take the best part of the liver. Take both kidneys and the fat around them and the right thigh. This is the male sheep to be used in appointing priests.

<sup>23</sup>Then take the basket of bread that you made without yeast. This is the basket you put before the Lord. From it take a loaf of bread, a cake made with olive oil and a wafer. <sup>24</sup>Put these in the hands of Aaron and his sons. Tell them to present these things in their hands before the Lord. This will be an offering presented to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Then take them from their hands. Burn them on the altar with the whole burnt offering. This is an offering made by fire to the Lord. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>26</sup>Then take the breast of the male sheep used to appoint Aaron as priest. Present the breast of the male sheep before the Lord. It is an offering presented to the Lord. This part of the animal will be your share. <sup>27</sup>Then give to the service of the Lord the parts of the male sheep used to appoint them as priests. They belong to Aaron and his sons. They are the breast and the right thigh. These were presented to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>This is to be the regular share which the Israelites will always give to Aaron and his sons. This is the gift the Israelites must give to the Lord from their fellowship offerings.

<sup>29</sup>The holy clothes made for Aaron will belong to his descendants. They must wear these clothes when they are appointed as priests. <sup>30</sup>Aaron's son will become high priest after Aaron. He will come to the Meeting Tent to serve in the Holy Place. He is to wear these clothes for seven days.

<sup>31</sup>Take the male sheep used to appoint priests. Boil its meat in a place made holy for serving me. <sup>32</sup>Then Aaron and his sons must eat the meat of the male sheep. They must do that at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. And they must also eat the bread that is in the basket. <sup>33</sup>These offerings were used to remove their sins when they were made priests so they would belong to God. Now they should eat these offerings. But no one else is to eat these things because they are holy. <sup>34</sup>If any of the meat from that male sheep or any of the bread is left the next morning, it must be burned. It shall not be eaten because it is holy.

<sup>35</sup>Do all these things that I commanded you to do to Aaron and his sons. You are to spend seven days appointing them. <sup>36</sup>Each day for seven days you are to offer a bull. This will remove the sins of Aaron and his sons so they will be given for service to the Lord. Make the altar ready for service to the Lord. Pour oil on it to make it holy. <sup>37</sup>Spend seven days making the altar ready for service to God and making it holy. Then the altar will become very holy. Anything that touches it must be holy.

The Daily Sacrifices

lamb, offer also two quarts of fine flour. Mix it with one quart of oil from pressed olives. Pour out a quart of wine as a drink offering. <sup>41</sup>Offer the second lamb in the evening. Also offer the same grain offering and drink offering as you did in the morning. This is an offering by fire to the Lord. And its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>42</sup>“You must burn these things as an offering to the Lord every day. Do this at the entrance of the Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> before the Lord from now on. When you make the offering, I, the Lord, will meet you there and speak to you. <sup>43</sup>I will meet with the people of Israel there. And that place will be holy because of my greatness.

<sup>44</sup>“So I will make the Meeting Tent and the altar holy. And I will make Aaron and his sons holy so they may serve me as priests. <sup>45</sup>I will live with the people of Israel. I will be their God. <sup>46</sup>And they will know that I am the Lord their God. They will know that I am the one who led them out of Egypt. I did this so I could live with them. I am the Lord their God.

The Altar for Burning Incense

30 “Make an altar out of acacia wood for burning incense.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Make it square—18 inches long and 18 inches wide. It must be 36 inches high. Make the corners stick out like horns. These must be one piece with the altar. <sup>3</sup>Cover its top, its sides and its corners with pure gold. And put a gold strip all around the altar. <sup>4</sup>Make two gold rings beneath the gold strip on opposite sides of the altar. Slide poles through these gold rings to carry the altar. <sup>5</sup>Make the poles from acacia wood and cover them with gold. <sup>6</sup>Put the altar of incense in front of the curtain. This curtain is in front of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement. Put the altar in front of the lid that covers that Ark. There I will meet with you.

<sup>7</sup>“Aaron must burn sweet-smelling incense on the altar every morning. He will do this when he comes to take care of the oil lamps. <sup>8</sup>He must burn incense again in the evening when he lights the lamps. So incense will burn before the Lord every day from now on. <sup>9</sup>Do not use this altar for offering any other incense or burnt offering. Do not use this altar to offer any kind of grain offering or drink offering. <sup>10</sup>Once a year Aaron must make the altar ready for service to God. He will do it by putting blood on its corners. This is blood of the animal offered to remove sins. He is to do this once a year from now on. This altar belongs completely to God’s service.”

The Tax for the Meeting Tent

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“Count the people of Israel. At that time every person must pay to buy back his life from the Lord. Then no terrible things will happen to the people when you number them. <sup>13</sup>Every person who is counted must pay one-fifth of an ounce of silver. This is set by the Holy Place measure, which weighs two-fifths of an ounce. This amount is a gift to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>Every person who is counted and is 20 years old or older must give this amount to the Lord. <sup>15</sup>A rich person must not give more than one-fifth of an ounce. And a poor person must not give less than one-fifth of an ounce. You are paying this to the Lord to buy back your lives. <sup>16</sup>Gather from the people of Israel this money paid to buy back their lives. Spend it to buy things for the service in the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> This payment will remind the Lord that the Israelites’ lives have been bought back.”

The Bronze Bowl

Oil for Anointing

<sup>22</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Take the finest spices: 12 pounds of liquid myrrh,<sup>d</sup> half that amount (that is, 6 pounds) of sweet-smelling cinnamon, 6 pounds of sweet-smelling cane <sup>24</sup>and 12 pounds of cassia.<sup>d</sup> Weigh all these by the Holy Place measure. Also take 4 quarts of olive oil. <sup>25</sup>Mix all these things like a perfume to make a holy olive oil. This special oil must be put on people and things. Do this to make them ready for service to God. <sup>26</sup>Put this oil on the Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> and the Ark<sup>d</sup> with my laws in it. <sup>27</sup>Put this oil on the table and all its dishes. And put this oil on the lampstand and all its tools. Put the oil on the incense<sup>d</sup> altar. <sup>28</sup>Also, put the oil on the altar for burning offerings and all its tools. Put this oil on the bowl and the stand under the bowl. Put oil on all these things to prepare them for service to God. <sup>29</sup>You will give these things for service to God. They will be very holy. Anything that touches these things must also be holy.

<sup>30</sup>Put the oil on Aaron and his sons to make them priests. Give them for service to me. Then they may serve me as priests. <sup>31</sup>Tell the Israelites, 'This is to be my holy olive oil from now on. It is to be put on people and things to make them ready for service to God. <sup>32</sup>Do not pour it on the bodies of ordinary people. Do not make perfume the same way you make this oil. It is holy, and you must treat it as holy. <sup>33</sup>Someone might make perfume like it. Or he might put it on someone who is not a priest. Then that person must be separated from his people.'

Incense

<sup>34</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Take these sweet-smelling spices: resin, onycha, galbanum and pure frankincense.<sup>d</sup> Be sure that you have equal amounts of each. <sup>35</sup>You must make incense<sup>d</sup> as a man who makes perfume would do. Add salt to it to keep it pure and holy. <sup>36</sup>Beat some of the incense into a fine powder. Put some of it in front of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement in the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> There I will meet with you. You must use this incense powder only for its very special purpose. <sup>37</sup>Do not make incense for yourselves the same way you make this incense. Treat it as holy to the Lord. <sup>38</sup>Whoever makes incense like this to use as perfume must be separated from his people."

Bezalel and Oholiab Help

31 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"See, I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah. Uri was the son of Hur. <sup>3</sup>I have filled Bezalel with the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God. I have given him the skill, ability and knowledge to do all kinds of work. <sup>4</sup>He is able to design pieces to be made from gold, silver and bronze. <sup>5</sup>He is able to cut jewels and put them in metal. And he can carve wood. Bezalel can do all kinds of work. <sup>6</sup>I have also chosen Oholiab son of Ahisamach from the tribe of Dan. Oholiab will work with Bezalel. I have given skills to all skilled craftsmen. They will be able to make all these things I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup>the Meeting Tent,<sup>d</sup> the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement, the lid that covers the Ark and everything in the Tent. <sup>8</sup>This includes the table and everything on it, the pure gold lampstand and everything with it and the altar of incense.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>It also includes the altar for burnt offerings and everything used with it, the bowl and the stand under it. <sup>10</sup>They will make the woven clothes and the holy clothes for Aaron and the clothes for his sons to wear when they serve as priests. <sup>11</sup>They will also make the special olive oil used in appointing people and things to the service of the Lord, and the sweet-smelling incense for the Holy Place.

"These workers will make all these things just as I have commanded you."

The Day of Rest

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>13</sup>"Tell the Israelites, 'You must keep the rules about my Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup> This is because they will be a sign between you and me from now on. In this way you will know that I, the Lord, am making you holy.

<sup>14</sup>"Make the Sabbath a holy day. If anyone treats the Sabbath like any other day, that person must be put to death. Anyone who works on the Sabbath day must be separated from his people. <sup>15</sup>There are six days for working. But the seventh day is a day of rest. It is a day holy for the Lord. Anyone who works during the Sabbath day must be put to death. <sup>16</sup>The Israelites must remember the Sabbath day. It is an agreement between them and me that will continue from now on. <sup>17</sup>The Sabbath day will be a sign between me and the Israelites forever. This is because in six days I, the Lord, made the sky and the earth. And on the seventh day I did not work. I rested.'

<sup>18</sup>So the Lord finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then the Lord gave him the two stone tablets with the agreement written on them. The finger of God wrote the commands on the tablets.

The People Make a Gold Calf

32 The people saw that a long time had passed. And Moses had not come down from the mountain. So they gathered around Aaron. They said to him, "Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don't know what has happened to him. So make us gods who will lead us."

<sup>2</sup>Aaron said to the people, "Take off the gold earrings that your wives, sons and daughters are wearing. Bring them to me." <sup>3</sup>So all the people took their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>Aaron took the gold from the people. Then he melted it and made a statue of a calf. He finished it with a tool. Then the people said, "Israel! These are your gods who brought you out of the land of Egypt!"

<sup>5</sup>Aaron saw all this, and he built an altar before the calf. Then he made an announcement. He said, "Tomorrow there will be a special feast to honor the Lord." <sup>6</sup>The people got up early the next morning. They offered whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. First the people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up and sinned sexually.

<sup>7</sup>And the Lord said to Moses, "Go down from this mountain. Your people, the people you brought out of the land of Egypt, have done a terrible sin. <sup>8</sup>They have quickly turned away from the things I commanded them to do. They have made for themselves a calf of melted gold. They have worshiped that calf and offered sacrifices to it. The people have said, 'Israel, these are your gods who brought you out of Egypt.'"

<sup>9</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen these people. I know that they are very stubborn people. <sup>10</sup>So now do not stop me. I am so angry with them that I am going to destroy them. Then I will make you and your descendants <sup>d</sup>a great nation."

<sup>11</sup>But Moses begged the Lord his God. Moses said, "Lord, don't let your anger destroy your people. You brought these people out of Egypt with your great power and strength. <sup>12</sup>Don't let the people of Egypt say, 'The Lord brought the Israelites out of Egypt. But he planned to kill them in the mountains and destroy them from the earth.' So stop being angry. Don't destroy your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember the men who served you—Abraham, Isaac and Israel. You promised with an oath to them. You said, 'I will make your descendants as many as the stars in the sky. I will give your descendants all this land that I have promised them. It will be theirs forever.' " <sup>14</sup>So the Lord changed his mind. He did not destroy the people as he had said he might.

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses went down the mountain. In his hands he had the two stone tablets with the agreement on them. The commands were written on both sides of each tablet, front and back. <sup>16</sup>God himself had made the tablets. And God himself had written the commands on the tablets.

"It is not an army's shout of victory.
It is not an army's cry of defeat.

It is the sound of singing that I hear."

<sup>19</sup>When Moses came close to the camp, he saw the gold calf and the dancing. He became very angry. He threw down the stone tablets which he was carrying. He broke them at the bottom of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>Then he took the calf that the people had made. He melted it in the fire. And he ground the gold until it became powder. He threw the powder into the water. And he forced the Israelites to drink that water.

<sup>22</sup>Aaron answered, "Don't be angry, master. You know that these people are always ready to do wrong. <sup>23</sup>The people said to me, 'Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don't know what has happened to him. So make us gods who will lead us.' <sup>24</sup>So I told the people, 'Take off your gold jewelry.' So they gave me the gold. I threw it into the fire and out came this calf!"

<sup>25</sup>Moses saw that the people were acting wildly. He saw that Aaron had let them get out of control. Their enemies would laugh at them. <sup>26</sup>So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp. He said, "Let anyone who wants to follow the Lord come to me." And all the people from the family of Levi gathered around Moses.

<sup>30</sup>The next day Moses told the people, "You have done a terrible sin. But now I will go up to the Lord. Maybe I can do something so your sins will be removed. Then you will belong to God again." <sup>31</sup>So Moses went back to the Lord and said, "How terrible it is! These people have sinned horribly. They have made for themselves gods from gold. <sup>32</sup>Now, forgive them of this sin. If you will not, then erase my name. Erase it from the book in which you have written the names of your people."

<sup>33</sup>But the Lord told Moses, "I will erase from my book the names of the people who sin against me. <sup>34</sup>So now, go. Lead the people where I have told you. My angel will lead you. When the time comes to punish, I will punish them for their sin."

<sup>35</sup>So the Lord caused terrible things to happen to the people. He did this because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, "You and the people you brought out of Egypt must leave this place. Go to the land that I promised with an oath to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I said, 'I will give that land to your descendants.' <sup>21</sup>I will send an angel to lead you. And I will force these people out of the land: the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. <sup>3</sup>Go up to the land where much food grows. But I will not go with you. This is because I might destroy you on the way. You are such a stubborn people."

<sup>4</sup>The people heard this bad news, and they became very sad. None of them put on jewelry. <sup>5</sup>This was because the Lord had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stubborn people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I would destroy you. So take off all your jewelry. Then I will decide what to do with you.'"<sup>6</sup>So the people of Israel took off their jewelry at Mount Sinai.

The Meeting Tent

<sup>7</sup>Moses used to take a tent and set it up a long way outside the camp. Moses called it the "Meeting Tent."<sup>8</sup>A person might want to ask the Lord about something. Then he would go to the Meeting Tent outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>Anytime Moses went out to the Tent, all the people would rise. They stood at the entrances of their tents and watched Moses until he entered the Meeting Tent. <sup>9</sup>When Moses went into the Tent, the pillar of cloud would always come down. It would stay at the entrance of the Tent while the Lord spoke with Moses. <sup>10</sup>The people saw the pillar of cloud at the entrance of the Tent. Then they stood and worshiped, each person at the entrance of his own tent.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses face to face as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp. But Moses' young helper, Joshua son of Nun, did not leave the Tent.

<sup>12</sup>Moses said to the Lord, "You have told me to lead these people. But you did not say whom you would send with me. You have said to me, 'I know you very well. I am pleased with you.'<sup>13</sup>If I have truly pleased you, show me your plans. Then I may know you and continue to please you. Remember that this nation is your people."

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to him, "If you yourself don't go with us, then don't send us away from this place. <sup>16</sup>If you don't go with us, no one will know that you are pleased with me and your people. These people and I would be no different from any other people on earth."

<sup>17</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "I will do what you ask. This is because I know you very well, and I am pleased with you."

Moses Sees God's Greatness

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses said, "Now, please show me your greatness."

<sup>19</sup>The Lord answered, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you. I will announce my name, the Lord, so you can hear it. I will show kindness to anyone I want to show kindness. I will show mercy to anyone I want to show mercy. <sup>20</sup>But you cannot see my face. No one can see me and stay alive.

<sup>21</sup>"There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. <sup>22</sup>My greatness will pass that place. I will put you in a large crack in that rock. And I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. <sup>23</sup>Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back. But my face must not be seen."

Moses Gets New Tablets of Stone

34 The Lord said to Moses, "Cut two more stone tablets like the first two. I will write the same words on them that were on the first two tablets which you broke. <sup>2</sup>Be ready tomorrow morning. Then come up on Mount Sinai. Stand before me there on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>No one may come with you. No one should even be seen any place on the mountain. Not even the sheep or cattle may eat grass near that mountain."

<sup>4</sup>So Moses cut two stone tablets like the first ones. Then early the next morning he went up Mount Sinai. He did this just as the Lord had commanded him. Moses carried the two stone tablets with him. <sup>5</sup>Then the Lord came down in the cloud and stood there with Moses. And the Lord called out his name, the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord passed in front of Moses and said, "I am the Lord. The Lord is a God who shows mercy and is kind. The Lord doesn't become angry quickly. The Lord has great love and faithfulness. <sup>7</sup>The Lord is kind to thousands of people. The Lord forgives people for wrong and sin and turning against him. But the Lord does not forget to punish guilty people. The Lord will punish not only the guilty people. He will also punish their children, their grandchildren, their great-grandchildren and their great-great-grandchildren."

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>Moses said, "Lord, if you are pleased with me, please go with us. I know that these are stubborn people. But forgive our evil and our sin. Take us as your own people."

agreement with you. I will do miracles<sup>d</sup> in front of all your people. These things have never before been done for any other nation on earth. The people with you will see my work. I, the Lord, will do wonderful things for you. <sup>11</sup>Obey the things I command you today, and I will force your enemies to leave your land. I will force out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites ahead of you. <sup>12</sup>Be careful. Don't make any agreement with the people who live in the land where you are going. It will bring you trouble. <sup>13</sup>But destroy their altars. Break their stone pillars. Cut down their Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. <sup>14</sup>Don't worship any other god. This is because I, the Lord, the Jealous One, am a jealous God.

<sup>15</sup>Be careful. Don't make any agreements with the people who live in that land. They will worship their false gods. And they will invite you to join them. Then you will join them, and you will eat their sacrifices. <sup>16</sup>You might choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. Those daughters worship false gods. They might lead your sons to do the same thing.

<sup>19</sup>Every firstborn<sup>d</sup> cow or sheep that is born to each animal belongs to me. <sup>20</sup>You may buy back a donkey by paying for it with a lamb. But if you don't want to buy back a donkey, you must break its neck. You must buy back all your firstborn sons.

"No one is to come before me without a gift.

<sup>21</sup>You must work for six days. But on the seventh day you must rest. You must do this even during the planting season and harvest season.

<sup>23</sup>Three times each year all your men must come before the Master, the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>I will force out nations ahead of you. I will expand the borders of your land. You will go before the Lord your God three times each year. And at that time no one will try to take your land from you.

<sup>26</sup>"Bring the best first crops that you harvest from your ground. Bring those things to the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Lord your God.

"You must not cook a young goat in its mother's milk."

<sup>27</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Write down these words. This is because with these words I have made an agreement with you and Israel."

<sup>28</sup>Moses stayed there with the Lord 40 days and 40 nights. During that time he did not eat food or drink water. And Moses wrote the words of the agreement—the Ten Commandments—on the two stone tablets.

The Face of Moses Shines

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses came down from Mount Sinai. In his hands he was carrying the two stone tablets of the agreement. But Moses did not know that his face was shining because he had talked with the Lord. <sup>30</sup>Aaron and all the people of Israel saw that Moses' face was shining. So they were afraid to go near him. <sup>31</sup>But Moses called to them. So Aaron and all the leaders of the people returned to Moses. Moses talked with them. <sup>32</sup>After that, all the people of Israel came near him. And he gave them all the commands that the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>33</sup>When Moses finished speaking to the people, he put a covering over his face. <sup>34</sup>Anytime Moses went before the Lord to speak with him, Moses took off the covering until he came out. Then Moses would come out and tell the people of Israel the things the Lord had commanded. <sup>35</sup>The Israelites would see that Moses' face was shining. So he would cover his face again. He did this until the next time he went in to speak with the Lord.

Rules About the Sabbath

35 Moses gathered all the Israelite community together. He said to them, "These are the things the Lord has commanded you to do. <sup>2</sup>You are to work for six days. But the seventh day will be a holy day, a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> of rest to honor the Lord. Anyone who works on that day must be put to death. <sup>3</sup>On the Sabbath day you must not light a fire in any of your houses."

fine leather and acacia wood. <sup>8</sup>They may also bring olive oil for the lamps, spices for the special olive oil used for appointing priests and for the sweet-smelling incense. <sup>9</sup>And they may bring onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the holy vest<sup>d</sup> and chest covering of the priests.

<sup>20</sup>Then all the people of Israel went away from Moses. <sup>21</sup>Everyone who wanted to give came and brought a gift to the Lord. These gifts were used for making the Meeting Tent, all the things in the Tent and the special clothes. <sup>22</sup>All the men and women who wanted to give brought gold jewelry of all kinds. They brought pins, earrings, rings and bracelets. They all presented their gold to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Everyone who had blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen came and gave it to the Lord. Anyone who had goat hair or male sheep skins colored red or fine leather brought them to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>Everyone who could give silver or bronze brought that as a gift to the Lord. Everyone who had acacia wood to be used in the work brought it. <sup>25</sup>Every skilled woman used her hands to make the blue, purple and red thread and fine linen. And they brought what they had made. <sup>26</sup>All the women who were skilled and wanted to help made thread of the goat hair. <sup>27</sup>The leaders brought onyx stones and other jewels. These stones and jewels were put on the holy vest and chest covering for the priest. <sup>28</sup>They also brought spices and olive oil. These were used for the sweet-smelling incense, the special oil and the oil to burn in the lamps. <sup>29</sup>All the men and women of Israel who wanted to help brought gifts to the Lord. They were used for all the work the Lord had commanded Moses and the people to do.

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses said to the people of Israel, “Look, the Lord has chosen Bezalel. He is the son of Uri the son of Hur, from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah. <sup>31</sup>The Lord has filled Bezalel with the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God. The Lord has given Bezalel the skill, ability and knowledge to do all kinds of work. <sup>32</sup>He is able to design pieces to be made of gold, silver and bronze. <sup>33</sup>He is able to cut stones and jewels and put them in metal. Bezalel can carve wood and do all kinds of work. <sup>34</sup>The Lord has given Bezalel and Oholiab the ability to teach others. Oholiab is the son of Ahisamach from the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>The Lord has given them the skill to do all kinds of work. They are able to cut designs in metal and stone. They can plan and sew designs in the fine linen with the blue, purple and red thread. And they are also able to weave things.

36 So Bezalel, Oholiab and every skilled person will do the work the Lord has commanded. The Lord gave these people the wisdom and understanding to do all the skilled work needed to build the Holy Tent.”

<sup>2</sup>Then Moses called Bezalel, Oholiab and all the other skilled people to whom the Lord had given skills. And they came because they wanted to help with the work. <sup>3</sup>They received from Moses everything the people of Israel had brought as gifts to build the Holy Tent. The people continued to bring gifts each morning because they wanted to. <sup>4</sup>So all the skilled workers left the work they were doing on the Holy Tent. And they went to speak to Moses. They said, <sup>5</sup>“The people are bringing more than we need to do the work the Lord commanded.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses sent this command throughout the camp: “No man or woman should make anything else as a gift for the Holy Tent.” So the people were kept from giving more. <sup>7</sup>What they had was already more than enough to do all the work.

The Holy Tent

the same thing with the other set of five. <sup>12</sup>There were 50 loops on one piece and 50 loops on the other piece. The loops were opposite each other. <sup>13</sup>Then they made 50 gold hooks to join the two pieces together. So the Holy Tent was joined together as one piece.

<sup>14</sup>Then the workers made another tent of 11 pieces of cloth made of goat hair. This was to put over the Holy Tent. <sup>15</sup>All 11 pieces were the same size. They were 45 feet long and 6 feet wide. <sup>16</sup>The workers sewed five pieces together into one set. Then they sewed six together into another set. <sup>17</sup>They made 50 loops along the edge of the outside piece of one set. And they made 50 loops along the edge of the outside piece of the other set. <sup>18</sup>Then they made 50 bronze rings to join the two sets of cloth together and make the tent one piece. <sup>19</sup>Then they made two more coverings for the outer tent. One covering was made of male sheep skin colored red. The other covering was made of fine leather.

wings on it. <sup>36</sup>They made four posts of acacia wood and covered them with gold. Then they made gold hooks for the posts. And they made four silver bases in which to set the posts. <sup>37</sup>Then they made a curtain for the entrance to the Tent. They used blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen. A person who sewed well sewed designs on it. <sup>38</sup>Then they made five posts and hooks for it. They covered the tops of the posts and their bands with gold. And they made five bronze bases for the posts.

The Ark

37 Bezalel made the Ark<sup>d</sup> of acacia wood. The Ark was 45 inches long, 27 inches wide and 27 inches high. <sup>2</sup>He covered the inside and outside of the Ark with pure gold. Then he put a gold strip around it. <sup>3</sup>He made four gold rings for it and attached them to its four feet. There were two rings on each side. <sup>4</sup>Then he made poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold. <sup>5</sup>He put the poles through the rings on each side of the Ark to carry it. <sup>6</sup>Then he made a lid of pure gold. It was 45 inches long and 27 inches wide. <sup>7</sup>Then Bezalel hammered gold to make two creatures with wings. He attached them to each end of the lid. <sup>8</sup>He made one creature with wings on one end of the lid. He made the other creature with wings on the other end. He attached them to the lid so that it would be one piece. <sup>9</sup>The creatures' wings were spread out over the lid. The creatures faced each other across the lid.

The Table

<sup>10</sup>Then he made the table of acacia wood. The table was 36 inches long, 18 inches wide and 27 inches high. <sup>11</sup>He covered the table with pure gold. He put a gold strip around it. <sup>12</sup>Then he made a frame 3 inches high that stood up all around the edge. He put a gold strip around the frame. <sup>13</sup>Then he made four gold rings for the table. He attached them to the four corners of the table, where the four legs were. <sup>14</sup>The rings were put close to the frame around the top of the table. The rings held the poles that were used to carry the table. <sup>15</sup>The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood. They were covered with gold. <sup>16</sup>Then he made of pure gold all the things that were used on the table: the plates, bowls, cups and jars used for pouring the drink offerings.

The Lampstand

<sup>17</sup>Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. He hammered out its base and stand. Its flower-like cups, buds and petals were joined together in one piece with the base and stand. <sup>18</sup>There were three branches on one side of the lampstand and three branches on the other. <sup>19</sup>Each branch had three cups shaped like almond flowers. Each cup had a bud and a petal. <sup>20</sup>There were four more cups shaped like almond flowers on the lampstand itself. Each cup had its buds and petals. <sup>21</sup>Three pairs of branches went out from the lampstand. A bud was under the place where each pair was attached to the lampstand. <sup>22</sup>The buds, branches and lampstand were all one piece of pure, hammered gold. <sup>23</sup>He made seven pure gold lamps for this lampstand. Then he made pure gold wick trimmers and trays. <sup>24</sup>He used about 75 pounds of pure gold to make the lampstand and all the things that go with it.

The Altar for Burning Incense

<sup>25</sup>Then he made the altar of incense<sup>d</sup> of acacia wood. The altar was square. It was 18 inches long, 18 inches wide and 36 inches high. Each corner stuck out like a horn. Each corner was joined into one piece with the altar. <sup>26</sup>He covered the top and all the sides and the corners with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the altar. <sup>27</sup>He made two gold rings and put them below the trim on opposite sides of the altar. These rings held the poles for carrying the altar. <sup>28</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

<sup>29</sup>Then he made the holy olive oil for appointing the priests. He also made the pure, sweet-smelling incense. He made them like a person who mixes perfumes.

The Altar

38 Then he built the altar for burning offerings. He made the altar of acacia wood. The altar was square. It was 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide and 4½ feet high. <sup>2</sup>He made each corner stick out like a horn. The horns and the altar were joined together in one piece. Then he covered the altar with bronze. <sup>3</sup>He made all the tools of bronze to use on the altar: the pots, shovels, bowls for sprinkling blood, meat forks and pans for carrying the fire. <sup>4</sup>He made a large bronze screen to hold the burning wood for the altar. He put the screen inside the altar, under its rim, halfway up from the bottom. <sup>5</sup>He made bronze rings for holding the poles for carrying the altar. He put the rings at the four corners of the screen. <sup>6</sup>Then he made poles of acacia wood and covered them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>He put the poles through the rings on both sides of the altar. They were used for carrying the altar. He made the altar of boards and left the inside hollow.

The Bronze Bowl

<sup>8</sup>He made the bronze bowl for washing. He built it on a bronze stand. He used the bronze of mirrors. These mirrors belonged to the women who served at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup>

The Courtyard of the Holy Tent

<sup>21</sup>This is a list of the metals used to make the Holy Tent. This is where the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments are kept. Moses ordered the Levites to make this list. Ithamar son of Aaron was in charge of keeping the list. <sup>22</sup>Bezalel son of Uri made everything the Lord commanded Moses. Uri was the son of Hur of the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah. <sup>23</sup>Oholiab son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan helped him. Oholiab could cut designs into metal and stone. He was a designer. He was also skilled at sewing the blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen.

<sup>24</sup>The total amount of gold used to build the Holy Tent was presented to the Lord. It weighed over 2,000 pounds, as set by the Holy Place measure.

<sup>25</sup>The silver was given by the members of the community who were counted. It weighed 7,550 pounds, as set by the Holy Place measure. <sup>26</sup>All the men 20 years old or older were counted. There were 603,550 men, and each man had to pay 1/5 ounce of silver. This is the weight as set by the Holy Place measure. <sup>27</sup>Of this silver, 7,500 pounds was used to make the 100 bases. These bases were for the Holy Tent and for the curtain. There was 75 pounds of silver in each base. <sup>28</sup>The other 50 pounds of silver was used to make the hooks for the posts. It was also used to cover the tops of the posts and to make the bands on the posts.

<sup>29</sup>The bronze which was presented to the Lord weighed about 5,000 pounds. <sup>30</sup>They used the bronze to make the bases at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They also used the bronze to make the altar and the bronze screen. And this bronze was used to make all the tools for the altar. <sup>31</sup>This bronze was also used to make bases for the wall of curtains around the courtyard. It was used for the bases for the curtains at the entry to the courtyard. And this bronze was used to make the tent pegs for the Holy Tent and curtains that surrounded the courtyard.

Clothes for the Priests

39 They used blue, purple and red thread to make woven clothes for the priests. They were to wear these when they served in the Holy Place. They also made the holy clothes for Aaron as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Then they wrote the names of the sons of Israel on these gems. They did that as a person carves words and designs on a seal.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then they attached the gems on the shoulder straps of the holy vest. These gems are reminders of the 12 sons of Israel. This was done the way the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup>The skilled craftsmen made the chest covering. It was made like the holy vest. It was made of gold and blue, purple and red thread, and fine linen. <sup>9</sup>The chest covering was square, nine inches long and nine inches wide. It was folded double to make a pocket. <sup>10</sup>Then they put four rows of beautiful jewels on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a yellow quartz. <sup>11</sup>In the second row there was a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald. <sup>12</sup>In the third row there was a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst. <sup>13</sup>In the fourth row there was a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Gold was put around these jewels to attach them to the chest covering. <sup>14</sup>The names of the sons of Israel were carved on these 12 jewels as a person carves a seal. Each jewel had the name of 1 of the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel.

also made bells of pure gold. They hung these around the bottom of the outer robe between the balls. <sup>26</sup>So around the bottom of the outer robe there was a bell and a pomegranate ball, a bell and a pomegranate ball. The priest wore this outer robe when he served as priest, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>They made a strip of pure gold, which is the holy crown. They carved these words in the gold: "Holy to the Lord." They did it as one might carve on a seal. <sup>31</sup>Then they tied this flat piece to the turban with a blue ribbon. This was done as the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup>So all the work on the Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> was finished. The Israelites did everything just as the Lord had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup>Then they brought the Holy Tent to Moses: the Tent and all its furniture, hooks, frames, crossbars, posts and bases; <sup>34</sup>the covering made of male sheep skins colored red, the covering made of fine leather and the curtain that covered the entrance to the Most Holy Place; <sup>35</sup>the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement, its poles and lid; <sup>36</sup>the table, all its containers and the bread that showed they were in God's presence; <sup>37</sup>the pure gold lampstand with its lamps in a row, all its tools and the olive oil for the light; <sup>38</sup>the gold altar, the special olive oil used for appointing priests, the sweet-smelling incense,<sup>d</sup> and the curtain that covered the entrance to the Tent; <sup>39</sup>the bronze altar and its screen, its poles and all its tools, the bowl and its stand; <sup>40</sup>the curtains for the courtyard with their posts and bases, the curtain that covered the entry to the courtyard, the cords, pegs and all the things in the Meeting Tent. <sup>41</sup>They brought the clothes for the priests to wear when they served in the Holy Tent: the holy clothes for Aaron the priest and the clothes for his sons. They wore these when they served as priests.

<sup>42</sup>The Israelites had done all this work just as the Lord had commanded Moses. <sup>43</sup>Moses looked closely at all the work. He saw they had done it just as the Lord had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Setting Up the Holy Tent

40 Then the Lord said this to Moses: <sup>24</sup>"On the first day of the first month, set up the Holy Tent,<sup>d</sup> which is the Meeting

Tent. <sup>3</sup>Put the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement in the Meeting Tent. Hang the curtain in front of the Ark. <sup>4</sup>Then bring in the table. Arrange everything on the table that should be there. Then bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps. <sup>5</sup>Put the gold altar for burning incense<sup>d</sup> in front of the Ark of the Agreement. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

<sup>9</sup>"Use the special olive oil and pour it on the Holy Tent and everything in it. Give the Tent and all that is in it for service to the Lord. They will be holy. <sup>10</sup>Pour the special oil on the altar for burning offerings. Pour it on all its tools. Give the altar for service to God. It will be very holy. <sup>11</sup>Then pour the special olive oil on the bowl and the base under it. When you do this, they will be given for service to God.

<sup>12</sup>"Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Wash them with water. <sup>13</sup>Then put the holy clothes on Aaron. Pour the special oil on him, and give him for service to God. Then he may serve me as a priest. <sup>14</sup>Bring Aaron's sons and put the inner robes on them. <sup>15</sup>Pour the special oil on them to make them priests. Do this the same way that you appointed their father as priest. Then they may also serve me as priests. Pouring oil on them will make them a family of priests. They and their descendants<sup>d</sup> will be priests from now on." <sup>16</sup>Moses did everything that the Lord commanded him.

<sup>20</sup>Moses put the stone tablets into the Ark of the Agreement. These had God's law written on them. Moses put the poles through the rings of the Ark. Then he put the lid on it. <sup>21</sup>Next Moses brought the Ark into the Tent. He hung the curtain to cover the Ark. Moses did these things just as the Lord commanded him.

the table before the Lord. He did this just as the Lord commanded him. <sup>24</sup>Moses put the lampstand in the Meeting Tent. He put it on the south side of the Holy Tent across from the table. <sup>25</sup>Then he put the lamps on the lampstand before the Lord. He did this just as the Lord commanded him.

<sup>29</sup>He put the altar for burning sacrifices at the entrance to the Holy Tent, the Meeting Tent. Then Moses offered a whole burnt offering and grain offerings on that altar. He did these things just as the Lord commanded him. <sup>30</sup>Moses put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar for burning sacrifices. Moses put water in the bowl for washing. <sup>31</sup>Moses, Aaron and Aaron's sons used this water to wash their hands and feet. <sup>32</sup>They washed themselves every time they entered the Meeting Tent. They also washed themselves every time they went near the altar for burning sacrifices. They did these things just as the Lord commanded Moses.

<sup>33</sup>Then Moses set up the courtyard around the Holy Tent. He put the altar for burning sacrifices in the courtyard. Then he put up the curtain at the entry to the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

The Cloud over the Holy Tent

<sup>34</sup>Then the cloud covered the Meeting Tent. <sup>4</sup>The greatness of the Lord filled the Holy Tent. <sup>35</sup>Moses could not enter the Meeting Tent. This was because the cloud had settled on it. And this was because the greatness of the Lord filled the Holy Tent.

<sup>36</sup>When the cloud rose from the Holy Tent, the Israelites would begin to travel. <sup>37</sup>But as long as the cloud stayed on the Holy Tent, the people did not travel. They stayed in that place until the cloud rose. <sup>38</sup>So the cloud of the Lord was over the Holy Tent during the day. And there was a fire in the cloud at night. So all the Israelites could see the cloud while they traveled.

The Burnt Offering

1 The Lord called to Moses and spoke to him from the Meeting Tent.<sup>a</sup> The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: ‘When you bring an offering to the Lord, bring as your offering one of the cattle. Or you may bring one of the sheep or goats.

<sup>3</sup>“If anyone offers a whole burnt offering from the cattle, it must be a male. It must have nothing wrong with it. The person must take the animal to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Then the Lord will accept the offering.<sup>4</sup>The person must put his hand on the animal’s head. Then the Lord will accept that burnt offering. It will remove the person’s sin so he will belong to God.<sup>5</sup>The person must kill the young bull before the Lord. Then the priests must bring its blood to the altar. They must sprinkle the blood on all sides of the altar. This is the altar at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.<sup>6</sup>The person will cut the skin from that animal. Then he will cut the animal into pieces.<sup>7</sup>The priests must put wood and fire on the altar.<sup>8</sup>They must lay the head, the fat and other pieces on the wood. That wood is on the fire on the altar.<sup>9</sup>The priest must wash the animal’s inner organs and legs with water. Then the priest must burn all the animal’s parts on the altar. It is a whole burnt offering, an offering made by fire. And its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>“The burnt offering may be a sheep or goat. It must be a male animal that has nothing wrong with it.<sup>11</sup>The person must kill the animal on the north side of the altar. This is to be before the Lord. Then the priests must sprinkle its blood on the altar. They must sprinkle it on all sides.<sup>12</sup>The person must cut the animal into pieces. Then the priest must lay the pieces with the head and fat on the wood. The wood is on the fire on the altar.<sup>13</sup>The person must wash the animal’s inner organs and legs with water. Then the priest must burn all its parts on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. And its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>“The whole burnt offering may be a bird. It must be a dove or a young pigeon.<sup>15</sup>The priest will bring the offering to the altar. He will pull off the bird’s head. Then he will burn it on the altar. The bird’s blood must be drained out on the side of the altar.<sup>16</sup>The priest must remove the bird’s crop<sup>a</sup> and its contents. He must throw them on the east side of the altar. This is where they put the ashes from the altar.<sup>17</sup>Then the priest must tear the bird open by its wings. But he must not divide the bird into two parts. Then the priest must burn the bird on the altar. He must place it on the wood which is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

The Grain Offering

2 “When anyone offers a grain offering to the Lord, it must be made from fine flour. The person must pour oil on it and put incense<sup>d</sup> on it.<sup>2</sup>Then he must take it to Aaron’s sons and the priests. The priest must take a handful of the fine flour, with the oil and all the incense. He must burn it on the altar as a memorial portion. It is an offering made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord.<sup>3</sup>The rest of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and the priests. This offering is a most holy part of the offerings made by fire to the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>“If you bring a grain offering that was baked in the oven, it must be made from fine flour. It may be loaves made without yeast and mixed with oil. Or it may be wafers made without yeast. They are to have oil poured over them.<sup>5</sup>If your grain offering is cooked on a griddle, it must be made without yeast. It must be made of fine flour mixed with oil.<sup>6</sup>Crumble it and pour oil over it. It is a grain offering.<sup>7</sup>If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it must be made from fine flour and oil.<sup>8</sup>Bring the grain offering made of these things to the Lord. Give it to the priest. He will take it to the altar.<sup>9</sup>He will take out the memorial portion from the grain offering. He will burn it on the altar. This is an offering made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord.<sup>10</sup>The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and the priests. It is a most holy part of the offerings made to the Lord by fire.

Lord must be made without yeast. You must not burn yeast or honey in an offering made by fire to the Lord. <sup>12</sup>You may bring yeast and honey to the Lord as an offering from the first harvest. But yeast and honey must not be burned on the altar as a pleasing smell. <sup>13</sup>You must also put salt on all your grain offerings. Salt stands for your agreement with God that will last forever. Do not leave it out of your grain offering. You must add salt to all your offerings.

<sup>14</sup>“If you bring a grain offering from the first harvest to the Lord, bring crushed heads of new grain. They must be roasted in the fire. <sup>15</sup>Put oil and incense on the grain. It is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup>The priest will burn the memorial portion of the crushed grain and oil. It will have incense on it. It is an offering by fire to the Lord.

The Fellowship Offering

3 “A person’s fellowship offering to the Lord may be from the cattle. It may be a male or female animal. But it must have nothing wrong with it. <sup>2</sup>The person must put his hand on the animal’s head. He must kill it at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>3</sup>Then the priests must sprinkle the blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>4</sup>This person must make a sacrifice from the fellowship offering. The sacrifice must be made by fire to the Lord. He must offer the fat of the animal’s inner organs. This is both the fat that is in them and that covers them. <sup>5</sup>He must also offer both kidneys and the fat on them. They are near the lower back muscle. He must also offer the best part of the liver. He will remove it with the kidneys. <sup>6</sup>Then the priests will burn these parts on the altar. They will put them on the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire. It is an offering made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>“A person’s fellowship offering to the Lord may be a lamb or a goat. He may offer a male or female animal. But it must have nothing wrong with it. <sup>7</sup>If he offers a lamb, he must bring it before the Lord. <sup>8</sup>He must put his hand on its head. Then he must kill the animal in front of the Meeting Tent. The priests will sprinkle its blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>9</sup>Then the person must make a sacrifice from the fellowship offering. The sacrifice must be made by fire to the Lord. The person must bring the fat and the whole fat tail. The tail must be cut off close to the backbone. He must also offer the fat of the inner organs. This is both the fat that is in them and that covers them. <sup>10</sup>He must offer both kidneys and the fat on them.

They are near the lower back muscle. And he must offer the best part of the liver. He will remove it with the kidneys. <sup>11</sup>Then the priest will burn these parts on the altar as food. It will be an offering made by fire to the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>“A person’s fellowship offering may be a goat. He is to offer it before the Lord. <sup>13</sup>He must put his hand on the goat’s head. And he must kill it in front of the Meeting Tent. Then the priests must sprinkle its blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>14</sup>From this fellowship offering the person must make a sacrifice. It will be an offering by fire to the Lord. The person must offer all the fat of the goat’s inner organs. This is both the fat that is in them and that covers them. <sup>15</sup>He must offer both kidneys and the fat on them. They are near the lower back muscle. And he must offer the best part of the liver. He will remove it with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup>The priest will burn these parts on the altar as food. It is an offering made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord. All the fat belongs to the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>“This law will continue for people from now on, wherever you live: You must not eat fat or blood.”

The Sin Offering

4 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel this: ‘A person might sin by accident. He might do some things the Lord has commanded not to be done. If so, that person must do these things:

<sup>3</sup>“It may be the appointed priest who has sinned. If so, he has brought guilt on the people. So he must offer a young bull to the Lord. It must have nothing wrong with it. This will be a sin offering for the sin he has done. <sup>4</sup>He will bring the bull to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>5</sup>He must bring it in front of the Lord. Then he will put his hand on the bull’s head. And he will kill the bull before the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Then the appointed priest must bring some of the bull’s blood into the Meeting Tent. <sup>7</sup>The priest is to dip his finger into the blood. He must sprinkle it seven times before the Lord in front of the curtain. This curtain is in front of the Most Holy Place. <sup>8</sup>The priest must also put some of the blood on the corners of the altar of incense. <sup>9</sup>It stands before the Lord in the Meeting Tent. Then the priest must pour out the rest of the bull’s blood. It must be poured at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. That altar is at the door of the Meeting Tent. <sup>10</sup>He must remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering. He must remove the fat on and around the inner organs. <sup>11</sup>He must remove both kidneys and the fat on them. They are near the lower back muscle. He must remove the best part of the liver with the kidneys. <sup>10</sup>He must do this in the same way the fat is removed from the bull of the fellowship offering. Then the priest must burn the animal parts on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>11</sup><sup>12</sup>But the priest must carry out the skin of the bull and all its meat. He must take these with the rest of the bull—its head, legs, intestines and other inner organs. He must take it outside the camp to the special clean<sup>d</sup> place where the ashes are poured out. He must burn it on a wood fire on the pile of ashes.

<sup>13</sup>“The whole nation of Israel might sin without knowing it. They might do something the Lord has commanded not to be done. If this happens, they are guilty. <sup>14</sup>When they learn about the sin they have done, a young bull must be offered. It is a sin offering for the whole nation. They must bring it and give it before the Meeting Tent. <sup>15</sup>The older leaders of the group of people must put their hands on the bull’s head. It must be done before the Lord. And the bull must be killed before the Lord. <sup>16</sup>Then the appointed priest must bring some of the bull’s blood into the Meeting Tent. <sup>17</sup>The priest will dip his finger in the blood. He must sprinkle it seven times before the Lord in front of the curtain. <sup>18</sup>Then he must put some of the blood on the corners of the altar. The altar is before the Lord in the Meeting Tent. The priest must pour out the rest of the blood. He must pour it at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. That altar is at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>19</sup>The priest must remove all the fat from the animal. And he must burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>He will do the same thing with this bull that he did with the first bull of the sin offering. In this way the priest removes the sins of the people so they will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive them. <sup>21</sup>Then the priest must carry the bull outside the camp and burn it. He must do this just as he did with the first bull. This is the sin offering for the whole community.

<sup>22</sup>“A ruler might sin by accident. He might do something the Lord his God has commanded not to be done. If he does, he is guilty. <sup>23</sup>When he learns about his sin, he must bring a male goat. It must have nothing wrong with it. That will be his sin offering. <sup>24</sup>The ruler must put his hand on the goat’s head and kill it. This must be done where they kill the whole burnt offering before the Lord. The goat is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger. He must put it on the corners of the altar of burnt offering. He must pour out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>He must burn all the goat’s fat on the altar. He must burn it in the same way he burns the fat of the fellowship offerings. In this way the priest removes the ruler’s sin so he belongs to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him.

<sup>27</sup>“A person in the community might sin by accident. He might do something which the Lord has commanded must not be done. He is guilty of sin. <sup>28</sup>When the person learns about his sin, he must bring a female goat. It must have nothing wrong with it. That will be his sin offering. <sup>29</sup>He must put his hand on the animal’s head. He must kill it at the place of the whole burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest must take some of the goat’s blood on his finger. He must put it on the corners of the altar of burnt offering. He must pour out the rest of the goat’s blood at the bottom of the altar. <sup>31</sup>Then the priest must remove all the goat’s fat. He must do it in the same way the fat is removed from the fellowship offerings. He must burn it on the altar. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord. In this way the priest will remove that person’s sin so he will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him.

<sup>32</sup>“This person may bring a lamb as his sin offering. If he does, he must bring a female. It must have nothing wrong with it. <sup>33</sup>The person must put his hand on the animal’s head. He must kill it as a sin offering. He must kill it where they kill the whole burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>The priest must take some of the blood from the sin offering on his finger. He must put it on the corners of the altar of burnt offering. Then he must pour out the rest of the lamb’s blood at the bottom of the altar. <sup>35</sup>The priest must remove all the lamb’s fat. He must do it in the same way that the lamb’s fat is removed from the fellowship offerings. He must burn the pieces on the altar. They go on top of the offerings made by fire for the Lord. In this way the priest will remove that person’s sins so he will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him.

Special Types of Accidental Sins **Ⓛ

5 “These are things for which a sin offering must be made:

“A person might be ordered to tell in court what he has seen or what he knows. If he does not tell the court, he is guilty of sin.

“Or someone might touch something unclean.<sup>d</sup> It might be the dead body of an unclean wild animal or an unclean farm animal or an unclean crawling animal. He might not know that he touched it. But he will still be unclean and guilty of sin.

<sup>3</sup>“Many things come from a person which are not clean. Someone might touch one of these unclean things from a person and not know it. But when he learns about it, he will be guilty.

<sup>4</sup>“Or someone might make a promise before the Lord without thinking. He might promise to do something bad or good. The promise might be about anything. He might even make a promise before the Lord and forget about it. But when he remembers, he will be guilty.

<sup>5</sup>“When anyone is guilty of any of these things, he must tell how he sinned. <sup>6</sup>He must bring an offering to the Lord. It is a penalty for his sin. It must be a female lamb or goat from the flock. The priest will perform the acts to remove that person’s sin so he will belong to the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>“But perhaps the person cannot afford a lamb. Then he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the Lord. These will be the penalty for his sin. One bird must be for a sin offering. The other must be for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>He must bring them to the priest. First the priest will offer the one for the sin offering. He will pull the bird’s head from its neck. But he will not pull it completely off. <sup>9</sup>He must sprinkle the blood from the sin offering on the side of the altar. Then he must pour the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>Then the priest must offer the second bird as a burnt offering. This is what the law says. In this way the priest will remove the person’s sin so he will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him.

<sup>11</sup>“The person might not be able to afford two doves or two pigeons. If not, he must bring about two quarts of fine flour. This will be an offering for his sin. He must not put oil on the flour. And he must not put incense<sup>d</sup> on it, because it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>He must bring the flour to the priest. The priest will take a handful of the flour as a memorial offering. He will burn it on the altar. It goes on top of the offerings made by fire to the Lord. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>In this way the priest will remove the person’s sins so he will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him. What is left of the sin offering belongs to the priest. This is like the grain offering.’”

The Penalty Offering

holy things of the Lord. That person must bring a male sheep from the flock. It must have nothing wrong with it. This will be his penalty offering to the Lord. The value in silver of the male sheep must be correct. Use the proper value for silver as set by the Holy Place measure. <sup>16</sup>That person must pay for the sin he did against the holy thing. He must add one-fifth to its value. Then he must give it all to the priest. In this way the priest will remove the person’s sin so he will belong to the Lord. The priest does it by means of the male sheep of the penalty offering. And the Lord will forgive the person.

<sup>17</sup>“A person might sin and do something the Lord has commanded not to be done. It does not matter if that person knew or not. He is guilty. He is responsible for his sin. <sup>18</sup>He must bring the priest a male sheep from the flock. It must have nothing wrong with it. It must be worth the correct amount. The male sheep will be a penalty offering. The person sinned without knowing it. But with this offering the priest will remove the sin so the person will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him. <sup>19</sup>The person is guilty of doing wrong against the Lord. So he must give the penalty offering to the Lord.”

6 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“A person might sin against the Lord by doing one of these sins: He might lie about what happened to something he was taking care of for someone else. Or he might lie about a promise he made. Or he might steal something or cheat someone. <sup>3</sup>He might find something that had been lost and then lie about it. He might make a promise before the Lord about something and not mean it. Or he might do some other sin. <sup>4</sup>If he does any of these things, he is guilty of sin. He must bring back whatever he stole. Or he must bring back what he took by cheating. Or he must bring back the thing he took care of for someone else. Or he must bring back what he found and lied about. <sup>5</sup>Or he must bring back what he made a false promise about. He must pay the full price. Then he must pay an extra one-fifth of the value of what he took. He must give the money to the true owner. This must be done on the day he brings his penalty offering. <sup>6</sup>He must pay a penalty to the priest. It must be a male sheep from the flock. It must not have anything wrong with it. And it must be worth the correct amount. It will be a penalty offering to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest will perform the acts to remove that person’s sin so he will belong to the Lord. And the Lord will forgive him for the sins that made him guilty.’”

The Whole Burnt Offering

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>9</sup>“Give this command to Aaron and the priests: ‘These are the teachings about the whole burnt offering. The burnt offering must stay on the altar all night until morning. The altar’s fire must be kept burning. <sup>10</sup>The priest must put on his linen robe. He must put on linen underclothes next to his body. Then he will remove the ashes from the burnt offering on the altar. He will put these ashes beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>Then he must take off those clothes and put on others. He must carry the ashes outside the camp to a special clean<sup>d</sup> place. <sup>12</sup>But the fire must be kept burning on the altar. It must not be allowed to go out. The priest must put more firewood on the altar every morning. He must place the whole burnt offering on the fire. He must burn the fat of the fellowship offerings. <sup>13</sup>The fire must be kept burning on the altar all the time. It must not go out.

The Grain Offering

<sup>14</sup>“These are the teachings about the grain offering: The priests must bring it to the Lord in front of the altar. <sup>15</sup>The priest must take a handful of fine flour. The oil and incense<sup>d</sup> must be on it. The priest must burn the grain offering on the altar. It will be a memorial offering to the Lord. Its smell is pleasing to him. <sup>16</sup>Aaron and the priests may eat what is left. It must be eaten without yeast in a holy place. The priests must eat it in the courtyard of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>It must not be cooked with yeast. I have given it as their share of the offerings made to me by fire. It is most holy, like the sin offering and the penalty offering. <sup>18</sup>Any male descendant<sup>d</sup> of Aaron may eat it. It is his share of the offerings made to the Lord by fire. This will continue from now on. Whatever touches these offerings must be holy.’”

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>20</sup>“This is the offering Aaron and the priests must bring to the Lord. They must do this on the day they appoint Aaron as high priest. They must bring two quarts of fine flour for a grain offering. They must bring half of it in the morning and half in the evening. <sup>21</sup>The fine flour must be mixed with oil and cooked on a griddle. Bring it when it is well mixed. You must break it into pieces. It will be a smell that is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>One of the priests will be appointed to take Aaron’s place as high priest. He must make the grain offering to the Lord. It is a rule forever. The grain offering must be completely burned to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Every grain offering made by a priest must be completely burned. It must not be eaten.”

The Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>25</sup>“Tell Aaron and the priests: ‘These are the teachings about the sin offering. The sin offering must be killed in front of the Lord. It must be killed in the same place the whole burnt offering is killed. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers the sin offering must eat it. He must eat it in a holy place. It must be in the courtyard of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup>Whatever touches the meat of the sin offering must be holy. If the blood is sprinkled on any clothes, you must wash them in a holy place. <sup>28</sup>The clay pot the meat is cooked in must be broken. If a bronze pot is used, it must be scrubbed and rinsed with water. <sup>29</sup>Any male in a priest’s family may eat the offering. It is most holy. <sup>30</sup>The blood of the sin offering may be taken into the Meeting Tent. It may be used to remove sin in the Holy Place. That sin offering must be burned with fire. It must not be eaten.

The Penalty Offering

7 “These are the teachings about the penalty offering. It is most holy. <sup>2</sup>The penalty offering must be killed where the whole burnt offering is killed. Then the priest must sprinkle its blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup>He must offer all the fat from the penalty offering. He must offer the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner organs. <sup>4</sup>He must offer both kidneys and the fat on them. They are near the lower back muscle. And he must offer the best part of the liver. This is to be removed with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>The priest must burn all these things on the altar. They will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. It is a penalty offering. <sup>6</sup>Any male in a priest’s family may eat it. It is most holy. So it must be eaten in a holy place.

<sup>7</sup>“The penalty offering is like the sin offering. The teachings are the same for both. The priest who offers the sacrifice to remove sins will get the meat for food. <sup>8</sup>The priest who offers the burnt offering may also have the skin from it. <sup>9</sup>Every grain offering belongs to the priest who offers it. This includes those baked in an oven, cooked on a griddle or baked in a dish. <sup>10</sup>The grain offerings belong to the priests. They may be dry or mixed with oil. All priests will share alike.

Fellowship Offerings

Lord: <sup>12</sup>He may bring the fellowship offering to show his thanks. If he does, he should also bring loaves of bread. They must be made without yeast, mixed with oil. And he should bring wafers made without yeast. They must have oil poured over them. He should also bring loaves of fine flour mixed with oil. <sup>13</sup>He must also offer loaves of bread made with yeast. These should be brought with his fellowship offering, which he gives to show thanks. <sup>14</sup>One of each kind of offering will be for the Lord. It will be given to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offering. <sup>15</sup>The fellowship offering is to thank the Lord. The meat from it must be eaten the same day it is offered. None of it must be left until morning.

<sup>16</sup>“A person might bring a fellowship offering just to give a gift to God. Or it may be done because of a special promise to God. Then, the sacrifice should be eaten the same day he offers it. If there is any left, it may be eaten the next day. <sup>17</sup>If any meat from this sacrifice is left on the third day, it must be burned up. <sup>18</sup>Any meat of the fellowship offering eaten on the third day will not be accepted. The Lord will not count the sacrifice for the person who offered it. It will become unclean.<sup>d</sup> Anyone who eats the meat will be guilty of sin.

<sup>21</sup>“Someone might touch something unclean that comes from people. Or the unclean thing might be an animal or some hated thing. Touching it will make him unclean. If he then eats meat from the fellowship offering that belongs to the Lord, he must be separated from his people.”

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: ‘You must not eat any of the fat from cattle, sheep or goats. <sup>24</sup>If an animal is found dead or torn by wild animals, you may use its fat for other things. But you must not eat it. <sup>25</sup>Someone might eat fat from an animal offering made by fire to the Lord. That person must be separated from his people. <sup>26</sup>It does not matter where you live. You must not eat blood from any bird or animal. <sup>27</sup>Anyone who eats blood must be separated from his people.’”

The Priests' Share

fering to the Lord. He must give part of it as his sacrifice to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>He must carry that part of the gift in his own hands. It will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. He must carry the fat and the breast of the animal to the priest. The breast must be presented to the Lord as the priests' share. <sup>31</sup>Then the priest must burn the fat on the altar. But the breast of the animal will belong to Aaron and the priests. <sup>32</sup>You must also give the right thigh from the fellowship offering to the priest as a gift. <sup>33</sup>It will belong to the priest who offers the blood and fat of the fellowship offering. <sup>34</sup>I have taken the breast and the thigh of the fellowship offering. And I have given these parts to Aaron and the priests as their share from the Israelites.’”

<sup>37</sup>These are the teachings about the whole burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering and the penalty offering. They are the teachings about the appointment of priests. And they are the teachings about the fellowship offerings. <sup>38</sup>The Lord gave these teachings to Moses on Mount Sinai. It was on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to him in the Sinai Desert.

Aaron and His Sons Appointed

8 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Bring Aaron and his sons and their clothes. Bring the special olive oil used in appointing people and things to the service of the Lord. Also bring the bull of the sin offering and the two male sheep. And bring the basket of bread made without yeast. <sup>3</sup>Then gather the people together at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Moses did as the Lord commanded him. The people met together at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses spoke to the people. He said, “This is what the Lord has commanded to be done.” <sup>6</sup>Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward. He washed them with water. <sup>7</sup>He put the inner robe on Aaron. And he tied the cloth belt around Aaron. Then he put the outer robe on him. Next he put the holy vest<sup>d</sup> on Aaron. Then he tied the skillfully woven belt around him. So the holy vest was tied to Aaron. <sup>8</sup>Then Moses put the chest covering on him. And he put the Urim and the Thummim<sup>d</sup> in the chest covering. <sup>9</sup>He also put the turban on Aaron's head. He put the strip of gold on the front of the turban. This strip of gold is the holy crown. Moses did this as the Lord commanded him to do.

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses put the special oil on the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> and everything in it. In this way Moses made them holy for the Lord. <sup>11</sup>He sprinkled some oil on the altar seven times. He sprinkled the altar and all its tools. He also sprinkled special oil on the large bowl and its base. In this way he made them holy for the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Then he poured some of the special oil on Aaron's head. In this way he made Aaron holy for the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then Moses brought Aaron's sons forward. And he put the inner robes on them. He tied cloth belts around them. Then he put headbands on them. He did these things as the Lord had commanded him.

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses brought the other male sheep. It was used in appointing Aaron and his sons as priests. They put their hands on its head. <sup>23</sup>Then Moses killed the sheep. He put some of its blood on the bottom of Aaron's right ear. He put some on the thumb of Aaron's right hand. And he put some on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup>Then Moses brought Aaron's sons close to the altar. He put some of the blood on the bottom of their right ears. He put it on the thumbs of their right hands. And he put it on the big toes of their right feet. Then he sprinkled blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>25</sup>He took the fat and the fat tail from the sheep. He took all the fat on the inner organs. He took the best part of the liver. He also took both kidneys, their fat and the right thigh. <sup>26</sup>A basket of bread made without yeast is put before the Lord each day. From the basket Moses took a loaf of bread. And he took a loaf made with oil and a wafer. He put these pieces of bread on the fat and right thigh of the male sheep. <sup>27</sup>He put all these things in the hands of Aaron and his sons. He presented the pieces as an offering before the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Then Moses took them from their hands. And he burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. So this was the offering for appointing Aaron and his sons as priests. It was an offering made by fire to the Lord. Its smell was pleasing to the Lord. <sup>29</sup>Moses took the breast and presented it as an offering before the Lord. It was Moses' share of the male sheep used in appointing the priests. This was as the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>Moses took some of the special oil and some of the blood which was on the altar. He sprinkled some of the oil on Aaron and Aaron's clothes. He also sprinkled some on Aaron's sons and their clothes. In his way Moses made Aaron, his clothes, his sons and their clothes holy for the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "I gave you a command. I said, 'Aaron and his sons will eat these things.' So take the meat and basket of bread from the offering for appointing priests. Boil the meat at the door of the Meeting Tent. Eat it there with the bread. <sup>32</sup>If any of the meat or bread is left, burn it. <sup>33</sup>The time of appointing will last seven days. You must not go outside the entrance of the Meeting Tent until that time is up. Stay there until the time of your appointing is finished. <sup>34</sup>The Lord commanded the things that were done today. He commanded these things to remove your sins so you will belong to him. <sup>35</sup>You must stay at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Stay there day and night for seven days. If you don't obey the Lord's commands, you will die! The Lord has given me these commands."

Aaron and His Sons Offer Sacrifices

9 On the eighth day after the time of appointing, Moses called for Aaron and his sons. He also called for the older leaders of Israel. <sup>2</sup>He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf and a male sheep. There must be nothing wrong with these animals. The calf will be a sin offering. And the male sheep will be a whole burnt offering. Offer these animals to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Tell the people of Israel, "Take a male goat for a sin offering. And take a calf and a lamb for a whole burnt offering. The calf and the lamb must each be one year old. There must be nothing wrong with these animals. <sup>4</sup>Take a bull and a male sheep for fellowship offerings. Take with these animals a grain offering mixed with oil. Offer these things to the Lord. This is because the Lord will appear to you today.' "

<sup>5</sup>So all the people came to the front of the Meeting Tent. <sup>4</sup>They brought the things Moses had commanded them to bring. And they stood before the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Moses said, "You have done what the Lord commanded. So you will see the Lord's glory."

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses told Aaron, "Go to the altar. There offer sin offerings and whole burnt offerings. Do this to remove your sins and the people's sins so you will belong to God. Offer the sacrifices for the people. And perform the acts to remove their sins for them so they will belong to the Lord. Do this as the Lord has commanded."

<sup>12</sup>Then Aaron killed the animal for the whole burnt offering. Aaron's sons brought the blood to him. And he sprinkled it on all sides of the altar. <sup>13</sup>Aaron's sons gave the pieces and head of the burnt offering to Aaron. And he burned them on the altar. <sup>14</sup>Aaron also washed the inner organs and the legs of the burnt offering. And he burned them on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then Aaron brought the offering that was for the people. He took the goat of the people's sin offering. He killed and offered the goat of the sin offering. He did this just as he had done the first sin offering.

<sup>16</sup>Then Aaron brought the whole burnt offering and offered it. He did it as the Lord had commanded. <sup>17</sup>He also brought the grain offering to the altar. He took a handful of the grain and burned it on the altar. This was in addition to the morning's burnt offering.

sheep. These were the fellowship offerings for the people. Aaron's sons brought the blood from these animals to Aaron. He sprinkled it on all sides of the altar. <sup>19</sup>Aaron's sons also brought to Aaron the fat of the bull and the male sheep. They brought the fat tail and the fat covering the inner organs. They also brought the kidneys and the best part of the liver. <sup>20</sup>Aaron's sons put these fat parts on the breasts of the bull and sheep. Then Aaron burned these fat parts on the altar. <sup>21</sup>He presented the breasts and the right thigh before the Lord as the priests' share of the offering. He did this as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup>Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. Aaron had finished offering the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offering. Then he stepped down from the altar.

<sup>23</sup>Moses and Aaron went into the Meeting Tent. Then they came out and blessed the people. Then the Lord's glory came to all the people. <sup>24</sup>Fire came out from the Lord. It burned up the burnt offering and fat on the altar. When the people saw this, they shouted with joy. They bowed facedown on the ground.

God Destroys Nadab and Abihu

10 Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu took their pans for burning incense. <sup>4</sup>They put fire in them and added incense. But they did not use the special fire Moses had commanded them to use. <sup>2</sup>So fire came down from the Lord and destroyed Nadab and Abihu. They died in front of the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the Lord was speaking about when he said,

'I must be respected as holy by those who come near me.

Before all the people

I must be given honor.' "

So Aaron did not say anything about the death of his sons.

<sup>4</sup>Aaron's uncle Uzziel had two sons named Mishael and Elzaphan. Moses said to them, "Come here. Pick up your cousins' bodies. Carry them outside the camp away from the front of the Holy Place. <sup>5</sup>So Mishael and Elzaphan obeyed Moses. They carried the bodies of Nadab and Abihu outside the camp. Nadab and Abihu were still wearing the special priest's inner robes.

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses spoke to Aaron and his other sons, Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses told them, "Don't show any sadness. Don't tear your clothes or leave your hair uncombed. If you do those things, you will die, and the Lord will be angry with all the people. All the people of Israel are your relatives. They may cry loudly about the Lord burning Nadab and Abihu. <sup>7</sup>But you must not even leave the Meeting Tent. <sup>8</sup>If you go out of the entrance, you will die! This is because the Lord has appointed you to his service." So Aaron, Eleazar and Ithamar obeyed Moses.

<sup>14</sup>"Also, you, your sons and daughters may eat the breast and thigh of the fellowship offering. They were presented to the Lord. You must eat them in a clean place. They are your share of the fellowship offerings given by the Israelites. <sup>15</sup>The people must bring the fat from their animals. It is part of the offering made by fire. They must also bring the thigh and the breast of the fellowship offering. These will be presented to the Lord. They will be the regular share of the offerings for you and your children. The Lord has commanded it."

<sup>16</sup>Moses looked for the goat of the sin offering. But it had already been burned up. So he became very angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons. He said, <sup>17a</sup>"You were supposed to eat that goat in a holy place before the Lord! It is most holy! He gave it to you to take away the guilt of the people. The goat was for removing the sins of the people so they will belong to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>You didn't bring the goat's blood inside the Holy Place. So you were supposed to eat the goat in a holy place, as I commanded!"

<sup>19</sup>But Aaron said to Moses, "Today they brought their sin offering and burnt offering before the Lord. But these terrible things have still happened to me today! Do you think the Lord would be any happier if I ate the sin offering today?" <sup>20</sup>When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Rules About What May Be Eaten

11 The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron. <sup>2</sup>He said, "Tell the people of Israel this: 'These are the land animals you may eat: <sup>3</sup>You may eat any animal that has split hoofs completely divided and chews the cud.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>"Some animals only chew the cud or only have split hoofs. Don't eat these animals. The camel chews the cud but does not have a split hoof. It is unclean<sup>d</sup> for you. <sup>5</sup>The rock badger chews the cud but does not have a split hoof. It is unclean for you. <sup>6</sup>The rabbit chews the cud but does not have a split hoof. It is unclean for you. <sup>7</sup>Now the pig has a split hoof that is completely divided. But it does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. <sup>8</sup>You must not eat the meat from these animals. Don't even touch their dead bodies. They are unclean for you.

<sup>9</sup>"Some animals live in the sea or in a river. If the animal has fins and scales, you may eat it. <sup>10</sup>But some animals live in the sea or in a river and do not have fins and scales. This includes the things that fill the water. And it includes all other things that live in the water. You should hate them. <sup>11</sup>You must not eat any meat from them. Don't even touch their dead bodies. This is because you should hate them. <sup>12</sup>You must hate any animal in the water that does not have fins and scales.

<sup>21</sup>"But you may eat certain insects that have wings and walk on four feet. You may eat those that have legs with joints above their feet so they can jump. <sup>22</sup>These are the insects you may eat: all kinds of locusts, winged locusts, crickets and grasshoppers. <sup>23</sup>But all other insects that have wings and walk on four feet are hated. <sup>24</sup>Those insects will make you unclean. Anyone who touches the dead body of one of these insects will become unclean until evening. <sup>25</sup>If someone picks up one of these dead insects, he must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening.

26<sup>a</sup> "Some animals have split hoofs. But the hoofs are not completely divided. And some animals do not chew the cud. They are unclean for you. Anyone who touches the dead body of one of these animals will become unclean. 27<sup>a</sup> Other animals do not have hoofs at all. They walk on their paws. These animals are unclean for you. Anyone who touches the dead body of one of these animals will become unclean. He will be unclean until evening. 28<sup>a</sup> Anyone who picks up their dead bodies must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening. These animals are unclean for you.

29<sup>a</sup> "These crawling animals are unclean for you: moles, rats, all kinds of great lizards, 30<sup>a</sup> geckos, crocodiles, lizards, sand reptiles and chameleons. 31<sup>a</sup> These crawling animals are unclean for you. Anyone who touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

32<sup>a</sup> "If an unclean animal dies and falls on something, that thing will also become unclean. The animal might fall on a thing made from wood, cloth, leather or rough cloth. It does not matter what the thing was used for. Whatever the animal falls on must be washed with water. It will be unclean until evening. Then it will become clean again. 33<sup>a</sup> The dead, unclean animal might fall into a clay bowl. If it does, anything in the bowl will become unclean. And you must break the bowl. 34<sup>a</sup> If water from the unclean clay bowl gets on any food, that food will become unclean. 35<sup>a</sup> If any dead, unclean animal falls on something, that thing becomes unclean. The animal may fall on a clay oven or a clay baking pan. If so, it must be broken into pieces. These things will be unclean. They are unclean for you.

36<sup>a</sup> "A spring or well that collects water will stay clean. But anyone who touches the dead body of any unclean animal will become unclean. 37<sup>a</sup> A dead, unclean animal might fall on a seed to be planted. That seed is still clean. 38<sup>a</sup> But you might put water on some seeds. If a dead, unclean animal falls on those seeds, they are unclean for you.

39<sup>a</sup> "Also, an animal which you use for food may die. If it does, anyone who touches its body will be unclean until evening. 40<sup>a</sup> Anyone who eats meat from this animal's dead body must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening. Anyone who picks up the animal's dead body must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening.

41<sup>a</sup> "Every animal that crawls on the ground is one of the hated animals. It must not be eaten. Anyone who picks up the animal's dead body must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening. 42<sup>a</sup> You must not eat any of the animals that crawl on the ground. This includes animals that crawl on their stomachs. And it includes animals that walk on all four feet or on many feet. Those are hated animals to you. 43<sup>a</sup> Do not make yourself unclean by these hated animals. You must not become unclean by them. 44<sup>a</sup> I am the Lord your God. Keep yourselves holy for me because I am holy. Don't make yourselves unclean with these hated, crawling animals. 45<sup>a</sup> I am the Lord who brought you out of Egypt. I did it so I could be your God. You must be holy because I am holy.

46<sup>a</sup> "These are the teachings about all of the cattle, birds and other animals on earth. These are the teachings about the animals in the sea. And these are the teachings about the animals that crawl on the ground. 47<sup>a</sup> These teachings help people know the difference between unclean animals and clean animals. They help people know which animals may be eaten and which ones must not be eaten.' "

Rules for New Mothers

12 The Lord said to Moses, 2<sup>a</sup> "Tell the people of Israel this: 'If a woman gives birth to a son, she will become unclean<sup>d</sup> for 7 days. This will be like her being unclean during her monthly period. 3<sup>a</sup> On the eighth day the boy must be circumcised.<sup>d</sup> 4<sup>a</sup> Then it will be 33 days before she becomes clean from her loss of blood. She must not touch anything that is holy. She must not enter the holy place until her time of cleansing is finished. 5<sup>a</sup> But a woman may give birth to a daughter. Then the mother will be unclean for 2 weeks. This is like her being unclean during her monthly period. It will be 66 days before she becomes clean from her loss of blood.

6<sup>a</sup> "After she has a son or daughter, she must have a time of cleansing. When it is over, the new mother must bring certain sacrifices to the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> She must give the priest at the entrance a year-old lamb for a burnt offering. And she must bring a dove or young pigeon for a sin offering. 7<sup>a</sup> He will offer them before the Lord to make her clean so she will belong to the Lord again. Then she will be clean from her loss of blood. These are the teachings for a woman who gives birth to a boy or girl.

8<sup>a</sup> "If she cannot afford a lamb, she is to bring two doves or two young pigeons. One bird will be for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering. In this way the priest will make her clean so she will belong to the Lord again. And she will be clean.' "

Rules About Skin Diseases

13 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup>“Someone might have a swelling on his skin. Or he might have a scab or a bright spot on his skin. If the sore looks like a harmful skin disease, the person must be brought to Aaron the priest. Or he must be brought to one of Aaron’s sons, the priests. <sup>3</sup>The priest must look at the sore on the person’s skin. The hair in the sore may have become white. And the sore may seem deeper than the person’s skin. If so, it is a harmful skin disease. When he has finished looking at the person, the priest must announce that the person is unclean.”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup>“Sometimes there is a white spot on a person’s skin, but the spot does not seem deeper than the skin. If that is true, and if the hair from the spot has not turned white, the priest must separate that person from other people for seven days. <sup>5</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the person again. He may see that the sore has not changed. It might not have spread on the skin. Then the priest must keep the person separated for seven more days. <sup>6</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the person again. The sore may have faded. And it may not have spread on the skin. If that is true, the priest must announce that the person is clean. The sore is only a rash. The person must wash his clothes. Then he will become clean again.

<sup>7</sup>“But the sore may have spread again after the priest has announced him clean. Then the person must come again to the priest. <sup>8</sup>The priest must look at him. If the rash has spread on the skin, the priest must announce that person is unclean. It is a harmful skin disease.

<sup>9</sup>“If a person has a harmful skin disease, he must be brought to the priest. <sup>10</sup>The priest must look at him. There might be a white swelling in the skin. And the hair may have become white. And the skin may look raw in the swelling. <sup>11</sup>If these things are true, it is a harmful skin disease. It is one that he has had for a long time. The priest must announce that the person is unclean. He will not need to separate that person from other people. This is because everyone already knows that the person is unclean.

<sup>12</sup>“Sometimes skin disease spreads all over a person’s body. The disease covers that person’s skin from his head to his feet, as far as the priest can see. Then the priest must look at the person’s whole body. <sup>13</sup>The priest might see that the disease covers the whole body. It might have turned all of the person’s skin white. Then the priest must announce that the person is clean.

on his chin. <sup>30</sup>A priest must look at the sore. It may seem to be deeper than the skin. And the hair around it may be thin and yellow. If these things are true, the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is an itch, a harmful skin disease of the head or chin. <sup>31</sup>But when the priest looks at it, the sore might not seem deeper than the skin. There might not be any black hair in it. If that is true, the priest must separate the person from other people for seven days. <sup>32</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the sore. It may not have spread. There may be no yellow hairs growing in it. And the sore may not seem deeper than the skin. <sup>33</sup>If these things are true, the person must shave himself. But he must not shave the sore place. The priest must separate that person from other people for seven more days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the sore. The sore may not have spread on the skin. And it may not seem deeper than the skin. If that is true, the priest must announce that the person is clean. So the person must wash his clothes and become clean. <sup>35</sup>But the sore might spread on the skin after the person has become clean. <sup>36</sup>Then the priest must look at him again. If the sore has spread on the skin, the priest doesn't need to look for the yellowish hair. The person is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But the priest might think the sore has stopped spreading. And black hair may be growing in it. Then the sore has healed. The person is clean. And the priest must announce that he is clean.

<sup>45</sup>If a person has a skin disease that spreads, he must warn other people. He must shout, 'Unclean, unclean!' His clothes must be torn at the seams. He must let his hair stay uncombed. And he must cover his mouth. <sup>46</sup>That person will be unclean the whole time he has the disease. He is unclean. He must live alone outside the camp.

Rules About Mildew

<sup>53</sup>If the priest sees that the mildew has not spread, the cloth or leather must be washed. It does not matter if it is leather or cloth, knitted or woven. It must be washed. <sup>54</sup>The priest must order the people to wash that piece of leather or cloth. Then he must separate the clothing for seven more days. <sup>55</sup>After that time the priest must look at it again. If the mildew still looks the same, that thing is unclean.<sup>d</sup> It does not matter if the mildew has not spread. You must burn that cloth or piece of leather.

<sup>56</sup>But when the priest looks at that piece of leather or cloth, the mildew might have faded. Then the priest must tear the mildew out of the piece of leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. <sup>57</sup>But the mildew might come back to that piece of leather or cloth. If that happens, the mildew is spreading. And that piece of leather or cloth must be burned. <sup>58</sup>The cloth, the woven or knitted material, or the leather may be washed. The mildew may then be gone. It must be washed again. Then it will be clean.

<sup>59</sup>These are the teachings about mildew on pieces of leather or cloth. It doesn't matter if the cloth is woven or knitted."

Rules for Cleansing from Skin Diseases

14 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>These are the teachings for people who had a harmful skin disease and have become well. These teachings are for making that person clean.<sup>d</sup> outside the camp. He must see if the skin disease is healed. <sup>4</sup>If the person is healthy, the priest will tell him to do these things: He must get two living, clean birds. He must also get a piece of cedar wood, a piece of red cloth and a hyssop plant. These things are for cleansing the person with the skin disease.

<sup>5</sup>"The priest must order one bird to be killed in a clay bowl containing fresh water. <sup>6</sup>Then he will take the other bird that is still alive. He will take the piece of cedar wood, the red cloth and the hyssop. He will dip the living bird and other things into the blood. (This is the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.) <sup>7</sup>The priest will sprinkle the blood seven times on the person who had the skin disease. He must announce that the person is clean. Then the priest must go to an open field. He must let the living bird go free.

<sup>8</sup>"Next, that person must wash his clothes. He must shave off all his hair. And he must wash with water. Then he will be clean and may go into the camp. But at first he must stay outside his tent for seven days. <sup>9</sup>On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair. He must shave off his hair, his beard and his eyebrows. He must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water. Then he will be clean.

<sup>10</sup>"On the eighth day the person who had the skin disease must take two male lambs. They must have nothing wrong with them. He must also take a year-old female lamb. It must have nothing wrong with it. The person must take six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a grain offering. He must also take two-thirds of a pint of olive oil. <sup>11</sup>A priest must announce that the person is clean. Then he must bring that person and his sacrifices before the Lord. This is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>12</sup>The priest will take one of the male lambs. He will offer it and the olive oil as a guilt offering. And he will present them before the Lord as an offering. <sup>13</sup>Then he will kill the male lamb in the holy place. He will kill it where they kill the sin offering and the whole burnt offering. The penalty offering is like the sin offering. It belongs to the priest. It is most holy.

sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the Lord. <sup>17</sup>The priest will put some oil from his hand on the bottom of the right ear of the person to be made clean. He will put some of it on the thumb of the person's right hand. And he will put some of it on the big toe of the person's right foot. The oil will go on these places on top of the blood for the penalty offering. <sup>18</sup>He will put the rest of the oil that is in his left hand on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way the priest will make that person clean so he can belong to the Lord again.

<sup>19</sup>"Next the priest will offer the sin offering. It will make that person clean so he can belong to the Lord again. After this the priest will kill the animal for the whole burnt offering. <sup>20</sup>Then he will offer the burnt offering and grain offering on the altar. In this way he will make that person clean so he can belong to the Lord again.

<sup>21</sup>"But the person may be poor and unable to afford these offerings. Then he must take one male lamb for a penalty offering. It will be presented to the Lord so the priest can make that person clean. Then he can belong to the Lord again. The person must take two quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. It will be used for a grain offering. He must also take two-thirds of a pint of olive oil. <sup>22</sup>He must take two doves or two young pigeons, which he can afford. One bird will be a sin offering. The other will be a whole burnt offering. <sup>23</sup>On the eighth day the person will bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. The gifts will be offered before the Lord. This is so the person can become clean. <sup>24</sup>The priest will take the lamb for the penalty offering and the oil. He will present them as an offering before the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Then he will kill the lamb of the penalty offering. He will take some of the blood of the penalty offering. He will put it on the bottom of the right ear of the person to be made clean. The priest will put some of this blood on the thumb of the person's right hand. And he will put some on the big toe of the person's right foot. <sup>26</sup>He will also pour some of the oil into his own left hand. <sup>27</sup>Then with a finger of his right hand, he will sprinkle some of the oil from his left hand. He will sprinkle it seven times before the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Then the priest will take some of the oil from his hand. He will put it on the bottom of the right ear of the person to be made clean. He will also put some of it on the thumb of the person's right hand. And he will put some on the big toe of the person's right foot. The oil will go on these places on top of the blood from the penalty offering. <sup>29</sup>The priest must put the rest of the oil that is in his hand on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way the priest will make the person clean so he can belong to the Lord again. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest will offer one of the doves or young pigeons. He must offer what the person can afford. <sup>31</sup>He must offer one of the birds as a sin offering. And he must offer the other bird as a whole burnt offering. He must offer them with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make the person clean so he can belong to the Lord again. The person will become clean.

<sup>32</sup>“These are the teachings for making a person clean. This is done after he has become well from a skin disease. These teachings are for people who cannot afford the regular sacrifices for becoming clean.”

Rules for Cleaning Mildew

<sup>33</sup>The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>34</sup>“I am giving the land of Canaan to your people. When they enter that land, I might cause mildew<sup>d</sup> to grow in someone’s house. <sup>35</sup>The owner of that house must come and tell the priest. He should say, ‘I have seen something like mildew in my house.’ <sup>36</sup>Then the priest must order the people to empty the house. They must do this before he goes in to look at the mildew. This is so he will not have to say that everything in the house is unclean.<sup>d</sup> After the people have emptied the house, the priest will go in to look at it. <sup>37</sup>He will look at the mildew. The mildew on the walls of the house might be green or red. It might go into the wall’s surface. <sup>38</sup>If these things are true, he must go out and close up the house for seven days. <sup>39</sup>On the seventh day the priest must come back and check the house. The mildew may have spread on the walls of the house. <sup>40</sup>If it has, the priest must order the people to tear out the stones with the mildew on them. They should throw the stones away. They must put the stones at a certain unclean place outside the city. <sup>41</sup>Then the priest must have all the inside of the house scraped. The people must throw away the plaster they scraped off the walls. They must put the plaster at a certain unclean place outside the city. <sup>42</sup>Then the owner must put new stones in the walls. And he must cover the walls with new clay plaster.

<sup>43</sup>“A person may have taken away the old stones and plaster. He may have put in new stones and plaster. But mildew may again appear in his house. <sup>44</sup>If it does, the priest must come back and check the house again. If the mildew has spread in the house, it is a mildew that destroys things. So the house is unclean. <sup>45</sup>Then the owner must tear down the house. He must remove all its stones, plaster and wood. He must take them to the unclean place outside the city. <sup>46</sup>Anyone who goes into that house will be unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup>Anyone who eats in that house or lies down there must wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup>“After new stones and plaster have been put in a house, the priest must check it again. The mildew may not have spread in the house. Then the priest will announce that the house is clean. This is because the mildew is gone.

<sup>49</sup>“Then, to make the house clean, the priest must take two birds. He must also take a piece of cedar wood, a piece of red cloth and a hyssop plant. <sup>50</sup>He will kill one bird in a clay bowl containing fresh water. <sup>51</sup>Then he will take the other bird that is still alive. He will also take the cedar wood, the hyssop and the red cloth. He will dip the living bird and other things into the blood. (This is the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.) Then the priest will sprinkle the blood on the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>He will use the bird’s blood, the fresh water and the live bird. And he will use the cedar wood, the hyssop and the red cloth. With these things he will make the house clean. <sup>53</sup>The priest will go to an open field outside the city. And he will let the living bird go free. This is how the priest makes the house clean and ready for service to the Lord.”

<sup>54</sup>These are the teachings about any kind of skin disease. <sup>55</sup>These are the teachings for mildew on pieces of cloth or in a house. <sup>56</sup>These are also the teachings for swellings, rashes or bright spots on the skin. <sup>57</sup>They teach when things are unclean and when they are clean. These are the teachings about all these kinds of diseases.

Rules About a Man’s Body

15 The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>21</sup>“Say to the people of Israel: ‘When a fluid comes from a man’s body, he is unclean.<sup>d</sup>’ <sup>3</sup>It doesn’t matter if the fluid flows freely or if it is blocked from flowing.

<sup>4</sup>“The man who discharges the body fluid may lie on a bed. If he does, that bed becomes unclean. Everything he sits on becomes unclean. <sup>5</sup>Also anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe in water. This person will be unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup>Someone might sit on something that the man who discharges the fluid sat on. If he does, he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup>Anyone who touches the man who discharges the body fluid must wash his clothes and bathe in water. The person will be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup>“The man who discharges the body fluid might spit on a clean person. If so, the person who was clean must wash his clothes. He must bathe in water. The person will be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup>Everything on which the man who is unclean has ridden will become unclean. <sup>10</sup>Someone might touch something that was under the man who discharges a body fluid. If he does, he will be unclean until evening. Someone might carry these things that were under the man who discharges a body fluid. This person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>11</sup>“The man who discharges a body fluid may not have washed his hands in water. If he touches another person, that person must wash his clothes. That person must bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>12</sup>“A man who discharges a body fluid may touch a clay bowl. That bowl must be broken. If he touches a wooden bowl, that bowl must be washed in water.

<sup>13</sup>“A man who discharges a body fluid may be made clean. He must count seven days for himself for his cleansing. He must wash his clothes and bathe his body in fresh water. Then he will be clean. <sup>14</sup>On the eighth day he must take two doves or two young pigeons. He must come before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> He will give the two birds to the priest. <sup>15</sup>The priest will offer the birds. One bird is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering. So the priest will make that man clean so he can belong to the Lord again.

<sup>16</sup>“If semen<sup>n</sup> goes out from a man, he must bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup>If the fluid gets on any clothing or leather, it must be washed with water. It will be unclean until evening.

<sup>18</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with a woman and semen comes out, both people must bathe in water. They will be unclean until evening.

Rules About a Woman's Body

<sup>19</sup>“When a woman has her monthly period, she is unclean<sup>d</sup> for seven days. Anyone who touches her will be unclean until evening. <sup>20</sup>Anything she lies on during this time will be unclean. Everything she sits on during that time will be unclean. <sup>21</sup>Anyone who touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe in water. That person will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>Anyone who touches something she has sat on must wash his clothes and bathe in water. That person will be unclean until evening. <sup>23</sup>It does not matter if the person touched the woman's bed or something she sat on. That person will be unclean until evening.

<sup>24</sup>“A man may have sexual relations with a woman during her monthly period. If he does, he will be unclean for seven days. Every bed he lies on will also be unclean.

<sup>25</sup>“A woman might have a loss of blood for many days. It may not be during her regular monthly period. Or she may continue to have a loss of blood after her regular period. If she does, she will be unclean, as she is during her monthly period. She will be unclean for as long as she continues to bleed. <sup>26</sup>Any bed she lies on during all the time of her bleeding will be like her bed during her regular monthly period. Everything she sits on will be unclean. It will be like during her regular monthly period.

<sup>27</sup>“If anyone touches those things, that person will be unclean. He must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>28</sup>When the woman becomes clean from her bleeding, she must wait seven days. After this she will be clean. <sup>29</sup>Then on the eighth day she must take two doves or two young pigeons. She must bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> <sup>30</sup>Then the priest must offer one bird for a sin offering. He must offer the other bird for a whole burnt offering. So the priest will make her clean so she can belong to the Lord again.

<sup>31</sup>“So you must warn the people of Israel to stay separated from things that make them unclean. If you don't warn the people, they might make my Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> unclean. And then they would have to die!”

The Day of Cleansing

16 Now two of Aaron's sons had died while offering incense<sup>d</sup> to the Lord. At that time the Lord spoke to Moses. <sup>2</sup>He said,

“Talk to your brother Aaron. Tell him there are times when he cannot go behind the curtain into the Most Holy Place where the Ark<sup>a</sup> is. If he goes in when I appear in a cloud over the lid on the Ark, he will die.

<sup>3</sup>“Aaron may enter the Most Holy Place only on the Day of Cleansing. Before he enters, he must offer a bull for a sin offering. And he must offer a male sheep for a whole burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He must put on these clothes. He will put on the holy linen inner robe. The linen underclothes will be next to his body. His belt will be the cloth belt. And he will wear the linen turban. These are holy clothes. So he must wash his whole body with water before he puts them on.

<sup>5</sup>“Aaron must take from the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering. And he must take one male sheep for a burnt offering. <sup>6</sup>Then he will offer the bull for the sin offering. This sin offering is for himself. Then he will perform the acts to remove sins from him and his family so they will belong to the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>“Next Aaron will take the two goats. He will bring them before the Lord at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>8</sup>Aaron will throw lots<sup>d</sup> for the two goats. One lot will be for the Lord. The other lot will be for the goat that removes sin. <sup>9</sup>Then Aaron will take the goat that was chosen for the Lord by throwing the lot. He must offer this goat as a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>The other goat was chosen by lot to remove the sin. It must be brought alive before the Lord. The priest will use it to perform the acts to remove Israel’s sin so they will belong to the Lord. Then this goat will be sent out into the desert.

<sup>11</sup>“Then Aaron will offer the bull as a sin offering for himself. This will remove the sins of him and his family so they will belong to the Lord. He will kill the bull for the sin offering for himself. <sup>12</sup>Then he must take a pan full of burning coals from the altar before the Lord. Aaron must take two handfuls of sweet incense that has been ground into powder. He must bring it into the room behind the curtain. <sup>13</sup>He must put the incense on the fire before the Lord. Then the cloud of incense will cover the lid on the Ark. Then when Aaron comes in, he will not die. <sup>14</sup>Also, Aaron must take some of the blood from the bull. He must sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the lid. Then, with his finger he will sprinkle the blood seven times in front of the lid.

<sup>15</sup>“Then Aaron must kill the goat of the sin offering for the people. He must bring this goat’s blood into the room behind the curtain. He must do with the goat’s blood as he did with the bull’s blood. He must sprinkle the goat’s blood on the lid and in front of it. <sup>16</sup>The people in Israel have been unclean. <sup>a</sup> So Aaron will perform the acts to make the Most Holy Place ready for service to the Lord. Then it will be clean from the sins and crimes of the people of Israel. He must do this because the Meeting Tent stays in the middle of unclean people. <sup>17</sup>When Aaron makes the Most Holy Place ready for service to the Lord, no one is allowed in the Meeting Tent. No one must go in until Aaron comes out. So Aaron will perform the acts to remove sins from himself and his family so they will belong to the Lord. Then he will remove the sins of all the people of Israel so they will belong to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Afterward he will go out to the altar that is before the Lord. And he will make the altar ready for service to the Lord. Aaron will take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood. He will put it on the corners of the altar on all sides. <sup>19</sup>Then he will sprinkle some of the blood with his finger. He will sprinkle it on the altar seven times. In this way Aaron will make the altar holy for the Lord. And it will be clean from all the sins of the people of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>“Aaron will make the Most Holy Place, the Meeting Tent and the altar clean. Then he will bring the goat alive to the Lord. <sup>21</sup>He will put both his hands on the head of the living goat. Then he will confess all the sins and crimes of Israel over the goat. In this way Aaron will put the people’s sins on the goat’s head. Then he will send the goat away into the desert. A man who has been appointed will lead the goat away. <sup>22</sup>So the goat will carry all the people’s sins on itself. It will go to a lonely place in the desert. The man who leads the goat will let it loose there.

<sup>23</sup>“Then Aaron will enter the Meeting Tent. He will take off the linen clothes. (He had put them on before he went into the Most Holy Place.) He must leave these clothes there. <sup>24</sup>He will wash his whole body with water in a holy place. Then he will put on his regular clothes. He will come out and offer the whole burnt offering for himself. And he will offer the whole burnt offering for the people. He will remove sins from himself and the people so they will belong to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Then he will burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

<sup>26</sup>“The person who led the goat into the desert must wash his clothes. Then he must wash his whole body with water. After that, he may come back into the camp.

from these animals was brought into the Most Holy Place. It was to make the Holy Place ready for service to the Lord. The priests will burn the animals' skins, bodies and intestines in the fire. <sup>28</sup>Then the one who burns them must wash his clothes. And he must wash his whole body with water. After that, he may come back into the camp.

<sup>29</sup>"This law will always continue for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month, you must not eat. You must not do any work. The travelers or foreigners living with you must not work either. <sup>30</sup>On this day the priests make you clean so you will belong to the Lord again. All your sins will be removed. <sup>31</sup>This is a very important day of rest for you. And you must not eat. This law will continue forever.

<sup>32</sup>"So the appointed priest will perform the acts for making things ready for service to the Lord. He is the priest on whom oil was poured. He is appointed to take his father's place. That priest must put on the holy linen clothes. <sup>33</sup>He must make the Most Holy Place ready for service to the Lord. He must make the Meeting Tent and the altar ready for service to the Lord. He must remove the sins of himself and all the people of Israel so they will belong to the Lord. <sup>34</sup>That law for removing the sins of the Israelites so they will belong to the Lord will continue forever. You will do these things once a year."

So they did the things the Lord had commanded Moses.

Offering Sacrifices

17 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to Aaron, his sons and all the people of Israel. Tell them: 'This is what the Lord has commanded: <sup>3</sup>An Israelite might sacrifice an ox, a lamb or a goat. He might kill it inside the camp or outside it. <sup>4</sup>But he should have brought the animal to the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>5</sup>He should have given the animal as a gift to the Lord. If he didn't, he is guilty of killing. He must be separated from his people. <sup>6</sup>This rule is so people will bring their sacrifices to the Lord. They have been sacrificing in the open fields. But they must bring those animals to the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They must bring them to the priest and offer them as fellowship offerings. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest will sprinkle the blood from those animals on the Lord's altar. It is near the entrance to the Meeting Tent. And the priest will burn the fat from those animals on the altar. This smell will be pleasing to the Lord. <sup>8</sup>They must not offer any more sacrifices to their goat idols. They have chased after those other gods. In that way they have acted like prostitutes. <sup>9</sup>These rules will continue for people from now on.'

<sup>8</sup>"Tell the people this: 'Someone might offer a burnt offering or sacrifice. He might be a citizen of Israel. Or he might be a traveler or foreigner living with you. <sup>9</sup>That person must take his sacrifice to the entrance to the Meeting Tent. There he may offer it to the Lord. If he does not do this, he must be separated from his people.

<sup>10</sup>"I will be against anyone who eats blood. It does not matter if it is a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living with you. I will separate that person from his people. <sup>11</sup>This is because the life of the body is in the blood. And I have given you rules for pouring that blood on the altar. You must do this to remove your sins so you will belong to the Lord. It is the blood that removes the sins from your life so you will belong to the Lord. <sup>12</sup>So I tell the people of Israel this: "None of you may eat blood. And no foreigner living among you may eat blood."

<sup>13</sup>"Someone may catch a wild animal or bird that can be eaten. The person may be a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living among you. He must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. <sup>14</sup>This is because if blood is still in the meat, the animal's life is still in it. So I give this command to the people of Israel: "Don't eat meat that still has blood in it. Anyone who eats blood must be separated from his people."

<sup>15</sup>"Someone may eat an animal that died by itself. Or he may eat an animal that was killed by another animal. The person may be a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living among you. If he eats the animal, he will be unclean until evening. He must wash his clothes and whole body with water. <sup>16</sup>If he does not wash his clothes and bathe his body, he will be guilty of sin."

Rules About Sexual Relations

18 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Tell the people of Israel: 'I am the Lord your God. <sup>3</sup>In the past you lived in Egypt. You must not do what was done in that country. And you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you. Do not follow their customs. <sup>4</sup>You must obey my rules and follow them. I am the Lord your God. <sup>5</sup>Obey my laws and rules. A person who obeys my laws and rules will live because of them. I am the Lord. <sup>6</sup>"You must never have sexual relations with your close relatives. I am the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>“You must not shame your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother. Do not have sexual relations with her. <sup>8</sup>You must not have sexual relations with your father’s wife. That would shame your father.

<sup>9</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with your sister. She may be the daughter of your father or your mother. It doesn’t matter if she was born in your house or somewhere else.

<sup>10</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with your granddaughter. She may be your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter. That would bring shame on you.

<sup>17</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter. And do not have sexual relations with this woman’s granddaughter. It may be the daughter of her son or her daughter. They are her close relatives. It is evil to do this.

<sup>21</sup>“You must not give any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech.<sup>d</sup> This will show that you do not respect your God. I am the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with a man as you would a woman. That is a hated sin.

<sup>23</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with an animal and make yourself unclean with it. Also a woman must not have sexual relations with an animal. It is not natural.

their countries because they did these sins. And I am giving their land to you. <sup>25</sup>The land has become unclean. So I punished it for its sins. And the land is throwing out those people who live there.

<sup>26</sup>“You must obey my laws and rules. You must not do any of these hated sins. These rules are for the citizens of Israel. They are also for the people who live with you. <sup>27</sup>The people who lived in the land before you did all these hated things. So the land became unclean. <sup>28</sup>If you do these things, you will also make the land unclean. And it will throw you out as it threw out the nations before you. <sup>29</sup>Anyone who does these hated sins must be separated from his people. <sup>30</sup>The people who lived in the land before you have done these hated sins. But you must not do them. You must obey my laws. Don’t make yourself unclean by these hated sins. I am the Lord your God.’”

Other Laws

19 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell all the people of Israel: ‘I am the Lord your God. You must be holy because I am holy.

<sup>3</sup>“Each person among you must respect his mother and father. And you must keep my Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup> I am the Lord your God.

<sup>4</sup>“Do not worship idols. Do not make statues or gods for yourselves. I am the Lord your God.

<sup>5</sup>“You may sacrifice a fellowship offering to the Lord. If you do, you must offer it so you will be accepted. <sup>6</sup>You may eat it the same day you offer it. And you may also eat it on the next day. But if any is left on the third day, you must burn it up. <sup>7</sup>If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is unclean.<sup>d</sup> It will not be accepted. <sup>8</sup>Anyone who eats it then will be guilty of sin. This is because he did not respect the holy things that belong to the Lord. He must be separated from his people.

<sup>9</sup>“You harvest your crops on your land. But do not harvest all the way to the corners of your fields. If grain falls onto the ground, don’t gather it up. <sup>10</sup>Don’t pick all the grapes in your vineyards. And don’t pick up the grapes that fall to the ground. You must leave those things for poor people. You must also leave them for people traveling through your country. I am the Lord your God.

<sup>11</sup>“You must not steal. You must not cheat people. You must not lie to each other. <sup>12</sup>You must not make a false promise by my name. If you do that, you will show that you don’t respect your God. I am the Lord.

must not rob him. You must not keep a hired worker's salary all night until morning. <sup>14</sup>You must not curse a deaf man. And you must not put something in front of a blind person to make him fall. But you must respect your God. I am the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>"Be fair in your judging. You must not show special favor to poor people or great people. You must be fair when you judge your neighbor. <sup>16</sup>You must not spread false stories against other people. You must not do anything that would put your neighbor's life in danger. I am the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>"You must not hate your brother in your heart. If your neighbor does something wrong, tell him about it. If you do not, you will be partly to blame. <sup>18</sup>Forget about the wrong things people do to you. You must not try to get even. Love your neighbor as you love yourself. I am the Lord.

<sup>19</sup>"Obey my laws. You must not mate two different kinds of cattle. You must not sow your field with two different kinds of seed. You must not wear clothing made from two different kinds of material mixed together.

<sup>20</sup>"A man might have sexual relations with a slave girl of another man. But this slave girl has not been bought or given her freedom. If this happens, there must be punishment. But they are not to be put to death. This is because the woman was not free. <sup>21</sup>The man must bring a male sheep as his penalty offering. He must bring it to the Lord at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>22</sup>The priest will offer the male sheep as a penalty offering before the Lord. It will be for the man's sin. The priest will perform the acts to remove the sins of the man so he will belong to the Lord. Then the man will be forgiven for his sin.

<sup>23</sup>"In the future you will enter your country. You will plant many kinds of trees for food. After planting a tree, wait three years before using its fruit. <sup>24</sup>In the fourth year the fruit from the tree will be the Lord's. It will be a holy offering of praise to him. <sup>25</sup>Then in the fifth year, you may eat the fruit from the tree. The tree will then produce more fruit for you. I am the Lord your God.

"You must not try to tell the future by signs or black magic.

<sup>27</sup>"You must not cut the hair on the sides of your heads. And you must not cut the edges of your beard. <sup>28</sup>You must not cut your body to show sadness for someone who died. Do not put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>"You must not make your daughter become a prostitute. <sup>d</sup>That only shows you do not respect her. If you do this, the country will be filled with all kinds of sin.

<sup>30</sup>"Obey the laws about Sabbaths. You must respect my Most Holy Place. I am the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>"Do not go to mediums <sup>d</sup> or fortune-tellers for advice. If you do, you will become unclean. I am the Lord your God.

<sup>32</sup>"Show respect to old people. Stand up when they come into the room. Show respect also to your God. I am the Lord.

<sup>33</sup>"Do not mistreat foreigners living in your country. <sup>34</sup>Treat them just as you treat your own citizens. Love foreigners as you love yourselves, because you were foreigners one time. That was in Egypt. I am the Lord your God.

<sup>35</sup>"Be fair when you judge people. And be fair when you measure and weigh things. <sup>36</sup>Your weighing baskets should be the right size. And your jars should hold the right amount of liquid. Your weights and balances should weigh correctly. I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup>"Remember all my laws and rules, and obey them. I am the Lord.' "

Warnings About Various Sins

20 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"You must also tell the people of Israel these things: 'A person in your country might give one of his children to Molech. <sup>d</sup> That person must be killed. It doesn't matter if he is a citizen or a foreigner living in Israel. You must throw stones at him and kill him. <sup>3</sup> I will be against him. I will separate him from his people. This is because he gave his children to Molech. He showed that he did not respect my holy name. And he made my Holy Place unclean. <sup>d</sup> The people of the community might ignore that person. They might not kill the one who gave his children to Molech. <sup>5</sup> But I will be against him and his family. I will separate him from his people. I will do this to anyone who is unfaithful to me and who worships Molech.

<sup>6</sup> "I will be against anyone who goes to mediums <sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers for advice. He is being unfaithful to me. So I will separate him from his people.

<sup>7</sup> "Be my holy people. Be holy because I am holy. I am the Lord your God. <sup>8</sup> Remember and obey my laws. I am the Lord, and I have made you holy.

<sup>9</sup> "Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death. He has cursed his father or mother. So he must be punished.

Punishments for Sexual Sins

<sup>10</sup>“A man might have sexual relations with his neighbor’s wife. If he does, both the man and the woman are guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> So they must be put to death. <sup>11</sup>A man might have sexual relations with his father’s wife. If he does, both the man and his father’s wife must be put to death. They have brought it on themselves. That man has shamed his father.

<sup>13</sup>“A man might have sexual relations with another man as a man does with a woman. If he does, these two men have done a hated sin. They must be put to death. They have brought it on themselves.

<sup>14</sup>“A man might have sexual relations with both a woman and her mother. This is evil. The people must burn that man and the two women in fire. Do this so that your people will not be evil.

<sup>15</sup>“A man might have sexual relations with an animal. If he does, he must be put to death. And you must also kill the animal. <sup>16</sup>A woman might have sexual relations with an animal. If she does, you must kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. They have brought it on themselves.

<sup>22</sup>“Remember all my laws and rules, and obey them. I am leading you to your own land. If you obey my laws and rules, that land will not throw you out. <sup>23</sup>I am forcing the people who live there out of that country ahead of you. Because they did all these sins I have hated them. Do not live the way those people lived.

<sup>24</sup>“I have told you that you will get their land. I will give it to you as your very own. It is a land where much food grows. I am the Lord your God. I have set you apart from other people and made you my own. <sup>25</sup>So you must treat clean animals and birds differently from unclean animals. Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these unclean birds or animals or things that crawl on the ground. I have made them unclean for you. <sup>26</sup>I have set you apart from other people. So you must be holy to me. This is because I am the Lord, and I am holy.

How Priests Must Behave

21 The Lord said to Moses, “Tell these things to Aaron’s sons, the priests: ‘A priest must not make himself unclean<sup>d</sup> by touching a dead person. <sup>2</sup>But if the dead person was one of his close relatives, he may touch him. The priest may make himself unclean if the dead person is his mother or father, son or daughter, brother or <sup>3</sup>unmarried sister. This sister is close to him because she has no husband. So the priest may make himself unclean for her if she dies. <sup>4</sup>But a priest must not make himself unclean if the dead person was only related to him by marriage.

<sup>5</sup>“Priests must not shave their heads. They must not shave off the edges of their beards. They must not cut their bodies. <sup>6</sup>Priests must be holy to their God. They must show respect for God’s name. This is because they present the offerings made by fire to the Lord. This is the food of their God. So they must be holy.

<sup>7</sup>“A priest serves God in a special way. So he must not marry an unclean prostitute<sup>d</sup> or a divorced woman. <sup>8</sup>Treat the priest in a special way. Think of him as holy. This is because he offers up the food of your God. I am the Lord. I make you holy. And I am holy.

<sup>10</sup>“The high priest was chosen from among his brothers. The special olive oil used in appointing people and things to the service of the Lord was poured on his head. He was appointed to wear the priestly clothes. So he must not do things to show his sadness in public. He must not let his hair go uncombed. He must not tear his clothes. <sup>11</sup>He must not go into a house where there is a dead body. He must not make himself unclean, even if it is his own father or mother. <sup>12</sup>The high priest must not go out of the Holy Place. If he does and becomes unclean, he would make God's Holy Place unclean. The special oil used in appointing priests was poured on the high priest's head. This separated him from the rest of the people. I am the Lord.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“Tell Aaron: ‘Some of your descendants<sup>d</sup> might have something wrong with them. If they do, they must never offer the special food of their God. <sup>18</sup>Anyone who has something wrong with him must not serve as priest. And he must not bring sacrifices to me. These people cannot serve as priests: blind men, crippled men, men with damaged faces, deformed men, <sup>19</sup>men with a crippled foot or hand, <sup>20</sup>hunchbacks, dwarfs, men who have something wrong with their eyes, men who have an itching disease or a skin disease or men who have damaged sex glands.

<sup>21</sup>“One of Aaron's descendants<sup>d</sup> might have something wrong with him. If he does, he cannot make the offerings made by fire to the Lord. He has something wrong with him. He cannot offer the food of his God. <sup>22</sup>But he is from the family of priests. So he may eat the most holy food. He may also eat the holy food. <sup>23</sup>But he may not go through the curtain into the Most Holy Place. He may not go near the altar. He has something wrong with him. He must not make my Holy Place unfit. I am the Lord. I make these things holy.’”

22 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons: ‘The people of Israel will give offerings to me. These offerings are holy, and they are mine. So you must respect these offerings. This will show that you respect my holy name. I am the Lord. <sup>3</sup>The people of Israel made the offerings holy for me. One of your descendants<sup>d</sup> might be unclean<sup>d</sup> and touch the offerings. From now on, anyone who does must be separated from appearing before me. I am the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>“One of Aaron's descendants might have one of the harmful skin diseases. Or he might discharge a body fluid. He cannot eat the holy offerings until he becomes clean. He can become unclean from touching a dead body or from his own semen.” <sup>5</sup>He will become unclean if he touches any unclean crawling animal. He will become unclean if he touches an unclean person. It doesn't matter what made him unclean. <sup>6</sup>Anyone who touches those things will become unclean until evening. That person must not eat the holy offerings. But if he washes with water, he may eat the holy offerings. <sup>7</sup>He will be clean only after the sun goes down. Then he may eat the holy offerings. The offerings are his food.

<sup>8</sup>“A priest might find an animal that died by itself. Or he might find one that was killed by some other animal. He must not eat that dead animal. If he eats it, he will become unclean. I am the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>“The priests must keep all the rules I have given. That way they will not become guilty. If they are careful, they will not die. I am the Lord. I have made them holy. <sup>10</sup>Only people in a priest's family may eat the holy offerings. A visitor staying with the priest must not eat it. A hired worker must not eat it. <sup>11</sup>But the priest might buy a slave with his own money. If he does, that slave may eat the holy offerings. Slaves who were born in the priest's house may also eat the priest's food. <sup>12</sup>A priest's daughter might marry a person who is not a priest. If she does, she must not eat any of the holy offerings. <sup>13</sup>The husband of a priest's daughter might die. Or the daughter might become divorced. She might not have children to support her. So she might go back to her father's house where she lived as a child. If this happens, she may eat some of her father's food. But only people from a priest's family may eat this food.

<sup>14</sup>“Someone might eat some of the holy offering by mistake. That person must pay back the priest for that holy food. He must also pay the priest another one-fifth of the price of that food.

<sup>15</sup>“The people of Israel will give offerings to the Lord. These gifts become holy. So the priest must not treat these holy things as though they were not holy. <sup>16</sup>The priests might allow someone who is not a priest to eat the holy offerings. If they do, they are treating those offerings as though they were not holy. The person who eats will become guilty. He will have to pay for it. I am the Lord. I make them holy.' "

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>"Tell Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel: 'A citizen of Israel or a foreigner living in Israel might want to bring a whole burnt offering. It might be for some special promise he has made. Or it might be a special gift he wanted to give to the Lord. <sup>19</sup>If he does, he must bring a male animal. It must have nothing wrong with it. The gift might be a bull, a sheep or a goat. This is so it might be accepted for him. <sup>20</sup>He must not bring an animal that has something wrong with it. It will not be accepted for him.

<sup>21</sup>"Someone might bring a fellowship offering to the Lord. That offering might be payment for a special promise the person made. Or it may be a special gift the person wanted to give the Lord. It might be a bull or a sheep. But it must be healthy. There must be nothing wrong with it. This is so it might be accepted for him. <sup>22</sup>You must not offer to the Lord any animal that is blind. It must not have broken bones or be crippled. It must not have running sores or any sort of skin disease. You must not offer any animals like these on the altar. They cannot be used as an offering by fire to the Lord.

<sup>23</sup>"Sometimes a bull or lamb is smaller than normal. Or it may not be perfectly formed. If someone wants to give that animal as a special gift to the Lord, it will be accepted. But it will not be accepted as payment for a special promise the person made.

<sup>24</sup>"An animal might have bruised, crushed, torn or cut sex glands. If it does, you must not offer that animal to the Lord in your own land.

<sup>25</sup>"You must not take such animals from foreigners as sacrifices to the Lord. This is because the animals have been hurt in some way. They have something wrong with them. They will not be accepted for you.' "

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>"When an ox, a sheep or a goat is born, it must stay seven days with its mother. But from the eighth day on, this animal will be accepted as a sacrifice. It may be offered by fire to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But you must not kill the animal and its mother on the same day. This rule is the same for an ox or a sheep.

<sup>29</sup>"You might want to offer some special offering of thanks to the Lord. But you must do it in a way that pleases the Lord. <sup>30</sup>You must eat the whole animal that same day. You must not leave any of the meat for the next morning. I am the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>"Remember my commands and obey them. I am the Lord. <sup>32</sup>Show respect for my holy name. You Israelites must remember that I am holy. I am the Lord. I have made you holy. <sup>33</sup>I brought you out of Egypt. I became your God. I am the Lord.' "

Special Holidays

23 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"Tell the people of Israel: 'You will announce the Lord's appointed feasts as holy meetings. These are my special feasts.

The Sabbath

<sup>34</sup>"There are six days for you to work. But the seventh day will be a special day of rest. It is a day for a holy meeting. You must not do any work. It is a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> to the Lord in all your homes.

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

The Feast of Harvests

<sup>9</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>"Tell the people of Israel: 'You will enter the land I will give you. You will gather its harvest. At that time you must bring the first bundle of grain from your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>The priest will present the bundle before the Lord. Then it will be accepted for you. He will present the bundle on the day after the Sabbath.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>"On the day when you present the bundle of grain, offer a male lamb. It must be one year old. There must be nothing wrong with it. It will be a burnt offering to the Lord. <sup>13</sup>You must also offer a grain offering. It should be four quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. It is an offering made by fire to the Lord. Its smell will be pleasing to the Lord. You must also offer a quart of wine as a drink offering. <sup>14</sup>First bring your offering to your God. Until you do this, do not eat the new grain, roasted grain or bread made from the new grain. This law will always continue for people from now on, wherever you live.

The Feast of Pentecost

<sup>15</sup>“Count seven weeks from the morning after the Sabbath.<sup>d</sup> (This is the Sabbath that you bring the bundle of grain to present as an offering.)<sup>16</sup>On the fiftieth day, you will bring a new grain offering to the Lord. This is the first day after the seventh week.<sup>17</sup>On that day bring two loaves of bread from your homes. That bread will be presented as an offering. Use yeast and four quarts of flour to make those loaves of bread. They will be your gift to the Lord from the first wheat of your harvest.

<sup>18</sup>“Offer one bull, two male sheep and seven male lambs. The lambs must be one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. Offer them with their grain offerings and drink offerings. They will be a burnt offering to the Lord. They will be an offering made by fire. And the smell will be pleasing to the Lord.<sup>19</sup>You must also offer one male goat for a sin offering. You must offer two male, one-year-old lambs as a fellowship offering.

<sup>20</sup>“The priest will present the two lambs as an offering. He will present them with the bread from the first wheat of the harvest. They are holy to the Lord. They will belong to the priest.<sup>21</sup>On that same day you will call a holy meeting. You must not do any work that day. This law will continue for you from now on, wherever you live.

<sup>22</sup>“You will harvest your crops on your land. But do not harvest all the way to the corners of your field. If grain falls onto the ground, don't gather it up. Leave it for poor people and foreigners in your country. I am the Lord your God.”

The Feast of Trumpets

<sup>23</sup>Again the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: ‘On the first day of the seventh month you must have a special day of rest. There will be a holy meeting. Blow the trumpet for a special time of remembering.<sup>25</sup>Do not do any work. And bring an offering made by fire to the Lord.’”

The Day of Cleansing

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>“The Day of Cleansing will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. There will be a holy meeting. You will give up eating and bring an offering made by fire to the Lord.<sup>28</sup>Do not do any work on that day. This is because it is the Day of Cleansing. On that day the priests will go before the Lord. They will perform the acts to make you clean<sup>d</sup> so you will belong to the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>“If anyone refuses to give up food on this day, he must be separated from his people.<sup>30</sup>If anyone works on this day, I will destroy him from among his people.<sup>31</sup>You must not do any work at all. This law will continue for people from now on wherever you live.<sup>32</sup>It will be a special day of rest for you. And you must not eat. You will start this special day of rest on the evening after the ninth day of the month. It will continue from that evening until the next evening.”

The Feast of Shelters

<sup>33</sup>Again the Lord said to Moses, <sup>34</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: ‘On the fifteenth day of the seventh month is the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters. This feast to the Lord will continue for seven days.<sup>35</sup>There will be a holy meeting on the first day. Do not do any work.<sup>36</sup>You will bring an offering made by fire to the Lord each day for seven days. On the eighth day you will have another holy meeting. And you will bring an offering made by fire to the Lord. This will be a holy meeting. Do not do any work.

<sup>37</sup>“These are the Lord's special feasts. There will be holy meetings on these feast days. You will bring offerings made by fire to the Lord. They will be whole burnt offerings, grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings. You must bring these gifts at the right times.<sup>38</sup>You must bring these offerings in addition to those for the Lord's Sabbath<sup>d</sup> days. You must offer them in addition to offerings you give as payment for special promises. They are also in addition to special offerings you want to give to the Lord.)

<sup>39</sup>“So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, celebrate the Lord's festival for seven days. By then you will have gathered in the crops of the land. You must rest on the first day and the seventh day.<sup>40</sup>On the first day you will take good fruit from the fruit trees. And you will take branches from palm, poplars and other leafy trees. You will celebrate before the Lord your God for seven days.<sup>41</sup>Celebrate this festival to the Lord for seven days each year. This law will continue from now on. You will celebrate it in the seventh month.<sup>42</sup>Live in shelters for seven days. All the people born in Israel must live in shelters.<sup>43</sup>This is so that all your descendants<sup>d</sup> will know I made Israel live in shelters. It was during the time I brought them out of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.”

The Lampstand and the Holy Bread

24 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil from crushed olives. That oil is for the lamps. These lamps must never go out. <sup>3</sup>Aaron will keep the lamps burning in the Meeting Tent. <sup>4</sup>They will burn from evening until morning before the Lord. This will be in front of the curtain of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement. This law will continue from now on. <sup>4</sup>Aaron must always keep the lamps burning. They are on the lampstands of pure gold before the Lord.

The Man Who Cursed God

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a son of an Israelite woman and an Egyptian father. The son was walking among the Israelites. And a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite. <sup>11</sup>The son of the Israelite woman began cursing and speaking against the Lord. So the people took him to Moses. (The mother's name was Shelomith. She was the daughter of Deibri from the family of Dan.) <sup>12</sup>The people held him as a prisoner. They waited for the Lord's command to be made clear to them.

<sup>17</sup>“ ‘If someone kills another person, he must be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Someone might kill an animal that belongs to another person. If he does, he must give that person another animal to take its place. <sup>19</sup>And someone might cause an injury to his neighbor. If he does, the same kind of injury must be given back to him. <sup>20</sup>A broken bone must be paid for a broken bone, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. In the same way someone injures another person, he must be injured in return. <sup>21</sup>So anyone who kills another person's animal must give that person another animal to take its place. But the person who kills another person must be put to death.

<sup>22</sup>“ ‘The law will be the same for the foreigner as for those from your own country. I am the Lord your God.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>Then Moses spoke to the people of Israel. And they took the person who had cursed outside the camp. Then they killed him with stones. So the people of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Time of Rest for the Land

25 The Lord spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel this: ‘I will give you land. When you enter it, let it have a special time of rest. This will be to honor the Lord. <sup>3</sup>You may plant seed in your field for six years. You may trim your vineyards for six years and bring in their fruits. <sup>4</sup>But during the seventh year, you must let the land rest. This will be a special time to honor the Lord. You must not plant seed in your field or trim your vineyards. <sup>5</sup>You must not cut the crops that grow by themselves after harvest. You must not gather the grapes from your vines that are not trimmed. The land will have a year of rest.

<sup>6</sup>“ ‘You may eat whatever the land produces during that year of rest. It will be food for your men and women servants. It will be food for your hired workers and the foreigners living in your country. <sup>7</sup>It will also be food for your cattle and the wild animals of your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten.

The Year of Jubilee

<sup>8</sup>“ ‘Count off seven groups of 7 years. This will be 49 years. During that time there will be 7 years of rest for the land. <sup>9</sup>On the Day of Cleansing,<sup>d</sup> you must blow the horn of a male sheep. This will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. You must blow the horn through the whole country. <sup>10</sup>Make the fiftieth year a special year. Announce freedom for all the people living in your country. This time will be called Jubilee.<sup>9</sup> Each of you will go back to his own property. And each of you will go back to his own family and family group.<sup>11</sup> The fiftieth year will be a special time for you to celebrate. Don't plant seeds. Don't harvest the crops that grow by themselves. Don't gather grapes from the vines that are not trimmed.<sup>12</sup> That year is Jubilee. It will be a holy time for you. You may eat the crops that come from the field.<sup>13</sup> In the year of Jubilee each person will go back to his own property.

<sup>14</sup> "Don't cheat your neighbor when you sell your land to him. And don't let him cheat you when you buy land from him.<sup>15</sup> You might want to buy your neighbor's land. If you do, count the number of years since the last Jubilee. Use that number to decide the right price. If he sells the land to you, count the number of years left for harvesting crops. Use that number to decide the right price.<sup>16</sup> If there are many years, the price will be high. If there are only a few years, lower the price. This is because your neighbor is really selling only a few crops to you. At the next Jubilee the land will again belong to his family.<sup>17</sup> You must not cheat each other. You respect your God. I am the Lord your God.

<sup>18</sup> "Remember my laws and rules, and obey them. Then you will live safely in the land.<sup>19</sup> The land will give good crops to you. You will eat as much as you want. And you will live safely in the land.

<sup>20</sup> "But you might ask, "If we don't plant seeds or gather crops, what will we eat the seventh year?"<sup>21</sup> Don't worry. I will send you a great blessing during the sixth year. That year the land will produce enough crops for 3 years.<sup>22</sup> When you plant in the eighth year, you will still be eating from the old crop. You will eat the old crop until the harvest of the ninth year.

Property Laws

<sup>23</sup> "The land really belongs to me. So you can't sell it forever. You are only foreigners and travelers living for a time on my land.<sup>24</sup> People might sell their land. But the family will always get its land back.<sup>25</sup> A person in your country might become very poor. He might be so poor that he must sell his land. So his close relatives must come and buy it back for him.<sup>26</sup> A person might not have a close relative to buy back his land for him. But he might get enough money to buy it back himself.<sup>27</sup> He must count the years since the land was sold. He must use that number to decide how much to pay for the land. Then he may buy it back. And the land will be his again.<sup>28</sup> But he might not find enough money to buy it back for himself. Then the one who bought it will keep it until the year of Jubilee.<sup>4</sup> But during that celebration, the land will go back to the first owner's family.

<sup>32</sup> "The Levites may always buy back their houses. This is true in the cities which belong to them.<sup>33</sup> Someone might buy a house from a Levite. But that house in the Levites' city will again belong to the Levites in the Jubilee. This is because houses in Levite cities belong to the people of Levi. The people of Israel gave these cities to the Levites.<sup>34</sup> Also the fields and pastures around the Levites' cities cannot be sold. Those fields belong to the Levites forever.

Rules for Slave Owners

<sup>35</sup> "Someone from your country might become too poor to support himself. Help him to live among you as you would a stranger or foreigner.<sup>36</sup> Do not charge him any interest on money you loan to him. Respect your God. And let the poor man live among you.<sup>37</sup> Don't lend him money for interest. Don't try to make a profit from the food he buys.<sup>38</sup> I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt. I did it to give the land of Canaan to you and to become your God.

<sup>39</sup> "Someone from your country might become very poor. He might even sell himself as a slave to you. If he does, you must not make him work like a slave.<sup>40</sup> He will be like a hired worker. And he will be like a visitor with you until the year of Jubilee.<sup>41</sup> Then he may leave you. He may take his children and go back to his family and the land of his ancestors.<sup>42</sup> This is because the Israelites are my servants. I brought them out of slavery in Egypt. They must not become slaves again.<sup>43</sup> You must not rule this person cruelly. You must respect your God.

from other nations around you. <sup>45</sup>Also you may buy children as slaves. These children must come from the families of foreigners living in your land. These child slaves will belong to you. <sup>46</sup>You may even pass these foreign slaves on to your children after you die. You can make them slaves forever. But you must not rule cruelly over your own brothers, the Israelites.

<sup>47</sup>“A foreigner or visitor among you might become rich. And someone in your country might become poor. The poor man might sell himself as a slave to a foreigner living among you. Or he might sell himself to a member of a foreigner’s family. <sup>48</sup>The poor man has the right to be bought back and become free. One of his relatives may buy him back. <sup>49</sup>His uncle or his uncle’s son may buy him back. One of his close relatives may buy him back. Or if he gets enough money, he may pay the money himself. Then he will be free again.

<sup>50</sup>“How do you decide the price? You must count the years from the time he sold himself to the foreigner. And count up to the next year of Jubilee. Use that number to decide the price. This is because the person really only hired himself out for a certain number of years. <sup>51</sup>There might still be many years before the year of Jubilee. If so, the person must pay back a large part of the price. <sup>52</sup>There might only be a few years left until Jubilee. If so, the person must pay a small part of the first price. <sup>53</sup>But he will live like a hired man with the foreigner every year. Don’t let the foreigner rule cruelly over him.

<sup>54</sup>“That person will become free, even if no one buys him back. At the year of Jubilee, he and his children will become free. <sup>55</sup>This is because the people of Israel are my servants. I brought them out of slavery in Egypt. I am the Lord your God.

Rewards for Obeying God

26 “Don’t make idols for yourselves. Don’t set up statues or memorials. Don’t put stone statues in your land to bow down to. This is because I am the Lord your God.

Then you have plenty to eat. You will live safely in your land. <sup>6</sup>I will give peace to your country. You will lie down in peace. No one will make you afraid. I will keep harmful animals out of your country. And armies will not pass through your country.

<sup>7</sup>“You will chase your enemies and defeat them. You will kill them with your sword. <sup>8</sup>Five of you will chase 100 men. And 100 of you will chase 10,000 men. You will defeat your enemies and kill them with your sword.

<sup>9</sup>“Then I will show kindness to you. I will let you have many children. I will keep my agreement with you. <sup>10</sup>You will have enough crops to last for more than a year. You will harvest the new crops. And you will have to throw out the old crops to make room for the new ones. <sup>11</sup>Also I will place my Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> among you. I will not turn away from you. <sup>12</sup>I will walk with you and be your God. And you will be my people. <sup>13</sup>I am the Lord your God. You were slaves in Egypt. You were bent low from the heavy weights you carried as slaves. But I broke the heavy weights that were on your shoulders. I let you walk proudly again.

Punishment for Not Obeying God

<sup>14</sup>“But you must obey me. You must obey all my commands. <sup>15</sup>If you refuse to obey all my laws and commands, you have broken our agreement. <sup>16</sup>If you do that, I will cause terrible things to happen to you. I will cause you to have disease and fever. They will destroy your eyes and kill you. You will not have success when you plant your seed. And your enemy will eat your crops. <sup>17</sup>I will be against you, and your enemies will defeat you. These enemies hate you. And they will rule over you. You will run away even when no one is chasing you.

<sup>18</sup>“If you still do not obey me, I will punish you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup>And I will also break the great cities that make you proud. The skies will not give rain. The earth will not produce crops. <sup>20</sup>You will work hard, but it will not help. Your land will not grow any crops. Your trees will not give their fruit.

<sup>21</sup>“If you still turn against me and refuse to obey me, I will beat you seven times harder. The more you sin, the more you will be punished. <sup>22</sup>I will send wild animals to attack you. They will take your children away from you. They will destroy your cattle. They will make you so few in number the roads will be empty.

agreement, and I will punish you. I will bring armies against you. You will go into your cities for safety. But I will cause diseases to spread among you. Then your enemy will defeat you.<sup>26</sup> There will be very little bread to eat. Ten women will be able to cook all your bread in one oven. They will measure each piece of bread. You will eat, but you will still be hungry.

<sup>27</sup> "If you still refuse to listen to me, and if you still turn against me,<sup>28</sup> I will really show my anger. I will punish you seven more times for your sins.<sup>29</sup> You will eat the bodies of your sons and daughters.<sup>30</sup> I will destroy your places where false gods are worshiped. I will cut down your incense<sup>d</sup> altars. I will pile your dead bodies on the lifeless forms of your idols. I will hate you.<sup>31</sup> I will destroy your cities. I will make your holy places empty. I will not smell the pleasing smell of your offerings.<sup>32</sup> I will make the land empty. Your enemies who come to live in it will be shocked at it.<sup>33</sup> I will scatter you among the nations. I will pull out my sword and destroy you. Your land will become empty. Your cities will become waste.<sup>34</sup> You will be taken to your enemy's country. So your land will finally get its rest. It will enjoy its time of rest all the time it lies empty.<sup>35</sup> During the time the land is empty, it will rest. It will have the rest you should have given it while you lived in it.

<sup>36</sup> "Those who are left alive will lose their courage in the land of their enemies. They will be frightened of everything. They will be frightened by even the sound of a leaf being blown by the wind. They will run as if someone were chasing them with a sword. They will fall even when no one is chasing them.<sup>37</sup> They will run as if someone were chasing them with a sword. They will fall over each other, even though no one is chasing them. You will not be strong enough to stand up against your enemies.<sup>38</sup> You will die among other nations. You will disappear in your enemies' countries.<sup>39</sup> So those who are left alive will rot away in their enemies' countries. They will rot away because of their sins and their ancestors' sins.

There Is Always Hope

agreement with Isaac and Abraham. And I will remember the land.<sup>43</sup> The land will be empty. It will enjoy its time of rest. Then those who are left alive will accept the punishment for their sins. They will learn that they were punished because they hated my laws. And they refused to obey my rules.<sup>44</sup> They truly sinned. But if they come to me for help, I will not turn away from them. I will listen to them even in the land of their enemies. I will not completely destroy them. I will not break my agreement with them. This is because I am the Lord their God.<sup>45</sup> For their good I will remember the agreement with their ancestors. I brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt. I did it so I could become their God. The other nations saw these things. I am the Lord.' "

<sup>46</sup> These are the laws, rules and teachings the Lord gave the people of Israel. He gave these laws to the Israelites through Moses. This was at Mount Sinai.

Promises Are Important

27 The Lord said to Moses,<sup>2</sup> "Tell the people of Israel: 'Someone might make a special promise to the Lord. He might promise to give himself or another person as a servant to the Lord. That person will then begin to serve the Lord in a special way. The priest must set a certain price for that person. That is the price that would have to be paid to free the person from his special promise to the Lord.<sup>3</sup> The price for a man 20 to 60 years old is about 1¼ pounds of silver. (You must use the measure as set by the Holy Place.)<sup>4</sup> The price for a woman 20 to 60 years old is about 12 ounces of silver.<sup>5</sup> The price for a man 5 to 20 years old is about 8 ounces of silver. The price for a woman 5 to 20 years old is about 4 ounces of silver.<sup>6</sup> The price for a baby boy 1 month to 5 years old is about 2 ounces of silver. For a baby girl the price is about 1½ ounces of silver.<sup>7</sup> The price for a man 60 years old or older is about 6 ounces of silver. The price for a woman 60 years old or older is about 4 ounces of silver.

<sup>8</sup> "A person might be too poor to pay the price. If he is, bring him to the priest. The priest will decide how much money the person can afford to pay.

Gifts to the Lord

<sup>9</sup> "Some animals may be used as sacrifices to the Lord. If someone promises to bring one of these animals, it will become holy.<sup>10</sup> That person must not try to put another animal in its place. He must not try to exchange it for something else. He must not try to exchange a good animal for a bad animal. And he must not exchange a bad animal for a good animal. If he tries to exchange animals, both animals will become holy.

<sup>11</sup>“Unclean<sup>d</sup> animals cannot be offered as sacrifices to the Lord. Someone might bring one of them to the Lord. If he does, that animal must be brought to the priest. <sup>12</sup>The priest will decide a price for the animal. The price will be according to whether the animal is good or bad. If the priest decides a price, that is the price for the animal. <sup>13</sup>If the person wants to buy back the animal, he must add an additional one-fifth to the price.

Value of a House

<sup>14</sup>“A person might give his house as holy to the Lord. If he does, the priest must decide its value. The price will be according to whether the house is good or bad. If the priest decides a price, that is the price for the house. <sup>15</sup>But the person who gives the house might want to buy it back. If he does, he must add an additional one-fifth to the price. Then the house will belong to him again.

Value of Land

<sup>16</sup>“A person might give part of his fields to the Lord. The value of those fields will depend on how much seed is needed to plant them. It will cost about one and one-fourth pounds of silver for each six bushels of barley seed needed. <sup>17</sup>The person might give his field at the year of Jubilee.<sup>d</sup> Then its value will be what the priest decides. <sup>18</sup>But he might give his field after the Jubilee. If he does, the priest must decide the exact price. He must count the number of years to the next year of Jubilee. Then he will use that number to decide the exact price. <sup>19</sup>The person who gave the field might want to buy it back. If he does, he must add one-fifth to that price. Then the field will belong to him again.

<sup>20</sup>“If he does not buy back the field, it will always belong to the priest. If it is sold to someone else, the first person cannot buy it back. <sup>21</sup>But the person might not buy back the land. If he doesn't, at the year of Jubilee, it will remain holy to the Lord. It will belong to the priest forever. It will become the property of the priests.

<sup>22</sup>“Someone may give a field he has bought to the Lord. But it may not be a part of his family land. <sup>23</sup>If he gives a field, the priest must count the years to the next Jubilee. He must decide the price for the land. Then that land will belong to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>At the year of Jubilee, the land will go back to its first owner. It will go back to the family who sold the land.

<sup>25</sup>“You must use the measure as set by the Holy Place in paying these prices. It weighs two-fifths of an ounce.

Value of Animals

<sup>26</sup>“People may give cattle and sheep to the Lord. But if an animal is the first one born to its parent, it already belongs to the Lord. So people may not give these animals again. <sup>27</sup>If the animal is unclean,<sup>d</sup> the person must buy it back. The priest will decide the price of the animal. And the person must add one-fifth to that price. If he does not buy it back, the priest must sell it. He will sell it for the price he had decided.

<sup>28</sup>“There is a special kind of gift that people give to the Lord. It may be a person, animal or field from the family property. That gift cannot be bought back or sold. It is most holy to the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>“If a person is given for the purpose of being destroyed, he cannot be bought back. He must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup>“One-tenth of all crops belongs to the Lord. This includes the crops from fields and the fruit from trees. That one-tenth belongs to the Lord. <sup>31</sup>A person might want to get back his tenth. If he does, he must add one-fifth to its price and buy it back.

<sup>32</sup>“The priest will take every tenth animal from a person's cattle or sheep. It will belong to the Lord. <sup>33</sup>The owner should not pick out the good animals from the bad. He should not exchange one animal for another. If he does exchange it, both animals will become holy. They cannot be bought back.’”

Wandering in the Desert

The People of Israel Are Counted

1 The Lord spoke to Moses in the Meeting Tent.<sup>a</sup> This was in the Desert of Sinai. It was on the first day of the second month. This was in the second year after the people of Israel left Egypt. The Lord said to Moses: <sup>2</sup>“Count all the people of Israel. List the name of each man with his family and family group. <sup>3</sup>You and Aaron must count all the men of Israel 20 years old or older. They will serve in the army of Israel. List them by their divisions. <sup>4</sup>One man from each tribe<sup>d</sup> will help you. He is to be the leader of his family. <sup>5</sup>These are the names of the men who will help you:

from the tribe of Reuben—Elizur son of Shedeur;

<sup>17</sup>Moses and Aaron took these men who had been picked. <sup>18</sup>And Moses and Aaron called all the people of Israel together. This was the first day of the second month. Then the people were listed by their families and family groups. All the men who were 20 years old or older were listed by name. <sup>19</sup>Moses did exactly what the Lord had commanded. Moses listed the people while they were in the Desert of Sinai.

<sup>20</sup>The tribe of Reuben was counted. Reuben was the first son born to Israel. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were each listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>21</sup>The tribe of Reuben totaled 46,500 men.

<sup>22</sup>The tribe of Simeon was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were each listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>23</sup>The tribe of Simeon totaled 59,300 men.

<sup>24</sup>The tribe of Gad was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>25</sup>The tribe of Gad totaled 45,650 men.

<sup>26</sup>The tribe of Judah was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>27</sup>The tribe of Judah totaled 74,600 men.

<sup>28</sup>The tribe of Issachar was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>29</sup>The tribe of Issachar totaled 54,400 men.

<sup>30</sup>The tribe of Zebulun was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>31</sup>The tribe of Zebulun totaled 57,400 men.

<sup>32</sup>The tribe of Ephraim was counted. (Ephraim was a son of Joseph.) All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>33</sup>The tribe of Ephraim totaled 40,500 men.

<sup>34</sup>The tribe of Manasseh was counted. (Manasseh was also a son of Joseph.) All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>35</sup>The tribe of Manasseh totaled 32,200 men.

<sup>36</sup>The tribe of Benjamin was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>37</sup>The tribe of Benjamin totaled 35,400 men.

<sup>38</sup>The tribe of Dan was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>39</sup>The tribe of Dan totaled 62,700 men.

<sup>40</sup>The tribe of Asher was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>41</sup>The tribe of Asher totaled 41,500 men.

<sup>42</sup>The tribe of Naphtali was counted. All the men 20 years old or older who were able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>43</sup>The tribe of Naphtali totaled 53,400 men.

<sup>51</sup>Any time the Holy Tent is moved, the Levites must take it down. Any time it is set up, the Levites must do it. If anyone else goes near the Holy Tent, he will be put to death. <sup>52</sup>The Israelites will make their camps in separate divisions, each man near his family flag. <sup>53</sup>But the Levites must make their camp around the Holy Tent of the Agreement. Then I will not be angry with the Israelites. The Levites will take care of the Holy Tent of the Agreement.”

The Camp Arrangement

<sup>3</sup>The camp of Judah will be on the east side, where the sun rises. They will camp by divisions there under their flag. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab. <sup>4</sup>There are 74,600 men in his division.

camp. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar. <sup>6</sup>There are 54,400 men in his division.

<sup>9</sup>There are a total of 186,400 men in the camp of Judah. They are in their divisions. They will be the first to march out of camp.

<sup>16</sup>There are a total of 151,450 men in the camp of Reuben. They are in their divisions. They will be the second group to march out of camp.

<sup>17</sup>When the Levites move the Meeting Tent, they will be in between the other camps. The tribes will move in the same order as they camp. Each person will be with his family flag.

<sup>24</sup>There are a total of 108,100 men in the camp of Ephraim. They are in their divisions. They will be the third group to march out of camp.

the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

Aaron's Family, the Priests

3 This is the family history of Aaron and Moses. This was at the time the Lord talked to Moses on Mount Sinai.

<sup>2</sup>Aaron had four sons. Nadab was the oldest. Then Aaron had Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>3</sup>Those were the names of Aaron's sons. They were appointed to serve as priests. <sup>4</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died when they sinned in the presence of the Lord. They made an offering to the Lord in the Desert of Sinai. But they used the wrong kind of fire. They had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord also said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>"I am choosing the Levites from all the Israelites. They will take the place of all the firstborn children of Israel. The Levites will be mine. <sup>13</sup>All the firstborn are mine. When you were in Egypt, I killed all the firstborn children of the Egyptians. I took all the firstborn of Israel to be mine. Firstborn animals and children are mine. I am the Lord."

These were the family groups that belonged to the Levites.

<sup>33</sup>The family groups of Mahli and Mushi belonged to Merari. They were all the Merarite family groups. <sup>34</sup>They had 6,200 males one month old or older. <sup>35</sup>The leader of the Merari families was Zuriel son of Abihail. They were to camp north of the Holy Tent. <sup>36</sup>The Merarites were responsible for the frame of the Holy Tent, the braces, the posts, the bases and all the work connected with these things. <sup>37</sup>They were also responsible for the posts in the courtyard around the Holy Tent and their bases, tent pegs and ropes.

<sup>38</sup>Moses, Aaron and his sons camped east of the Holy Tent. They were in front of the Meeting Tent. They were responsible for the Holy Place. They did this for the Israelites. Anyone else who came near the Holy Place was to be put to death.

Levites Take the Place of the Firstborn Sons

<sup>49</sup>So Moses collected the money for the people the Levites could not replace. <sup>50</sup>Moses collected the silver from the firstborn of the Israelites. He collected 35 pounds of silver, using the measure set by the Holy Place. <sup>51</sup>So Moses obeyed the Lord. He gave the silver to Aaron and his sons.

The Jobs of the Kohath Family

4 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup>"Count the Kohathites among the Levites. Count them by family groups and families. <sup>3</sup>Count the men from 30 to 50 years old. They will serve in the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>"They are responsible for the most holy things in the Meeting Tent. <sup>5</sup>When the Israelites move, Aaron and his sons must go into the Holy Tent. They are to take down the curtain. Then they must cover the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with it. <sup>6</sup>Over this they must put a covering made from fine leather. Then they must spread the solid blue cloth over it. And they must put the poles in the rings on the Ark.

cover everything with fine leather. Then they must put the poles in place.

<sup>12</sup>"They must gather everything used for serving in the Holy Place. They must wrap them in a blue cloth. Then they must cover that with fine leather. They must put these things on a frame for carrying them.

<sup>13</sup>"They must clean the ashes off the bronze altar. Then they must spread a purple cloth over it. <sup>14</sup>They must gather all the things used for serving at the altar. These are the pans for carrying the fire, meat forks, shovels and bowls. They must put them on the bronze altar. Then they must spread a covering of fine leather over it. They must put the carrying poles in the rings on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>"When the camp is ready to move, have Aaron and his sons cover all the holy things. Then the Kohathites may go in and carry away those things. This way they won't touch the holy things and die. It is the Kohathites' job to carry the things that are in the Meeting Tent.

<sup>16</sup>"Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, will be responsible for the Holy Tent. And he is responsible for everything in it: the oil for the lamp, the sweet-smelling incense,<sup>d</sup> the continual grain offering and the oil used to appoint priests and things to the Lord's service."

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>18</sup>"Don't let the Kohathites be destroyed from the Levites. <sup>19</sup>Do this for the Kohathites. Then they may go near the Most Holy Place and not die. Aaron and his sons must go in and show each Kohathite what to do. And they must show each man what to carry. <sup>20</sup>The Kohathites must not enter and look at the holy things, even for a second. If they do, they will die."

The Jobs of the Gershon Family

leather. And they must carry the curtains for the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>26</sup>They must carry the curtains of the courtyard that goes around the Holy Tent and the altar. They must carry the curtain for the entry to the courtyard and the ropes and all the things used with the curtains. They must do everything connected with these things. <sup>27</sup>Aaron and his sons are in charge of what the Gershonites do or carry. You tell them what they are responsible for carrying. <sup>28</sup>This is the work of the Gershonite family group at the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest, will direct their work.

The Jobs of the Merari Family

<sup>29</sup>Count the Merarite families and family groups. <sup>30</sup>Count the men from 30 to 50 years old. They will work at the Meeting Tent. <sup>31</sup>It is their job to carry the frame of the Meeting Tent, the crossbars, the posts and bases. <sup>32</sup>They must also carry the posts that go around the courtyard. They must carry the bases, tent pegs and ropes. And they must carry everything that is used with the poles around the courtyard. Tell each man exactly what to carry. <sup>33</sup>This is the work the Merarites will do for the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest, will direct their work."

The Levite Families

<sup>46</sup>So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites. They counted them by families and family groups. <sup>47</sup>The men from 30 to 50 were given work at the Meeting Tent.

They also carried the Tent. <sup>48</sup>The total number of these men was 8,580. <sup>49</sup>Each man was counted as the Lord had commanded Moses. Each man was given his work and told what to carry. This was as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Rules About Cleanliness

5 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Command the Israelites to send away from camp anyone with a harmful skin disease. Send away anyone who gives off body fluid. And send away anyone who has touched a dead body. <sup>3</sup>Send both men and women away from camp. Then they won't spread the disease there. I am living among you." <sup>4</sup>So Israel obeyed God's command. They sent those people outside the camp as the Lord had told Moses.

Paying for Doing Wrong

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>"Tell the Israelites: 'When a man or woman does something wrong to another person, that is really sinning against God. That person is guilty. <sup>7</sup>He must tell what he has done wrong. And he must fully pay for the wrong he has done. Then he must add one-fifth to it. And he must give it to the person he wronged. <sup>8</sup>But that person may be dead. That person may not have any close relatives to receive the payment. Then the one who did wrong owes the Lord. That person must pay the priest. The priest must sacrifice a male sheep to remove the wrong so that person will belong to God. <sup>9</sup>When an Israelite brings a holy gift, he should give it to the priest. <sup>10</sup>No one has to give these holy gifts. But if someone does give them, they belong to the priest.'"

Suspicious Husbands

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>"Tell the Israelites: 'A man's wife might be unfaithful to him. <sup>13</sup>She might have sexual relations with another man. Her sin might be kept hidden from her husband. Her husband might not know about the wrong thing she did. Perhaps no one saw it, and she wasn't caught. <sup>14</sup>But her husband might have feelings of jealousy whether she has sinned or not. <sup>15</sup>He then should take her to the priest. The husband must also take an offering for her. This offering will be two quarts of barley flour. He must not pour oil or incense on it. This is a grain offering for jealousy. It is to find out if she is guilty.

<sup>16</sup>"The priest will bring in the woman and make her stand before the Lord. <sup>17</sup>He will take some holy water in a clay jar. Then he will put some dirt from the floor of the Holy Tent into the water. <sup>18</sup>The priest will make the woman stand before the Lord. Then he will loosen her hair. And he will hand her the grain offering for jealousy. He will hold the bitter water that brings a curse on her. <sup>19</sup>The priest will tell her what the oath says will happen to her. He will ask her, "Has another man had sexual relations with you? Have you been unfaithful to your husband? If you haven't, then this water that brings a curse won't hurt you. <sup>20</sup>But what if you have been unfaithful to your husband? What if you have had sexual relations with a man besides your husband?" <sup>21</sup>The priest will tell her the curse that the oath will bring. He will say, "If you are guilty, the Lord will make the people curse you. Your stomach will get big, and you will not be able to have another baby. <sup>22</sup>This water that brings a curse will go inside you. Your stomach will get big, and you will not be able to have another baby."

"The woman must say, "I agree."

<sup>23</sup>"The priest should write these curses on a scroll. Then he should wash the words off into the water. <sup>24</sup>Then he will make the woman drink the water that brings a curse. When she does, it may make her sick. <sup>25</sup>Then the priest will take the grain offering for jealousy from her. He will present it before the Lord. Then he will bring it to the altar. <sup>26</sup>Then the priest will take a handful of the grain. This is a memorial offering. He will burn it on the altar. After that he will make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup>He will make her drink it to see if she is not pure. He will know if she has sinned against her husband. When it goes into her, her stomach may get big. And she may not be able to have another baby. Her people will turn against her. <sup>28</sup>But if the woman has not sinned, she is pure. She is not guilty. She will be able to have more babies.

<sup>29</sup>"So this is the teaching about jealousy. This is what to do when a woman is unfaithful to her husband. <sup>30</sup>It also should be done if the man gets jealous because he suspects his wife. The priest will have her stand before the Lord. Then he will do all these things. This is the teaching. <sup>31</sup>If the husband is right, the woman will suffer.' "

Rules for the Nazirites

6 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Tell the Israelites: 'A man or a woman might want to promise to belong to the Lord in a special way. This person will be called a Nazirite. <sup>3</sup>During this time, he must not drink wine or beer. He must not drink vinegar made from wine or beer. He must not even drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup>While he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine. He must not even eat the seeds or the skin.

<sup>9</sup>"If he is next to someone who dies suddenly, his hair has been made unclean. It was part of his promise. So he must shave his head seven days later to be clean. <sup>10</sup>Then on the eighth day, he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the priest. The priest will be at the entrance to the Holy Tent. <sup>11</sup>The priest will offer one as a sin offering. He will offer the other as a burnt offering. This removes sin so the man will belong to God. He had sinned because he was near a dead body. That same day he will again promise to let his hair grow for the Lord. <sup>12</sup>He must give himself to the Lord for another special time. He must bring a male lamb a year old. It will be a penalty offering. The days of the special time before don't count. This is because he became unclean during his first special time.

<sup>13</sup>"This is the teaching for a Nazirite. When the promised time is over, he must go the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>14</sup>There he will give his offerings to the Lord. He must offer a year-old male lamb as a burnt offering. It must have nothing wrong with it. He must also offer a year-old female lamb as a sin offering. There must be nothing wrong with it. And he must bring a male sheep for a fellowship offering. There must be nothing wrong with it. <sup>15</sup>He must also bring the grain offerings and drink offerings that go with them. And he must bring a basket of bread made without yeast. There must be loaves made with fine flour mixed with oil. And there must be wafers made without yeast spread with oil.

<sup>16</sup>"The priest will give these offerings to the Lord. He will make the sin offering and the burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>Then he will kill the male sheep as a fellowship offering to the Lord. Along with it, he will present the basket of bread. He will also make the grain offering and the drink offering along with it.

the Meeting Tent. There he must shave off his hair that he grew for his promise. The hair will be put in the fire that is under the sacrifice on the fellowship offering.

<sup>19</sup>"After the Nazirite cuts off his hair, the priest will give him a boiled shoulder from the male sheep. From the basket he will also give him a loaf and a wafer. Both are made without yeast. <sup>20</sup>Then the priest will present them to the Lord. This is an offering presented before the Lord. They are holy and belong to the priest. Also, he is to present the breast and the thigh from the male sheep to the Lord. They also belong to the priest. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

<sup>21</sup>"This is the teaching for the Nazirite promise. If a person makes the Nazirite promise, he must give all of these gifts to the Lord. If he promised to do more, he must keep his promise. That is also the teaching of the Nazirite promise.' "

The Priests' Blessings

May he have mercy on you.

<sup>27</sup>"So Aaron and his sons will bless the Israelites with my name. And I will bless them."

The Holy Tent

7 When Moses finished setting up the Holy Tent,<sup>a</sup> he gave it for service to the Lord. Moses poured olive oil on the Tent and on everything used in the Tent. He also poured oil on the altar and all its tools. In this way he prepared them for service to the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Then the leaders of Israel made offerings. These were the heads of the families and leaders of each tribe.<sup>d</sup> They were the men who counted the people. <sup>3</sup>They brought to the Lord 6 covered carts and 12 oxen. Each leader gave an ox. Every two leaders gave a cart. They gave these to the Holy Tent.

<sup>6</sup>So Moses accepted the carts and the oxen. He gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>He gave 2 carts and 4 oxen to the Gershonites. This is what they needed for their work. <sup>8</sup>Then Moses gave 4 carts and 8 oxen to the Merarites. This is what they needed for their work. Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest, directed the work of all of them. <sup>9</sup>Moses did not give any oxen or carts to the Kohathites. They were to carry the holy things on their shoulders. This was their job.

<sup>10</sup>The oil was poured on the altar. Then the leaders brought their offerings to it to give to the Lord's service. <sup>11</sup>The Lord had already told Moses, "Each day one leader must bring his gift. The gifts will make the altar ready for service to me."

<sup>12-83</sup>Each of the 12 leaders brought these gifts. Each leader brought 1 silver plate that weighed about 3¼ pounds. And each one brought 1 silver bowl that weighed about 1¾ pounds. These weights were set by the Holy Place measure. Each bowl and plate were filled with fine flour mixed with oil. This was for a grain offering. Each leader also brought a large gold dish that weighed about 4 ounces. It was filled with incense.<sup>d</sup>

Each leader also brought 1 young bull, 1 male sheep and 1 male lamb a year old. These were for a burnt offering. Each leader also brought 1 male goat for a sin offering. Each leader brought 2 oxen, 5 male sheep, 5 male goats and 5 male lambs a year old. All of these were sacrificed for a fellowship offering.

On the first day Nahshon son of Amminadab brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Judah.

On the second day Nethanel son of Zuar brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Issachar.

On the third day Eliab son of Helon brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Zebulun.

On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Reuben.

On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishadai brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Simeon.

On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Gad.

On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Ephraim.

On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Manasseh.

On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Benjamin.

On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Dan.

On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ocran brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Asher.

On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan brought his gifts. He was the leader of the tribe of Naphtali.

<sup>84</sup>So these were the gifts from the Israelite leaders. Moses poured oil on the altar. And they brought their gifts to give the altar for service to the Lord. They brought 12 silver plates, 12 silver bowls and 12 gold dishes. <sup>85</sup>Each silver plate weighed about 3¼ pounds. And each bowl weighed about 1¾ pounds. All the silver plates and silver bowls together weighed about 60 pounds. This weight was set by the Holy Place measure. <sup>86</sup>The 12 gold dishes filled with incense weighed 4 ounces each. Together the gold dishes weighed about 3 pounds. <sup>87</sup>The total number of animals for the burnt offering was 12 bulls, 12 male sheep and 12 male lambs a year old. There was also a grain offering. And there were 12 male goats for a sin offering. <sup>88</sup>The total number of animals for the fellowship offering was 24 bulls, 60 male sheep, 60 male goats and 60 male lambs a year old. All these offerings were for giving the altar to the service of the Lord. This was after Moses had poured oil on it.

<sup>89</sup>Moses went into the Meeting Tent to speak with the Lord. He heard the Lord speaking to him. The voice was coming from between the two gold creatures with wings. They were above the lid of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement. And the Lord spoke with him.

The Lampstand

8 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>“Speak to Aaron. Tell him, ‘Put the seven lamps where they can light the area in front of the lampstand.’”

<sup>3</sup>Aaron did this. He put the lamps so they lighted the area in front of the lampstand. He obeyed the command the Lord gave Moses. <sup>4</sup>The lampstand was made from hammered gold. It was gold from its base to the flowers. It was made exactly the way the Lord had showed Moses.

The Levites Are Given to God

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>61</sup>“Take the Levites away from the other Israelites and make them clean.” <sup>7</sup>This is what you should do to make them clean. Sprinkle the cleansing water on them. Have them shave their bodies and wash their clothes. Then they will be clean. <sup>8</sup>They must take a young bull and the grain offering that goes with it. The grain offering will be flour mixed with oil. Then take another young bull for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup>Bring the Levites to the front of the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> And gather all the Israelites around. <sup>10</sup>Bring the Levites before the Lord. Then the Israelites should put their hands on them.<sup>n</sup> <sup>11</sup>Aaron will present the Levites before the Lord. They will be like an offering presented from the Israelites. Then the Levites will be ready to do the work of the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>“The Levites will put their hands on the bulls’ heads. One bull will be a sin offering to the Lord. The other will be a burnt offering. This will remove the sins of the Levites so they will belong to God. <sup>13</sup>Make the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons. Then present the Levites as an offering to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>In this way you must set apart the Levites from the other Israelites. The Levites will be mine.

<sup>15</sup>“So make the Levites pure. And present them as an offering. Then they may come to work at the Meeting Tent. <sup>16</sup>They will be given to me from the Israelites. I have taken them for myself. They are mine instead of the firstborn<sup>d</sup> son of every Israelite woman. <sup>17</sup>Every firstborn male in Israel—man or animal—is mine. I killed all the firstborn in Egypt. So now I set them aside for myself. <sup>18</sup>I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn sons in Israel. <sup>19</sup>I have chosen the Levites from all the Israelites. And I have given them to Aaron and his sons. They will serve all the Israelites at the Meeting Tent. They will help remove the Israelites’ sins so they will belong to God. Then no disaster will strike the Israelites when they approach the Holy Place.”

<sup>n</sup>put . . . them This showed that the people had a part in giving the Levites their special work.

Levites with their work at the Meeting Tent. But he must not do the work himself. This is the way you are to give the Levites their jobs.”

The Passover Is Celebrated

9 The Lord spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai. This was in the first month of the second year after the Israelites left Egypt. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the Israelites to celebrate the Passover<sup>d</sup> at the appointed time. <sup>3</sup>That appointed time is the fourteenth day of this month. They should celebrate it at twilight. They must obey all the rules about it.”

<sup>4</sup>So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover. <sup>5</sup>And so they did. It was in the Desert of Sinai at twilight. This was on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the Lord commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup>But some of the people could not celebrate the Passover on that day. They were unclean<sup>d</sup> because of a dead body. So they went to Moses and Aaron that day. <sup>7</sup>They said to Moses, “We are unclean because of a dead body. But why should we be kept from offering gifts to the Lord at this appointed time? Why can’t we join the other Israelites?”

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>“Tell the Israelites this: ‘You or your descendants<sup>d</sup> might become unclean because of a dead body. Or, you might be away on a trip during the Passover. Still celebrate the Lord’s Passover. <sup>11</sup>But celebrate it at twilight on the fourteenth day of the second month. Eat the lamb with bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. <sup>12</sup>Don’t leave any of it until the next morning. Don’t break any of its bones. When you celebrate the Passover, follow all the rules. <sup>13</sup>Anyone who is clean and is not away on a trip must eat the Passover. If he doesn’t, he must be separated from his people. He did not give an offering to the Lord at the appointed time. He must be punished for his sin.

<sup>14</sup>“A foreigner among you may celebrate the Lord’s Passover. But he must follow all the rules. You must have the same rules for foreigners as you have for yourselves.”

The Cloud Above the Tent

ites moved. Wherever the cloud stopped, the Israelites camped. <sup>18</sup>So the Israelites moved at the Lord’s command. And they camped at his command. While the cloud stayed over the Tent, they stayed in place. <sup>19</sup>Sometimes the cloud stayed over the Tent for a long time. The Israelites obeyed the Lord and did not move. <sup>20</sup>Sometimes the cloud was over it only a few days. At the Lord’s command the people camped. And at his command they moved. <sup>21</sup>Sometimes the cloud stayed only from dusk until dawn. When the cloud lifted the next morning, the people moved. When the cloud lifted, day or night, the people moved. <sup>22</sup>The cloud might stay over the Tent for two days, a month or a year. As long as it stayed, the people would camp. But when the cloud lifted, they moved. <sup>23</sup>At the Lord’s command the people camped. And at his command they moved. They obeyed the Lord’s order that he commanded through Moses.

The Silver Trumpets

10 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Make two trumpets of hammered silver. Use them to call the people together and to march out of camp. <sup>3</sup>When both trumpets are blown, the people should gather. They should gather before you at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>4</sup>If you blow only one trumpet, the leaders should meet before you. <sup>5</sup>When you blow the trumpets once, the tribes<sup>d</sup> camping on the east should move. <sup>6</sup>When you blow them again, the tribes camping on the south should move. The sound will tell them to move. <sup>7</sup>When you want to gather the people, blow the trumpets. But don’t blow them the same way.

<sup>8</sup>“Aaron’s sons, the priests, should blow the trumpets. This is a law for you and your descendants<sup>d</sup> from now on. <sup>9</sup>You might be fighting an enemy who attacks you in your own land. Blow the trumpets. The Lord your God will remember you. He will save you from your enemies. <sup>10</sup>Also blow your trumpets at happy times. Blow them during your feasts and at New Moon<sup>d</sup> festivals. Blow them over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. They will help you remember your God. I am the Lord your God.”

The Israelites Move Camp

<sup>11</sup>The cloud lifted from the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement. This was on the twentieth day of the second month of the second year. <sup>12</sup>So the Israelites moved from the Desert of Sinai. They moved until the cloud stopped in the Desert of Paran. <sup>13</sup>This was their first time to move. They did it as the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>25</sup>The last ones were the rear guard for all the tribes. These were the divisions from the camp of Dan under their flag. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was the commander. <sup>26</sup>Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher. <sup>27</sup>Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali. <sup>28</sup>This was the order the Israelite divisions marched in when they moved.

<sup>29</sup>Hobab was the son of Reuel the Midianite. Reuel, who is also called Jethro, was Moses' father-in-law. Moses said to Hobab, "We are moving to the land God promised to give us. Come with us. We will be good to you. The Lord has promised good things to Israel."

<sup>30</sup>But Hobab answered, "No, I will not go. I will go back to my own land where I was born."

<sup>31</sup>But Moses said, "Please don't leave us. You know where we can camp in the desert. You can be our guide. <sup>32</sup>Come with us. We will share with you all the good things the Lord gives us." <sup>33</sup>So they left the mountain of the Lord. The Ark of the Lord's Agreement went in front of the people. For three days they looked for a place to camp. <sup>34</sup>The Lord's cloud was over them during the day when they left their camp.

"Rise up, Lord!

Taberah This name means "burning."

Scatter your enemies.

Make those who are against you run from you."

<sup>36</sup>And when the Ark was set down, Moses always said,

"Return, Lord, to the thousands of people of Israel."

Fire from the Lord

11 The people complained to the Lord about their troubles. When he heard them, he became angry. Fire from the Lord burned among the people. It burned the edge of the camp. <sup>2</sup>So the people cried out to Moses. He prayed to the Lord, and the fire stopped burning. <sup>3</sup>So that place was called Taberah. <sup>4</sup>The people named it that because the Lord's fire had burned among them.

70 Older Leaders Help Moses

<sup>4</sup>Some troublemakers among them wanted better food. Soon all the Israelites began complaining. They said, "We want meat! <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish we ate for free in Egypt. We also had cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic. <sup>6</sup>But now we have lost our appetite. We never see anything but this manna!"

<sup>7</sup>The manna was like small white seeds. <sup>8</sup>The people would go to gather it. Then they ground it in handmills. Or they crushed it between stones. They cooked it in a pot or made cakes with it. It tasted like bread baked with olive oil. <sup>9</sup>When the dew fell on the camp each night, so did the manna.

<sup>10</sup>Moses heard every family crying. They stood in the entrances of their tents. The Lord became very angry. And Moses got upset. <sup>11</sup>He asked the Lord, "Why have you brought me this trouble? I'm your servant. What have I done wrong? Why did you make me responsible for all these people? <sup>12</sup>I am not the father of all these people. I didn't give birth to them. Why do you make me carry them to the land you promised to our ancestors? Must I carry them in my arms as a nurse carries a baby? <sup>13</sup>Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep crying to me, 'We want meat!' <sup>14</sup>I can't take care of all these people alone. It is too much for me. <sup>15</sup>If you are going to continue doing this to me, then kill me now. If you like me, put me to death. Then I won't have any more troubles."

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Bring me 70 of Israel's older leaders. Pick men you know are leaders among the people. Bring them to the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> Have them stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>I will come down and speak with you there. I will take some of the Spirit<sup>d</sup> that is in you. And I will give it to them. They will help you care for the people. Then you will not have to care for them alone.

<sup>18</sup>"Tell the people this: 'Make yourselves holy. Tomorrow you will eat meat. The Lord heard you cry, "We want meat! We were better off in Egypt!" So now the Lord will give you meat to eat. <sup>19</sup>You will not eat it for just 1, 2, 5, 10 or even 20 days. <sup>20</sup>You will eat that meat for a whole month. You will eat it until it comes out your nose. You will hate it. This is because you have rejected the Lord. He is here with you. But you have cried to him. You said, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?"'"

<sup>23</sup>But the Lord said to Moses, "Do you think I'm weak? You will see if I can do what I say."

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out to the people. He told them what the Lord had said. Moses gathered 70 of the older leaders together. He had them stand around the Tent. <sup>25</sup>Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. The Lord took some of the Spirit Moses had. And he gave it to the 70 leaders. With the Spirit in them, they prophesied,<sup>d</sup> but just that one time.

<sup>26</sup>Two men named Eldad and Medad were also listed as leaders. But they did not go to the Tent. They stayed in the camp. The Spirit was given to them. So they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>A young man ran to Moses. He said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

<sup>28</sup>Joshua son of Nun said, "Moses, my master, stop them!" (Since he was a young boy, Joshua had been Moses' assistant.)

<sup>29</sup>But Moses answered, "Are you afraid for me? I wish all the Lord's people could prophesy. I wish the Lord would give his Spirit to all of them!" <sup>30</sup>Then Moses and the leaders of Israel went back to the camp.

The Quails Come

<sup>31</sup>The Lord sent a strong wind from the sea. It blew quail into the area all around the camp. The quail were about three feet above the ground. There were quail a day's walk in any direction. <sup>32</sup>The people went out and gathered quail. They gathered all that day, that night and the next day. Everyone gathered at least 60 bushels. Then they spread them around the camp. <sup>33</sup>But the Lord became very angry. He gave the people a terrible sickness. This came while the meat was still in their mouths. <sup>34</sup>So the people named that place Kibroth Hattaavah.<sup>n</sup> They named it that because there they buried those who wanted other food.

Miriam and Aaron Speak Against Moses' Wife

12 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses, who had married a Cushite. <sup>2</sup>They said to themselves, "Is Moses the only one the Lord speaks through? Doesn't he speak through us?" And the Lord heard this.

<sup>4</sup>So the Lord suddenly spoke to Moses, Aaron and Miriam. He said, "All three of you come to the Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> now." So they went. <sup>5</sup>The Lord came down in a pillar of cloud. He stood at the entrance to the Tent. He called to Aaron and Miriam, and they both came near. <sup>6</sup>He said, "Listen to my words:

When a prophet<sup>d</sup> is among you,
I, the Lord, will show myself to him in visions.

I will speak to him in dreams.

I trust him to lead all my people.

<sup>8</sup>I speak face to face with him.

I speak clearly, not with hidden meanings.

He has even seen the form of the Lord.

You should be afraid to speak against my servant Moses."

<sup>10</sup>The cloud lifted from the Tent. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam. She was as white as snow. She had a harmful skin disease. <sup>11</sup>Aaron said to Moses, "Please, my master, forgive us for our foolish sin. <sup>12</sup>Don't let her be like a baby who is born dead. (Sometimes a baby is born with half of its flesh eaten away.)"

<sup>14</sup>The Lord answered Moses, "If her father had spit in her face, she would have been shamed for seven days. So put her outside the camp for seven days. After that, she may come back.”<sup>15</sup>So Miriam was shut outside of the camp for seven days. And the people did not move on until she came back.

The Spies Explore Canaan

13 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Send men to explore the land of Canaan. I will give that land to the Israelites. Send one leader from each tribe.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Moses sent them to explore Canaan. He said, “Go through southern Canaan and then into the mountains. <sup>18</sup>See what the land looks like. Are the people who live there strong or weak? Are there a few or many? <sup>19</sup>What kind of land do they live in? Is it good or bad? What about the towns they live in—do they have walls, or are they open like camps? <sup>20</sup>What about the soil? Is it fertile or poor? Are there trees there? Try to bring back some of the fruit from that land.” (It was the season for the first grapes.)

elites cut off the bunch of grapes there. <sup>25</sup>After 40 days of exploring the land, the men returned to the camp.

<sup>26</sup>They came back to Moses and Aaron and all the Israelites at Kadesh. This was in the Desert of Paran. The men reported to them and showed everybody the fruit from the land. <sup>27</sup>They told Moses, “We went to the land where you sent us. It is a land where much food grows! Here is some of its fruit. <sup>28</sup>But the people who live there are strong. Their cities are walled and large. We even saw some Anakites there. <sup>29</sup>The Amalekites live in the southern area. The Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the mountains. The Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan River.”

<sup>30</sup>Then Caleb told the people near Moses to be quiet. Caleb said, “We should go up and take the land for ourselves. We can do it.”

<sup>31</sup>But the men who had gone with him said, “We can’t attack those people. They are stronger than we are.” <sup>32</sup>And those men gave the Israelites a bad report about the land they explored. They said, “The land would eat us up. All the people we saw are very tall. <sup>33</sup>We saw the Nephilim<sup>d</sup> people there. (The Anakites come from the Nephilim people.) We felt like grasshoppers. And we looked like grasshoppers to them.”

The People Complain Again

14 That night all the people in the camp began crying loudly. <sup>2</sup>All the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron. All the people said to them, “We should have died in Egypt. Or we should have died in the desert. <sup>3</sup>Why is the Lord bringing us to this land? We will be killed with swords. Our wives and children will be taken away. We would be better off going back to Egypt.” <sup>4</sup>They said to each other, “Let’s get a leader and go back to Egypt.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses and Aaron bowed facedown in front of all the Israelites gathered there. <sup>6</sup>Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were among those who had explored the land. They tore their clothes. <sup>7</sup>They said to all of the Israelites, “The land we went to explore is very good. <sup>8</sup>If the Lord is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land. He will give us that land where much food grows. <sup>9</sup>Don’t turn against the Lord! Don’t be afraid of the people in that land! We will chew them up. They have no protection, but we have the Lord. So don’t be afraid of them.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses said to the Lord, "The Egyptians will hear about it! You brought these people from there by your great power. <sup>14</sup>And the Egyptians will tell this to those who live in this land. They have already heard about you, Lord. They know that you are with your people. And they know you were seen face to face. They know your cloud stays over your people. They know you lead your people with that cloud during the day and with fire at night. <sup>15</sup>The nations have heard about your power. If you put to death your people all at once, the nations will talk. They will say, <sup>16</sup>'The Lord was not able to bring them into the land he promised them. So he killed them in the desert.'

<sup>17</sup>"So show your strength now, my Lord. Do what you said. You said: <sup>18</sup>'The Lord doesn't become angry quickly. The Lord has great love. The Lord forgives sin and law breaking. He has great mercy. But the Lord does not forget to punish guilty people. When parents sin, he will also punish their children. He will punish their grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.' <sup>19</sup>Show your great love. Forgive these people's sin. Forgive them as you have from the time they left Egypt until now."

<sup>20</sup>The Lord answered, "I have forgiven them as you asked. <sup>21</sup>But, as surely as I live, I make this promise. As surely as my glory fills the whole earth, I make this promise. <sup>22</sup>All these men saw my glory. They saw the miracles I did in Egypt and in the desert. But they disobeyed me and tested me 10 times. <sup>23</sup>So not one will see the land I promised to their ancestors. No one who angered me will see that land. <sup>24</sup>But my servant Caleb has a different spirit. He follows me completely. So I will bring him into the land he has already seen. And his children will own that land. <sup>25</sup>The Amalekites and the Canaanites are living in the valleys. So leave tomorrow and go back. Follow the desert road toward the Gulf of Aqaba."

The Lord Punishes the People

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>27</sup>"How long will these evil people complain about me? I have heard these Israelites' grumbling and complaining. <sup>28</sup>So tell them, 'This is what the Lord says. I heard what you said. As surely as I live, I will do those things to you. <sup>29</sup>You will die in this desert. Every one of you who is 20 years old or older and who was counted with the people will die. You complained against me, the Lord. <sup>30</sup>Not one of you will enter and live in the land I promised to you. Only Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun will go in. <sup>31</sup>You said that your children would be taken away. But I will bring them into the land. They will enjoy what you refused. <sup>32</sup>As for you, you will die in this desert. <sup>33</sup>Your children will be shepherds here for 40 years. They will suffer because you were not loyal. They will suffer until you lie dead in the desert. <sup>34</sup>For 40 years you will suffer for your sins. That is a year for each of the 40 days you explored the land. You will know me as your enemy.' <sup>35</sup>I, the Lord, have spoken. I will certainly do these things to all these evil people. They have come together against me. So they will all die here in this desert."

<sup>36</sup>The men Moses had sent to explore the land had returned. They had spread complaints among all the Israelites. They had given a bad report about the land. <sup>37</sup>They were responsible for the bad report. So the Lord killed them with a terrible sickness. <sup>38</sup>Only two of the men did not die. They were Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh.

<sup>39</sup>When Moses told these things to the Israelites, they were very sad. <sup>40</sup>Early the next morning they started to go toward the beginning of the mountains. They said, "We have sinned. We will go where the Lord told us."

<sup>41</sup>But Moses said, "Why are you disobeying the Lord's command? You will not win! <sup>42</sup>Don't go. The Lord is not with you. You will be beaten by your enemies. <sup>43</sup>You will run into the Amalekites and Canaanites. They will kill you with swords. You have turned away from the Lord. He will not be with you."

<sup>44</sup>But they were proud. They went toward the beginning of the mountains. But Moses and the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord did not leave the camp. <sup>45</sup>The Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in those mountains came down. And they attacked the Israelites. They beat them back all the way to Hormah.

Rules About Sacrifices

15 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to the people of Israel. Say to them, 'You will enter a land that I am giving you as a home. <sup>23</sup>There give the Lord offerings made by fire. These may be from your herds or flocks. And the smell will be pleasing to the Lord. These offerings may be burnt offerings or sacrifices for special promises. They may be offerings which are gifts to the Lord. Or they may be festival offerings. <sup>4</sup>And the one who brings his offering shall also give the Lord a grain offering. It should be two quarts of fine flour mixed with one quart of olive oil. <sup>5</sup>Each time you offer a lamb as a burnt offering or sacrifice, also prepare a quart of wine. This is a drink offering.

<sup>6</sup>“If you are giving a male sheep, also prepare a grain offering. It should be four quarts of fine flour mixed with one and one-fourth quarts of olive oil. <sup>7</sup>Also prepare one and one-fourth quarts of wine. This is a drink offering. Offer it to the Lord. Its smell is pleasing to him.

<sup>8</sup>“You might prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice. This might be for a fellowship offering or for a special promise to the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Bring a grain offering with the bull. It should be six quarts of fine flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil. <sup>10</sup>Also bring two quarts of wine as a drink offering. This offering is made by fire. And its smell will be pleasing to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Prepare each bull or male sheep, lamb or young goat this way. <sup>12</sup>Do this for every one of the animals you bring.

<sup>13</sup>“All citizens must do these things in this way. And the smell of their offerings by fire will be pleasing to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>From now on foreigners will live among you. They will make offerings by fire so the smell will be pleasing to the Lord. They must offer them the same way you do. <sup>15</sup>The law is the same for you and for foreigners. It will be a law from now on. You and the foreigners are alike before the Lord. <sup>16</sup>The teachings and rules are the same for you and for the foreigners among you.”

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>“Tell the Israelites: ‘You are going to another land. I am taking you there. <sup>19</sup>When you eat the food there, offer part of it to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Offer a loaf of bread from the first of your grain. That will be your offering from the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor. <sup>21</sup>From now on offer to the Lord the first part of your grain.

grain offering and the drink offering with it. And you must bring a male goat as a sin offering.

<sup>25</sup>“The priest will remove that sin for all the Israelites so they will belong to God. They are forgiven. They didn’t know they were sinning. For the wrong they did they brought offerings to the Lord. They brought an offering by fire and a sin offering. <sup>26</sup>All of the people of Israel and the foreigners living among them will be forgiven. No one meant to do wrong.

<sup>27</sup>“Just one person might sin without meaning to. He must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering. <sup>28</sup>The priest will remove the sin of the person who sinned without meaning to. That person will belong to the Lord again. He will be forgiven. <sup>29</sup>The same teaching is for everyone who sins without meaning to. It is the same for those born Israelites and for foreigners living among you.

<sup>30</sup>“But anyone who sins on purpose is against the Lord. That person must be separated from his people. It is the same for someone born among you or a foreigner. <sup>31</sup>That person has turned against the Lord’s word. He has not obeyed the Lord’s commands. He must surely be separated from the others. He is guilty.”

A Man Worked on the Sabbath

<sup>32</sup>This happened when the Israelites were still in the desert. They found a man gathering wood on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. <sup>33</sup>Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and all the people. <sup>34</sup>They held the man under guard. They did not know what to do with him. <sup>35</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “The man must die. All the people must kill him with stones outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup>So the people took him outside the camp. They killed him with stones as the Lord commanded Moses.

The Tassels

<sup>37</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>38</sup>“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them this: ‘Tie several pieces of thread together. And tie them to the corners of your clothes. Put a blue thread in each one of these tassels. Wear them from now on. <sup>39</sup>You will have these tassels to look at. They will remind you of the Lord’s commands. Then you will obey them. And you won’t follow what your bodies want and what your eyes wish for. <sup>40</sup>Remember to obey all my commands. Then you will be God’s holy people. <sup>41</sup>I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the Lord your God.’”

Korah, Dathan, Abiram and On

16 Korah, Dathan, Abiram and On turned against Moses. (Korah was the son of Izhar. Izhar was the son of Kohath, and Kohath was the son of Levi. Dathan and Abiram were brothers, the sons of Eliab. And On was the son of Peleth.) Dathan, Abiram and On were from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Reuben. <sup>2</sup>These 4 men gathered 250 other Israelite men and challenged Moses. They were well-known leaders chosen by the community. <sup>3</sup>They came as a group to speak to Moses and Aaron. The men said, "You have gone too far. All the people are holy. Every one of them is holy. And the Lord is with them. So why do you put yourselves above all the people?"

<sup>4</sup>When Moses heard this, he bowed facedown. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to Korah and all his followers: "Tomorrow morning the Lord will show who belongs to him. The Lord will bring the one who is holy near to him. The Lord will bring to himself the person he chooses. <sup>6</sup>So Korah, you and all your followers do this: Get some pans for burning incense.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>Tomorrow put fire and incense in them. Then take them before the Lord. He will choose the man who is holy. You Levites have gone too far."

<sup>8</sup>Moses also said to Korah, "Listen, you Levites. <sup>9</sup>The God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelites. He brought you near to himself. You do the work in the Lord's Holy Tent.<sup>d</sup> You stand before all the Israelites and serve them. Isn't that enough? <sup>10</sup>The Lord has brought you and all your fellow Levites near to himself. Now you want to be priests. <sup>11</sup>You and your followers have joined together against the Lord. Your complaint is not against Aaron."

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses called Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said, "We will not come! <sup>13</sup>You have brought us out of a land where much food grows. You brought us to the desert to kill us. And now you want to order us around. <sup>14</sup>You haven't brought us into a land where much food grows. You haven't given us any land with fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? No! We will not come!"

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses became very angry. He said to the Lord, "Don't accept their gifts. I have not taken anything from them, not even a donkey. I have not done wrong to any of them."

<sup>16</sup>Then Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers must stand before the Lord tomorrow. And Aaron will stand there with you and them. <sup>17</sup>Each of you must take your pan and put incense in it. Present these 250 pans before the Lord. You and Aaron must also present your pans." <sup>18</sup>So each man got his pan and put burning incense in it. Then they stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. <sup>19</sup>Korah gathered all his followers who were against Moses and Aaron. And they stood at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. Then the glory of the Lord appeared to everyone.

<sup>22</sup>But Moses and Aaron bowed facedown. They cried out, "God, you are the God over the spirits of all people. Please don't be angry with this whole group. Only one man has really sinned."

<sup>28</sup>Then Moses said, "Now you will know that the Lord has sent me to do all these things. It was not my idea. <sup>29</sup>If these men die a normal death—the way men usually die—then the Lord did not really send me. <sup>30</sup>But if the Lord does something new, you will know they have insulted the Lord. The earth will open and swallow them. Alive, they will go to where the dead are. And everything that belongs to them will go with them."

of Aaron, the priest, to take all the incense pans out of the fire. Have him scatter the coals. But the incense pans are still holy. <sup>38</sup>These men sinned and lost their lives. Take their pans and hammer them into flat sheets. Cover the altar with them. They are holy because they were presented to the Lord. It will be a sign to the Israelites."

<sup>39</sup>So Eleazar the priest gathered all the bronze pans. These were the pans brought by the men who were burned up. Eleazar had the pans hammered into flat sheets to put on the altar. <sup>40</sup>This is what the Lord had commanded him through Moses. These sheets were to remind the Israelites that only descendants<sup>d</sup> of Aaron should burn incense before the Lord. Anyone else would die like Korah and his followers.

Aaron Saves the People

<sup>41</sup>The next day all the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron. They said, "You have killed the Lord's people."

<sup>44</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>45</sup>"Move away from these people. In a minute I am going to destroy them." So Moses and Aaron bowed facedown.

<sup>46</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "Get your pan. Put fire from the altar and incense<sup>d</sup> in it. Hurry to the people and remove their sin. The Lord is angry with them. The sickness has already started." <sup>47</sup>So Aaron did as Moses said. He ran to the middle of all the people. The sickness had already started among them. So Aaron offered the incense to remove their sin. <sup>48</sup>He stood between the living and the dead. And the sickness stopped there. <sup>49</sup>But 14,700 people died from that sickness. There were also those who died because of Korah. <sup>50</sup>Then Aaron went back to Moses at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. The terrible sickness had been stopped.

Aaron's Walking Stick Buds

17 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to the people of Israel. Get 12 walking sticks from them. Get 1 from the leader of each tribe.<sup>d</sup> Write the name of each man on his stick. <sup>3</sup>On the stick from Levi, write Aaron's name. There must be 1 stick for the head of each tribe. <sup>4</sup>Put them in the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> Place them in front of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement, where I meet with you. <sup>51</sup>I will choose one man. His stick will begin to grow leaves. And I will stop the Israelites from always complaining against you."

<sup>6</sup>So Moses spoke to the Israelites. Each of the 12 leaders gave him a walking stick. And Aaron's walking stick was among them. <sup>7</sup>Moses put them before the Lord in the Tent of the Agreement.

<sup>8</sup>The next day Moses entered the Tent. He saw that Aaron's stick had grown leaves. (It stood for the family of Levi.) It had even budded, blossomed and produced almonds. <sup>9</sup>So Moses brought out to the Israelites all the walking sticks from the Lord's presence. They all looked, and each man took back his stick.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Put Aaron's walking stick back. Put it in front of the Ark of the Agreement. It will be a sign to these people who are always turning against me. This will stop their complaining against me. Now they won't die." <sup>11</sup>So Moses obeyed what the Lord commanded him.

<sup>12</sup>The people of Israel said to Moses, "We are going to die! We are lost. We are all lost! <sup>13</sup>Anyone who even comes near the Holy Tent of the Lord will die. Will we all die?"

The Work of the Priests and Levites

18 The Lord said to Aaron, "You, your sons and your family are now responsible for any wrongs done against the Holy Place. You and your sons are responsible for any wrongs done against the priests. <sup>2</sup>Bring with you your fellow Levites from your tribe.<sup>d</sup> They will help you and your sons serve in the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement. <sup>3</sup>They are under your control. They will do all the work that needs to be done in the Tent. But they must not go near the things in the Holy Place or near the altar. If they do, both you and they will die. <sup>4</sup>They will join you. They will take care of the Meeting Tent. They must do the work at the Tent. No one else may come near you.

<sup>5</sup>"You must take care of the Holy Place and the altar. Then I won't become angry with the Israelites again. <sup>6</sup>I myself chose your fellow Levites from among the Israelites. They are a gift given for you to the Lord. Their work is at the Meeting Tent. <sup>7</sup>But only you and your sons may serve as priests. Only you may serve at the altar or go behind the curtain. I am giving you this gift of serving as a priest. Anyone else who comes near the Holy Place will be put to death."

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Aaron, "I myself make you responsible for the offerings given to me. All the holy offerings that the Israelites give to me, I give to you. They are for you and your sons as your share. They will be your continual portion. <sup>9</sup>Your share of the holy offerings is that part which is not burned. The people will bring me gifts as most holy offerings. These are grain or sin or penalty offerings. These will be set apart for you and your sons. <sup>10</sup>You must eat it in a most holy place. Any male may eat it. But you must respect it as holy.

<sup>12</sup>“And I give you all the best olive oil and all the best new wine and grain. This is what the Israelites give to me, the Lord. These are the first things they harvest. <sup>13</sup>They bring to the Lord all the first things they harvest. They will be yours. Anyone in your family who is clean may eat these things.

<sup>14</sup>“Everything in Israel that is given to the Lord is yours. <sup>15</sup>The first one born to any family will be offered to the Lord. This is true for both men and animals. And that will be yours. But you must make a payment for every firstborn<sup>d</sup> son and every firstborn animal that is unclean. <sup>16</sup>When they are one month old, you must make a payment for them. The cost will be two ounces of silver as set by the Holy Place measure.

<sup>17</sup>“But you must not make a payment for the firstborn ox or sheep or goat. Those animals are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat. This is an offering made by fire. The smell is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>But the meat will be yours. Also the breast that is presented and the right thigh will be yours. <sup>19</sup>Anything the Israelites present as holy gifts I, the Lord, give to you. It goes to you, your sons and daughters. It is your continual portion. This is a lasting promise before the Lord to you and your children forever.”

<sup>20</sup>The Lord also said to Aaron, “You will not inherit any of the land. And you will not own any land among the other people. I will be yours. Out of all the Israelites, only you will inherit me.

<sup>21</sup>“The people of Israel will give a tenth of what they make. I give that tenth to the Levites. This is their payment for the work they do serving at the Meeting Tent. <sup>22</sup>But the other Israelites must never go near the Meeting Tent. If they do, they will die for their sin. <sup>23</sup>Only the Levites should work in the Meeting Tent. They are responsible for any sins against it. This is a rule from now on. The Levites will not get any land among the other Israelites. <sup>24</sup>But the Israelites will give a tenth of everything they make to me. And I will give that tenth to the Levites. That is why I said about the Levites: ‘They will not get any land among the Israelites.’”

<sup>25</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>26</sup>“Speak to the Levites. Tell them: ‘You will receive a tenth of everything the Israelites make. I give that to you. But you must give a tenth of that back to the Lord. <sup>27</sup>I will accept your offering just as much as I accept the offerings from others. They give new grain or new wine. <sup>28</sup>In this way you will present an offering to the Lord as the other Israelites do. You will receive a tenth from the Israelites. Then you will give a tenth of that to Aaron the priest as the Lord’s share. <sup>29</sup>Choose the best and holiest part from what you are given. This is the portion you must give to the Lord.’”

<sup>30</sup>“Say to the Levites: ‘When you present the best it will be accepted as much as the grain and wine from the other people. <sup>31</sup>You and your families may eat all that is left anywhere. This is your pay for your work in the Meeting Tent. <sup>32</sup>And if you always give the best part to the Lord, you will never be guilty. If you do not sin against the holy offerings of the Israelites, you will not die.’”

The Offering for Cleansing

19 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup>“These are the teachings that the Lord commanded. Tell the Israelites to get a young red cow. It must not have anything wrong with it. It must not have been worked. <sup>3</sup>Give the cow to Eleazar the priest. He will take it outside the camp and kill it. <sup>4</sup>Then Eleazar the priest must put some of the blood on his finger. He must sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Meeting Tent. <sup>5</sup>Then the whole cow must be burned while he watches. The skin, the meat, the blood and the intestines must all be burned. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest must take a cedar stick, a hyssop branch and a red string. He must throw them onto the burning cow. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest must wash himself and his clothes with water. After that, he may come back into the camp. But he will be unclean<sup>d</sup> until evening. <sup>8</sup>The man who burns the cow must wash himself and his clothes in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup>“Then someone who is clean will collect the ashes from the cow. He will put them in a clean place outside the camp. The Israelites will use these ashes in a special ceremony to cleanse away sin. <sup>10</sup>The man who collected the cow's ashes must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening. This is a lasting rule. It is for the Israelites and for the foreigners among them.

<sup>11</sup>"Whoever touches a dead body will be unclean for seven days. <sup>12</sup>He must wash himself with this water. He must do this on the third day and on the seventh day. Then he will be clean. But if he does not wash himself on the third day and the seventh day, he cannot be clean. <sup>13</sup>Whoever touches a dead body is unclean. If he stays unclean and goes to the Lord's Holy Tent, it becomes unclean. So he must be separated from Israel. If the cleansing water is not sprinkled on him, he will stay unclean.

<sup>14</sup>"This is the teaching about someone who dies in his tent. Anyone in the tent or who enters it will be unclean for seven days. <sup>15</sup>And every open jar or pot without a cover becomes unclean. <sup>16</sup>If anyone touches someone who was killed by a sword or who died a natural death, he is unclean. If he touches a human bone or a grave, he is unclean. He will be unclean for seven days.

<sup>17</sup>"So you must use the ashes from the burnt offering to make that person clean again. Pour fresh water over the ashes into a jar. <sup>18</sup>A clean person must take a hyssop branch and dip it into the water. Then he must sprinkle it over the Tent and its objects. And he must sprinkle the people who were there. He must sprinkle anyone who touched a bone or the body of someone who was killed. He must sprinkle anyone who touched a dead person or a grave. <sup>19</sup>Then someone who is clean must sprinkle this water on the unclean person. He must do this on the third day and on the seventh day. On the seventh day that person becomes clean. He must wash his clothes and take a bath. He will be clean that evening. <sup>20</sup>If anyone who is unclean does not become clean, he must be separated from the community. He was not sprinkled with the cleansing water. He stays unclean. He could make the Holy Tent unclean. <sup>21</sup>This is a lasting rule. Whoever sprinkles the cleansing water must also wash his clothes. Anyone who touches the water will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>Anyone the unclean person touches becomes unclean. And whoever touches him will be unclean until evening."

Moses Disobeys God

20 In the first month all the people of Israel arrived at the Desert of Zin. They stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried. <sup>2</sup>There was no water for the people. So they came together against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>They argued with Moses. They said, "We should have died in front of the Lord as our brothers did. <sup>4</sup>Why did you bring the Lord's people into this desert? Are we and our animals to die here? <sup>5</sup>Why did you bring us from Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain, figs or pomegranates." <sup>6</sup>And there's no water to drink!"

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron left the people. Then they went to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>7</sup>They bowed facedown. And the glory of the Lord appeared to them. <sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>9</sup>"You and your brother Aaron should gather the people. Also take your walking stick. Speak to that rock in front of them. Then water will flow from it. Give that water to the people and their animals."

<sup>9</sup>So Moses took the stick from in front of the Lord. He did as the Lord had said. <sup>10</sup>He and Aaron gathered the people in front of the rock. Then Moses said, "Now listen to me, you complainers! Do you want us to bring water out of this rock?" <sup>11</sup>Then Moses lifted his hand and hit the rock twice with his stick. Water began pouring out. And the people and their animals drank it.

<sup>12</sup>But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "You did not believe me. You did not honor me as holy before the people. So you will not lead them into the land I will give them."

Edom Will Not Let Israel Pass

<sup>14</sup>From Kadesh, Moses sent messengers to the king of Edom. He said, "Your brothers, the Israelites, say to you: You know about all the troubles we have had. <sup>15</sup>Our ancestors went down into Egypt. And we lived there for many years. The people of Egypt were cruel to our ancestors. <sup>16</sup>But we cried out to the Lord. He heard us and sent us an angel to bring us out of Egypt.

"Now we are here at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your land. <sup>17</sup>Please let us pass through your country. We will not touch any fields of grain or vineyards. We will not drink water from the wells. We will travel only along the king's road. We will not turn right or left until we have passed through your country."

not pass through here. If you try, I will come and meet you with swords."

<sup>19</sup>The Israelites answered: "We will go along the main road. If our animals drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only want to walk through. That's all."

Then the Edomites went out to meet the Israelites with a large and powerful army. <sup>21</sup>The Edomites refused to let them pass through their country. So the Israelites turned back.

Aaron Dies

<sup>22</sup>All the Israelites moved from Kadesh to Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup>It was near the border of Edom. The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>24</sup>"Aaron will die. He will not enter the land that I'm giving to the Israelites. This is because you both acted against my command at the waters of Meribah. <sup>25</sup>Take Aaron and his son Eleazar up on Mount Hor. <sup>26</sup>Take off Aaron's special clothes and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron will die there. He will join his ancestors."

<sup>27</sup>Moses obeyed the Lord's command. They climbed up Mount Hor. All the people saw them go. <sup>28</sup>Moses took off Aaron's clothes. He put them on Aaron's son Eleazar. Then Aaron died there on top of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came back down the mountain. <sup>29</sup>Then all the people learned that Aaron was dead. So everyone in Israel cried for him for 30 days.

War with the Canaanites

21 The Canaanite king of Arad lived in the southern area. He heard that the Israelites were coming on the road to Atharim. So he attacked them and captured some of them. <sup>2</sup>Then the Israelites made this promise to the Lord: "If you will help us defeat these people, we will completely destroy their cities." <sup>3</sup>The Lord listened to the Israelites. And he let them defeat the Canaanites. The Israelites completely destroyed the Canaanites and their cities. So the place was named Hormah.<sup>n</sup>

The Bronze Snake

<sup>4</sup>The Israelites left Mount Hor and went on the road toward the Gulf of Aqaba. They did this to go around the country of Edom. But the people became impatient on the way. <sup>5</sup>They grumbled at God and Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? We will die in this desert! There is no bread! There is no water! And we hate this terrible food!"

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord sent them poisonous snakes. They bit the people, and many of the Israelites died. <sup>7</sup>The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we grumbled at you and the Lord. Pray that the Lord will take away these snakes." So Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Make a bronze snake. And put it on a pole. If anyone is bitten, he should look at it. Then he will live." <sup>9</sup>So Moses made a bronze snake. And he put it on a pole. Then when a snake bit anyone, he looked at the bronze snake and lived.

The Journey to Moab

<sup>10</sup>The Israelites went and camped at Oboth. <sup>11</sup>They went from Oboth to Iye Abarim. This was in the desert east of Moab. <sup>12</sup>From there they went and camped in the Zered Valley. <sup>13</sup>From there they went and camped across the Arnon. This was in the desert just inside the Amorite country. The Arnon is the border between the Moabites and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup>That is why the Book of the Wars of the Lord says: ". . . and Waheb in Suphah, and the ravines, the Arnon, <sup>15</sup>and the slopes of the ravines that lead to the settlement of Ar.

These places are at the border of Moab."

<sup>16</sup>The Israelites went from there to Beer. A well is there where the Lord said to Moses, "Gather the people. I will give them water."

<sup>17</sup>Then the Israelites sang this song:

"Pour out water, well!

Important men made this hole.

With their scepters<sup>d</sup> and poles, they dug it."

The people went from the desert to Mattanah. <sup>19</sup>From Mattanah they went to Nahaliel and on to Bamoth. <sup>20</sup>From Bamoth they went to the valley of Moab. There the top of Mount Pisgah looks over the desert.

Israel Kills Sihon and Og

<sup>21</sup>The people of Israel sent messengers to Sihon, King of the Amorites. They said to him, <sup>22</sup>"Let us pass through your country. We will not go through any fields of grain or vineyards. We will not drink water from the wells. We will travel only along the king's road. We will stay on it until we have passed through your country."

<sup>25</sup>Israel captured all the Amorite cities and lived in them. They took Heshbon and all the towns around it. <sup>26</sup>Heshbon was the city where Sihon, the Amorite king, lived. In the past he had fought with the king of Moab. Sihon had taken all the land as far as the Arnon.

“Come to Heshbon and rebuild it.
Rebuild Sihon’s city.

<sup>28</sup>A fire began in Heshbon.
Flames came from Sihon’s city.
It destroyed Ar in Moab.

It burned the Arnon highlands.
<sup>29</sup>How terrible for you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh<sup>d</sup> are ruined.
His sons ran away.

His daughters were captured by Sihon, king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup>But we defeated those Amorites.
We ruined their towns from Heshbon to Dibon.
We destroyed them as far as Nophah, near Medeba.”

<sup>34</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Don’t be afraid of him. I will hand him, his whole army and his land over to you. Do to him what you did to Sihon, the Amorite king who lived in Heshbon.”

Balak Sends for Balaam

22 Then the people of Israel went to the plains of Moab. They camped near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

<sup>4</sup>The Moabites said to the older leaders of Midian, “This mob will take everything around us. It will be like an ox eating grass.”

Balak son of Zippor was the king of Moab at this time. <sup>5</sup>He sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor. It was near the Euphrates River in the land of Amaw. Balak said, “A nation has come out of Egypt. They cover the land. They have camped next to me. <sup>6</sup>They are too powerful for me. So come and put a curse on them. Maybe then I can defeat them and make them leave the area. I know that if you bless someone, the blessings happen. And if you put a curse on someone, it happens.”

<sup>7</sup>The leaders of Moab and Midian went with payment in their hands. They found Balaam. Then they told him what Balak had said.

<sup>8</sup>Balaam said to them, “Stay here for the night. I will tell you what the Lord tells me.” So the Moabite leaders stayed with him.

<sup>10</sup>Balaam said to God, “The king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, sent them. He sent me this message: <sup>11</sup>‘A nation has come out of Egypt. They cover the land. So come and put a curse on them. Then maybe I can fight them and force them out of my land.’”

<sup>12</sup>But God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them. Don’t put a curse on those people. I have blessed them.”

<sup>13</sup>The next morning Balaam awoke and said to Balak’s leaders, “Go back to your own country. The Lord will not let me go with you.”

<sup>15</sup>So Balak sent other leaders. He sent more leaders this time. And they were more important. <sup>16</sup>They went to Balaam and said, “Balak son of Zippor says this: Please don’t let anything stop you from coming to me. <sup>17</sup>I will pay you well. I will do what you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me.”

<sup>18</sup>But Balaam answered Balak’s servants, “King Balak could give me his palace full of silver and gold. But I cannot disobey the Lord my God in anything, great or small. <sup>19</sup>You stay here tonight as the other men did. I will find out what more the Lord tells me.”

<sup>20</sup>That night God came to Balaam. He said, “These men have come to ask you to go with them. Go. But only do what I tell you.”

Balaam’s Donkey Speaks

<sup>21</sup>Balaam got up the next morning. He put a saddle on his donkey. Then he went with the Moabite leaders. <sup>22</sup>But God became angry because Balaam went. So the angel of the Lord stood in the road to stop Balaam. Balaam was riding his donkey. And he had two servants with him. <sup>23</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the Lord standing in the road. The angel had a sword in his hand. So the donkey left the road and went into the field. Balaam hit the donkey to force her back on the road.

<sup>29</sup>Balaam answered the donkey, "You have made me look foolish! I wish I had a sword in my hand! I would kill you right now!"

<sup>30</sup>But the donkey said to Balaam, "I am your very own donkey. You have ridden me for years. Have I ever done this to you before?"

"No," Balaam said.

<sup>32</sup>The angel of the Lord asked Balaam, "Why have you hit your donkey three times? I have stood here to stop you. What you are doing is wrong. <sup>33</sup>The donkey saw me. She turned away from me three times. If she had not turned away, I would have killed you by now. But I would let her live."

<sup>34</sup>Then Balaam said to the angel of the Lord, "I have sinned. I did not know you were standing in the road to stop me. If I am wrong, I will go back."

<sup>36</sup>Balak heard that Balaam was coming. So he went out to meet him at Ar in Moab. It was beside the Arnon, at the edge of his country.

<sup>37</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "I had asked you before to come quickly. Why didn't you come to me? I am able to reward you well."

<sup>41</sup>The next morning Balak took Balaam to Bamoth Baal. From there he could see the edge of the Israelite camp.

Balaam's First Message

23 Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here. And prepare seven bulls and seven male sheep for me." <sup>2</sup>Balak did what Balaam asked. Then they offered a male sheep and a bull on each of the altars.

<sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your burnt offering. I will go. Maybe the Lord will come to me. I will tell you whatever he shows me." Then Balaam went to a higher place.

<sup>4</sup>God came to Balaam there. Balaam said to him, "I have prepared seven altars. And I have offered a bull and a male sheep on each altar."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord told Balaam what he should say. Then the Lord said, "Go back to Balak and give him this message."

<sup>6</sup>So Balaam went back to Balak. Balak and all the leaders of Moab were still standing beside his burnt offering. <sup>7</sup>Then Balaam gave them this message:

"Balak brought me here from Aram.

The king of Moab brought me from the eastern mountains.

Balak said, 'Come, put a curse on the people of Jacob for me.

Come, wish evil on the people of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup>But God has not cursed them.

So I cannot curse them.

The Lord has not wished evil on them.

So I cannot wish evil on them.

<sup>9</sup>I see them from the mountains.

I see them from the hills.

I see a people who live alone.

They think they are different from other nations.

<sup>10</sup>No one can number the people of Jacob.

No one can count a fourth of Israel.

Let me die like good men.

Let me end up like them!"

<sup>11</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you here to curse my enemies. But you have only blessed them!"

Balaam's Second Message

<sup>13</sup>Then Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place. There you can also see the people. But you can only see part of them, not all of them. Curse them for me from there.”<sup>14</sup> So Balak took Balaam to the field of Zophim. This was on top of Mount Pisgah. There Balak built seven altars. And he offered a bull and a male sheep on each altar.

<sup>15</sup>So Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here by your burnt offering. I will meet with God over there.”

<sup>16</sup>So the Lord came to Balaam. He told Balaam what to say. Then he said, “Go back to Balak and say such and such.”

<sup>17</sup>So Balaam went to Balak. Balak and the leaders of Moab were standing beside his burnt offering. Balak asked him, “What did the Lord say?”

“Stand up, Balak, and listen.

Hear me, son of Zippor.

<sup>19</sup>God is not a man. He will not lie.

God is not a human being. He does not change his mind.

What he says he will do, he does.

What he promises, he keeps.

<sup>20</sup>He told me to bless them.

So I cannot change the blessing.

<sup>21</sup>He has found no wrong in the people of Jacob.

He saw no fault in Israel.

The Lord their God is with them.

They praise their King.

<sup>22</sup>God brought them out of Egypt.

They are as strong as a wild ox.

No magic works against Israel.

People now say this about them,

‘Look what God has done!’

<sup>24</sup>The people are strong like a lioness.

They get up like a lion.

Lions don’t rest until they have eaten.

They drink their enemies’ blood.”

Balaam’s Third Message

<sup>27</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come, I will take you to another place. Maybe God will be pleased. He may let you curse them from there.”<sup>28</sup> So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor. This mountain looks over the desert.

<sup>29</sup>Balaam told Balak, “Build me seven altars here. Then prepare for me seven bulls and seven male sheep.”<sup>30</sup> Balak did what Balaam asked. He offered a bull and a male sheep on each altar.

24 Balaam saw that the Lord wanted to bless Israel. So Balaam did not try to use any magic. He looked toward the desert.

This is the message of a man who sees clearly.

<sup>4</sup>This is the message of a man who heard the words of God.

I see a vision from the All-Powerful One.

My eyes are open as I fall before him.

So are your homes, Israel!

They are like gardens beside a river.

They are like spices planted by the Lord.

They are like cedar trees growing by the water.

Their crops will have plenty of water.

Their king will be greater than Agag.

Their kingdom will be very great.

<sup>8</sup>God brought them out of Egypt.

They are as strong as a wild ox.

They will defeat their enemies.

They will break their enemies’ bones.

They will shoot them with arrows.

No one would wake a sleeping lion.

Anyone who blesses you will be blessed.

And anyone who curses you will be cursed.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Balak was angry with Balaam. Balak pounded his fist. He said to Balaam, “I called you here to curse my enemies. But you have blessed them three times. <sup>11</sup>Now go home! I said I would pay you well. But the Lord has made you lose your reward.”

<sup>12</sup>Balaam said to Balak, “You sent messengers to me. I told them, <sup>13</sup>Balak could give me his palace filled with silver and gold. But I still cannot go against the Lord’s commands. I could not do anything, good or bad, on my own. I must say what the Lord says.’ <sup>14</sup>Now I am going back to my own people. But I will tell you what these people will do to your people in the future.”

Balaam’s Final Message

<sup>15</sup>Then Balaam gave this message:

“This is the message of Balaam son of Beor.

This is the message of a man who sees clearly.

<sup>16</sup>This is the message of a man who hears the words of God.

I know the Most High God.

I see a vision from the All-Powerful One.

My eyes are open as I fall before him.

<sup>17</sup>I see someone who will come some day.

I see someone who will come, but not soon.

A star will come from Jacob.

A ruler will rise from Israel.

He will crush the heads of the Moabites.

He will smash the skulls of the sons of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup>Edom will be conquered.

His enemy Edom will be conquered.

But Israel will grow wealthy.

The Israelites will destroy those left in the city."

"Amalek was the most important nation.

But Amalek will be destroyed at last."

"Your home is safe.

It is like a nest on a cliff.

<sup>22</sup>But you Kenites will be burned up.

Assyria will keep you captive."

<sup>23</sup>Then Balaam gave this message:

"No one can live when God does this.

They will defeat Assyria and Eber.

But they will also be destroyed."

<sup>25</sup>Then Balaam got up and returned home. Balak also went on his way.

Israel Worships Baal at Peor

25 The people of Israel were still camped at Acacia. The men began sinning sexually with Moabite women. <sup>2</sup>The women invited them to their sacrifices to their false gods. The Israelites ate food there and worshiped these gods. <sup>3</sup>So the Israelites began to worship Baal<sup>d</sup> of Peor. And the Lord was very angry with them.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Get all the leaders of the people. Then kill them in open daylight in the presence of the Lord. Then the Lord will not be angry with the people of Israel."

you must put to death your men who have become worshipers of Baal of Peor."

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>11</sup>"Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has saved the Israelites from my anger. He is like I am in his concern for the people. He tried to save my honor among them. So I will not kill them. <sup>12</sup>So tell Phinehas that I am making my peace agreement with him. <sup>13</sup>He and all his descendants<sup>d</sup> will have an agreement. They will always be priests. This is because he had great concern for the honor of his God. He removed the sins of the Israelites so they would belong to God."

<sup>14</sup>The Israelite man who was killed with the Midianite woman was named Zimri son of Salu. He was the leader of a family in the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Simeon. <sup>15</sup>And the name of the Midianite woman who was put to death was Cozbi daughter of Zur. Zur was the chief of a Midianite family.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>"The Midianites are your enemies. You should kill them. <sup>18</sup>They have already made you their enemies. They tricked you at Peor. Then there was Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader. She was the woman who was killed when the sickness came. It came because the people were worshipping the false god at Peor."

The People Are Counted

26 After the great sickness, the Lord spoke to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Count all the people of Israel by families. Count all the men who are 20 years old or older. They will serve in the army of Israel." <sup>3</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to the people. They were on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River, across from Jericho. They said, <sup>4</sup>"Count the men 20 years old or older. This is what the Lord commanded Moses."

Here are the Israelites who came out of Egypt:

came the Hanochite family group. From Pallu came the Palluite family group. <sup>6</sup>From Hezron came the Hezronite family group. From Carmi came the Carmite family group. <sup>7</sup>These were the family groups of Reuben. The total number of men was 43,730.

<sup>8</sup>The son of Pallu was Eliab. <sup>9</sup>Eliab's sons were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram were the leaders who turned against Moses and Aaron. They followed Korah when he turned against the Lord. <sup>10</sup>The earth opened up and swallowed them and Korah. They died when the fire burned up the 250 men. This was a warning. <sup>11</sup>But the children of Korah did not die.

<sup>29</sup>These were the family groups of Manasseh. From Makir came the Makirite family group. (Makir was the father of Gilead.) From Gilead came the Gileadite family group. <sup>30</sup>These were the family groups that came from Gilead. From Iezer came the Iezerite family group. From Helek came the Helekite family group. <sup>31</sup>From Asriel came the Asrielite family group. From Shechem came the Shechemite family group. <sup>32</sup>From Shemida came the Shemidaite family group. From Hephher came the Hephherite family group. <sup>33</sup>(Zelophehad son of Hephher had no sons. He had only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.) <sup>34</sup>These were the family groups of Manasseh. The total number of men was 52,700.

<sup>42</sup>This was the family group in the tribe of Dan. From Shuham came the Shuhamite family group. That was the family of Dan. <sup>43</sup>The total number of men in the Shuhamite family group of Dan was 64,400.

<sup>44</sup>These were the family groups in the tribe of Asher. From Imnah came the Imnite family group. From Ishvi came the Ishvite family group. From Beriiah came the Beriite family group. <sup>45</sup>These were the family groups that came from Beriiah. From Heber came the Heberite family group. From Malkiel came the Malkielite family group. <sup>46</sup>(Asher also had a daughter named Serah.) <sup>47</sup>These were the family groups of Asher. The total number of men was 53,400.

of Naphtali. From Jahzeel came the Jahzeelite family group. From Guni came the Gunitite family group.<sup>49</sup>From Jezer came the Jezerite family group. From Shillem came the Shillemite family group.<sup>50</sup>These were the family groups of Naphtali. The total number of men was 45,400.

<sup>62</sup>The total number of male Levites one month old or older was 23,000. But these men were not counted with the other Israelites. They did not receive any of the land that the Lord gave the other Israelites.

Zelophehad's Daughters

27 Zelophehad was the son of Hopher. Hopher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir. Makir was the son of Manasseh. Zelophehad's daughters belonged to the family groups of Manasseh son of Joseph. The daughters' names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.<sup>2</sup>They went to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.<sup>4</sup> There they stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders and all the people. They said,<sup>3</sup>"Our father died in the desert. He was not one of Korah's followers who came against the Lord. Our father died because of his own sin. But he had no sons.<sup>4</sup>Our father's name will die out because he had no sons. Give us property among our father's relatives."

<sup>8</sup>"Tell the Israelites, 'If a man dies and has no son, then everything he owned should go to his daughter.<sup>9</sup>If he has no daughter, then everything he owned should go to his brothers.<sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, then everything he owned should go to his father's brothers.<sup>11</sup>If his father had no brothers, then everything he owned should go to the nearest relative in his family group. This should be a rule among the people of Israel as the Lord has given this command to Moses.'"

Joshua Is the New Leader

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Climb this mountain in the Abarim Mountains. Look at the land I have given to the Israelites.<sup>13</sup>After you have seen it, you will die as your brother Aaron did.<sup>14</sup>You both acted against my command in the Desert of Zin. You did not honor me as holy before the people at the waters of Meribah." (This was at Meribah in Kadesh in the Desert of Zin.)

<sup>15</sup>Moses said to the Lord,<sup>16</sup>"The Lord is the God of the spirits of all people. May he choose a good leader for these people.<sup>17</sup>He must go in and out before them. He must lead them out like sheep and bring them in. The Lord's people must not be like sheep without a shepherd."

had Joshua stand before Eleazar the priest and all the people. <sup>23</sup>Then Moses put his hands on him and gave him orders. This was just as the Lord had told him.

Daily Offerings

28 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Give this command to the Israelites. Tell them: ‘Bring me food offerings made by fire. The smell is pleasing to me. Be sure to bring them at the right time.’ <sup>3</sup>Say to them: ‘These are the offerings you must bring to the Lord. Bring two year-old lambs as a burnt offering each day. They must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>4</sup>Offer one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at twilight. <sup>5</sup>Also bring a grain offering of two quarts of fine flour. It must be mixed with one quart of oil from pressed olives. <sup>6</sup>This is the daily burnt offering which began at Mount Sinai. The smell is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>Offer one quart of wine with each lamb as a drink offering. Pour it out to the Lord at the Holy Place. <sup>8</sup>Offer the second lamb at twilight. As in the morning, also give a grain offering and a drink offering. This offering is made by fire. Its smell is pleasing to the Lord.

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9</sup>“On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day you must give two year-old lambs. They must have nothing wrong with them. Also give a drink offering and a grain offering. The grain offering must be four quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. <sup>10</sup>This is the burnt offering for the Sabbath. It is in addition to the daily burnt offering and drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup>“On the first day of each month bring a burnt offering to the Lord. This will be two young bulls, one male sheep and seven male lambs a year old. They all must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>12</sup>Give a grain offering with each bull. It must be six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. Also give a grain offering with the male sheep. It must be four quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. <sup>13</sup>Also give a grain offering with each lamb. It must be two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. This is a burnt offering. And its smell is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>The drink offering with each bull will be two quarts of wine. With the male sheep it will be one and one-half quarts. And with each lamb it will be one quart of wine. This is the burnt offering that must be offered each month of the year. <sup>15</sup>Besides the daily burnt offerings and drink offerings, bring a sin offering to the Lord. It must be one male goat.

Passover

<sup>16</sup>“The Lord’s Passover<sup>d</sup> will be on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>17</sup>The Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread begins on the fifteenth day of that month. It lasts for seven days. You may eat only bread made without yeast. <sup>18</sup>Have a holy meeting on the first day of the festival. Don’t work that day. <sup>19</sup>Bring these burnt offerings to the Lord: two young bulls, one male sheep and seven male lambs a year old. They all must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>20</sup>Also give a grain offering with each bull. It must be six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil. Give a grain offering with the male sheep. It must be four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. <sup>21</sup>Give a grain offering with each of the seven lambs. It must be two quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. <sup>22</sup>Bring one goat as a sin offering. It will remove your sins so you will belong to God. <sup>23</sup>Bring these offerings in addition to the burnt offerings you give every morning. <sup>24</sup>So bring food offerings each day for seven days. The offering is made by fire. And its smell is pleasing to the Lord. Do it in addition to the daily burnt offering and its drink offering. <sup>25</sup>On the seventh day have a holy meeting. Don’t work that day.

Feast of Weeks

Feast of Trumpets

29 “Have a holy meeting on the first day of the seventh month. Don’t work on that day. That is the day you blow the trumpets. <sup>2</sup>Bring these burnt offerings to the Lord: one young bull, one male sheep and seven male year-old lambs. They all must have nothing wrong with them. Their smell will be pleasing to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Give a grain offering with the bull. It must be six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. With the male sheep offer four quarts. <sup>4</sup>And with each of the seven lambs offer two quarts. <sup>5</sup>Offer one male goat for a sin offering. It will remove your sins so you will belong to God. <sup>6</sup>These offerings are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings. Their grain offerings and drink offerings must be done as you have been told. These offerings are made by fire to the Lord. And their smell is pleasing to him.

The Day of Cleansing

<sup>7</sup>“Have a holy meeting on the tenth day of the seventh month. On that day do not eat and do not work. <sup>8</sup>Bring these burnt offerings to the Lord: one young bull, one male sheep and seven male lambs a year old. They all must have nothing wrong with them. The smell will be pleasing to the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Give a grain offering with the bull. It must be six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. With the male sheep it must be four quarts. <sup>10</sup>And with each of the seven lambs it must be two quarts. <sup>11</sup>Offer one male goat as a sin offering. This will be in addition to the sin offering which removes your sins. It will also be in addition to the daily burnt offering with its grain offering and the drink offerings.

Feast of Tents

<sup>12</sup>“Have a holy meeting on the fifteenth day of the seventh month. Do not work on that day. Celebrate a festival to the Lord for seven days. <sup>13</sup>Give these burnt offerings to the Lord: 13 young bulls, 2 male sheep and 14 male lambs a year old. They all must have nothing wrong with them. The smell is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>Also offer a grain offering with each of the 13 bulls. It must be six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil. With each of the 2 male sheep it must be four quarts. <sup>15</sup>And with each of the 14 lambs it must be two quarts. <sup>16</sup>Offer 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>21</sup>Bring the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, sheep and lambs. <sup>22</sup>Offer 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>32</sup>“On the seventh day offer 7 bulls, 2 male sheep and 14 male lambs a year old. They all must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>33</sup>Bring the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, sheep and lambs. <sup>34</sup>Offer 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

30 Moses spoke with the leaders of the Israelite tribes.<sup>a</sup> He told them these commands from the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>A person might make a promise to the Lord. He might promise to do something special. If he does, he must keep his promise. He must do what he said. <sup>3</sup>A young woman still living at home might make a promise to the Lord. She might pledge to do something special. <sup>4</sup>Her father might hear about the promise or pledge and say nothing. Then she must do what she promised. She must keep her pledge. <sup>5</sup>But when her father hears about the promise or pledge, he might not allow it. Then the promise or pledge does not have to be kept. Her father would not allow them. So the Lord will free her from her promise.

<sup>10</sup>A woman might make a promise or pledge while she was married. <sup>11</sup>When her husband hears about it, he might say nothing. He might not stop her. Then she must keep her promise or pledge. <sup>12</sup>But when her husband hears about it, he might cancel it. Then she does not have to do what she said. Her husband has canceled it. The Lord will free her from it. <sup>13</sup>A woman's husband may make her keep or cancel any promise or pledge she has made. <sup>14</sup>But her husband might say nothing to her about it for several days. Then she must keep her promises. If he hears about them and says nothing, she must keep her promises. <sup>15</sup>But he might cancel them long after he heard about them. Then he is responsible if she breaks her promise."

<sup>16</sup>These are commands that the Lord gave to Moses. They are for husbands and wives. And they are for fathers with daughters living at home.

Israel Attacks the Midianites

31 The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Pay back the Midianites for what they did to the Israelites. After that you will die."

<sup>3</sup>So Moses said to the people, "Get some men ready for war. The Lord will use them to pay back the Midianites. <sup>4</sup>Send to war 1,000 men from each of the tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel." <sup>5</sup>So 12,000 men got ready for war. There were 1,000 men from each tribe. <sup>6</sup>Moses sent those 1,000 men from each tribe to war. Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest was with them. He took with him the holy things and the trumpets. <sup>7</sup>They fought the Midianites as the Lord had commanded Moses. And they killed every Midianite man. <sup>8</sup>Among those they killed were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba. They were the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with a sword.

<sup>13</sup>Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the people went outside the camp to meet them. <sup>14</sup>Moses was angry with the army officers who returned from war. He was angry with those commanders over 1,000 men and those over 100 men.

<sup>15</sup>He asked them, "Why did you let the women live? <sup>16</sup>They were the ones who followed Balaam's advice. They turned the Israelites from the Lord at Peor. Then a terrible sickness struck the Lord's people. <sup>17</sup>Kill all the Midianite boys. Kill all the Midianite women who have had sexual relations. <sup>18</sup>But save the girls for yourselves who have not had sexual relations with a man.

<sup>19</sup>"All you men who killed anyone or touched a dead body must stay outside the camp for seven days. On the third and seventh days you and your captives must make yourselves clean.<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>You must clean all your clothes. And you must clean anything made of leather, wool or wood."

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest spoke to the soldiers who had gone to war. He said, "These are the teachings that the Lord gave to Moses. <sup>22</sup>Put any gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin or lead into the fire. <sup>23</sup>Put into the fire anything that will not burn. Then wash those things with the cleansing water. Then they will be clean. If something cannot stand the fire, wash it with the water. <sup>24</sup>On the seventh day wash your clothes. Then you will be clean. After that you may come into the camp."

Dividing the Goods

<sup>25</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>26</sup>"You, Eleazar the priest and the leaders should take a count. Count the goods, the men and the animals that were taken. <sup>27</sup>Then divide those things between the soldiers who went to war and the rest of the people. <sup>28</sup>Tax the soldiers who went to war. The Lord's share is 1 thing out of every 500 things. This includes people, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats. <sup>29</sup>Take it from the soldiers' half. And give it to Eleazar the priest. It is the Lord's share. <sup>30</sup>And from the people's half, take 1 thing out of every 50. This includes people, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats or other animals. Give that to the Levites. They take care of the Lord's Holy Tent."<sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup>So Moses and Eleazar did as the Lord commanded Moses.

taken something for himself. <sup>54</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the commanders of 1,000 men and the commanders of 100 men. Then they put it in the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> It was a memorial before the Lord for the people of Israel.

The Tribes East of the Jordan

32 The people of Reuben and Gad had many cattle. They saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were good for cattle. <sup>2</sup>So they came to Moses, Eleazar the priest and the leaders of the people. <sup>3</sup>They said, "We, your servants, have many cattle. The Lord has captured for the Israelites a land that is good for cattle. This is the land around Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon. <sup>5</sup>If it pleases you, we would like this land to be given to us. Don't make us cross the Jordan River."

<sup>6</sup>Moses told the people of Gad and Reuben, "Shall your brothers go to war while you stay behind? <sup>7</sup>You will discourage the Israelites. They will not want to go over to the land the Lord has given them. <sup>8</sup>Your ancestors did the same thing. From Kadesh Barnea I sent them to look at the land. <sup>9</sup>They went as far as the Valley of Eschol. They saw the land. And they discouraged the Israelites from going into the land the Lord had given them. <sup>10</sup>The Lord became very angry that day. He made this promise: <sup>11</sup>None of the people who came from Egypt and who are 20 years old or older will see this land. I promised it to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. But these people have not followed me completely. <sup>12</sup>Only Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun followed the Lord completely."

<sup>13</sup>"The Lord was very angry with Israel. So he made them wander in the desert for 40 years. Finally all the people who had sinned against him had died. <sup>14</sup>And now you are acting just like your fathers! You sinful people are making the Lord even more angry with Israel. <sup>15</sup>If you quit following the Lord, it will add to their stay in the desert. So you will destroy all these people."

<sup>16</sup>But the Reubenites and Gadites came up to Moses. They said, "We will build pens for our animals. And we will build cities for our wives and children here. <sup>17</sup>Then our families will be in strong, walled cities. They will be safe from the people who live in this land. Then we will prepare for war. We will help the other Israelites get their land. <sup>18</sup>We will not return home until every Israelite has received his land. <sup>19</sup>We won't take any of the land west of the Jordan River. Our part of the land is east of the Jordan."

<sup>20</sup>So Moses told them, "You must do these things. You must go before the Lord into battle. <sup>21</sup>You must cross the Jordan River armed. The Lord will force out the enemy. <sup>22</sup>After the Lord helps us take the land, you may return home. You will have done your duty to the Lord and Israel. Then you may have this land as your own.

<sup>23</sup>"But if you don't do these things, you will be sinning against the Lord. And know for sure that you will be punished for your sin. <sup>24</sup>Build cities for your wives and children and pens for your animals. But then you must do what you promised."

<sup>25</sup>The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, "We are your servants. We will do what you, our master, command. <sup>26</sup>Our wives, children and all our cattle will stay in the cities of Gilead. <sup>27</sup>But we, your servants, will prepare for battle. We will go over and fight for the Lord, as you have said."

<sup>28</sup>So Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest. And he gave them to Joshua son of Nun and the leaders of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>29</sup>Moses said to them, "The Gadites and Reubenites will prepare for battle. They will cross the Jordan River with you. They will go before the Lord and help you take the land. If they do that, give them the land of Gilead for their own. <sup>30</sup>But if they do not go over armed, they will not receive it. Their land will be in Canaan with you."

<sup>31</sup>The Gadites and Reubenites answered, "We are your servants. We will do as the Lord said. <sup>32</sup>We will cross over into Canaan. We will go before the Lord ready for battle. But our land will be east of the Jordan River."

<sup>33</sup>So Moses gave that land to the Gadites, Reubenites and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. (Manasseh was Joseph's son.) That land had been the kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorites. And it included the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan. It also included all the cities and the land around them.

the Amorites who were there. <sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to the family of Makir son of Manasseh. And they settled there. <sup>41</sup>Jair son of Manasseh went out and captured the small towns there. He called them the Towns of Jair. <sup>42</sup>Nobah went and captured Kenath and the small towns around it. Then he named it Nobah after himself.

Israel's Journey from Egypt

33 These are the places the Israelites went as Moses and Aaron led them out of Egypt in divisions. <sup>2</sup>At the Lord's command Moses recorded the places they went. These are the places they went.

<sup>50</sup>On the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across from Jericho, the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>51</sup>“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Cross the Jordan River and go into Canaan. <sup>52</sup>Force out the people who live there. Destroy all of their carved statues. Destroy their metal idols. Wreck all of their places of worship. <sup>53</sup>Take over the land and settle there. I have given this land to you to own. <sup>54</sup>Throw lots<sup>d</sup> to divide up the land by family groups. Give larger portions to larger family groups. Give smaller portions to smaller family groups. The land will be given as the lots decide. Each tribe<sup>d</sup> will get its own land.

<sup>55</sup>“But if you don’t force those people out of the land, they will bring you trouble. They will be like sharp hooks in your eyes. They will be like thorns in your sides. They will bring trouble to the land where you live. <sup>56</sup>I will punish you as I had planned to punish them.’”

The Borders of Canaan A

34 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Give this command to the people of Israel: ‘You will soon enter Canaan. It will be yours. These shall be the borders. <sup>3</sup>On the south you will get part of the Desert of Zin. This is near the border of Edom. On the east side your southern border will start at the south end of the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>It will cross south of Scorpion Pass. It will go through the Desert of Zin and south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon. <sup>5</sup>From Azmon it will go to the brook of Egypt. It will end at the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>7</sup>“Your northern border will begin at the Mediterranean Sea and go to Mount Hor. <sup>8</sup>From Mount Hor it will go to Lebo Hamath. Then it will go to Zedad. <sup>9</sup>Then the border will go to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your northern border.

“These are the borders around your country.’”

ceived their land. <sup>15</sup>These two and a half tribes received land east of the Jordan River. It is across from Jericho."

The Levites' Towns

35 The Lord spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab. This was across from Jericho by the Jordan River. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Command the Israelites to give the Levites cities to live in. These will be cities in the land they receive. Also give the Levites the pastureland around these cities. <sup>3</sup>Then the Levites will have cities where they may live. And they will have pastureland for their cattle, sheep and other animals. <sup>4</sup>The pastureland you give the Levites will extend 1,500 feet from the city wall. <sup>5</sup>Also measure 3,000 feet in each direction from the city wall. Measure 3,000 feet east of the city. Measure 3,000 feet south of the city. Measure 3,000 feet west of the city. And measure 3,000 feet north of the city. The city will be in the center. This will be pastureland for the Levites' cities.

Cities of Safety

<sup>6</sup>"Six of the cities you give the Levites will be cities of safety. <sup>4</sup>A person might accidentally kill someone. If he does, he may run to one of those cities for safety. You must also give <sup>42</sup> other cities to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>Give the Levites a total of 48 cities and their pastures. <sup>8</sup>The larger tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel must give more cities. The smaller tribes must give fewer cities. Each tribe must give some of its cities to the Levites. The number of cities they give will depend on the size of their land."

dan River and go into Canaan. <sup>11</sup>You must choose cities to be cities of safety. If a person accidentally kills someone, he may run to them for safety. <sup>12</sup>There he will be safe from the dead person's relative who has the duty of punishing the killer. He will not die before he is judged in court. <sup>13</sup>The six cities you give will be cities of safety. <sup>14</sup>Give three cities east of the Jordan River. And give three cities in Canaan as cities of safety. <sup>15</sup>These six cities will be places of safety for citizens of Israel. And they will be for foreigners and other people living with you. Any of these people may run to one of these cities if he accidentally kills someone.

<sup>16</sup>"If a person uses an iron weapon to kill someone, he is a murderer. He must be put to death. <sup>17</sup>A person might take a rock that could kill someone. If he kills a person with it, he is a murderer. He must be put to death. <sup>18</sup>A person might pick up a piece of wood that could kill someone. If he kills someone with it, he is a murderer. He must be put to death. <sup>19</sup>A relative of the dead person must put the murderer to death. When he finds the murderer, he must kill him. <sup>20</sup>A person might shove someone and kill him. Or he might throw something at someone and kill him. <sup>21</sup>Or he might hit someone with his hand and kill him. If he did that from hate, he is a murderer. He must be put to death. A relative of the dead person must kill the murderer when he finds him.

<sup>22</sup>"But a person might suddenly shove someone. He did not hate the person. Or he might accidentally throw something and hit someone. <sup>23</sup>Or he might drop a rock that could kill someone. It might fall on someone he did not see. And it might kill that person. He didn't plan to hurt anyone. He didn't hate the person he killed. <sup>24</sup>If that happens, the community must decide what to do. They must decide between the relative of the dead person and the killer. Here are the rules. <sup>25</sup>They must protect the killer from the dead person's relative. They must send the killer back to the city of safety that he ran to. He must stay there until the high priest dies. The high priest had the holy oil poured on him.

a murderer. And there must be witnesses. No one may be put to death with only one witness.

<sup>31</sup>“A murderer should die. Don't take money to spare his life. He must be put to death.

<sup>33</sup>“Don't let murder spoil your land. There is only one way to remove the sin of killing an innocent person. The murderer must be put to death. <sup>34</sup>I am the Lord. I live among the Israelites. I live in that land with you. So do not spoil it with murder.’”

Land for Zelophehad's Daughters

36 The leaders of Gilead's family group went to talk to Moses and the leaders of the families of Israel. (Gilead was the son of Makir. Makir was Manasseh's son, and Manasseh was Joseph's son.) <sup>2</sup>They said, “The Lord commanded you, our master, to give the land to the Israelites by throwing lots.<sup>a</sup> And the Lord commanded you to give the land of Zelophehad, our brother, to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>His daughters may marry men from other tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel. Then that land will leave our family. The people of the other tribes will get that land. So we will lose some of our land. <sup>4</sup>The time of Jubilee<sup>a</sup> will come for the Israelites. Then their land will go to other tribes. It will go to the tribes of the people they marry. So their land will be taken away from us. And that was land we received from our fathers.”

<sup>13</sup>These were the laws and commands that the Lord gave to the Israelites. He gave them through Moses. The Israelites were on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River, across from Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Moses' Last Message to Israel

Moses Talks to the Israelites

1 This is the message Moses gave the people of Israel. They were in the desert east of the Jordan River. They were in the Jordan Valley near Suph, between Paran and the towns of Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab.

<sup>3</sup>But it was now 40 years after the Israelites had left Egypt. On the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the people. He told them everything the Lord had commanded him to tell them. <sup>4</sup>This was after the Lord had defeated Sihon and Og. Sihon was king of the Amorite people and lived in Heshbon. Og was king of Bashan and lived in Ashteroth and Edrei.

<sup>5</sup>Now the Israelites were east of the Jordan River in the land of Moab. There Moses began to explain what God had commanded. Moses said:

<sup>6</sup>The Lord our God spoke to us at Mount Sinai. He said, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain. <sup>7</sup>Get ready. Go to the mountain country of the Amorites. Go to all the places around there—the Jordan Valley, the mountains, the western slopes, the southern area, the seacoast, the land of Canaan and Lebanon. Go as far as the great river, the Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>See, I have given you this land. Go in and take it for yourselves. The Lord promised it to your ancestors—Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and their descendants."<sup>d</sup>

Moses Appoints Leaders

<sup>9</sup>At that time I said, "I am not able to take care of you by myself. <sup>10</sup>The Lord your God has made you grow in number. There are as many of you as there are stars in the sky. <sup>11</sup>I pray that the Lord, the God of your ancestors, will give you a thousand times more people. That's what he promised. <sup>12</sup>But I cannot take care of your problems, your troubles and your arguments by myself. <sup>13</sup>So choose some men from each tribe.<sup>d</sup> Choose wise men who have understanding and experience. I will make them leaders over you."

of your tribes. And I made them your leaders. I appointed commanders over 1,000 people, over 100 people, over 50 people and over 10 people. I made them officers over your tribes.

<sup>16</sup>Then I told your judges, "Listen to the arguments between your people. Judge fairly between two Israelites or between an Israelite and a foreigner. <sup>17</sup>When you judge, be fair to everyone. Don't act as if one person is more important than another. Don't be afraid of anyone, because your decision comes from God. Bring the hard cases to me. I will judge them."

Spies Enter the Land

<sup>19</sup>Then, as the Lord our God commanded us, we left Mount Sinai. We went toward the mountain country of the Amorite people. We went through that large and terrible desert you saw. Then we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>Then I said to you, "You have now come to the mountain country of the Amorites. The Lord our God will give us this land. <sup>21</sup>Look, there it is! Go up. Take it. The Lord, the God of your ancestors, told you to do this. So don't be afraid. Don't worry."

<sup>22</sup>Then all of you came to me. You said, "Let's send men before us to spy out the land. They can come back and tell us the way we should go. They can tell us about the cities we will find."

Israel Refuses to Enter

<sup>26</sup>But you refused to go. You would not obey the command of the Lord your God. <sup>27</sup>You grumbled in your tents. You said, "The Lord hates us. He brought us out of Egypt just to give us to the Amorites. They will destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go now? The spies we sent have made us afraid. They said, 'The people there are bigger and taller than we are. The cities are big. They have walls up to the sky. And we saw the Anakites<sup>d</sup> there!’ ”

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to you, “Don’t be frightened. Don’t be afraid of those people. <sup>30</sup>The Lord your God will go ahead of you. He will fight for you as he did in Egypt. You saw him do it. <sup>31</sup>And in the desert you saw how the Lord your God carried you. He was like a man carrying his son. And he has brought you safely all the way to this place.”

<sup>32</sup>But you still did not trust the Lord your God. <sup>33</sup>As you moved, he went before you. He found places for you to camp. He went before you in a fire at night and in a cloud during the day. He showed you which way to go.

<sup>34</sup>When the Lord heard what you said, he was angry. He made a promise. He said, <sup>35</sup>“I promised a good land to your ancestors. But none of you evil people will see it. <sup>36</sup>Only Caleb son of Jephunneh will see it. I will give him and his descendants<sup>d</sup> the land he walked on. I will do this because he followed me completely.”

<sup>37</sup>Because of you, the Lord was also angry with me. He said to me, “You won’t enter the land either. <sup>38</sup>But your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will go there. Encourage Joshua, because he will lead Israel to take the land for their own.”

<sup>39</sup>The Lord said to us, “You said your babies would be captured. But they will go into the land. They are too young to know right from wrong. So I will give the land to them. And they will take it for their own. <sup>40</sup>But you must turn around. Follow the desert road toward the Gulf of Aqaba.”

<sup>41</sup>Then you said to me, “We have sinned against the Lord. But now we will go up and fight, as the Lord our God commanded us.” Then all of you put on weapons. You thought it would be easy to go into the mountains.

<sup>42</sup>But the Lord said to me, “Tell them not to go up there and fight. I will not be with them. Their enemies will defeat them.”

<sup>43</sup>So I told you, but you would not listen. You would not obey the Lord’s command. You were proud. So you went on up into the mountains. <sup>44</sup>The Amorites who lived there came out and fought you. They chased you like bees. They defeated you from Edom to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>So you came back and cried to the Lord. But the Lord did not hear you. He refused to listen to you. <sup>46</sup>So you stayed in Kadesh a long time.

Israel Wanders in the Desert

2 Then we turned around. And we traveled on the desert road toward the Gulf of Aqaba. That is what the Lord had told me to do. We traveled through the mountains of Edom for many days.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to me, <sup>3</sup>“You have traveled through these mountains long enough. Turn north. <sup>4</sup>Tell the people this: ‘You will soon go through the land of Edom. This land belongs to your relatives, the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Esau. They will be afraid of you. But be very careful. <sup>5</sup>Don’t go to war against them. I am not giving you any of their land—not even a foot of it. I have given the mountains of Edom to Esau as his own. <sup>6</sup>You must pay them in silver for any food you eat or water you drink.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>The Lord your God has blessed everything you have done. He has protected you while you traveled through this large desert. The Lord your God has been with you for these 40 years. You have had everything you needed.

<sup>8</sup>So we passed by our relatives, the people of Esau who lived in Edom. We turned off the Jordan Valley road. It comes from the towns of Elath and Ezion Geber. And we traveled along the desert road of Moab.

Lot’s People Get the Land of Ar

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to me, “Don’t bother the people of Moab. Don’t go to war against them. I am not giving you any of their land. I have given Ar to the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Lot.”

<sup>13</sup>And the Lord said to me, “Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.” So we crossed the valley. <sup>14</sup>It had been 38 years since we left Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley. By then, all the fighting men from that time had died. This is what the Lord had promised would happen. <sup>15</sup>The Lord had continued to destroy them until they were all gone from the camp. <sup>16</sup>Now the last of those fighting men had died.

Rephaites. Those people used to live there. But the Ammonites called them Zamzummites. <sup>21</sup>They were strong people, and there were many of them. They were very tall, like the Anakites. The Lord went before the Ammonites and destroyed the Zamzummites. The Ammonites forced them out of the land and took their place. <sup>22</sup>The Lord did the same thing for the descendants of Esau. They lived in Edom. He destroyed the Horites. The Edomites forced them out of the land and took their place. And they live there to this day. <sup>23</sup>The Caphtorite people came from Crete. They destroyed the Avvites. The Avvites lived in towns all the way to Gaza. But the Caphtorites destroyed them and took their place.)

Fighting the Amorites

<sup>24</sup>The Lord said, "Get up. Cross the Arnon Ravine. See, I am giving you the power to defeat Sihon the Amorite. He is king of Heshbon. I am giving you his land. So fight against him and begin taking his land. <sup>25</sup>Today I will begin to make all the people in the world afraid of you. They will hear reports about you. And they will shake with fear. They will be terrified of you."

<sup>26</sup>I sent messengers from the desert of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon. They offered him peace. They said, <sup>27</sup>"Let us pass through your country. We will stay on the road. We will not turn right or left. <sup>28</sup>We will pay you in silver for any food we eat or water we drink. We only want to walk through your country. <sup>29</sup>The descendants<sup>d</sup> of Esau in Edom let us go through their land. So did the Moabites in Ar. We want to cross the Jordan River into the land the Lord our God has given us." <sup>30</sup>But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass. The Lord your God had made him stubborn. The Lord wanted you to defeat Sihon. And now this has happened.

<sup>32</sup>Then Sihon and all his army came out. And they fought us at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup>But the Lord our God gave Sihon to us. We defeated him, his sons and all his army. <sup>34</sup>We captured all his cities. We completely destroyed them, the men, women and children. We left no one alive. <sup>35</sup>But we kept the cattle and valuable things from the cities for ourselves. <sup>36</sup>We defeated Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Ravine. And we defeated the town in the ravine, and even Gilead. No town was too strong for us. The Lord our God gave us all of them. <sup>37</sup>But you did not go near the land of the Ammonites. You did not go near the shores of the Jabbok River. You did not go near the towns in the mountains. This was what the Lord our God had commanded.

The Battle at Bashan

3 Then we turned and went up the road toward Bashan. Og king of Bashan and all his army came out to fight us at Edrei. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to me, "Don't be afraid of Og. I will hand him, his whole army and his land over to you. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon."

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord our God gave us Og king of Bashan and all his army. We defeated them and left no one alive. <sup>4</sup>Then we captured all of Og's cities. We captured all 60 of them. We took the whole area of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan. <sup>5</sup>All these were strong cities. They had high walls and gates with bars. And there were also many small towns with no walls. <sup>6</sup>We completely destroyed them. We destroyed them just like the cities of Sihon king of Heshbon. We killed all the men, women and children. <sup>7</sup>But we kept all the cattle and valuable things from the cities for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup>So at that time we took the land east of the Jordan River. We took it from these two Amorite kings. It went from the Arnon Ravine to Mount Hermon. <sup>9</sup>(Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonian people. The Amorites call it Senir.) <sup>10</sup>We captured all the cities on the high plain and all of Gilead. We took all of Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei. These were towns in Og's kingdom of Bashan. <sup>11</sup>(Only Og king of Bashan was left of the few Rephaites.<sup>d</sup> His bed was made of iron. It was more than 13 feet long and 6 feet wide! It is still in the Ammonite city of Rabbah.)

The Land Is Divided

<sup>12</sup>At that time we took this land to be our own. I gave the people of Reuben and Gad the land from Aroer by the Arnon Ravine. And I gave them half of the mountain country of Gilead and the cities in it. <sup>13</sup>To the eastern half-tribe<sup>d</sup> of Manasseh I gave the rest of Gilead. And I gave them all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og. (The area of Argob in Bashan was called the land of the Rephaites.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>Jair, a descendant<sup>d</sup> of Manasseh, took the whole area of Argob. It went to the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites. That land was named for Jair. So even today Bashan is called the Towns of Jair.) <sup>15</sup>I gave Gilead to Makir. <sup>16</sup>I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the land that begins at Gilead.

It goes from the Arnon Ravine to the Jabbok River. (The middle of the Arnon is the border.) The Jabbok River is the Ammonite border. <sup>17</sup>The border on the west was the Jordan River in the Jordan Valley. It goes from Lake Galilee to the Dead Sea<sup>d</sup> west of Mount Pisgah.

<sup>18</sup>At that time I gave you this command: "The Lord your God has given you this land as your own. Now your fighting men must take their weapons. And you must lead the other Israelites across the river. <sup>19</sup>Your wives, your young children and your cattle may stay here. I know you have many cattle. They may stay here in the cities I have given you. <sup>20</sup>Some day your Israelite relatives will also have a place to rest. They will receive the land the Lord your God has given them. It is on the other side of the Jordan River. After that, you may each return to the land I have given you."

<sup>21</sup>Then I gave this command to Joshua: "You have seen for yourself what the Lord your God has done to these two kings. The Lord will do the same thing to all the kingdoms where you are going. <sup>22</sup>Don't be afraid of them. The Lord your God will fight for you."

Moses Cannot Enter the Land

<sup>23</sup>Then I begged the Lord: <sup>24</sup>"Lord God, you have begun to show me, your servant, how great you are. You have great strength. No other god in heaven or earth can do the powerful things you do. There is no other god like you. <sup>25</sup>Please let me cross the Jordan River. I want to see the beautiful mountains and Lebanon."

<sup>26</sup>But the Lord was angry with me because of you. He would not listen to me. The Lord said to me, "That's enough. Don't talk to me anymore about it. <sup>27</sup>Climb to the top of Mount Pisgah. Look west, north, south and east. You can look at the land. But you will not cross the Jordan River. <sup>28</sup>Appoint Joshua. Help him be brave and strong. He will lead the people across the river. He will give them the land that they are to inherit. You can only look at it." <sup>29</sup>So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Moses Tells Israel to Obey

4 Now, Israel, listen to the laws and commands I will teach you. Obey them so you will live. Then you will go over and take the land. The Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving it to you. <sup>2</sup>Don't add to these commands. And don't leave anything out. But obey the commands of the Lord your God that I give you.

everyone among you who followed Baal<sup>d</sup> in Peor. <sup>4</sup>But you continued to follow the Lord your God. So you are still alive today.

<sup>5</sup>Look, I have taught you the laws and rules the Lord my God commanded me. Now you can obey the laws in the land you are entering. It is the land you will own. <sup>6</sup>Obey these laws carefully. This will show the other nations that you have wisdom and understanding. They will hear about these laws. And they will say, "This great nation of Israel is wise and understanding." <sup>7</sup>No other nation is as great as we are. Their gods do not come near them. But the Lord our God comes near when we pray to him. <sup>8</sup>And no other nation has such good teachings and commands. I am giving them to you today.

<sup>9</sup>But be careful! Watch out. Don't forget the things that you have seen. Don't forget them as long as you live. Teach them to your children and grandchildren. <sup>10</sup>Remember the day you stood before the Lord your God at Mount Sinai. He said to me, "Bring the people together to listen to what I say. Then they will respect me as long as they live in the land. And they will teach these things to their children." <sup>11</sup>Then you came and stood at the bottom of the mountain. It blazed with fire that reached to the sky. Black clouds made it very dark. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord spoke to you from the fire. You heard the sound of words. But you did not see him. There was only a voice. <sup>13</sup>The Lord told you about his agreement. It was the Ten Commandments. And he told you to obey them. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup>Then the Lord commanded me to teach you the laws and rules. You must obey them in the land you will own when you cross the Jordan River.

Laws About Idols

<sup>15</sup>The Lord spoke to you from the fire at Mount Sinai. But you did not see him. So watch yourselves carefully! <sup>16</sup>Don't sin by making idols of any kind. Don't make statues of men or women. <sup>17</sup>Don't make statues of animals on earth or birds that fly in the air. <sup>18</sup>Don't make statues of anything that crawls on the ground. Don't make statues of fish in the water below. <sup>19</sup>When you look up at the sky, you see the sun, moon and stars. You can see everything in the sky. But don't bow down and worship them. The Lord your God has made these things for all people everywhere. <sup>20</sup>Egypt tested you like a furnace for melting iron. The Lord brought you out of Egypt. And he made you his very own people, as you are now.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord was angry with me because of you. He made a strong promise that I would not cross the Jordan River. I could not go into the good land the Lord your God is giving you to own. <sup>22</sup>I will die here in this land. I will not cross the Jordan. But you will soon go across and take that good land. <sup>23</sup>Be careful. Don't forget the agreement of the Lord your God that he made with you. Don't make any idols for yourselves. The Lord your God has commanded you not to do that. <sup>24</sup>The Lord your God is a jealous God. He is like a fire that burns things up.

<sup>25</sup>You will live in the land a long time. You will have children and grandchildren. Even after that, don't do evil things. Don't make any kind of idol. Don't do what the Lord says is evil. That will make him angry. <sup>26</sup>I will ask heaven and earth to speak against you that day. Then you will quickly be removed from this land. You are crossing the Jordan River to take the land. But you will not live there long after that. You will be completely destroyed. <sup>27</sup>The Lord will scatter you among the other nations. Only a few of you will be left alive. And those few will be in other nations where the Lord will send you. <sup>28</sup>There you will worship gods made by men. They will be made of wood and stone. They cannot see, hear, eat or smell. <sup>29</sup>But even there you can look for the Lord your God. And you will find him if you look. But you must look for him with your whole being. <sup>30</sup>It will be hard when all these things happen to you. But after that you will come back to the Lord your God. You will obey him. <sup>31</sup>The Lord your God is a merciful God. He will not leave you or destroy you. He will not forget the agreement he made with your ancestors. He made that agreement sure with his strong promise.

The Lord Is Great

<sup>32</sup>Nothing like this has ever happened before! Look at the past, long before you were even born. Go all the way back to when God made man on the earth. Look from one end of heaven to the other. Nothing like this has ever been heard of! <sup>33</sup>No other people have ever heard God speak from a fire and still lived. But you have. <sup>34</sup>No other god has ever taken for himself one nation out of another. But the Lord your God did this for you in Egypt. He did it right before your own eyes. He did it with tests, signs, miracles,<sup>d</sup> war and great sights. He did it by his great power and strength.

<sup>35</sup>He showed you things so you would know that the Lord is God. There is no other God besides him. <sup>36</sup>He spoke to you from heaven to teach you. He showed you his great fire on earth. And you heard him speak from the fire. <sup>37</sup>The Lord loved your ancestors. That is why he chose you, their descendants.<sup>d</sup> He brought you out of Egypt himself by his great strength. <sup>38</sup>He forced nations out of their land ahead of you. And these nations were bigger and stronger than you were. But the Lord brought you into their land and gave it to you to own. And this land is yours today.

<sup>39</sup>Know and believe today that the Lord is God. He is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other god! <sup>40</sup>Obey his laws and commands, which I am giving you today. Obey them so that things will go well for you and your children. Then you will live a long time in this land. The Lord your God is giving it to you forever.

Cities of Safety

<sup>41</sup>Moses chose three cities east of the Jordan River. <sup>42</sup>A person who killed someone accidentally could go there. He did not hate the person he killed. So he could save his life by running to one of these cities. <sup>43</sup>These were the cities: Bezer in the desert high plain was for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead was for the Gadites; Golan in Bashan was for the Manassites.

The Law Moses Gave

<sup>44</sup>These are the teachings Moses gave to the people of Israel. <sup>45</sup>They are the rules, commands and laws he gave them when they came out of Egypt. <sup>46</sup>They were in the valley near Beth Peor. That is east of the Jordan River in the land of Sihon. Sihon was king of the Amorites. He ruled in Heshbon. He was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>The Israelites captured his land. They also took the land of Og king of Bashan. These were the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River. <sup>48</sup>This land went from Aroer to Mount Hermon. Aroer is on the edge of the Arnon Ravine. <sup>49</sup>It included all the Jordan Valley east of the Jordan River. And it went as far as the Dead Sea<sup>d</sup> below Mount Pisgah.

The Ten Commandments

5 Moses called all the people of Israel together and said: Listen, Israel, to the commands and laws I give you today. Learn them and obey them carefully. <sup>2</sup>The Lord our God made an agreement with us at Mount Sinai. <sup>3</sup>He did not make this agreement with our ancestors. He made it with us. He made it with all of us who are alive here today. <sup>4</sup>The Lord spoke to you face to face. He spoke from the fire on the mountain. <sup>5</sup>(At that time I stood between you and the Lord. I told you what the Lord said. You were afraid of the fire. So you would not go up on the mountain.) The Lord said:

<sup>6</sup>"I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves.

<sup>7</sup>"You must not have any other gods except me.

<sup>8</sup>"You must not make for yourselves any idols. Don't make something that looks like anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the water below the land. <sup>9</sup>You must not worship or serve any idol. This is because I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God. A person may sin against me and hate me. I will punish his children, even his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. <sup>10</sup>But I will be very kind to thousands who love me and obey my commands.

<sup>12</sup>"Keep the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> as a holy day. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. <sup>13</sup>You may work and get everything done during six days each week. <sup>14</sup>But the seventh day is a day of rest to honor the Lord your God. On that day no one may do any work: not you, your son or daughter, or your men or women slaves. Neither your ox, your donkey nor any of your animals may work. The foreigners living in your cities may not work. That way your servants may rest as you do. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. The Lord your God brought you out of Egypt by his great power and strength. So the Lord your God has commanded you to rest on the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup>"Honor your father and your mother. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. Then you will live a long time. And things will go well for you in the land. The Lord your God is going to give you this land.

<sup>21</sup>"You must not want to take your neighbor's wife. You must not want to take your neighbor's house or land. You must not want to take his men or women slaves. You must not want to take his ox or his donkey. You must not want to take anything that belongs to your neighbor."

you on the mountain. He spoke them in a loud voice out of the fire. He spoke from the cloud and the deep darkness. He did not say anything else. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets. And he gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup>You heard the voice from the darkness. The mountain was blazing with fire. Then all your older leaders and leaders of your tribes<sup>d</sup> came to me. <sup>24</sup>And you said, "The Lord our God has shown us his glory and majesty. We have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that a person can live even if God speaks to him. <sup>25</sup>But now, we will die! This great fire will burn us up. And we will die if we hear the Lord our God speak anymore. <sup>26</sup>No human being has ever heard the living God speaking from a fire and still lived. But we have. <sup>27</sup>Moses, you go near and listen to everything the Lord our God says. Then you tell us what the Lord our God tells you. We will listen and obey."

<sup>28</sup>The Lord heard what you said to me. And he said to me, "I have heard what the people said to you. Everything they said was good. <sup>29</sup>I wish their hearts would always respect me. I wish they would always obey my commands. Then things would go well for them and their children forever!

<sup>30</sup>"Go and tell the people to return to their tents. <sup>31</sup>But you stay here with me. I will give you all the commands, rules and laws. Teach the people to obey them in the land I am giving them to own."

<sup>32</sup>So be careful. Do what the Lord your God has commanded you. You must follow the commands exactly. <sup>33</sup>Live the way the Lord your God has commanded you. Then you will live and be successful. You will live a long time in the land you will own.

The Command to Love God

6 These are the commands, rules and laws of the Lord your God. He told me to teach them to you. Obey them in the land you are crossing the Jordan River to own. <sup>2</sup>You, your children and grandchildren must respect the Lord your God. You must do this as long as you live. Obey all his rules and commands I give you. Then you will live a long time. <sup>3</sup>Listen, Israel, and carefully obey these laws. Then all will go well for you. You will become a great nation in a land where much food grows. The Lord, the God of your ancestors, has promised it to you.

<sup>4</sup>Listen, people of Israel! The Lord is our God. He is the only Lord. <sup>5</sup>Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul and strength.

6Always remember these commands I give you today. 7Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and walk along the road. Talk about them when you lie down and when you get up. 8Write them down and tie them to your hands as a sign. Tie them on your forehead to remind you. 9Write them on your doors and gates.

10The Lord your God will bring you into the land. He promised it to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He will give it to you. The land has large, growing cities you did not build. 11The houses there are full of good things that you did not buy. They have wells you did not dig. There are vineyards and olive trees you did not plant. You will eat as much as you want. 12But be careful! Do not forget the Lord. He brought you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves.

13Respect the Lord your God. Serve only him. Make your promises in his name. 14Do not worship other gods as the people around you do. 15The Lord your God is a jealous God. He is present with you. If you worship other gods, he will become angry with you. And he will destroy you from the earth. 16Do not test the Lord your God as you did at Massah. 17Be sure to obey the commands of the Lord your God. Obey the rules and laws he has given you. 18Do what the Lord says is good and right. Then things will go well for you. Then you may go in and take the good land the Lord promised to your ancestors. 19He will force all your enemies out as you go in. This is what the Lord has said.

20In the future your son will ask you, "What do the laws, commands and rules the Lord our God gave us mean?" 21Tell him, "We were slaves to the king of Egypt. But the Lord brought us out of Egypt by his great power. 22The Lord showed us great and terrible signs and miracles. He did them to Egypt, the king and his whole family. 23The Lord brought us out of Egypt. He led us here. And he will give us the land he promised our ancestors. 24The Lord ordered us to obey all these commands. And we must respect the Lord our God. Then we will always do well and stay alive as we are today. 25The right thing for us to do is this: Obey all these rules in the presence of the Lord our God. He has commanded it."

You Are God's People

7 The Lord your God will bring you into the land. You are entering that land to own it. As you go in, he will force out these nations: the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. These seven nations are stronger than you. 2The Lord your God will hand these nations over to you. You will defeat them. You must destroy them completely. Do not make a peace treaty with them. Do not show them any mercy. 3Do not marry any of them. Don't let your daughters marry their sons. And don't let your sons marry their daughters. 4Those people will turn your children away from me. Your children will begin serving other gods. The Lord will be very angry with you. And he will quickly destroy you. 5This is what you must do to those people: Tear down their altars. Smash their holy stone pillars. Cut down their Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols and burn their idols in the fire. 6You are holy people. You belong to the Lord your God. He has chosen you from all the people on earth. You are his very own.

7The Lord did not care for you and choose you because there were many of you. You are the smallest nation of all. 8But the Lord chose you because he loved you. And he kept his promise to your ancestors. So he brought you out of Egypt by his great power. He brought you back from the land of slavery. He brought you back from the power of the king of Egypt. 9So know that the Lord your God is God. He is the faithful God. He will keep his agreement of love for a thousand lifetimes. He does this for people who love him and obey his commands. 10But he will pay back those people who hate him. He will destroy them. And he will not be slow to pay back those who hate him. 11So be careful to obey the commands, rules and laws I give you today.

12Pay attention to these laws. Obey them carefully. Then the Lord your God will keep his agreement and show his love to you. He promised your ancestors he would. 13He will love and bless you. He will make the number of your people grow. He will bless you with children. He will bless your fields with good crops. He will give you grain, new wine and oil. He will bless your cows with calves and your sheep with lambs. This is the way it will be in the land he promised your ancestors he would give you. 14You will be blessed more than any other people. Every husband and wife will have children. All your cattle will have calves. 15The Lord will take away all disease from you. You will not have the terrible diseases that were in Egypt. But he will give them to your enemies. 16You must destroy all the people the Lord your God hands over to you. Do not feel sorry for them. Do not worship their gods. They will trap you.

<sup>17</sup>You might say to yourselves, "These nations are stronger than we are. We can't force them out." <sup>18</sup>But don't be afraid of them. Remember what the Lord your God did to all of Egypt and its king. <sup>19</sup>You saw for yourselves the troubles, signs and miracles<sup>d</sup> he did. You saw how the Lord's great power and strength brought you out of Egypt. The Lord your God will do the same thing to all the nations you now fear. <sup>20</sup>The Lord your God will also send hornets to attack them. Even those who are alive and hiding from you will die. <sup>21</sup>Don't be afraid of them. The Lord your God is with you. He is a great God and people are afraid of him. <sup>22</sup>The Lord your God will force those nations out of the land. They will leave little by little ahead of you. Don't destroy them all at once. Otherwise, the wild animals will grow too many in number. <sup>23</sup>But the Lord your God will hand those nations over to you. He will confuse them until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup>The Lord will help you defeat their kings. The world will forget who they were. No one will be able to stop you. You will destroy them all. <sup>25</sup>Burn up their idols in the fire. Do not wish for the silver and gold on them. Don't take it for yourselves, or you will be trapped by it. The Lord your God hates it. <sup>26</sup>Do not bring one of those hated things into your house. If you do, you will be completely destroyed along with it. Hate and reject those things. They must be completely destroyed.

Remember the Lord

8 Carefully obey every command I give you today. Then you will live and grow in number. And you will enter and own the land the Lord promised your ancestors. <sup>2</sup>Remember how the Lord your God has led you in the desert for these 40 years. He took away your pride. He tested you. He wanted to know what was in your heart. He wanted to know if you would obey his commands. <sup>3</sup>He took away your pride. He let you get hungry. Then he fed you with manna.<sup>d</sup> Manna was something neither you nor your ancestors had ever seen. This was to teach you that a person does not live only by eating bread. But a person lives by everything the Lord says. <sup>4</sup>During these 40 years, your clothes did not wear out. And your feet did not swell. <sup>5</sup>Know in your heart that the Lord your God corrects you. He corrects you as a father does his son.

<sup>6</sup>Obey the commands of the Lord your God. Live as he has commanded you and respect him. <sup>7</sup>The Lord your God is bringing you into a good land. The land has rivers and pools of water. Springs flow in the valleys and hills. <sup>8</sup>The land has wheat and barley, vines, fig trees, pomegranates,<sup>d</sup> olive oil and honey. <sup>9</sup>It is a land where you will have plenty of food. You will have everything you need there. The rocks are iron. You can dig copper out of the hills.

<sup>10</sup>You will have all you want to eat. Then praise the Lord your God. He has given you a good land. <sup>11</sup>Be careful not to forget the Lord your God. Do not fail to obey his commands, laws and rules. I am giving them to you today. <sup>12</sup>You will eat all you want. You will build nice houses and live in them. <sup>13</sup>Your herds of cattle and flocks of sheep will grow large. Your silver and gold will grow. You will have more of everything. <sup>14</sup>Then your heart will become proud. You will forget the Lord your God. He brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. <sup>15</sup>He led you through the large and terrible desert. It was dry and had no water. It had poisonous snakes and stinging insects. He gave you water from a solid rock. <sup>16</sup>He gave you manna to eat in the desert. Manna was something your ancestors had never seen. He did this to take away your pride and to test you. He did it so things would go well for you in the end. <sup>17</sup>You might say to yourself, "I am rich because of my own strength and power." <sup>18</sup>But remember the Lord your God! It is he who gives you the power to become rich. He keeps the agreement he promised to your ancestors. So it is today.

<sup>19</sup>Never forget the Lord your God. Do not follow other gods. Do not worship them. Do not bow down to them. If you do, I warn you today that you will be destroyed. <sup>20</sup>The Lord destroyed the other nations for you. And you can be destroyed the same way if you do not obey the Lord your God.

The Lord Will Be with Israel

9 Listen, Israel. You will soon cross the Jordan River. You will go in to force out nations that are bigger and stronger than you. They have large cities with walls up to the sky. <sup>2</sup>The people there are Anakites.<sup>d</sup> They are strong and tall. You know about them. You have heard it said: "No one can stop the Anakites." <sup>3</sup>But today remember that the Lord your God goes in before you. He will destroy them like a fire that burns things up. He will defeat them ahead of you. And you will force them out. You will destroy them quickly. It will happen just as the Lord has said.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord your God will force those nations out ahead of you. After that, don't say to yourself, "The Lord brought me here. I own this land because I am so good." No! It is because these nations are evil. That is why the Lord will force them out ahead of you. <sup>5</sup>You are going in to own the land. But it is not because you are good and honest. It is because these nations are evil. That is why the Lord your God will force them out ahead of you. The Lord will keep his promise to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>The Lord your God is giving you this good land to own. But know this: It is not because you are good. You are a stubborn people.

Remember the Lord's Anger

<sup>7</sup>Remember this. Do not forget it. You made the Lord your God angry in the desert. You would not obey the Lord from the day you left Egypt until you arrived here. <sup>8</sup>At Mount Sinai you made the Lord angry. He was angry enough to destroy you. <sup>9</sup>I went up on the mountain to receive the stone tablets. The tablets were the agreement the Lord had made with you. I stayed on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights. I did not eat bread or drink water. <sup>10</sup>The Lord gave me two stone tablets. God had written on them with his own finger. On them were all the commands of the Lord. He gave them to you on the mountain out of the fire. This was on the day you were gathered there.

<sup>11</sup>Then the 40 days and 40 nights were over. And the Lord gave me the two stone tablets. Those tablets had the agreement on them. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord told me, "Get up. Go down quickly from here. The people you brought out from Egypt are ruining themselves. They have quickly turned away from what I commanded. They have made an idol for themselves."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord said to me, "I have watched these people. They are very stubborn! <sup>14</sup>Get away. I will destroy them. I will make the whole world forget who they are. Then I will make another nation from you. It will be bigger and stronger than they are."

<sup>15</sup>So I turned and came down the mountain. The mountain was burning with fire. And the two stone tablets with the agreement were in my hands. <sup>16</sup>When I looked, I saw you had sinned against the Lord your God. You had made an idol in the shape of a calf. You had quickly turned away from what the Lord had told you to do. <sup>17</sup>So I took the two stone tablets and threw them down. I broke them into pieces right in front of you.

<sup>18</sup>Then I again bowed facedown on the ground before the Lord. I did this for 40 day and 40 nights. I did not eat bread or drink water. You had sinned by doing what the Lord said was evil. You made him angry. <sup>19</sup>I was afraid of the Lord's anger and rage. He was angry enough with you to destroy you. But the Lord listened to me again. <sup>20</sup>And the Lord was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him. But then I prayed for Aaron, too. <sup>21</sup>I took that sinful calf idol you had made. And I burned it in the fire. I crushed it into a powder like dust. And I threw the dust into a stream that flowed down the mountain.

<sup>23</sup>Then the Lord sent you away from Kadesh Barnea. He said, "Go up and take the land I have given you." But you would not obey the command of the Lord your God. You did not trust him or obey him. <sup>24</sup>You have refused to obey the Lord as long as I have known you.

<sup>25</sup>The Lord had said he would destroy you. So I threw myself down in front of him for those 40 days and 40 nights. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the Lord. I said, "Lord God, do not destroy your people. They are your own people. You freed them and brought them out of Egypt by your great power and strength. <sup>27</sup>Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Don't look at how stubborn these people are. Don't look at their sin and evil. <sup>28</sup>Otherwise, Egypt will say, 'The Lord was not able to take his people into the land he promised them. He hated them. So he took them into the desert to kill them.' <sup>29</sup>But they are your people, Lord. They are your own people. You brought them out of Egypt with your great power and strength."

New Stone Tablets

10 At that time the Lord said to me, "Cut two stone tablets like the first ones. Then come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden Ark. <sup>2</sup>I will write on the tablets the same words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Put the new tablets in the Ark."

<sup>3</sup>So I made the Ark out of acacia wood. And I cut out two stone tablets like the first ones. Then I went up on the mountain. I had the two tablets in my hands. <sup>4</sup>The Lord wrote the same things on these tablets he had written before. He wrote the Ten Commandments. He had told them to you on the mountain from the fire. This was on the day you were gathered there. And the Lord gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>Then I turned and came down the mountain. I put the tablets in the Ark I had made. That is what the Lord had commanded. The tablets are still there in the Ark.

<sup>6</sup>(The people of Israel went from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried. Aaron's son Eleazar became priest in Aaron's place. <sup>7</sup>From Moserah they went to Gudgodah. From Gudgodah they went to Jotbathah, a place with streams of water. <sup>8</sup>At that time the Lord chose the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Levi. They were to carry the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord. They were to serve the Lord. They were to bless the people in the Lord's name. They still do this today. <sup>9</sup>That is why the Levites did not receive any land to own. Instead, they received the Lord himself as their gift. This is what the Lord your God told them.)

<sup>10</sup>I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights just like the first time. And the Lord listened to me this time also. He did not want to destroy you. <sup>11</sup>The Lord said to me, "Go. Lead the people. They will go in and take the land I promised their ancestors."

What the Lord Wants You To Do

<sup>12</sup>Now, Israel, this is what the Lord wants you to do. Respect the Lord your God. Do what he has told you to do. Love him. Serve the Lord your God with your whole being. <sup>13</sup>And obey the Lord's commands and laws. I am giving them to you today for your own good.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord owns the world and everything in it. The heavens, even the highest heavens, are his. <sup>15</sup>But the Lord cared for and loved your ancestors. And he chose you, their descendants.<sup>d</sup> He chose you over all the other nations. And it is this way today. <sup>16</sup>Give yourselves to serving the Lord. Do not be stubborn any longer. <sup>17</sup>The Lord your God is God of all gods. He is the Lord of all lords. He is the great God. He is strong and wonderful. He does not take sides. And he will not be talked into doing evil. <sup>18</sup>He helps orphans and widows. He loves foreigners. He gives them food and clothes. <sup>19</sup>You also must love foreigners, because you were foreigners in Egypt. <sup>20</sup>Respect the Lord your God and serve him. Be loyal to him. Make your promises in his name. <sup>21</sup>You should praise him. He is your God. He has done great and wonderful things for you. You have seen them with your own eyes. <sup>22</sup>There were only 70 of your ancestors when they went down to Egypt. Now the Lord your God has made you as many as the stars in the sky.

Great Things Israel Saw

11 Love the Lord your God. Obey his orders, rules, laws and commands. <sup>2</sup>Remember today it was not your children who saw and felt the correction of the Lord your God. They did not see his majesty, his power and his strength. <sup>3</sup>They did not see his signs and the things he did in Egypt to the king and his whole country. <sup>4</sup>They did not see what he did to the Egyptian army, its horses and chariots. He drowned them in the Red Sea<sup>d</sup> when they were chasing you. The Lord ruined them forever. <sup>5</sup>They did not see what he did for you in the desert until you arrived here. <sup>6</sup>They did not see what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the Reubenite. The ground opened up and swallowed them, their families and their tents. And it swallowed up everyone who stood with them in Israel. <sup>7</sup>It was you who saw all these great things the Lord has done.

<sup>8</sup>So obey all the commands I am giving you today. Then you will be strong. Then you can go in and take the land you are going to own. <sup>9</sup>Then you will live a long time in that land. The Lord promised to give it to your ancestors and their descendants.<sup>d</sup> It is a land where much food grows. <sup>10</sup>The land you are going to take is not like Egypt, where you were. There you had to plant your seed. Then you had to water it, like a vegetable garden, by using your feet. <sup>11</sup>But you will soon cross the Jordan River and take the land. It is a land of hills and valleys. It drinks rain from heaven. <sup>12</sup>It is a land the Lord your God loves. His eyes are on it continually. He watches it from the beginning of the year to the end.

<sup>13</sup>Carefully obey the commands I am giving you today. Love the Lord your God. Serve him with your whole being. <sup>14</sup>Then he will send rain on your land at the right time, in the fall and spring. You will be able to gather your grain, new wine and oil. <sup>15</sup>He will put grass in the fields for your cattle. You will have plenty to eat.

<sup>16</sup>Be careful. Don't be fooled. Don't turn away and serve other gods. Don't worship them. <sup>17</sup>If you do, the Lord will become angry with you. He will shut the heavens so it will not rain. Then the land will not grow crops. And you will soon die in the good land the Lord is giving you. <sup>18</sup>Remember my words in your hearts and souls. Write them down and tie them to your hands as a sign. Tie them on your foreheads to remind you. <sup>19</sup>Teach them well to your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and walk along the road. Talk about them when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>20</sup>Write them on your doors and gates. <sup>21</sup>Then both you and your children will live a long time in the land. This is the land the Lord promised your ancestors. You will live there for as long as the skies are above the earth.

<sup>22</sup>Be careful to obey every command I am giving you to follow. Love the Lord your God. Do what he has told you to do. And be loyal to him. <sup>23</sup>Then the Lord will force all those nations out of the land ahead of you. And you will take the land from nations that are bigger and stronger than you. <sup>24</sup>Everywhere you step will be yours. Your land will go from the desert to Lebanon. And it will go from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>25</sup>No one will be able to stop you. The Lord your God will do what he promised. He will make the people afraid everywhere you go.

<sup>26</sup>See, today I am letting you choose a blessing or a curse. <sup>27</sup>You will be blessed if you obey the commands of the Lord your God. I am giving them to you today. <sup>28</sup>But you will be cursed if you disobey the commands of the Lord your God. So do not disobey the commands I am giving you today. Do not worship other gods you do not know. <sup>29</sup>The Lord your God will bring you into the land you will own. Then you are to announce the blessings from Mount Gerizim. Announce the curses from Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup>These mountains are on the other side of the Jordan River. They are west, toward the sunset. They are near the great trees of Moreh. They are in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Jordan Valley opposite Gilgal. <sup>31</sup>You will soon cross the Jordan River. You will enter and take the land the Lord your God is giving you. You will take it over and live there. <sup>32</sup>Then be careful to obey all the commands and laws I am giving you today.

The Place for Worship

12 These are the commands and laws you must carefully obey in the land the Lord your God is giving you. Obey them as long as you live in the land. <sup>2</sup>You will inherit the lands of these nations. You must completely destroy all the places where they serve their gods. These places are on high mountains and hills and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup>Tear down their altars. Smash their holy stone pillars. Burn their Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. Cut down their idols. Destroy their names from those places.

<sup>4</sup>Don't worship the Lord your God that way. <sup>5</sup>But look for the place the Lord your God will choose. He will choose a place among your tribes<sup>d</sup> where he is to be worshiped. Go there. <sup>6</sup>Bring to that place your burnt offerings and sacrifices. Bring a tenth of what you gain and your special gifts. Bring what you have promised and the special gifts you want to give the Lord. And bring the first animals born to your herds and flocks.

<sup>7</sup>There you will be together with the Lord your God. There you and your families will eat. And you will enjoy all the good things for which you have worked. The Lord your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup>Do not worship the way we have been doing today. Each person does what he thinks is right. <sup>9</sup>You have not yet come to a resting place. The Lord your God will give you your own land. <sup>10</sup>But you will soon cross the Jordan River. And you will live in the land the Lord your God is giving you to own. And he will give you rest from all your enemies. You will live in safety. <sup>11</sup>Then the Lord your God will choose a place where he is to be worshiped. To that place you must bring everything I tell you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your offerings of a tenth of what you gain, your special gifts and all your best things you promised to the Lord. <sup>12</sup>There rejoice before the Lord your God. Everyone should rejoice: you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites from your towns, who have no land of their own. <sup>13</sup>Be careful. Don't sacrifice your burnt offerings just anywhere you please. <sup>14</sup>Offer them only in the place the Lord will choose. He will choose a place in one of your tribes. And there you must do everything I am commanding you.

<sup>15</sup>But you may kill your animals in any of your towns. And you may eat as much of the meat as you want. Eat it as if it were a deer or a gazelle. This is the blessing the Lord your God is giving you. Anyone, clean<sup>d</sup> or unclean, may eat this meat. <sup>16</sup>But do not eat the blood. Pour it out on the ground like water. <sup>17</sup>Do not eat in your own towns what belongs to the Lord: one-tenth of your grain, new wine or oil; the first animals born to your herds or flocks; whatever you have promised to give; the special gifts you want to give to the Lord, or any other gifts. <sup>18</sup>Eat these things when you are together with the Lord. Eat them in the place the Lord your God chooses to be worshiped. Everyone must do this: you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites from your towns. Rejoice in the Lord's presence about the things you have worked for. <sup>19</sup>Be careful not to forget the Levites as long as you live in the land.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord your God will enlarge your country as he has promised. And you will want some meat. You will say, "I want some meat." Eat as much meat as you want. <sup>21</sup>The Lord your God will choose a place where he is to be worshiped. But it may be too far away from you. If it is, you may kill animals from your herds and flocks. The Lord has given them to you. I have commanded that you may do this. You may eat as much of them as you want in your own towns. <sup>22</sup>Eat them as you would eat gazelle or deer meat. Both clean and unclean people may eat this meat. <sup>23</sup>But be sure you don't eat the blood. The life is in the blood. Don't eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup>Don't eat the blood. Pour it out on the ground like water. <sup>25</sup>Don't eat it. Then things will go well for you and your children. You will be doing what the Lord says is right.

<sup>26</sup>Take your holy things and the things you have promised to give. And go to the place the Lord will choose. <sup>27</sup>Present your burnt offerings on the altar of the Lord your God. Offer both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices should be poured beside the altar. But you may eat the meat. <sup>28</sup>Be careful to obey all the rules I am giving you. Then things will always go well for you and your children. You will be doing what the Lord your God says is good and right.

<sup>29</sup>You will enter the land and take it away from the nations there. The Lord your God will destroy those nations ahead of you. You will force them out and live in their land. <sup>30</sup>They will be destroyed for you. Be careful not to be trapped by asking about their gods. Don't say, "How do these nations worship? I will do the same." <sup>31</sup>Don't worship the Lord your God that way. The Lord hates the evil ways they worship their gods. They even burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices to their gods!

<sup>32</sup>Be sure to do everything I have commanded you. Do not add anything to it. And do not take anything away from it.

False Prophets

13 A prophet<sup>a</sup> or someone who tells the future with dreams might come to you. He might say he will show you a miracle<sup>b</sup> or a sign. <sup>2</sup>The miracle or sign might even happen. Then he might say, "Let's serve other gods." (These are gods you have not known.) "And let's worship them." <sup>3</sup>But you must not listen to that prophet or dreamer. The Lord your God is testing you. He is finding out if you love him with your whole being. <sup>4</sup>Serve only the Lord your God. Respect him. Keep his commands and obey him. Serve him and be loyal to him. <sup>5</sup>That prophet or dreamer must be killed. He said you should turn against the Lord your God. The Lord brought you out of Egypt. He saved you from the land where you were slaves. That prophet tried to turn you from doing what the Lord your God commanded you to do. You must get rid of the evil among you.

<sup>6</sup>Some relative might try to lead you to serve other gods. It might be your brother, your son or daughter or the wife you love. Or it might be a close friend. He might say, "Let's go and worship other gods." (These are gods that neither you nor your ancestors have known. <sup>7</sup>They are gods of the people who live around you. Some are nearby, and some are far away. They are from one end of the land to the other.) <sup>8</sup>Do not give in to him. Do not listen. Do not feel sorry for him. Do not let him go free or protect him. <sup>9</sup>You must put him to death. You must be the first one to start to kill him. Then everyone else must join in. <sup>10</sup>You must throw stones at him until he dies. He tried to turn you away from the Lord your God. The Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. <sup>11</sup>Then everyone in Israel will hear about this. And they will be afraid. No one among you will ever do such an evil thing again.

Cities to Destroy

<sup>12</sup>The Lord your God is giving you cities in which to live. You might hear something about one of them. Someone might say <sup>13</sup>that evil men have moved in among you. And they might lead the people of that city away from God. They might say, "Let's go and worship other gods." (These are gods you have not known.) <sup>14</sup>Then you must ask about it. Look into the matter and check carefully. It might be true. It may be proved that a terrible thing has happened among you. <sup>15</sup>If it has, then you must kill with a sword everyone who lives in that city. Destroy the city completely. Kill everyone in it, as well as the animals, with a sword. <sup>16</sup>Gather up everything those people owned. Put it in the middle of the city square. Then completely burn the city and everything they owned. It will be a burnt offering to the Lord your God. That city should never be rebuilt. Let it be ruined forever. <sup>17</sup>Don't keep any of the things found in that city for yourselves. Then the Lord will not be angry anymore. He will give you mercy. He will feel sorry for you. And he will make your nation grow larger. He promised this to your ancestors. <sup>18</sup>You will have obeyed the Lord your God. You will be keeping all his commands. I am giving them to you today. And you will be doing what the Lord says is right.

God's Special People

14 You are the children of the Lord your God. When someone dies, do not cut yourselves or shave your heads to show your sadness. <sup>2</sup>You are holy people. You belong to the Lord your God. He has chosen you from all the people on earth to be his very own.

<sup>9</sup>There are many things that live in the water. You may eat anything that has fins and scales. <sup>10</sup>But do not eat anything that does not have fins and scales. It is unclean for you.

<sup>21</sup>Do not eat anything you find that is already dead. You may give it to a foreigner living in your town. He may eat it. Or you may sell it to a foreigner. But you are holy people. You belong to the Lord your God.

Do not cook a baby goat in its mother's milk.

Giving One-Tenth

<sup>22</sup>Be sure to save one-tenth of all your crops each year. <sup>23</sup>Take it to the place the Lord your God will choose where he is to be worshiped. There you will be together with the Lord. There eat the tenth of your grain, new wine and oil. And eat the animals born first to your herds and flocks. Then you will learn to respect the Lord your God always. <sup>24</sup>But the place the Lord will choose to be worshiped might be too far away. And he may have blessed you so much you cannot carry a tenth. <sup>25</sup>If so, exchange your one-tenth for silver. Then take the silver with you to the place the Lord your God shall choose. <sup>26</sup>Use the silver to buy anything you wish. You may buy cattle, sheep, wine, beer or anything you wish. Then you and your family will eat and celebrate there before the Lord your God. <sup>27</sup>Do not forget the Levites in your town. They have no land of their own among you.

<sup>28</sup>At the end of every third year, everyone should bring one-tenth of that year's crop. Store it in your towns. <sup>29</sup>This is for the Levites so they may eat and be full. (They have no land of their own among you.) It is also for strangers, orphans and widows who live in your towns. All of them may eat and be full. Then the Lord your God will bless you and all the work you do.

The Special Seventh Year

15 At the end of every seven years, you must forget about collecting what people owe you. <sup>2</sup>This is how you must do it: Everyone who has loaned money must forget the loan. He must not make his neighbor or brother pay it back. This is the Lord's time for canceling what people owe. <sup>3</sup>You may make a foreigner pay what he owes you. But you must not collect what your brother owes you. <sup>4</sup>But there should be no poor people among you. The Lord your God will richly bless you in the land he is giving you to own. <sup>5</sup>He will bless you if you obey him completely. But you must be careful to obey all the commands I am giving you today. <sup>6</sup>The Lord your God will bless you as he promised. You will lend to other nations. But you will not need to borrow from them. You will rule over many nations. But none will rule over you.

<sup>7</sup>There might be a poor man among you. He might be in one of the towns of the land the Lord your God is giving you. Do not be selfish or greedy toward your poor brother. <sup>8</sup>But give freely to him. Freely lend him whatever he needs. <sup>9</sup>Beware of evil thoughts. Don't think, "The seventh year is near. It's the year to forget what people owe." You might be mean to your needy brother. You might not give him anything. Then he will complain to the Lord about you. And the Lord will find you guilty of sin. <sup>10</sup>Give freely to the poor person. Do not wish that you didn't have to give. The Lord your God will bless your work and everything you touch. <sup>11</sup>There will always be poor people in the land. So I command you to give freely to your brothers. Give freely to the poor and needy in your land.

Letting Slaves Go Free

to you as a slave. It may be a Hebrew man or woman. That person will serve you for six years. The seventh year you must let him go free. <sup>13</sup>And when you let him go, don't send him away without anything. <sup>14</sup>Give him some of your sheep, your grain and your wine. Give to him as the Lord has given to you. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God saved you. That is why I am commanding this to you today.

<sup>16</sup>But your slave might say to you, "I don't want to leave you." He might love you and your family. He might have a good life with you. <sup>17</sup>If he does this, stick an awl<sup>a</sup> through his ear into the door. He will be your slave for life. Also do this to a woman slave.

<sup>18</sup>Do not think of it as a hard thing when you let your slave go free. After all, he served you six years. You paid him only half what a hired person would cost. The Lord your God will bless you in everything you do.

Rules About Firstborn Animals

<sup>19</sup>Save all the first male animals born to your herds and flocks. They are for the Lord your God. Do not work the first calf born to your oxen. And do not cut off the wool from the first lamb born to your sheep. <sup>20</sup>Each year you and your family are to eat these animals. Eat them in the presence of the Lord your God. Eat them in the place he will choose to be worshiped. <sup>21</sup>An animal might have something wrong with it. It might be crippled or blind. It might have some other thing wrong with it. Do not sacrifice it to the Lord your God. <sup>22</sup>But you may eat that animal in your own town. Both clean<sup>d</sup> and unclean people may eat it. It would be like eating a gazelle or a deer. <sup>23</sup>But don't eat its blood. Pour it out on the ground like water.

The Passover

16 Celebrate the Passover<sup>d</sup> of the Lord your God during the month of Abib.<sup>d</sup> It was during Abib that he brought you out of Egypt at night. <sup>2</sup>Offer a sacrifice for the Passover to the Lord your God. It should be an animal from your flock or herd. Offer it at the place the Lord will choose to be worshiped. <sup>3</sup>Do not eat it with bread made with yeast. But for seven days eat bread made without yeast. This is the bread of suffering because you left Egypt in a hurry. So all your life you will remember the time you left Egypt. <sup>4</sup>There must be no yeast anywhere in your land for seven days. Offer the sacrifice on the evening of the first day. Eat all the meat before morning. Do not leave it overnight.

<sup>5</sup>Do not offer the Passover sacrifice in just any town the Lord your God gives you. <sup>6</sup>Offer it in the place he will choose to be worshiped. Offer it in the evening as the sun goes down. That is when you left Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Roast the meat. Then eat it at the place the Lord your God will choose. The next morning go back to your tents. <sup>8</sup>Eat bread made without yeast for six days. On the seventh day have a special meeting for the Lord your God. Do not work that day.

Feast of Weeks

<sup>9</sup>Count seven weeks from the time you begin to harvest the grain. <sup>10</sup>Then celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Weeks for the Lord your God. Bring him an offering as a special gift to him. Give to him just as he has blessed you. <sup>11</sup>Rejoice before the Lord your God. Rejoice at the place he will choose to be worshiped. Everybody should rejoice: you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, the Levites in your town, the strangers, orphans and widows living among you. <sup>12</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. And carefully obey all these laws.

Feast of Shelters

<sup>16</sup>All your men must come before the Lord three times a year. They must come to the place he will choose. They must come at these times: the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread, the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Weeks and the Feast of Shelters. No man should come before the Lord without a gift. <sup>17</sup>Each of you must bring a gift. It should show how much the Lord your God has blessed you.

Judges for the People

fairly. <sup>19</sup>Do not judge unfairly or take sides. Do not let people pay you to make wrong decisions. That kind of payment makes wise people seem blind. And it changes the words of good people. <sup>20</sup>Always do what is right. Then you will live and own the land the Lord your God is giving you.

God Hates Idols

17 An ox or sheep might have something wrong with it. Do not offer it as a sacrifice to the Lord your God. He would hate that.

<sup>2</sup>A man or woman might be found doing something evil in one of the towns the Lord gave you. That man or woman is breaking his agreement. <sup>3</sup>That person may have served other gods. He may have bowed down to them, to the sun or moon or stars of the sky. I have commanded that should not be done. <sup>4</sup>If someone has told you about it, you must look into the matter. It might be true. A terrible thing may have happened in Israel. <sup>5</sup>If it is true, take the man or woman who has done the evil thing to the city gate. Throw stones at that person until he dies. <sup>6</sup>There must be two or three witnesses that he did it. Then the person should be put to death. But if there is only one witness, the person should not be put to death. <sup>7</sup>The witnesses must be the first to throw stones at the person. Then everyone else will follow. You must get rid of the evil among you.

Courts of Law

<sup>8</sup>Some cases that come before you may be too difficult to judge. It may be a case of murder, quarreling or attack. Take these cases to the place the Lord your God will choose. <sup>9</sup>Go to the priests who are Levites. And go to the judge who is on duty at that time. Ask them about the case, and they will decide. <sup>10</sup>You must follow the decision they give you. They will be at the place the Lord your God will choose. Be careful to do everything they tell you. <sup>11</sup>Follow the teachings they give you. Do whatever they decide. Do exactly what they tell you. <sup>12</sup>The person who does not show respect for the judge or priest must be put to death. They are there serving the Lord your God. You must get rid of that evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup>Then everyone will hear about this. And they will be afraid. They will not show disrespect anymore.

Choosing a King

<sup>14</sup>You will enter the land the Lord your God is giving you. You will take it as your own and live in it. Then you will say, "Let's appoint a king over us like the nations all around us."

<sup>15</sup>Be sure to appoint over you the king the Lord your God chooses. He must be one of your own people. Do not appoint a foreigner as your king. He is not a fellow Israelite. <sup>16</sup>The king must not have too many horses for himself. He must not send people to Egypt to get more horses. The Lord has told you, "Don't return that way again." <sup>17</sup>The king must not have many wives. If he does, his heart will be led away from God. He must not have too much silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup>When he becomes king, he should write a copy of the teachings on a scroll for himself. He should copy it from the priests and Levites. <sup>19</sup>He should keep it with him all the time. He should read from it every day of his life. Then he will learn to respect the Lord his God. And he will obey all the teachings and commands. <sup>20</sup>He should not think he is better than his brothers. He must not stop obeying the law in any way. Then he and his descendants<sup>d</sup> will rule the kingdom for a long time.

Shares for Priests and Levites

18 The priests are from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Levi. That tribe will not receive a share of the land with the Israelites. They will eat the offerings made to the Lord by fire. That is their share. <sup>2</sup>They will not inherit any of the land like their brothers. They will inherit the Lord himself. This is what he promised them.

<sup>3</sup>When you offer a bull or sheep as a sacrifice, you must share with the priests. Give them the shoulder, the cheeks and the inner organs. <sup>4</sup>Give them the first of your grain, new wine and oil. Give them the first wool you cut from your sheep. <sup>5</sup>The Lord your God has chosen the priests and their descendants<sup>d</sup> out of all your tribes. They are to stand and serve the Lord always.

<sup>6</sup>A Levite might move from one of your towns anywhere in Israel where he lives. He is sincere and comes to the place the Lord will choose. <sup>7</sup>He may serve the Lord his God. He will be like his fellow Levites who serve there before the Lord. <sup>8</sup>They all will have an equal share of the food. This is separate from what he has received from the sale of family possessions.

Do Not Follow Other Nations

<sup>9</sup>You will enter the land the Lord your God is giving you. But don't learn to do the terrible things the other nations do. <sup>10</sup>Don't let anyone among you offer his son or daughter as a sacrifice in the fire. Don't let anyone use magic or witchcraft.<sup>a</sup> No one should try to explain the meaning of signs. <sup>11</sup>Don't let anyone try to control others with magic. Don't let them be mediums<sup>d</sup> or try to talk with the spirits of dead people. <sup>12</sup>The Lord hates anyone who does these things. The other nations do these things. That is why the Lord your God will force them out of the land ahead of you. <sup>13</sup>You must be innocent in the presence of the Lord your God.

The Lord's Special Prophet

<sup>14</sup>The nations you will force out listen to people who use magic and witchcraft.<sup>a</sup> But the Lord your God will not let you do those things. <sup>15</sup>The Lord your God will give you a prophet<sup>d</sup> like me. He will be one of your own people. Listen to him. <sup>16</sup>This is what you asked the Lord your God to do. You were gathered at Mount Sinai. You said, "Don't make us listen to the voice of the Lord our God again. Don't make us look at this terrible fire anymore. We will die."

<sup>17</sup>So the Lord said to me, "What they have said is good. <sup>18</sup>So I will give them a prophet like you. He will be one of their own people. I will tell him what to say. And he will tell them everything I command. <sup>19</sup>This prophet will speak for me. Anyone who does not listen when he speaks will answer to me. <sup>20</sup>But a prophet might say something I did not tell him to say. And he might say he is speaking for me. Or a prophet might speak in the name of other gods. That prophet must be killed."

<sup>21</sup>You might be thinking, "How can we know if a message is not from the Lord?" <sup>22</sup>What a prophet says in the name of the Lord might not happen. If it doesn't, it is not the Lord's message. That prophet was speaking his own ideas. Don't be afraid of him.

Cities of Safety

19 The Lord your God is giving you land that belongs to other nations. He will destroy those nations. You will force them out and live in their cities and houses. <sup>2</sup>Then choose three cities. They must be in the middle of the land the Lord your God is giving you to own. <sup>3</sup>Build roads to those cities. And divide the land the Lord is giving you into three parts.

Then someone who kills another person may run to these cities.

<sup>4</sup>This is the rule for someone who kills another person. He may run to one of these cities to save his life. But he must have killed his neighbor without meaning to kill him. He did not hate his neighbor. <sup>5</sup>A man might go into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood. The man swings his ax to cut down a tree. But the ax head flies off the handle. It hits his neighbor and kills him. The man who killed him may run to one of these cities to save his life. <sup>6</sup>Otherwise, the dead man's relative who has the duty of punishing a murderer might be angry and chase him. And the relative might catch him if the city is far away. The relative might kill the man. But the man should not be killed because he did not mean to kill his neighbor. <sup>7</sup>This is why I command you to choose these three cities.

<sup>8</sup>Carefully obey all these laws I'm giving you today. Love the Lord your God. Always do what he wants you to do. Then the Lord your God will enlarge your land as he promised your ancestors. He will give you the whole land he promised to them. After that, choose three more cities of safety. <sup>10</sup>This is so that innocent people will not be killed in your land. The Lord your God is giving it to you to own. By doing this you will not be guilty of murder.

<sup>11</sup>But a person might hate his neighbor. And he might hide and wait for him. He might attack and kill him and then run to one of these cities for safety. <sup>12</sup>The older leaders of his own city should send for him. They should bring him back from the city of safety. And they should hand him over to the relative who has the duty of punishing the murderer. <sup>13</sup>Give him no mercy. You must remove from Israel the guilt of murdering innocent people. Then things will go well for you.

<sup>14</sup>Do not move the stone that marks the border of your neighbor's land. People long ago set them in place. They mark what you inherit in the land the Lord your God is giving you to own.

Rules About Witnesses

<sup>15</sup>One witness is not enough to accuse a man of a crime or sin. A case must be proved by two or three witnesses.

<sup>18</sup>The judges must check the matter carefully. The witness might be a liar. He might be lying about his fellow Israelite. <sup>19</sup>If so, he must be punished as he wanted his brother punished. You must get rid of the evil among you. <sup>20</sup>The rest of the people will hear about this and be afraid. No one among you will ever do such an evil thing again. <sup>21</sup>Give him no mercy. A life must be paid for a life. It must be an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot.

Laws for War

20 When you go to war against your enemies, you might see horses and chariots. Their army might be bigger than yours. But don't be afraid of them. The Lord your God will be with you. He brought you out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>The priest must come and speak to the army before you go into battle. <sup>3</sup>He should say, "Listen, Israel! Today you are going into battle against your enemies. Don't lose your courage or be afraid. Don't panic or be frightened. <sup>4</sup>The Lord your God goes with you. He will fight for you against your enemies. And he will save you."

<sup>5</sup>The officers should say to the army, "Has anyone built a new house but not given it to God? He may go home. He might die in battle. Then someone else would get to give his house to God. <sup>6</sup>Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? He may go home. He might die in battle. Then someone else would enjoy his vineyard. <sup>7</sup>Is any man engaged to a woman and not yet married to her? He may go home. He might die in battle. Then someone else would marry her." <sup>8</sup>Then the officers should also say, "Is anyone here afraid? Has anyone lost his courage? He may go home. Then he will not cause others to lose their courage, too." <sup>9</sup>When the officers finish speaking to the army, they should appoint commanders to lead it.

<sup>10</sup>You will march up to attack a city. First, make them an offer of peace. <sup>11</sup>They might accept your offer and open their gates to you. If that happens, all the people of that city will become your slaves. They will work for you. <sup>12</sup>But they might not make peace with you. They might fight you in battle. Then you should surround that city. <sup>13</sup>The Lord your God will give you the city. Then kill all the men with your swords. <sup>14</sup>You may take everything else in the city for yourselves. Take the women and children and animals. And you may use these things the Lord your God gives you from your enemies. <sup>15</sup>Do this to all the cities that are far away. They do not belong to the nations nearby.

<sup>16</sup>But leave nothing alive in the cities of the land. This is the land the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>17</sup>Completely destroy these people: the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. <sup>18</sup>Otherwise, they will teach you what they do for their gods. And if you do these terrible things, you will sin against the Lord your God.

<sup>19</sup>You might surround and attack a city for a long time, trying to capture it. But do not destroy its trees with an ax. You can eat the fruit from the trees. Do not cut them down. These trees are not the enemy. So don't make war against them. <sup>20</sup>But you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees. You may use them to build devices to attack the city walls. You may do this until the city is captured.

A Person Found Murdered

21 Someone might be found murdered. He might be lying in a field in the land the Lord your God is giving you to own. And no one knows who killed him. <sup>2</sup>Your older leaders and judges should go to where he was found. And they should measure how far it is to the nearby cities. <sup>3</sup>The older leaders of the city nearest the body are responsible. They must take a young cow that has never worked or worn a yoke. <sup>4</sup>And they must lead her down to a valley. It must never have been plowed or planted. It must have a stream flowing through it. There they must break the young cow's neck. <sup>5</sup>The priests should come forward. They are the sons of Levi. They have been chosen by the Lord your God. They are to serve and give blessings in the Lord's name. And they are to decide cases of quarreling and attacks. <sup>6</sup>Then all the older leaders of the city nearest the murdered man should wash their hands. They should do it over the young cow whose neck was broken in the valley. <sup>7</sup>They should declare: "We did not kill this man. And we did not see it happen. <sup>8</sup>Lord, remove this sin of your people Israel. You have saved them. Don't blame your people, the Israelites, for this innocent man's murder." And so the murder will be paid for. <sup>9</sup>Then you will have removed from yourselves the guilt of murdering an innocent person. You will be doing what the Lord says is right.

Captive Women as Wives

<sup>10</sup>You will go to war against your enemies. The Lord will help you defeat them. You will take them captive. <sup>11</sup>You might see a beautiful woman among the captives. And you might be attracted to her. You may take her as your wife. <sup>12</sup>Bring her into your home. She must shave her head and cut her nails. <sup>13</sup>She must change out of the clothes she was wearing when you captured her. And she must live in your house and cry for her parents for a month. After that, you may marry her. You will be her husband, and she will be your wife. <sup>14</sup>But you might not be pleased with her. Then let her go anywhere she wants. You must not sell her for money. You must not make her a slave. You have taken away her honor.

The Oldest Son

<sup>15</sup>A man may have two wives. He might love one wife but not the other. Both wives might have sons by him. But the older son might be the son of the wife he does not love. <sup>16</sup>Someday that man must will his property to his sons. But he must not give the son of the wife he loves what belongs to the older son. The older son is the son of the wife the man does not love. <sup>17</sup>He must agree to give the older son two shares of everything he owns. The older son is from the wife he does not love. That son was the first to prove his father could have children. So he has the rights that belong to the older son.

Sons Who Refuse to Obey

<sup>18</sup>A man might have a son who is stubborn. The son turns against his father and mother and doesn't obey them. He will not listen when they correct him. <sup>19</sup>His parents must take him to the older leaders at the city gate. <sup>20</sup>They will say to the leaders, "Our son is stubborn and turns against us. He will not obey us. He eats too much. And he is always drunk." <sup>21</sup>Then all the men in his town must throw stones at him until he dies. Get rid of the evil among you. All the people of Israel will hear about this and be afraid.

Other Laws

<sup>22</sup>A man might be guilty of a sin worthy of death. He must be put to death and his body displayed on a tree. <sup>23</sup>But don't leave his body hanging on the tree overnight. Be sure to bury him that same day. Anyone whose body is displayed on a tree is cursed by God. You must not ruin the land the Lord your God is giving you to own.

22 You might see your fellow Israelite's ox or sheep wandering away. Don't ignore it. Take it back to its owner. <sup>2</sup>The owner might not live close to you. Or you might not know who he is. Then take the animal home with you. Keep it until the owner comes looking for it. Then give it back to him. <sup>3</sup>Do the same thing if you find his donkey or coat or anything he lost. Don't just ignore it.

<sup>6</sup>You might find a bird's nest by the road. It might be in a tree or on the ground. And the mother bird might be sitting on the young birds or eggs. Do not take the mother bird with the young birds. <sup>7</sup>You may take the young birds. But you must let the mother bird go free. Then things will go well for you. And you will live a long time.

Marriage Laws

<sup>13</sup>A man might marry a girl and have sexual relations with her. But he might decide that he does not like her. <sup>14</sup>So he might lie about her and give her a bad name. He might say, "I married this woman. But when I had sexual relations with her, I did not find that she was a virgin."<sup>d</sup> <sup>15</sup>Then the girl's parents must bring proof that she was a virgin. They must bring it to the older leaders at the city gate. <sup>16</sup>The girl's father will say to the leaders, "I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife. But now he does not want her. <sup>17</sup>This man has told lies about my daughter. He has said, 'I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.' But here is the proof that my daughter was a virgin." Then her parents are to show the sheet to the city leaders. <sup>18</sup>Then the leaders must take the man and punish him. <sup>19</sup>They must make him pay about two and a half pounds of silver. The silver will go to the girl's father. This is because the man has given an Israelite girl a bad name. The girl must continue to be the man's wife. And he may not divorce her as long as he lives.

<sup>20</sup>But the things the husband said about his wife might be true. And there might be no proof that she was a virgin. <sup>21</sup>If so, the girl must be brought to the door of her father's house. Then the men of the town must put her to death by throwing stones at her. She has done a disgraceful thing in Israel. She had sexual relations before she was married. You must get rid of the evil among you.

<sup>23</sup>A man might meet a virgin in a city and have sexual relations with her. But she might be engaged to another man. <sup>24</sup>You must take both of them to the city gate. Put them both to death by throwing stones at them. Kill the girl because she was in a city and did not scream for help. And kill the man for having sexual relations with another man's wife. You must get rid of the evil among you.

<sup>26</sup>Don't do anything to the girl. She has not done a sin worthy of death. This is like the person who attacks and murders his neighbor.

<sup>27</sup>The man found the engaged girl in the country. And she screamed. But no one was there to save her.

<sup>28</sup>A man might meet a virgin who is not engaged to be married. He might force her to have sexual relations with him. And people might find out about it. <sup>29</sup>The man must pay the girl's father about one and one-fourth pounds of silver. He must also marry the girl because he has dishonored her. And he may never divorce her for as long as he lives.

<sup>30</sup>A man must not marry his father's wife. He must not dishonor his father in this way.

The Lord's People

23 No man who has had part of his sex organ cut off may come into the worship meeting of the Lord's people.

<sup>2</sup>No one born to parents who were forbidden by law to marry may come into the meeting to worship the Lord. His descendants for ten generations may not come in either.

<sup>3</sup>No Ammonite or Moabite may come into the meeting to worship the Lord. And none of their descendants for ten generations may come in. <sup>4</sup>This is because the Ammonites and Moabites did not give you bread and water when you came out of Egypt. And they hired Balaam to put a curse on you. He was the son of Beor from Pethor in Northwest Mesopotamia. <sup>5</sup>But the Lord your God would not listen to Balaam. He turned the curse into a blessing for you. The Lord your God loves you. <sup>6</sup>Don't wish for their peace or success as long as you live.

<sup>7</sup>Don't hate Edomites. They are your relatives. Don't hate Egyptians, because you were foreigners in their country. <sup>8</sup>The great-grandchildren of these two peoples may come into the meeting to worship the Lord.

Keeping the Camp Clean

<sup>9</sup>When you are camped in time of war, keep away from unclean<sup>d</sup> things. <sup>10</sup>A man might become unclean during the night. If he does, he must go outside the camp and not come back. <sup>11</sup>But when evening comes, he must wash himself. At sunset he may come back into the camp.

<sup>12</sup>Choose a place outside the camp where people may go to relieve themselves. <sup>13</sup>Carry a stick with you. When you relieve yourself, dig a hole. Cover up your dung. <sup>14</sup>The Lord your God moves around through your camp. He will protect you. He will help you defeat your enemies. So the camp must be holy. The Lord must not see anything unclean among you. Then he will not leave you.

Other Laws

<sup>15</sup>An escaped slave might come to you. Do not hand him over to his master. <sup>16</sup>Let the slave live with you anywhere he likes. He may live in any town he chooses. Do not mistreat him.

<sup>17</sup>No Israelite man or woman must ever become a temple prostitute.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Do not bring a male or female prostitute's pay to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord your God to pay what you have promised to the Lord. The Lord your God hates prostitution.

<sup>19</sup>You may loan your fellow Israelite money or food or anything else. But don't make him pay back more than what you loaned him.

<sup>20</sup>You may charge a foreigner, but not a fellow Israelite. Then the Lord your God will bless everything you do. He will bless you in the land you are entering to take as your own.

<sup>21</sup>You might make a promise to give something to the Lord your God. Do not be slow to pay it. The Lord your God demands it from you. Do not be guilty of sin. <sup>22</sup>But if you do not make the promise, you will not be guilty. <sup>23</sup>You must do whatever you say you will do. You chose to make the promise to the Lord your God.

<sup>24</sup>You might go into your neighbor's vineyard. You may eat as many grapes as you wish. But do not fill your basket with his grapes. <sup>25</sup>You might go into your neighbor's grainfield. You may pick grain with your hands. But you must not cut down his grain with your sickle.

24 A man might marry a woman. But he might decide she doesn't please him. He has found something bad about her. He writes out divorce papers for her. He gives them to her and sends her away from his house. <sup>2</sup>After she leaves his house, she goes and marries another man. <sup>3</sup>But her second husband does not like her either. So he writes out divorce papers for her. He gives them to her and sends her away from his house. Or the second husband might die. <sup>4</sup>In either case, her first husband who divorced her must not marry her again. She has become unclean. <sup>4</sup>The Lord would hate this. Don't bring this sin into the land the Lord your God is giving you to own.

<sup>5</sup>A man who has just married must not be sent to war. And he must not be given any other duty. He should be free to stay home for a year to make his new wife happy.

<sup>6</sup>A man might owe you something. But do not take his two stones for grinding grain—not even the upper one—in place of what he owes. This is how he makes his living.

<sup>7</sup>A man might kidnap a fellow Israelite. He might make him a slave or sell him. The kidnapper must be killed. You must get rid of the evil among you.

<sup>8</sup>Be careful when someone has a harmful skin disease. Do exactly what the priests, the Levites, teach you. Be careful to do what I have commanded them. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the Lord your God did to Miriam on your way out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>You might make a loan to your neighbor. But don't go into his house to get something in place of it. <sup>11</sup>Stay outside. Let the man himself go in and get what he promised you. <sup>12</sup>A poor man might give you his coat to show he will pay the loan back. But don't keep his coat overnight. <sup>13</sup>Give his coat back to him at sunset. He needs his coat to sleep in. He will thank you. And the Lord your God will see that you have done a good thing.

<sup>14</sup>Don't cheat a hired servant who is poor and needy. He might be a fellow Israelite. Or he might be a foreigner living in one of your towns. <sup>15</sup>Pay him each day before sunset. He is poor and needs the money. Otherwise, he may complain to the Lord about you. And you will be guilty of sin.

<sup>17</sup>Do not be unfair to a foreigner or an orphan. Don't take a widow's coat in place of a loan. <sup>18</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God saved you from there. That is why I am commanding you to do this.

<sup>19</sup>You might be gathering your harvest in the field. You might not see a bundle of grain. Don't go back and get it. Leave it there for foreigners, orphans and widows. Then the Lord your God can bless everything you do. <sup>20</sup>You may beat your olive trees to knock the olives off. But don't beat the trees a second time. Leave what is left for foreigners, orphans and widows. <sup>21</sup>You may harvest the grapes in your vineyard. But don't pick the vines a second time. Leave what is left for foreigners, orphans and widows. <sup>22</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I am commanding you to do this.

25 Two people may have an argument. They should go to the court. And the judges will decide the case. They will declare one person to be right. And they will punish the one who is guilty. <sup>2</sup>The guilty person might have to be punished with a beating. If so, the judge will make him lie down. They will beat him in front of the judge. The number of lashes should match the crime. <sup>3</sup>But don't hit him more than 40 times. If he is beaten more than that, it would disgrace him before others.

<sup>7</sup>But a man might not want to marry his brother's widow. Then she should go to the older leaders at the town gate. And she should say, "My brother-in-law will not carry on his brother's name in Israel. He refuses to do his duty for me."

<sup>8</sup>Then the older leaders of the town must call for the man and talk to him. But he might be stubborn and say, "I don't want to marry her."

<sup>9</sup>If he does, the woman must go up to him in front of the leaders. She must take off one of his sandals. She must spit in his face and say, "This is for the man who won't continue his brother's family!" <sup>10</sup>Then that man's family shall be known in Israel as the Family of the Unsandaled.

<sup>13</sup>Don't carry two sets of weights with you, one heavy and one light. <sup>14</sup>Don't have two different sets of measures in your house, one large and one small. <sup>15</sup>You must have true and honest weights and measures. Then you will live a long time in the land the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup>The Lord your God hates anyone who is dishonest and uses dishonest measures.

<sup>17</sup>Remember what the Amalekites did to you when you came out of Egypt. <sup>18</sup>You were tired and worn out. And they met you on the road. They killed all those lagging behind. They were not afraid of God. <sup>19</sup>The Lord your God will give you rest from all the enemies around you. It will be in the land he is giving you to own. Then you shall destroy any memory of the Amalekites on the earth. Do not forget!

The First Harvest

26 Soon you will go into the land the Lord your God is giving you to own. You will take it over and live in it. <sup>2</sup>Then you must take some of the first harvest of crops. It will grow from the land the Lord your God is giving you. Put the food in a basket. Then go to the place where the Lord your God will choose to be worshiped. <sup>3</sup>Say to the priest on duty at that time, "Today I declare this before the Lord your God. I have come into the land the Lord promised to give us. He promised this to our ancestors." <sup>4</sup>The priest will take your basket. He will set it down in front of the altar of the Lord your God. <sup>5</sup>Then you shall announce before the Lord your God: "My father was a wandering Aramean. He went down to Egypt. He stayed there with only a few people. But they became a great, powerful and large nation there. <sup>6</sup>But the Egyptians were cruel to us. They made us suffer and work very hard. <sup>7</sup>So we prayed to the Lord, the God of our ancestors. He heard us. He saw our trouble, hard work and suffering. <sup>8</sup>Then the Lord brought us out of Egypt. He did it with his great power and strength. He used great terrors, signs and miracles." <sup>9</sup>Then he brought us to this place. He gave us this land where much food grows. <sup>10</sup>Now I bring you part of the first harvest from this land. Lord, you have given me this land." Then place the basket before the Lord your God. And bow down before him. <sup>11</sup>Then you and the Levites and foreigners among you should rejoice. The Lord your God has given good things to you and your family.

<sup>12</sup>Bring a tenth of all your harvest the third year. This is the year to give a tenth of your harvest. Give it to the Levites, foreigners, orphans and widows. Then they may eat in your towns and be full. <sup>13</sup>Then say to the Lord your God, "I have taken out of my house the part of my harvest that belongs to God. I have given it to the Levites, foreigners, orphans and widows. I have done everything you commanded me. I have not broken your commands. And I have not forgotten any of them. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten any of the holy part while I was in sorrow. I have not removed any of it while I was unclean." <sup>15</sup>I have not offered it for dead people. I have obeyed you, the Lord my God. I have done everything you commanded me. <sup>16</sup>So look down from heaven, your holy home. Bless your people Israel. And bless the land you have given us. You promised it to our ancestors. It is a land where much food grows."

Obey the Lord's Commands

<sup>16</sup>Today the Lord your God commands you to obey all these rules and laws. Be careful to do them with your whole being. <sup>17</sup>Today you have said that the Lord is your God. You have promised to do what he wants you to do. You have promised to keep his rules, commands and laws. You have said you will obey him. <sup>18</sup>And today the Lord has said that you are his very own people. He has promised it. But you must obey his commands. <sup>19</sup>The Lord will make you greater than all the other nations he made. He will give you praise, fame and honor. And you will be a holy people to the Lord your God. This is what he said.

The Law Written on Stones

27 Moses and the older leaders of Israel commanded the people. They said, "Keep all the commands I have given you today. <sup>2</sup>Soon you will cross the Jordan River. You will go into the land the Lord your God is giving you. On that day set up some large stones. Cover them with plaster. <sup>3</sup>When you cross over, write all the words of these teachings on them. Then you may enter the land the Lord your God is giving you. It is a land where much food grows. It is just as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, promised. <sup>4</sup>After you have crossed the Jordan River, set up these stones. Set them on Mount Ebal as I command you today. And cover them with plaster. <sup>5</sup>Build an altar of stones there to the Lord your God. But don't use any iron tool to cut the stones. <sup>6</sup>Build the altar of the Lord your God with stones from the field. Offer burnt offerings on it to the Lord your God. <sup>7</sup>Offer fellowship offerings there. Eat them and rejoice before the Lord your God. <sup>8</sup>Then write clearly all the words of these teachings on the stones."

Curses of the Law

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses and the Levites, who are the priests, spoke to all Israel. They said, "Be quiet, Israel. Listen! Today you have become the people of the Lord your God. <sup>10</sup>Obey the Lord your God. Keep his commands and laws that I give you today."

<sup>11</sup>That day Moses also gave the people this command:

<sup>15</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who makes an idol or statue and secretly sets it up. The Lord hates idols made by man."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>16</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who dishonors his father or his mother."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>17</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who moves the stone that marks his neighbor's border."

<sup>18</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who leads a blind person away from the road."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>19</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who is unfair to foreigners, orphans or widows."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>20</sup>"A man will be cursed who has sexual relations with his father's wife. It is a dishonor to his father."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>21</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who has sexual relations with an animal."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>22</sup>"A man will be cursed who has sexual relations with his sister. She may be his father's daughter or his mother's daughter."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>23</sup>"A man will be cursed who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law."

<sup>24</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who kills his neighbor secretly."

<sup>25</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who takes money to murder an innocent person."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

<sup>26</sup>"Anyone will be cursed who does not agree with the words of these teachings and does not obey them."

Then all the people will say, "Amen!"

Blessings for Obeying

28 You must completely obey the Lord your God. And you must carefully follow all his commands I am giving you today. Then the Lord your God will make you greater than any other nation on earth. <sup>2</sup>Obey the Lord your God. Then all these blessings will come and stay with you:

<sup>3</sup>You will be blessed in the city. You will be blessed in the country.

<sup>4</sup>Your children will be blessed. Your crops will be blessed. Your cattle will be blessed with calves and your sheep with lambs.

<sup>5</sup>Your basket and your kitchen will be blessed.

<sup>6</sup>You will be blessed when you come in and when you go out.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord will let you defeat the enemies that come to fight you. They will attack you from one direction. But they will run from you in seven directions.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord your God will bless you with full barns. He will bless everything you do. He will bless the land he is giving you.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord will make you his holy people, as he promised. But you must obey his commands. You must do what he wants you to do.

<sup>10</sup>Then everyone on earth will see that you are the Lord's people. They will be afraid of you.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord will make you rich. You will have many children. Your cattle will have many calves. Your land will give good crops. It is the land that the Lord promised your ancestors he would give to you.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord will open up his storehouse. The skies will send rain on your land at the right time. And he will bless everything you do. You will lend to other nations. But you will not need to borrow from them. <sup>13</sup>The Lord will make you like the head and not like the tail. You will be on top and not on bottom. But you must obey the commands of the Lord your God that I am giving you today. Be careful to keep them. <sup>14</sup>Do not disobey anything I command you today. Do exactly as I command. Do not follow other gods or serve them.

Curses for Disobeying

<sup>15</sup>But you might not obey the Lord your God. You might not carefully follow all his commands and laws I am giving you today. Then all these curses will come upon you and stay:

<sup>16</sup>You will be cursed in the city. You will be cursed in the country.

<sup>17</sup>Your basket and your kitchen will be cursed.

<sup>18</sup>Your children will be cursed. Your crops will be cursed. The calves of your cattle will be cursed. And the lambs of your flocks will be cursed.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord will send you curses, confusion and punishment in everything you do. You will be destroyed. You will suddenly be ruined. You did wrong when you left him. <sup>21</sup>The Lord will give you terrible diseases. He will destroy you from the land you are going to take. <sup>22</sup>The Lord will punish you with disease, fever, swelling, heat, no rain, plant diseases and mildew. <sup>23</sup>Then you will die. <sup>24</sup>The sky above will look like bronze. And the ground below will be like iron. <sup>25</sup>The Lord will turn the rain into dust and sand. It will fall from the skies until you are destroyed.

<sup>26</sup>The Lord will let your enemies defeat you. You will attack them from one direction. But you will run from them in seven directions. And you will become a thing of horror among all the kingdoms on earth. <sup>27</sup>Your dead bodies will be food for all the birds and wild animals. There will be no one to scare them away. <sup>28</sup>The Lord will punish you with boils like those the Egyptians had. You will have bad growths, sores and itches that can't be cured. <sup>29</sup>The Lord will give you madness, blindness and a confused mind. <sup>30</sup>You will have to feel around in the daylight like a blind man. You will fail in everything you do. People will hurt you and steal from you every day. There will be no one to save you.

<sup>31</sup>You will be engaged to a woman. But another man will force her to have sexual relations with him. You will build a house. But you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard. But you will not get its grapes. <sup>32</sup>Your ox will be killed before your eyes. But you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away from you. And it will not be brought back. Your sheep will be given to your enemies. And no one will rescue them. <sup>33</sup>Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation. You will grow tired looking for them every day. But there is nothing you can do. <sup>34</sup>People you don't know will eat the crops your land and hard work have produced. You will be mistreated and abused all your life. <sup>35</sup>The things you see will cause you to go mad. <sup>36</sup>The Lord will give you sore boils on your knees and legs. They cannot be cured. They will go from the soles of your feet to the tops of your heads.

<sup>37</sup>The Lord will send you and your king away to a nation you do not know. There you will serve other gods made of wood and stone. <sup>38</sup>You will become a hated thing to the nations where the Lord sends you. They will laugh at you and make fun of you.

<sup>39</sup>You will plant much seed in your field. But your harvest will be small. Locusts<sup>d</sup> will eat the crop. <sup>40</sup>You will plant vineyards and work hard in them. But you will not pick the grapes or drink the wine. The worms will eat them. <sup>41</sup>You will have olive trees in all your land. But you will not get any olive oil. The olives will drop off the trees. <sup>42</sup>You will have sons and daughters. But you will not be able to keep them. They will be taken captive. <sup>43</sup>Locusts will destroy all your trees and crops.

<sup>44</sup>The foreigners who live among you will get stronger and stronger. And you will get weaker and weaker. <sup>45</sup>Foreigners will lend money to you. But you will not be able to lend to them. They will be like the head. And you will be like the tail.

<sup>46</sup>All these curses will come upon you. They will chase you and catch you and destroy you. This will happen because you did not obey the Lord your God. You did not keep the commands and laws he gave you. <sup>47</sup>The curses will be signs and miracles<sup>d</sup> to you and your descendants<sup>d</sup> forever. <sup>48</sup>You had plenty of everything. But you did not serve the Lord your God with joy and a pure heart. <sup>49</sup>So you will serve the enemies the Lord sends against you. You will be hungry, thirsty, naked and poor. The Lord will put a load on you until he has destroyed you.

The Curse of an Enemy Nation

<sup>50</sup>The Lord will bring a nation against you from far away. It will be from the end of the world. The nation will swoop down like an eagle. You won't understand their language.

<sup>50</sup>They will look mean. They will not respect old people or feel sorry for the young. <sup>51</sup>They will eat the calves from your cattle and the harvest of your field. And you will be destroyed. They will not leave you any grain, new wine or oil. They will not leave you any calves from your herds or lambs from your flocks. You will be ruined. <sup>52</sup>That nation will surround and attack all your cities. You trust in your high, strong walls. But they will fall down. That nation will surround all your cities everywhere in the land the Lord your God is giving you.

<sup>53</sup>Your enemy will surround you. Those people will make you starve. You will eat your own babies. You will eat the bodies of the sons and daughters the Lord gave you. <sup>54</sup>Even the most gentle and kind man among you will become cruel. He will be cruel to his brother, his wife whom he loves and his children who are still alive. <sup>55</sup>He will not even give them any of the flesh of his children he is eating. It will be all he has left. Your enemy will surround you. Those people will make you starve in all your cities. <sup>56</sup>The most gentle and kind woman among you will become cruel. She is so gentle and kind she would hardly even walk on the ground. But she will be cruel to her husband whom she loves. And she will be cruel to her son and daughter. <sup>57</sup>She will give birth to a baby. But she will plan to eat the baby and what comes after the birth itself. She will eat them while the enemy surrounds the city. Those people will make you starve in all your cities.

<sup>58</sup>Be careful to obey everything in these teachings. They are written in this book. You must respect the glorious and wonderful name of the Lord your God. <sup>59</sup>The Lord will give terrible diseases to you and your descendants.<sup>d</sup> You will have long and serious diseases. You will have long and miserable sicknesses. <sup>60</sup>And the Lord will give you all the diseases of Egypt that you dread. And the diseases will stay with you. <sup>61</sup>The Lord will also give you every disease and sickness not written in this Book of the Teachings. Then you will be destroyed. <sup>62</sup>You people may have outnumbered the stars. But only a few of you will be left. You did not obey the Lord your God. <sup>63</sup>Once the Lord was happy with you. He gave you good things. He made you grow in number. But now the Lord will be happy to ruin and destroy you. You will be removed from the land you are entering to own.

<sup>64</sup>Then the Lord will scatter you among the nations. He will scatter you from one end of the earth to the other. There you will serve other gods of wood and stone. They are gods that neither you nor your ancestors have known. <sup>65</sup>You will have no rest among those nations. You will have no place that is yours. The Lord will make your mind worried, your sight weak and your soul sad. <sup>66</sup>You will live with danger. You will be afraid night and day. You will not be sure that you will live. <sup>67</sup>In the morning you will say, "I wish it were evening." And in the evening you will say, "I wish it were morning." Terror will be in your heart because of the things you have seen. <sup>68</sup>The Lord will send you back to Egypt in ships. I, Moses, said you would never go back to Egypt. And there you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies. But no one will buy you.

The Agreement in Moab

29 The Lord commanded Moses to make an agreement with the Israelites in Moab. This agreement was in addition to the agreement he had made with them at Mount Sinai.

<sup>2</sup>Moses called all the Israelites together. And he said to them:

You have seen everything the Lord did to the king of Egypt. You saw what he did to the king's leaders and to the whole country. <sup>3</sup>With your own eyes you saw the great troubles, signs and miracles.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>But to this day the Lord has not given you a mind that understands. You don't really understand what you see with your eyes or hear with your ears. <sup>5</sup>The Lord led you through the desert for 40 years. During that time neither your clothes nor sandals wore out. <sup>6</sup>You ate no bread. You drank no wine or beer. This was so you would understand that he is the Lord your God.

<sup>7</sup>You came to this place. Then Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight us. But we defeated them. <sup>8</sup>We captured their land. And we gave it to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the eastern half-tribe<sup>d</sup> of Manasseh to own.

make you today the Lord's own people. He will be your God. This is what he told you. He promised it to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>14</sup>But the Lord is not just making this agreement and its promises with you. <sup>15</sup>You are standing here before the Lord your God today. But he is also making it with those who are not here today.

<sup>16</sup>You know how we lived in Egypt. You know how we passed through the countries when we came here. <sup>17</sup>You saw their hated idols made of wood, stone, silver and gold. <sup>18</sup>Make sure no man, woman, family group or tribe among you leaves the Lord. Don't let them go and serve the gods of those nations. That would be like a plant that grows bitter, poisonous fruit.

<sup>19</sup>That kind of person might hear these curses. But he blesses himself. And he thinks, "I will be safe. I will continue doing what I want to do." That person might destroy all of your land, both wet and dry. <sup>20</sup>The Lord will not forgive that person. His anger will be like a burning fire against that man. All the curses written in this book will come on him. And the Lord will destroy any memory of him on the earth. <sup>21</sup>The Lord will separate him from all the tribes of Israel for punishment. All the curses of the agreement will happen to him. They are written in this Book of the Teachings.

<sup>22</sup>Your children who will come after you will see this. And foreigners from faraway lands will see this. They will see the disasters that come to this land. And they will see the diseases the Lord will send on it. They will say, <sup>23</sup>"The land is nothing but burning cinders and salt. Nothing is planted. Nothing grows. Nothing blooms. It is like Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah and Zeboiim. The Lord destroyed them because he was very angry." <sup>24</sup>All the other nations will ask, "Why has the Lord done this to the land? Why is he so angry?"

<sup>25</sup>And the answer will be, "It is because the people broke the agreement of the Lord, the God of their ancestors. He made it with them when he brought them out of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>They went and served other gods. They bowed down to gods they did not even know. The Lord did not allow that. <sup>27</sup>So the Lord became very angry at the land. And he brought all the curses on it that are written in this book. <sup>28</sup>The Lord became angry and furious with them. So he took them out of their land. And he put them in another land where they are today."

<sup>29</sup>There are some things the Lord our God has kept secret. But there are some things he has let us know. These things belong to us and our children forever. It is so we will do everything in these teachings.

The Israelites Will Return

30 All these blessings and curses I have said will happen to you. The Lord your God will send you away to other nations. There you will think about these things. <sup>2</sup>Then you and your children will return to the Lord your God. And you will obey him with your whole being. You will obey everything I command you today. <sup>3</sup>Then the Lord your God will give you back your riches. He will feel sorry for you. And he will bring you back again from the nations where he sent you. <sup>4</sup>He may send you to the ends of the earth. But he will gather you. He will bring you back from there. <sup>5</sup>He will bring you back to the land that belonged to your ancestors. It will be yours. He will give you success. And there will be more of you than there were of your ancestors. <sup>6</sup>The Lord your God will prepare you and your descendants<sup>d</sup> to serve him. You will love him with your whole being. Then you will live. <sup>7</sup>The Lord your God will put all these curses on your enemies. They hate you and are cruel to you. <sup>8</sup>And you will again obey the Lord. You will keep all his commands that I give you today. <sup>9</sup>The Lord your God will make you successful in everything you do. You will have many children. Your cattle will have many calves. Your fields will produce good crops. He will again be happy with you, just as he was with your ancestors. <sup>10</sup>But you must obey the Lord your God. You must obey his commands and rules that are written in this Book of the Teachings. You must follow the Lord your God with your whole being.

Choose Life or Death

<sup>11</sup>This command I give you today is not too hard for you. It is not beyond what you can do. <sup>12</sup>It is not up in heaven. You do not have to ask, "Who will go up to heaven and get it for us? Then we can obey it and keep it." <sup>13</sup>It is not on the other side of the sea. You do not have to ask, "Who will go across the sea and get it? Who will tell it to us? Then we can keep it." <sup>14</sup>No, the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart. So, you may obey it.

<sup>15</sup>Look, today I offer you life and success, death and destruction. <sup>16</sup>I command you today to love the Lord your God. Do what he wants you to do. Keep his commands, his rules and his laws. Then you will live and grow in number. And the Lord your God will bless you in the land you are going to take as your own.

<sup>17</sup>But you might turn away from the Lord. You might not obey him. You might be led to bowing down and serving other gods. <sup>18</sup>I tell you today that you will be destroyed. And you will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan River to enter and own.

<sup>19</sup>Today I ask heaven and earth to be witnesses. I am offering you life or death, blessings or curses. Now, choose life! Then you and your children may live. <sup>20</sup>Love the Lord your God. Obey him. Stay close to him. He is your life. And he will let you live many years in the land. This is the land he promised to give your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Joshua Takes Moses' Place

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all the Israelites: <sup>21</sup>'I am now 120 years old. I cannot lead you anymore. The Lord told me I would not cross the Jordan River. <sup>3</sup>The Lord your God will lead you across himself. He will destroy those nations for you. You will take over their land. Joshua will also lead you across. This is what the Lord has said. <sup>4</sup>The Lord will do to these nations what he did to Sihon and Og. They were the kings of the Amorites. He destroyed them and their land. <sup>5</sup>The Lord will give those nations to you. Do to them everything I told you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and brave. Don't be afraid of them. Don't be frightened. The Lord your God will go with you. He will not leave you or forget you.'

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called Joshua and spoke to him in front of the people. Moses said, "Be strong and brave. Lead these people into the land the Lord promised to give their ancestors. Help the people take it as their own. <sup>8</sup>The Lord himself will go before you. He will be with you. He will not leave you or forget you. Don't be afraid. Don't worry."

Moses Writes the Teachings

<sup>9</sup>So Moses wrote down the teachings. He gave them to the priests and all the older leaders of Israel. The priests are the sons of Levi. They carried the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. <sup>10</sup><sup>11</sup>Then Moses commanded them: "Read these teachings for all Israel to hear. Do it at the end of every seven years. That is the year to forget what people owe. Do it during the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters. All the Israelites will come to appear before the Lord your God. They will stand at the place the Lord will choose. <sup>12</sup>Gather all the people: the men, women, children and foreigners living in your towns. Then they can listen and learn to respect the Lord your God. Then they can carefully obey everything in this law. <sup>13</sup>Their children do not know this law. They must hear it. They must learn to respect the Lord your God for as long as they live in the land. It is the land you are crossing the Jordan River to own."

The Lord Calls Moses and Joshua

<sup>14</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Soon you will die. Get Joshua and come to the Meeting Tent. <sup>4</sup>I will command him." So Moses and Joshua went to the Meeting Tent.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord appeared at the Meeting Tent in a cloud. The cloud stood over the entrance of the Tent. <sup>16</sup>And the Lord said to Moses, "You will soon die. Then these people will not be loyal to me. They will worship the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will leave me. And they will break the agreement I made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then I will become very angry at them. I will leave them. I will turn away from them. And they will be destroyed. Many terrible things will happen to them. Then they will say, 'God is not with us. That is why these terrible things are happening.' <sup>18</sup>I will turn away from them then. They have done wrong. They have turned to other gods.

<sup>19</sup>"Now write down this song. And teach it to the Israelites. Then have them sing it. It will testify against them. <sup>20</sup>I will bring them into the land I promised to their ancestors. It is a land where much food grows. They will eat as much as they want and get fat. But then they will turn to other gods and serve them. They will reject me and break my agreement. <sup>21</sup>Then many troubles and terrible things will happen to them. And this song will testify against them. The song will not be forgotten by their descendants. <sup>4</sup>I know what they plan to do, even before I take them into the land I promised them." <sup>22</sup>So Moses wrote down the song that day. And he taught it to the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup>Then the Lord gave this command to Joshua son of Nun: "Be strong and brave. Lead the people of Israel to the land I promised them. And I will be with you."

<sup>24</sup>Moses wrote all the words of the teachings in a book. <sup>25</sup>Then he gave a command to the Levites. They carried the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. <sup>26</sup>He said, "Take this Book of the Teachings. Put it beside the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord your God. It must stay there as a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>I know how stubborn and disobedient you are. You have disobeyed the Lord while I am alive and with you. You will disobey even more after I die! <sup>28</sup>Gather all the older leaders of your tribes<sup>d</sup> and all your officers. I will say these things for them to hear. And I will ask heaven and earth to testify against them. <sup>29</sup>I know that after I die you will become completely evil. You will turn away from the commands I have given you. Then terrible things will happen to you in the future. You will do what the Lord says is evil. You will make him angry with the idols you have made."

Moses' Song

<sup>30</sup>And Moses spoke this whole song for all the people of Israel to hear:

32 Hear, heavens, and I will speak.
Listen, earth, to what I say.

<sup>2</sup>My teaching will drop like rain.

My words will fall like dew.

They will be like showers on the grass.

They will pour down like rain on young plants.

<sup>3</sup>I will announce the name of the Lord.

Praise God because he is great!

He is always fair.

He is a faithful God who does no wrong.

He is right and fair.

<sup>5</sup>They have done evil against him.

To their shame they are no longer his children.

They are an evil and lying people.

You are foolish and unwise.

He is your Father and Maker.

He made you and formed you.

<sup>7</sup>Remember the old days.

Think of the years already passed.

Ask your father. He will tell you.

Ask your older leaders. They will inform you.

He divided up the human race.

He set up borders for the people.

He even numbered the Israelites.

The people of Jacob were his very own.

It was a windy, empty land.

He surrounded them and brought them up.

He guarded them as those he loved very much.

<sup>11</sup>He was like an eagle building its nest.

It flutters over its young.

It spreads its wings to catch them.

It carries them on its feathers.

There were no foreign gods among them.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord brought them to the heights of the land.

He fed them the fruit of the fields.

He gave them honey from the rocks.

He brought oil from the solid rock.

<sup>14</sup>There were milk curds from the cows and milk from the sheep.

There were fat sheep and goats.

There were sheep and goats from Bashan.

There was the best of the wheat.

You drank the juice of grapes.

<sup>15</sup>Israel grew fat and kicked.

They were fat and full and firm.

They left the God who made them.

They rejected the Rock<sup>d</sup> who saved them.

They made him angry with hated idols.

They were gods they had never known.

They were new gods from nearby.

Your ancestors did not fear them.

You forgot the God who gave you birth.

His sons and daughters had made him angry.

<sup>20</sup>He said, "I will turn away from them.

I will see what will happen to them.

They are evil people.

They are unfaithful children.

<sup>21</sup>They used things that are not gods to make me jealous.

They used worthless idols to make me angry.

So I will use those who are not a nation to make them jealous.

I will use a nation that does not understand to make them angry.

<sup>22</sup>My anger has started a fire.

It burns down to where the dead are.

It will burn up the ground and its crops.

And it will set fire to the mountains.

<sup>23</sup>"I will pile troubles upon them.

I will shoot my arrows at them.

<sup>24</sup>They will be starved and sick.

They will be destroyed by terrible diseases.

I will send them vicious animals and gliding, poisonous snakes.

In their homes there will be terror.

Young men and women will die.

So will babies and gray-haired men.

- <sup>26</sup>I will scatter them as I said.
And no one will remember them.
- <sup>27</sup>But I didn't want their enemy to brag.
Their enemy might misunderstand.
They might say, 'We have won!
The Lord has done none of this.' "
- <sup>28</sup>Israel has no sense.
They do not understand.
- <sup>29</sup>I wish they were wise and understood this.
I wish they could see what will happen to them.
- <sup>30</sup>One person cannot chase 1,000 people.
And 2 people cannot fight 10,000.
This only happens if the Lord has sold them.
Their Rock would have to give them up.
- <sup>31</sup>The rock of these people is not like our Rock.
Our enemies agree to that.
- <sup>32</sup>Their vine comes from Sodom.
Their fields are like Gomorrah.
Their grapes are full of poison.
Their bunches of grapes are bitter.
- <sup>33</sup>Their wine is like snake poison, like the deadly poison of cobras.
- <sup>34</sup>"I have been saving this.
I have it locked in my storehouses.
- <sup>35</sup>I will punish those who do wrong. I will repay them.
Sometime their foot will slip.
Their day of trouble is near.
And their punishment will come quickly."
- <sup>36</sup>The Lord will defend his people.
He will have mercy on his servants.
He will see that their strength is gone.
He will see that nobody is left, slaves or free.
- <sup>37</sup>Then he will say, "Where are their gods?
Where is the rock they trusted?"
- <sup>38</sup>Who ate the fat from their sacrifices?
Who drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let those gods come to help you!
Let them protect you!
- <sup>39</sup>"Now you will see that I am the one God!
There is no god but me.
I send life and death.
I can hurt, and I can heal.
No one can escape from me.
- <sup>40</sup>I raise my hand toward heaven and make this promise:
As surely as I live forever,
- <sup>41</sup>I will sharpen my flashing sword.
And I will take it in my hand to judge.

I will punish my enemies.
I will pay back those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup>My arrows will be covered with their blood.
My sword will eat their flesh.
The blood will flow from those who are killed and the captives.
The heads of the enemy leaders will be cut off."

- <sup>43</sup>Be happy, nations, with his people.
He will repay you for the blood of his servants.
He will punish his enemies.
And he will remove the sin of his land and people.

<sup>44</sup>Moses came with Joshua son of Nun. And they spoke all the words of this song for the people to hear. <sup>45</sup>When Moses finished speaking these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup>he said to them:
"Pay attention to all the words I have said to you today. Command your children to obey carefully everything in these teachings. <sup>47</sup>These should not be unimportant words for you.
They mean life for you! By these words you will live a long time in the land you are crossing the Jordan River to own."

Moses Goes Up to Mount Nebo

<sup>48</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses again that same day. He said, <sup>49</sup>"Go up the Abarim Mountains.
Go to Mount Nebo in the country of Moab. It is across from Jericho. Look at the land of Canaan. I am giving it to the Israelites to own.
<sup>50</sup>You will die on that mountain that you climb.
This is how your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor. <sup>51</sup>You both sinned against me at the waters of Meribah Kadesh. That is in the Desert of Zin. You did not honor me as holy there among the Israelites. <sup>52</sup>So now you will only look at the land from far away. You will not enter the land I am giving the people of Israel."

Moses Blesses the People

33 Moses, the man of God, gave this blessing to the Israelites before he died. <sup>2</sup>He said:

"The Lord came from Mount Sinai.
He rose like the sun from Edom.
He showed his greatness from Mount Paran.
He came with thousands of angels.
He came from the southern mountains.
<sup>3</sup>The Lord surely loves his people.
He takes care of all those who belong to him.

- They bow down at his feet.
And they are taught by him.
- <sup>4</sup>Moses gave us the teachings.
They belong to the people of Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup>The Lord became king of Israel.
The leaders of the people gathered then.
The tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel came together.
- <sup>6</sup>“Let the people of Reuben live and not die.
But let the people be few.”
- <sup>7</sup>Moses said this about the people of Judah:
“Lord, listen to Judah’s prayer.
Bring them back to their people.
They defend themselves with their hands.
Help them fight their enemies!”
- <sup>8</sup>Moses said this about the people of Levi:
“Lord, your Thummim and Urim<sup>d</sup> belong to Levi whom you love.
Lord, you tested him at Massah.
You argued with him at the waters of Meribah.
- <sup>9</sup>He said about his father and mother,
‘I don’t care about them.’
He did not recognize his brothers.
He did not know his children.
But he protected your word.
And he guarded your agreement.
- <sup>10</sup>He teaches your laws to the people of Jacob and your teachings to the people of Israel.
He burns incense<sup>d</sup> before you.
And he makes whole burnt offerings on your altar.
- <sup>11</sup>Lord, make them strong.
Be pleased with the work they do.
Defeat those who attack them.
Don’t let their enemies rise up again.”
- <sup>12</sup>Moses said this about the people of Benjamin: “The Lord’s loved ones will lie down in safety.
The Lord protects them all day long.
The ones the Lord loves rest with him.”
- <sup>13</sup>Moses said this about the people of Joseph:
“May the Lord bless their land with the best fruits.
Send rain from heaven above.
And bring the water from the springs
below.
- <sup>14</sup>Let the sun produce the best fruits.
Let each month bring its best fruits.
- <sup>15</sup>Let the old mountains give the finest crops.
And let the everlasting hills give the best fruits.
- <sup>16</sup>Let the full earth give the best fruits.
Let the Lord who lived in the burning bush be pleased.
May these blessings rest on the head of Joseph.
May they rest on the forehead of the one who was separated from his brothers.
- <sup>17</sup>Joseph has the majesty of a firstborn<sup>d</sup> bull.
He is as strong as a wild ox.
He will stab other nations,
even those nations far away.
These are the ten thousands of Ephraim.
And these are the thousands of Manasseh.”
- <sup>18</sup>Moses said this about the people of Zebulun:
“Be happy when you go out, Zebulun.
And be happy in your tents, Issachar.
- <sup>19</sup>They will call the people to the mountain.
And there they will offer the right sacrifices.
They will do well from all that is in the sea.
And they will do well from the treasures hidden in the sand on the shore.”
- <sup>20</sup>Moses said this about the people of Gad:
“Praise God who gives Gad more land!
Gad lives there like a lion.
He tears off arms and heads.
- <sup>21</sup>They chose the best land for themselves.
They received a large share, like that given to an officer.
When the leaders of the people gathered, the people of Gad did what the Lord said was right.
And they judged Israel fairly.”
- <sup>22</sup>Moses said this about the people of Dan:
“Dan is like a lion’s cub,
who jumps out of Bashan.”
- <sup>23</sup>Moses said this about the people of Naphtali: “Naphtali enjoys the Lord’s special kindnesses.
They are full of his blessings.
Their land goes south to Lake Galilee.”
- <sup>24</sup>Moses said this about the people of Asher:
“Asher is the most blessed of the sons.
He should be his brothers’ favorite.
Let him bathe his feet in olive oil.
- <sup>25</sup>Your gates will have locks of iron and bronze.
You will be strong as long as you live.
- <sup>26</sup>“There is no one like the God of Israel.
He rides through the skies to help you.

He rides on the clouds in his majesty.
<sup>27</sup>The everlasting God is your place of safety.
 His arms will hold you up forever.
 He will force your enemy out ahead of you.
 He will say, 'Destroy the enemy!'
<sup>28</sup>The people of Israel will lie down in safety.
 Jacob's spring is theirs alone.
 Theirs is a land full of grain and wine.
 There the skies drop their dew.
<sup>29</sup>Israel, you are blessed!
 No one else is like you.
 You are a people saved by the Lord.
 He is your shield and helper.
 He is your glorious sword.
 Your enemies will be afraid of you.
 You will walk all over their holy places."

Moses Dies

34 Then Moses climbed up Mount Nebo. He went from the plains of Moab to the top of Mount Pisgah. It is across from Jericho. From there the Lord showed him all the land. He could see from Gilead to Dan. <sup>2</sup>He could see all of Naphtali and the lands of Ephraim and Manasseh. He could see all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>3</sup>He could see the southern desert and the whole Valley of Jericho up to Zoar. Jericho is called the city of palm trees. <sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I said to them, 'I will give this land to your descendants.'<sup>4</sup> I have let you look at it, Moses. But you will not cross over there."

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in Moab. It was as the Lord had said. <sup>6</sup>The Lord buried Moses in Moab in the valley opposite Beth Peor. But even today no one knows where his grave is. <sup>7</sup>Moses was 120 years old when he died. His eyes were not weak. And he was still strong. <sup>8</sup>The Israelites cried for Moses for 30 days. They stayed in the plains of Moab until the time of sadness was over.

<sup>9</sup>Joshua son of Nun was then filled with wisdom. Moses had put his hands on Joshua. So the Israelites listened to Joshua. And they did what the Lord had commanded Moses.

JOSHUA

Israel Conquers the Promised Land

God's Command to Joshua

1 Moses was the servant of the Lord. Joshua son of Nun was Moses' assistant. After Moses died, the Lord said to Joshua: <sup>2</sup>"My servant Moses is dead. Now you and all these people go across the Jordan River. Go into the land I am giving to the people of Israel. <sup>3</sup>I promised Moses I would give you this land. So I will give you every place you go in the land. <sup>4</sup>All the land from the desert in the south to Lebanon in the north will be yours. All the land from the great river, the Euphrates, in the east, to the Mediterranean Sea in the west will be yours. This includes the land of the Hittites. <sup>5</sup>Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. No one will be able to stop you all your life. I will not leave you. I will never leave you alone.

<sup>6</sup>"Joshua, be strong and brave! You must lead these people so they can take their land. This is the land I promised their fathers I would give them. <sup>7</sup>Be strong and brave. Be sure to obey all the teachings my servant Moses gave you. If you follow them exactly, you will be successful in everything you do. <sup>8</sup>Always remember what is written in the Book of the Teachings. Study it day and night. Then you will be sure to obey everything that is written there. If you do this, you will be wise and successful in everything. <sup>9</sup>Remember that I commanded you to be strong and brave. So don't be afraid. The Lord your God will be with you everywhere you go."

Joshua's Orders to the People

<sup>10</sup>So Joshua gave orders to the officers of the people. He said, <sup>11</sup>"Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan River. You will go and take the land the Lord your God is giving you.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe<sup>a</sup> of Manasseh. Joshua said, <sup>13</sup>"Remember what Moses, the servant of the Lord, told you. He said the Lord your God would give you rest. And he said the Lord would give you this land. <sup>14</sup>Now the Lord has given you this land east of the Jordan River. Your wives, your children and your animals may stay here. But your fighting men must dress for war and cross the Jordan River ahead of your brothers. You must help your brothers. <sup>15</sup>The Lord has given you a place to rest. He will do the same for your brothers. But you must help them until they take the land. This is the land the Lord their God is giving them. Then you may return to your own land east of the Jordan River. That is the land that Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you."

<sup>16</sup>Then the people answered Joshua, "Anything you command us to do, we will do. Any place you send us, we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we fully obeyed Moses, we will obey you. We ask only that the Lord your God be with you just as he was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Then, if anyone refuses to obey your commands or turns against you, he will be put to death. Just be strong and brave!"

Spies Sent to Jericho

2 Joshua son of Nun secretly sent out two spies from Acacia. Joshua said to them, "Go and look at the land. Look closely at the city of Jericho."

So the men went to Jericho. They went to the house of a prostitute<sup>d</sup> and stayed there. This woman's name was Rahab.

<sup>3</sup>So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: "Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house. They have come to spy out our whole land."

<sup>4</sup>Now the woman had hidden the two men. She said, "They did come here. But I didn't know where they came from. <sup>5</sup>In the evening, when it was time to close the city gate, they left. I don't know where they went. Go quickly. Maybe you can catch them." <sup>6</sup>(But the woman had taken the men up to the roof. <sup>a</sup>She had hidden them there under stalks of flax. <sup>d</sup>She had spread the flax out there to dry.) <sup>7</sup>So the king's men went out looking for the spies from Israel. They went to the places where people cross the Jordan River. The city gate was closed just after the king's men left the city.

<sup>8</sup>The spies were ready to sleep for the night. So Rahab went to the roof and talked to them. <sup>9</sup>She said, "I know the Lord has given this land to your people. You frighten us very much. Everyone living in this land is terribly afraid of you. <sup>10</sup>We are afraid because we have heard how the Lord helped you. We heard how he dried up the Red Sea<sup>d</sup> when you came out of Egypt. We heard how you destroyed Sihon and Og. They were the two Amorite kings who lived east of the Jordan. <sup>11</sup>When we heard this, we became very frightened. Now our men are afraid to fight you. This is because the Lord your God rules the heavens above and the earth below! <sup>12</sup>So now, make me a promise before the Lord. Promise that you will show kindness to my family just as I showed you kindness. Give me some proof that you will do this. <sup>13</sup>Promise me you will allow my family to live. Save my father, mother, brothers, sisters and all of their families from death."

<sup>14</sup>The men agreed. They said, "We will trade our lives for your lives. Don't tell anyone what we are doing. When the Lord gives us our land, we will be kind to you. You may trust us."

<sup>15</sup>The house Rahab lived in was built on the city wall. So she used a rope to let the men down through a window. <sup>16</sup>She said to them, "Go into the hills. The king's men will not find you there. Hide there for three days. After the king's men return, you may go on your way."

<sup>17</sup>The men said to her, "You must do as we say. If not, we cannot be responsible for keeping our promise. <sup>18</sup>You are using a red rope to help us escape. When we return to this land, you must tie it in the window through which you let us down. Bring your father, mother, brothers and all your family into your house. <sup>19</sup>We can keep everyone safe who stays in this house. If anyone in your house is hurt, we will be responsible. If anyone goes out of your house and is killed, it is his own fault. We cannot be responsible for him. <sup>20</sup>But you must not tell anyone about this agreement. If you do, we are free from it."

<sup>21</sup>Rahab answered, "I agree to this." So she sent them away, and they left. Then she tied the red rope in the window.

Nun and told him everything that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup>They said to Joshua, "The Lord surely has given us all of the land. All the people in that land are terribly afraid of us."

Crossing the Jordan

3 Early the next morning Joshua and all the people of Israel left Acacia. They traveled to the Jordan River and camped there before crossing it. <sup>2</sup>After three days the officers went through the camp. <sup>3</sup>They gave orders to the people. They said, "You will see the priests and Levites carrying the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord your God. Then you should leave where you are and follow it. <sup>4</sup>That way you will know which way to go. You have never traveled this way before. But do not follow too closely. Stay about a thousand yards behind the Ark of the Agreement."

<sup>5</sup>Then Joshua told the people, "Make yourselves holy for the Lord. Tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things among you."

<sup>6</sup>Joshua said to the priests, "Take the Ark of the Agreement. Cross over the river ahead of the people." So the priests lifted the Ark and carried it ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to make you a great man to all the Israelites. So the people will know I am with you just as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup>The priests will carry the Ark of the Agreement. Tell them this: 'Go to the edge of the Jordan River and stand in the water.'"

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Come here. Listen to the words of the Lord your God. <sup>10</sup>Here is proof that the living God is with you. Here is proof that he will drive out the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and the Jebusites. <sup>11</sup>This is the proof: The Ark of the Agreement will go ahead of you into the Jordan River. It is the Agreement with the Lord of the whole world. <sup>12</sup>Now choose 12 men from among you. Choose 1 from each of the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>13</sup>The priests will carry the Ark of the Lord, the Master of the whole world. They will carry it into the Jordan ahead of you. When they enter the water, the river will stop flowing. The water will be stopped. It will stand up in a heap as if a dam were there."

<sup>14</sup>So the priests carried the Ark of the Agreement. And the people left the place where they had camped. Then they started across the Jordan River. <sup>15</sup>During harvest the Jordan is flooded. So the river was at its fullest. The priests who were carrying the Ark came to the edge of the river. And they stepped into the water.

Rocks to Remind the People

4 All the people finished crossing the Jordan. Then the Lord said to Joshua, <sup>2</sup>“Choose 12 men from among the people. Choose 1 from each tribe.” <sup>3</sup>Tell the men to get 12 large rocks from the middle of the river. Take them from where the priests stood. Carry the rocks and put them down where you stay tonight.”

<sup>4</sup>So Joshua chose 1 man from each tribe. Then he called the 12 men together. <sup>5</sup>He said to them, “Go out into the river where the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Lord your God is. Each of you should find 1 large rock. There will be 1 rock for each tribe of Israel. Carry the rock on your shoulder. <sup>6</sup>They will be a sign among you. In the future your children will ask you, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ <sup>7</sup>Tell them the Lord stopped the water from flowing in the Jordan. When the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord crossed the river, the water was stopped. These rocks will help the Israelites remember this forever.”

<sup>8</sup>So the Israelites obeyed Joshua. They carried 12 rocks from the middle of the Jordan River. There was 1 rock for each of the 12 tribes of Israel. They did this the way the Lord had commanded Joshua. They carried the rocks with them. And they put them down where they made their camp. <sup>9</sup>Joshua also put 12 rocks in the middle of the Jordan River. He put them where the priests had stood while carrying the Ark of the Lord. These rocks are still there today.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord had commanded Joshua to tell the people what to do. It was what Moses had said Joshua must do. So the priests carrying the Ark continued standing in the middle of the river until everything was done. And the people hurried across the river. <sup>11</sup>The people finished crossing the river. Then the priests carried the Ark of the Lord to the other side. As they carried it, the people watched. <sup>12</sup>The men from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh obeyed what Moses had told them. They were prepared for war. So they crossed the river ahead of the other people. <sup>13</sup>About 40,000 soldiers were prepared for war. They passed before the Lord as they marched across the river. Then they went toward the plains of Jericho to go to war.

<sup>18</sup>So the priests carried the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord out of the river. As soon as their feet touched dry land, the water began flowing again. The river again overflowed its banks. It was just as it had been before they crossed.

<sup>19</sup>The people crossed the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month. They camped at Gilgal, east of Jericho. <sup>20</sup>They carried with them the 12 rocks taken from the Jordan. And Joshua set them up at Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>Then he spoke to the Israelites. He said, “In the future your children will ask you, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ <sup>22</sup>Tell them, ‘Israel crossed the Jordan River on dry land. <sup>23</sup>The Lord your God caused the water to stop flowing. The river was dry until the people finished crossing it. The Lord did the same thing for us at the Jordan that he did for the people at the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup> Remember that he stopped the water at the Red Sea so we could cross. <sup>24</sup>The Lord did this so all people would know he has great power. Then they will always respect the Lord your God.’ ”

5 So the Lord dried up the Jordan River until the Israelites had crossed it. Now all the kings of the Amorites west of the Jordan heard about it. And the Canaanite kings living by the Mediterranean Sea heard about it. They were very scared. After that they were too afraid to face the Israelites.

The Israelites Are Circumcised

<sup>4</sup>This is why Joshua circumcised the men: After the Israelites left Egypt, all the men old enough to serve in the army died. They died in the desert on the way out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>The men who had come out of Egypt had been circumcised. But many were born in the desert on the trip from Egypt. They had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup>The Israelites had moved about in the desert for 40 years. During that time all the fighting men who had left Egypt had died. This was because they had not obeyed the Lord. So the Lord swore they would not see the land. This was the land he had promised their ancestors to give them. It was a land where much food grows. <sup>7</sup>So their sons took their places. But none of the sons born on the trip from Egypt had been circumcised. So Joshua circumcised them. <sup>8</sup>After all the Israelites had been circumcised, they stayed in camp until they were healed.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, "As slaves in Egypt you were ashamed. But today I have removed that shame." So Joshua named that place Gilgal. And it is still named Gilgal today.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Israel were still camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho. It was there, on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, they celebrated the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. <sup>11</sup>The next day after the Passover, the people ate some of the food grown on that land: bread made without yeast and roasted grain. <sup>12</sup>The day they ate this food, the manna<sup>d</sup> stopped coming. The Israelites no longer got the manna from heaven. They ate the food grown in the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>13</sup>Joshua was near Jericho. He looked up and saw a man standing in front of him. The man had a sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and asked, "Are you a friend or an enemy?"

Then Joshua bowed facedown on the ground. He asked, "Does my master have a command for me, his servant?"

<sup>15</sup>The commander of the Lord's army answered, "Take off your sandals. The place where you are standing is holy." So Joshua did.

The Fall of Jericho

6 Now the people of Jericho were afraid because the Israelites were near. So they closed the city gates and guarded them. No one went into the city. And no one came out.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Joshua. He said, "Look, I have given you Jericho, its king and all its fighting men. <sup>3</sup>March around the city with your army one time every day. Do this for six days. <sup>4</sup>Have seven priests carry trumpets made from horns of male sheep. Tell them to march in front of the Ark. <sup>5</sup>On the seventh day march around the city seven times. On that day tell the priests to blow the trumpets as they march. <sup>6</sup>They will make one long blast on the trumpets. When you hear that sound, have all the people give a loud shout. Then the walls of the city will fall. And the people will go straight into the city."

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua son of Nun called the priests together. He said to them, "Carry the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord. Tell seven priests to carry trumpets and march in front of it." <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua ordered the people, "Now go! March around the city. The soldiers with weapons should march in front of the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord."

<sup>8</sup>So Joshua finished speaking to the people. Then the seven priests began marching before the Lord. They carried the seven trumpets and blew them as they marched. The priests carrying the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord followed them. <sup>9</sup>The soldiers with weapons marched in front of the priests. And armed men walked behind the Ark. They were blowing their trumpets. <sup>10</sup>But Joshua had told the people not to give a war cry. He said, "Don't shout. Don't say a word until the day I tell you. Then shout!" <sup>11</sup>So Joshua had the Ark of the Lord carried around the city one time. Then they went back to camp for the night.

<sup>12</sup>Early the next morning Joshua got up. And the priests carried the Ark of the Lord again. <sup>13</sup>The seven priests carried the seven trumpets. They marched in front of the Ark of the Lord, blowing their trumpets. The soldiers with weapons marched in front of them. Other soldiers walked behind the Ark of the Lord. All this time the priests were blowing their trumpets. <sup>14</sup>So on the second day they marched around the city one time. Then they went back to camp. They did this every day for six days.

<sup>15</sup>On the seventh day they got up at dawn. They marched around the city seven times. They marched just as they had on the days before. But on that day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>The seventh time around the priests blew their trumpets. Then Joshua gave the command: "Now, shout! The Lord has given you this city! <sup>17</sup>The city and everything in it are to be destroyed as an offering to the Lord. Only Rahab the prostitute<sup>d</sup> and everyone in her house should remain alive. They must not be killed. This is because Rahab hid the two spies we sent out. <sup>18</sup>Don't take any of the things that are to be destroyed as an offering to the Lord. If you take them and bring them into our camp, then you yourselves will be destroyed. You will also bring trouble to all of Israel. <sup>19</sup>All the silver and gold and things made from bronze and iron belong to the Lord. They must be saved for him."

<sup>22</sup>Joshua spoke to the two men who had spied out the land. Joshua said, "Go into the prostitute's house. Bring her out. And bring out all the people who are with her. Do this because of the promise you made to her." <sup>23</sup>So the two men went into the house and brought out Rahab. They also brought out her father, mother, brothers and all those with her. They put all of her family in a safe place outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Then Israel burned the whole city and everything in it. But they did not burn the things made from silver, gold, bronze and iron. These were saved for the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Joshua saved Rahab the prostitute, her family and all who were with her. He let them live. This was because Rahab had helped the men he had sent to spy out Jericho. Rahab still lives among the Israelites today.

<sup>26</sup>Then Joshua made this important promise. He said:

"Anyone who tries to rebuild this city of Jericho will be punished by a curse from the Lord.

The man who lays the foundation of this city will lose his oldest son.

The man who sets up the gates will lose his youngest son."

<sup>27</sup>So the Lord was with Joshua. And Joshua became famous through all the land.

The Sin of Achan

7 But the people of Israel did not obey the Lord. There was a man from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah named Achan. (He was the son of Carmi and grandson of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah.) Achan kept some of the things that were to be given to the Lord. So the Lord became very angry at the Israelites.

<sup>2</sup>Joshua sent some men from Jericho to Ai. (Ai was near Beth Aven, east of Bethel.) He told them, "Go to Ai and spy out the area." So the men went to spy on Ai.

<sup>3</sup>Later they came back to Joshua. They said, "There are only a few men in Ai to fight against us. So we will not need all our people to defeat them. Send 2,000 or 3,000 men to fight there. There is no need to send all of our people." <sup>4</sup>So about 3,000 men went to Ai. But the people of Ai beat them badly. <sup>5</sup>The people of Ai chased the Israelites. They chased them from the city gate all the way to where stones were cut from the ground. They killed about 36 Israelites as they went down the hill. When the Israelites saw this, they became very afraid.

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua tore his clothes to show how upset he was. He bowed facedown on the ground before the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he stayed there until evening. The leaders of Israel did the same thing. They also threw dirt on their heads to show they were upset. <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua said, "Lord God, you brought our people across the Jordan River. Why did you bring us this far and then let the Amorites destroy us? We should have been happy to stay on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Lord, there is nothing I can say now. Israel has been beaten by the enemy. <sup>9</sup>The Canaanites and all the other people in this country will hear about this. They will surround and kill all of us! Then what will you do for your own great name?"

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Joshua, "Stand up! Why are you down on your face? <sup>11</sup>The Israelites have sinned. They have broken the agreement I commanded them to obey. They took some of the things I commanded them to destroy. They have stolen from me. They have lied. They have taken those things for themselves. <sup>12</sup>That is why the Israelites cannot face their enemies. They turn away from the fight and run. I have commanded that they be destroyed. You must destroy everything I commanded you to destroy. I will not help you anymore unless you do this.

<sup>13</sup>"Now go! Have the people make themselves holy for me. Tell them, "Set yourselves apart to the Lord for tomorrow. The Lord, the God of Israel, says some of you are keeping things he commanded you to destroy. You will never defeat your enemies until you throw away those things.

<sup>14</sup>"Tomorrow morning you must all stand before the Lord. All the tribes will stand before him. The Lord will choose one tribe. And that tribe must stand alone before him. Then the Lord will choose one family group from that tribe. And that family group must stand alone before him. Then the Lord will choose one family from that family group. And it must stand alone before him. Then the Lord will look at that family man by man. <sup>15</sup>The man who is keeping what should have been destroyed will himself be destroyed by fire. And everything he owns will be destroyed with him. He has broken the agreement with the Lord. He has done a disgraceful thing among the people of Israel!"

<sup>16</sup>Early the next morning Joshua led all of Israel before the Lord. All of the tribes stood before him. And the Lord chose the tribe of Judah. <sup>17</sup>So all the family groups of Judah stood before the Lord. The Lord then chose the family group of Zerah. And all the families of Zerah stood before the Lord. Then the family of Zimri was chosen. <sup>18</sup>And Joshua told all the men in that family to come before the Lord. The Lord chose Achan son of Carmi. (Carmi was the son of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah.)

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, you should tell the truth. Confess to the Lord, the God of Israel. Tell me what you did. Don't try to hide anything from me."

<sup>20</sup>Achan answered, "It is true! I have sinned against the Lord, the God of Israel. This is what I did: <sup>21</sup>Among the things I saw was a beautiful coat from Babylonia. And I saw about five pounds of silver and more than one and one-quarter pounds of gold. I wanted these things very much for myself. So I took them. You will find them buried in the ground under my tent. The silver is under the coat."

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent some men to the tent. They ran to the tent and found the things hidden there. The silver was under the coat. <sup>23</sup>The men brought them out of the tent. Then they took them to Joshua and all the Israelites. They spread them out on the ground before the Lord. <sup>24</sup>Then Joshua and all the people led Achan son of Zerah to the Valley of Trouble. They also took the silver, the coat and the gold. They took Achan's sons, daughters, cattle, donkeys, sheep, tent and everything he owned. <sup>25</sup>Joshua said, "I don't know why you caused so much trouble for us. But now the Lord will bring trouble to you." Then all the people threw stones at Achan until he died. They also killed his family with stones. Then the people burned them. <sup>26</sup>They piled rocks over Achan's body. And those rocks are still there today. That is why it is called the Valley of Trouble. After this the Lord was no longer angry.

Ai Is Destroyed

8 Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid. Don't give up. Lead all your fighting men to Ai. I will help you defeat the king of Ai. I am giving you his people, his city and his land. <sup>2</sup>You will do to Ai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king. Only this time you may take all the wealth. You may keep it for yourselves. Now tell some of your soldiers to set up an ambush behind the city."

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua led his whole army toward Ai. Then he chose 30,000 of his best fighting men. He sent these men out at night. <sup>4</sup>Joshua gave them these orders: "Listen carefully. You must set up an ambush behind the city. Don't go far from it. Continue to watch and be ready. <sup>5</sup>I and the men who are with me will march toward the city. The men in the city will come out to fight us. Then we will turn and run away from them as we did before. <sup>6</sup>They will chase us away from the city. They will think we are running away from them as we did before. When we run away, <sup>7</sup>come out from your ambush and take the city. The Lord your God will give you the power to win. <sup>8</sup>After you take the city, burn it. See to it! You have your orders."

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua sent them to their place of ambush to wait. They went to a place between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. But Joshua stayed the night with his people.

<sup>10</sup>Early the next morning Joshua gathered his men together. He and the older leaders of Israel led them to Ai. <sup>11</sup>All of the soldiers who were with Joshua marched to Ai. They stopped in front of the city and made camp north of Ai. There was a valley between them and the city. <sup>12</sup>Then Joshua chose about 5,000 men. He set them in ambush in the area west of the city between Bethel and Ai. <sup>13</sup>So the people took their positions. The main camp was north of the city. The other men were hiding to the west. That night Joshua went down into the valley.

<sup>14</sup>Now the king of Ai saw the army of Israel. So he and his people got up early the next morning and hurried out to fight them. They went out to a place east of the city. The king did not know soldiers were waiting in ambush behind the city. <sup>15</sup>Joshua and all the men of Israel let the army of Ai push them back. Then they ran east toward the desert. <sup>16</sup>The men in Ai were called to chase Joshua and his men. So they left the city and went after them. <sup>17</sup>All the men of Ai and Bethel chased the army of Israel. The city was left open. Not a man stayed to protect it.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Hold your spear toward Ai. I will give you that city." So Joshua held his spear toward the city of Ai. <sup>19</sup>The men of Israel who were in ambush saw this. They quickly came out of their hiding place and hurried toward the city. They entered the city and took control of it. Then they quickly set it on fire.

smoke rising from their city. At the same time the men of Israel stopped running. They turned against the men of Ai. The men of Ai could not escape in any direction. <sup>21</sup>Joshua and all his men saw that the army had taken control of the city. They saw the smoke rising from it. So they stopped running and turned to fight the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>The men who were in ambush also came out of the city to help with the fight. The men of Ai were caught between the armies of Israel. The Israelites fought until not one of the men of Ai was left alive. None of the enemy escaped. <sup>23</sup>But the king of Ai was left alive. And Joshua's men brought him to Joshua.

A Review of the Fighting

<sup>24</sup>During the fighting the army of Israel chased the men of Ai into the fields and desert. So the Israelites killed all of them in the fields and desert. Then they went back to Ai and killed everyone there. <sup>25</sup>All the people of Ai died that day, 12,000 men and women. <sup>26</sup>Joshua had held his spear toward Ai. It was a sign to his people to destroy the city. And Joshua held out his spear until all the people of Ai were destroyed. <sup>27</sup>The people of Israel kept the animals for themselves. They also kept the other things the people of Ai had owned. This is what the Lord told them to do when he gave Joshua the commands.

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua burned the city of Ai. It became an empty pile of ruins. And it is still like that today. <sup>29</sup>Joshua hung the king of Ai on a tree. He left him hanging there until evening. At sunset Joshua told his men to take the king's body down from the tree. He told them to throw it down at the city gate. Then they covered it with rocks. That pile of rocks is still there today.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar for the Lord, the God of Israel. He built it on Mount Ebal, as <sup>31</sup>Moses, the Lord's servant, had commanded. Joshua built the altar as it was explained in the Book of the Teachings of Moses. The altar was made from stones that were not cut. No tool was ever used on them. The Israelites offered burnt offerings to the Lord on that altar. They also offered fellowship offerings. <sup>32</sup>There Joshua wrote the teachings of Moses on stones. He did this for all the people of Israel to see. <sup>33</sup>The older leaders, officers, judges and all the Israelites were there. They were standing around the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. They stood before the priests, the Levites who had carried the Ark. Israelites and non-Israelites were all standing there. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Ebal. The other half stood in front of Mount Gerizim. This was the way the Lord's servant Moses had earlier commanded the people to be blessed.

<sup>34</sup>Then Joshua read all the words of the teachings. He read the blessings and the curses. He read it exactly as it was written in the Book of the Teachings. <sup>35</sup>All the Israelites were gathered together. All the women and children were there. All the non-Israelites living with the Israelites were there. Joshua read every command that Moses had given.

The Gibeonite Trickery

9 All the kings west of the Jordan River heard about these things. These were the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. They lived in the mountains and on the western mountain slopes. They also lived along the whole Mediterranean Sea coast. <sup>2</sup>All these kings gathered to fight Joshua and the Israelites.

The men spoke to Joshua and the men of Israel. They said, "We have traveled from a faraway country. Make a peace agreement with us."

<sup>7</sup>The men of Israel said to these Hivites, "Maybe you live near us. How can we make a peace agreement with you?"

<sup>8</sup>The Hivites said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

But Joshua asked, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

<sup>9</sup>The men answered, "We are your servants. We have come from a far country. We came because we heard of the fame of the Lord your God. We heard about what he has done. We heard about everything he did in Egypt. <sup>10</sup>We heard that he defeated the two kings of the Amorites. They were from the east side of the Jordan River: Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan who was king in Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup>So our older leaders and our people spoke to us. They said, 'Take food for your journey. Go and meet the Israelites. Tell them, "We are your servants. Make a peace agreement with us."' " was warm and fresh. But now it is dry and moldy. <sup>13</sup>Look at our leather winebags. When we left home they were new and filled with wine. Now they are cracked and old. Look at our clothes and sandals. The long journey has almost destroyed them."

<sup>14</sup>The men of Israel tasted the bread. But they did not ask the Lord what to do. <sup>15</sup>So Joshua agreed to make peace with the Gibeonites. He agreed to let them live. The leaders of the Israelites made a promise to keep the agreement.

<sup>16</sup>Three days later the Israelites learned that the Gibeonites lived nearby. <sup>17</sup>So the Israelites went to where they lived. On the third day the Israelites came to their cities. The cities were Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18</sup>But the Israelites did not attack those cities. They had made a promise to them before the Lord, the God of Israel.

All the Israelites grumbled against the leaders who had made the agreement. <sup>19</sup>But the leaders answered, "We have given our promise before the Lord, the God of Israel. We cannot attack them now. <sup>20</sup>This is what we must do. We must let them live. We cannot hurt them, or God's anger will be against us. We would be breaking the promise we made to them. <sup>21</sup>So let them live. But they will cut wood and carry water for our people." So the leaders kept their promise of peace to them.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua called for the Gibeonites. He said, "Why did you lie to us? Your land was near our camp. But you told us you were from a far country. <sup>23</sup>Now, you will be placed under a curse. You will be our slaves. You will have to cut wood and carry water for the people of the house of God."

<sup>24</sup>The Gibeonites answered Joshua, "We lied to you because we were afraid you would kill us. We heard that God commanded his servant Moses to give you all of this land. And God told you to kill all the people who lived in the land. That is why we did this. <sup>25</sup>Now you can decide what to do with us. You can do anything to us that you think is right."

<sup>26</sup>So Joshua saved their lives. He did not allow the Israelites to kill them. <sup>27</sup>But Joshua made the Gibeonites slaves to the Israelites. They cut wood and carried water for the Israelites. And they did it for the altar of the Lord—wherever he chose it to be. They are still doing this today.

The Sun Stands Still

10 At this time Adoni-Zedek was the king of Jerusalem. He heard that Joshua had defeated Ai and completely destroyed it. He learned that Joshua had done the same thing to Jericho and its king. The king also learned that the Gibeonites had made a peace agreement with Israel. And they lived very near Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>So Adoni-Zedek and his people were very afraid because of this. Gibeon was not a little town like Ai. It was a large city. It was as big as a city that had a king. All its men were good fighters. <sup>29</sup>So Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent a message to Hoham king of Hebron. He also sent it to Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon. The king of Jerusalem begged these men, <sup>44</sup>"Come with me and help me attack Gibeon. Gibeon has made a peace agreement with Joshua and the Israelites."

<sup>5</sup>Then these five Amorite kings joined their armies. They were the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon. These armies went to Gibeon, surrounded it and attacked it.

<sup>6</sup>The Gibeonites sent a message to Joshua in his camp at Gilgal. The message said: "We are your servants. Don't let us be destroyed. Come quickly and help us! Save us! All the Amorite kings from the mountains have joined their armies. They are fighting against us."

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua marched out of Gilgal with his whole army. His best fighting men were with him. <sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid of those armies. I will allow you to defeat them. None of them will be able to defeat you."

<sup>9</sup>Joshua and his army marched all night to Gibeon. So Joshua surprised them when he attacked. <sup>10</sup>The Lord confused those armies when Israel attacked. So Israel defeated them in a great victory. They chased them from Gibeon on the road going to Beth Horon. The army of Israel killed men all the way to Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>They chased the enemy down the road from Beth Horon to Azekah. While they were chasing them, the Lord threw large hailstones on them from the sky. Many of the enemy were killed by the hailstones. More men were killed by the hailstones than the Israelites killed with their swords.

<sup>12</sup>That day the Lord allowed the Israelites to defeat the Amorites. And that day Joshua stood before all the people of Israel and said to the Lord:

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon.

Moon, stand still over the Valley of Aijalon."

<sup>13</sup>So the sun stood still.

And the moon stopped until the people defeated their enemies. These words are written in the Book of Jashar.

The sun stopped in the middle of the sky. It waited to go down for a full day. <sup>14</sup>That has never happened at any time before that day or since. That was the day the Lord listened to a man. Truly the Lord was fighting for Israel!

<sup>22</sup>Joshua said, "Move the rocks that are covering the opening to the cave. Bring those five kings out to me." <sup>23</sup>So Joshua's men brought the five kings out of the cave. They were the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon. <sup>24</sup>They brought the five kings out to Joshua. He called all his men to come to that place. He said to the commanders of his army, "Come here! Put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came close and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to his men, "Be strong and brave! Don't be afraid. I will show you what the Lord will do to the enemies you will fight in the future." <sup>26</sup>Then Joshua killed the five kings. He hung their bodies on five trees. And he left them hanging on the trees until evening.

<sup>27</sup>At sunset Joshua told his men to take the bodies down from the trees. Then they threw their bodies into the same cave where they had been hiding. They covered the opening to the cave with large rocks. They are still there today.

<sup>28</sup>That day Joshua defeated Makkedah. He killed the king and completely destroyed all the people in that city. He killed them as an offering to the Lord. There was no one left alive. He did the same thing to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Defeating Southern Cities

<sup>29</sup>Then Joshua and all the Israelites traveled from Makkedah. They went to Libnah and attacked it. <sup>30</sup>The Lord allowed them to defeat it and its king. They killed every person in the city. No one was left alive. And they did the same thing to that king as they had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joshua and all the Israelites left Libnah and went to Lachish. They camped around Lachish and attacked it. <sup>32</sup>The Lord allowed them to defeat Lachish. On the second day Joshua defeated it. The Israelites killed everyone in that city. This was the same thing they had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>During this same time Horam king of Gezer came to help Lachish. But Joshua also defeated him and his army. There was no one left alive.

<sup>34</sup>Then Joshua and all the Israelites went from Lachish to Eglon. They camped around Eglon and attacked it. <sup>35</sup>That day they captured Eglon. They killed all its people and completely destroyed everything in it as an offering to the Lord. This is the same thing they had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>Then Joshua and the Israelites went from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it. <sup>37</sup>They captured it and all the little towns near it. The Israelites killed everyone in Hebron. No one was left alive there. This was the same thing they had done to Eglon. They completely destroyed the city and all its people as an offering to the Lord.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua and the Israelites went back to Debir and attacked it. <sup>39</sup>They captured that city, its king and all the little towns near it. They completely destroyed everyone in Debir as an offering to the Lord. No one was left alive there. Israel did to Debir and its king the same thing they had done to Libnah and its king. This was what they had done to Hebron.

<sup>40</sup>So Joshua defeated all the kings of the cities of these areas: the mountains, southern Canaan, the western mountain slopes and the eastern mountain slopes. The Lord, the God of Israel, had told Joshua to completely destroy all the people as an offering to the Lord. So he left no one alive in those places. <sup>41</sup>Joshua captured all the cities from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza. And he captured all the cities from Goshen to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>He captured all these cities and their kings on one trip. He did it because the Lord, the God of Israel, was fighting for Israel.

Defeating Northern Kings

11 Jabin king of Hazor heard about all that had happened. He sent messages to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron and to the king of Acshaph. <sup>2</sup>He sent one to the kings in the northern mountains. Jabin also sent a message to the kings in the Jordan Valley south of Lake Galilee and in the western mountain slopes. He sent a message to the king of Naphoth Dor in the west. <sup>3</sup>Jabin also sent one to the kings of the Canaanites in the east and in the west. He sent messages to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites in the mountains. Jabin also sent one to the Hivites. They lived below Mount Hermon in the area of Mizpah. <sup>4</sup>So the armies of all these kings came together. There were many fighting men, horses and chariots. It was a huge army. It looked like there were as many men as grains of sand on the seashore.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid of them. At this time tomorrow I will allow you to defeat them. You will kill all of them. You will cripple their horses and burn all their chariots."

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua went back and captured the city of Hazor. He killed the king of Hazor. (Hazor had been the leader of all the kingdoms that fought against Israel.) <sup>11</sup>Israel killed everyone in Hazor. They completely destroyed them. There was nothing left alive. Then they burned Hazor itself.

<sup>12</sup>Joshua captured all of these cities. He killed all of their kings. He completely destroyed everything in these cities. He did this the way Moses, the servant of the Lord, had commanded. <sup>13</sup>But the Israelites did not burn any cities that were built on their hills, except Hazor. That city alone was burned by Joshua. <sup>14</sup>The people of Israel kept for themselves everything they found in the cities. They kept all the animals they found. But they killed all the people there. They did not leave anyone alive. <sup>15</sup>Long ago the Lord had commanded his servant Moses to do this. Then Moses had commanded Joshua to do it. So Joshua obeyed God. He did everything the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua defeated all the people in the land. He had control of the mountains and the area of southern Canaan. He controlled all the areas of Goshen, the western mountain slopes and the Jordan Valley. He controlled the mountains of Israel and all the hills near them. <sup>17</sup>Joshua controlled all the land from Mount Halak near Edom to Baal Gad. Baal Gad was in the Valley of Lebanon, below Mount Hermon. Joshua captured all the kings in the land and killed them. <sup>18</sup>He fought against them for many years. <sup>19</sup>The people of only one city in all the land had made a peace agreement with Israel. They were the Hivites living in Gibeon. All the other cities were defeated in war. <sup>20</sup>The Lord made those people stubborn so they would fight against Israel. This way he could completely destroy them without mercy. This is what the Lord had commanded Moses to do.

Kings Defeated by Israel

12 The Israelites took control of the land east of the Jordan River. They now had all the land from the Arnon Ravine to Mount Hermon. And they had all the land along the eastern side of the Jordan Valley. Here are all the kings the Israelites defeated to take this land:

Edrei. <sup>5</sup>He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah and all the area of Bashan. His land ended where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived. Og also ruled half the land of Gilead. It stopped at the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord's servant Moses and the Israelites defeated all these kings. And Moses gave that land to the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Reuben and Gad and to the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. This land was to be their own.

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites also defeated kings in the land that was west of the Jordan River. Joshua led the people in this land. He gave the people this land and divided it among the 12 tribes. This was the land that was promised to them. It was between Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon and Mount Halak near Edom. <sup>8</sup>This included the mountains, the western mountain slopes and the Jordan Valley. It also included the eastern mountain slopes, the desert and southern Canaan. This was the land where the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites had lived. The people of Israel defeated the king of each of the following cities: <sup>9</sup>Jericho, Ai (near Bethel), <sup>10</sup>Jerusalem, Hebron, <sup>11</sup>Jarmuth, Lachish, <sup>12</sup>Eglon, Gezer, <sup>13</sup>Debir, Geder, <sup>14</sup>Hormah, Arad, <sup>15</sup>Libnah, Adullam, <sup>16</sup>Makkedah, Bethel, <sup>17</sup>Tappuah, Hopher, <sup>18</sup>Aphek, Lasharon, <sup>19</sup>Madon, Hazor, <sup>20</sup>Shimron Meron, Acshaph, <sup>21</sup>Taanach, Megiddo, <sup>22</sup>Kedesh, Jokneam in Carmel, <sup>23</sup>Dor (in Na-photh Dor), Goyim in Gilgal, and <sup>24</sup>Tirzah.

The total number of kings was 31.

Land Still to Be Taken

13 When Joshua was very old, the Lord spoke to him. He said, "Joshua, you have grown old. But there is still much land for you to take. <sup>2</sup>You have not yet taken the land of Geshur and the land of the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>You have not yet taken the area from the Shihor River at the border of Egypt to Ekron in the north. That belongs to the Canaanites. You must still defeat the five Philistine leaders. They are at Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron. You must also defeat the Avvites. <sup>4</sup>They live south of the Canaanite land. <sup>5</sup>You have not yet defeated the GEBALITES. And there is also the area of Lebanon east of Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

<sup>6</sup>"The Sidonians are living in the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim. But I will force out all of them ahead of the Israelites. Be sure to remember this land when you divide the land among the Israelites. Do this as I told you.

<sup>7</sup>"Now divide the land among the nine tribes<sup>d</sup> and the western half-tribe of Manasseh."

Dividing the Land

<sup>8</sup>The eastern half-tribe<sup>d</sup> of Manasseh and the tribes of Reuben and Gad had received their land. The Lord's servant Moses gave them the land east of the Jordan River. <sup>9</sup>Their land started at Aroer at the Arnon Ravine. It continued to the town in the middle of the ravine. And it included the whole plain from Medeba to Dibon. <sup>10</sup>All the towns that Sihon king of the Amorites ruled were in that land. He ruled in the city of Heshbon. The land continued to the area where the Ammonites lived. <sup>11</sup>Gilead was also there. And the area where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived was in that land. All of Mount Hermon and all of Bashan as far as Salecah was included. <sup>12</sup>All the kingdom of Og king of Bashan was in the land. In the past he ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. Og was one of the last of the Rephaites.<sup>d</sup> In the past Moses had defeated them and had taken their land. <sup>13</sup>The Israelites did not force out the people of Geshur and Maacah. They still live among the Israelites today.

<sup>14</sup>The tribe of Levi was the only one that did not get any land. Instead, they were to be given all the burned sacrifices made to the Lord, the God of Israel. That is what the Lord had promised them.

<sup>15</sup>Moses had given each family group from the tribe of Reuben some land. This is the land they were given: <sup>16</sup>It was the land from Aroer near the Arnon Ravine to the town of Medeba. This included the whole plain and the town in the middle of the ravine. <sup>17</sup>The land continued to Heshbon. It included all the towns on the plain. These towns were Dibon, Bamoth Baal and Beth Baal Meon. <sup>18</sup>They included Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup>Kiriathaim, Sibmah and Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley. <sup>20</sup>They also included Beth Peor, the hills of Pisgah and Beth Jeshimoth. <sup>21</sup>So that land included all the towns on the plain and all the area that Sihon the king of the Amorites had ruled. He ruled from the town of Heshbon. But Moses had defeated him and the leaders of the Midianites. Those leaders included Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba. All these leaders fought together with Sihon. And they lived in that country. <sup>22</sup>The Israelites killed many people during the fighting. They also killed Balaam of Beor. He tried to use magic to tell the future. <sup>23</sup>The land given to Reuben stopped at the shore of the Jordan River. So the land given to the family groups of Reuben included all these towns and their fields that were listed.

<sup>24</sup>This is the land Moses gave to the tribe of Gad. He gave it to all the family groups: <sup>25</sup>He gave them the land of Jazar and all the towns of Gilead. He also gave them half the land of the Ammonites. It went as far as Aroer near Rabbah. <sup>26</sup>It included the area from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim. It included the area from Mahanaim to the land of Debir. <sup>27</sup>The land included the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon. All the other land Sihon king of Heshbon had ruled was also included in it. This is the land on the east side of the Jordan River. It continued to the end of Lake Galilee. <sup>28</sup>All this is the land Moses gave to the tribe of Gad. It included all the towns that were listed. Moses gave it to all the family groups.

<sup>29</sup>This is the land Moses had given to the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. Half of all the family groups in the tribe of Manasseh were given this land: <sup>30</sup>The land started at Mahanaim. It included all of Bashan and the land ruled by Og king of Bashan. It also included all the towns of Jair in Bashan. There were 60 cities in all. <sup>31</sup>It also included half of Gilead, Ashtaroth and Edrei. (These were the cities where Og king of Bashan had ruled.) All this land had been given to the family of Makir son of Manasseh. Half of all his sons had been given this land.

<sup>32</sup>Moses had given this land to these tribes on the plains of Moab. It was across the Jordan River east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup>But Moses had given no land to the tribe of Levi. The Lord, the God of Israel, promised that he himself would be the gift for the Levites.

14 Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the leaders of all the tribes of Israel decided what land to give to the people. <sup>2</sup>The Lord had commanded Moses long ago how he wanted the people to choose their land. The people of the nine-and-a-half tribes threw lots<sup>d</sup> to decide which land they would receive. <sup>3</sup>Moses had already given the two-and-a-half tribes their land east of the Jordan River. But the tribe of Levi was not given any land like the others. <sup>4</sup>The sons of Joseph had divided into two tribes—Manasseh and Ephraim. The tribe of Levi was not given any land. It was given only some towns in which to live. It was also given pastures for its animals. <sup>5</sup>The Lord had told Moses how to give the land to the tribes of Israel. The Israelites divided the land as the Lord had commanded.

Caleb's Land

<sup>6</sup>One day some men from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah went to Joshua at Gilgal. One of those men was Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite. He said to Joshua, "You remember what the Lord said at Kadesh Barnea. He was speaking to the prophet Moses about you and me. <sup>7</sup>Moses, the Lord's servant, sent me to look at the land where we were going. I was 40 years old then. When I came back, I told Moses what I thought about the land. <sup>8</sup>The other men who went with me told the people things that made them afraid. But I fully believed the Lord would allow us to take the land. <sup>9</sup>So that day Moses promised me, 'The land where you went will become your land. Your children will own it forever. I will give you that land because you fully believed in the Lord, my God.'

<sup>10</sup>"Now then, the Lord has kept his promise. He has kept me alive for 45 years from the time he said this to Moses. During that time we all wandered in the desert. Now here I am, 85 years old. <sup>11</sup>I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. I am just as ready to fight now as I was then. <sup>12</sup>So give me the mountain country the Lord promised me that day long ago. Back then you heard that the Anakite<sup>d</sup> people lived there. And the cities were large and well protected. But now with the Lord helping me, I will force them out, just as the Lord said."

<sup>13</sup>Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh. He gave him the city of Hebron as his own. <sup>14</sup>And Hebron still belongs to the family of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite. It still belongs to his people because he had faith. He obeyed the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>(In the past it was called Kiriath Arba. It was named for the greatest man among the Anakites. He was named Arba.)

After this there was peace in the land.

Land for Judah

15 The land that was given to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah was divided among all the family groups. It went all the way to the Desert of Zin in the far south, at the border of Edom.

<sup>5</sup>The eastern border was the shore of the Dead Sea. It went as far as the area where the Jordan River flowed into the sea.

The northern border started at the area where the Jordan River flowed into the Dead Sea. <sup>6</sup>Then it went to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah. It continued to the stone of Bohan. Bohan was the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>Then the northern border went through the Valley of Achor to Debir. There it turned toward the north and went to Gilgal. Gilgal is across from the road that goes through the mountain of Adummim. It is on the south side of the ravine. The border continued along the waters of En Shemesh. It stopped at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>Then it went through the Valley of Ben Hinnom. This is next to the southern side of the Jebusite city. (That city was called Jerusalem.) There the border went to the top of the hill on the west side of Hinnom Valley. This was at the northern end of the Valley of Giants. <sup>9</sup>From there it went to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah. Then it went to the cities near Mount Ephron. There it turned and went toward Baalah. (Baalah is also called Kiriath Jearim.) <sup>10</sup>At Baalah the border turned west and went toward Mount Edom. It continued along the north side of Mount Jearim (also called Kesalon) and came to Beth Shemesh. From there it went past Timnah. <sup>11</sup>Then it went to the hill north of Ekron. From there it turned toward Shikkeron and went past Mount Baalah. It continued on to Jabneel and ended at the sea.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord had commanded Joshua to give Caleb son of Jephunneh part of the land in Judah. So he gave Caleb the land God had commanded. He gave him the town of Kiriath Arba, also called Hebron. (Arba was the father of Anak.) <sup>14</sup>Caleb forced out the three Anakite families living in Hebron. Those families were Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai. They were descendants of Anak. <sup>15</sup>Then he fought against the people living in Debir. (In the past Debir had been called Kiriath Sepher.) <sup>16</sup>Caleb said, "I want a man to attack and capture Kiriath Sepher. I will give him Acsah, my daughter, as a wife." <sup>17</sup>Othniel son of Kenaz defeated the city. So Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife. <sup>18</sup>Acsah wanted Othniel to ask her father Caleb for more land.

So Acsah went to her father. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you want?"

<sup>19</sup>Acsah answered, "I would like a special favor. The land you gave me is very dry. So also give me land with springs of water on it."

So Caleb gave her land with springs of water on the upper and lower part of it.

Beth Tappuah and Aphekah; <sup>54</sup>Humtah, Kiriath Arba (also called Hebron) and Zior. There were 9 towns and all their fields.

<sup>60</sup>The people of Judah were also given the 2 towns of Rabbah and Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim).

<sup>61</sup>Judah was given towns in the desert. Here are those towns: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah, <sup>62</sup>Nibshan, the City of Salt and En Gedi. There were 6 towns and all their fields.

<sup>63</sup>The army of Judah was not able to force out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. So the Jebusites still live among the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

<sup>5</sup>This is the land that was given to the family groups of Ephraim: Their border started at Ataroth Addar in the east. It went to Upper Beth Horon <sup>6</sup>and then to the sea. From Micmethath it turned eastward toward Taanath Shiloh and continued eastward to Janoah. <sup>7</sup>Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah. It continued until it touched Jericho and stopped at the Jordan River. <sup>8</sup>The border went from Tappuah west to Kanah Ravine and went to the sea. This is all the land that was given to the Ephraimites. Each family group in the tribe got a part of this land. <sup>9</sup>Many of the border towns of Ephraim were actually within Manasseh's borders. But the people of Ephraim got those towns and their fields. <sup>10</sup>The Ephraimites could not force the Canaanites to leave Gezer. So the Canaanites still live among the Ephraimites today. But they became slaves of the Ephraimites.

17 Then land was given to the tribe of Manasseh. He was Joseph's first son. Manasseh's first son was Makir, the father of Gilead. Makir was a great soldier. So the lands of Gilead and Bashan were given to his family. <sup>2</sup>Land was also given to the other family groups of Manasseh. They were Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hephher and Shemida. These were all the other sons of Manasseh son of Joseph.

<sup>3</sup>Zelophehad was the son of Hephher. Hephher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir, and Makir was the son of Manasseh. But Zelophehad had no sons. He had five daughters. The daughters were named Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>The daughters went to Eleazar the priest. They also went to Joshua son of Nun and all the leaders. They said, "The Lord told Moses to give us land like the men received." So Eleazar obeyed the Lord and gave the daughters some land. These daughters received land just as the brothers of their father did. <sup>5</sup>So the tribe of Manasseh had ten sections of land west of the Jordan River. They also had two more sections, Gilead and Bashan. These sections were on the other side of the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>The daughters of Manasseh got land just as the sons did. Gilead was given to the rest of the families of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>The lands of Manasseh were in the area between Asher and Micmethath. This is near Shechem. The border went south to the En Tappuah area. <sup>8</sup>The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh. But the town of Tappuah did not. It was along the border of Manasseh's land and belonged to the sons of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>The border of Manasseh continued south to Kanah Ravine. The cities in this area of Manasseh belonged to Ephraim. Manasseh's border was on the north side of the ravine and went to the sea. <sup>10</sup>The land to the south belonged to Ephraim. And the land to the north belonged to Manasseh. The Mediterranean Sea was the western border. The border touched Asher's land on the north. And it touched Issachar's land on the east.

<sup>11</sup>In the areas of Issachar and Asher, the people of Manasseh owned Beth Shan and its small towns. They also owned Ibleam and its small towns. And they owned all the people who lived in Dor and its small towns. They owned the people in Naphoth Dor and its small towns. And they owned all the people who lived in Taanach and its small towns. Manasseh also owned the people in Megiddo and its small towns. <sup>12</sup>Manasseh was not able to defeat those cities. So the Canaanites continued to live there. <sup>13</sup>But the Israelites grew strong. When this happened, they forced the Canaanites to work for them. But they did not force them to leave the land.

<sup>14</sup>The people from the tribes of Joseph spoke to Joshua. They said, "You gave us only one area of land. But we are many people. Why did you give us only one part of all the land the Lord gave his people?"

<sup>15</sup>And Joshua answered them, "You have many people. Go up to the forest. Make a place for yourselves to live there. This is in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaites.<sup>d</sup> The mountain country of Ephraim is too small for you."

<sup>16</sup>The people of Joseph said, "It is true. The mountain country of Ephraim is not enough for us. But the land where the Canaanites live is dangerous. They are skilled fighters. They have powerful weapons in Beth Shan and all the small towns in that area. And they are also in the Valley of Jezreel."

<sup>17</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the people of Joseph—to Ephraim and to Manasseh. He said, "But there are many of you. And you have great power. You should be given more than one share of land. <sup>18</sup>You also will have the mountain country. It is a forest. But you can cut down the trees and make it a good place to live. And you will own all of it. You will force the Canaanites to leave the land. You can defeat them even though they have powerful weapons and are strong."

The Rest of the Land Divided

18 All of the Israelites gathered together in Shiloh. There they set up the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> The Israelites controlled that country. They had defeated all the enemies there. <sup>2</sup>But there were still seven tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel that had not yet received the land God had promised them.

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua said to the Israelites: "Why do you wait so long to take your land? The Lord, the God of your fathers, has given this land to you. <sup>4</sup>So each tribe should choose three men. I will send them out to study the land. They will describe in writing the land their tribe wants as its share. Then they will come back to me. <sup>5</sup>They will divide the land into seven parts. The people of Judah will keep their land in the south. The people of Joseph will keep their land in the north. <sup>6</sup>But you should divide the land into seven parts. Describe the seven parts in writing. Then bring what you have written to me. We will let the Lord our God decide which tribe will get which land. <sup>7</sup>But the Levites do not get any part of these lands. They are priests, and their work is to serve the Lord. Gad, Reuben and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh have received the land promised to them. They are on the east side of the Jordan River. Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave it to them."

<sup>8</sup>So the men who were chosen started into the land. Their plan was to describe it in writing and take it back to Joshua. Joshua told them, "Go and study the land. Describe it in writing. Then come back to me. Then I will ask the Lord to choose the land you should get. We will do this here in Shiloh." <sup>9</sup>So the men left and went into the land. They studied it and described it in writing for Joshua. They studied each town. They saw that the land had seven parts. They described it in writing and then came back to Joshua. He was still at the camp at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>Then Joshua asked the Lord to help. He threw lots<sup>d</sup> to choose the lands that should be given to each tribe.

Land for Benjamin

<sup>11</sup>The first part of the land was given to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. Each family group in the tribe of Benjamin received some land. They were given the land between the land of Judah and the land of Joseph. This is the land chosen for Benjamin:

<sup>12</sup>The northern border started at the Jordan River. It went along the northern edge of Jericho. Then it went west into the mountains. That boundary continued until it was just east of Beth Aven. <sup>13</sup>From there it went south to Luz (also called Bethel). Then it went down to Ataroth Addar. Ataroth Addar is on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

<sup>14</sup>There is a hill to the south of Beth Horon. At this hill the border turned and went south near the western side of the hill. It went to Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim). This is a town where people of Judah lived. It was the western border.

Reuben. <sup>18</sup>The border continued to the northern part of Beth Arabah. Then it went down into the Jordan Valley. <sup>19</sup>From there it went to the northern part of Beth Hoglah. It ended at the north shore of the Dead Sea. <sup>d</sup>This is where the Jordan River flows into the sea. This was the southern border.

<sup>20</sup>The Jordan River was the border on the eastern side. So this was the land given to the family groups of Benjamin. These were the borders on all sides.

Land for Simeon

19 The second part of the land was given to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Simeon. Each family group received some of the land. It was inside the area of Judah. <sup>2</sup>They received Beersheba (also called Sheba), Moladah, <sup>3</sup>Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup>Eltolad, Bethul and Hormah. <sup>5</sup>They also received Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, <sup>6</sup>Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen. There were 13 towns and all their fields.

<sup>7</sup>They also received the towns of Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan. There were 4 towns and all their fields. <sup>8</sup>They also received all the very small areas with people living in them as far as Baalath Beer. (This is the same as Ramah in southern Canaan.) So these were the lands given to the tribe of Simeon. Each family group received some of the land. <sup>9</sup>The land of the Simeonites was taken from part of the land of Judah. Judah had much more land than they needed. So the Simeonites received part of their land.

Land for Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>The third part of the land was given to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Zebulun. Each family group of Zebulun received some of the land. The border of Zebulun went as far as Sarid. <sup>11</sup>Then it went west to Maralah and came near Dabbesheth. Then it went near Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>Then it turned to the east. It went from Sarid to the area of Kisloth Tabor. From there it went on to Daberath and to Japhia. <sup>13</sup>It continued eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin. Then it ended at Rimmon. Then the border turned and went toward Neah. <sup>14</sup>At Neah it turned again and went to the north. It went to Hannathon and continued to the Valley of Iphtah El. <sup>15</sup>Inside this border were the cities of Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. There were 12 towns and all their fields.

<sup>16</sup>So these are the towns and the areas that were given to Zebulun. Each family group received some of the land.

Land for Issachar

<sup>23</sup>These cities and towns were part of the land that was given to the tribe of Issachar. Each family group received part of this land.

Land for Asher

The western border touched Mount Carmel and Shihor Libnath. <sup>27</sup>Then it turned toward the east. It went to Beth Dagon. It touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El. Then it went north of Beth Emek and Neiel. It passed north to Cabul. <sup>28</sup>Then it went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah. It continued to Greater Sidon. <sup>29</sup>Then the border went back south toward Ramah. It continued to the strong, walled city of Tyre. Then it turned and went toward Hosah. It ended at the sea. This was in the area of Aczib, <sup>30</sup>Ummah, Aphek and Rehob. There were 22 towns and their fields.

<sup>31</sup>These cities and their fields were part of the land that was given to the tribe of Asher. Each family group in that tribe received some of this land.

Land for Naphtali

tribe<sup>d</sup> of Naphtali. Each family group of Naphtali received some of the land.<sup>33</sup>The border of their land started at the large tree in the area of Zaanannim. This is near Heleph. Then it went through Adami Nekeb and Jabneel. It continued to the area of Lakkum and ended at the Jordan River.<sup>34</sup>Then it went to the west through Aznoth Tabor. It stopped at Hukkok. It went to the area of Zebulun on the south. And it went to the area of Asher on the west. It went to Judah, at the Jordan River, on the east.<sup>35</sup>There were some strong, walled cities inside these borders. Those cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath and Kinnereth;<sup>36</sup>Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,<sup>37</sup>Kedesh, Edrei and En Hazor;<sup>38</sup>Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. There were 19 towns and all their fields.

<sup>39</sup>The cities and the towns around them were in the land that was given to the tribe of Naphtali. Each family group in that tribe got some of this land.

Land for Dan

<sup>47</sup>[But the Danites had trouble taking their land. There were strong enemies there. And the Danites could not easily defeat them. So the Danites went and fought against Leshem. They defeated Leshem and killed the people who lived there. So the Danites lived in the town of Leshem. They changed its name to Dan because he was the father of their tribe.)<sup>48</sup>All of these cities and towns were given to the tribe of Dan. Each family group got part of this land.

Land for Joshua

<sup>49</sup>So the Israelite leaders finished dividing the land and giving it to the different tribes.<sup>d</sup> After they finished, all the Israelites decided to give Joshua son of Nun some land, too. This was land that had been promised to him.<sup>50</sup>The Lord had commanded that he be given this land. So they gave Joshua the town of Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim. This was the town that Joshua told them he wanted. So he built up the town and lived there.

<sup>51</sup>So all of these lands were given to the different tribes of Israel. Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the leaders of each tribe worked together. They divided up the land while they were at Shiloh. They met before the Lord at the entrance to the Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> to do this. Now they had finished dividing the land.

Cities of Safety

20 Then the Lord said to Joshua: <sup>2</sup>"Tell the Israelites to choose the special cities of safety.<sup>d</sup> This is what I had Moses command you to do. <sup>3</sup>A person might kill someone accidentally and without meaning to kill him. He may go to a city of safety to hide. There he will be safe from the relative who has the duty of punishing a murderer.

<sup>4</sup>"This is what he must do. When he runs to one of those cities, he must stop at the entrance gate. He must stand there and tell the leaders of the people what happened. Then they will allow him to enter the city. They will give him a place to live among them. <sup>5</sup>But the one who is chasing him might follow him to that city. If this happens, the leaders of the city must not give him up. They must protect the person who came to them for safety. They must protect him because he killed that person accidentally. He was not angry and did not decide ahead of time to kill the person. <sup>6</sup>He should stay in the city until he has been judged by the court there. And he should stay until the high priest dies. Then he may go back to his own home in the town from which he ran away."

<sup>7</sup>So the Israelites chose some cities to be cities of safety. These cities were: Kedesh in Galilee in the mountains of Naphtali; Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim; Kiriath Arba (also called Hebron) in the mountains of Judah; <sup>8</sup>Bezer on the east side of the Jordan River near Jericho in the desert in the land of Reuben; Ramoth in Gilead in the land of Gad; and Golan in Bashan in the land of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>Any Israelite or anyone living among them who killed someone accidentally was included. He was to be allowed to run to one of these cities of safety. Then he could be safe there and would not be killed by the relative who had the duty of punishing a murderer. He would be judged by the court in that city.

Towns for the Levites

21 The heads of the Levite families went to talk to Eleazar the priest. They also talked to Joshua son of Nun and to the heads of the families of all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>2</sup>This happened at the town of Shiloh in the land of Canaan. The heads of the Levite families said to them, "The Lord commanded Moses that you give us towns where we may live. And he commanded that you give us pastures."<sup>3</sup> So the Israelites obeyed this commandment of the Lord. They gave the Levite people these towns and pastures: <sup>4</sup>The Kohath family groups were part of the tribe of Levi. Some of the Levites in the Kohath family groups were from the family of Aaron the priest. To these Levites were given 13 towns. These towns were in the areas that belonged to Judah, Simeon and Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>The other family groups of Kohath were given 10 towns. These 10 towns were in the areas of Ephraim, Dan and West Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup>The people from the Gershon groups were given 13 towns. They were in the land that belonged to Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup>The family groups of Merari were given 12 towns. These 12 towns were in the area that belonged to Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup>So the Israelites gave the Levites these towns and the pastures around them. They did this to obey the commandment that the Lord had given Moses.

<sup>19</sup>So these towns were given to the priests. These priests were from the family of Aaron. The total number of towns with their pastures was 13.

<sup>20</sup>The other Kohathite family groups of the Levites were given these towns from the tribe of Ephraim: <sup>21</sup>They gave them the city of Shechem from the mountains of Ephraim. (Shechem was a city of safety.) They also gave them Gezer, <sup>22</sup>Kibzaim and Beth Horon. There were 4 towns and their pastures.

<sup>25</sup>The western half-tribe of Manasseh gave them Taanach and Gath Rimmon. They were also given all the pastures around these 2 towns.

<sup>26</sup>So this was 10 more towns and all the pastures around the towns. These were given to the rest of the Kohathite family groups.

<sup>27</sup>The Gershonite family groups of the Levite tribe were given these towns: The eastern half-tribe of Manasseh gave them Golan in Bashan. (Golan was a city of safety.) Manasseh also gave them Be Eshtarah. All the pastures around these two towns were also given to the Gershonites.

<sup>30</sup>The tribe of Asher gave them Mishal, Abdon, <sup>31</sup>Helkath and Rehob. All the pastures around these 4 towns were also given to them.

<sup>32</sup>The tribe of Naphtali gave them Kedesh in Galilee. (Kedesh was a city of safety.) Naphtali also gave them Hammoth Dor and Kartan. All the pastures around these 2 towns were also given to the Gershonites.

<sup>33</sup>So the Gershonite family groups received 13 towns. They also received all the pastures around these towns.

<sup>38</sup>The tribe of Gad gave them Ramoth in Gilead. (Ramoth was a city of safety.) They also gave them Mahanaim, <sup>39</sup>Heshbon and Jazer. Gad also gave them all the pastures around these 4 towns.

<sup>40</sup>So the total number of towns given to the Merarite family groups was 12.

<sup>43</sup>So the Lord kept the promise he had made to the Israelites. He gave the people all the land he had promised. The people took the land and lived there. <sup>44</sup>The Lord allowed them to have peace on all sides of their land. This is what he had promised to their people who lived long ago. None of their enemies defeated them. The Lord allowed the Israelites to defeat every enemy. <sup>45</sup>He kept every promise he had made to the Israelites. No promises failed. Each one came true.

Three Tribes Go Home

22 Then Joshua called a meeting of all the people from the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, “You have obeyed everything Moses told you to do. He was a servant of the Lord. And also, you have obeyed all my commands. <sup>3</sup>All this time you have supported all the other Israelites. You have been careful to obey all the commands the Lord your God gave you. <sup>4</sup>The Lord your God promised to give the Israelites peace. Now he has kept his promise. Now you may go back to your homes. You may go to the land that Moses, the Lord’s servant, gave you. It is the land on the east side of the Jordan River. <sup>5</sup>But continue to obey the teachings Moses gave you. That law is to love the Lord your God and obey his commands. Continue to follow him and serve him the very best you can.”

<sup>9</sup>So the people from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh left the other Israelites. They left Shiloh in Canaan and went back towards Gilead. This was their own land. Moses gave it to them as the Lord had commanded.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh traveled to Gilead. This was near the Jordan River in the land of Canaan. There they built a beautiful altar. <sup>11</sup>But the other Israelites still at Shiloh heard about the altar these three tribes had built. They heard that the altar was at the border of Canaan at Gilead. It was near the Jordan River on Israel’s side. <sup>12</sup>All the Israelites became very angry at these three tribes. They met together and decided to fight them.

<sup>13</sup>So the Israelites sent some men to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. The leader of these men was Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest. <sup>14</sup>They also sent one leader of each of the ten tribes at Shiloh. Each of these men was a leader of his family group of Israelites.

<sup>15</sup>So these men went to Gilead. They went to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. The men said to them: <sup>16</sup>“All the Israelites ask you: ‘Why did you turn against the God of Israel? Why did you build an altar for yourselves? You know that this is against God’s law. <sup>17</sup>Remember what happened at Peor? We still suffer today because of that sin. Because of it, God caused many of the Israelites to become very sick. <sup>18</sup>And now are you doing the same thing? Are you turning against the Lord? Will you refuse to follow the Lord?”

“‘If you don’t stop what you’re doing, the Lord will be angry with everyone in Israel. <sup>19</sup>Your land may not be a good enough place to worship. If not, come over into our land. The Lord’s Tent is in our land. You may have some of our land and live there. But don’t turn against the Lord by building another altar. We already have the altar of the Lord our God. <sup>20</sup>Remember Achan son of Zerah. He refused to obey the command about what must be completely destroyed. That one man broke God’s law, but all the Israelites were punished. Achan died because of his sin. But many other people also died.’”

<sup>21</sup>The people from Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh answered them. They said: <sup>22</sup>“The Lord is our God! Again we say that the Lord is our God! God knows why we did this. We want you to know also. You can judge what we did. If you believe we have done something wrong, you may kill us. <sup>23</sup>If we broke God’s law, we ask the Lord himself to punish us. Do you think we built this altar to offer burnt offerings? And did we build it to use for offerings of grain and fellowship?”

<sup>24</sup>“No! We did not build it for that reason. We feared that some day your people would not accept us as part of your nation. Then they might say, ‘You cannot worship the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>25</sup>God gave you land on the other side of the Jordan River. It separates us from you people of Reuben and Gad. You cannot worship the Lord.’ So we feared that your children might make our children stop worshipping the Lord.”

<sup>26</sup>“So we decided to build this altar. But we did not plan to use it for burning sacrifices and making offerings. <sup>27</sup>It was really to show our people that we worship the same God as you. This altar is proof to you and us. And it will prove to all our children who will come after us that we worship the Lord. We give our whole burnt offerings, grain and fellowship offerings to the Lord. This was to keep your children from saying that our children could not worship the Lord.

<sup>28</sup>“In the future your children might say that we do not belong to Israel. Then our children could say, ‘Look! Our fathers who lived before us made an altar. It is exactly like the Lord’s altar. We do not use it for sacrifices. This altar shows that we are part of Israel.’

<sup>29</sup>“Truly, we don’t want to be against the Lord. We don’t want to stop following him. We know the only true altar is the one in front of the Holy Tent. <sup>a</sup>It belongs to the Lord our God.”

<sup>30</sup>Phinehas the priest and the ten leaders heard these things. They listened to the people of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh. And they were pleased. <sup>31</sup>So Phinehas, son of Eleazar the priest, spoke. He said, “Now we know the Lord is with us. And we know you didn’t turn against him. We’re happy that the Israelites will not be punished by the Lord.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Phinehas and the leaders went home. They left the people of Reuben and Gad in Gilead. And they went back to Canaan. There they told the Israelites what had happened. <sup>33</sup>They were also pleased. They were happy and thanked God. And they decided not to fight against the people of Reuben and Gad. They decided not to destroy those lands.

<sup>34</sup>And the people of Reuben and Gad gave the altar a name. They called it Proof that We Believe that the Lord Is God.

Joshua Says Good-bye

23 The Lord gave Israel peace from their enemies around them. He made Israel safe. Many years passed, and Joshua became very old. <sup>2</sup>So he called a meeting of all the older leaders, heads of families, judges and officers of the Israelites. He said, “I am now very old. <sup>3</sup>You have seen what the Lord has done to our enemies. He did it to help us. The Lord your God fought for you. <sup>4</sup>Remember that your people have been given their land. It’s the land between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea in the west. It’s the land I promised to give you. But you don’t control that land yet. <sup>5</sup>The Lord your God will make the people living there leave. You will enter the land. And the Lord will force them out ahead of you. He has promised you this.

<sup>6</sup>“Be strong. You must be careful to obey everything the Lord has commanded. Obey everything written in the Book of the Teachings of Moses. Do exactly as it says. <sup>7</sup>There are still some people living among us who are not Israelites. They worship their own gods. Don’t become friends with them. Don’t serve or worship their gods. <sup>8</sup>You must continue to follow the Lord your God. You have done this in the past. And you must continue to do it.

<sup>9</sup>“The Lord has helped you defeat many great and powerful nations. He has forced them to leave ahead of you. No nation has been able to defeat you. <sup>10</sup>With his help, one Israelite could defeat a thousand enemies. This is because the Lord your God fights for you, as he promised to do. <sup>11</sup>So you must be careful to love the Lord your God.

<sup>14</sup>“It’s almost time for me to die. You know and fully believe that the Lord has done great things for you. You know that he has not failed in any of his promises. He has kept every promise he has given. <sup>15</sup>Every good promise that the Lord your God made has come true. And in the same way, his other promises will come true. He promised that evil will come to you. He will destroy you from this good land that he gave you. <sup>16</sup>This will happen if you don’t keep your agreement with the Lord your God. You will lose this land if you go and serve other gods. You must not worship them. If you do, the Lord will become very angry with you. Then none of you will be left in this good land he has given you.”

24 Then all the tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel met together at Shechem. Joshua called them all together there. Then he called the older leaders, heads of families, judges and officers of Israel. These men stood before God.

<sup>2</sup>Then Joshua spoke to all the people. He said, “Here’s what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you: ‘A long time ago your ancestors lived on the other side of the Euphrates River.

I am talking about men like Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor. They worshiped other gods. <sup>3</sup>But I, the Lord, took your ancestor Abraham out of the land on the other side of the river. I led him through the land of Canaan. And I gave him many children. I gave him his son Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And I gave Isaac two sons named Jacob and Esau. I gave the land around the mountains of Edom to Esau. But Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Then I sent Moses and Aaron to Egypt. I caused many terrible things to happen to the Egyptians. Then I brought you people out. <sup>6</sup>When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, they came to the Red Sea. <sup>4</sup>And the Egyptians chased them. There were chariots and men on horses. <sup>7</sup>So the people asked me, the Lord, for help. And I caused great trouble to come to the Egyptians. I caused the sea to cover them. You yourselves saw what I did to the army of Egypt. After that, you lived in the desert for a long time.

<sup>8</sup>“Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites. This was east of the Jordan River. They fought against you, but I gave you the power to defeat them. I destroyed them before you. Then you took control of that land. <sup>9</sup>But the king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, prepared to fight against the Israelites. The king sent for Balaam son of Beor to curse you. <sup>10</sup>But I, the Lord, refused to listen to Balaam. So he asked for good things to happen to you! He blessed you many times. I saved you and brought you out of his power.

<sup>11</sup>“Then you traveled across the Jordan River and came to Jericho. The people in the city of Jericho fought against you. Also, the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Gergashites, Hivites and Jebusites fought against you. But I allowed you to defeat them all. <sup>12</sup>While your army traveled forward, I sent hornets ahead of them. These hornets made the people leave before you came. So you took the land without using your swords and bows. <sup>13</sup>It was I, the Lord, who gave you that land. I gave you land where you did not have to work. I gave you cities that you did not have to build. And now you live in that land and in those cities. You eat from vineyards and olive trees. But you did not have to plant them.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the people. He said, “Now you have heard the Lord’s words. So you must respect the Lord and serve him fully and sincerely. Throw away the false gods that your people worshiped. That happened on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Now you must serve the Lord. <sup>15</sup>But maybe you don’t want to serve the Lord. You must choose for yourselves today. You must decide whom you will serve. You may serve the gods that your people worshiped when they lived on the other side of the Euphrates River. Or you may serve the gods of the Amorites who lived in this land. As for me and my family, we will serve the Lord.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the people answered, “No! We will never stop following the Lord. We will never serve other gods! <sup>17</sup>We know it was the Lord our God who brought our people out of Egypt. We were slaves in that land. But the Lord did great things for us there. He brought us out. He protected us while we traveled through other lands. <sup>18</sup>Then he helped us defeat the people living in these lands. He helped us defeat the Amorites who lived here. So we will continue to serve the Lord because he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said, “You will not be able to serve the Lord well enough. He is a holy God. And he is a jealous God. If you turn against him and sin, he will not forgive you. <sup>20</sup>If you leave the Lord and serve other gods, he will cause great trouble to come to you. The Lord has been good to you. But if you turn against him, he will destroy you.”

<sup>21</sup>But the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve the Lord.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Look around at yourselves and the people with you here. Do you all know and agree that you have chosen to serve the Lord? Are you all witnesses to this?”

The people answered, “Yes, it’s true! We all see that we have chosen to serve the Lord.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Joshua said, “Now throw away the false gods that you have among you. Love the Lord, the God of Israel, with all your heart.”

<sup>24</sup>Then the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the Lord our God. We will obey him.”

<sup>25</sup>On that day Joshua made an agreement for the people. He made the agreement a law for them to follow. This happened at Shechem.

<sup>26</sup>Joshua wrote these things in the Book of the Teachings of God. Then he found a large stone. He put the stone under the oak tree near the Lord’s Holy Tent. <sup>4</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Then Joshua said to all the people, “See this stone! It will help you remember what we did today. It was here when the Lord was speaking to us today. It will help you remember what happened. It will stop you from turning against your God.”

Joshua Dies

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua told the people to go back to their homes. And everyone went back to his own land.

<sup>29</sup>After that, Joshua son of Nun died. He was 110 years old. <sup>30</sup>And they buried him in his own land at Timnath Serah. This was in the mountains of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>The Israelites had served the Lord during the time Joshua was living. And after he died, they continued to serve the Lord. They continued to serve him while their older leaders were still alive. These were the leaders who had seen what the Lord had done for the Israelites.

Joseph Comes Home

<sup>32</sup>When the Israelites left Egypt, they carried the bones of Joseph with them. They buried them at Shechem, in the land Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor. (Hamor was the father of Shechem.) Jacob had bought the land for 100 pieces of silver. This land belonged to Joseph's children.

<sup>33</sup>And Eleazar son of Aaron died. He was buried at Gibeah in the mountains of Ephraim. Gibeah had been given to Eleazar's son Phinehas.

JUDGES

Great Leaders Rescue Israel

The Men of Judah Fight the Canaanites

1 Joshua died. Then the people of Israel prayed to the Lord. They said, “Who will be first to go and fight for us against the Canaanite people?”

<sup>3</sup>The men of Judah asked for help from the men of Simeon, their relatives. The men of Judah said, “Come and help us fight the Canaanites for our land. If you do, we will go and help you fight for your land.” So the men of Simeon went with them.

<sup>7</sup>Then Adoni-Bezek said, “I cut off the thumbs and big toes of 70 kings. And those kings had to eat scraps that fell from my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them.” The men of Judah took Adoni-Bezek to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>Then the men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. They used their swords to kill the people of Jerusalem. And they burned the city.

<sup>9</sup>Later, they went down to fight against more of the Canaanites. Some of the Canaanites lived in the mountains. Others lived in the dry country to the south. And still others lived in the western mountain slopes. <sup>10</sup>Then the men of Judah went to fight against the Canaanites in the city of Hebron. (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba.) The men of Judah defeated the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.

Caleb and His Daughter

“I want a man to attack and capture the city of Kiriath Sepher. I will give him Acsah, my daughter, as a wife.” <sup>13</sup>Caleb had a younger brother named Kenaz. Kenaz had a son named Othniel. Othniel captured the city of Kiriath Sepher. So Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife. <sup>14</sup>When Acsah came to Othniel, he told her to ask her father for some land. So she got down from her donkey, and Caleb said, “What do you want?”

<sup>15</sup>Acsah answered Caleb, “Do me a favor. You have put me in the dry land of southern Judah. Give me some land with springs of water.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs of water.

Fights with the Canaanites

<sup>16</sup>The Kenite people left Jericho, the city of palm trees. They went with the men of Judah. The Kenites went to the Desert of Judah to live with the people there. This was in southern Judah near the city of Arad. (The Kenites were from the family of Moses' father-in-law.)

<sup>17</sup>Some Canaanite people also lived in the city of Zephath. So the men of Judah and the men of Simeon, their relatives, defeated those Canaanites. They completely destroyed the city. So they called the city Hormah.<sup>n</sup> <sup>18</sup>The men of Judah captured Gaza, Ashkelon and Ekron and all the lands around them.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord was on the side of the men of Judah. They took the land in the mountains. But they could not force out the people living on the plain. This was because those people had iron chariots. <sup>20</sup>As Moses had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb. Caleb forced out the three sons of Anak.<sup>d</sup> <sup>21</sup>But the people of Benjamin could not make the Jebusite people leave Jerusalem. Since that time the Jebusites have lived with the Benjaminites in Jerusalem.

people in Bethel. But the man who helped them and his family were allowed to go free. <sup>26</sup>He went to the land where the Hittite people lived, and he built a city. He named the city Luz, and it is called that today.

<sup>27</sup>There were Canaanites living in the cities of Beth Shan, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo and the small towns around them. The people of Manasseh did not force those people out of their towns. The Canaanites were determined to stay there. <sup>28</sup>Later, the people of Israel grew strong. They forced the Canaanites to work as slaves for them. But the Israelites did not make all the Canaanites leave their land. <sup>29</sup>There were Canaanites living in Gezer. And the people of Ephraim did not make all of those Canaanites leave their land. So the Canaanite people continued to live in Gezer with the people of Ephraim. <sup>30</sup>Some Canaanites lived in the cities of Kitron and Nahalol. The people of Zebulun did not make them leave their land. They stayed and lived with the people of Zebulun. But Zebulun made them work as slaves.

<sup>31</sup>The people of Asher did not make the Canaanites leave the cities of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Aczib, Helbah, Aphek and Rehob. <sup>32</sup>The people of Asher did not make them leave their land. So the Canaanites continued to live with the people of Asher. <sup>33</sup>The people of Naphtali did not make the people leave the cities of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath. So the people of Naphtali continued to live with the Canaanites in those cities. Those people worked as slaves for the people of Naphtali. <sup>34</sup>The Amorites forced the Danites back into the mountains. The Amorites would not let them come down to live in the plain. <sup>35</sup>The Amorites were determined to stay in Mount Heres, Aijalon and Shaalvim. But the Israelites grew stronger. Then they made the Amorites work as slaves for them. <sup>36</sup>The land of the Amorites was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and beyond it.

The Angel of the Lord at Bokim

2 The angel of the Lord went up from Gilgal to Bokim. He spoke to the people of Israel there and said: "I brought you up from Egypt. I led you to the land I promised to give to your ancestors. I said, 'I will never break my agreement with you.' <sup>2</sup>But in return, you must not make an agreement with the people who live in this land. You must destroy their altars." But you did not obey me. How could you do this? <sup>3</sup>Now I will tell you this: 'I will not force out the people in this land. They will become your enemies. Their gods will become a trap for you.' "

<sup>4</sup>After the angel gave Israel this message from the Lord, they cried loudly. <sup>5</sup>So they named the place Bokim.<sup>a</sup> There they offered sacrifices to the Lord.

Joshua Dies

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua told the people they could go home. So each one went to take his own share of the land. <sup>7</sup>The people of Israel served the Lord as long as Joshua was alive. They continued serving the Lord during the lifetimes of the older leaders who lived on after Joshua. These men had seen all the great things the Lord had done for Israel. <sup>8</sup>Joshua son of Nun was the servant of the Lord. Joshua died at the age of 110. <sup>9</sup>So the Israelites buried him in the land he had been given. That land was at Timnath Heres. It was in the mountains of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

The People Disobey

<sup>10</sup>After those people had died, their children grew up. They did not know the Lord or what he had done for Israel. <sup>11</sup>So they did evil and worshiped the Baal<sup>d</sup> idols. They did what the Lord said was wrong. <sup>12</sup>The Lord had brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. And the ancestors of these people had worshiped the Lord. But the Israelites quit following the Lord. They began to worship the gods of the people who lived around them. That made the Lord angry. <sup>13</sup>The Israelites quit following the Lord and worshiped Baal and Ashtoreth.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>The Lord was angry with the people of Israel. So he let robbers attack them and take their possessions. He let their enemies who lived around them defeat them. They could not protect themselves from their enemies. <sup>15</sup>When the Israelites went out to fight, they always lost. They lost because the Lord was not on their side. The Lord had sworn to them this would happen. So the Israelites suffered very much.

God Chooses Judges

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord chose leaders called judges.<sup>e</sup> These leaders saved the people of Israel from the robbers. <sup>17</sup>But the Israelites did not listen to their judges. They were not faithful to God. They followed other gods instead. In the past the people of Israel obeyed the Lord's commands. But now the Israelites stopped obeying the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Many times the enemies of Israel hurt the Israelites. So the Israelites would cry for help. And each time the Lord felt sorry for them. Each time he sent a judge to save them from their enemies. The Lord was with those judges. <sup>19</sup>But when each judge died, the Israelites again sinned and worshiped the false gods. They became worse than their ancestors. The Israelites were very stubborn; they refused to change their evil ways.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord became angry with the Israelites. He said, "These people have broken the agreement I made with their ancestors. They have not listened to me. <sup>21</sup>So I will no longer defeat the nations who were left when Joshua died. <sup>22</sup>I will use those nations to test Israel. I will see if Israel keeps the Lord's commands as their ancestors did." <sup>23</sup>In the past the Lord had permitted those nations to stay in the land. He did not quickly force them out. He did not help Joshua's army defeat them.

3 These are the nations the Lord did not force to leave. He wanted to test the Israelites who had not fought in the wars to take Canaan. <sup>2</sup>The only reason the Lord left those nations in the land was to teach the descendants<sup>d</sup> of the Israelites. He wanted to teach the people who had not fought in those wars how to fight. <sup>3</sup>These are the nations: the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the people of Sidon and the Hivites. The Hivites lived in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. <sup>4</sup>Those nations were in the land to test the Israelites. The Lord wanted to see if Israel would obey the commands he had given to their ancestors by Moses.

<sup>5</sup>The people of Israel lived with the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. <sup>6</sup>The Israelites began to marry the daughters of those people. And the Israelites allowed their daughters to marry the sons of those people. Israel served the gods of those people.

Othniel, the First Judge

<sup>7</sup>The people of Israel did what the Lord said was wrong. They forgot about the Lord their God. Instead, they served the idols of Baal<sup>d</sup> and Asherah.<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>The Lord was angry with Israel. He allowed Cushan-Rishathaim king of Northwest Mesopotamia to rule over the Israelites. They were under that king's rule for eight years. <sup>9</sup>Then Israel cried to the Lord. So the Lord sent a man to save them. He was Othniel son of Kenaz. (Kenaz was Caleb's younger brother.) Othniel saved the Israelites. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord entered Othniel. And he became Israel's judge and went to war. The Lord helped him to defeat Cushan-Rishathaim king of Northwest Mesopotamia. <sup>11</sup>So the land was at peace for 40 years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud, the Judge

<sup>12</sup>Again the people of Israel did what the Lord said was wrong. So the Lord gave Eglon king of Moab power to defeat Israel. This was because of the evil Israel did. <sup>13</sup>Eglon got the Ammonite people and the Amalekite people to join him. Then he attacked Israel and took Jericho, the city of palm trees. <sup>14</sup>The people of Israel were under the rule of Eglon king of Moab for 18 years.

<sup>15</sup>So the people cried to the Lord. And he sent a man to save them. That man was Ehud, who was left-handed. Ehud was the son of Gera from the people of Benjamin. Israel sent Ehud to give Eglon king of Moab the payment he demanded. <sup>16</sup>Ehud made a sword for himself. The sword had two edges and was about 18 inches long. He tied the sword to his right upper leg under his clothes. <sup>17</sup>So Ehud came to Eglon king of Moab and gave him the payment he demanded. Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>After he had given Eglon the payment, Ehud sent home the men who had carried it. <sup>19</sup>When he passed the statues near the city Gilgal, he turned around. Ehud said to Eglon, "I have a secret message for you, King Eglon."

The king said, "Be quiet!" Then he sent all of his servants out of the room. <sup>20</sup>Ehud went to King Eglon. Eglon was now sitting alone in the room on top of his summer palace.

Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king stood up from his chair, <sup>21</sup>Ehud reached with his left hand. He took out the sword that was tied to his right upper leg. Then he stabbed the sword deep into the king's belly! <sup>22</sup>The sword went into Eglon's belly so far that even the handle sank in. And the blade came out his back. The king's fat covered the whole sword. So Ehud left the sword in Eglon. <sup>23</sup>He went out of the room and closed and locked the doors behind him.

<sup>24</sup>The servants returned just after Ehud left. They found the doors to the room locked. So they thought the king was relieving himself. <sup>25</sup>They waited for a long time. Finally they became worried because he still had not opened the doors. So they got the key and unlocked them. When they entered, they saw their king lying dead on the floor!

<sup>26</sup>While the servants were waiting, Ehud had escaped. He passed by the statues and went to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the mountains of Ephraim. The people of Israel heard it and went down from the hills with Ehud leading them.

<sup>28</sup>He said to them, "Follow me! The Lord has helped us to defeat our enemies, the people of Moab." So Israel followed Ehud. They took control of the places where the Jordan River could easily be crossed. Israel did not allow the Moabites to come across the Jordan River. <sup>29</sup>Israel killed about 10,000 strong and able men from Moab. Not one Moabite man escaped. <sup>30</sup>So that day Moab was forced to be under the rule of Israel. And there was peace in the land for 80 years.

Shamgar, the Judge

<sup>31</sup>After Ehud, another man saved Israel. His name was Shamgar son of Anath. Shamgar killed 600 Philistines with a sharp stick used to guide oxen.

Deborah, the Woman Judge

4 After Ehud died, the people of Israel again did what the Lord said was wrong. <sup>2</sup>So he let Jabin, a king of Canaan, defeat Israel. Jabin ruled in the city of Hazor. Sisera was the commander of Jabin's army. Sisera lived in Harosheth Haggoyim. <sup>3</sup>He had 900 iron chariots and was very cruel to the people of Israel for 20 years. So they cried to the Lord for help.

<sup>4</sup>There was a woman prophet<sup>a</sup> named Deborah. She was the wife of Lappidoth. She was judge of Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>Deborah would sit under the Palm Tree of Deborah. This was between the cities of Ramah and Bethel, in the mountains of Ephraim. And the people of Israel would come to her to settle their arguments.

<sup>6</sup>Deborah sent a message to a man named Barak. He was the son of Abinoam. Barak lived in the city of Kedesh, which is in the area of Naphtali. Deborah said to Barak, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you: 'Go and gather 10,000 men of Naphtali and Zebulun. Lead them to Mount Tabor. <sup>7</sup>I will make Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, come to you. Sisera, his chariots and his army will meet you at the Kishon River. I will help you to defeat Sisera there.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Barak said to Deborah, "I will go if you will go with me. But if you will not go with me, I won't go."

<sup>9</sup>"Of course I will go with you," Deborah answered. "But you will not get credit for the victory. The Lord will let a woman defeat Sisera." So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>At Kedesh, Barak called the people of Zebulun and Naphtali together. From them, he gathered 10,000 men to follow him. Deborah went with Barak also.

<sup>12</sup>Then Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>So Sisera gathered his 900 iron chariots and all the men with him. They went from Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, "Get up! Today is the day the Lord will help you defeat Sisera. You know the Lord has already cleared the way for you." So Barak led 10,000 men down from Mount Tabor. <sup>15</sup>He and his men attacked Sisera and his men. During the battle the Lord confused Sisera and his army and chariots. So Barak and his men used their swords to defeat Sisera's army. But Sisera left his chariot and ran away on foot. <sup>16</sup>Barak and his men chased Sisera's chariots and army to Harosheth Haggoyim. They used their swords to kill all of Sisera's men. Not one of them was left alive.

<sup>17</sup>But Sisera himself ran away. He came to the tent where Jael lived. She was the wife of Heber, one of the Kenite family groups. Heber's family was at peace with Jabin king of Hazor. <sup>18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera. She said to him, "Come into my tent, master! Come in. Don't be afraid." So Sisera went into Jael's tent, and she covered him with a rug.

<sup>19</sup>Sisera said to Jael, "I am thirsty. Please give me some water to drink." So she opened a leather bag in which she kept milk and gave him a drink. Then she covered him up.

<sup>20</sup>Then Sisera said to Jael, "Go stand at the entrance to the tent. If anyone comes and asks you, 'Is anyone here?' say, 'No.'"

<sup>21</sup>But Jael, the wife of Heber, took a tent peg and a hammer. She quietly went to Sisera. Since he was very tired, he was sleeping. She hammered the tent peg through the side of Sisera's head and into the ground! And so Sisera died.

<sup>22</sup>Then Barak came by Jael's tent, chasing Sisera. Jael went out to meet him and said, "Come. I will show you the man you are looking for." So Barak entered her tent. There Sisera lay dead, with the tent peg in his head.

The Song of Deborah

5 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

2“The leaders led Israel.

The people volunteered to go to battle.
Praise the Lord!

3Listen, kings.

Pay attention, rulers!
I myself will sing to the Lord.
I will make music to the Lord, the God of Israel.

4“Lord, in the past you came from Edom.
You marched from the land of Edom, and the earth shook.

The skies rained,
and the clouds dropped water.

5The mountains shook before the Lord, the God of Mount Sinai.

They shook before the Lord, the God of Israel!

6“In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the main roads were empty.

Travelers went on the back roads.

7There were no warriors in Israel until I, Deborah, arose.

I arose to be a mother to Israel.

8At that time they chose to follow new gods.

Because of this, enemies fought us at our city gates.

No one could find a shield or a spear among the 40,000 men of Israel.

9My heart is with the commanders of Israel.
They volunteered freely from among the people.
Praise the Lord!

10“You who ride on white donkeys and sit on saddle blankets, listen!
And you who walk along the road, listen!

11Listen to the sound of the singers at the watering holes.

There they tell about the victories of the Lord.

They tell about the victories of the Lord’s warriors in Israel.

Then the Lord’s people went down to the city gates.

12“Wake up, wake up, Deborah!
Wake up, wake up, sing a song!

Get up, Barak!
Go capture your enemies, son of Abinoam!

13“Then the men who were left came down to the important leaders.

The Lord’s people came down to me with strong men.

14They came from Ephraim in the mountains of Amalek.

Benjamin was among the people who followed you.

From the family group of Makir in West Manasseh, the commanders came down.

And from Zebulun came those men who lead with an officer’s staff.

15The princes of Issachar were with Deborah.
The people of Issachar were loyal to Barak.

They followed him into the valley.
The Reubenites thought hard about what they would do.

16Why did you stay by the sheepfold?
Was it to hear the music played for your sheep?

The Reubenites thought hard about what they would do.

17The people of Gilead stayed east of the Jordan River.

People of Dan, why did you stay by the ships?

The people of Asher stayed at the seashore.
They stayed at their safe harbors.

18But the people of Zebulun risked their lives.

So did the people of Naphtali on the battlefield.

19“The kings came, and they fought.
At that time the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo.
But they took away no silver or possessions of Israel.

20The stars fought from heaven.

From their paths, they fought Sisera.

21The Kishon River swept Sisera’s men away, that old river, the Kishon River.

March on, my soul, with strength!

22Then the horses’ hoofs beat the ground.
Galloping, galloping go Sisera’s mighty horses.

23“May the town of Meroz be cursed,’ said the angel of the Lord.

‘Bitterly curse its people, because they did not come to help the Lord.

They did not fight the strong enemy.’

24“May Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, be blessed above all women who live in tents.

- <sup>25</sup>Sisera asked for water, but Jael gave him milk.
In a bowl fit for a ruler,
she brought him cream.
- <sup>26</sup>Jael reached out and took the tent peg.
Her right hand reached for the workman's hammer.
And she hit Sisera! She smashed his head!
She crushed and pierced the side of his head!
- <sup>27</sup>At Jael's feet he sank.
He fell, and he lay there.
At her feet he sank. He fell.
Where Sisera sank, there he fell, dead!
- <sup>28</sup>"Sisera's mother looked out through the window.
She looked through the curtains.
She asked, 'Why is Sisera's chariot so late in coming?
Why are sounds of his chariots' horses delayed?'
- <sup>29</sup>The wisest of her servant ladies answer her.
And Sisera's mother says to herself, <sup>30</sup>Surely they are taking the possessions of the people they defeated!
Surely they are dividing those things among themselves!
A girl or two is being given to each soldier.
Maybe Sisera is taking pieces of dyed cloth.
Maybe they are even taking pieces of dyed, embroidered cloth for the necks of the victors!
- <sup>31</sup>"Let all your enemies die this way, Lord!
But let all the people who love you be powerful like the rising sun!"
So there was peace in the land for 40 years.

The Midianites Attack Israel

6 Again the people of Israel did what the Lord said was wrong. So for seven years the Lord let the people of Midian rule Israel. <sup>2</sup>The Midianites were very powerful and were cruel to the Israelites. So the Israelites made hiding places in the mountains. They also hid in caves and safe places. <sup>3</sup>Whenever the Israelites planted crops, the Midianites, Amalekites and other peoples from the east would come and attack them. <sup>4</sup>These people camped in the land. And they destroyed the crops that the Israelites had planted. They did this as far as the land near Gaza. The people left nothing for Israel to eat. They left them no sheep, cattle or donkeys. <sup>5</sup>The Midianites came up and camped in the land. They brought their tents and their animals with them. They were like swarms of locusts! <sup>4</sup>There were so many people and camels they could not be counted. These people came into the land to ruin it. <sup>6</sup>Israel became very poor because of the Midianites. So the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help.

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites cried out to the Lord for help against the Midianites. <sup>8</sup>So the Lord sent a prophet <sup>d</sup> to them. The prophet said, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I brought you out of Egypt, the land of slavery. <sup>9</sup>I saved you from the people of Egypt. And I saved you from all the people of Canaan. I forced them out of their land. And I gave it to you. <sup>10</sup>Then I said to you, 'I am the Lord your God. You will live in the land of the Amorites, but you must not worship their gods.' But you did not obey me."

The Angel of the Lord Visits Gideon

<sup>11</sup>The angel of the Lord came and sat down under an oak tree at Ophrah. The oak tree belonged to Joash, who was one of the Abiezrite people. Joash was the father of Gideon. Gideon was separating some wheat from the chaff <sup>d</sup> in a winepress. <sup>2</sup>Gideon did this to keep the wheat from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup>The angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and said, "The Lord is with you, mighty warrior!"

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon said, "Pardon me, sir. If the Lord is with us, why are we having so many troubles? Our ancestors told us he did miracles. <sup>4</sup>They told us the Lord brought them out of Egypt. But now he has left us. He has allowed the Midianites to defeat us."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord turned to Gideon and said, "You have the strength to save the people of Israel. Go and save them from the Midianites. I am the one who is sending you."

<sup>15</sup>But Gideon answered, "Pardon me, Lord. How can I save Israel? My family group is the weakest in Manasseh. And I am the least important member of my family."

<sup>16</sup>The Lord answered him, "I will be with you. It will seem as if you are fighting only one man."

<sup>17</sup>Then Gideon said to the Lord, "If you are pleased with me, give me proof. Show me that it is really you talking with me. <sup>18</sup>Please wait here. Do not go away until I come back to you. Let me bring my offering and set it in front of you."

And the Lord said, "I will wait until you come back."

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon went in and cooked a young goat. He also took about 20 quarts of flour and made bread without yeast. Then he put the meat into a basket. And he put the broth from the boiled meat into a pot. He brought out the meat, the broth and the bread without yeast. He brought the food to the angel of the Lord. Gideon gave it to him under the oak tree.

<sup>20</sup>The angel of God said to Gideon, "Put the meat and the bread without yeast on that rock over there. Then pour the broth on them." And Gideon did as he was told. <sup>21</sup>The angel of the Lord had a stick in his hand. He touched the meat and the bread with the end of the stick. Then fire jumped up from the rock! The meat and the bread were completely burned up! And the angel of the Lord disappeared! <sup>22</sup>Then Gideon understood he had been talking to the angel of the Lord. So Gideon cried, "Lord God! I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face!"

<sup>23</sup>But the Lord said to Gideon, "Calm down! Don't be afraid! You will not die!"

<sup>24</sup>So Gideon built an altar there to worship the Lord. Gideon named the altar The Lord Is Peace. It still stands at Ophrah, where the Abiezrites live.

Gideon Tears Down the Altar of Baal

<sup>25</sup>That same night the Lord spoke to Gideon. The Lord said, "Take the bull that belongs to your father and a second bull seven years old. Pull down your father's altar to Baal.<sup>d</sup> Cut down the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idol beside it. <sup>26</sup>Then build an altar to the Lord your God. Build it on this high ground. Lay its stones in the right order. Then kill and burn the bull on this altar. Use the wood from the Asherah idol to burn your offering."

<sup>27</sup>So Gideon got ten of his servants. And he did what the Lord had told him to do. But Gideon was afraid that his family and the men of the city might see him. So he did it at night, not in the daytime.

<sup>28</sup>The men of the city got up the next morning. They saw that the altar for Baal had been destroyed! And they saw that the Asherah idol beside it had been cut down! They also saw the altar Gideon had built. And they saw the bull that had been sacrificed on it. <sup>29</sup>The men of the city looked at each other and asked, "Who did this?" They asked many questions and looked for the person who had done those things.

Someone told them, "Gideon son of Joash did this."

<sup>30</sup>So they said to Joash, "Bring your son out. He has pulled down the altar of Baal. He has cut down the Asherah idol beside it. So your son must die!"

<sup>31</sup>But Joash spoke to the angry crowd around him. He said, "Are you going to take Baal's side? Are you going to defend Baal? Anyone who takes Baal's side will be killed by morning! If Baal is a god, let him fight for himself. It's his altar that has been pulled down." <sup>32</sup>So on that day Gideon got the name Jerub-Baal. The name means "let Baal fight against him." They named him this because Gideon pulled down Baal's altar.

Gideon Defeats Midian

<sup>36</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "You said you would help me save Israel. <sup>37</sup>I will put some wool on the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor. Let there be dew only on the wool. But let all of the ground be dry. Then I will know what you said is true. I will know that you will use me to save Israel." <sup>38</sup>And that is just what happened. Gideon got up early the next morning and squeezed the wool. He got a full bowl of water from the wool.

<sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "Don't be angry with me. Let me ask just one more thing. Please let me make one more test. Let the wool be dry while the ground around it gets wet with dew." <sup>40</sup>That night God did that very thing. Just the wool was dry, but the ground around it was wet with dew.

7 Early in the morning Jerub-Baal and all his men set up their camp at the spring of Harod. (Jerub-Baal is also called Gideon.) The Midianites were camped north of them. The Midianites were camped in the valley at the bottom of the hill called Moreh. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to Gideon, "You have too many men to defeat the Midianites. I don't want the Israelites to brag that they saved themselves. <sup>3</sup>So now, announce to the people, 'Anyone who is afraid may leave Mount Gilead. He may go back home.' " And 22,000 men went back home. But 10,000 remained.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. Take the men down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say, 'This man will go with you,' he will go.

But if I say, 'That one will not go with you,' he will not go."

<sup>5</sup>So Gideon led the men down to the water. There the Lord said to him, "Separate them. Those who drink water by lapping it up like a dog will be in one group. Those who bend down to drink will be in the other group." <sup>6</sup>There were 300 men who used their hands to bring water to their mouths. They lapped it as a dog does. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord said to Gideon, "I will save you, using the 300 men who lapped the water. And I will allow you to defeat Midian. Let all the other men go to their homes." <sup>8</sup>So Gideon sent the rest of Israel to their homes. But he kept 300 men. He took the jars and the trumpets of those who went home.

Now the camp of Midian was in the valley below Gideon. <sup>9</sup>That night the Lord spoke to Gideon. He said, "Get up. Go down and attack the camp of the Midianites. I will allow you to defeat them. <sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to go down, take your servant Purah with you. <sup>11</sup>When you come to the camp of Midian, you will hear what they are saying. Then you will not be afraid to attack the camp."

Gideon Is Encouraged

So Gideon and his servant Purah went down to the edge of the enemy camp. <sup>12</sup>The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the peoples from the east were camped in that valley. There were so many of them they seemed like locusts. <sup>4</sup>They had so many camels no one could count them. There were as many as there are grains of sand on the seashore!

<sup>13</sup>When Gideon came to the enemy camp, he heard a man talking. That man was telling his friend about a dream. He was saying, "Listen, I dreamed that a loaf of barley bread rolled into the camp of Midian. It hit the tent so hard that the tent turned over and fell flat!"

<sup>14</sup>The man's friend said, "Your dream is about the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel. God will let Gideon defeat Midian and the whole army!"

<sup>15</sup>When Gideon heard about the dream and what it meant, he worshiped God. Then Gideon went back to the camp of Israel. He called out to them, "Get up! The Lord has defeated the army of Midian for you!" <sup>16</sup>Then Gideon divided the 300 men into three groups. He gave each man a trumpet and an empty jar. A burning torch was inside each jar.

<sup>17</sup>Gideon told the men, "Watch me and do what I do. When I get to the edge of the camp, do what I do. <sup>18</sup>Surround the enemy camp. I and everyone with me will blow our trumpets. When we blow our trumpets, you blow your trumpets, too. Then shout, 'For the Lord and for Gideon!'"

Midian Is Defeated

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the 100 men with him came to the edge of the enemy camp. They came just after the enemy had changed guards. It was during the middle watch of the night. Then Gideon and his men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. <sup>20</sup>All three groups of Gideon's men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. They held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands. Then they shouted, "A sword for the Lord and for Gideon!" <sup>21</sup>Each of Gideon's men stayed in his place around the camp. But inside the camp, the men of Midian began shouting and running away.

<sup>22</sup>When Gideon's 300 men blew their trumpets, the Lord caused all the men of Midian to fight each other with their swords! The enemy army ran away to the city of Beth Shittah. It is toward Zererah. They ran as far as the border of the city of Abel Meholah. It is near the city of Tabbath. <sup>23</sup>Then men of Israel from Naphtali, Asher and all of Manasseh were called out to chase the Midianites. <sup>24</sup>Gideon sent messengers through all the mountains of Ephraim. They said, "Come down and attack the Midianites. Take control of the Jordan River as far as Beth Barah. Do this before the Midianites can get to the river and cross it."

So they called out all the men of Ephraim. They took control of the Jordan River as far as Beth Barah. <sup>25</sup>The men of Ephraim captured two princes of Midian named Oreb and Zeeb. The men of Ephraim killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb. They killed Zeeb at the winepress<sup>d</sup> of Zeeb. And they continued chasing the Midianites. They cut off the heads of Oreb and Zeeb and took them to Gideon. He was now east of the Jordan River.

8 The men of Ephraim asked Gideon, "Why did you treat us this way? Why didn't you call us when you went to fight against Midian?" They were very angry at Gideon.

<sup>2</sup>But he answered them, "I have not done as well as you! The small part you did was better than all that my people of Abiezer did. <sup>3</sup>God allowed you to capture Oreb and Zeeb, the princes of Midian. How can I compare what I did with what you did?" When the men of Ephraim heard Gideon's answer, they were not as angry anymore.

Gideon Captures Two Kings

<sup>4</sup>Then Gideon and his 300 men came to the Jordan River. They were tired, but they chased the enemy across to the other side. <sup>5</sup>Gideon said to the men of Succoth, "Please give my soldiers some bread. They are very tired. I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

<sup>6</sup>But the leaders of Succoth said, "Why should we give your soldiers bread? You haven't caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet."

<sup>7</sup>Then Gideon said, "The Lord will help me capture Zebah and Zalmunna. After that, I will whip your skin with thorns and briers from the desert."

<sup>8</sup>Gideon left Succoth and went to the city of Peniel. He asked the men there for food. It was just as he had asked the men of Succoth. And the men of Peniel gave him the same answer as the men of Succoth. <sup>9</sup>So Gideon said to the men of Peniel, "After I win the victory, I will come back here. And I will pull down this tower."

<sup>10</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna and their army were in the city of Karkor. Their army had about 15,000 men. They were all who were left of the army of the peoples of the east. Already 120,000 soldiers of that army had been killed. <sup>11</sup>Gideon used the road of those who live in tents. This road is east of Nobah and Jogbehah. Gideon attacked the enemy army when they did not expect it. <sup>12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian, ran away. But Gideon chased and captured them. Gideon and his men defeated the enemy army.

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle. He and his men returned by the Pass of Heres. <sup>14</sup>Gideon captured a young man from Succoth and asked him some questions. The young man wrote down for Gideon the names of 77 men. They were the officers and older leaders of Succoth.

Gideon Punishes Succoth

<sup>15</sup>Then Gideon came to Succoth. He said to the men of that city, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You made fun of me by saying, 'Why should we give bread to your tired men? You have not caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet.'"

<sup>16</sup>So Gideon took the older leaders of the city. He punished them with thorns and briers from the desert. <sup>17</sup>He also pulled down the tower of Peniel. Then he killed the men in that city.

<sup>18</sup>Gideon spoke to Zebah and Zalmunna. He said, "You killed some men on Mount Tabor. What were those men like?"

Zebah and Zalmunna answered, "They were like you. Each one of them seemed like a prince."

<sup>19</sup>Gideon said, "Those were my brothers, my mother's sons. As surely as the Lord lives, I would not kill you if you had spared them."

<sup>20</sup>Then Gideon turned to Jether, his oldest son. Gideon said to him, "Kill them." But Jether was only a boy and was afraid. So he did not take out his sword.

<sup>21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, "Come on. Kill us yourself. As the saying goes, 'It takes a man to do a man's job.'" So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. Then he took the decorations off their camels' necks.

Gideon Makes an Idol

<sup>22</sup>The people of Israel said to Gideon, "You saved us from the Midianites. So now, rule over us. We want you, your son and your grandson to rule over us."

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon told them, "The Lord will be your ruler. I will not rule over you. And my son will not rule over you." <sup>24</sup>He said, "I want you to do this one thing for me. I want each of you to give me a gold earring from the things you took in the fighting." (The Ishmaelite men wore gold earrings. And some Ishmaelites had been defeated in the battle.)

<sup>25</sup>So the people of Israel said to Gideon, "We will gladly give you what you want." So they put a coat down on the ground. Each man threw an earring onto the coat. <sup>26</sup>The gold earrings weighed about 43 pounds. This did not count the weight of the other gifts the people gave to Gideon. They gave him decorations, necklaces and purple robes. These were things that the kings of Midian had worn. The people also gave him chains from the camels of the kings of Midian. <sup>27</sup>Gideon used the gold to make an idol. He put the idol in his hometown of Ophrah. All the people of Israel were unfaithful to God and worshiped the idol. It became a trap that caused Gideon and his family to sin.

The Death of Gideon

<sup>28</sup>So Midian was forced to be under the rule of Israel. Midian did not cause trouble anymore. And the land had peace for 40 years, as long as Gideon was alive.

<sup>29</sup>Gideon son of Joash went to his home to live. <sup>30</sup>He had 70 sons of his own. He had many sons because he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>Gideon had a slave woman<sup>4</sup> who lived in Shechem. He also had a son by her. He named that son Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>So Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age. He was buried in the tomb of Joash, his father. That tomb is in Ophrah, where the Abiezrites live.

<sup>33</sup>As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel were again unfaithful to God. They followed the Baal<sup>d</sup> gods. They made Baal-of-the-Agreement their god. <sup>34</sup>The Israelites did not remember the Lord their God. He had saved them from all their enemies who were living all around them. <sup>35</sup>And Jerub-Baal, also called Gideon, had done many good things for Israel. But Israel was not kind to the family of Gideon for these things.

Abimelech Becomes King

9 Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal, also called Gideon, went to his uncles. They lived in the city of Shechem. He said to his uncles and all of his mother's family group, <sup>2</sup>"Ask the leaders of Shechem this question: 'Is it better for you to be ruled by the 70 sons of Jerub-Baal or to be ruled by only 1 man?' Remember, I am your relative."

<sup>3</sup>Abimelech's uncles spoke to all the leaders of Shechem. They asked them that question. All the leaders decided to follow Abimelech. They said, "He is our brother." <sup>4</sup>So the leaders of Shechem gave Abimelech about one and three-fourths pounds of silver. The silver was from the temple of the god Baal<sup>d</sup>-of-the-Agreement. Abimelech used the silver to hire some worthless, reckless men. They followed Abimelech wherever he went. <sup>5</sup>Abimelech went to Ophrah, the hometown of his father. There Abimelech murdered his 70 brothers. They were the sons of Abimelech's father, Gideon. He killed them all on one stone. But Gideon's youngest son, Jotham, hid from Abimelech and escaped. <sup>6</sup>Then all of the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo came together. They gathered beside the great tree at the stone pillar in Shechem. There they made Abimelech their king.

Jotham's Story

<sup>7</sup>When Jotham heard this, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. Jotham shouted to the people: "Listen to me, you leaders of Shechem. Then God may listen to you! <sup>8</sup>One day the trees decided to appoint a king to rule over them. They said to the olive tree, 'You be king over us!'"

<sup>9</sup>"But the olive tree said, 'Men and gods are honored by my oil. Should I stop making it just to go and sway over the other trees?'"

<sup>10</sup>"Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and be our king!'"

making my sweet and good fruit? Should I stop just to go and sway over the other trees?'"

<sup>12</sup>"Then the trees said to the vine, 'Come and be our king!'"

<sup>13</sup>"But the vine answered, 'My wine makes men and gods happy. Should I stop making it just to go and sway over the trees?'"

<sup>14</sup>"Then all the trees said to the thornbush, 'Come and be our king.'"

<sup>15</sup>"But the thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want to appoint me king over you, come and find shelter in my shade! But if you do not want to do this, let fire come out of the thornbush. Let the fire burn up the cedars of Lebanon!'"

<sup>16</sup>"Now, were you completely honest and sincere when you made Abimelech king? Have you been fair to Gideon and his family? Have you treated Gideon as you should? <sup>17</sup>Remember, my father fought for you. He risked his life to save you from the power of the Midianites. <sup>18</sup>But now you have turned against my father's family. You have killed my father's 70 sons on one stone. You have made Abimelech king over the people of Shechem. He is the son of my father's slave girl! You have made Abimelech king just because he is your relative. <sup>19</sup>So then, if you have been honest and sincere to Gideon and his family today, be happy with Abimelech as your king. And may he be happy with you! <sup>20</sup>But if you have not acted right, may fire come out of Abimelech! May that fire completely burn you leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo! Also may fire come out of the leaders of Shechem and burn up Abimelech!"

<sup>21</sup>Then Jotham ran away. He escaped to the city of Beer. He lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Abimelech Fights Against Shechem

<sup>22</sup>Abimelech ruled Israel for three years. <sup>23</sup>Then God sent an evil spirit to make trouble between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. So the leaders of Shechem turned against him. <sup>24</sup>Abimelech had killed Gideon's 70 sons. They were Abimelech's own brothers. And the leaders of Shechem had helped him kill them. So God sent the evil spirit to punish them. <sup>25</sup>The leaders of Shechem were against Abimelech then. They put men on the hilltops. These men attacked and robbed everyone who went by. Abimelech was told about these attacks.

<sup>26</sup>A man named Gaal and his brothers moved into Shechem. He was the son of Ebed. The leaders of Shechem decided to trust and follow Gaal. <sup>27</sup>The people of Shechem went out to the vineyards to pick grapes. They walked on the grapes to make wine. Then they had a feast in the temple of their god. The people ate and drank and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup>Then Gaal son of Ebed said, "We are the men of Shechem. Why should we obey Abimelech? Who does he think he is? Isn't Abimelech one of Gideon's sons? Didn't Abimelech make Zebul his officer? We should not obey Abimelech! We should obey the men of Hamor, Shechem's father. Why should we obey Abimelech?" <sup>29</sup>If you made me commander of these people, I would get rid of Abimelech! I would say to him, "Get your army ready and come out to battle!"

<sup>30</sup>Now Zebul was the ruler of Shechem. He heard what Gaal son of Ebed said. And Zebul became very angry. <sup>31</sup>He sent messengers to Abimelech in the city of Arumah. The message said, "Gaal son of Ebed and Gaal's brothers have come to Shechem. Gaal is turning the city against you! <sup>32</sup>So now you and your men should get up in the night. Then go lie in the fields outside the city. <sup>33</sup>When the sun comes up in the morning, attack the city. Gaal and his men will come out to fight you. Then do what you can to them."

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all his soldiers got up during the night. They went near Shechem and separated into four groups. There they hid. <sup>35</sup>Gaal son of Ebed went out and was standing at the entrance to the city gate. As he was standing there, Abimelech and his soldiers came out of their hiding places.

<sup>36</sup>When Gaal saw the soldiers, he said to Zebul, "Look! There are people coming down from the mountains!"

But Zebul said, "You are seeing the shadows of the mountains. The shadows just look like people."

<sup>37</sup>But again Gaal said, "Look, there are people coming down from the center of the land. And there is a group coming from the fortune-tellers' tree!"

<sup>38</sup>Zebul said to Gaal, "Where is your bragging now? You said, 'Who is Abimelech? Why should we obey him?' You made fun of these men. Now go out and fight them."

<sup>42</sup>The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields. Abimelech was told about it.

<sup>43</sup>So he separated his men into three groups. And he hid them in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he jumped up and attacked them. <sup>44</sup>Abimelech and his group ran to the entrance gate to the city. The other two groups ran out to the people in the fields and killed them. <sup>45</sup>Abimelech and his men fought the city of Shechem all day. They captured it and killed its people. Then Abimelech tore down the city. And he threw salt<sup>a</sup> over the ruins so nothing would ever grow there.

The Tower of Shechem Burns

Abimelech's Death

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech went to the city of Thebez. He surrounded the city, attacked it and captured it. <sup>51</sup>But inside the city was a strong tower. All the men and women of that city ran to the tower. When they got inside, they locked the door behind them. Then they climbed up to the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup>Abimelech came to the tower and attacked it. He went up to the door of the tower to set it on fire. <sup>53</sup>As Abimelech came near, a woman dropped a large stone for grinding grain on his head. The stone crushed Abimelech's skull.

<sup>54</sup>He quickly called to the officer who carried his armor. He said, "Take out your sword and kill me. I don't want people to say, 'A woman killed Abimelech.'" So the officer stabbed Abimelech, and he died. <sup>55</sup>When the people of Israel saw Abimelech was dead, they all returned home.

<sup>56</sup>In that way God punished Abimelech for all the evil he had done. Abimelech had sinned against his own father by killing his 70 brothers. <sup>57</sup>God also punished the men of Shechem for the evil they had done. So the curse Jotham had spoken came true. (Jotham was the youngest son of Gideon.)

Tola, the Judge

10 After Abimelech died, another judge came to save the people of Israel. He was Tola son of Puah. (Puah was the son of Dodo.) Tola was from the people of Issachar. He lived in the city of Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>Tola was a judge for Israel for 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair, the Judge

<sup>3</sup>After Tola died, Jair became judge. He lived in the region of Gilead. He was a judge for Israel for 22 years. <sup>4</sup>Jair had 30 sons, who rode 30 donkeys. These 30 sons controlled 30 towns in Gilead. These towns are called the Towns of Jair to this day. <sup>5</sup>Jair died and was buried in the city of Kamon.

The Ammonites Trouble Israel

<sup>6</sup>Again the Israelites did what the Lord said was wrong. They worshiped the Baal<sup>d</sup> and Ash-toreth<sup>d</sup> idols. They also worshiped the gods of the peoples of Aram, Sidon, Moab and Ammon. And they worshiped the gods of the Philistines. The Israelites left the Lord and stopped serving him. <sup>7</sup>So the Lord became angry with them. He allowed the Philistines and the Ammonites to defeat them. <sup>8</sup>In the same year those people destroyed the Israelites who lived east of the Jordan River. This is in the region of Gilead, where the Amorites lived. The Israelites suffered for 18 years. <sup>9</sup>The Ammonites then crossed the Jordan River to fight the people of Judah, Benjamin and Ephraim. The Ammonites caused much trouble to the people of Israel. <sup>10</sup>So the Israelites cried out to the Lord, "We have sinned against you. We left our God and worshiped the Baal idols."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord answered the Israelites, "You cried to me when the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites and the Philistines hurt you. I saved you from these people. <sup>12</sup>You cried to me when the Sidonians, Amalekites and Maonites hurt you. I also saved you from those people. <sup>13</sup>But you have left me. You have worshiped other gods. So I refuse to save you again! <sup>14</sup>You have chosen those gods. So go call to them for help. Let them save you when you are in trouble!"

<sup>15</sup>But the people of Israel said to the Lord, "We have sinned. Do to us whatever you want, but please save us today!" <sup>16</sup>Then the Israelites threw away the foreign gods among them. And they worshiped the Lord again. So he felt sorry for them when he saw their suffering.

<sup>17</sup>The Ammonite people gathered for war and camped in Gilead. The Israelites gathered and camped at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>The leaders of the people of Gilead said, "Who will lead us to attack the people of Ammon? He will become the head of all those who live in Gilead."

Jephthah Is Chosen as Leader

11 Jephthah was from the people of Gilead. He was a strong soldier. His father was named Gilead, and his mother was a prostitute. <sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife had several sons. When they grew up, they forced Jephthah to leave his home. They said to him, "You will not get any of our father's property. You are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup>So Jephthah ran away from his brothers. He lived in the land of Tob. There some worthless men began to follow Jephthah.

<sup>4</sup>After a time the Ammonite people fought against Israel. <sup>5</sup>The Ammonites made war against Israel. At that time the older leaders of Gilead came to Jephthah. They wanted him to come back to Gilead. <sup>6</sup>They said to him, "Come and lead our army so we can fight the Ammonites."

<sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to them, "Didn't you hate me? You forced me to leave my father's house! Why are you coming to me now that you are in trouble?"

<sup>8</sup>The older leaders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is the reason we come to you now. Please come with us and fight against the Ammonites! You will be the ruler over everyone who lives in Gilead."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jephthah answered, "Suppose you take me back to Gilead to fight the Ammonites. If the Lord helps me win, I will be your ruler."

<sup>10</sup>The older leaders of Gilead said to him, "The Lord is listening to everything we are saying. We promise to do all that you tell us to do." <sup>11</sup>So Jephthah went with the older leaders of Gilead. The people made him their leader and commander of their army. Jephthah repeated all of his words in front of the Lord at Mizpah.

Jephthah Sends Messengers to the Ammonite King

<sup>12</sup>Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites. The messengers asked the king, "What have you got against Israel? Why have you come to attack our land?"

<sup>13</sup>The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah. He said, "We are fighting Israel because you took our land when you came up from Egypt. You took our land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River to the Jordan River. Now tell the people of Israel to give our land back to us in peace."

<sup>14</sup>Jephthah sent the messengers to the Ammonite king again. <sup>15</sup>They took this message: "This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of the people of Moab or Ammon. <sup>16</sup>When the people of Israel came out of Egypt, they went into the desert. They went to the Gulf of Aqaba and then to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom. They asked, 'Let the people of Israel go across your land.' But the king of Edom didn't let us. We sent the same message to the king of Moab. But he would not let us go across his land either. So the Israelites stayed at Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup>"Then the Israelites went into the desert. They went around the borders of the lands of Edom and Moab. Israel walked east of the land of Moab. They camped on the other side of the Arnon River. It was the border of the land of Moab. They did not cross it to go into the land of Moab.

<sup>19</sup>"Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites. Sihon was the king of the city of Heshbon. The messengers asked Sihon, 'Let the people of Israel pass through your land. We want to go to our land.' <sup>20</sup>But Sihon would not let the Israelites cross his land. He gathered all of his people and camped at Jahaz. Then the Amorites fought with Israel.

<sup>21</sup>"But the Lord, the God of Israel, helped the Israelites to defeat Sihon and his army. All the land of the Amorites became the property of Israel. <sup>22</sup>So Israel took all the land of the Amorites. It went from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. It also went from the desert to the Jordan River.

<sup>23</sup>"It was the Lord, the God of Israel, who forced out the Amorites ahead of the people of Israel. So do you think you can make the people of Israel leave this land? <sup>24</sup>Surely you can live in the land which your god Chemosh<sup>d</sup> has given you. So we will live in the land the Lord our God has given us!

<sup>25</sup>"Are you any better than Balak son of Zippor? He was the king of Moab. Did he ever quarrel or fight with the people of Israel? <sup>26</sup>For 300 years the Israelites have lived in Heshbon and Aroer and the towns around them. They have lived for 300 years in all the cities along the Arnon River. Why have you not taken these cities back in all that time? <sup>27</sup>I have not sinned against you. But you are sinning against me by making war on me! May the Lord, the Judge, decide whether the Israelites or Ammonites are right."

Jephthah's Promise

<sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord entered Jephthah. Jephthah passed through Gilead and Manasseh. He came to the city of Mizpah in Gilead. From there, Jephthah passed through to the land of the Ammonites. <sup>30</sup>Jephthah made a promise to the Lord. He said, "If you will let me defeat the Ammonites, <sup>31</sup>I will give you a burnt offering. I will sacrifice the first thing that comes out of my house to meet me when I return from the victory. It will be the Lord's."

<sup>32</sup>Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites. The Lord helped him defeat them. <sup>33</sup>Jephthah defeated them from the city of Aroer to the area of Minnith. He defeated them as far as the city of Abel Keramim. He defeated 20 cities in this area. The defeat was great. So the Ammonites were defeated by the Israelites.

<sup>34</sup>When Jephthah returned home to Mizpah, his daughter came out to meet him. She was playing a tambourine<sup>d</sup> and dancing. She was his only child. Jephthah did not have any other sons or daughters. <sup>35</sup>When Jephthah saw his daughter, he tore his clothes to show how upset he was. He said, "My daughter! You have made me so sad! This is because I have made a promise to the Lord, and I cannot break it!"

<sup>36</sup>Then his daughter said, "Father, you made a promise to the Lord. So do to me just what you promised. The Lord helped you defeat your enemies, the Ammonites." <sup>37</sup>Then she said, "But let me do one thing. Let me be alone for two months to go to the mountains. I will never marry. So let me and my friends go and cry together."

<sup>38</sup>Jephthah said, "Go." He sent her away for two months. She and her friends stayed in the mountains. There they cried for her because she would never marry. <sup>39</sup>After two months she returned to her father. Jephthah did to her what he promised to the Lord. Now Jephthah's daughter had never had a husband.

So this became a custom in Israel. <sup>40</sup>Every year the women of Israel would go out for four days. They did this to remember the daughter of Jephthah from Gilead.

Jephthah and Ephraim

12 The men of Ephraim called all their soldiers together. Then they crossed the river to the town of Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why didn't you call us to help you fight the Ammonites? We will burn your house down with you in it!"

<sup>2</sup>Jephthah answered them, "My people and I fought a great battle against the Ammonites. I called you, but you didn't come to help me. <sup>3</sup>I saw that you would not help me. So I risked my own life! I went over to fight against the Ammonites. The Lord helped me to defeat them. Now why have you come to fight against me today?"

<sup>4</sup>Then Jephthah called the men of Gilead together. They fought the men of Ephraim. The men of Gilead attacked them because the Ephraimites had insulted them. They had said, "You men of Gilead are nothing but deserters from Ephraim and Manasseh." <sup>5</sup>The men of Gilead captured the crossing places of the Jordan River. Those places led to the country of Ephraim. A man from Ephraim trying to escape would say, "Let me cross the river." Then the men of Gilead would ask him, "Are you from Ephraim?" If he said, "No," <sup>6</sup>they would say to him, "Say the word 'Shibboleth.'" The men of Ephraim could not say that word correctly. They pronounced it "Sibboleth." If the man from Ephraim said, "Sibboleth," the men of Gilead would kill him at the crossing place. So 42,000 men from Ephraim were killed at that time.

<sup>7</sup>Jephthah was a judge for the people of Israel for six years. Then Jephthah, the man from Gilead, died. He was buried in a town in Gilead.

Ibzan, the Judge

<sup>8</sup>After Jephthah died, Ibzan was a judge for Israel. He was from Bethlehem. <sup>9</sup>He had 30 sons and 30 daughters. He let his daughters marry men who were not in his family group. And he brought 30 women who were not in his tribe to be wives for his sons. Ibzan judged Israel for seven years. <sup>10</sup>Then he died and was buried in Bethlehem.

Elon, the Judge

<sup>11</sup>After Ibzan died, Elon was a judge for Israel. He was from the tribe<sup>a</sup> of Zebulun. He judged Israel for ten years. <sup>12</sup>Then Elon, the man of Zebulun, died. He was buried in the city of Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Abdon, the Judge

<sup>13</sup>After Elon died, Abdon was a judge for Israel. He was the son of Hillel. Abdon was from the city of Pirathon. <sup>14</sup>He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons, who rode on 70 donkeys. He judged Israel for eight years. <sup>15</sup>Then Abdon son of Hillel died. He was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim. This is in the mountains where the Amalekites lived.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the people of Israel did what the Lord said was wrong. So he let the Philistines rule over them for 40 years.

<sup>2</sup>There was a man named Manoah from the city of Zorah. Manoah was from the tribe<sup>a</sup> of Dan. He had a wife, but she could not have children. <sup>3</sup>The angel of the Lord appeared to Manoah's wife. He said, "You have not been able to have children. But you will become pregnant and have a son! <sup>4</sup>Don't drink wine or beer. Don't eat anything that is unclean." <sup>5</sup>You will become pregnant and have a son. You must never cut his hair because he will be a Nazirite. <sup>6</sup>He will be given to God from birth. He will begin the work of saving Israel from the power of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup>Then Manoah's wife went to him and told him what had happened. She said, "A man from God came to me. He looked like an angel from God. His appearance was frightening. I didn't ask him where he was from. And he didn't tell me his name. <sup>7</sup>But he said to me, 'You will be pregnant and will have a son. Don't drink wine or beer. Don't eat anything that is unclean. The reason is that the boy will be a Nazirite to God. He will be that from his birth until the day of his death.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah said a prayer to the Lord: "Lord, I beg you to let the man of God come to us again. Let him teach us what we should do for the boy who will be born to us."

<sup>9</sup>God heard Manoah's prayer. The angel of God came to Manoah's wife again. This was while she was sitting in a field. But her husband Manoah was not with her. <sup>10</sup>So she ran to tell him, "He is here! The man who appeared to me the other day is here!"

<sup>11</sup>Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?"

The man said, "I am."

<sup>12</sup>So Manoah asked, "When what you say happens, what kind of life should the boy live? What should he do?"

<sup>13</sup>The angel of the Lord said, "Your wife must do everything I told her to do. <sup>14</sup>She must not eat anything that grows on a grapevine. She must not drink any wine or beer. She must not eat anything that is unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her to do."

<sup>15</sup>Manoah said to the angel of the Lord, "We would like you to stay awhile. We want to cook a young goat for you."

<sup>16</sup>The angel of the Lord answered, "Even if I stay awhile, I would not eat your food. But if you want to prepare something, offer a burnt offering to the Lord." (Manoah did not understand that the man was really the angel of the Lord.)

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah asked the angel of the Lord, "What is your name? We want to know. Then we may honor you when what you have said really happens."

<sup>18</sup>The angel of the Lord said, "Why do you ask my name? It is too wonderful for you to understand." <sup>19</sup>Then Manoah sacrificed a young goat on a rock. He also offered some grain as a gift to the Lord. The Lord did an amazing thing. Manoah and his wife watched what happened. <sup>20</sup>The flames went up to the sky from the altar. As the fire burned, the angel of the Lord went up to heaven in the fire! When Manoah and his wife saw that, they bowed facedown on the ground. <sup>21</sup>The angel of the Lord did not appear to them again. Then Manoah understood that the man was really the angel of the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Manoah said, "We have seen God! Surely we will die because of this!"

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, "The Lord does not want to kill us. If he wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted our burnt offering or grain offering. He would not have shown us all these things. And he would not have told us all this."

<sup>24</sup>So the woman gave birth to a boy. She named him Samson. Samson grew, and the Lord blessed him. <sup>25</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord began to work in Samson. This was while he was in the city of Mahaneh Dan. It is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson's Marriage

14 Samson went down to the city of Timnah. There he saw a young Philistine woman. <sup>2</sup>When he returned home, he said to his father and mother, "I saw a Philistine woman in Timnah. I want you to get her for me. I want to marry her."

<sup>3</sup>His father and mother answered, "Surely there is a woman from Israel you can marry. Do you have to marry a woman from the Philistines? The Philistines are not even circumcised."<sup>d</sup>

But Samson said, "Get that woman for me!

She is the one I want!" <sup>4</sup>(Samson's parents did not know that the Lord wanted this to happen. He was looking for a way to start a fight with the Philistines. They were ruling over Israel at this time.) <sup>5</sup>Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. They went as far as the vineyard near there. Suddenly, a young lion came roaring toward Samson! <sup>6</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord entered Samson with great power. Samson tore the lion apart with his bare hands. For him it was as easy as tearing apart a young goat. But Samson did not tell his father or mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup>Then he went down to the city. There he talked to the Philistine woman, and he liked her.

<sup>8</sup>Several days later Samson went back to marry her. On his way he went over to look at the body of the dead lion. He found a swarm of bees in it. They had made some honey. <sup>9</sup>Samson got some of the honey with his hands. He walked along eating it. When he came to his parents, he gave some to them. They ate it, too. But Samson did not tell them he had taken the honey from the body of the dead lion.

<sup>10</sup>Samson's father went down to see the Philistine woman. The custom was for the bridegroom to give a feast. So Samson gave a feast. <sup>11</sup>When the people saw him, they sent 30 men to be with him.

Samson's Riddle

<sup>12</sup>Then Samson said to the 30 men, "Let me tell you a riddle. This feast will last for seven days. Try to find the answer during that time. If you can, I will give you 30 linen shirts. I will also give you 30 changes of clothes. <sup>13</sup>But if you can't tell me the answer, you must pay me. You must give me 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes."

So they said, "Tell us your riddle. We want to hear it."

<sup>14</sup>Samson said,

"Out of the eater comes something to eat.

Out of the strong comes something sweet."

The 30 men tried for three days to figure it out. But they could not find the answer.

<sup>15</sup>On the fourth<sup>a</sup> day, they came to Samson's wife. They said, "Did you invite us here to make us poor? Trick your husband into telling us the answer to the riddle. If you don't, we will burn you and everyone in your father's house!"

<sup>16</sup>So Samson's wife went to him and began crying. She said, "You hate me! You don't really love me! You told my people a riddle, but you won't tell me the answer."

Samson said, "I haven't even told my father or mother. Why should I tell you?"

<sup>17</sup>Samson's wife cried for the rest of the seven days of the feast. So he finally gave her the answer on the seventh day. He told her because she kept bothering him. Then she told her people the answer to the riddle.

<sup>18</sup>Before sunset on the seventh day of the feast, the Philistine men had the answer. They came to Samson and said,

"What is sweeter than honey?

What is stronger than a lion?"

Then Samson said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my little cow, you would not have solved my riddle!"

<sup>19</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord entered Samson and gave him great power. Samson went down to the city of Ashkelon. He killed 30 of their men and took all their clothes and property. He gave those clothes to the men who had answered his riddle. Then he went to his father's house very angry. <sup>20</sup>And Samson's wife was given to his best man at the wedding.

Samson Troubles the Philistines

15 At the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife. He took a young goat with him. He said, "I'm going to my wife's room." But her father would not let Samson go in.

<sup>2</sup>He said to Samson, "I thought you really hated your wife. So I gave her to the best man from the wedding. Her younger sister is more beautiful. Take her."

<sup>3</sup>But Samson said to him, "Now I have a good reason to hurt you Philistines. No one will blame me!" <sup>4</sup>So Samson went out and caught 300 foxes. He took 2 foxes at a time and tied their tails together. Then he tied a torch to the tails of each pair of foxes. <sup>5</sup>Samson lit the torches. Then he let the foxes loose in the grainfields of the Philistines. In this way he burned up their standing grain and the piles of grain. He also burned up their vineyards and their olive trees.

Someone told them, "Samson, the son-in-law of the man from Timnah, did. He did this because his father-in-law gave his wife to his best man."

So the Philistines burned Samson's wife and her father to death. <sup>7</sup>Then Samson said to the Philistines, "Since you did this, I will hurt you, too! I won't stop until I pay you back!" <sup>8</sup>Samson attacked the Philistines and killed many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave. It was in the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Philistines went up and camped in the land of Judah. They stopped near a place named Lehi. <sup>10</sup>The men of Judah asked them, "Why have you come here to fight us?"

They answered, "We have come to make Samson our prisoner. We want to pay him back for what he did to our people."

<sup>11</sup>Then 3,000 men of Judah went to the cave in the rock of Etam. They said to Samson, "What have you done to us? Don't you know that the Philistines rule over us?"

Samson answered, "I only paid them back for what they did to me!"

<sup>12</sup>Then they said to him, "We have come to tie you up. We will give you to the Philistines."

Samson said to them, "Promise me you will not hurt me yourselves."

<sup>13</sup>The men from Judah said, "We agree. We will just tie you up and give you to the Philistines. We will not kill you." So they tied Samson with two new ropes. Then they led him up from the cave in the rock. <sup>14</sup>When Samson came to the place named Lehi, the Philistines came to meet him. They were shouting for joy. Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord entered Samson and gave him great power. The ropes on him became weak like strings that had been burned. They fell off his hands! <sup>15</sup>Samson found a jawbone of a donkey that had just died. He took it and killed 1,000 men with it!

<sup>16</sup>Then Samson said,

"With a donkey's jawbone

I have made donkeys out of them.

With a donkey's jawbone

I have killed 1,000 men!"

<sup>17</sup>When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone. So that place was named Ramath Lehi.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Samson was very thirsty. So he cried out to the Lord. He said, "I am your servant. You gave me this great victory. Do I have to die of thirst now? Do I have to be captured by people who are not circumcised?"<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>Then God opened up a hole in the ground at Lehi, and water came out. When Samson drank that water, he felt better. He felt strong again. So he named that spring Caller's Spring. It is still there in Lehi to this day.

<sup>20</sup>So Samson judged Israel for 20 years. That was in the days of the Philistines.

Samson Goes to the City of Gaza

16 One day Samson went to Gaza. He saw a prostitute<sup>d</sup> there. He went in to spend the night with her. <sup>2</sup>Someone told the people of Gaza, "Samson has come here!" So they surrounded the place and hid and waited for him. Remaining very quiet, they stayed near the city gate all night. They said to each other, "When dawn comes, we will kill Samson!"

<sup>3</sup>But Samson only stayed with the prostitute until midnight. Then he got up and took hold of the doors and the two posts of the city gate. He tore them loose, along with the bar. Then he put them on his shoulders. And he carried them to the top of the hill that faces the city of Hebron!

Samson and Delilah

<sup>4</sup>After this, Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah. She lived in the Valley of Sorek. <sup>5</sup>The kings of the Philistines went to Delilah. They said, "Try to find out what makes Samson so strong. Try to trick him into telling you. Find out how we could capture him and tie him up. Then we will be able to control him. If you do this, each one of us will give you 28 pounds of silver."

<sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me why you are so strong. How could someone tie you up and take control of you?"

<sup>7</sup>Samson answered, "Someone would have to tie me up. He would have to use seven new bowstrings that have not been dried. If he did that, I would be as weak as any other man."

<sup>8</sup>Then the kings of the Philistines brought seven new bowstrings to Delilah. They had not been dried. She tied Samson with them. <sup>9</sup>Some men were hiding in another room. Delilah said to Samson, "Samson, the Philistines are about to capture you!" But Samson easily broke the bowstrings. They broke like pieces of string burned in a fire. So the Philistines did not find out the secret of Samson's strength.

<sup>10</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "You've made me look foolish. You lied to me. Please tell me. How could someone tie you up?"

<sup>11</sup>Samson said, "They would have to tie me with new ropes that have not been used before. Then I would become as weak as any other man."

<sup>12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes and tied Samson. Some men were hiding in another room. Then she called out to him, "Samson, the Philistines are about to capture you!" But he broke the ropes as easily as if they were threads.

<sup>13</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now, you have made me look foolish. You have lied to me. Tell me how someone could tie you up."

He said, "Use the loom.<sup>a</sup> Weave the seven braids of my hair into the cloth. Tighten it with a pin. Then I will become as weak as any other man."

Then Samson went to sleep. So Delilah wove the seven braids of his hair into the cloth. <sup>14</sup>Then she fastened it with a pin.

Again she called out to him, "Samson, the Philistines are about to capture you!" Samson woke up and pulled up the pin and the loom with the cloth.

<sup>15</sup>Then Delilah said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you don't even trust me? This is the third time you have made me look foolish. You haven't told me the secret of your great strength." <sup>16</sup>She kept bothering Samson about his secret day after day. He became so tired of it he felt he was going to die!

<sup>17</sup>So he told her everything. He said, "I have never had my hair cut. I have been set apart to God as a Nazirite<sup>d</sup> since I was born. If someone shaved my head, then I would lose my strength. I would become as weak as any other man."

<sup>18</sup>Delilah saw that he had told her everything sincerely. So she sent a message to the kings of the Philistines. She said, "Come back one more time. He has told me everything." So the kings of the Philistines came back to Delilah. They brought the silver they had promised to give her. <sup>19</sup>Delilah got Samson to go to sleep. He was lying in her lap. Then she called in a man to shave off the seven braids of Samson's hair. In this way she began to make him weak. And Samson's strength left him.

<sup>20</sup>Then she called out to him, "Samson, the Philistines are about to capture you!"

He woke up and thought, "I'll get loose as I did before and shake myself free." But he did not know that the Lord had left him.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Philistines captured Samson. They tore out his eyes. And they took him down to Gaza. They put bronze chains on him. They put him in prison and made him grind grain. <sup>22</sup>But his hair began to grow again.

Samson Dies

saw him, they praised their god. They said, "This man destroyed our country.

He killed many of us!

But our god helped us capture our enemy."

<sup>25</sup>The people were having a good time at the celebration. They said, "Bring Samson out to perform for us." So they brought Samson from the prison. He performed for them. They made him stand between the pillars of the temple of Dagon. <sup>26</sup>A servant was holding his hand. Samson said to him, "Let me feel the pillars that hold up the temple. I want to lean against them." <sup>27</sup>Now the temple was full of men and women. All the kings of the Philistines were there. There were about 3,000 men and women on the roof.<sup>a</sup> They watched Samson perform. <sup>28</sup>Then Samson prayed to the Lord. He said, "Lord God, remember me. God, please give me strength one more time. Let me pay these Philistines back for putting out my two eyes!" <sup>29</sup>Then Samson held the two center pillars of the temple. These two pillars supported the whole temple. He braced himself between the two pillars. His right hand was on one, and his left hand was on the other. <sup>30</sup>Samson said, "Let me die with these Philistines!" Then he pushed as hard as he could. And the temple fell on the kings and all the people in it. So Samson killed more of the Philistines when he died than when he was alive.

<sup>31</sup>Samson's brothers and his whole family went down to get his body. They brought him back and buried him in the tomb of Manoah, his father. That tomb is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. Samson was a judge for the people of Israel for 20 years.

Micah's Idols

17 There was a man named Micah. He lived in the mountains of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>He said to his mother, "You remember the 28 pounds of silver that were taken from you. I heard you say a curse about it. I have the silver with me. I took it."

His mother said, "The Lord bless you, my son!"

<sup>3</sup>Micah gave the 28 pounds of silver to his mother. Then she said, "I will give this silver to the Lord. I will have my son make a carved idol and an idol of melted silver. So I will give the silver back to you."

She took about 5 pounds of the silver and gave it to a silversmith. He used it to make a carved idol and an idol of melted silver. The idols were put in Micah's house. <sup>5</sup>Micah had a temple for worshiping idols. He made a vest<sup>d</sup> for a priest and some household idols. Then Micah chose one of his sons to be his priest. <sup>6</sup>At that time the Israelites did not have a king. So everyone did what he thought was right.

<sup>7</sup>There was a young man who was a Levite.<sup>e</sup> He was from the city of Bethlehem in the land of Judah. He had been living with the people of Judah. <sup>8</sup>He left Bethlehem to look for another place to live. On his way he came to Micah's house. It was in the mountains of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>Micah asked him, "Where have you come from?"

He answered, "I'm a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I'm looking for a place to live."

<sup>10</sup>Then Micah said to him, "Live with me. Be my father and my priest. I will give you 4 ounces of silver each year. I will also give you clothes and food." So the Levite went in. <sup>11</sup>The young Levite agreed to live with Micah. He became like one of Micah's own sons. <sup>12</sup>Micah made him a priest. And he lived in Micah's house. <sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, "Now I know the Lord will be good to me. I know this because I have a Levite as my priest!"

Dan's Family Captures Laish

18 At that time the Israelites did not have a king. The people of Dan were still looking for a land where they could live. They wanted a land of their own. The other tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel already had their own lands. But the Danites did not yet have their own land. <sup>2</sup>So they chose five soldiers from all their family groups. These five men were from the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. They sent the men to spy out and explore the land. They were told, "Go, explore the land."

So they came to the mountains of Ephraim. They came to Micah's house, where they spent the night. <sup>3</sup>When they came near Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite.<sup>e</sup> So they stopped at Micah's house. They asked the young Levite, "Who brought you to this place? What are you doing here? Why are you here?"

<sup>4</sup>He told them what Micah had done for him. "He has hired me. I am his priest."

<sup>5</sup>They said to him, "Please ask God something for us. Will our search for a place to live be successful?"

<sup>a</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

<sup>e</sup>Levite The Levites were the only ones God had appointed as priests.

<sup>6</sup>The priest said to them, "Go in peace. The Lord is pleased with your journey."

<sup>7</sup>So the five men left. They came to the city of Laish. They saw that the people there lived in safety. They were like the people of Sidon. They lived in peace and were not afraid of others. They had plenty of everything. They lived a long way from the Sidonians. And they had no dealings with anyone else.

<sup>8</sup>The five men went back to Zorah and Eshtaol. Their relatives asked them, "What did you find?"

<sup>9</sup>They answered, "We have seen the land. And it is very good. We should attack them. Aren't you going to do something? Don't wait! Let's go and take that land!" <sup>10</sup>When you go, you will see there is plenty of land. There is plenty of everything! The people are not expecting an attack. Surely God has given that land to us!"

<sup>14</sup>So the five men who had explored the land around Laish spoke. They said to their relatives, "There is a vest<sup>d</sup> for a priest in one of these houses. And there are household gods in these houses. There are also a carved idol and an idol of melted silver in these houses. You know what to do." <sup>15</sup>So they stopped at the Levite's house. This was also Micah's house. And they greeted the Levite. <sup>16</sup>The 600 men of Dan stood at the gate entrance. They wore their weapons of war. <sup>17</sup>The five spies went into the house. They took the carved idol, the vest for a priest, the household idols and the silver idol. The priest and the 600 men ready for war stood by the gate entrance.

<sup>18</sup>When the spies went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the vest for a priest, the household idols and the silver idol, the priest asked them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup>They answered, "Be quiet! Don't say a word. Come with us. Be our father and our priest. Is it better for you to be a priest for the people in one man's house? Or is it better for you to be a priest for a tribe<sup>d</sup> and family group in Israel?" <sup>20</sup>This made the Levite happy. So he took the vest for a priest, the household idols and the carved idol. And he went with the men of Dan. <sup>21</sup>They left Micah's house. They put their little children, their animals and everything they owned in front of them.

<sup>24</sup>Micah answered, "You took my idols! I made those idols. You have also taken my priest. What do I have left? How can you ask me, 'What's the matter?'"

<sup>25</sup>The men of Dan answered, "You should not argue with us. Some of our men have hot tempers. If you shout at us, they might attack you. You and your family might be killed." <sup>26</sup>Then the men of Dan went on their way. Micah knew they were too strong for him. So he turned and went back home.

<sup>27</sup>So the men of Dan took what Micah had made. They also took his priest and went on to Laish. They attacked those peaceful people. The people of Laish had not expected an attack. The men of Dan killed them with their swords. Then they burned the city. <sup>28</sup>There was no one to save the people of Laish. They lived too far from Sidon. And they had no dealings with anyone else. Laish was in a valley near Beth Rehob.

The people of Dan rebuilt the city in that place. And they lived there. <sup>29</sup>They changed the name of Laish to Dan. They named it after their ancestor Dan. He was one of the sons of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The people of Dan set up the idols in the city of Dan. They made Jonathan son of Gershom their priest. Gershom was the son of Moses. Jonathan and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan. They served as priests until the Israelites were taken captive. <sup>31</sup>The people of Dan worshiped the idols Micah had made. They worshiped them as long as the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> of God was in Shiloh.

A Levite and His Servant

19 At that time the people of Israel did not have a king.

There was a Levite who lived in the faraway part of the mountains of Ephraim. He had taken a slave woman.<sup>d</sup> She was from the city of

Bethlehem in the land of Judah. <sup>2</sup>But she was unfaithful to him. She left him and went back to her father's house. It was in Bethlehem in Judah. She stayed there for four months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband went to ask her to come back to him. He took with him his servant and two donkeys. The Levite came to her father's house. And she invited the Levite to come in. Her father was happy to see him. <sup>4</sup>The father-in-law, the young woman's father, asked him to stay. So he stayed for three days. He ate, drank and slept there.

<sup>5</sup>On the fourth day they got up early in the morning. The Levite was getting ready to leave. But the woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself by eating something. Then you may go." <sup>6</sup>So the two men sat down to eat and drink together. After that, the father said to him, "Please stay tonight. Relax and enjoy yourself." <sup>7</sup>When the man got up to go, his father-in-law asked him to stay. So he stayed again that night. <sup>8</sup>On the fifth day the man got up early in the morning to leave. The woman's father said, "Refresh yourself. Wait until this afternoon." So the two men ate together.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Levite, his slave woman and his servant got up to leave. His father-in-law, the young woman's father, said, "It's almost night. The day is almost gone. So spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow morning you may get up early and go on your way home." <sup>10</sup>But the Levite did not want to stay another night. He took his two saddled donkeys and his slave woman. He traveled toward the city of Jebus. (Jebus is another name for Jerusalem.)

<sup>11</sup>The day was almost over. They were near Jebus. So the servant said to his master, "Let's stop at this city. It's the city of the Jebusite people. Let's spend the night here."

<sup>12</sup>But his master said, "No. We won't go inside a strange city. Those people are not Israelites. We will go on to the city of Gibeah."

<sup>13</sup>Then he said, "Come on. Let's try to make it to Gibeah or Ramah. We can spend the night in one of those cities." <sup>14</sup>So they went on. And the sun went down as they came near Gibeah. Gibeah belongs to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>So they stopped there to spend the night. They came to the public square in the middle of the city and sat down. But no one invited them home to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup>That evening an old man came into the city from his work in the fields. His home was in the mountains of Ephraim. But now he was living in Gibeah. (The men of Gibeah were from the tribe of Benjamin.) <sup>17</sup>He saw the traveler, the Levite, in the public square. He asked, "Where are you going? Where did you come from?"

<sup>18</sup>The Levite answered, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah. We're going to my home. I'm from a faraway part of the mountains of Ephraim. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah. Now I am going to the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. No one has invited me to stay in his house. <sup>19</sup>We already have straw and food for our donkeys. There is bread and wine for me, the young woman and my servant. We don't need anything."

<sup>20</sup>The old man said, "You are welcome to stay at my house. Let me give you anything you need. But don't spend the night in the public square." <sup>21</sup>So the old man took the Levite into his house. He fed their donkeys, and they washed their feet. Then he gave them something to eat and drink.

<sup>22</sup>While they were enjoying themselves, some wicked men of the city surrounded the house. They beat on the door. They shouted to the old man who owned the house. They said, "Bring out the man who came to your house. We want to have sexual relations with him."

<sup>25</sup>But the men would not listen to him. So the Levite took his slave woman and sent her outside to them. They had sexual relations with her even though she didn't want to. They treated her very badly all night long. Then, at dawn, they let her go. <sup>26</sup>She came back to the house where her master was staying. She fell down at the door and lay there until daylight.

<sup>27</sup>In the morning the Levite got up. He opened the door of the house. He went outside to go on his way. But there lay his slave woman. She had fallen down at the doorway of the house. Her hands were on the doorsill. <sup>28</sup>Then the Levite said to her, "Get up; let's go." But she did not answer. So he put her on his donkey and went home.

<sup>29</sup>When the Levite got home, he took a knife and cut his slave woman into 12 parts. Then he sent a part to each of the areas where the people of Israel lived. <sup>30</sup>Everyone who saw this said, "Nothing like this has ever happened before. It has never happened since the people of Israel came out of Egypt. Think about it. Tell us what to do.”

The War Between Israel and Benjamin

20 So all the Israelites joined together. They came to stand before the Lord in the city of Mizpah. They came from as far away as the cities of Dan and Beersheba.<sup>a</sup> Even the Israelites from the land of Gilead were there. <sup>2</sup>The leaders of all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel were there. They took their places in the meeting of the people of God. There were 400,000 soldiers with swords. <sup>3</sup>(The people of Benjamin heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the Israelites said to the Levite, “Tell us how this evil thing happened.”

<sup>4</sup>So the husband of the murdered woman answered: “My slave woman<sup>d</sup> and I came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night. <sup>5</sup>During the night the men of Gibeah came after me. They surrounded the house and wanted to kill me. They had sexual relations with my slave woman even though she didn’t want to. And she died! <sup>6</sup>So I took her and cut her into parts. Then I sent one part to each area of Israel’s land. I did it because the people of Benjamin have done this wicked and terrible thing in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Now, all you men of Israel, speak up. Tell what you have decided we should do.”

<sup>8</sup>Then all the people stood up at the same time. They said, “None of us will go home. Not one of us will go back to his house! <sup>9</sup>Now this is what we will do to Gibeah. We will throw lots<sup>d</sup> so that God can show us what to do. <sup>10</sup>We will choose 10 men from each 100 men. They will be from all the tribes of Israel. And we will choose 100 men from each 1,000. We will choose 1,000 men from each 10,000. These men will find supplies for the army. Then the army will go to the city of Gibeah of Benjamin. They will repay those people for the terrible thing they have done in Israel.” <sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel gathered against the city. They all agreed about what they were doing.

<sup>12</sup>The tribes of Israel sent men to all the family groups of Benjamin with a message. They said, “What is this evil thing some of your men have done? <sup>13</sup>Give up the evil men in Gibeah so that we can put them to death. We must remove this evil from Israel.”

But the Benjaminites would not listen to their relatives, the people of Israel. <sup>14</sup>The Benjaminites left their own cities and met at Gibe-ah. They went to fight against the Israelites. <sup>15</sup>In only one day the Benjaminites got 26,000 soldiers together. These soldiers were trained with swords. They also had 700 chosen men from Gibeah. <sup>16</sup>Seven hundred of these trained soldiers were left-handed. Each of these left-handed soldiers could sling a stone at a hair and not miss!

<sup>17</sup>The Israelites, except for the Benjaminites, gathered 400,000 fighting men. These 400,000 men used swords and were trained soldiers.

<sup>18</sup>The Israelites went up to the city of Bethel. They asked God, “Which tribe shall be first to attack the Benjaminites?”

The Lord answered, “Judah shall go first.”

<sup>19</sup>The next morning the Israelites got up. They made a camp near Gibeah. <sup>20</sup>Then the men of Israel went out to fight the Benjaminites. The Israelites got into battle position at Gibeah. <sup>21</sup>Then the Benjaminites came out of Gibeah. They killed 22,000 Israelites during the battle that day. <sup>22,23</sup>The Israelites went before the Lord. They cried until evening. They asked the Lord, “Shall we go to fight our relatives, the Benjaminites, again?”

The Lord answered, “Go up and fight them.” The men of Israel encouraged each other. So they took the same battle positions they had taken the first day.

<sup>24</sup>The Israelites brought their battle lines against the Benjaminites the second day. <sup>25</sup>The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah to attack the Israelites. This time, the Benjaminites killed 18,000 Israelites. All of these Israelites had been trained with swords.

<sup>26</sup>Then the Israelites went up to Bethel. There they sat down and cried to the Lord. They went without food all day until evening. They also brought burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. <sup>27</sup>The Israelites asked the Lord a question. (In those days the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with God was there at Bethel. <sup>28</sup>A priest named Phinehas served before the Ark of the Agreement. He was the son of Eleazar, who was the son of Aaron.) The people of Israel asked, “Shall we again go to fight against our relatives the Benjaminites? Or shall we stop fighting?”

The Lord answered, “Go, because tomorrow I will help you defeat them.”

<sup>a</sup>Dan . . . Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

They got into position for battle, as they had done before. <sup>31</sup>Then the Benjaminites came out of the city to fight them. The Israelites backed up and led the Benjaminites away from the city. The Benjaminites began to kill some of the Israelites as they had done before. About 30 men from Israel were killed. Some of them were killed in the fields and some on the roads. One road led to Bethel. Another road led to Gibeah.

But the Israelites said, "Let's run. Let's trick them into going farther away from their city and onto the roads."

<sup>33</sup>All the men of Israel moved from their places. They got into battle positions at a place named Baal Tamar. Then the Israelites ran out from their hiding places west of Gibeah. <sup>34</sup>Ten thousand of the best trained soldiers from the army of Israel attacked Gibeah. The battle was very hard. The Benjaminites did not know disaster was about to come to them. <sup>35</sup>The Lord used the Israelites to defeat the Benjaminites. On that day the Israelites killed 25,100 Benjaminites. All these men were armed with swords. <sup>36</sup>Then the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated.

The men of Israel had moved back. They backed up because they were depending on the surprise attack. They had set it up near Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>The men in hiding rushed into Gibeah. They spread out and killed everyone in the city with their swords. <sup>38</sup>Now the men of Israel had made a plan with the men in hiding. The men in the surprise attack were to send up a signal. It was to be a big cloud of smoke from the city. <sup>39</sup>So the army of Israel turned around in the battle.

The Benjaminites had killed about 30 Israelites. They were saying, "We are winning, as in the first battle!" <sup>40</sup>But then the big cloud of smoke began to rise from the city. The Benjaminites turned around and saw it. The whole city was full of smoke that went up into the sky. <sup>41</sup>Then the Israelites turned and began to fight. The Benjaminites were terrified. Now they knew that disaster was coming to them. <sup>42</sup>So the Benjaminites ran away from the Israelites. They ran toward the desert. But they could not escape the battle. And the Israelites who came out of the cities killed them. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded the Benjaminites and chased them. They caught them in the area east of Gibeah. <sup>44</sup>So 18,000 brave and strong Benjaminites fighters were killed. <sup>45</sup>The Benjaminites ran toward the desert. They ran to a place called the rock of Rimmon. But the Israelites killed 5,000 Benjaminites along the roads. They kept chasing them as far as a place named Gidom. And they killed 2,000 more Benjaminites there.

<sup>46</sup>On that day 25,000 Benjaminites were killed. All of them had fought bravely with swords. <sup>47</sup>But 600 Benjaminites ran to the rock of Rimmon in the desert. They stayed there for four months. <sup>48</sup>Then the men of Israel went back to the land of Benjamin. They killed the people in every city. They also killed the animals. They destroyed everything they could find. And they burned every city they found.

Wives for the Men of Benjamin

21 At Mizpah the men of Israel had made a promise. This was their promise: "Not one of us will let his daughter marry a man from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin."

<sup>2</sup>The people went to the city of Bethel. There they sat before God until evening, crying loudly. <sup>3</sup>They said, "Lord, you are the God of Israel. Why has this terrible thing happened to us? Why has one tribe of Israel been taken away?"

<sup>4</sup>Early the next day the people built an altar. They put burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God on it.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Israelites asked, "Did any tribe of Israel not come here to meet with us before the Lord?" They asked this question because they had made a great promise. They had promised that anyone who did not meet with them at Mizpah would be killed.

<sup>6</sup>The Israelites felt sorry for their relatives, the Benjaminites. They said, "Today one tribe has been separated from Israel. <sup>7</sup>We made a promise before the Lord. We will not allow our daughters to marry a Benjaminites. How can we make sure that the men of Benjamin will have wives?" <sup>8</sup>Then they asked, "Which one of the tribes of Israel did not come here to Mizpah?" They found that no one from the city of Jabesh Gilead was there. <sup>9</sup>The people of Israel counted everyone, but no one from Jabesh Gilead was there.

<sup>10</sup>So the whole group of Israelites sent 12,000 soldiers to Jabesh Gilead. They told the soldiers to kill the people in Jabesh Gilead with their swords. Even the women and children were to be killed.

<sup>11</sup>"This is what you must do: Kill every man in Jabesh Gilead. Also kill every woman who has had sexual relations with a man." <sup>12</sup>The soldiers found 400 young women in Jabesh Gilead who had never had sexual relations with a man. They brought these women to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>Then the whole group of Israelites sent a message to the men of Benjamin. They offered to make peace with them. The men of Benjamin were at the rock of Rimmon. <sup>14</sup>So the men of Benjamin came back at that time. The Israelites gave them the women from Jabesh Gilead who had not been killed. But there were not enough women for all of them.

<sup>15</sup>The people of Israel felt sorry for the Benjaminites. This was because the Lord had separated the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup>The older leaders of the Israelites spoke. They said, "The women of Benjamin have been killed. Where can we get wives for the men of Benjamin who are still alive? <sup>17</sup>These men must have children to continue their families. This is so a tribe in Israel will not die out. <sup>18</sup>But we cannot allow our daughters to marry them. We have made this promise: 'Anyone who gives a wife to a man of Benjamin is cursed.' <sup>19</sup>We have an idea! There is a yearly festival of the Lord at Shiloh. Shiloh is north of the city of Bethel. It is east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem. And it is south of the city of Lebonah."

about their idea. They said, "Go and hide in the vineyards. <sup>21</sup>Watch for the young women from Shiloh to come out. They will come to join the dancing. Then run out from the vineyards. Each of you take one of the young Shiloh women and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>The fathers or brothers of those young women will come to us. They will complain, but we will say: 'Be kind to the men of Benjamin. We did not get wives for Benjamin during the war. And you did not give the women to the men from Benjamin. So you are not guilty.' "

<sup>23</sup>So that is what the Benjaminites did. While the young women were dancing, each man caught one of them. They took them away and married them. Then they went back to the land God had given them. They rebuilt their cities and lived there.

<sup>24</sup>Then the Israelites went home. They went to their own tribes and family groups. They went to their own land that God had given them.

<sup>25</sup>In those days the Israelites did not have a king. Everyone did what he thought was right.

RUTH

The Story of a Girl from Moab

A

1<sup>1,2</sup>Long ago the judges<sup>a</sup> ruled Israel. During their rule, there was a time in the land when there was not enough food to eat. A man named Elimelech left Bethlehem in Judah and moved to the country of Moab. He took his wife and his two sons with him. His wife was named Naomi, and his two sons were named Mahlon and Kilion. These people were from the Ephrathah district around Bethlehem in Judah. The family traveled to Moab and lived there.

Then Naomi kissed the women. And they began to cry out loud. <sup>10</sup>Her daughters-in-law said to her, "No. We will go with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "My daughters, go back to your own homes. Why do you want to go with me? I cannot give birth to more sons to give you new husbands. <sup>12</sup>So go back to your own homes. I am too old to have another husband. But even if I had another husband tonight and if I had more sons, it wouldn't help! <sup>13</sup>Would you wait until the babies were grown into men? Would you live for so many years without husbands? Don't do this thing. My life is much too sad for you to share. This is because the Lord is against me!"

Ruth Stays with Naomi

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said, "Don't ask me to leave you! Don't beg me not to follow you! Every place you go, I will go. Every place you live, I will live. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. <sup>17</sup>And where you die, I will die. And there I will be buried. I ask the Lord to punish me terribly if I do not keep this promise: Only death will separate us."

<sup>18</sup>Naomi saw that Ruth had made up her mind to go with her. So Naomi stopped arguing with her. <sup>19</sup>Naomi and Ruth went on until they came to the town of Bethlehem. When the two women entered Bethlehem, all the people became very excited. The women of the town said, "Is this Naomi?"

<sup>20</sup>But Naomi told the people, "Don't call me Naomi.<sup>a</sup> Call me Mara,<sup>b</sup> because God All-Powerful has made my life very sad. <sup>21</sup>When I left, I had all I wanted. But now, the Lord has brought me home with nothing. So why should you call me Naomi when the Lord has spoken against me? God All-Powerful has given me much trouble."

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 Now there was a rich man living in Bethlehem whose name was Boaz. Boaz was one of Naomi's close relatives from Elimelech's family.

<sup>2</sup>One day Ruth, the woman from Moab, said to Naomi, "Let me go to the fields. Maybe someone will be kind and let me gather the grain he leaves in his field.”

<sup>a</sup>Judges They were not judges in courts of law, but leaders of the people in times of emergency.

Naomi said, “Go, my daughter.”

<sup>3</sup>So Ruth went to the fields. She followed the workers who were cutting the grain. And she gathered the grain that they had left. It just so happened that the field belonged to Boaz. He was a close relative from Elimelech’s family.

<sup>4</sup>When Boaz came from Bethlehem, he spoke to his workers: “The Lord be with you!”

And the workers answered, “May the Lord bless you!”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz spoke to his servant who was in charge of the workers. He asked, “Whose girl is that?”

<sup>6</sup>The servant answered, “She is the Moabite woman who came with Naomi from the country of Moab. <sup>7</sup>She said, ‘Please let me follow the workers and gather the grain that they leave on the ground.’ She came and has remained here. From morning until just now, she has stopped only a few moments to rest in the shelter.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen, my daughter. Stay here in my field to gather grain for yourself. Do not go to any other person’s field. Continue following behind my women workers. <sup>9</sup>Watch to see which fields they go to and follow them. I have warned the young men not to bother you. When you are thirsty, you may go and drink. Take water from the water jugs that the servants have filled.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Ruth bowed low with her face to the ground. She said to Boaz, “I am a stranger. Why have you been so kind to notice me?”

<sup>11</sup>Boaz answered her, “I know about all the help you have given to Naomi, your mother-in-law. You helped her even after your husband died. You left your father and mother and your own country. You came to this nation where you did not know anyone. <sup>12</sup>The Lord will reward you for all you have done. You will be paid in full by the Lord, the God of Israel. You have come to him as a little bird finds shelter under the wings of its mother.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Ruth said, “You are very kind to me, sir. You have said kind words to me, your servant. You have given me hope. And I am not even good enough to be one of your servants.”

So Ruth sat down with the workers. Boaz gave her some roasted grain. Ruth ate until she was full, and there was some food left over.

<sup>19</sup>Naomi asked her, “Where did you gather all this grain today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who noticed you!”

Ruth told her about whose field she had worked in. She said, “The man I worked with today is named Boaz.”

<sup>20</sup>Naomi told her daughter-in-law, “The Lord bless him! The Lord still continues to be kind to all people—the living and the dead!” Then Naomi told Ruth, “Boaz is one of our close relatives, <sup>a</sup> one who will take care of us.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Ruth said, “Boaz also told me to come back and continue working. He said, ‘Keep close by my servants until they have finished the harvest.’”

<sup>22</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “It is good for you to continue working with his women servants. If you work in another field, someone might hurt you.” <sup>23</sup>So Ruth continued working closely with the women servants of Boaz. She gathered grain until the barley harvest was finished. She also worked there through the end of the wheat harvest. And Ruth continued to live with Naomi, her mother-in-law.

Naomi’s Plan

3 Then Naomi, Ruth’s mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, I must find a suitable home for you. That would be good for you.

<sup>2</sup>Now Boaz is our close relative. <sup>a</sup> You worked with his women servants. Tonight he will be working at the threshing <sup>d</sup> floor. <sup>3</sup>Go wash yourself and put on perfume. Change your clothes, and go down to the threshing floor. But don’t let him see you until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>Then he will lie down. Watch him so you will know the place where he lies down. Go there and lift the cover off his feet <sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup>close relatives In Bible times the closest relative could marry a widow without children so she could have children. He would care for this family, but they and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to the dead husband.

and lie down. He will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>6</sup>So Ruth went down to the threshing floor. She did all her mother-in-law told her to do. <sup>7</sup>After eating and drinking, Boaz was feeling good. He went to lie down beside the pile of grain. Then Ruth went to him quietly. She lifted the cover from his feet and lay down.

<sup>8</sup>About midnight Boaz woke up suddenly and rolled over. He was frightened! There was a woman lying near his feet! <sup>9</sup>Boaz asked, “Who are you?”

She said, “I am Ruth, your servant girl. Spread your cover over me because you are the one who is to take care of me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Boaz said, “The Lord bless you, my daughter. Your kindness to me is greater than the kindness you showed to Naomi in the beginning. You didn’t look for a young man to marry, either rich or poor. <sup>11</sup>Now, my daughter, don’t be afraid. I will do everything you ask. All the people in our town know you are a very good woman. <sup>12</sup>And it is true, I am a relative who is to take care of you. But there is a man who is a closer relative to you than I. <sup>13</sup>But stay here tonight. In the morning we will see if he will take care of you. If he decides to take care of you, that is fine. If he refuses to take care of you, I myself will marry you. Then I will buy back Elimelech’s land for you. As surely as the Lord lives, I promise to do this. So lie here until morning.”

<sup>14</sup>So Ruth lay near his feet until the morning. She rose while it was still too dark to be recognized. Boaz said to his servants, “Don’t tell anyone that the woman came here to the threshing floor.” <sup>15</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Bring me your shawl. Now, hold it open.”

So Ruth held her shawl open, and Boaz poured six portions of barley into it. Boaz then put it on her back, and she went to the city.

<sup>16</sup>Ruth went to the home of her mother-in-law. And Naomi asked, “How did you do, my daughter?”

So Ruth told Naomi everything that Boaz did for her. <sup>17</sup>She said, “Boaz gave me these six portions of barley. He said, ‘You must not go home without a gift for your mother-in-law.’”

<sup>18</sup>Naomi answered, “Ruth, my daughter, wait until you hear what happens. Boaz will not rest until he has finished doing what he should do this day.”

Boaz Marries Ruth

4 Boaz went to the city gate. He sat there until the close relative he had mentioned passed by. Boaz called to him, “Come here, friend! Sit down here!” So the man came over and sat down. <sup>2</sup>Boaz gathered ten of the old men who were leaders of the city. He told them, “Sit down here!” So they sat down.

<sup>3</sup>Then Boaz spoke to the close relative. He said, “Naomi has come back from the country of Moab. She wants to sell the piece of land that belonged to our relative Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>So I decided to say this to you: If you want to buy back the land, then buy it! Buy it in front of the people who live here and in front of the older leaders of my people. If you don’t want to buy it, tell me. I am the only person after you who can buy back the land. If you don’t buy it back, I will.”

And the close relative said, “I will buy back the land.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said, “When you buy the land from Naomi, you must marry Ruth, the dead man’s wife. She is the woman from Moab. That way, the land will stay in her dead husband’s family.”

<sup>6</sup>The close relative answered, “Then I can’t buy back the land. If I did, I might lose what I can pass on to my own sons. I cannot buy the land back. So you buy it yourself.”

<sup>7</sup>Long ago in Israel when people traded or bought back something, one person took off his sandal and gave it to the other person. This was their proof of purchase.

<sup>8</sup>So the close relative said, “Buy the land yourself.” And then he took off his sandal.

<sup>9</sup>Then Boaz spoke to the older leaders and to all the people. He said, “You are witnesses today of what I am buying from Naomi. I am buying everything that belonged to Elimelech and Kilion and Mahlon. <sup>10</sup>I am also taking Ruth as my wife. She is the Moabite who was the wife of Mahlon. I am doing this so her dead husband’s property will stay with his family. This way, his name will not be separated from his family and his land. You are witnesses this day.”

<sup>11</sup>So all the people and older leaders who were at the city gate said, “We are witnesses. This woman will be coming into your home. We hope the Lord will make her like Rachel and Leah. They had many children. So the people of Israel grew in number. May you become powerful in the district of Ephrathah. May you become famous in Bethlehem! <sup>12</sup>Tamar gave birth to Judah's son Perez.<sup>a</sup> In the same way, may the Lord give you many children through Ruth. And may your family be great like his."

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth and married her. The Lord let her become pregnant, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>14</sup>The women told Naomi, "Praise the Lord who gave you this grandson. And may he become famous in Israel. <sup>15</sup>He will give you new life. And he will take care of you in your old age. This happened because of your daughter-in-law. She loves you. And she is better for you than seven sons. She has given birth to your grandson."

<sup>16</sup>Naomi took the boy, held him in her arms and cared for him. <sup>17</sup>The neighbors gave the boy his name. These women said, "This boy was born for Naomi." The neighbors named him Obed. Obed was Jesse's father. And Jesse was the father of David.

<sup>18</sup>This is the family history of Perez. Perez was the father of Hezron. <sup>19</sup>Hezron was the father of Ram. # 1 SAMUEL

Samuel and King Saul

Samuel's Birth

1 There was a man named Elkanah son of Jeroham. He was from Ramathaim in the mountains of Ephraim. Elkanah was from the family of Zuph. (Jeroham was Elihu's son. Elihu was Tohu's son. And Tohu was the son of Zuph from the family group of Ephraim.) <sup>2</sup>Elkanah had two wives. One was named Hannah, and the other was named Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

<sup>3</sup>Every year Elkanah left his town Ramah and went up to Shiloh. There he worshiped the Lord of heaven's armies and offered sacrifices to him. Shiloh was where Hophni and Phinehas served as priests of the Lord. They were the sons of Eli. <sup>4</sup>When Elkanah offered sacrifices, he always gave a share of the meat to his wife Peninnah. He also gave shares of the meat to her sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>But Elkanah always gave a special share of the meat to Hannah. He did this because he loved Hannah and because the Lord had made Hannah unable to have children. <sup>6</sup>Peninnah would upset Hannah and make her feel bad. She did this because the Lord had made Hannah unable to have children. <sup>7</sup>This happened every year when they went up to the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Lord at Shiloh. Peninnah would upset Hannah until Hannah would cry and not eat anything. <sup>8</sup>Her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, why are you crying? Why won't you eat? Why are you sad? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup>Once, after they had eaten their meal in Shiloh, Hannah got up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair near the entrance to the Lord's Holy Tent. <sup>10</sup>Hannah was very sad. She cried much and prayed to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>She made a promise. She said, "Lord of heaven's armies, see how bad I feel. Remember me! Don't forget me. If you will give me a son, I will give him back to you all his life. And no one will ever use a razor to cut his hair."<sup>a</sup>

thought she was drunk. <sup>14</sup>He said to her, "Stop getting drunk! Throw away your wine!"

<sup>15</sup>Hannah answered, "No, master, I have not drunk any wine or beer. I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I was telling the Lord about all my problems. <sup>16</sup>Don't think of me as an evil woman. I have been praying because of my many troubles and much sadness."

<sup>17</sup>Eli answered, "Go in peace. May the God of Israel give you what you asked of him."

<sup>18</sup>Hannah said, "I want to be pleasing to you always." Then she left and ate something. She was not sad anymore.

<sup>19</sup>Early the next morning Elkanah's family got up and worshiped the Lord. Then they went back home to Ramah. Elkanah had sexual relations with his wife Hannah. And the Lord remembered her. <sup>20</sup>So Hannah became pregnant, and in time she gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel.<sup>n</sup> She said, "His name is Samuel because I asked the Lord for him."

Hannah Gives Samuel to God

<sup>21</sup>Every year Elkanah went to Shiloh to offer sacrifices. He went to keep the promise he had made to God. He brought his whole family with him. So once again he went up to Shiloh. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go with him. She told him, "When the boy is old enough to eat solid food, I will take him to Shiloh. Then I will give him to the Lord. He will become a Nazirite.<sup>d</sup> He will always live there at Shiloh."

<sup>23</sup>Elkanah, Hannah's husband, said to her, "Do what you think is best. You may stay home until the boy is old enough to eat. May the Lord do what you have said." So Hannah stayed at home to nurse her son until he was old enough to eat.

<sup>a</sup>And . . . hair People who made special promises not to cut their hair or to drink wine or beer were called Nazirites. These people gave their lives to the Lord. See Numbers 6:1-5.

to the Lord. <sup>27</sup>I prayed for this child. The Lord answered my prayer and gave him to me. <sup>28</sup>Now I give him back to the Lord. He will belong to the Lord all his life." And he worshiped the Lord there.

Hannah Gives Thanks

2 Hannah said:

"The Lord has filled my heart with joy.
I feel very strong in the Lord.
I can laugh at my enemies.
I am glad because you have helped me!

<sup>2</sup>"There is no one holy like the Lord.
There is no God but you.
There is no Rock<sup>d</sup> like our God.

<sup>3</sup>"Don't continue bragging.
Don't speak proud words.
The Lord is a God who knows everything.
He judges what people do.

<sup>4</sup>"The bows of warriors break, but weak people become strong.

<sup>5</sup>Those who once had plenty of food now must work for food.
But people who once were hungry now grow fat on food.

The woman who was unable to have children now has had seven.
But the woman who had many sons now is sad.

<sup>6</sup>"The Lord causes people to die, and he causes them to live.
He brings people down to where the dead are,
and he raises them to life again.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord makes people poor, and he makes people rich.
He makes people humble, and he makes people great.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord raises the poor up from the dust.
And he picks needy people up from the ashes.
He lets the poor sit with princes.
He lets them sit on a throne of honor.

"The foundations of the earth belong to the Lord.

The Lord set the world upon them.

<sup>9</sup>He protects his holy people.
But those who do evil will be silenced in darkness.

Their power will not help them win.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord destroys his enemies.
He will thunder in heaven against them.
The Lord will judge all the earth.
He will give power to his king.

He will make his appointed king strong."

Eli's Evil Sons

<sup>11</sup>Then Elkanah went home to Ramah. But the boy continued to serve the Lord under Eli the priest.

<sup>12</sup>Now Eli's sons were evil men. They did not care about the Lord. <sup>13</sup>This is what the priests would do to the people: Every time someone brought a sacrifice, the meat would be cooked in a pot. The priest's servant would then come with a fork in his hand. The fork had three prongs. <sup>14</sup>He would plunge the fork into the pot or the kettle. Whatever the fork brought out of the pot belonged to the priest. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh to offer sacrifices. <sup>15</sup>But even before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come to the person offering sacrifices. The servant would say, "Give the priest some meat to roast. The priest won't accept boiled meat from you. He will only accept raw meat."

<sup>16</sup>But the man who offered the sacrifice might say, "Let the fat be burned up first as usual. Then you may take anything you want."

If so, the priest's servant would answer, "No, give me the meat now. If you don't, I'll take it by force."

<sup>17</sup>The Lord saw that the sin of the servants was very great. They did not show respect for the offerings made to the Lord.

Samuel Grows Up

<sup>18</sup>But Samuel obeyed the Lord. He wore a linen holy vest.<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>Every year Samuel's mother would make a little coat for him. She would take it to him when she went to Shiloh. She went there with her husband for the sacrifice. <sup>20</sup>Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife. Eli would say, "May the Lord repay you with children through Hannah. They will take the place of the boy Hannah prayed for and gave back to the Lord." Then Elkanah and Hannah would go home. <sup>21</sup>The Lord was kind to Hannah. She became the mother of three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up serving the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old. He heard about everything his sons were doing to all the Israelites. He also heard about how his sons had sexual relations with the women who served at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>Eli said to his sons, "The people here tell me about the evil you do. Why do you do these evil things?" <sup>24</sup>No, my sons. The Lord's people are saying bad things about you. <sup>25</sup>If someone sins against another person, God can help him. But if he sins against the Lord himself, no one can help him!" But Eli's sons would not listen to him. This was because the Lord had decided to put them to death.

<sup>20</sup>The boy Samuel kept growing. He pleased God and the people.

<sup>21</sup>A man of God came to Eli. He said, "This is what the Lord says: 'I clearly showed myself to the family of your ancestor Aaron. This was when they were slaves to the king of Egypt. <sup>28</sup>I chose them from all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel to be my priests. I wanted them to go up to my altar, to burn incense<sup>d</sup> and to wear the holy vest. I also let the family of your ancestor have part of all the offerings sacrificed by the Israelites. <sup>29</sup>So why don't you respect the sacrifices and gifts? You honor your sons more than me. You become fat on the best parts of the meat the Israelites bring to me.'

<sup>30</sup>"Here's what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I promised that your family and your ancestor's family would serve me forever.' But now the Lord says this: 'That will never be! I will honor those who honor me. But I will take honor away from those who do not honor me. <sup>31</sup>The time is coming when I will destroy the descendants<sup>d</sup> of both you and your ancestors. No man will grow old in your family. <sup>32</sup>You will see trouble in my house. Good things will be done to Israel. But there will never be an old man in your family. <sup>33</sup>I will save one man to serve as priest at my altar. He will wear out his eyes and use up his strength. The rest of your descendants will die by the sword.

<sup>34</sup>"I will give you a sign. Both your sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will die on the same day. <sup>35</sup>I will choose a loyal priest for myself. He will listen to me and do what I want. I will make his family strong. He will always serve before my appointed king. <sup>36</sup>Then everyone left in your family will come and bow down before him. They will beg for a little money or a little food. They will say, "Please give me a job as priest so I can have food to eat."'"

God Calls Samuel

3 The boy Samuel served the Lord under Eli. In those days the Lord did not speak directly to people very often. There were very few visions.

<sup>2</sup>Eli's eyes were so weak he was almost blind. One night he was lying in bed. <sup>3</sup>Samuel was also in bed in the Lord's Holy Tent.<sup>d</sup> The Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement was in the Holy Tent. God's lamp was still burning.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord called Samuel. Samuel answered, "I am here!" <sup>5</sup>He ran to Eli and said, "I am here. You called me."

But Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed." So Samuel went back to bed.

Samuel again went to Eli and said, "I am here. You called me."

Again Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed."

<sup>7</sup>Samuel did not yet know the Lord. The Lord had not spoken directly to him yet.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord called Samuel for the third time. Samuel got up and went to Eli. He said, "I am here. You called me."

Then Eli realized the Lord was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup>So he told Samuel, "Go to bed. If he calls you again, say, 'Speak, Lord. I am your servant, and I am listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in bed.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord came and stood there. He called as he had before. He said, "Samuel, Samuel!"

Samuel said, "Speak, Lord. I am your servant, and I am listening."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Samuel, "See, I am going to do something in Israel. It will shock those who hear about it. <sup>12</sup>At that time I will do to Eli and his family everything I promised. I will not stop until I have finished. <sup>13</sup>I told Eli I would punish his family forever. I will do it because Eli knew his sons were evil. They spoke against me, but he did not control them. <sup>14</sup>So here is what I promised Eli's family: 'Your guilt will never be removed by sacrifice or offering.'"

<sup>15</sup>Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He was afraid to tell Eli about the vision. <sup>16</sup>But Eli said to him, "Samuel, my son!"

Samuel answered, "I am here."

<sup>17</sup>Eli asked, "What did the Lord say to you? Don't hide it from me. May God punish you terribly if you hide from me anything he said to you." <sup>18</sup>So Samuel told Eli everything. He did not hide anything from him. Then Eli said, "He is the Lord. Let him do what he thinks is best."

<sup>d</sup>Dan to Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

4 News about Samuel spread through all of Israel.

The Philistines Capture the Ark of the Agreement

At that time the Israelites went out to fight the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped at Aphek. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines went to meet the Israelites in battle. And as the battle spread, the Philistines defeated the Israelites. They killed about 4,000 soldiers of the Israelite army. <sup>3</sup>Then some Israelite soldiers went back to their camp. The older leaders of Israel asked, "Why did the Lord let the Philistines defeat us? Let's bring the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord here from Shiloh. In this way God will go with us into battle. He will save us from our enemies."

<sup>4</sup>So the people sent men to Shiloh. They brought back the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord of heaven's armies. Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark.

<sup>5</sup>The Ark of the Agreement with the Lord came into the camp. And all the Israelites gave a great shout of joy. It made the ground shake. <sup>6</sup>The Philistines heard Israel's shout. They asked, "What's all this shouting in the Hebrew camp?"

Then the Philistines found out that the Ark of the Lord had come into the Hebrew camp. <sup>7</sup>They were afraid and said, "A god has come into the Hebrew camp! We're in trouble! This has never happened before! <sup>8</sup>How terrible it will be for us! Who can save us from these powerful gods? They are the ones who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of disasters in the desert. <sup>9</sup>Be brave, Philistines! Fight like men! In the past they were our slaves. So fight like men, or you will become their slaves."

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought hard and defeated the Israelites. Every Israelite soldier ran away to his own home. It was a great defeat for Israel, because 30,000 Israelite soldiers were killed. <sup>11</sup>The Ark of God was taken by the Philistines. And Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were killed.

the people in town cried loudly. <sup>14</sup>Eli heard the crying and asked, "What's all this noise?"

The Benjamite ran to Eli and told him what had happened. <sup>15</sup>Eli was now 98 years old, and he was blind. <sup>16</sup>The Benjamite told him, "I have come from the battle. I ran all the way here today."

Eli asked, "What happened, my son?"

<sup>17</sup>The Benjamite answered, "Israel ran away from the Philistines. The Israelite army has lost many soldiers. Your two sons are both dead. And the Philistines have taken the Ark of God."

<sup>18</sup>When he mentioned the Ark of God, Eli fell backward off his chair. He fell beside the gate and broke his neck, because he was old and fat. And Eli died. He had led Israel for 40 years.

The Glory Is Gone

<sup>19</sup>Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant. It was nearly time for her baby to be born. She heard the news that the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God had been taken. She heard also that Eli, her father-in-law, and Phinehas, her husband, were both dead. So she began to give birth to her child. The child was born, but the mother had much trouble in giving birth. <sup>20</sup>As she was dying, the women who helped her give birth said, "Don't worry! You've given birth to a son!" But she did not answer or pay attention. She named the baby Ichabod.<sup>n</sup> <sup>21</sup>She named him Ichabod and said, "Israel's glory is gone." She said this because the Ark of God had been taken. It was also because her father-in-law and husband were dead. <sup>22</sup>She said, "Israel's glory is gone, because the Ark of God has been taken away."

Trouble for the Philistines

5 After the Philistines had captured the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>They carried it into Dagon's<sup>d</sup> temple and put it next to Dagon. <sup>3</sup>The people of Ashdod rose early the next morning. They found that Dagon had fallen on his face on the ground. He was lying before the Ark of the Lord. So the people of Ashdod put Dagon back in his place. <sup>4</sup>The next morning the people of Ashdod rose from sleep. And again they found Dagon on the ground! He had fallen down before the Ark of the Lord. His head and hands had broken off and were lying in the doorway. Only his body was still in one piece. <sup>5</sup>So, even today, Dagon's priests and others who enter his temple at Ashdod refuse to step on the doorsill.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord punished the people of Ashdod and their neighbors. He gave them much trouble. He gave them growths on their skin. <sup>7</sup>The people of Ashdod saw what was happening. They said, "The Ark of the God of Israel can't stay with us. God is punishing us and Dagon our god." <sup>8</sup>The people of Ashdod called all five Philistine kings together. They asked them, "What should we do with the Ark of the God of Israel?"

The rulers answered, "Move the Ark of the God of Israel to Gath." So the Philistines moved it to Gath.

<sup>9</sup>But after they had moved it to Gath, the Lord punished that city also. He made the people very afraid. God troubled both old and young people in Gath. He caused them to have growths on their skin. <sup>10</sup>Then the Philistines sent the Ark of God to Ekron.

But when it came into Ekron, the people of Ekron yelled. They said, "Why are you bringing the Ark of the God of Israel to our city? Do you want to kill us and our people?" <sup>11</sup>The people of Ekron called all the kings of the Philistines together. They said to the kings, "Send the Ark of the God of Israel back to its place. Do it before it kills us and our people!" They were very afraid. God's punishment was very terrible there. <sup>12</sup>The people who did not die were troubled with growths on their skin. So the people of Ekron cried loudly to heaven.

The Ark of God Is Sent Home

6 The Philistines kept the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God in their land seven months. <sup>2</sup>Then they called for their priests and magicians. They said, "What should we do with the Ark of the Lord? Tell us how to send it back home!"

<sup>3</sup>The priests and magicians answered them. They said, "If you send back the Ark of the God of Israel, don't send it away empty. You must offer a penalty offering so the God of Israel will forgive your sins. Then you will be healed. When God has forgiven you, he will stop punishing you."

<sup>4</sup>The Philistines asked, "What kind of penalty offering should we send to Israel's God?"

The priests and magicians answered, "Make five gold models of the growths on your skin. Also make five gold models of rats. The number of models must be the same as the number of Philistine kings. This is because the same sickness has come on you and your kings. <sup>5</sup>Make models of the growths and the rats that are ruining the country. Give them to Israel's

God and honor him. Then maybe Israel's God will stop punishing you, your gods and your land. <sup>6</sup>Don't be stubborn like the king of Egypt and the Egyptians. God punished them terribly. That is why the Egyptians let the Israelites leave Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>"You must build a new cart. And get two cows that have just had calves. These must be cows that have never had yokes<sup>d</sup> on their necks. Then hitch the cows to the cart. Take the calves home. Don't let them follow their mothers. <sup>8</sup>Put the Ark of the Lord on the cart. And put the gold models in a box beside the Ark. They are your penalty offerings for God to forgive your sins. Send the cart straight on its way. <sup>9</sup>Watch the cart. It may go toward Beth Shemesh in Israel's own land. If so, the Lord has given us this great sickness. But it may not go toward Beth Shemesh. Then we will know that Israel's God has not punished us. We will know that our sickness just happened by chance."

<sup>10</sup>The Philistines did what the priests and magicians said. They took two cows that had just had calves. They hitched them to the cart. But they kept their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>They put the Ark of the Lord on the cart. And they put the box with the gold rats and models of growths on the cart. <sup>12</sup>Then the cows went straight toward Beth Shemesh. They stayed on the road, mooing all the way. They did not turn right or left. The Philistine kings followed the cows as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley. They looked up and saw the Ark of the Lord. They were very happy to see it again. <sup>14</sup>The cart came to the field belonging to Joshua of Beth Shemesh. The cart stopped in this field near a large rock. The people of Beth Shemesh chopped up the wood of the cart. Then they killed the cows and sacrificed them to the Lord. <sup>15</sup>The Levites took down the Ark of the Lord. They also took down the box that had the gold models. They put both on the large rock. That day the people of Beth Shemesh offered whole burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>16</sup>The five Philistine kings watched them do all these things. Then they went back to Ekron the same day.

ber of towns belonging to the Philistine kings. These towns included strong, walled cities and country villages. The large rock on which they put the Ark of the Lord is still there. It is in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

<sup>10</sup>But some of the men of Beth Shemesh looked into the Ark of the Lord. So God killed 70 of them. The people of Beth Shemesh cried because the Lord had punished them so terribly. <sup>20</sup>They said, "Who can stand before the Lord, this holy God? Where can the Ark go from here?"

<sup>21</sup>Then they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim. The messengers said, "The Philistines have brought back the Ark of the Lord. Come down and take it to your city."

7 The men of Kiriath Jearim came and took the Ark of the Lord. They took it to Abinadab's house on a hill. There they made Abinadab's son Eleazar holy for the Lord so he could guard the Ark of the Lord.

The Lord Saves the Israelites

<sup>2</sup>The Ark<sup>d</sup> stayed at Kiriath Jearim a long time—20 years in all. And the people of Israel began to follow the Lord again. <sup>3</sup>Samuel spoke to the whole group of Israel. He said, "If you're turning back to the Lord with all your hearts, you must remove your foreign gods. You must remove your idols of Ashtoreth. <sup>4</sup>You must give yourselves fully to the Lord and serve only him. Then he will save you from the Philistines."

<sup>5</sup>Samuel said, "All Israel must meet at Mizpah. I will pray to the Lord for you." <sup>6</sup>So the Israelites met together at Mizpah. They drew water from the ground and poured it out before the Lord. They did not eat that day. They confessed, "We have sinned against the Lord." And Samuel served as judge of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>The Philistines heard the Israelites were meeting at Mizpah. So the Philistine kings came up to attack them. When the Israelites heard they were coming, they were afraid. <sup>8</sup>They said to Samuel, "Don't stop praying to the Lord our God for us! Ask the Lord to save us from the Philistines!" <sup>9</sup>Then Samuel took a baby lamb. He offered the lamb to the Lord as a whole burnt offering. He called to the Lord for Israel's sake. And the Lord answered him.

<sup>10</sup>While Samuel was burning the offering, the Philistines came near. They were going to attack Israel. But the Lord thundered against the Philistines with loud thunder. They were so frightened they became confused. So the Israelites defeated the Philistines in battle. <sup>11</sup>The men of Israel ran out of Mizpah and chased the Philistines. They went almost to Beth Car, killing the Philistines along the way.

Peace Comes to Israel

<sup>12</sup>After this happened Samuel took a stone. He set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named the stone Ebenezer. <sup>a</sup>Samuel said, "The Lord has helped us to this point." <sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were defeated. They did not enter the Israelites' land again.

The Lord was against the Philistines all Samuel's life. <sup>14</sup>Earlier the Philistines had taken towns from the Israelites. But the Israelites won them back, from Ekron to Gath. They also took back from the Philistines the neighboring lands of these towns. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel continued as judge of Israel all his life. <sup>16</sup>Every year he went from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah. He judged the Israelites in all these towns. <sup>17</sup>But Samuel always went back to Ramah, where his home was. He also judged Israel there. And there he built an altar to the Lord.

Israel Asks for a King

8 When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges for Israel. <sup>2</sup>His first son was named Joel, and his second son was named Abijah. Joel and Abijah were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But Samuel's sons did not live as he did. They tried to get money dishonestly. They took money secretly to be dishonest in their judging.

<sup>4</sup>So all the older leaders came together and met Samuel at Ramah. <sup>5</sup>They said to him, "You're old, and your sons don't live as you do. Give us a king to rule over us like all the other nations."

<sup>6</sup>When the older leaders said that, Samuel was not pleased. He prayed to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>The Lord told Samuel, "Listen to whatever the people say to you. They have not rejected you. They have rejected me from being their king. <sup>8</sup>They are doing as they have always done. When I took them out of Egypt, they left me. They served other gods. They are doing the same to you. <sup>9</sup>Now listen to the people. But give them a warning. Tell them what the king who rules over them will do."

<sup>10</sup>Samuel answered those who had asked him for a king. He told them all the words of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Samuel said, "If you have a king ruling over you, this is what he will do: He will take your sons. He will make them serve with his chariots and his horses. They will run in front of the king's chariot. <sup>12</sup>The king will make some of your sons commanders over 1,000 men or over 50 men. He will make some of your other sons plow his ground and reap his harvest. He will take others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup>This king will take your daughters. Some of your daughters will make perfume. Others will cook and bake for him. <sup>14</sup>He will take your best fields, vineyards and olive groves. He will give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>He will take one-tenth of your grain and grapes and give it to his officers and servants. <sup>16</sup>He will take your men servants and girl servants. He will take your best cattle and your donkeys. He will use them all for his own work. <sup>17</sup>He will take one-tenth of your flocks. And you yourselves will become his slaves. <sup>18</sup>When that time comes, you will cry out because of the king you chose. The Lord will not answer you then."

<sup>19</sup>But the people would not listen to Samuel. They said, "No! We want a king to rule over us. <sup>20</sup>Then we will be the same as all the other nations. Our king will judge us. He will go with us and fight our battles."

<sup>21</sup>Samuel heard all that the people said. Then he repeated all their words to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>The Lord answered, "You must listen to them. Give them a king."

Then Samuel told the people of Israel, "Everyone go back to his town."

Saul Looks for His Father's Donkeys

9 Kish son of Abiel was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. He was an important man. (Abiel was the son of Zeror. And Zeror was the son of Becorath. He was the son of Aphiah of Benjamin.) <sup>2</sup>Kish had a son named Saul. Saul was a fine young man. There was no Israelite better than he. Saul stood a head taller than any other man in Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Now the donkeys of Saul's father, Kish, were lost. So Kish said to Saul, his son, "Take one of the servants. Go and look for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup>Saul went through the mountains of Ephraim. And he went through the land of Shalisha. But he and the servant could not find the donkeys. They went into the land of Shaalim, but the donkeys were not there. They went through the land of Benjamin. But they still did not find the donkeys. <sup>5</sup>They arrived in the area of Zuph. Saul said to his servant, "Let's go back. My father will stop thinking about the donkeys. He will start worrying about us."

<sup>6</sup>But the servant answered, "A man of God is in this town. People respect him because everything he says comes true. Let's go into the town now. Maybe he can tell us something about the journey we have taken."

<sup>7</sup>Saul said to his servant, "If we go into the town, what can we give him? The food in our bags is gone. We have no gift to give him. Do we have anything at all to give him?"

<sup>8</sup>Again the servant answered Saul. "Look, I have one-tenth of an ounce of silver. Give it to the man of God. Then he will tell us about our journey." <sup>9</sup>(In the past, someone in Israel might want to ask something from God. If so, he would say, "Let's go to the seer.")<sup>d</sup> We call the person a man of God today. But in the past he was called a "seer.")

<sup>10</sup>Saul said to his servant, "That is a good idea. Come, let's go." So they went toward the town where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup>Saul and the servant were going up the hill to the town. On the way they met some young women coming out to get water. Saul and the servant asked them, "Is the seer here?"

<sup>12</sup>The young women answered, "Yes, he's here. He's ahead of you. Hurry now. He has just come to our town today. This is because the people will offer a sacrifice at the place of worship. <sup>13</sup>When you enter the town, you will find him. He will be there before he goes up to the place of worship to eat. The people will not begin eating until the seer comes. He must bless the sacrifice. After that, the guests will eat. Go now, and you should find him."

Saul Meets Samuel

<sup>14</sup>Saul and the servant went up to the town. Just as they entered the town, they saw Samuel. He was on his way up to the place of worship. So he was coming out of the city toward them.

<sup>15</sup>The day before Saul came, the Lord had told Samuel: <sup>16</sup>"About this time tomorrow I will send you a man. He will be from Benjamin. You must appoint him as leader over my people Israel. He will save my people from the Philistines. I have seen the suffering of my people. I have listened to their cry."

<sup>17</sup>When Samuel first saw Saul, the Lord spoke to Samuel. He said, "This is the man I told you about. He will rule my people."

ahead of me to the place of worship. Today you and your servant are to eat with me. Tomorrow morning I will send you home. And I will answer all your questions. <sup>20</sup>Don't worry about the donkeys you lost three days ago. They have been found. Israel now wants you and all your father's family."

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, "But I am from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. It's the smallest tribe in Israel. And my family group is the smallest in the tribe of Benjamin. Why do you say Israel wants me?"

<sup>22</sup>Then Samuel took Saul and his servant into a large room. He gave them a chief place at the table. About 30 guests were there. <sup>23</sup>Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the meat I gave you. It's the portion I told you to set aside."

<sup>24</sup>So the cook took the thigh and put it on the table in front of Saul. Samuel said, "This is the meat saved for you. Eat it because it was set aside for you for this special time." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup>After they finished eating, they came down from the place of worship. They went to the town. Then Samuel talked with Saul on the roof<sup>n</sup> of his house. <sup>26</sup>At dawn they got up, and Samuel called to Saul on the roof. He said, "Get up, and I will send you on your way." So Saul got up. He went out of the house with Samuel. <sup>27</sup>Saul, his servant and Samuel were getting near the edge of the city. Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us. I have a message from God for you."

Samuel Appoints Saul

10 Samuel took a jar of olive oil. He poured the oil on Saul's head. He kissed Saul and said, "The Lord has appointed you to be leader of his people Israel. You will rule over the people of the Lord. You will save them from their enemies all around. This will be the sign that the Lord has appointed you as leader of his people. <sup>2</sup>After you leave me today, you will meet two men. They will be near Rachel's tomb on the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you were looking for have been found. But now your father has stopped thinking about his donkeys. He is worrying about you. He is asking, "What will I do about my son?"'

<sup>3</sup>"Then you will go on until you reach the great tree at Tabor. There three men will meet you. They will be on their way to worship God at Bethel. One man will be carrying three loaves of bread. And the third one will have a leather bag full of wine. <sup>4</sup>They will greet you and offer you two loaves of bread. You will accept the bread from them. <sup>5</sup>Then you will go to Gibeah of God. There is a Philistine camp there. When you come near this town, a group of prophets<sup>d</sup> will come out. They will be coming from the place of worship. And they will be playing harps, tambourines,<sup>d</sup> flutes and lyres.<sup>d</sup> And they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord will enter you with power. You will prophesy with these prophets. You will be changed into a different man. <sup>7</sup>After these signs happen, do whatever you find to do. God will help you.

<sup>8</sup>"Go ahead of me to Gilgal. I will come down to you. Then I will offer whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. But you must wait seven days. Then I will come and tell you what to do."

Saul Made King

<sup>9</sup>When Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul's heart. All these signs came true that day. <sup>10</sup>When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, Saul met a group of prophets.<sup>d</sup> The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God entered him. And he prophesied with the prophets. <sup>11</sup>People who had known Saul before saw him prophesying with the prophets. They asked each other, "What has happened to Kish's son? Is even Saul one of the prophets?"

<sup>12</sup>A man who lived there said, "Who is the father of these prophets?" This became a famous saying: "Is even Saul one of the prophets?" <sup>13</sup>When Saul finished prophesying, he went to the place of worship.

<sup>14</sup>Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where have you been?"

Saul said, "We were looking for the donkeys. When we couldn't find them, we went to talk to Samuel."

<sup>15</sup>Saul's uncle asked, "Please tell me. What did Samuel say to you?"

<sup>16</sup>Saul answered, "He told us the donkeys had already been found." But Saul did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about his becoming king.

<sup>17</sup>Samuel called all the people of Israel to meet with the Lord at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>He said, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I led Israel out of Egypt. I saved you from Egypt's control. And I saved you from other kingdoms that were troubling you.' <sup>19</sup>But now you have rejected your God. He saves you from all your troubles and problems. But you said, 'No! We want a king to rule over us.' Now come, stand before the Lord in your tribes<sup>d</sup> and family groups."

<sup>n</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

<sup>20</sup>Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near. And the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup>Samuel had them pass by in family groups, and Matri's family was chosen. Then he had each man of Matri's family pass by. And Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for Saul, they could not find him. <sup>22</sup>Then they asked the Lord, "Has Saul come here yet?"

The Lord said, "Yes. He's hiding behind the baggage."

<sup>23</sup>So they ran and brought him out. When Saul stood among the people, he was a head taller than anyone else. <sup>24</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "See the man the Lord has chosen. There is no one like him among all the people."

Then the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup>Samuel explained the rights and duties of the king. He wrote the rules in a book and put the book before the Lord. Then he told the people to go to their homes.

<sup>26</sup>Saul also went to his home in Gibeah. God touched the hearts of certain brave men who went along with him. <sup>27</sup>But some troublemakers said, "How can this man save us?" They hated Saul and refused to bring gifts to him. But Saul kept quiet.

Nahash Troubles Jabesh Gilead

11 About a month later Nahash the Ammonite and his army surrounded the city of Jabesh in Gilead. All the people of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us. And we will serve you."

<sup>2</sup>But he answered, "I will make a treaty with you. But I will only do it if I'm allowed to tear out the right eye of each of you. Then all Israel will be ashamed!"

<sup>3</sup>The older leaders of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Let us have seven days. We will send messengers through all Israel. If no one comes to help us, we will give ourselves up to you."

<sup>4</sup>The messengers came to Gibeah where Saul lived. When they told the people the news, the people cried loudly. <sup>5</sup>Saul had finished plowing in the fields with his oxen. He was coming home when he heard the people crying. He asked, "What's wrong with the people? Why are they crying?" Then they told Saul what the messengers from Jabesh had said. <sup>6</sup>When Saul heard their words, God's Spirit<sup>d</sup> entered him with power. Saul became very angry. <sup>7</sup>So he took a pair of oxen and cut them into pieces. Then he gave the pieces of the oxen to messengers. He ordered them to carry the pieces through all the land of Israel.

The messengers made an announcement to the people. They said, "This is what will happen to the oxen of anyone who does not follow Saul and Samuel." So the people became very afraid of the Lord. They all came together as if they were one person. <sup>8</sup>Saul gathered the people together at Bezek. There were 300,000 men from Israel and 30,000 men from Judah.

<sup>9</sup>They spoke to the messengers who had come. They said, "Tell the people at Jabesh Gilead this: 'Before the day becomes hot tomorrow, you will be saved.'" So the messengers went and reported this to the people at Jabesh. They were very happy. <sup>10</sup>The people said to Nahash the Ammonite, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you. Then you can do anything you want to us."

<sup>11</sup>The next morning Saul divided his soldiers into three groups. At dawn they entered the Ammonite camp. And they defeated the Ammonites before the heat of the day. The Ammonites who were left alive were scattered. Not even two of them were still together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, "Who was it that didn't want Saul as king? Bring them here, and we will kill them!"

<sup>13</sup>But Saul said, "No! No one will be put to death today. The Lord has saved Israel today!"

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let's go to Gilgal. At Gilgal we will again promise to obey the king." <sup>15</sup>All the people went to Gilgal. And there, before the Lord, the people made Saul king. They offered fellowship offerings to the Lord. Saul and all the Israelites had a great celebration.

Samuel's Farewell Speech

12 Samuel said to all Israel, "I have done everything you wanted me to do. I have put a king over you. <sup>2</sup>Now you have a king to lead you. I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have been your leader since I was young. <sup>3</sup>Here I am. If I have done anything wrong, you must testify against me. Do this before the Lord and his appointed king. Did I steal anyone's ox or donkey? Did I hurt or cheat anyone? Did I ever secretly take money to pretend not to see something wrong? If I did any of these things, I will make it right."

<sup>4</sup>The Israelites answered, "You have not cheated us. You have not hurt us. You have not taken anything unfairly from anyone."

<sup>5</sup>Samuel said to them, "The Lord is a witness to what you have said. His appointed king is also a witness today. They are both witnesses that you did not find anything wrong in me."

"He is our witness," they said.

<sup>6</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "The Lord is our witness. He chose Moses and Aaron. He brought your ancestors out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now, stand there. And I will talk with you about all the good things the Lord did for you and your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup>"After Jacob entered Egypt, his descendants<sup>a</sup> cried to the Lord for help. So the Lord sent Moses and Aaron. They took your ancestors out of Egypt and brought them to live in this place.

<sup>9</sup>"But they forgot the Lord their God. So he let them become the slaves of Siserá. He was the commander of the army of Hazor. The Lord let them become the slaves of the Philistines and the king of Moab. They all fought against your ancestors. <sup>10</sup>Then your ancestors cried to the Lord. They said, 'We have sinned. We have left the Lord. We served the Baals<sup>d</sup> and the Ashtoreths.<sup>d</sup> But now save us from our enemies, and we will serve you.' <sup>11</sup>The Lord sent Gideon, who is also called Jerub-Baal. And he sent Barak, Jephthah and Samuel. Then he saved you from your enemies around you. And you lived in safety. <sup>12</sup>But then you saw Nahash king of the Ammonites coming against you. You said, 'No! We want a king to rule over us!' <sup>13</sup>Now here is the king you chose. The Lord has put him over you. <sup>14</sup>You must honor the Lord and serve him. You must obey his commands. Both you and the king ruling over you must follow the Lord your God. If you do, it will be well with you. <sup>15</sup>But if you don't obey the Lord, and if you fight against his commands, he will be against you. He will do to you what he did to your ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>"Now stand still and see the great thing the Lord will do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup>It is now the time of the wheat harvest. <sup>a</sup>I will pray for the Lord to send thunder and rain. Then you will know what an evil thing you did against the Lord when you asked for a king."

<sup>18</sup>Then Samuel prayed to the Lord. That same day the Lord sent thunder and rain. And the people became very afraid of the Lord and Samuel. <sup>19</sup>They said to Samuel, "Pray to the Lord your God for us, your servants! Don't let us die! We've added to all our sins the evil of asking for a king."

<sup>20</sup>Samuel answered, "Don't be afraid. It's true that you did wrong. But don't turn away from the Lord. Serve the Lord with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>Idols are of no use. So don't worship them. They can't help you or save you. They are useless! <sup>22</sup>For his own sake, the Lord won't leave his people. Instead, he was pleased to make you his own people. <sup>23</sup>I will surely not stop praying for you. If I did, I would be sinning against the Lord. I will teach you what is good and right. <sup>24</sup>But you must honor the Lord. You must always serve him with all your heart. Remember the wonderful things he did for you! <sup>25</sup>But if you are stubborn and do evil, God will sweep you and your king away."

13 Saul was 30 years old when he became king. He was king over Israel 42 years.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>Saul chose 3,000 men from Israel. There were 2,000 men who stayed with him at Micmash in the mountains of Bethel. And 1,000 men stayed with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul sent the other men in the army back home.

<sup>3</sup>Jonathan attacked the Philistine camp in Geba. And the other Philistines heard about it. Saul said, "Let the Hebrew people hear what happened." So he told the men to blow trumpets through all the land of Israel. <sup>4</sup>All the Israelites heard the news. The men said, "Saul has defeated the Philistine camp. Now the Philistines really hate us!" Then the Israelites were called to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>The Philistines gathered to fight Israel. They had 3,000<sup>a</sup> chariots and 6,000 men to ride in the chariots. Their soldiers were many in number, like the grains of sand on the seashore. The Philistines went and camped at Micmash which is east of Beth Aven. <sup>6</sup>The Israelites saw that they were in trouble. So they went to hide in caves and bushes. They also hid among the rocks and in pits and wells. <sup>7</sup>Some Hebrews even went across the Jordan River to the land of Gad and Gilead.

But Saul stayed at Gilgal. All the men in his army were shaking with fear. <sup>8</sup>Saul waited seven days, because Samuel had said he would meet him then. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal. And the soldiers began to leave.

<sup>9</sup>So Saul said, "Bring me the whole burnt offering and the fellowship offerings." Then Saul offered the whole burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>Just as he finished, Samuel arrived. Saul went to meet him.

<sup>a</sup>time . . . harvest This was a dry time in the summer when no rains fell.

<sup>11</sup>Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Saul answered, "I saw the soldiers leaving me, and you were not here. The Philistines were gathering at Micmash. <sup>12</sup>Then I thought, 'The Philistines will come against me at Gilgal. And I haven't asked for the Lord's approval.' So I forced myself to offer the whole burnt offering."

<sup>13</sup>Samuel said, "You acted foolishly! You haven't obeyed God's command. If you had obeyed him, God would make your kingdom continue in Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom will not continue. The Lord has looked for the kind of man he wants. The Lord has appointed him to become ruler of his people. He is doing this because you haven't obeyed his command."

<sup>15</sup>Then Samuel left Gilgal and went to Gibeah in Benjamin. The rest of the army followed Saul into battle. Saul counted the men still with him, and there were about 600.

Hard Times for Israel

<sup>16</sup>Saul and his son Jonathan stayed in Geba in the land of Benjamin. The soldiers with them also stayed there. The Philistines made their camp at Micmash. <sup>17</sup>Three groups went out from their camp to attack. One group went on the Ophrah road in the land of Shual. <sup>18</sup>The second group went on the Beth Horon road. And the third group went on the border road. It overlooked the Valley of Zeboim toward the desert.

<sup>19</sup>The whole land of Israel had no blacksmith. This is because the Philistines had said, "The Hebrews might make swords and spears." <sup>20</sup>So all the Israelites went down to the Philistines. They went to have their plows, hoes, axes and sickles sharpened. <sup>21</sup>The Philistine blacksmiths charged about one-fourth of an ounce of silver for sharpening plows and hoes. And they charged one-eighth of an ounce of silver for sharpening picks, axes and the sticks used to guide oxen.

<sup>22</sup>So when the battle came, the soldiers with Saul and Jonathan had no swords or spears. Only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

Israel Defeats the Philistines

14 One day Jonathan, Saul's son, spoke to the officer who carried his armor. Jonathan said, "Come, let's go over to the Philistine camp on the other side." But Jonathan did not tell his father.

<sup>4</sup>There was a steep slope on each side of the pass. Jonathan planned to go through the pass to the Philistine camp. The cliff on one side was named Bozez. The other cliff was named Seneh. <sup>5</sup>One cliff faced north toward Micmash. The other faced south toward Geba.

<sup>6</sup>Jonathan said to his officer who carried his armor, "Come. Let's go to the camp of those men who are not circumcised.<sup>d</sup> Maybe the Lord will help us. It doesn't matter if we have many people, or just a few. Nothing can keep the Lord from giving us victory."

<sup>7</sup>The officer who carried Jonathan's armor said to him, "Do whatever you think is best. Go ahead. I'm with you."

<sup>8</sup>Jonathan said, "Then come. We will cross over to the Philistines. We will let them see us. <sup>9</sup>They may say to us, 'Stay there until we come to you.' If they do, we will stay where we are. We won't go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But they may say, 'Come up to us.' If so, we will climb up. And the Lord will allow us to defeat them. This will be the sign for us."

<sup>11</sup>Both Jonathan and his officer let the Philistines see them. The Philistines said, "Look! The Hebrews are crawling out of the holes they were hiding in!" <sup>12</sup>The Philistines in the camp shouted to Jonathan and his officer, "Come up to us. We'll teach you a lesson!"

Jonathan said to his officer, "Climb up behind me. The Lord has given the Philistines to Israel!" <sup>13</sup>So Jonathan climbed up, using his hands and feet. His officer climbed just behind him. Jonathan cut down the Philistines as he went. And his officer killed them as he followed behind Jonathan. <sup>14</sup>In that first fight Jonathan and his officer killed about 20 Philistines.

<sup>15</sup>All the Philistine soldiers panicked. Those in the camp and those in the raiding party were frightened. The ground itself shook! God caused the panic.

<sup>16</sup>Saul's guards were at Gibeah in the land of Benjamin. They saw the Philistine soldiers running in every direction. <sup>17</sup>Saul said to his army, "Check and find who has left our camp." When they checked, they learned that Jonathan and his officer were gone.

Ark<sup>d</sup> of God.” (At that time it was with the Israelites.) <sup>19</sup>While Saul was talking to the priest, the confusion in the Philistine camp was growing. Then Saul said to Ahijah, “Stop. There’s not time to pray now!”

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul and the army with him gathered and entered the battle. They found the Philistines confused, even striking each other with their swords! <sup>21</sup>Earlier, there were Hebrews who had served the Philistines and had stayed in their camp. They now joined the Israelites with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>All the Israelites hidden in the mountains of Ephraim heard that the Philistine soldiers were running away. They too joined the battle and chased the Philistines. <sup>23</sup>So the Lord saved the Israelites that day. And the battle moved on past Beth Aven.

Saul Makes Another Mistake

<sup>24</sup>The men of Israel were miserable that day. This was because Saul had made an oath for all of them. He had said, “No one should eat food before evening and before I finish defeating my enemies. If he does, he will be cursed!” So no Israelite soldier ate food.

<sup>25</sup>Now the army went into the woods. There was some honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup>They came to where the honey was. But no one took any because they were afraid of the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan had not heard the oath Saul had put on the people. So Jonathan dipped the end of his stick into the honey. He pulled out the honey and ate it. Then he felt better. <sup>28</sup>So one of the soldiers told Jonathan, “Your father made an oath for all the soldiers. He said any man who eats today will be cursed! That’s why they are weak.”

<sup>29</sup>Jonathan said, “My father has made trouble for the land! See how much better I feel after just tasting a little of this honey! <sup>30</sup>It would have been much better for the men to eat the food they took from their enemies today. We could have killed many more Philistines!”

<sup>31</sup>That day the Israelites defeated the Philistines from Micmash to Ajalon. After they did this, they were very tired. <sup>32</sup>They had taken sheep, cattle and calves from the Philistines. Now they were so hungry they killed the animals on the ground and ate them. But the blood was still in the animals! <sup>33</sup>Someone said to Saul, “Look! The men are sinning against the Lord. They’re eating meat that still has blood in it!”

Saul said, “You have sinned! Roll a large stone over here now!” <sup>34</sup>Then he said, “Go to the men. Tell them that each person must bring his ox and sheep to me. They must kill and eat their ox and sheep here. Don’t sin against the Lord. Don’t eat meat with the blood still in it.”

That night everyone brought his animals and killed them there. <sup>35</sup>Then Saul built an altar to the Lord. It was the first altar Saul had built to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Saul said, “Let’s go after the Philistines tonight. Let’s take what they own. We won’t let any of them live!”

The men answered, “Do whatever you think is best.”

But the priest said, “Let’s ask God.”

<sup>37</sup>So Saul asked God, “Should I chase the Philistines? Will you let us defeat them?” But that day God did not answer Saul. <sup>38</sup>That is why Saul said to all the leaders of his army, “Come here. Let’s find what sin has been done today. <sup>39</sup>As surely as the Lord lives, even if my son Jonathan did the sin, he must die.” But no one in the army answered.

<sup>40</sup>Then Saul said to all the Israelites, “You stand on this side. I and my son Jonathan will stand on the other side.”

The men answered, “Do whatever you think is best.”

And Saul and Jonathan were chosen by throwing lots.<sup>d</sup> The other men went free. <sup>42</sup>Saul said, “Throw the lot. It will show if it is I or Jonathan my son who is guilty.” And Jonathan was chosen.

<sup>43</sup>Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.”

So Jonathan told Saul, “I only tasted a little honey from the end of my stick. And must I die now?”

<sup>44</sup>Saul said, “Jonathan, if you don’t die, may God punish me terribly.”

<sup>45</sup>But the soldiers said to Saul, “Must Jonathan die? Never! He is responsible for saving Israel today! As surely as the Lord lives, not even a hair of his head will fall to the ground! Today Jonathan fought against the Philistines with God’s help!” So the army saved Jonathan, and he did not die.

<sup>46</sup>Then Saul stopped chasing the Philistines. And they went back to their own land.

Saul Fights Israel’s Enemies

came strong. He fought bravely and defeated the Amalekites. He saved Israel from the enemies who had taken what the Israelites owned.

<sup>52</sup>All Saul's life he fought hard against the Philistines. When he saw strong or brave men, he took them into his army.

Saul Rejected as King

15 Samuel said to Saul, "The Lord sent me to appoint you king over Israel. Now listen to his message. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: 'The Israelites came out of Egypt. But the Amalekites tried to stop them from going to Canaan. I saw what they did. <sup>3</sup>Now go, attack the Amalekites. Destroy everything that belongs to them as an offering to the Lord. Don't let anything live. Put to death men and women, children and small babies. Kill the cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.' "

<sup>4</sup>So Saul called the army together at Telaim. There were 200,000 soldiers and 10,000 men from Judah. <sup>5</sup>Then Saul went to the city of Amalek and set up an ambush in the ravine. <sup>6</sup>He said to the Kenites, "Go away. Leave the Amalekites so that I won't destroy you with them. You showed kindness to the Israelites when they came out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul defeated the Amalekites. He fought them all the way from Havilah to Shur, at the border of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive. But he killed all of Agag's army with the sword. <sup>9</sup>But Saul and the army let Agag live. They also let the best sheep, fat cattle and lambs live. They let every good animal live. They did not want to destroy them. But when they found an animal that was weak or useless, they killed it.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Samuel: <sup>11</sup>"Saul has stopped following me. And I am sorry I made him king. He has not obeyed my commands." Samuel was upset, and he cried out to the Lord all night long.

<sup>12</sup>Early the next morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul. But the people told Samuel, "Saul has gone to Carmel. He has put up a monument in his own honor. Now he has gone down to Gilgal."

<sup>13</sup>Then Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said,

"May the Lord bless you! I have obeyed the Lord's commands."

<sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, "Then why do I hear cattle mooing and sheep bleating?"

<sup>15</sup>Saul answered, "The soldiers took them from the Amalekites. They saved the best sheep and cattle to offer as sacrifices to the Lord your God. But we destroyed all the other animals."

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said to Saul, "Stop! Let me tell you what the Lord said to me last night."

Saul answered, "Tell me."

<sup>17</sup>Samuel said, "Once you didn't think much of yourself. But now you have become the leader of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. The Lord appointed you to be king over Israel. <sup>18</sup>And he told you to do something. He said, 'Go and destroy those evil people, the Amalekites. Make war on them until all of them are dead.' <sup>19</sup>Why didn't you obey the Lord? Why did you take the best things? Why did you do what the Lord said was wrong?"

<sup>20</sup>Saul said, "But I did obey the Lord. I did what the Lord told me to do. I destroyed all the Amalekites. And I brought back Agag their king. <sup>21</sup>The soldiers took the best sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the Lord your God at Gilgal."

"What pleases the Lord more:
burnt offerings and sacrifices or obedience?"

It is better to obey God than to offer a sacrifice.

It is better to listen to God than to offer the fat of male sheep.

<sup>23</sup>Refusing to obey is as bad as the sin of sorcery.<sup>d</sup>

Being stubborn is as bad as the sin of worshiping idols.

You have rejected the Lord's command.

For this reason, he now rejects you as king."

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned. I didn't obey the Lord's commands. I didn't do what you told me. I was afraid of the people, and I did what they said. <sup>25</sup>Now I beg you, forgive my sin. Come back with me so I may worship the Lord."

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, "I won't go back with you. You refused the Lord's command. And now he rejects you as king of Israel."

<sup>27</sup>As Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup>Samuel said to him, "The Lord has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today. He has given it to one of your neighbors. He has given it to one better than you. <sup>29</sup>The Lord is the Eternal One of Israel. He does not lie or change his mind. He is not a man. So he does not change his mind as men do."

<sup>30</sup>Saul answered, "I have sinned. But please honor me in front of my people's older leaders. Please honor me in front of the Israelites. Come back with me so that I may worship the Lord your God." <sup>31</sup>So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped the Lord.

<sup>32</sup>Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites."

Agag came to Samuel in chains. Yet he thought, "Surely the threat of death has passed."

<sup>33</sup>Samuel said to him, "Your sword caused mothers to be without their children. Now your mother will have no children." And Samuel cut Agag to pieces before the Lord at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel left and went to Ramah. But Saul went up to his home in Gibeah. <sup>35</sup>And Samuel never saw Saul again all the rest of his life. But he was sorry for Saul. And the Lord was very sorry he had made Saul king of Israel.

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

16 The Lord said to Samuel, "How long will you continue to feel sorry for Saul? I have rejected him as king of Israel. Fill your container with olive oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse who lives in Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king."

<sup>2</sup>But Samuel said, "If I go, Saul will hear the news. And he will try to kill me."

The Lord said, "Take a young calf with you. Say, 'I have come to offer a sacrifice to the Lord.' <sup>3</sup>Invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then I will show you what to do. You must appoint the one I show you."

<sup>4</sup>Samuel did what the Lord told him to do. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the older leaders of Bethlehem shook with fear. They met him and asked, "Are you coming in peace?"

<sup>5</sup>Samuel answered, "Yes, I come in peace. I have come to make a sacrifice to the Lord. Make yourselves holy for the Lord and come to the sacrifice with me." Then he made Jesse and his sons holy for the Lord. And he invited them to come to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup>When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab. Samuel thought, "Surely the Lord has appointed this person standing here before him."

<sup>7</sup>But the Lord said to Samuel, "Don't look at how handsome Eliab is. Don't look at how tall he is. I have not chosen him. God does not see the same way people see. People look at the outside of a person, but the Lord looks at the heart."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jesse called Abinadab and told him to pass by Samuel. But Samuel said, "The Lord has not chosen this man either." <sup>9</sup>Then Jesse had Shammah pass by. But Samuel said, "No, the Lord has not chosen this one." <sup>10</sup>Jesse had seven of his sons pass by Samuel. But Samuel said to him, "The Lord has not chosen any of these."

<sup>11</sup>Then he asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?"

Jesse answered, "I still have the youngest son. He is out taking care of the sheep."

Samuel said, "Send for him. We will not sit down to eat until he arrives."

<sup>12</sup>So Jesse sent and had his youngest son brought in. He was a fine boy, tanned and handsome.

The Lord said to Samuel, "Go! Appoint him. He is the one."

<sup>13</sup>So Samuel took the container of olive oil. Then he poured oil on Jesse's youngest son to appoint him in front of his brothers. From that day on, the Lord's Spirit<sup>d</sup> entered David with power. Samuel then went back to Ramah.

David Serves Saul

<sup>14</sup>But the Lord's Spirit<sup>d</sup> had gone out of Saul. And an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him.

<sup>15</sup>Saul's servants said to him, "See, an evil spirit from God is troubling you. <sup>16</sup>Give us the command. We will look for someone who can play the harp. When the evil spirit from the Lord enters you, he will play. Then the evil spirit will leave you alone. And you will feel better."

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, "Find someone. If he plays well, bring him to me."

<sup>18</sup>One of the servants said, "Jesse of Bethlehem has a son who plays the harp. I have seen him play it. He is a brave man and fights well. He is a good speaker and handsome. And the Lord is with him."

<sup>19</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse. The message said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." <sup>20</sup>So Jesse loaded a donkey with bread and a leather bag full of wine. He also took a young goat. He sent them all with his son David to Saul.

<sup>21</sup>When David came to Saul, he began to serve him. Saul loved David very much. And David became the officer who carried Saul's armor. <sup>22</sup>Saul sent a message to Jesse. He said, "Let David stay and serve me. I like him."

<sup>23</sup>When the evil spirit from God entered Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then the evil spirit would go out of him. And Saul would feel relief. He would feel better again.

David and Goliath

17 The Philistines gathered their armies for war. They met at Socoh in Judah. Their camp was at Ephes Dammim between Socoh and Azekah. <sup>2</sup>Saul and the Israelites gathered in the Valley of Elah. And they camped there. They took their positions to fight the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>The Philistines controlled one hill. The Israelites controlled another. The valley was between them.

<sup>4</sup>The Philistines had a champion fighter named Goliath. He was from Gath. He was about nine feet four inches tall. He came out of the Philistine camp. <sup>5</sup>He had a bronze helmet on his head. And he wore a coat of scale armor. It was made of bronze and weighed about 125 pounds. <sup>6</sup>He wore bronze protectors on his legs. And he had a small spear of bronze tied on his back. <sup>7</sup>The wooden part of his larger spear was like a weaver's rod. And its blade weighed about 15 pounds. The officer who carried his shield walked in front of him.

<sup>8</sup>Goliath stood and shouted to the Israelite soldiers, "Why have you taken positions for battle? I am a Philistine, and you are Saul's servants! Choose a man and send him to fight me. <sup>9</sup>If he can fight and kill me, we will become your servants. But if I defeat and kill him, you will become our servants." <sup>10</sup>Then he said, "Today I stand and dare the army of Israel! Send one of your men to fight me!" <sup>11</sup>When Saul and the Israelites heard the Philistine's words, they were very afraid.

<sup>12</sup>Now David was the son of Jesse, an Ephrathite. Jesse was from Bethlehem in Judah. He had eight sons. In Saul's time Jesse was an old man. <sup>13</sup>His three oldest sons followed Saul to the war. The first son was Eliab. The second son was Abinadab. And the third son was Shammah. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest son. Jesse's three oldest sons followed Saul. <sup>15</sup>But David went back and forth from Saul to Bethlehem. There he took care of his father's sheep.

<sup>17</sup>Now Jesse said to his son David, "Take this half bushel of cooked grain. And take ten loaves of bread. Take them to your brothers in the camp. <sup>18</sup>Also take ten pieces of cheese. Give them to the commander of your brothers' group of 1,000 soldiers. See how your brothers are. Bring back something to show me they are all right. <sup>19</sup>Your brothers are with Saul and the army in the Valley of Elah. They are fighting against the Philistines."

<sup>25</sup>They said, "Look at this man Goliath. He keeps coming out to speak against Israel. The king will give much money to the man who kills Goliath. He will also give his daughter in marriage to whoever kills him. And his father's family will not have to pay taxes in Israel."

<sup>26</sup>David asked the men who stood near him, "What will be done to reward the man who kills this Philistine? What will be done for whoever takes away the shame from Israel? Goliath is a Philistine. He is not circumcised. <sup>a</sup> Why does he think he can speak against the armies of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup>The Israelites told David what they had been saying. They said, "This is what will be done for the man who kills Goliath."

<sup>28</sup>David's oldest brother Eliab heard David talking with the soldiers. He became angry with David. He asked David, "Why did you come here? Who's taking care of those few sheep of yours in the desert? I know you are proud. Your attitude is very bad. You came down here just to watch the battle!"

<sup>29</sup>David asked, "Now what have I done wrong? Can't I even talk?" <sup>30</sup>He then turned to other people and asked the same questions. And they gave him the same answer as before. <sup>31</sup>Some men heard what David said and told Saul. Then Saul ordered David to be sent to him.

<sup>32</sup>David said to Saul, "Don't let anyone be discouraged. I, your servant, will go and fight this Philistine!"

<sup>33</sup>Saul answered, "You can't go out against this Philistine and fight him. You're only a boy. Goliath has been a warrior since he was a young man."

<sup>34</sup>But David said to Saul, "I, your servant, have been keeping my father's sheep. When a lion or bear came and took a sheep from the flock, <sup>35</sup>I would chase it. I would attack it and save the sheep from its mouth. When it attacked me, I caught it by its fur. I would hit it and kill it. <sup>36</sup>I, your servant, have killed both a lion and a bear! Goliath, the Philistine who is not circumcised, will be like the lion or bear I killed. He will die because he has stood against the armies of the living God. <sup>37</sup>The Lord saved me from a lion and a bear. He will also save me from this Philistine."

Saul said to David, "Go, and may the Lord be with you." <sup>38</sup>Saul put his own clothes on David. He put a bronze helmet on David's head and armor on his body. <sup>39</sup>David put on Saul's sword and tried to walk around. But he was not used to all the armor Saul had put on him.

He said to Saul, "I can't go in this. I'm not used to it." Then David took it all off. <sup>40</sup>He took his stick in his hand. And he chose five smooth stones from a stream. He put them in his pouch and held his sling in his hand. Then he went to meet Goliath.

<sup>41</sup>At the same time, the Philistine was coming closer to David. The man who held his shield walked in front of him. <sup>42</sup>Goliath looked at David. He saw that David was only a boy, tanned and handsome. He looked down at David with disgust. <sup>43</sup>He said, "Do you think I am a dog, that you come at me with a stick?" He used his gods' names to curse David. <sup>44</sup>He said to David, "Come here. I'll feed your body to the birds of the air and the wild animals!"

<sup>45</sup>But David said to him, "You come to me using a sword, a large spear and a small spear. But I come to you in the name of the Lord of heaven's armies. He's the God of the armies of Israel! You have spoken out against him. <sup>46</sup>Today the Lord will give you to me. I'll kill you, and I'll cut off your head. Today I'll feed the bodies of the Philistine soldiers to the birds of the air and the wild animals. Then all the world will know there is a God in Israel! <sup>47</sup>Everyone gathered here will know the Lord does not need swords or spears to save people. The battle belongs to him! And he will help us defeat all of you."

<sup>48</sup>As Goliath came near to attack him, David ran quickly to meet him. <sup>49</sup>He took a stone from his pouch. He put it into his sling and slung it. The stone hit the Philistine on his forehead and sank into it. Goliath fell facedown on the ground.

<sup>50</sup>So David defeated the Philistine with only a sling and a stone! He hit him and killed him. He did not even have a sword in his hand. <sup>51</sup>David ran and stood beside the Philistine. He took Goliath's sword out of its holder and killed him. Then he cut off Goliath's head.

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they turned and ran. <sup>52</sup>The men of Israel and Judah shouted and started chasing the Philistines. They chased them all the way to the entrance to the city of Gath. And they chased them to the gates of Ekron.

Many of the Philistines died. Their bodies lay on the Shaaraim road as far as Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>The Israelites returned after chasing the Philistines. Then they took many things from the Philistine camp. <sup>54</sup>David took Goliath's head to Jerusalem. He also put Goliath's weapons in his own tent.

<sup>55</sup>Saul had watched David go out to meet Goliath. Saul spoke to Abner, commander of the army. He said, "Abner, who is that young man's father?"

Abner answered, "As surely as you live, my king, I don't know."

David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem."

Saul Fears David

18 When David finished talking with Saul, Jonathan felt very close to David. He loved David as much as he loved himself. <sup>2</sup>Saul kept David with him from that day on. He did not let David go home to his father's house. <sup>3</sup>Jonathan made an agreement with David. He did this because he loved David as much as himself. <sup>4</sup>He took off his coat and gave it to David. He also gave David his uniform, including his sword, bow and belt.

<sup>5</sup>Saul sent David to fight in different battles. And David was very successful. Then Saul put David over the soldiers. When he did this, Saul's officers and all the other people were pleased.

<sup>6</sup>After David had killed the Philistine, he and the men returned home. Women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul. They sang songs of joy, danced and played tambourines<sup>4</sup> and stringed instruments. <sup>7</sup>As they played, they sang,

"Saul has killed thousands of his enemies.

But David has killed tens of thousands!"

<sup>8</sup>The women's song upset Saul, and he became very angry. He thought, "The women say David has killed tens of thousands of enemies. But they say I killed only thousands of enemies. The only thing left for him to have is the kingdom!" <sup>9</sup>So Saul watched David closely from then on. He was jealous of him.

<sup>10</sup>The next day an evil spirit from God entered Saul with power. And he prophesied<sup>d</sup> in his house. David was playing the harp as he usually did. But Saul had a spear in his hand. <sup>11</sup>He raised the spear and thought, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David got away from him two times.

Saul's Daughter Marries David

<sup>17</sup>Saul said to David, "You're a brave soldier. And you fight the Lord's battles. Here is my older daughter Merab. I will let you marry her." Saul had decided, "I won't have to kill David. The Philistines will do that!"

<sup>18</sup>But David said, "I am not good enough for this honor. And my family is not important enough for me to become the king's son-in-law." <sup>19</sup>So when the time came for Saul's daughter Merab to marry David, Saul gave her instead to Adriel of Meholah.

<sup>20</sup>Now Saul's other daughter Michal loved David. When they told Saul about Michal loving David, he was pleased. <sup>21</sup>He thought, "I will let Michal marry David. Then she will become a trap for him. And the Philistines will defeat him." So Saul said to David a second time, "You may become my son-in-law."

<sup>22</sup>And Saul gave an order to his servants. He told them, "Speak to David in private. Say, 'Look, the king is pleased with you. His servants like you. You should become his son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup>Saul's servants said these words to David. But David answered, "Do you think it is easy to become the king's son-in-law? I'm only a poor man. Nobody knows me."

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul's servants told him what David had said. <sup>25</sup>Saul said, "Say to David, 'The king doesn't want you to pay a large price for the bride. All he wants is 100 Philistine foreskins. Then he will be even with his enemies.'" Saul planned to let the Philistines kill David.

<sup>26</sup>Saul's servants told David these words. David was pleased that he could become the king's son-in-law. <sup>27</sup>So he and his men went out and killed 200 Philistines. David took all their foreskins and brought them to Saul. He wanted to become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal for his wife. <sup>28</sup>Saul saw that the Lord was with David. He also saw that his daughter Michal loved David. <sup>29</sup>So he became even more afraid of David. And he was David's enemy all his life.

<sup>30</sup>The Philistine commanders continued to go out to fight the Israelites. But every time, David defeated them. He had more success than Saul's officers. And he became famous.

Saul Plans to Kill David

19 Saul told his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David. But Jonathan cared very much for David. <sup>2</sup>So he warned David, "My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Watch out in the morning. Hide in a secret place. <sup>3</sup>I will go out and stand with my father in the field where you are hiding. I'll talk to him about you. Then I'll let you know what I find out."

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan talked to Saul his father. He said good things about David. Jonathan said, "You are the king. Don't do wrong to your servant David. He did nothing wrong to you. What he did has helped you greatly. <sup>5</sup>David risked his life when he killed Goliath the Philistine. The Lord won a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and you were happy. Why would you do wrong against David? He's innocent. There's no reason to kill him!"

<sup>6</sup>Saul listened to Jonathan. Then he made this promise: "As surely as the Lord lives, David won't be put to death."

<sup>7</sup>So Jonathan called to David. He told David everything that had been said. And he brought David to Saul. So David was with Saul as before.

<sup>8</sup>When war broke out again, David went out to fight the Philistines. He defeated them, and they ran away from him.

<sup>9</sup>But once again an evil spirit from the Lord entered Saul. He was sitting in his house, and he had his spear in his hand. David was playing the harp. <sup>10</sup>Saul tried to pin David to the wall with his spear. But David moved away from him. So Saul's spear went into the wall. And David ran away that night.

<sup>11</sup>Saul sent men to David's house. They watched it, wanting to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, warned him. She said, "Tonight you must run away to save your own life. If you don't, you will be killed tomorrow morning." <sup>12</sup>Then she let David down out of a window. So he ran away and escaped. <sup>13</sup>Then Michal took an idol and laid it on the bed. She covered it with clothes and put goats' hair at its head.

<sup>14</sup>Saul sent messengers to take David prisoner. But Michal said, "He is sick."

<sup>15</sup>The men went and told Saul, but he sent them back to see David. He told them, "Bring him to me on his bed so I can kill him."

<sup>16</sup>But when the messengers entered David's house, they found it was just an idol on the bed. Its hair was goats' hair.

<sup>17</sup>Saul said to Michal, "Why did you trick me this way? You let my enemy go. He has run away!"

Michal answered Saul, "David told me if I did not help him escape, he would kill me."

<sup>18</sup>After David had escaped from Saul, he went to Samuel at Ramah. He told Samuel everything Saul had done to him. Then David and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there. <sup>19</sup>Saul heard that David was in Naioth at Ramah. <sup>20</sup>So he sent men to capture him. But they met a group of prophets<sup>d</sup> prophesying. Samuel was leading this group and was standing there. The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God entered Saul's men, and they also prophesied.

<sup>21</sup>Saul heard the news. So he sent other men, but they also prophesied. Then he sent men a third time, but they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup>Finally, Saul himself went to Ramah. He came to the well at Secu. He asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

The people answered, "In Naioth at Ramah."

<sup>23</sup>Then Saul went to Naioth at Ramah. But the Spirit of God also entered him. And he walked on, prophesying until he came to Naioth at Ramah. <sup>24</sup>He took off his robes and prophesied in front of Samuel. He lay that way all day and all night. That is why people ask, "Is even Saul one of the prophets?"

Jonathan Helps David

20 Then David ran away from Naioth in Ramah. He went to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my crime? How have I sinned against your father so that he's trying to kill me?"

<sup>2</sup>Jonathan answered, "No! You won't die! See, my father doesn't do anything without first telling me. It doesn't matter if it is very important or just a small thing. Why would he refuse to tell me he wants to kill you? No, it's not true!"

<sup>3</sup>But David took an oath. He said, "Your father knows very well that I'm your friend. He has said to himself, 'Jonathan must not know about it. If he knows, he will tell David.' But as surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I am very close to death!"

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan said to David, "I'll do anything you want me to do."

<sup>5</sup>So David said, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon<sup>d</sup> festival. I am supposed to eat with the king. But let me hide in the field until the third evening. <sup>6</sup>Your father may notice I am gone. If he does, tell him, 'David begged me to let him go to his hometown of Bethlehem. Every year at this time, his family group offers a sacrifice.' <sup>7</sup>If your father says, 'Fine,' I am safe. But if he becomes angry, you can believe he wants to hurt me. <sup>8</sup>Jonathan, be kind to me, your servant. You have made an agreement with me before the Lord. If I am guilty, you may kill me yourself! Why hand me over to your father?"

<sup>9</sup>Jonathan answered, "No, never! If I learn that my father plans to harm you, I will warn you!"

<sup>10</sup>David asked, "Who will let me know if your father answers you unkindly?"

<sup>11</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Come, let's go out into the field." So Jonathan and David went together into the field.

<sup>12</sup>Jonathan said to David, "I promise this before the Lord, the God of Israel: At this same time the day after tomorrow, I will find out how my father feels. If he feels good toward you, I'll send word to you. I'll let you know. <sup>13</sup>But my father may mean to hurt you. If so, I will let you know and send you away safely. May the Lord punish me terribly if I don't do this. And may the Lord be with you as he has been with my father. <sup>14</sup>But show me the kindness of the Lord as long as I live. Do this so that I may not die. <sup>15</sup>You must not stop showing your kindness to my family. Don't do this, even when the Lord has destroyed all your enemies from the earth."

<sup>16</sup>So Jonathan made an agreement with David. He said, "May the Lord punish David's enemies." <sup>17</sup>And Jonathan asked David to repeat his promise of love for him. He did this because he loved David as much as he loved himself.

<sup>18</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the New Moon festival. Your seat will be empty. So my father will notice you're gone. <sup>19</sup>On the third day go to the place where you hid when this trouble began. Wait by the rock Ezel. <sup>20</sup>On the third day I will shoot three arrows to the side of the rock. I will shoot as if I am shooting at a target. <sup>21</sup>Then I will send a boy and tell him to go find the arrows. I may say to him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you. Bring them here.' If so, you may come out of hiding. You may do this as surely as the Lord lives because you are safe. There is no danger. <sup>22</sup>But I may say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you.' If I do, you must go, because the Lord has sent you away. <sup>23</sup>Remember what we talked about. The Lord is a witness between you and me forever."

<sup>24</sup>So David hid in the field. And when the New Moon festival came, the king sat down to eat. <sup>25</sup>He sat where he always sat, near the wall. Jonathan sat across from him, and Abner sat next to him. But David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup>That day Saul said nothing. He thought, "Maybe something has happened to David so that he is unclean."<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>But the next day was the second day of the month. And David's place was empty again. So Saul said to Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the festival yesterday or today?"

<sup>28</sup>Jonathan answered, "David begged me to let him go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>He said, 'Let me go, because our family has a sacrifice in the town. And my brother has ordered me to be there. Now if I am your friend, please let me go and see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul became very angry with Jonathan. He said, "You son of an evil and disobedient woman! I know you are on the side of David son of Jesse! You bring shame on yourself and on your mother who gave birth to you. <sup>31</sup>As long as Jesse's son lives, you'll never be king or have a kingdom. Now send for David and bring him to me. He must die!"

<sup>35</sup>The next morning Jonathan went out to the field. He went to meet David as they had agreed. He had a young boy with him. <sup>36</sup>Jonathan said to the boy, "Run and find the arrows I shoot." When he ran, Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup>The boy ran to the place where Jonathan's arrow fell. But Jonathan called, "The arrow is beyond you!" <sup>38</sup>Then he shouted, "Hurry! Go quickly! Don't stop!" The boy picked up the arrow and brought it back to his master. <sup>39</sup>(The boy knew nothing about what this meant. Only Jonathan and David knew.) <sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy. He told him, "Go back to town."

<sup>41</sup>When the boy left, David came out from the south side of the rock. He bowed facedown on the ground before Jonathan. He did this three times. Then David and Jonathan kissed each other. They cried together, but David cried the most.

<sup>42</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace. We have promised by the Lord that we will be friends. We said, 'The Lord will be a witness between you and me, and between our descendants<sup>d</sup> forever.'" Then David left, and Jonathan went back to town.

David Goes to See Ahimelech

21 David went to Nob to see Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech shook with fear when he saw David. He asked David, "Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?"

<sup>2</sup>David answered him, "The king gave me a special order. He told me, 'No one must know about the work I am sending you to do. And no one must know what I told you to do.' I told my men where to meet me. <sup>3</sup>Now, what food do you have with you? Give me five loaves of bread or anything you find."

<sup>4</sup>The priest said to David, "I don't have any plain bread here. But I do have some holy bread<sup>e</sup> here. You may eat it if your men have kept themselves from women."

<sup>5</sup>David answered, "Women have been kept from us. My men always keep their bodies holy, even when we do ordinary work. And this is especially true when the work is holy."

<sup>6</sup>There was no bread except the bread made holy for the Lord. So the priest gave David the bread that showed the people were in the presence of God. This was the bread the priests had taken from the holy table before the Lord. Each day they took this bread away and put hot bread in its place.

<sup>7</sup>Now one of Saul's servants was there that day. He had been held there before the Lord. He was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's shepherds.

<sup>8</sup>David asked Ahimelech, "Do you have a spear or sword here? The king's business was very important. I had to leave quickly, and I didn't bring my sword or any other weapon."

<sup>a</sup>holy bread This was the bread that showed the people were in the presence of God. Normally only the priests should eat this bread.

<sup>9</sup>The priest answered, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine is here. He is the one you killed in the Valley of Elah. His sword is wrapped in a cloth. It is behind the holy vest.<sup>d</sup> If you want it, you may take it. There's no other sword here but that one."

David said, "There is no other sword like Goliath's. Give it to me."

David Goes to Gath

<sup>10</sup>That day David ran away from Saul. He went to Achish king of Gath. <sup>11</sup>But the servants of Achish said to him, "This is David king of the Israelites. He's the man the Israelite women sing about when they dance. They sing:

'Saul has killed thousands of his enemies.
But David has killed tens of thousands.'

<sup>12</sup>David paid attention to these words. And he was very much afraid of Achish king of Gath. <sup>13</sup>So he pretended to be insane in front of Achish and his servants. While he was with them, he acted like a madman. He made marks on the doors of the gate. He let spit run down his beard.

<sup>14</sup>Achish said to his servants, "Look at the man! He's insane! Why do you bring him to me? <sup>15</sup>I have enough madmen. I don't need you to bring him here to act like this in front of me! Don't leave him in my house!"

David at Adullam and Mizpah

22 David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. His brothers and other relatives heard that he was there. And they went to see him. <sup>2</sup>Many people joined David. All those who were in trouble, who owed money or who were unsatisfied gathered around him. And he became their leader. He had about 400 men with him.

<sup>3</sup>From there David went to Mizpah in Moab. He spoke to the king of Moab. He said, "Please let my father and mother come and stay with you. Let them stay until I learn what God is going to do for me." <sup>4</sup>So he left them with the king of Moab. And they stayed with the king as long as David was hiding in the protected place.

Saul Destroys Ahimelech's Family

him. He had a spear in his hand. <sup>7</sup>Saul said to them, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Do you think the son of Jesse will give all of you fields and vineyards? Will David make you commanders over thousands of men or hundreds of men?"

<sup>8</sup>You have all made plans against me! No one tells me when my son makes an agreement with the son of Jesse! No one cares about me! No one tells me my son has encouraged my servant to ambush me! And David is doing this now!"

<sup>9</sup>Doeg the Edomite was standing there with Saul's officers. He said, "I saw the son of Jesse. He came to see Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob. <sup>10</sup>Ahimelech prayed to the Lord for David. He also gave him food. And he gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup>Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub. He sent for all of Ahimelech's relatives who were priests at Nob. And they all came to the king. <sup>12</sup>Saul said to Ahimelech, "Listen now, son of Ahitub."

Ahimelech answered, "Yes, master."

<sup>13</sup>Saul said, "Why have you and Jesse's son made plans against me? You gave him bread and a sword! You prayed to God for him. David is waiting to attack me. He is doing this now!"

<sup>14</sup>Ahimelech answered, "David is very loyal to you. You have no other servant who is as loyal as David. He is your own son-in-law and captain of your bodyguards. All the people in your house respect him. <sup>15</sup>That was not the first time I prayed to God for David. Not at all! Don't blame me or any of my relatives. We are your servants. I know nothing about what is going on."

<sup>16</sup>But the king said, "Ahimelech, you and all your relatives must die!" <sup>17</sup>Then he told the guards at his side, "Go and kill the priests of the Lord. Do this because they are on David's side. They knew he was running away, but they didn't tell me!"

But the king's officers refused to hurt the priests of the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king ordered Doeg, "Go and kill the priests." So Doeg the Edomite went and killed the priests. That day he killed 85 men who wore the linen holy vest.<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>He also killed the people of Nob, the city of the priests. With the sword he killed men, women, children and small babies. And he killed cattle, donkeys and sheep.

<sup>20</sup>But Abiathar escaped. He was a son of Ahimelech, who was the son of Ahitub. Abiathar ran away and joined David. <sup>21</sup>He told David that Saul had killed the Lord's priests. <sup>22</sup>Then David told him, "Doeg the Edomite was there at Nob that day. I knew he would surely tell Saul. So I am responsible for the death of all your father's family. <sup>23</sup>The man who wants to kill you also wants to kill me. Stay with me. Don't be afraid. You will be safe with me."

David Saves the People of Keilah

23 Someone told David, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah. They are robbing grain from the threshing<sup>d</sup> floors."

The Lord answered him, "Go. Attack them, and save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup>But David's men said to him, "We're afraid here in Judah. We will be much more afraid if we go to Keilah where the Philistine army is."

<sup>4</sup>David again asked the Lord. And the Lord answered, "Go down to Keilah. I will help you defeat the Philistines." <sup>5</sup>So David and his men went to Keilah. They fought the Philistines and took their cattle. David killed many Philistines and saved the people of Keilah. <sup>6</sup>(Now Abiathar son of Ahimelech had brought the holy vest<sup>d</sup> with him. He brought it when he came to David at Keilah.)

Saul Chases David

<sup>7</sup>Someone told Saul that David was now at Keilah. Saul said, "God has given David to me! He has trapped himself because he has entered a town with gates and bars." <sup>8</sup>Saul called all his army together for battle. They prepared to go down to Keilah to attack David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>David learned Saul was making evil plans against him. So he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the holy vest."<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>David prayed, "Lord, God of Israel, I have heard about Saul's plans. He is coming to Keilah to destroy the town because of me. <sup>11</sup>Will the people of Keilah give me to Saul? Will Saul come to Keilah, as I heard? Lord, God of Israel, tell me, your servant!"

The Lord answered, "Saul will come down."

<sup>12</sup>Again David asked, "Will the people of Keilah give me and my men to Saul?"

The Lord answered, "They will."

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men left Keilah. There were about 600 men who went with him. And they kept moving from place to place. When Saul found that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.

<sup>14</sup>David stayed in the protected places in the desert. He also stayed in the hills of the Desert of Ziph. Every day Saul looked for David. But the Lord did not let him take David.

<sup>15</sup>David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph. He was afraid because Saul was coming to kill him. <sup>16</sup>But Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh. He helped David have stronger faith in God. <sup>17</sup>Jonathan told him, "Don't be afraid. My father won't touch you. You will become king of Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this." <sup>18</sup>The two of them made an agreement before the Lord. Then Jonathan went home. But David stayed at Horesh.

<sup>19</sup>The people from Ziph went to Saul at Gibeah. They told him, "David is hiding in our land. He's at the protected places of Horesh. They are on the hill of Hakilah, south of Jeshimon. <sup>20</sup>Now, our king, come down anytime you want. It's our duty to give David to you."

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, "The Lord bless you for helping me. <sup>22</sup>Go and learn more about him. Find out where he is staying. Find out who has seen him there. I have heard that he is clever. <sup>23</sup>Find all the hiding places he uses. And come back and tell me everything. Then I'll go with you. If David is in the area, I will find him. I will track him down among all the families in Judah."

<sup>24</sup>So they went back to Ziph ahead of Saul. David and his men were in the Desert of Maon.<sup>n</sup> This was in the desert area south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup>Saul and his men went to look for David. But people warned David that Saul was looking for him. David then went down to a rock and stayed in the Desert of Maon. Saul heard that David had gone there. So he went after him into the Desert of Maon.

<sup>26</sup>Saul was going along one side of the mountain. David and his men were on the other side. They were hurrying to get away from Saul. Saul and his soldiers were closing in on David and his men. <sup>27</sup>But a messenger came to Saul. He said, "Come quickly! The Philistines are attacking our land!" <sup>28</sup>So Saul stopped chasing David and went to fight the Philistines. That is why people call this place Rock of Parting. <sup>29</sup>David left the Desert of Maon and lived in the protected places of En Gedi.

David Shames Saul

24 Now Saul had chased the Philistines away. Then he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi." <sup>2</sup>So he chose 3,000 men from all Israel. He took these men and began looking for David and his men. They looked near the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

<sup>3</sup>Saul came to the sheep pens beside the road. A cave was there, and he went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were hiding far back in the cave. <sup>4</sup>The men said to David, "Today is the day the Lord talked about! The Lord told you, 'I will give your enemy to you. You can do anything you want with him.'"

Then David crawled near Saul. He cut off a corner of Saul's robe. But Saul did not notice him. <sup>5</sup>Later David felt guilty because he had cut off a corner of Saul's robe. <sup>6</sup>He said to his men, "May the Lord keep me from doing such a thing to my master! Saul is the Lord's appointed king. I should not do anything against him, because he is the Lord's appointed king!" <sup>7</sup>David used these words to stop his men. He did not let them attack Saul. Then Saul left the cave and went his way.

<sup>8</sup>When David came out of the cave, he shouted to Saul, "My master and king!" Saul looked back, and David bowed facedown on the ground. <sup>9</sup>He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when people say, 'David plans to harm you'? <sup>10</sup>You have seen something with your own eyes today. You have seen how the Lord put you in my power in the cave. But I refused to kill you. I was merciful to you. I said, 'I won't harm my master, because he is the Lord's appointed king.' <sup>11</sup>My father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe, but I didn't kill you. Now understand and know I am not planning any evil against you. I did nothing wrong to you, but you are hunting me to kill me. <sup>12</sup>May the Lord judge between us. And may he punish you for the wrong you have done to me! But I won't fight you. <sup>13</sup>There is an old saying: 'Evil things come from evil people.' So I won't hurt you. <sup>14</sup>Whom is the king of Israel coming out against? Whom are you chasing? You're not chasing someone who will hurt you! It's as if you are chasing a dead dog or a flea. <sup>15</sup>May the Lord be our judge and decide between you and me. May the Lord support me and show that I am right. May he save me from you!"

<sup>16</sup>David finished saying these words. Then Saul asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?" And he cried loudly. <sup>17</sup>He said, "You are right, and I am wrong. You have been good to me. But I have done wrong to you. <sup>18</sup>You told me what good things you did. The Lord brought me to you, but you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup>If a man finds his enemy, he won't send him away with goodness, will he? May the Lord reward you because you were good to me today. <sup>20</sup>I know you will surely be king. You will rule the kingdom of Israel. <sup>21</sup>Now make a promise to me. Promise in the name of the Lord that you will not kill my descendants." <sup>4</sup>Promise me that you won't wipe out my name from my father's family."

<sup>22</sup>So David made the promise to Saul. Then Saul went back home. David and his men went up to the protected place.

Nabal Insults David

25 Now Samuel died. All the Israelites met and had a time of sadness for him. They buried him at his home in Ramah.

Then David moved to the Desert of Maon. <sup>2</sup>A man in Maon who had land at Carmel was very rich. He had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. He was cutting the wool off his sheep at Carmel. <sup>3</sup>His name was Nabal, and he was a descendant <sup>4</sup>of Caleb. His wife was named Abigail. She was a wise and beautiful woman. But Nabal was cruel and mean.

<sup>4</sup>David was in the desert. He heard that Nabal was cutting the wool from his sheep. <sup>5</sup>So he sent ten young men. He told them, "Go to Nabal at Carmel. Greet him for me. <sup>6</sup>Say to Nabal, 'May you and your family have good health! And may all who belong to you have good health. <sup>7</sup>I have heard that you are cutting the wool from your sheep. When your shepherds were with us, we did nothing wrong to them. All the time your shepherds were at Carmel, we stole nothing from them. <sup>8</sup>Ask your servants, and they will tell you. We come at a happy time. So for this reason, be kind to my young men. Please give them anything you can find for them. Please do this for your son David.'"

<sup>12</sup>David's men went back and told him all Nabal had said. <sup>13</sup>Then David said to them, "Put on your swords!" So they put on their swords, and David put on his also. About 400 men went with David. But 200 men stayed with the supplies.

from the desert to greet our master. But Nabal insulted them. <sup>15</sup>These men were very good to us. They did nothing wrong to us. They stole nothing from us during all the time we were out in the field with them. <sup>16</sup>Night and day they protected us. They were like a wall around us while we were with them caring for the sheep. <sup>17</sup>Now think about it, and decide what you can do. Terrible trouble is coming to our master and all his family. Nabal is such a wicked man that no one can even talk to him."

<sup>20</sup>Abigail rode her donkey and came down into the mountain ravine. There she met David and his men coming down toward her.

<sup>21</sup>David had just said, "It's been useless! I watched over Nabal's property in the desert. I made sure none of his sheep were missing. I did good to him, but he has paid me back with evil. <sup>22</sup>May God punish me terribly if I let just one of Nabal's family live until tomorrow."

<sup>23</sup>When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey. She bowed facedown on the ground before David. <sup>24</sup>She lay at David's feet. She said, "My master, let the blame be on me! Please let me talk to you! Listen to what I say. <sup>25</sup>My master, don't pay attention to this worthless man Nabal. He is the same as his name. His name means 'fool,' and he is truly foolish. But I, your servant, didn't see the men you sent. <sup>26</sup>The Lord has kept you from killing and punishing people yourself. As surely as the Lord lives and as surely as you live, may your enemies become like Nabal! <sup>27</sup>I have brought a gift to you. Please give it to the men who follow you. <sup>28</sup>Please forgive my wrong. The Lord will certainly let your family have many kings. He will do this because you fight his battles. As long as you live, people will find nothing bad in you. <sup>29</sup>A man might chase you to kill you. But the Lord your God will keep you alive. He will throw away your enemies' lives as he would throw a stone from a sling. <sup>30</sup>The Lord will keep all his promises about good things for you. He will make you leader over Israel. <sup>31</sup>Then you won't feel guilty. You won't have problems about killing innocent people and punishing them yourself. Please remember me when the Lord brings you success."

<sup>32</sup>David answered Abigail, "Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. He sent you to meet me.

<sup>33</sup>May you be blessed for your wisdom. You have kept me from killing or punishing people today. <sup>34</sup>As surely as the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, he has kept me from hurting you. If you hadn't come quickly to meet me, no one belonging to Nabal would have lived until tomorrow."

<sup>35</sup>Then David accepted Abigail's gifts. He told her, "Go home in peace. I have heard your words, and I will do what you have asked."

Nabal's Death

<sup>36</sup>When Abigail went back to Nabal, he was in the house. He was eating like a king. He was very drunk and in a good mood. So she told him nothing until the next morning. <sup>37</sup>In the morning he was not drunk. Then his wife told him everything. His heart failed him, and he became like a stone. <sup>38</sup>About ten days later the Lord struck Nabal and caused him to die.

<sup>39</sup>When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Praise the Lord! Nabal insulted me, but the Lord has supported me! He has kept me from doing wrong. And the Lord caused Nabal to die because he did wrong."

Then David sent a message to Abigail. He asked her to become his wife. <sup>40</sup>His servants went to Carmel and spoke to Abigail. They said, "David sent us to take you so you can become his wife."

<sup>41</sup>Abigail bowed facedown on the ground. She said, "I am your servant. I'm ready to serve you. I'm ready to wash the feet of my master's servants." <sup>42</sup>Abigail quickly got on a donkey and went with David's messengers. She had five maids following her. And she became David's wife.

<sup>43</sup>David also had married Ahinoam of Jezreel. So they were both David's wives. <sup>44</sup>Saul's daughter Michal was also David's wife. But Saul had given her to Paltiel son of Laish. Paltiel was from Gallim.

David Shames Saul Again

26 The people of Ziph went to see Saul at Gibeah. They said to him, "David is hiding on the hill of Hakilah opposite Jeshimon."

<sup>2</sup>So Saul went down to the Desert of Ziph. His 3,000 chosen men of Israel went with him. They looked for David in the Desert of Ziph. <sup>3</sup>Saul made his camp on the hill of Hakilah, beside the road opposite Jeshimon. But David stayed in the desert. He heard Saul had followed him. <sup>4</sup>So David sent out spies and learned that Saul had come to Hakilah.

<sup>5</sup>Then David went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner son of Ner were sleeping. Abner was the commander of Saul's army. Saul was sleeping in the middle of the camp with all the army around him.

<sup>6</sup>David talked to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah. Abishai was Joab's brother. He asked them, "Who will go down into Saul's camp with me?"

Abishai answered, "I'll go with you."

<sup>7</sup>So that night David and Abishai went into Saul's camp. Saul was asleep in the middle of the camp. His spear was stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the army were sleeping around Saul. <sup>8</sup>Abishai said to David, "Today God has let you defeat your enemy! Let me pin Saul to the ground with the spear. I'll only do it once! I won't hit him twice."

<sup>9</sup>But David said to Abishai, "Don't kill Saul! No one can harm the Lord's appointed king and still be innocent! <sup>10</sup>As surely as the Lord lives, the Lord himself will punish Saul. Maybe Saul will die naturally. Or maybe he will go into battle and be killed. <sup>11</sup>But may the Lord keep me from harming his appointed king! Now pick up the spear and water jug that are near Saul's head. Then let's go."

<sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and water jug that were near Saul's head. They left, and no one saw them. No one knew about it or woke up. The Lord had made them stay asleep.

<sup>13</sup>David crossed over to the other side of the hill. He stood on top of the mountain far from Saul's camp. David's and Saul's camps were far apart. <sup>14</sup>David shouted to the army and to Abner son of Ner, "Answer me, Abner!"

Abner answered, "Who is calling for the king? Who are you?"

<sup>15</sup>David said, "You're the greatest man in Israel. Isn't that true? Then why didn't you guard your master the king? Someone came into your camp to kill your master the king! <sup>16</sup>What you have done is not good. As surely as the Lord lives, you and your men should die. You haven't guarded your master, the Lord's appointed king. Look! Where are the king's spear and water jug that were near his head?"

<sup>17</sup>Saul knew David's voice. He said, "Is that your voice, David my son?"

David answered, "Yes, it is, my master and king." <sup>18</sup>David also said, "Why are you chasing me, my master? What wrong have I done? What evil am I guilty of? <sup>19</sup>My master and king, listen to me. If the Lord caused you to be angry with me, let him accept an offering. But if men caused you to be angry with me, let the Lord curse them! They have made me leave the land the Lord gave me. They have told me, 'Go and serve other gods.' <sup>20</sup>Now don't let me die far away from the Lord's presence. The king of Israel has come out looking for a flea! You're like a man hunting a partridge bird in the mountains!"

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Today you respected my life. So I will not try to hurt you. I have acted foolishly. I have made a big mistake."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You will do great things and succeed."

So David went on his way, and Saul went back home.

David Lives with the Philistines

27 But David thought to himself, "Saul will catch me someday. The best thing I can do is escape to the land of the Philistines. Then he will give up looking for me in Israel. That way I can get away from him."

<sup>2</sup>So David and his 600 men left Israel. They went to Achish son of Maach. Achish was king of Gath. <sup>3</sup>David, his men and their families made their home in Gath with Achish. David had his two wives with him. Their names were Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel. Abigail was the widow of Nabal. <sup>4</sup>Now Saul was told that David had run away to Gath. So he stopped looking for him.

<sup>5</sup>Then David said to Achish, "If you are pleased with me, give me a place in one of the country towns. I can live there. I don't need to live in the royal city with you."

<sup>6</sup>That day Achish gave David the town of Ziklag. That is why Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since. <sup>7</sup>David lived in the Philistine land a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup>David and his men went to raid the people of Geshur, Girzi and Amalek. (These people had lived for a long time in the land that reached to Shur and Egypt.) <sup>9</sup>When David fought them, he killed all the men and women. He took sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and clothes. Then he returned to Achish.

<sup>10</sup>Many times Achish would ask David, "Where did you go raiding today?" And David would tell him that he had gone to the southern part of Judah. Or he would say he had gone to the territory of the Jerahmeelites or of the Kenites. <sup>11</sup>David never brought a man or woman alive to Gath. He thought, "If we bring anyone alive, he may tell Achish, 'This is what David really did.'" David did this all the time he lived in the Philistine land. <sup>12</sup>Achish trusted David. He said to himself, "David's own people, the Israelites, now hate David very much. So David will serve me forever."

Saul and the Witch of Endor

28 Later, the Philistines gathered their armies to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You understand that you and your men must join with me in my army."

<sup>2</sup>David answered, "Certainly! Then you can see for yourself what I, your servant, can do!"

Achish said, "Fine, I'll make you my bodyguard for life."

<sup>3</sup>Now Samuel was dead, and all the Israelites had shown their sadness for him. They had buried Samuel in his hometown of Ramah.

And Saul had forced out the mediums<sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers from the land of Israel.

His servants answered, "There is a medium in Endor."

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul put on other clothes so no one would know who he was. At night Saul and two of his men went to see the woman. Saul said to her, "Talk to a spirit for me. Call up the person I name."

<sup>9</sup>But the woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done. He has forced the mediums and fortune-tellers out from the land of Israel. You are trying to trap me and kill me."

<sup>10</sup>Saul made a promise to the woman in the name of the Lord. He said, "As surely as the Lord lives, you won't be punished for doing this."

<sup>11</sup>The woman asked, "Whom do you want me to bring up for you?"

He answered, "Bring up Samuel."

<sup>12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed loudly. She said, "Why have you tricked me? You are Saul!"

<sup>13</sup>The king said to the woman, "Don't be afraid! What do you see?"

The woman said, "I see a spirit coming up out of the ground."

<sup>14</sup>Saul asked, "What does he look like?"

The woman answered, "An old man wearing a coat is coming up."

Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed facedown on the ground.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel asked Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?"

Saul said, "I am greatly troubled. The Philistines are fighting against me. God has left me. He won't answer me anymore, either by prophets or in dreams. That's why I called you. I want you to tell me what to do."

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said, "The Lord has left you. He has become your enemy. So why do you call on me? <sup>17</sup>He has done what he said he would do. He said these things through me. He has torn the kingdom out of your hands. He has given it to one of your neighbors, David. <sup>18</sup>You did not obey the Lord. You did not show the Amalekites how angry he was with them. That's why he has done this to you today. <sup>19</sup>The Lord will give both Israel and you to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The Lord will let the Philistines defeat the army of Israel."

<sup>20</sup>Saul quickly fell to the ground and lay there. He was afraid because of what Samuel had said. He was also very weak because he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

<sup>21</sup>Then the woman came to Saul. She saw that he was really frightened. She said, "Look, I, your servant, have obeyed you. I have risked my life and done what you told me to do. <sup>22</sup>Now please listen to me. Let me give you some food. Then you may eat and have enough strength to go on your way."

<sup>23</sup>But Saul refused. He said, "I won't eat."

His servants joined the woman in asking him to eat. And he listened to them. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.

<sup>24</sup>The woman had a fat calf at the house. She quickly killed it. She took some flour and mixed dough with her hands. Then she baked some bread without yeast. <sup>25</sup>She put the food before them, and they ate. Then that same night they got up and left.

David Goes Back to Ziklag

29 The Philistines gathered all their soldiers at Aphek. Israel camped by the spring at Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>The Philistine kings were marching with their groups of 100 and 1,000 men. David and his men were marching at the back with Achish. <sup>3</sup>The Philistine commanders asked, "What are these Hebrews doing here?"

Achish told them, "This is David. He was an officer to Saul king of Israel. But he has been with me for over a year now. I have found nothing wrong in David since the time he left Saul and came to me."

<sup>4</sup>But the Philistine commanders were angry with Achish. They said, "Send David back! He must go back to the city you gave him. He can't go with us into battle. If he's here, we'll have an enemy in our own camp. He would please his king by killing our own men. <sup>5</sup>David is the one the Israelites sing about in their dances:

"Saul has killed thousands of his enemies.
But David has killed tens of thousands."

<sup>6</sup>So Achish called David. He said to him, "As surely as the Lord lives, you are loyal. I would be pleased to have you serve in my army. Since the day you came to me, I have found no wrong in you. But the Philistine kings don't trust you. <sup>7</sup>Go back in peace. Don't do anything to displease the Philistine kings."

<sup>8</sup>David asked, "What wrong have I done? What evil have you found in me from the day I came to you until now? Why won't you allow me to fight your enemies, my lord and king?"

<sup>9</sup>Achish answered, "I know you are as pleasing to me as an angel from God. But the Philistine commanders have said, 'David can't go with us into battle.'<sup>10</sup>Early in the morning you and your master's servants, the Israelites, should go back. Go back to the city I gave you. Leave as soon as the sun comes up."

<sup>11</sup>So David and his men got up early in the morning. They went back to the country of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David's War with the Amalekites

30 On the third day David and his men arrived at Ziklag. The Amalekites had raided southern Judah and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it. <sup>2</sup>They took the women and everyone in Ziklag as prisoners, both young and old. But they did not kill any of the people. They only took them away.

<sup>3</sup>When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found the town had been burned. Their wives, sons and daughters had been taken as prisoners. <sup>4</sup>Then David and his army cried loudly until they were too weak to cry anymore. <sup>5</sup>David's two wives had also been taken. They were Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal from Carmel. <sup>6</sup>The men in the army were threatening to kill David with stones. This upset David very much. Each man was sad and angry because his sons and daughters had been taken as prisoners. But David found strength in the Lord his God. <sup>7</sup>David said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring me the holy vest."<sup>8</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then David prayed to the Lord. He said, "Should I chase the people who took our families? Will I catch them?"

The Lord answered, "Chase them. You will catch them. You will succeed in saving your families."

<sup>9</sup>David and the 600 men with him came to the Besor Ravine. Some of the men stayed there. <sup>10</sup>David and 400 men kept up the chase. The other 200 men stayed behind because they were too tired and weak to cross the ravine.

<sup>11</sup>David's men found an Egyptian in a field. They took him to David. They gave the Egyptian some water to drink and some food to eat. <sup>12</sup>They gave him a piece of a fig cake and two clusters of raisins. He felt better after eating. He had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and nights.

<sup>13</sup>David asked him, "Who is your master? Where do you come from?"

He answered, "I'm an Egyptian. I'm the slave of an Amalekite. Three days ago my master left me, because I became sick. <sup>14</sup>We attacked the southern area of the Kerethites. We attacked the land of Judah and the southern area belonging to Caleb. We burned Ziklag, as well.

<sup>15</sup>David asked him, "Will you lead me to the people who took our families?"

He answered, "Yes, if you will make a promise to me before God. Promise that you won't kill me or give me back to my master. Then I will take you to them."

<sup>16</sup>So the Egyptian led David to the Amalekites. They were lying around on the ground, eating and drinking. They were celebrating with the things they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah. <sup>17</sup>David fought them from sunset until evening the next day. None of them escaped, except 400 young men who rode off on their camels. <sup>18</sup>David got his two wives back. He also got back everything the Amalekites had taken. <sup>19</sup>Nothing was missing. David brought back everything: the young and old people, the sons and daughters, the valuable things and everything the Amalekites had taken. <sup>20</sup>David took all the sheep and cattle. His men made these animals go in front. They said, "They are David's prize."

been too tired and weak to follow him. He had made them stay at the Besor Ravine. They came out to meet David and the army with him. When he came near, the men at the ravine greeted David and his army.

<sup>22</sup>But there were evil men and troublemakers in the group that followed David. They said, "These 200 men didn't go with us. So we won't give them any of the things we took. But each man may take his wife and children and go."

<sup>23</sup>David answered, "No, my brothers. Don't do that after what the Lord has given us. He has given us the enemy who attacked us. <sup>24</sup>Who will listen to what you say? The share will be the same for the man who stayed with the supplies as for the man who went into battle. All will share alike." <sup>25</sup>David made this an order and rule for Israel. This order and rule continues even today.

<sup>26</sup>David arrived in Ziklag. Then he sent some of the things he had taken from the Amalekites to his friends, the leaders of Judah. He said, "Here is a present for you from the things we took from the Lord's enemies."

The Death of Saul

31 The Philistines fought against Israel, and the Israelites ran away from them. Many Israelites were killed at Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines fought hard against Saul and his sons. They killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. <sup>3</sup>The fighting became bad around Saul. When the archers shot at him, he was badly wounded. <sup>4</sup>He said to the officer who carried his armor, "Pull out your sword and kill me. Then those uncircumcised<sup>a</sup> men won't make fun of me and kill me." But Saul's officer refused, because he was afraid. So Saul took his own sword and threw himself on it. <sup>5</sup>The officer saw that Saul was dead. So he threw himself on his own sword. And he died with Saul. <sup>6</sup>So Saul, his three sons and the officer who carried his armor died together that day.

<sup>7</sup>Now there were Israelites who lived on the other side of Jezreel Valley. And some lived across the Jordan River. They saw how the Israelite army had run away. And they saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So they left their cities and ran away. Then the Philistines came and lived there.

<sup>8</sup>The next day the Philistines came to take all the valuable things from the dead soldiers. They found Saul and his three sons dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>They cut off Saul's head and took off his armor. Then they sent men to tell the news through all the land of the Philistines. They told it in the temple of their idols and to their people. <sup>10</sup>They put Saul's armor in the temple of the Ashtoreths. <sup>4</sup> They also hung his body on the wall of Beth Shan.

<sup>11</sup>The people living in Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul. <sup>12</sup>So the brave soldiers of Jabesh marched all night and came to Beth Shan. They took the bodies of Saul and his sons off the wall of Beth Shan. Then they took them to Jabesh. There the people of Jabesh burned the bodies. <sup>13</sup>They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh. Then the people of Jabesh gave up eating for seven days.

2 SAMUEL

David, the Greatest King

David Learns About Saul's Death

1 Now Saul was dead. And after David had defeated the Amalekites, he returned to Ziklag. He stayed there two days. <sup>2</sup>On the third day a young man came to Ziklag. He came from Saul's camp. To show his sadness his clothes were torn, and he had dirt on his head. He came and bowed facedown on the ground before David.

<sup>3</sup>David asked him, "Where did you come from?"

The man answered him, "I escaped from the Israelite camp."

<sup>4</sup>David asked him, "What happened? Please tell me!"

The man answered, "The people have run away from the battle. Many of them have fallen dead. Saul and his son Jonathan are dead also."

<sup>5</sup>David said to him, "How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup>The young man answered, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa. There I saw Saul leaning on his spear. The Philistine chariots and the men riding in them were coming closer to Saul. <sup>7</sup>When he looked back and saw me, he called to me. I answered him, 'Here I am!'

<sup>8</sup>"Then Saul asked me, 'Who are you?'

"I told him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

<sup>9</sup>"Then Saul said to me, 'Please come here and kill me. I am badly hurt and am almost dead already.'

<sup>10</sup>"So I went over and killed him. He had been hurt so badly I knew he couldn't live. Then I took the crown from his head and the bracelet from his arm. I have brought them here to you, my master."

<sup>11</sup>Then David tore his clothes to show his sorrow. And all the men with him did also.

<sup>12</sup>They were very sad and cried. They did not eat until evening. They cried for Saul and his son Jonathan. And they cried for the Israelites who had been killed with swords.

David Orders the Amalekite Killed

<sup>13</sup>David asked the young man who brought the report, "Where are you from?"

The young man answered, "I am the son of a foreigner. I am an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup>David asked him, "Why were you not afraid to kill the Lord's appointed king?"

<sup>15</sup>Then David called one of his men. David told him, "Go! Kill the Amalekite!" So the Israelite killed the Amalekite. <sup>16</sup>David had said to the Amalekite, "You are responsible for your own death. You have spoken against yourself! You said, 'I have killed the Lord's appointed king.'"

David's Song About Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup>David sang a funeral song about Saul and his son Jonathan. <sup>18</sup>David ordered that the people of Judah be taught this song. It is called "The Bow." This song is written in the Book of Jashar:

<sup>19</sup>"Israel, your leaders have been killed on the hills.

How the mighty men have fallen in battle!

Don't announce it in the streets of Ashkelon.

If you do, the daughters of the Philistines will be happy.

The daughters of the Philistines will rejoice.

<sup>21</sup>"May there be no dew or rain on the mountains of Gilboa.

May their fields produce no grain.

This is because there the mighty warrior's shield was dishonored.

Saul's shield was no longer rubbed with oil.

<sup>22</sup>Jonathan's bow killed its share of enemies. And Saul's sword killed its share, too.

Their weapons are stained with the blood of dead men.

Their weapons have stabbed the flesh of strong men.

<sup>23</sup>"We loved Saul and Jonathan.

We enjoyed them while they lived.

Saul and Jonathan are together even in death.

They were faster than eagles.

They were stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup>"You daughters of Israel, cry for Saul. Saul clothed you with red dresses.

He put gold decorations on your dresses.

<sup>25</sup>“How the mighty men have fallen in battle!

Jonathan is dead on Gilboa’s hills.

<sup>26</sup>I cry for you, my brother Jonathan. I enjoyed your friendship so much.

Your love to me was wonderful, more wonderful than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup>“How the mighty men have fallen in battle!

The weapons of war are gone.”

David Is Made King of Judah

2 Later, David prayed to the Lord. David said, “Should I go up to any of the cities of Judah?”

The Lord said to David, “Go.”

David asked, “Where should I go?”

The Lord answered, “To Hebron.”

<sup>2</sup>So David went up to Hebron with his two wives. One was Ahinoam from Jezreel. The other was Abigail, the widow of Nabal in Carmel. <sup>3</sup>David also brought his men and their families. They all made their homes in the cities of Hebron. <sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah came to Hebron. They appointed David king over Judah.

They told David that the men of Jabesh Gilead had buried Saul. <sup>5</sup>So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead. They told David’s message to the men in Jabesh: “The Lord bless you. You have shown kindness to your master Saul by burying him. <sup>6</sup>May the Lord now be kind and true to you. I will also be kind to you because you have done this. <sup>7</sup>Now be strong and brave. Saul your master is dead. The people of Judah have appointed me their king.”

War Between Judah and Israel

<sup>8</sup>Now Abner son of Ner was the commander of Saul’s army. Abner took Saul’s son Ish-Bosheth to Mahanaim. <sup>9</sup>There Abner made him king of Gilead, Ashuri, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Saul’s son Ish-Bosheth was 40 years old when he became king over Israel. He ruled two years. But the people of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup>David was king in Hebron for seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup>Abner son of Ner and the servants of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul left Mahanaim. They went to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah and David’s men also went there. They met Abner and Ish-Bosheth’s men at the pool of Gibeon. Abner’s group sat on one side of the pool. Joab’s group sat on the other side.

Joab said, “Yes, let them have a contest.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the young men got up. The two groups counted their men for the contest. Twelve men were chosen from the people of Benjamin for Ish-Bosheth son of Saul. Twelve men were chosen from David’s men. <sup>16</sup>Each man grabbed his enemy’s head. Then he stabbed his enemy’s side with a knife. And the men fell down together. So that place in Gibeon is called The Field of the Sharp Knives. <sup>17</sup>That day the contest became a terrible battle. And David’s men defeated Abner and the Israelites.

Abner Kills Asahel

<sup>18</sup>Zeruiah’s three sons, Joab, Abishai and Asahel, were there. Now Asahel was a fast runner. He was as fast as a deer in the field. <sup>19</sup>Asahel chased Abner, going straight toward him. <sup>20</sup>Abner looked back and asked, “Are you Asahel?”

Asahel said, “Yes, I am.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Abner said to Asahel, “Turn to your right or left. Catch one of the young men and take his armor.” But Asahel refused to stop chasing him.

<sup>22</sup>Abner again said to Asahel, “Stop chasing me! If you don’t stop, I’ll have to kill you! Then I won’t be able to face your brother Joab again!”

<sup>23</sup>But Asahel refused to stop chasing Abner. So Abner used the back end of his spear. He stabbed it into Asahel’s stomach, and the spear came out of his back. Asahel died right there. Everyone stopped when they came to the place where Asahel’s body lay.

<sup>26</sup>Abner shouted to Joab, “Must the sword kill forever? Surely you must know this will only end in sadness! Tell the people to stop chasing their own brothers!”

<sup>27</sup>Then Joab said, “If you had not said anything, the people would have chased their brothers until morning. This is as sure as God is alive.” <sup>28</sup>Then Joab blew a trumpet, and his people stopped chasing the Israelites. They did not try to fight them anymore.

<sup>29</sup>Abner and his men marched all night through the Jordan Valley. They crossed the Jordan River. After marching all day, they arrived at Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>Joab came back after he had stopped chasing Abner. Then Joab gathered the people together. Asahel and 19 of David's men were missing. <sup>31</sup>But David's men had killed 360 Benjaminites who had followed Abner. <sup>32</sup>David's men took Asahel and buried him. They put him in the tomb of his father at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night. The sun came up as they reached Hebron.

3 There was a long war between the people who supported Saul's family and those who supported David's family. The supporters of David's family became stronger and stronger. And the supporters of Saul's family became weaker and weaker.

David's Sons

<sup>2</sup>Sons were born to David at Hebron. The first son was Amnon. Amnon's mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel. <sup>3</sup>The second son was Kileab. Kileab's mother was Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel. The third son was Absalom. Absalom's mother was Maacah daughter of Talmi. Talmi was king of Geshur. <sup>4</sup>The fourth son was Adonijah. His mother was Hagith. The fifth son was Shephatiah. His mother was Abital. <sup>5</sup>The sixth son was Ithream. His mother was Eglah, David's wife. These sons were born to David at Hebron.

Abner Joins David

<sup>6</sup>Abner made himself a main leader among the supporters of Saul. He did this during the war between the supporters of Saul's family and the supporters of David's family.

<sup>7</sup>Now Saul had once had a slave woman<sup>d</sup> named Rizpah. She was the daughter of Aiah. Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you have sexual relations with my father's slave woman?"

<sup>8</sup>Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said. Abner said, "I have been loyal to Saul and his family and friends! I didn't hand you over to David. I am not a traitor working for Judah! But now you are saying I did something wrong with this woman! <sup>9</sup>May God punish me terribly if I don't help David. I will make sure that what God promised does happen! <sup>10</sup>I will take the kingdom from the family of Saul. I will make David king of Israel and Judah! He will rule from Dan to Beersheba." <sup>n</sup>

<sup>d</sup>Dan to Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers to David. Abner said, "Who is going to rule the land? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you become the king of all Israel."

<sup>13</sup>David answered, "Good! I will make an agreement with you. But I ask you one thing. I will not meet with you unless you bring Saul's daughter Michal to me." <sup>14</sup>Then David sent messengers to Saul's son Ish-Bosheth. David said, "Give me my wife Michal. She was promised to me. I killed 100 Philistines to get her."

<sup>15</sup>So Ish-Bosheth sent men to take Michal from her husband. He was Paltiel son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>Michal's husband went with her, crying as he followed her to Bahurim. But Abner said to Paltiel, "Go back home." So he went home.

<sup>17</sup>Abner sent a message to the older leaders of Israel. He said, "You have been wanting to make David your king. <sup>18</sup>Now do it! The Lord has spoken about David. The Lord said, 'I will save my people the Israelites. I will save them from the Philistines and all their enemies. I will do this through my servant David.'"

<sup>19</sup>Abner also said these things to the people of Benjamin. He then went to Hebron to tell David what the Benjaminites and Israel wanted to do. <sup>20</sup>Abner came with 20 men to David at Hebron. There David prepared a feast for them. <sup>21</sup>Then Abner said to David, "My master and king, I will go and bring all the Israelites to you. Then they will make an agreement with you. You will rule over all Israel as you wanted." So David let Abner go, and he left in peace.

Abner's Death

<sup>22</sup>Just then Joab and David's men came from a battle. They had many valuable things they had taken from the enemy. David had let Abner leave in peace. So he was not with David at Hebron. <sup>23</sup>Joab and all his army arrived at Hebron. The army said to Joab, "Abner son of Ner came to King David. And David let him leave in peace."

<sup>24</sup>Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Abner came to you. Why did you let him go? Now he's gone. <sup>25</sup>You know Abner son of Ner! He came to trick you! He came to learn about everything you are doing!"

him aside into the gateway. Joab acted as though he wanted to talk with him in private. But Joab stabbed Abner in the stomach, and Abner died. Abner had killed Joab's brother Asahel. So Joab killed Abner to pay him back.

<sup>28</sup>Later David heard the news. He said, "My kingdom and I are innocent forever. We did not kill Abner son of Ner. The Lord knows this. <sup>29</sup>Joab and his family are responsible for this. I hope many troubles will come to his family. May his family always have someone with sores or with a harmful skin disease. May they always have someone who must lean on a crutch. May some of his family be killed in war. May they always have someone without food to eat."

<sup>30</sup>[Joab and his brother Abishai had killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel. This was in the battle at Gibeon.]

<sup>31</sup>Then David spoke to Joab and to all the people with Joab. He said, "Tear your clothes and put on rough cloth to show how sad you are. Cry for Abner." King David himself followed behind the body of Abner. <sup>32</sup>So they buried Abner in Hebron. David and all the people cried at Abner's grave.

<sup>33</sup>King David sang this funeral song for Abner.

"Did Abner die like a foolish man?

<sup>34</sup> His hands were not tied.

His feet were not in chains.

He fell as a person falls before evil men."

Then all the people cried again for Abner. <sup>35</sup>They came to encourage David to eat while it was still day. But he made a promise. He said, "May God punish me terribly if I eat bread or any other food before the sun sets!"

<sup>36</sup>All the people saw what happened. They agreed with what the king was doing. <sup>37</sup>That day all the people of Judah and all the Israelites understood. They knew it was not David who had killed Abner son of Ner.

<sup>38</sup>David said to his officers, "You know that a very important leader died today in Israel.

<sup>39</sup>Even though I am the appointed king, I am weak today. These sons of Zeruiah are too strong for me. May the Lord give them the punishment they should have."

Ish-Bosheth's Death

4 Ish-Bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner had died at Hebron. Then Ish-Bosheth and all Israel became very frightened. <sup>2</sup>Two men who were captains in Saul's army came to Ish-Bosheth. One man was named Baanah, and the other was named Recab. They were the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, who was a Benjaminite. (The town Beeroth belonged to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin.) <sup>3</sup>The people of Beeroth ran away to Gittaim. And they still live there today.

<sup>4</sup>(Now Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was crippled in both feet. His name was Mephibosheth. He was five years old when the news came from Jezreel that Saul and Jonathan were dead. Mephibosheth's nurse picked him up and ran away. But as she hurried to leave, he fell and became crippled.)

<sup>5</sup>Recab and Baanah, sons of Rimmon, were from Beeroth. They went to Ish-Bosheth's house at noon. <sup>6</sup><sup>7</sup>They came into the middle of the house. Recab and Baanah came as if they were going to get some wheat. Ish-Bosheth was lying on his bed in his bedroom. Recab and Baanah stabbed him in the stomach. Then they cut off his head and took it with them. They traveled all night through the Jordan Valley. <sup>8</sup>When they arrived at Hebron, they gave his head to David. They said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul. He was your enemy. He tried to kill you! Today the Lord has paid back Saul and his family for what they did to you!"

<sup>9</sup>David answered Recab and his brother Baanah sons of Rimmon of Beeroth. David said, "As surely as the Lord lives, he has saved me from all trouble! <sup>10</sup>Once a man thought he was bringing me good news. He told me, 'Look! Saul is dead!' But I took hold of him and killed him at Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news! <sup>11</sup>So even more I must require your death. This is because evil men have killed an innocent man. And he was on his own bed in his own house!"

<sup>12</sup>So David commanded his men to kill Recab and Baanah. Then they cut off the hands and feet of Recab and Baanah. They hung their hands and feet over the pool of Hebron. Then they took Ish-Bosheth's head and buried it in Abner's tomb at Hebron.

David Is Made King of Israel

5 Then all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel came to David at Hebron. They said to him, "Look, we are your own family. <sup>2</sup>In the past Saul was king over us. But you were the one leading us in battle for Israel. The Lord said to you, 'You will be like a shepherd for my people, the Israelites. You will become their ruler.'"

<sup>3</sup>All the older leaders of Israel came to King David at Hebron. Then he made an agreement with them in Hebron in front of the Lord. Then they poured oil on David to make him king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup>David was 30 years old when he became king. He ruled 40 years. <sup>5</sup>He was king over Judah in Hebron for 7 years and 6 months. And he was king over all Israel and Judah in Jerusalem for 33 years.

<sup>6</sup>The king and his men went to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, "You can't come into our city. Even our people who are blind and crippled can stop you." They said this because they thought David could not enter their city. <sup>7</sup>But David did take the city of Jerusalem with its strong walls. It became the City of David.

<sup>8</sup>That day David said to his men, "To defeat the Jebusites you must go through the water tunnel. Then you can reach those 'crippled' and 'blind' enemies. This is why people say, 'The blind and the crippled cannot enter the palace.'"

<sup>9</sup>So David lived in the city with its strong walls. He called it the City of David. David built more buildings around it. He began where the land was filled in on the east side of the city. He also built more buildings inside the city. <sup>10</sup>He became stronger and stronger, because the Lord of heaven's armies was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Hiram king of the city of Tyre sent messengers to David. He also sent cedar logs, carpenters and men to cut stone. They built a palace for David. <sup>12</sup>Then David knew the Lord really had made him king of Israel. And he knew the Lord had made his kingdom very important. This was because the Lord loved his people, the Israelites.

David Defeats the Philistines

<sup>17</sup>Now the Philistines heard that David had been made king over Israel. So all the Philistines went to look for him. But when David heard the news, he went down to a safe place. <sup>18</sup>So the Philistines came and camped in the Valley of Rephaim. David asked the Lord, "Should I attack the Philistines? Will you help me defeat them?"

The Ark Is Brought to Jerusalem

6 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel. There were 30,000 of them. <sup>2</sup>Then David and all his people went to Baalah in Judah.<sup>a</sup> They took the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God from Baalah in Judah and moved it to Jerusalem. The Ark is called by the Name, the name of the Lord of heaven's armies. His throne is between the gold creatures with wings that are on the Ark. <sup>3</sup>David's men put the Ark of God on a new cart. Then they brought the Ark out of Abinadab's house on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, led the new cart. <sup>4</sup>This cart had the Ark of God on it. Ahio was walking in front of it. <sup>5</sup>David and all the Israelites were playing all kinds of musical instruments before the Lord. They were made of pine wood. There were lyres,<sup>d</sup> harps, tambourines,<sup>d</sup> rattles and cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>When David's men came to the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor of Nacon, the oxen stumbled. The Ark of God began to fall off the cart. So Uzzah reached out and took hold of it. <sup>7</sup>The Lord was angry with Uzzah and killed him. Uzzah had not honored God when he touched the Ark. So Uzzah died there beside it. <sup>8</sup>David was angry because the Lord had killed Uzzah. So that place is called The Punishment of Uzzah even today.

<sup>9</sup>David was afraid of the Lord that day. He said, "How can the Ark of the Lord come to me now?" <sup>10</sup>So David would not move the Ark of the Lord to be with him in Jerusalem. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-Edom, a man from Gath. <sup>11</sup>The Ark of the Lord stayed in Obed-Edom's house for three months. And the Lord blessed Obed-Edom and all his family.

<sup>12</sup>The people told David, "The Lord has blessed the family of Obed-Edom. And all his things are blessed. This is because the Ark of God is there." So David went and brought it up from Obed-Edom's house to Jerusalem with joy. <sup>13</sup>When the men carrying the Ark of the Lord had walked six steps, David sacrificed a bull and a fat calf. <sup>14</sup>Then David danced with all his might before the Lord. He had on a holy linen vest. <sup>15</sup>David and all the Israelites shouted with joy. They blew the trumpets as they brought the Ark of the Lord to the city.

<sup>16</sup>Saul's daughter Michal was looking out the window. She watched as the Ark of the Lord came into the city. When she saw David jumping and dancing before the Lord, she hated him.

<sup>17</sup>David put up a tent for the Ark of the Lord. Then the Israelites put it in its place inside the tent. David offered whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before the Lord. <sup>18</sup>When David finished offering the whole burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>19</sup>David gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to everyone. He gave them to all the Israelites, both men and women. Then all the people went home.

<sup>20</sup>David went back to bless the people in his home. But Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. She said, "The king of Israel did not honor himself today! You took off your clothes in front of the servant girls of your officers. You were like a foolish man who takes off his clothes without shame!"

<sup>21</sup>Then David said to Michal, "I did it before the Lord. The Lord chose me, not your father. He didn't choose anyone from Saul's family. The Lord appointed me to be leader of his people, the Israelites. So I will celebrate in front of the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Maybe I will lose even more honor. And you may think little of me. But the girls you talk about will honor me!"

<sup>23</sup>And Saul's daughter Michal had no children to the day she died.

David Wants to Build a Temple

7 King David was living in his palace. And the Lord gave him peace from all his enemies around him. <sup>2</sup>David said to Nathan the prophet, <sup>a</sup>"Look, I am living in a palace made of cedar wood. But the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God is still kept in a tent!"

<sup>3</sup>Nathan said to the king, "Go and do what you really want to do. The Lord is with you."

<sup>4</sup>But that night the Lord spoke his word to Nathan. The Lord said, <sup>5</sup>"Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: You are not the person to build a house for me to live in. <sup>6</sup>I did not live in a house when I brought the Israelites out of Egypt. I have been moving around all this time with a tent as my home. <sup>7</sup>I have continued to move with the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. But I have never asked their leaders who take care of them to build me a house of cedar wood.'

<sup>8</sup>"You must tell my servant David, 'This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: I took you from the pasture when you were following the sheep. I took you to become leader of my people, the Israelites. <sup>9</sup>I have been with you everywhere you have gone. I have defeated your enemies for you. I will make you as famous as any of the great men on the earth. <sup>10</sup>Also I will choose a place for my people, the Israelites. I will plant them so they can live in their own home. They will not be bothered anymore. Wicked people will no longer make them suffer as they have in the past. <sup>11</sup>Wicked people continued to do this even when I appointed judges. But I will give you peace from all your enemies. I also tell you that I will make your descendants<sup>d</sup> kings of Israel after you.

<sup>12</sup>"Your days will come to an end, and you will die. At that time I will make one of your sons the next king. <sup>13</sup>He will build a temple<sup>d</sup> for me. I will make his kingdom strong forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he sins, I will use other people to punish him. They will be my whips. <sup>15</sup>But I will not stop loving him. I took away my love and kindness from Saul. I removed Saul when I turned to you. <sup>16</sup>But your family and your kingdom will continue forever before me. Your rule will last forever.' "

David Prays to God

<sup>18</sup>Then King David went in the tent and sat in front of the Lord. David said, "Lord God, why have you made me so important to you? Why have you made my family important? <sup>19</sup>But that was not enough for you, Lord God. You have also said these kind things about my future family. I am your servant. Lord God, this is not the usual way you talk to people.

<sup>20</sup>"What more can I say to you? Lord God, you love me, your servant, so much! <sup>21</sup>You have done this wonderful thing because you said you would. You have done it because you wanted to. And you have decided to let me know all these great things. <sup>22</sup>This is why you are great, Lord God! There is no one like you. There is no God except you. We have heard all this ourselves! <sup>23</sup>And there are no others like your people, the Israelites. They are the one nation on earth that God chose to be his people. You used them to make your name well-known. You did great and wonderful miracles<sup>d</sup> for them. You went ahead of them and forced other nations and their gods out of the land. You freed your people from slavery in Egypt. <sup>24</sup>You made the people of Israel your very own people forever. And, Lord, you became their God.

<sup>25</sup>"Now, Lord God, keep the promise you made about my family and me, your servant. Do what you have promised. <sup>26</sup>Then you will be honored forever. And people will say, 'The Lord of heaven's armies is God over Israel!' And the family of your servant David will continue before you.

<sup>27</sup>"Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, you have shown things to me. You have said, 'I will make your family great.' So I, your servant, am brave enough to pray to you. <sup>28</sup>Lord God, you are God, and your words are true. And you have promised these good things to me, your servant. <sup>29</sup>Please, bless my family. Let it continue before you forever. Lord God, you have said these wonderful things. With your blessing let my family be blessed forever."

David Wins Many Wars

8 Later, David defeated the Philistines. And he took control of their capital city.

<sup>2</sup>He also defeated the people of Moab. He forced them to lie on the ground. Then he used a rope to measure them. When two men were measured, David ordered them killed. But every third man was allowed to live. So the people of Moab became servants of David. They gave him the payments he demanded.

<sup>3</sup>As David went to take control again at the Euphrates River, he defeated Hadadezer. Hadadezer son of Rehob was king of Zobah. <sup>4</sup>David took from Hadadezer 1,700 men who rode in his chariots. He also captured 20,000 foot soldiers. David crippled all but 100 of the chariot horses. He saved those horses to pull chariots.

<sup>5</sup>Arameans from Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah. But David defeated those 22,000 Arameans. <sup>6</sup>Then David put groups of soldiers in Damascus in Aram. The Arameans became David's servants and gave him the payments he demanded. The Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

<sup>7</sup>David took the shields of gold that had belonged to Hadadezer's officers. He brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>David also took many things made of bronze from Tebah and Berothai. (They were cities that had belonged to Hadadezer.)

<sup>13</sup>David was famous after he returned from the Valley of Salt. There he had defeated 18,000 Arameans. <sup>14</sup>David put groups of soldiers through all the land of Edom. All the people of Edom became servants for him. The Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

<sup>15</sup>David was king over all Israel. His decisions were fair and right for all his people. <sup>16</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was commander over the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder. <sup>17</sup>Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests. Seraiah was the royal assistant. <sup>18</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites, the king's bodyguards. And David's sons were important leaders.

David Helps Saul's Family

9 David asked, "Is there anyone still left in Saul's family? I want to show kindness to this person for Jonathan's sake!"

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a servant named Ziba from Saul's family. So David's servants called Ziba to him. King David said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He answered, "Yes, I am Ziba, your servant."

Ziba answered the king, "Jonathan has a son still living. He is crippled in both feet."

<sup>4</sup>The king asked Ziba, "Where is this son?"

Ziba answered, "He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar."

<sup>5</sup>Then King David had servants bring Jonathan's son from the house of Makir son of Amiel in Lo Debar. <sup>6</sup>Mephibosheth, Jonathan's son, came before David and bowed facedown on the floor.

David said, "Mephibosheth!"

Mephibosheth said, "I am your servant."

<sup>7</sup>David said to him, "Don't be afraid. I will be kind to you for your father Jonathan's sake. I will give you back all the land of your grandfather Saul. And you will always be able to eat at my table."

<sup>8</sup>Mephibosheth bowed to David again. Mephibosheth said, "You are being very kind to me, your servant! And I am no better than a dead dog!"

<sup>9</sup>Then King David called Saul's servant Ziba. David said to him, "I have given your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. <sup>10</sup>You, your sons and your servants will farm the land for Mephibosheth. You will harvest the crops. Then your master's grandson will have food to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, will always be able to eat at my table."

(Now Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants.)

<sup>11</sup>Ziba said to King David, "I am your servant. I will do everything my master, the king, commands me."

So Mephibosheth ate at David's table as if he were one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. Everyone in Ziba's family became Mephibosheth's servants. <sup>13</sup>Mephibosheth was crippled in both feet. He lived in Jerusalem and always ate at the king's table.

War with the Ammonites and Arameans

10 Later Nahash king of the Ammonites died. His son Hanun became king after him. <sup>2</sup>David said, "Nahash was kind to me. So I will be kind to his son Hanun." So David sent his officers to comfort Hanun about his father's death.

David's servants went to the land of the Ammonites. <sup>3</sup>But the important men of Ammon spoke to Hanun, their master. They said, "Do you think David wants to honor your father by sending men to comfort you? No! David sent them to study the city and to spy it out. They plan to capture it!" <sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David's officers and shaved off half their beards to shame them. He cut their clothes off at the hips to insult them. Then he sent them away.

<sup>5</sup>When the people told David, he sent messengers to meet his officers. He did this because these men were very ashamed. King David said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown out. Then come back to Jerusalem."

<sup>6</sup>Now the Ammonites saw that they had become David's enemies. So they hired 20,000 Aramean foot soldiers from Beth Rehob and Zobah. They also hired the king of Maacah with 1,000 men. And they hired 12,000 men from Tob.

<sup>7</sup>David heard about this. So he sent Joab with the whole army of warriors. <sup>8</sup>The Ammonites came out and got ready for the battle. They stood at the city gate. The Arameans from Zobah and Rehob and the men from Tob and Maacah were out in the field. They were standing away from the Ammonites.

<sup>9</sup>Joab saw that there were enemies both in front of him and behind him. So he chose some of the best men from the Israelites. He got them ready for battle against the Arameans. <sup>10</sup>Then Joab gave the other men to his brother Abishai to lead against the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup>Joab said to Abishai, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, come help me. If the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be strong. Let us fight bravely for our people and for the cities of our God. The Lord will do what he decides is right."

<sup>13</sup>Then Joab and his men attacked the Arameans, and they ran away. <sup>14</sup>The Ammonites saw that the Arameans were running away. So they ran away from Abishai and went back to their city. So Joab returned from the battle with the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>The Arameans saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they came together into one big army. <sup>16</sup>Hadadezer sent messengers to bring the Arameans who lived on the other side of the Euphrates River. These Arameans went to Helam. Their leader was Shobach, the commander of Hadadezer's army.

<sup>17</sup>When David heard about this, he gathered all the Israelites together. They crossed over the Jordan River and went to Helam. There the Arameans prepared for battle and attacked. <sup>18</sup>But David defeated the Arameans, and they ran away from the Israelites. David killed 700 Aramean chariot drivers and 40,000 Aramean horsemen. He also killed Shobach, the commander of the Aramean army.

<sup>19</sup>The kings who served Hadadezer saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they made peace with the Israelites and served them. And the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites again.

David Sins with Bathsheba

11 In the spring the kings would go out to war. So in the spring David sent out Joab, his servants and all the Israelites. They destroyed the Ammonites and attacked the city of Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>One evening David got up from his bed. He walked around on the roof* of his palace. While he was on the roof, he saw a woman bathing. She was very beautiful. <sup>3</sup>So David sent his servants to find out who she was. A servant answered, "That woman is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam. She is the wife of Uriah the Hittite." <sup>4</sup>David sent messengers to bring Bathsheba to him. When she came to him, he had sexual relations with her. (Now Bathsheba had purified herself from her monthly period.) Then she went back to her house. <sup>5</sup>But Bathsheba became pregnant. She sent word to David, saying, "I am pregnant."

<sup>6</sup>So David sent this message to Joab: "Send Uriah the Hittite to me." So Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>Uriah came to David. And David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going. <sup>8</sup>Then David said to Uriah, "Go home and rest."

So Uriah left the palace. The king also sent a gift to him. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah did not go home. He slept outside the door of the palace. He slept there as all the king's officers did.

<sup>10</sup>The officers told David, "Uriah did not go home."

Then David said to Uriah, "You came from a long trip. Why didn't you go home?"

<sup>11</sup>Uriah said to him, "The Ark<sup>d</sup> and the soldiers of Israel and Judah are staying in tents. My master Joab and his officers are camping out in the fields. It isn't right for me to go home to eat and drink and have sexual relations with my wife!"

<sup>12</sup>David said to Uriah, "Stay here today. Tomorrow I'll send you back to the battle." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup>Then David called Uriah to come to see him. Uriah ate and drank with David. David made Uriah drunk, but he still did not go home. That evening Uriah went to sleep with the king's officers outside the king's door.

<sup>14</sup>The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by Uriah. <sup>15</sup>In the letter David wrote, "Put Uriah on the front lines where the fighting is worst. Then leave him there alone. Let him be killed in battle."

<sup>16</sup>Joab watched the city and saw where its strongest defenders were. He put Uriah there. <sup>17</sup>The men of the city came out to fight against Joab. Some of David's men were killed. And Uriah the Hittite was one of them.

<sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent a report to David about everything that had happened in the war. <sup>19</sup>Joab told the messenger, "Tell King David what happened in the war. <sup>20</sup>After you finish, the king may become angry. He may ask you, 'Why did you go so near the city to fight? Didn't you know they would shoot arrows from the city wall?' <sup>21</sup>Do you remember who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth?"<sup>a</sup> It was a woman on the city wall. She threw a large stone for grinding grain on Abimelech. She killed him there in Thebez. Why did you go so near the wall?" If King David asks that, you must answer, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite also died.'"

<sup>25</sup>David said to the messenger, "Say this to Joab: 'Don't be upset about this. The sword kills everyone the same. Make a stronger attack against the city and capture it.' Encourage Joab with these words."

<sup>26</sup>When Bathsheba heard that her husband was dead, she cried for him. <sup>27</sup>After she finished her time of sadness, David sent servants to bring her to his house. She became David's wife and gave birth to his son. But the Lord did not like what David had done.

David's Son Dies

12 The Lord sent Nathan to David. When Nathan came to David, Nathan said, "There were two men in a city. One man was rich, but the other was poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had very many sheep and cattle. <sup>3</sup>But the poor man had nothing except one little female lamb he had bought. The poor man fed the lamb. It grew up with him and his children. It shared his food and drank from his cup. It slept in his arms. The lamb was like a daughter to him.

<sup>4</sup>"Then a traveler stopped to visit the rich man. The rich man wanted to give food to the traveler. But he didn't want to take one of his own sheep or cattle to feed the traveler. Instead, he took the lamb from the poor man. The rich man killed the lamb and cooked it for his visitor."

<sup>5</sup>David became very angry at the rich man. He said to Nathan, "As surely as the Lord lives, the man who did this should die! <sup>6</sup>He must pay for the lamb four times for doing such a thing. He had no mercy!"

<sup>7</sup>Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I appointed you king of Israel. I saved you from Saul. <sup>8</sup>I gave you his kingdom and his wives. And I made you king of Israel and Judah. And if that had not been enough, I would have given you even more. <sup>9</sup>So why did you ignore the Lord's command? Why did you do what he says is wrong? You killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword of the Ammonites! And you took his wife to become your wife! <sup>10</sup>So there will always be people in your family who will be killed by a sword. This is because you showed that you did not respect me! And you took the wife of Uriah the Hittite!"

<sup>11</sup>"This is what the Lord says: 'I am bringing trouble to you from your own family. While you watch, I will take your wives from you. And I will give them to someone who is very close to you. He will have sexual relations with your wives, and everyone will know it. <sup>12</sup>You had sexual relations with Bathsheba in secret. But I will do this so all the people of Israel can see it.' "

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord."

Nathan answered, "The Lord has taken away your sin. You will not die. <sup>14</sup>But what you did caused the Lord's enemies to lose all respect for him. For this reason the son who was born to you will die."

<sup>15</sup>Then Nathan went home. And the Lord caused the son of David and Bathsheba, Uriah's widow, to become very sick. <sup>16</sup>David prayed to God for the baby. David refused to eat or drink. He went into his house and stayed there. He lay on the ground all night. <sup>17</sup>The older leaders of David's family came to him. They tried to pull him up from the ground. But he refused to get up. And he refused to eat food with them.

<sup>18</sup>On the seventh day the baby died. David's servants were afraid to tell him that the baby was dead. They said, "Look, we tried to talk to David while the baby was alive. But he refused to listen to us. If we tell him the baby is dead, he may harm himself."

<sup>19</sup>But David saw his servants whispering. Then he understood that the baby was dead. So he asked them, "Is the baby dead?"

They answered, "Yes, he is dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then David got up from the floor. He washed himself, put lotions on himself and changed his clothes. Then he went into the Lord's house to worship. After that, he went home and asked for something to eat. His servants gave him some food, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup>David's servants said to him, "Why are you doing this? When the baby was still alive, you refused to eat. You cried. But when the baby died, you got up and ate food."

<sup>22</sup>David said, "While the baby was still alive, I refused to eat, and I cried. I thought, 'Who knows? Maybe the Lord will feel sorry for me and let the baby live.' <sup>23</sup>But now the baby is dead. So why should I go without food? I can't bring him back to life. Some day I will go to him. But he cannot come back to me."

David Captures Rabbah

<sup>26</sup>Now Joab fought against Rabbah, a city of the Ammonites. And he was about to capture the royal city. <sup>27</sup>Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah. I have captured its water supply. <sup>28</sup>Now bring the other soldiers together and attack this city. Capture it before I capture it myself. If I capture this city, it will be called by my name!"

<sup>29</sup>So David gathered all the army and went to Rabbah. He fought against Rabbah and captured it. <sup>30</sup>David took the crown off their king's head. It was gold and weighed about 75 pounds. It also had gems in it. They put the crown on David's head. And David took many valuable things out of the city. <sup>31</sup>He also brought out the people of the city. He made them work with saws, iron picks and axes. He also forced them to build with bricks. David did this to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all his army went back to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 Now David had a son named Absalom and a son named Amnon. Absalom had a beautiful sister named Tamar. And Amnon loved her. <sup>2</sup>Tamar was a virgin. <sup>3</sup>Amnon did not think he should do anything bad to her. But he wanted her very much. He made himself sick just thinking about her.

<sup>3</sup>Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah. (Shimeah was David's brother.) Jonadab was a very clever man. <sup>4</sup>He asked Amnon, "Why do you look so sad day after day? You are the king's son! Tell me what's wrong!"

Amnon told him, "I love Tamar. But she is the sister of my half-brother Absalom."

<sup>5</sup>Jonadab said to Amnon, "Go to bed. Act as if you are sick. Then your father will come to see you. Tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me food to eat. Let her make the food in front of me. Then I will see it and eat it from her hand.'"

<sup>6</sup>So Amnon lay down in bed and acted as if he were sick. King David came in to see him. Amnon said to him, "Please let my sister Tamar come in. Let her make two of her special cakes for me while I watch. Then I will eat them from her hands."

<sup>7</sup>David sent messengers to Tamar in the palace. They told her, "Go to your brother Amnon's house and make some food for him." <sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. He was in bed. Tamar took some dough and pressed it together with her hands. She made some special cakes while Amnon watched. Then she baked them. <sup>9</sup>Next she took the pan and took out the cakes for Amnon. But he refused to eat.

He said to his servants, "All of you, leave me alone!" So all his servants left the room. <sup>10</sup>Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the inner room. Then I'll eat from your hand."

Tamar took the cakes she had made. And she brought them to her brother Amnon in the inner room. <sup>11</sup>She went to him so he could eat from her hands. But Amnon grabbed her. He said, "Sister, come and have sexual relations with me."

<sup>12</sup>Tamar said to him, "No, brother! Don't force me! This should never be done in Israel! Don't do this shameful thing! <sup>13</sup>I could never get rid of my shame! And you will become like the shameful fools in Israel! Please talk with the king. He will let you marry me."

<sup>14</sup>But Amnon refused to listen to her. He was stronger than she was. So he forced her to have sexual relations with him. <sup>15</sup>After that, Amnon hated Tamar. He hated her much more than he had loved her before. Amnon said to her, "Get up and leave!"

<sup>16</sup>Tamar said to him, "No! Sending me away would be an even greater evil. That would be worse than what you've already done!"

But he refused to listen to her. <sup>17</sup>He called his young servant back in. Amnon said, "Get this girl out of here right now! Lock the door after her." <sup>18</sup>So his servant led her out of the room. And he bolted the door after her.

Now Tamar was wearing a special robe with long sleeves. The king's virgin daughters wore this kind of robe. <sup>19</sup>To show how upset she was Tamar took ashes and put them on her head. She tore her special robe. And she put her hand on her head. Then she went away, crying loudly.

<sup>20</sup>Absalom, Tamar's brother, said to her, "Has Amnon, that brother of yours, forced you to have sexual relations with him? He is your brother. So for now, sister, be quiet. Don't let this upset you so much!" So Tamar lived in her brother Absalom's house. She was sad and lonely.

<sup>21</sup>When King David heard the news, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup>Absalom did not say a word, good or bad, to Amnon. He hated Amnon for forcing his sister Tamar to have sexual relations with him.

Absalom's Revenge

<sup>23</sup>Two years later Absalom had some men come to Baal Hazor, near Ephraim. They were to cut the wool from his sheep. Absalom invited all the king's sons to come also. <sup>24</sup>Absalom went to the king and said, "I have men coming to cut the wool. Please come with your officers and join me."

<sup>25</sup>King David said to Absalom, "No, my son. We won't all go. It would be too much trouble for you." Absalom begged David to go. David did not go, but he did give his blessing.

<sup>26</sup>Absalom said, "If you don't want to go, then please let my brother Amnon go with me."

King David asked Absalom, "Why should he go with you?"

<sup>28</sup>Then Absalom gave a command to his servants. He said, "Watch Amnon. When he is drunk, I will tell you, 'Kill Amnon.' Right then, kill him! Don't be afraid. I have commanded you! Be strong and brave!" <sup>29</sup>So Absalom's young men killed Amnon as Absalom commanded. But all of David's other sons got on their mules and escaped.

<sup>30</sup>While the king's sons were on their way, the news came to David. The message was, "Absalom has killed all of the king's sons! Not one of them is left alive!" <sup>31</sup>King David tore his clothes and lay on the ground to show his sadness. All his servants standing nearby tore their clothes also.

<sup>32</sup>Jonadab was the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Jonadab said to David, "Don't think all the young men, your sons, are killed. No, only Amnon is dead! Absalom planned this because Amnon forced his sister Tamar to have sexual relations with him. <sup>33</sup>My master and king, don't think that all of the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead!"

There was a guard standing on the city wall. He saw many people coming from the other side of the hill. <sup>35</sup>So Jonadab said to King David, "Look, I was right! The king's sons are coming!"

<sup>36</sup>As soon as Jonadab had said this, the king's sons arrived. They were crying loudly. David and all his servants began crying also. They all cried very much. <sup>37</sup>David cried for his son every day.

But Absalom ran away to Talmai<sup>a</sup> son of Ammihud. Talmai was king of Geshur. <sup>38</sup>After Absalom ran away to Geshur, he stayed there for three years. <sup>39</sup>When King David got over Amnon's death, he missed Absalom greatly.

Joab Sends a Wise Woman to David

14 Joab son of Zeruiah knew that King David missed Absalom very much. <sup>2</sup>So Joab sent messengers to Tekoa to bring a wise woman from there. Joab said to her, "Please pretend to be very sad for someone. Put on clothes to show your sadness. Don't put lotion on yourself. Act like a woman who has been crying many days for someone who died. <sup>3</sup>Go to the king. Talk to him using the words that I tell you." Then Joab told the wise woman what to say.

<sup>4</sup>So the woman from Tekoa talked to the king. She bowed facedown on the ground to show respect. She said, "My king, help me!"

The woman said, "I am a widow. My husband is dead. <sup>6</sup>I had two sons. They were out in the field fighting. No one was there to stop them. So one son killed the other son. <sup>7</sup>Now all the family group is against me. They said to me, 'Bring the son who killed his brother. Then we will kill him for killing his brother. That way we will also get rid of the one who would receive what belonged to his father. My son is like the last spark of a fire. He is all I have left. If they kill him, my husband's name and property will be gone from the earth.'

<sup>8</sup>Then the king said to the woman, "Go home. I will take care of this for you."

<sup>9</sup>The woman of Tekoa said to him, "Let the blame be on me. My father's family and I are to blame, my master and king. But you and your throne are innocent."

<sup>10</sup>King David said, "Bring me anyone who says anything bad to you. Then he won't bother you again."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said, "Please promise in the name of the Lord your God. Then my relative who has the duty of punishing a murderer won't add to the destruction. And he won't kill my son."

David said, "As surely as the Lord lives, no one will hurt your son. Not even one hair from your son's head will fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup>The woman said, "Let me say something to you, my master and king."

The king said, "Speak."

<sup>13</sup>Then the woman said, "Why have you planned this? It is against the people of God. When you say this, you show that you are guilty. You have not brought back your son whom you forced to leave home. <sup>14</sup>We will all die some day. We're like water spilled on the ground. No one can gather it back. But God doesn't take away life. Instead, he plans ways that those who have been sent away will not have to stay away from him! <sup>15</sup>My master and king, I came to say this to you because the people have made me afraid! I thought, 'Let me talk to the king. Maybe he will do what I ask. <sup>16</sup>Maybe he will listen. Perhaps he will save me from the man who wants to kill both me and my son. That man is trying to keep us from getting what God gave us.'

<sup>17</sup>"Now I say, 'May the words of my master the king give me rest. Like an angel of God, you know what is good and what is bad. May the Lord your God be with you!'"

<sup>18</sup>Then King David said, "You must answer the question I will ask you."

The woman said, "My master the king, please ask your question."

<sup>19</sup>The king said, "Did Joab tell you to say all these things?"

The woman answered, "As you live, my master the king, you are right. Your servant Joab did tell me to say these things. <sup>20</sup>Joab did it so you would see things differently. My master, you are wise like an angel of God. You know everything that happens on earth."

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>The king said to Joab, "Look, I will do what I promised. Now please bring back the young man Absalom."

<sup>22</sup>Joab bowed facedown on the ground. He blessed the king. Then he said, "Today I know you are pleased with me. I know because you have done what I asked."

<sup>23</sup>Then Joab got up and went to Geshur. And he brought Absalom back to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>But King David said, "Absalom must go to his own house. He may not come to see me." So Absalom went to his own house. He did not go to see the king.

<sup>27</sup>Absalom had three sons and one daughter. His daughter's name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman.

<sup>28</sup>So Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two full years without seeing King David. <sup>29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab. Absalom wanted to send Joab to the king. But Joab would not come. Absalom sent a message a second time. But Joab still refused to come. <sup>30</sup>Then Absalom said to his servants, "Look, Joab's field is next to mine. He has barley growing there. Go burn it." So Absalom's servants set fire to Joab's field.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab went to Absalom's house. Joab said to him, "Why did your servants burn my field?"

<sup>32</sup>Absalom said to Joab, "I sent a message to you, asking you to come here. I wanted to send you to the king. I wanted you to ask him why he brought me home from Geshur. It would have been better for me to stay there! Now let me see the king. If I have sinned, he can kill me!"

<sup>33</sup>So Joab went to the king and told him Absalom's words. The king called for Absalom, and Absalom came. He bowed facedown on the ground before the king. And the king kissed him.

Absalom Plans to Take David's Kingdom

15 After this, Absalom got a chariot and horses for himself. He got 50 men to run before him. <sup>2</sup>Absalom would get up early and stand near the city gate. <sup>3</sup>If anyone had a problem he wanted the king to settle, he would come here. When he came, Absalom would call to the man. Absalom would say, "What city are you from?"

The man would answer, "I'm from one of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel."

<sup>3</sup>Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your claims are right. But the king has no one to listen to you." <sup>4</sup>Absalom would also say, "I wish someone would make me judge in this land! Then I could help everyone who comes with a problem. I could help him get a fair decision for his problem!"

<sup>5</sup>People would come near Absalom to bow to him. When they did, Absalom would reach out his hand and take hold of them. Then he would kiss them. <sup>6</sup>Absalom did that to all the Israelites who came to King David for decisions. In this way, Absalom won the hearts of all Israel.

<sup>7</sup>After four years Absalom said to King David, "Please let me go to Hebron. I want to carry out my promise that I made to the Lord. <sup>8</sup>I made it while I was living in Geshur in Aram. I said, 'If the Lord takes me back to Jerusalem, I will worship him in Hebron.'"

So Absalom went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup>But he sent secret messengers through all the tribes of Israel. They told the people, "When you hear the trumpets, say this: 'Absalom has become the king at Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup>Absalom had invited 200 men to go with him. So they went from Jerusalem with him. But they didn't know what he was planning. <sup>12</sup>Ahithophel was one of the people who advised David. He was from the town of Giloh. While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he called Ahithophel to come from his hometown of Giloh. So Absalom's plans were working very well. More and more people began to support him.

<sup>13</sup>A man came in to tell the news to David. The man said, "The Israelites are beginning to follow Absalom."

<sup>14</sup>Then David spoke to all his officers who were with him in Jerusalem. He said, "We must leave quickly! If we don't, we won't be able to get away from Absalom. We must hurry before he catches us. He would destroy us and kill the people of Jerusalem."

<sup>a</sup>city gate People came here to conduct business. Public meetings and court cases were also held here.

<sup>19</sup>The king spoke to Ittai, a man from Gath. He said, "Why are you also going with us? Turn back and stay with King Absalom. You are a foreigner. This is not your homeland. <sup>20</sup>Only a short time ago you came to join me. Today should I make you go with us to other places? I don't even know where I'm going. Turn back, and take your brothers with you. May kindness and loyalty be shown to you."

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai said to the king, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will stay with you. I'll be with you wherever you are. I'll be with you whether it means life or death."

<sup>22</sup>David said to Ittai, "Go, march on." So Ittai from Gath and all his people with their children marched on. <sup>23</sup>All the people cried loudly as everyone passed by. King David also crossed the Kidron Valley. Then all the people went on to the desert. <sup>24</sup>Zadok and all the Levites with him were carrying the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with God. They set down the Ark. And Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had left the city.

<sup>25</sup>The king said to Zadok, "Take the Ark of God back into the city. If the Lord is pleased with me, he will bring me back. He will let me see both it and Jerusalem again. <sup>26</sup>But if the Lord says he is not pleased with me, I am ready. He can do what he wants with me."

<sup>27</sup>The king also said to Zadok the priest, "You are a seer.<sup>d</sup> Go back to the city in peace. Take your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan with you. <sup>28</sup>I will wait near the crossings into the desert until I hear from you." <sup>29</sup>So Zadok and Abiathar took the Ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

<sup>30</sup>David went up the Mount of Olives<sup>d</sup> crying as he went. He covered his head and went barefoot. All the people with David covered their heads also. And they were crying as they went. <sup>31</sup>Someone told David, "Ahithophel is one of the people with Absalom who made secret plans against you."

So David prayed, "Lord, please make Ahithophel's advice foolish."

<sup>32</sup>David came to the top of the mountain. This was where he used to worship God. Hushai the Arkite came to meet him. Hushai's coat was torn, and there was dirt on his head to show how sad he was. <sup>33</sup>David said to Hushai, "If you go with me, you will be just one more person to take care of. <sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city, you can make Ahithophel's advice useless. Tell Absalom, 'I am your servant, my king. In the past I served your father. But now I will serve you.' <sup>35</sup>The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you. You must tell them everything you hear in the king's palace. <sup>36</sup>Zadok's son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan are with them. Send them to tell me everything you hear." <sup>37</sup>So David's friend Hushai entered Jerusalem. About that time, Absalom also arrived there.

Ziba Meets David

16 David passed a short way over the top of the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> There Ziba, Mephibosheth's servant, met David. Ziba had two donkeys with saddles on them. They carried 200 loaves of bread, 100 cakes of raisins and 100 cakes of figs. They also carried leather bags full of wine. <sup>2</sup>The king asked Ziba, "What are these things for?"

Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for your family to ride. The bread and cakes of figs are for the servants to eat. And the wine is for anyone to drink who becomes weak in the desert."

Ziba answered him, "Mephibosheth is staying in Jerusalem. He thinks, 'Today the Israelites will give my father's kingdom back to me!'"

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to Ziba, "All right. Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth, I now give to you!"

Ziba said, "I bow to you. I hope I will always be able to please you."

Shimei Curses David

<sup>5</sup>As King David came to Bahurim, a man came out from there. He was from Saul's family group. His name was Shimei son of Gera. Shimei came out, cursing David as he came. <sup>6</sup>He began throwing stones at David and his officers. But the people and soldiers gathered all around David. <sup>7</sup>Shimei cursed David. He said, "Get out, get out, you murderer, you troublemaker. <sup>8</sup>The Lord is punishing you for the people in Saul's family you killed! You took Saul's place as king! But now the Lord has given the kingdom to your son Absalom! Now you are ruined because you are a murderer!"

<sup>9</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse you, the king? Let me go over and cut off his head!"

<sup>10</sup>But the king answered, "This does not concern you, sons of Zeruiah! If he is cursing me because the Lord told him to, who can question him?"

<sup>11</sup>David also said to Abishai and all his officers, "My own son is trying to kill me! This man is a Benjaminite and has more right to kill me! Leave him alone. Let him curse me. The Lord told him to do this. <sup>12</sup>Maybe the Lord will see my misery. Then maybe he will repay me with something good for the curses Shimei says today!"

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men went on down the road. But Shimei kept following David. Shimei walked on the hillside on the other side of the road. He kept cursing David and throwing stones and dirt at him. <sup>14</sup>The king and all his people arrived at the Jordan. They were very tired. So they rested there.

<sup>15</sup>Meanwhile, Absalom, Ahithophel and all the men of Israel arrived at Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>David's friend Hushai the Arkite came to Absalom. He said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup>Absalom asked, "Why are you not loyal to your friend David? Why didn't you leave Jerusalem with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup>Hushai said, "I belong to the one chosen by the Lord and by these people and all the men of Israel. I will stay with you. <sup>19</sup>In the past I served your father. So whom should I serve now? David's son! I will serve you."

Ahithophel's Advice

<sup>20</sup>Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Please tell us what we should do."

<sup>21</sup>Ahithophel said, "Your father left behind some of his slave women<sup>a</sup> who give birth to his children. He left them here to take care of the palace. Have sexual relations with them. Then all the Israelites will hear that your father is your enemy. And all your people will be encouraged to give you more support." <sup>22</sup>So they put up a tent for Absalom on the flat roof<sup>a</sup> of the palace. Everyone in Israel could see it. And Absalom had sexual relations with his father's slave women.

<sup>23</sup>At that time people thought Ahithophel's advice was as reliable as God's own word. Both David and Absalom thought it was that reliable.

17 Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose 12,000 men. I'll chase David tonight. <sup>21</sup>I'll catch him while he is tired and weak. I'll frighten him so all his people will run away. But I'll kill only King David. <sup>3</sup>Then I'll bring everyone back to you. If the man you are looking for is dead, everyone else will return safely." <sup>4</sup>This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the leaders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>But Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Arkite. I also want to hear what he says." <sup>6</sup>So Hushai came to Absalom. Absalom said to him, "This is the plan Ahithophel gave. Should we follow it? If not, tell us."

<sup>7</sup>Hushai said to Absalom, "Ahithophel's advice is not good this time." <sup>8</sup>Hushai added, "You know your father and his men are strong. They are as angry as a bear that is robbed of its babies. Your father is a skilled fighter. He won't stay all night with the people. <sup>9</sup>He is probably already hiding in a cave or some other place. If your father attacks your men first, people will hear the news. And they will think, 'Absalom's followers are losing!' <sup>10</sup>Then even the men who are as brave as a lion will become frightened. This is because all the Israelites know your father is a fighter. They know his men are brave!"

<sup>11</sup>"This is what I suggest: Gather all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba. <sup>a</sup> There will be as many people as grains of sand by the sea. Then you yourself must go into the battle. <sup>12</sup>We will catch David where he is hiding. We will fall on him as dew falls on the ground. We will kill him and all of his men. No one will be left alive. <sup>13</sup>What if David escapes into a city? Then all the Israelites will bring ropes to that city. We'll pull that city into the valley. There won't be even a small stone left there!"

<sup>14</sup>Absalom and all the Israelites said, "The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than that of Ahithophel." They said this because the Lord had planned to destroy the good advice of Ahithophel. In this way the Lord could bring disaster on Absalom.

<sup>15</sup>Hushai told these things to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests. He told them what Ahitho-

<sup>a</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

<sup>a</sup>Dan to Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. And Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

phel had suggested to Absalom and the older leaders of Israel. He also reported to them what he himself had suggested. Hushai said, <sup>16</sup>“Quickly! Send a message to David. Tell him not to stay tonight at the crossings into the desert. Tell him to cross over the Jordan River at once. If he crosses the river, he and all his people won’t be caught.”

<sup>17</sup>Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En Rogel. They did not want to be seen going into the town. So a servant girl would go out to them and give them messages. Then Jonathan and Ahimaaz would go and tell King David.

<sup>18</sup>But a boy saw Jonathan and Ahimaaz and told Absalom. So Jonathan and Ahimaaz ran away quickly. They went to a man’s house in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. <sup>19</sup>The man’s wife spread a sheet over the opening of the well. Then she covered it with grain. No one could tell that Jonathan and Ahimaaz were hiding there.

<sup>20</sup>Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house. They asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?”

She said to them, “They have already crossed the brook.”

Absalom’s servants then went to look for Jonathan and Ahimaaz. But they could not find them. So they went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>After Absalom’s servants had left, Jonathan and Ahimaaz climbed out of the well. Then they went to tell King David. They said, “Hurry, cross over the river! Ahithophel has said these things against you!” <sup>22</sup>So David and all his people crossed the Jordan River. By dawn, everyone had crossed the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>Now Ahithophel saw that the Israelites did not accept his advice. So he saddled his donkey and went to his hometown. He gave orders for his family and property. Then he hung himself. After Ahithophel died, he was buried in his father’s tomb.

War Between David and Absalom

<sup>24</sup>David arrived at Mahanaim. And Absalom and all his Israelites crossed over the Jordan River. <sup>25</sup>Now Absalom had made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Jether the Ishmaelite. Amasa’s mother was Abigail daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah. Zeruiah was Joab’s mother. <sup>26</sup>Absalom and the Israelites camped in the land of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup>Shobi, Makir and Barzillai were at Mahanaim when David arrived. Shobi son of Nahash was from the Ammonite town of Rabbah. Makir son of Ammiel was from Lo Debar. And Barzillai was from Rogelim in Gilead. <sup>28</sup>They brought beds, bowls and clay pots. They brought wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans and small peas. <sup>29</sup>They also brought honey and milk curds, sheep, and cheese made from cows’ milk. They brought these things for David and his people. They had said, “The people have become hungry and tired and thirsty in the desert.”

18 David counted his men. He chose commanders over groups of 1,000 and commanders over groups of 100. <sup>2</sup>He sent the troops out in three groups. Joab commanded one-third of the men. Joab’s brother Abishai son of Zeruiah commanded another third. And Ittai from Gath commanded the last third. King David said to them, “I will also go with you.”

<sup>3</sup>But the men said, “No! You must not go with us! If we run away in the battle, Absalom’s men won’t care. Even if half of us are killed, Absalom’s men won’t care. But you’re worth 10,000 of us! It is better for you to stay in the city. Then, if we need help, you can send it.”

<sup>4</sup>The king said to his people, “I will do what you think is best.” So the king stood at the side of the gate as the army went out. They went out in groups of 100 and 1,000.

<sup>5</sup>The king gave a command to Joab, Abishai and Ittai. He said, “Be gentle with young Absalom for my sake.” Everyone heard the king’s orders about Absalom to the commanders.

<sup>6</sup>David’s army went out into the field against Absalom’s Israelites. They fought in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup>There David’s army defeated the Israelites. Many died that day—20,000 men. <sup>8</sup>The battle spread through all the country. But that day more men died in the forest than in the fighting.

Absalom Dies

<sup>9</sup>Then Absalom happened to meet David’s troops. As Absalom was riding his mule, it went under a large oak tree. The branches were thick, and Absalom’s head got caught in the tree. His mule ran out from under him. So Absalom was left hanging above the ground.

<sup>10</sup>When one of the men saw it happen, he told Joab. He said, “I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!”

<sup>11</sup>Joab said to him, “You saw him? Why didn’t you kill him and let him fall to the ground? I would have given you a belt and four ounces of silver!”

the king's son. I wouldn't even if you gave me 25 pounds of silver. We heard the king's command to you, Abishai and Ittai. The king said, 'Be careful not to hurt young Absalom.'<sup>13</sup> If I had killed him, the king would have found out. And you would not have protected me!"

<sup>14</sup>Joab said, "I won't waste time here with you!" Now Absalom was still alive in the oak tree. So Joab took three spears and stabbed him in the heart. <sup>15</sup>Ten young men who carried Joab's armor also gathered around Absalom. They struck him and killed him.

<sup>16</sup>Then Joab blew the trumpet. So the troops stopped chasing Absalom's Israelites. <sup>17</sup>Then Joab's men took Absalom's body. They threw it into a large pit in the forest. Then they filled the pit with many stones. All the Israelites who followed Absalom ran away and went home.

<sup>18</sup>When Absalom was alive, he had put up a pillar in the King's Valley. It was a monument to himself. He said, "I have no son to keep my name alive." So he named the pillar after himself. That pillar is called Absalom's Monument even today.

<sup>19</sup>Ahimaaz son of Zadok spoke to Joab. He said, "Let me run and take the news to King David. I'll tell him the Lord has destroyed the enemy for him."

<sup>20</sup>Joab answered Ahimaaz, "No, you are not the one to take the news today. You may do it another time. But do not take it today, because the king's son is dead."

<sup>21</sup>Then Joab said to a man from Cush, "Go. Tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed to Joab and ran to tell David.

<sup>22</sup>But Ahimaaz son of Zadok begged Joab again. He said, "No matter what happens, please let me go, along with the Cushite!"

Joab said, "Son, why do you want to carry the news? You won't get any reward for the news you bring!"

So Joab said to Ahimaaz, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the Jordan Valley and passed the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup>Now David was sitting between the inner and outer gates of the city. The watchman went up to the roof by the gate walls. As he looked up, he saw a man running alone. <sup>25</sup>He shouted to tell King David.

The king said, "If he is alone, he is bringing good news!"

The man came nearer and nearer to the city. <sup>26</sup>Then the watchman saw another man running. The watchman called to the gatekeeper, "Look! Another man is running alone!"

The king said, "He is also bringing good news!"

<sup>27</sup>The watchman said, "I think the first man runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok."

The king said, "Ahimaaz is a good man. He must be bringing good news!"

<sup>28</sup>Then Ahimaaz called a greeting to the king. He bowed facedown on the ground to the king. He said, "Praise the Lord your God! The Lord has defeated the men who were against you, my king."

Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent me, I saw some great excitement. But I don't know what it was."

<sup>30</sup>Then the king said, "Step over here and wait." So Ahimaaz stepped aside and stood there.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Cushite arrived. He said, "Master and king, hear the good news! Today the Lord has punished the people who were against you!"

The Cushite answered, "May your enemies be like that young man. May all who come to hurt you be like that young man!"

<sup>33</sup>Then the king knew Absalom was dead. He was very upset. He went to the room over the city gate and cried. As he went, he cried out, "My son Absalom, my son Absalom! I wish I had died for you. Absalom, my son, my son!"

Joab Scolds David

19 People told Joab, "Look, the king is crying. He is very sad because of Absalom." <sup>2</sup>David's army had won the battle that day. But it became a very sad day for all the people. This was because they heard, "The king is very sad for his son." <sup>3</sup>The people came into the city quietly. They were like people who had been defeated in battle and had run away. <sup>4</sup>The king covered his face and cried loudly, "My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!"

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab went into the king's house. He said to the king, "Today you have shamed all your men. They saved your life today! They saved the lives of your sons, daughters, wives and slave women." <sup>6</sup>You have shamed them because you love those who hate you. And you hate those people who love you. Today you've made it clear that your commanders and men mean nothing to you. What if Absalom had lived and all of us were dead? I can see you would be very pleased. <sup>7</sup>Now go out and encourage your servants. I swear by the Lord that if you don't go out, no man will be left with you by tonight! That will be worse than all the troubles you have had from your youth until today."

<sup>8</sup>So the king went to the city gate.<sup>n</sup> The news spread that the king was at the gate. So everyone came to see him.

David Goes Back to Jerusalem

All the Israelites who had followed Absalom had run away to their homes. <sup>9</sup>People in all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel began to argue. They said, "The king saved us from the Philistines and our other enemies. But he left the country because of Absalom. <sup>10</sup>We appointed Absalom to rule us, but now he has died in battle. We should make David the king again."

<sup>11</sup>King David sent a message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests. David said, "Speak to the older leaders of Judah. Say, 'Even in my house I have heard what all the Israelites are saying. So why are you the last tribe to bring the king back to his palace?' <sup>12</sup>You are my brothers, my own family. Then why are you the last tribe to bring back the king?' <sup>13</sup>And say to Amasa, 'You are part of my own family. May God punish me terribly if I don't make you commander of the army in Joab's place!'"

<sup>14</sup>David touched the hearts of all the people of Judah. They agreed as if they were one man. They sent a message to the king. They said, "Return with all your men." <sup>15</sup>Then the king returned as far as the Jordan River. The men of Judah came to Gilgal to meet him. They wanted to bring the king across the Jordan River.

<sup>16</sup>Shimei son of Gera was a Benjaminite. He lived in Bahurim. He hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David. <sup>17</sup>With Shimei came 1,000 Benjaminites. Ziba, the servant from Saul's family, also came. He brought his 15 sons and 20 servants with him. They all hurried to the Jordan River to meet the king. <sup>18</sup>The people went across the Jordan River to help bring the king's family back to Judah. They did whatever the king wanted. As the king was about to cross the river, Shimei son of Gera came to him. Shimei bowed facedown on the ground in front of the king. <sup>19</sup>He said to the king, "My master, don't hold me guilty. Don't remember the wrong things I did when you left Jerusalem! Don't hold it against me. <sup>20</sup>I know I have sinned. That is why I am the first person from Joseph's family to come down and meet you today, my master and king!"

<sup>21</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah said, "Shimei should die. He cursed you, the Lord's appointed king!"

<sup>22</sup>David said, "This does not concern you, sons of Zeruiah! Today you're against me! No one will be put to death in Israel today. Today I know I am king over Israel!" <sup>23</sup>Then the king said to Shimei, "You won't die." The king made this promise to Shimei.

<sup>24</sup>Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, also went down to meet King David. Mephibosheth had not cared for his feet, cut his beard or washed his clothes while David was gone. He had not done this from the time the king had left Jerusalem until he returned safely. <sup>25</sup>Mephibosheth came from Jerusalem to meet the king. The king asked him, "Mephibosheth, why didn't you go with me?"

<sup>26</sup>He answered, "My master, my servant Ziba tricked me! I said to Ziba, 'I am crippled. So saddle a donkey. Then I will ride it so I can go with the king.' <sup>27</sup>But he lied about me to you. You, my master and king, are like an angel from God. Do what you think is good. <sup>28</sup>You could have killed all my grandfather's family. Instead, you put me with the people who eat at your own table. So I don't have a right to ask anything more from the king!"

<sup>29</sup>The king said to him, "Don't say anything more. I have decided that you and Ziba may divide the land."

<sup>30</sup>Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let Ziba take all the land. I'm just happy that my master the king has arrived in peace at his own house."

<sup>31</sup>Barzillai of Gilead came down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan River with the king. <sup>32</sup>Now Barzillai was a very old man. He was 80 years old. He had taken care of the king when David was staying at Mahanaim. Barzillai could do this, because he was a very rich man. <sup>33</sup>David said to Barzillai, "Cross the river with me. Come with me to Jerusalem, and I will take care of you."

<sup>34</sup>But Barzillai answered the king, "Do you know how old I am? Do you think I can go with you to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup>I am 80 years old! I am too old to taste what I eat or drink. I am too old to hear the voices of men and women singers. Why should you be bothered with me? <sup>36</sup>I am not worthy of a reward from you. But I will cross the Jordan River with you. <sup>37</sup>Then please let me go back so I may die in my own city. Let me die near the grave of my father and mother. But here is Kimham. Let him go with you, my master and king. Do with him whatever you want."

<sup>36</sup>The king answered, "Kimham will go with me. I will do for him anything you wish. And I will do anything for you that you wish."

<sup>39</sup>The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Then Barzillai returned home. And the king and all the people crossed the Jordan.

<sup>40</sup>When the king crossed the Jordan to Gilead, Kimham went with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel led David across the river.

<sup>41</sup>Soon all the men of Israel came to the king. They said to him, "Our brothers, the men of Judah, stole you away. They brought you and your family across the Jordan River with your men! Why did they do this?"

<sup>42</sup>All the men of Judah answered the Israelites, "We did this because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry about it? We have not eaten food at the king's expense! He did not give us any gifts!"

<sup>43</sup>The men of Israel answered the people of Judah, "We have ten tribes in the kingdom. So we have more right to David than you do! But you ignored us! We were the first ones to talk about bringing our king back!"

But the men of Judah spoke even more unkindly than the men of Israel.

Sheba Leads Israel Away from David

20 It happened that a troublemaker named Sheba son of Bicri was there. Sheba was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. He blew the trumpet and said:

"We have no share in David!

We have no part in the son of Jesse!

People of Israel, let's go to our own homes!"

<sup>3</sup>David came to his palace in Jerusalem. Earlier he had left there ten of his slave women<sup>d</sup> who gave birth to his children. He had left them there to take care of the palace. Now he put them in a house where they would be guarded. They were kept there for the rest of their lives. David gave them food, but he did not have sexual relations with them. They lived like widows until they died.

<sup>4</sup>The king said to Amasa, "Tell the men of Judah to meet with me in three days. And you must also be here." <sup>5</sup>So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together. But he took longer than the time the king had told him.

<sup>6</sup>David said to Abishai, "Sheba son of Bicri is more dangerous to us than Absalom was. Take my men and chase him. Hurry before he finds strong, walled cities. If he gets there, he will escape from us." <sup>7</sup>So Joab's men, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, who were the king's bodyguards, and all the soldiers went with Abishai. They went out from Jerusalem to chase Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>8</sup>When Joab and the army came to the great rock at Gibeon, Amasa came out to meet them. Joab was wearing his uniform. At his waist he wore a belt. It held his sword in its case. As Joab stepped forward, his sword fell out of its case. <sup>9</sup>Joab asked Amasa, "Brother, is everything all right with you?" Then with his right hand he took Amasa by the beard to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>Amasa did not guard against the sword that was in Joab's hand. So Joab pushed the sword into Amasa's stomach. This caused Amasa's insides to spill on the ground. Joab did not have to stab Amasa again. He was already dead. Then Joab and his brother Abishai continued to chase Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>11</sup>One of Joab's young men stood by Amasa's body. The young man said, "Everyone who is for Joab and David should follow Joab!" <sup>12</sup>Amasa lay in the middle of the road, covered with his own blood. The young man saw that everyone was stopping to look at the body. So he dragged Amasa's body from the road and laid it in a field. Then he put a cloth over it. <sup>13</sup>After Amasa's body was taken off the road, all the men followed Joab. They went with him to chase Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>14</sup>Sheba went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah. All the Berites also came together and followed him. <sup>15</sup>So Joab and his men came to Abel Beth Maacah and surrounded it. They piled dirt up against the city wall so they could attack it. And they began digging under the city walls to make them fall down.

<sup>16</sup>But a wise woman shouted out from the city. She said, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here. I want to talk to him!"

<sup>17</sup>So Joab came near her. She asked him, "Are you Joab?"

He answered, "Yes, I am."

Then she said, "Listen to what I say!"

Joab said, "I'm listening."

<sup>18</sup>Then the woman said, "In the past people would say, 'Ask for advice at Abel.' Then the problem would be solved. <sup>19</sup>I am one of the peaceful, loyal people of Israel. You are trying to destroy an important city of Israel. Why must you destroy what belongs to the Lord?"

<sup>20</sup>Joab answered, "May I not destroy or ruin anything. <sup>21</sup>That is not what I want. But there is a man here from the mountains of Ephraim. He is named Sheba son of Bicri. He has turned against King David. If you will bring him to me, I will leave the city alone."

The woman said to Joab, "His head will be thrown over the wall to you."

<sup>22</sup>Then the woman spoke very wisely to all the people of the city. They cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri. Then they threw it over the wall to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and the army left the city. Every man returned home. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>Joab was commander of all the army of Israel. Benaiah son of Jehoiada led the Kerethites and Pelethites, the king's bodyguards.

<sup>24</sup>Adoniram led the men who were forced to do hard work. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder. <sup>25</sup>Sheba was the royal assistant. Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. <sup>26</sup>And Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

The Gibeonites Punish Saul's Family

21 During the time David was king, there was a time of hunger. It continued for three years. So David prayed to the Lord.

The Lord answered, "Saul and his family of murderers are the reason for this time of hunger. It has come because Saul killed the Gibeonites." <sup>2</sup>(Now the Gibeonites were not Israelites. They were a group of Amorites who were left alive. The Israelites had promised not to hurt the Gibeonites. But Saul was very eager to help the people of Israel and Judah. So he tried to kill all the Gibeonites.)

King David called the Gibeonites together and talked to them. <sup>3</sup>He asked them, "What can I do for you? What can I do to take away Israel's sin so you can bless the Lord's people?"

<sup>4</sup>The Gibeonites said to David, "Saul and his family don't have enough silver and gold to pay for what they did! And we don't have the right to kill anyone in Israel."

Then David asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>5</sup>The Gibeonites said to him, "Saul made plans against us. He tried to destroy all our people who are left in the land of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Saul was the Lord's chosen king. So bring seven of his sons to us. Then we will kill them and hang them on stakes. We will put them in front of the Lord at Gibeah, Saul's hometown."

The king said, "I will give them to you."

<sup>7</sup>But the king protected Jonathan's son Mephibosheth. (Jonathan was Saul's son.) David did this because of the promise he had made to Jonathan in the Lord's name. So the king did not let them hurt Mephibosheth. <sup>8</sup>But the king did take Armoni and Mephibosheth, <sup>a</sup> sons of Rizpah and Saul. (Rizpah was the daughter of Aiah.) And the king took the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab. Adriel was the father of Merab's five sons. (Adriel was the son of Barzillai the Meholahite.) <sup>9</sup>David gave these seven sons to the Gibeonites. Then the Gibeonites killed them and hung them on stakes on a hill before the Lord. All seven sons died together. They were put to death during the first days of the harvest season. (The barley harvest was just beginning.)

<sup>10</sup>Aiah's daughter Rizpah took the rough cloth that was worn to show sadness. Then she put it on a rock for herself. She stayed there from the beginning of the harvest until the rain fell on her sons' bodies. During the day she did not let the birds of the sky touch her sons' bodies. At night she did not let the wild animals touch them.

<sup>14</sup>The people buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan at Zela in Benjamin. They buried them in the tomb of Saul's father Kish. The people did everything the king commanded.

Then God answered the prayers of the people in the land.

Wars with the Philistines

<sup>15</sup>Again there was war between the Philistines and Israel. David and his men went out to fight the Philistines. But David became tired and weak. <sup>16</sup>Ishbi-Benob was one of the sons of Rapha. <sup>d</sup> His bronze spearhead weighed about seven and a half pounds. Ishbi-Benob had a new sword, and he planned to kill David. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah killed the Philistine. So he saved David's life.

Then David's men made a promise to David. They said, "Never again will you go out with us to battle. If you were killed, Israel would lose its greatest leader.”

<sup>18</sup>Later, at Gob, there was another battle with the Philistines. Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, another one of the sons of Rapha.

<sup>19</sup>Later, there was another battle at Gob with the Philistines. Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim from Bethlehem killed Goliath<sup>a</sup> from Gath. Goliath's spear was as large as a weaver's rod.

<sup>20</sup>At Gath another battle took place. A very large man was there. He had 6 fingers on each hand. And he had 6 toes on each foot. He had 24 fingers and toes in all. This man also was one of the sons of Rapha. <sup>21</sup>When he challenged Israel, Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was the son of Shimeah, David's brother.

<sup>22</sup>These four men were sons of Rapha from Gath. They all were killed by David and his men.

David's Song of Praise

22 David sang this song to the Lord. He sang it when the Lord had saved him from Saul and all his other enemies. <sup>2</sup>He said:

“The Lord is my rock, my place of safety, my Savior.

<sup>3</sup>My God is my rock.

I can run to him for safety.

He is my shield and my saving strength.

The Lord is my high tower and my place of safety.

The Lord saves me from those who want to harm me.

<sup>4</sup>I will call to the Lord.

He is worthy of praise.

And I will be saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup>“The waves of death came around me.

The deadly rivers overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup>The ropes of death wrapped around me.

The traps of death were before me.

<sup>7</sup>In my trouble I called to the Lord.

I cried out to my God.

From his temple he heard my voice.

My call for help reached his ears.

<sup>8</sup>“The earth trembled and shook.

The foundations of heaven began to shake.

They shook because the Lord was angry.

<sup>9</sup>Smoke came out of his nose.

Burning fire came out of his mouth.

Burning coals went before him.

<sup>10</sup>He tore open the sky and came down.

Dark clouds were under his feet.

<sup>11</sup>He rode a creature with wings and flew.

He flew on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup>He made darkness his shelter around him, surrounded by fog and clouds.

<sup>13</sup>Out of the brightness of his presence came flashes of lightning.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord thundered from heaven.

The Most High God raised his voice.

<sup>15</sup>He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies.

His bolts of lightning confused them with fear.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord spoke strongly.

The wind blew from his nose.

The valleys of the sea appeared.

The foundations of the earth were seen.

<sup>17</sup>“The Lord reached down from above and took me.

He pulled me from the deep water.

<sup>18</sup>He saved me from my powerful enemies.

Those who hated me were too strong for me.

<sup>19</sup>They attacked me at my time of trouble.

But the Lord supported me.

<sup>20</sup>He took me to a safe place.

Because he delights in me, he saved me.

<sup>21</sup>“The Lord spared me because I did what was right.

Because I have not done evil, he has rescued me.

<sup>22</sup>I have followed the ways of the Lord.

I have not done evil by turning from my God.

<sup>23</sup>I remember all his laws.

I have not broken his rules.

<sup>24</sup>I have kept myself innocent before him.

I have kept myself from doing evil.

<sup>25</sup>The Lord rescued me because I did what was right.

I did what the Lord said was right.

<sup>26</sup>“Lord, you are loyal to those who are loyal.

You are good to those who are good.

<sup>27</sup>You are pure to those who are pure.

But you are against those who are bad.

<sup>28</sup>You save those who are not proud.

But you make humble those who are proud.

<sup>29</sup>Lord, you give light to my lamp.

The Lord brightens the darkness around me.

<sup>30</sup>With your help, I can attack an army.

With God's help, I can jump over a wall.

<sup>a</sup>Goliath In 1 Chronicles 20:5 he is called Lahmi brother of Goliath.

- 31<sup>a</sup>The ways of God are without fault.
The Lord's words are pure.
He is a shield to those who trust him.
- 32Who is God? Only the Lord.
Who is the Rock?<sup>d</sup> Only our God.
- 33God is my protection.
He makes my way free from fault.
- 34He makes me like a deer, which does not stumble.
He helps me stand on the steep
mountains.
- 35He trains my hands for battle.
So my arms can bend a bronze bow.
- 36You protect me with your saving shield.
You have stooped to make me great.
- 37You give me a better way to live.
So I live as you want me to.
- 38I chased my enemies and destroyed them.
I did not quit till they were destroyed.
- 39I destroyed and crushed them, so they couldn't rise up again.
They fell beneath my feet.
- 40You gave me strength in battle.
You made my enemies bow before me.
- 41You made my enemies turn back.
I destroyed those who hated me.
- 42They called for help,
but no one came to save them.
They called to the Lord,
but he did not answer them.
- 43I beat my enemies into pieces.
They were like dust on the ground.
I pounded them out and walked on them like mud in the streets.
- 44<sup>a</sup>You saved me when my people attacked
me.
You kept me as the leader of nations.
People I never knew serve me.
- 45Foreigners obey me.
As soon as they hear me, they obey me.
- 46They all become afraid.
They tremble in their hiding places.
- 47<sup>a</sup>The Lord lives!
May my Rock be praised!
Praise God, the Rock, who saves me!
- 48God gives me victory over my enemies.
He brings people under my rule.
- 49He frees me from my enemies.
"You set me over those who hate me.
You saved me from cruel men.
- 50So I will praise you, Lord, among the nations.
I will sing praises to your name.

- 51The Lord gives great victories to his king.
He is loyal to his appointed king, to David and his descendants<sup>d</sup> forever."

David's Last Words

23 These are the last words of David.

This is the message of David son of Jesse.

The man made great by the Most High
God speaks.

He is the appointed king of the God of Jacob.

He is the sweet singer of Israel.

His word was on my tongue.

3<sup>a</sup>The God of Israel spoke.

The Rock<sup>d</sup> of Israel said to me:

'The person who rules fairly over people, the person who rules with respect for God,

4<sup>a</sup>he is like the morning light at dawn.

He is like a morning without clouds.

He is like sunshine after a rain.

The sunshine makes the tender grass grow out of the ground.'

5<sup>a</sup>This is how God has cared for my family.

God made a lasting agreement with me, good in every way and strong.

This agreement is my salvation.

This agreement is all I want.

Truly, the Lord will make it grow.

6<sup>a</sup>But all evil people will be thrown away like thorns.

People cannot hold on to thorns.

7<sup>a</sup>Anyone who touches them uses a tool of iron or a spear.

They will be thrown in the fire and burned where they lie."

David's Army

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of David's warriors:
Josheb-Basshebeth, the Tahkemonite, was head of the Three.<sup>a</sup> He killed 800 men at one time.

<sup>9</sup>Next there was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahoite. Eleazar was one of the three soldiers who were with David when they challenged the Philistines. The Philistines were gathered for battle, and the Israelites drew back. <sup>10</sup>But Eleazar stayed where he was. He fought the Philistines until he was so tired he could not let go of his sword. The Lord gave a great victory for the Israelites that day. The people came back after Eleazar had won the battle. But they came only to take weapons and armor from the enemy.

<sup>11</sup>Next there was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines came together to fight. They stood where there was a field full of small peas. Israel's troops ran away from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>But Shammah stood in the middle of the field. He fought for the field and killed the Philistines. And the Lord gave a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>Once, three of the Thirty, David's chief soldiers, came down to him during harvest. Now David was at the cave of Adullam. The Philistine army had camped in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>At that time David was in a protected place. And some of the Philistine soldiers were in Bethlehem.

<sup>15</sup>David had a strong desire for some water. He said, "Oh, I wish someone would get me water from the well near the city gate of Bethlehem!" <sup>16</sup>So the three warriors broke through the Philistine army. They took water out of the well near the city gate of Bethlehem. Then they took it to David. But he refused to drink it. He poured it out on the ground before the Lord. <sup>17</sup>David said, "Lord, I can't drink this! It would be like drinking the blood of the men who risked their lives!" So David refused to drink the water. These were the brave things that the three warriors did.

<sup>18</sup>Abishai was the brother of Joab son of Zeruah. He was captain of the Three. Abishai used his spear against 300 enemies and killed them. He became as famous as the Three. <sup>19</sup>Abishai received even more honor than the Three. He became their commander. But he was not a member of them.

<sup>20</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a brave fighter from Kabzeel. He did many brave things. He killed two of the best soldiers from Moab. He also went down into a pit when it was snowing. There he killed a lion. <sup>21</sup>Benaiah killed a big Egyptian. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand. But Benaiah only had a club. Benaiah grabbed the spear from the Egyptian's hand. Then Benaiah killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup>These were the brave things that Benaiah son of Jehoiada did. He was as famous as the Three. <sup>23</sup>He received more honor than the Thirty. But he did not become a member of the Three. David made him leader of his bodyguard.

"Dan to Beersheba" Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

The Thirty Chief Soldiers

<sup>24</sup>The following men were among the Thirty:

Asahel the brother of Joab;
Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem;

<sup>25</sup>Shammah the Harodite;
Elika the Harodite;

<sup>26</sup>Helez the Paltite;
Ira son of Ikkesh (from Tekoa);

<sup>27</sup>Abiezer the Anathothite;
Mebunnai the Hushathite;

<sup>28</sup>Zalmon the Ahohite;
Maharai the Netophathite;

<sup>29</sup>Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite;

Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the land of Benjamin;

<sup>30</sup>Benaiah the Pirathonite;
Hiddai from the ravines of Gaash;

<sup>31</sup>Abi-Albon the Arbathite;
Azmaveth the Barhumite;

<sup>32</sup>Eliabha the Shaalbonite;
the sons of Jashen;
Jonathan <sup>33</sup>son of Shammah the Hararite;

Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite;

<sup>34</sup>Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite;

Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite;

<sup>35</sup>Hezro the Carmelite;
Paarai the Arbite;

<sup>36</sup>Igal son of Nathan of Zobah;
the son of Hagri;

<sup>37</sup>Zelek the Ammonite;
Naharai the Beerothite, who carried the armor of Joab son of Zeruah;

<sup>38</sup>Ira the Ithrite;
Gareb the Ithrite

<sup>39</sup>and Uriah the Hittite.

There were 37 in all.

David Counts His Army

24 The Lord was angry with Israel again. He caused David to turn against the Israelites. David said, "Go, count the people of Israel and Judah."

<sup>2</sup>King David spoke to Joab, the commander of the army. David said, "Go through all the tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel. Go from Dan to Beersheba<sup>a</sup> and count the people. Then I will know how many there are."

<sup>3</sup>But Joab said to the king, "May the Lord your God give you 100 times more people. And may you live to see this happen. But why do you want to do this?"

<sup>4</sup>But the king very strongly commanded Joab and the commanders of the army. So they left the king to count the people of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>After crossing the Jordan River, they camped near Aroer. They camped on the south side of the city in the ravine. They went through Gad and on to Jazer. <sup>6</sup>Then they went to Gilead and the land of Tahtim Hodshi. Next they went to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup>They went to the strong, walled city of Tyre. They also went to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went to southern Judah, to Beersheba. <sup>8</sup>After 9 months and 20 days, they had gone through all the land. Then they came back to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>Joab gave the list of the people to the king. There were 800,000 men in Israel who could use the sword. And there were 500,000 men in Judah.

<sup>10</sup>David felt ashamed after he had counted the people. He said to the Lord, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done! Lord, I beg you, forgive my sin! I have been very foolish."

<sup>11</sup>Before David got up in the morning, the Lord spoke his word to Gad. He was a prophet<sup>d</sup> and David's seer.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>The Lord told Gad, "Go and tell David, 'This is what the Lord says: I offer you three choices. Choose one for me to do to you.'"

<sup>13</sup>Gad went to David and told him. Gad said, "Choose one of these three things. Should three years of hunger come to you and your land? Or should your enemies chase you for three months? Or should there be three days of disease in your country? Think about it. Then decide which of these things I should tell the Lord who sent me."

<sup>14</sup>David said to Gad, "I am really in trouble. But the Lord is very merciful. So let the Lord punish us. Don't let my punishment come from people!"

<sup>15</sup>So the Lord sent disease on Israel. It began in the morning. And it continued until the chosen time to stop. From Dan to Beersheba

70,000 people died. <sup>16</sup>The angel raised his arm toward Jerusalem to destroy it also. But the Lord felt very sorry about the terrible things that had happened. He said to the angel who was destroying the people, "That's enough! Put down your arm!" At this time the angel of the Lord was by the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup>David saw the angel that killed the people. Then he said to the Lord, "I've sinned! I've done wrong! But these people only followed me like sheep! They did nothing wrong! Please let your punishment be against me and my father's family!"

<sup>18</sup>That day Gad came to David. Gad told him, "Go and build an altar to the Lord. Build it on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." <sup>19</sup>So David did what Gad told him to do. He obeyed the Lord's command and went to see Araunah.

<sup>20</sup>Araunah looked and saw the king and his servants coming to him. So he went out and bowed facedown on the ground. <sup>21</sup>He said, "Why has my master the king come to me?"

David answered, "To buy the threshing floor from you. I want to build an altar to the Lord. Then the disease will stop."

<sup>22</sup>Araunah said to David, "My master and king, you may take anything you want for a sacrifice. Here are some oxen for the whole burnt offering. Here are the threshing boards and the yokes<sup>d</sup> for the wood! <sup>23</sup>My king, I give everything to you!" Araunah also said to the king, "May the Lord your God be pleased with you!"

<sup>24</sup>But the king answered Araunah, "No. I will pay you for the land. I won't offer to the Lord my God burnt offerings which cost me nothing!"

So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for one and one-fourth pounds of silver. <sup>25</sup>Then he built an altar to the Lord there. And he offered whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then the Lord answered his prayer for the country. And the disease in Israel stopped.

1 KINGS

The Kingdom Is Divided

Adonijah Tries to Become King

1 At this time King David was very old. His servants covered him with blankets, but he could not keep warm. <sup>2</sup>So they said to him, "We will find a young woman to care for you. She will lie close to you and keep you warm." <sup>3</sup>So the king's servants looked everywhere in Israel for a beautiful young woman. They found a girl named Abishag from the Shunammite people. They brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup>The girl was very beautiful. She cared for the king and served him. But King David did not have sexual relations with her.

<sup>5</sup>Adonijah was King David and Haggith's son. He was born next after Absalom. He was a very handsome man. He said, "I will be the king." So he got chariots and horses for himself. And he got 50 men to run ahead of him. Now David had never interfered with him by questioning what he did.

<sup>7</sup>Adonijah talked with Joab son of Zeruijah. He also talked with Abiathar the priest. They told him they would help him. <sup>8</sup>But several men did not join Adonijah. These men were Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, <sup>9</sup>Shimei, Rei and King David's special guard.

<sup>9</sup>Then Adonijah killed some sheep, cows and fat calves for sacrifices. He made these sacrifices at the Stone of Zoheleth near the spring, En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the other sons of King David, to come. He invited all the rulers and leaders of Judah also. <sup>10</sup>But Adonijah did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, his father's special guard or his brother Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>When Nathan heard about this, he went to Bathsheba. She was the mother of Solomon. Nathan asked her, "Have you heard what Adonijah, Haggith's son, is doing? He has made himself king. And our real king, David, does not know it. <sup>12</sup>Your life and the life of your son Solomon may be in danger. But I will tell you how to save yourselves. <sup>13</sup>Go to King David and say to him, 'My master and king, you made a promise to me. You promised that my son Solomon would be the king after you. You said he would rule on your throne. So why has Adonijah become king?' <sup>14</sup>While you are still talking to him, I will come in. I will tell the king that what you have said about Adonijah is true."

<sup>15</sup>So Bathsheba went in to see the king in his bedroom. He was now very old. Abishag, the girl from Shunam, was caring for him there. <sup>16</sup>Bathsheba bowed down before the king.

He asked, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup>She answered, "My master, you made a promise to me in the name of the Lord your God. You said, 'Your son Solomon will become king after me. He will rule on my throne.' <sup>18</sup>But now Adonijah has become king. And you did not know it. <sup>19</sup>Adonijah has killed many cows, fat calves and sheep for sacrifices. And he has invited all your sons. He also has invited Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of your army. But he did not invite Solomon, your son who serves you. <sup>20</sup>My master and king, all the people of Israel are watching you. They are waiting for you to decide who will be king after you. <sup>21</sup>As soon as you die, Solomon and I will be treated as criminals."

<sup>24</sup>Then Nathan said, "My master and king, have you said that Adonijah will be the king after you? Have you decided he will rule on your throne after you? <sup>25</sup>Today he has sacrificed many cows, fat calves and sheep. And he has invited all your other sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Right now they are eating and drinking with him. They are saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' <sup>26</sup>But he did not invite me, Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada or your son Solomon. <sup>27</sup>Did you do this? We are your servants. Why didn't you tell us whom you chose to be the king after you?"

David Makes Solomon King

<sup>28</sup>Then King David said, "Tell Bathsheba to come in!" So she came in and stood before the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king said, "The Lord has saved me from all trouble. As surely as he lives, I make this promise to you. <sup>30</sup>Today I will do what I promised you in the past. I made that promise in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. I promised that your son Solomon would be king after me. I promised he would rule on my throne after me.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed facedown on the ground before the king. She said, “Long live my master King David!”

<sup>32</sup>Then King David said, “Tell Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet<sup>d</sup> and Benaiah son of Jehoiada to come in here.” So they came before the king. <sup>33</sup>Then the king said to them, “Take my servants with you and put my son Solomon on my own mule. Take him down to the spring called Gihon. <sup>34</sup>There Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet should pour olive oil on him and make him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and shout, ‘Long live King Solomon!’ <sup>35</sup>Then come back here with him. He will sit on my throne and rule in my place. I have chosen him to be the ruler over Israel and Judah.”

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “This is good! And may your God make it happen. <sup>37</sup>The Lord has always helped you, our king. Let the Lord also help Solomon. And let King Solomon be an even greater king than you.”

<sup>38</sup>So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada went down. The Kerethites and Pelethites, the king’s bodyguards, went with them. They put Solomon on King David’s mule and went with him to the spring called Gihon. <sup>39</sup>Zadok the priest took with him the container of olive oil from the Holy Tent.<sup>e</sup> He poured the olive oil on Solomon’s head to show he was the king. Then they blew the trumpet. And all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!” <sup>40</sup>All the people followed Solomon into the city. They were playing flutes and shouting for joy. They made so much noise the ground shook.

<sup>41</sup>At this time Adonijah and all the guests with him were finishing their meal. They heard the sound from the trumpet. Joab asked, “What does all that noise from the city mean?”

<sup>42</sup>While Joab was speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, “Come in! You are an important man. So you must be bringing good news.”

<sup>44</sup>King David sent Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada and all the king’s bodyguards with him. They put Solomon on the king’s own mule. <sup>45</sup>And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet poured olive oil on Solomon at Gihon to make him king. Then they went into the city, shouting with joy. Now the whole city is excited. That is the noise you hear. <sup>46</sup>Solomon has now become the king. <sup>47</sup>All the king’s officers have come to tell King David that he has done a good thing. They are saying, ‘May your God make Solomon even more famous than you. And may your God make Solomon an even greater king than you.’” Jonathan continued, “And King David bowed down on his bed to worship God. <sup>48</sup>He said, ‘Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. Today he has made one of my sons the king and allowed me to see it.’”

<sup>52</sup>So Solomon answered, “Adonijah must show that he is a man of honor. If he does, I promise that he will not lose even a hair from his head. But if he does anything wrong, he will die.” <sup>53</sup>Then King Solomon sent some men to get Adonijah. They brought him to King Solomon. So Adonijah came before King Solomon and bowed down. Then Solomon said, “Go home.”

The Death of David

2 It was almost time for David to die. So he talked to Solomon and gave him his last commands. <sup>2</sup>David said, “My time to die is near. Be a good and strong leader. <sup>3</sup>Obey everything that the Lord commands. Follow the commands he has given us. Obey all his laws, and do what he told us. Obey what is written in the teachings of Moses. If you do these things, you will be successful in all you do and wherever you go. <sup>4</sup>And if you obey the Lord, he will keep the promise he made to me. He promised: ‘Your descendants<sup>g</sup> must live as I tell them. They must have complete faith in me. If they do this, then a man from your family will always be king over the people of Israel.’

<sup>5</sup>“Also, you remember what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me. He killed the two commanders of Israel’s armies. He killed Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He killed them as if <sup>e</sup>corners of the altar If a person were innocent of a crime, he could run into the Holy Place. If he held on to the corners of the altar there, he would not be punished. The corners looked like horns.

he and they were at war. But this was in a time of peace. He killed innocent men. And their blood got on his belt and sandals. <sup>6</sup>You should punish him in the way you think is wisest. (But do not let him die peacefully of old age.)

<sup>7</sup>"Be kind to the children of Barzillai of Gilead. Allow them to eat at your table. They helped me when I ran away from your brother Absalom.

<sup>8</sup>"And remember, Shimei son of Gera is here with you. He is from the people of Benjamin in Bahurim. Remember he cursed me the day I went to Mahanaim. Then he came down to meet me at the Jordan River. I promised him before the Lord, 'Shimei, I will not kill you.' <sup>9</sup>But you should not leave him unpunished. You are a wise man. You will know what to do to him. But you must be sure he is killed."

<sup>10</sup>Then David died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>He had ruled over Israel 40 years. Seven years were in Hebron, and 33 years were in Jerusalem.

Solomon Takes Control as King

<sup>12</sup>Now Solomon became king after David, his father. And he was in control of his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>At this time Adonijah son of Haggith went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. Bathsheba asked, "Do you come in peace?"

Adonijah answered, "Yes. This is a peaceful visit. <sup>14</sup>I have something to say to you."

"You may speak," she said.

<sup>15</sup>Adonijah said, "You remember that at one time the kingdom was mine. All the people of Israel thought I was their king. But things changed. Now my brother is the king because the Lord chose him. <sup>16</sup>So now I have one thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me."

Bathsheba answered, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup>Adonijah said, "I know King Solomon will do anything you ask him. So please ask him to give me Abishag the Shunammite woman to be my wife."

<sup>18</sup>"Very well," she answered. "I will speak to the king for you."

<sup>19</sup>So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to talk to him for Adonijah. When Solomon saw her, he stood up to meet her. Then he bowed down to her and sat on the throne. He told some servants to bring another throne for his mother. Then she sat down at his right side.

<sup>20</sup>Bathsheba said to him, "I have one small thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me."

The king answered, "Ask, mother. I will not refuse you."

<sup>21</sup>So she said, "Allow Abishag the Shunammite woman to marry your brother Adonijah."

<sup>22</sup>King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you ask me to give him Abishag? Why don't you ask for him to become the king also since he is my older brother? Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah will support him!"

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon made a promise in the name of the Lord. He said, "I promise Adonijah will pay for asking me this! May God punish me terribly if it doesn't cost Adonijah his life!"

<sup>24</sup>The Lord has given me the throne that belonged to my father David. The Lord has kept his promise and given the kingdom to me and my people. As surely as the Lord lives, Adonijah will die today!" <sup>25</sup>So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada. And he went out and killed Adonijah.

<sup>26</sup>Then King Solomon said to Abiathar the priest, "I should kill you. But I will allow you to go back to your home in Anathoth. I will not kill you now because you helped to carry the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Lord God while marching with my father David. And I know you shared in all of the hard times with my father." <sup>27</sup>So Solomon removed Abiathar from being a priest to the Lord. This happened as the Lord had said it would. He had said this about the priest Eli and his family in Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup>When Joab heard about this, he was afraid. He had supported Adonijah, but not Absalom. So Joab ran to the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and took hold of the corners of the altar.<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>Someone told King Solomon that Joab had run to the Tent of the Lord and was beside the altar. So Solomon ordered Benaiah to go and kill him.

<sup>30</sup>Benaiah went into the Tent of the Lord and said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come out!'"

But Joab answered, "No, I will die here."

So Benaiah went back to the king and told him what Joab had said. <sup>31</sup>Then the king commanded Benaiah, "Do as he says! Kill him there and bury him. Then my family and I will be free of the guilt of Joab. Joab is guilty of killing innocent people. <sup>32</sup>He killed two men who were much better than he was. They were Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. Abner was the commander of Israel's army, and Amasa was the commander of Judah's army. My father David did not know that he killed them. So the Lord will pay him back for those men he killed. <sup>33</sup>He and his family will be forever guilty for their deaths. But there will be peace from God for David, his descendants,<sup>d</sup> his family and his rule forever.”

<sup>a</sup>corners of the altar If a person were innocent of a crime, he could run into the Holy Place. If he held on to the corners of the altar there, he would not be punished. The corners looked like horns.

<sup>34</sup>So Benaiah son of Jehoiada killed Joab. And he was buried near his home in the desert.

<sup>35</sup>Solomon then made Benaiah son of Jehoiada commander of the army in Joab's place. Solomon also made Zadok the new high priest in Abiathar's place.

<sup>36</sup>Next the king sent for Shimei. The king said to him, “Build a house for yourself here in Jerusalem. Live in the house, and don't leave the city. <sup>37</sup>If you leave and go past Kidron Valley, someone will kill you. And it will be your own fault.”

<sup>38</sup>So Shimei answered the king, “What you have said is good. I will obey you, my master and king.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

<sup>39</sup>But three years later two of Shimei's slaves ran away. They went to Achish king of Gath. He was the son of Maacah. Shimei heard that his slaves were in Gath. <sup>40</sup>So he put his saddle on his donkey and left. He went to Achish at Gath to find his slaves. When he found them there, he brought them back to his home.

<sup>41</sup>Someone told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned.

<sup>42</sup>So Solomon sent for Shimei. Solomon said, “I made you promise in the name of the Lord not to leave Jerusalem. I warned you that if you went anywhere else you would die. And you agreed to what I said. You said you would obey me. <sup>43</sup>Why did you break your promise to the Lord? Why did you not obey my command?

<sup>44</sup>You know the many wrong things you did against my father David. Now the Lord will punish you for those wrongs. <sup>45</sup>But the Lord will bless me. He will make the rule of David safe before the Lord forever.”

<sup>46</sup>Then the king ordered Benaiah to kill Shimei, and he did. Now Solomon was in full control of his kingdom.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

3 Solomon made an agreement with the king of Egypt by marrying his daughter. Solomon brought her to Jerusalem. At this time Solomon was still building his palace and the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He was also building a wall around Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>The Temple had not yet been finished. So people were still offering animal sacrifices at altars in many places of worship. <sup>3</sup>Solomon showed that he loved the Lord. He did this by following the commands his father David had given him. But Solomon still used the many places of worship to offer sacrifices and to burn incense.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>King Solomon went to Gibeon to offer a sacrifice. He went there because it was the most important place of worship. He offered 1,000 burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup>While he was at Gibeon, the Lord came to him in a dream during the night. God said, “Ask for anything you want. I will give it to you.”

<sup>6</sup>Solomon answered, “You were very kind to your servant, my father David. He obeyed you. He was honest and lived right. And you showed great kindness to him when you allowed his son to be king after him. <sup>7</sup>Lord my God, you have allowed me to be king in my father's place. But I am like a little child. I do not have the wisdom I need to do what I must do. <sup>8</sup>I, your servant, am here among your chosen people. There are too many of them to count. <sup>9</sup>So I ask that you give me wisdom. Then I can rule the people in the right way. Then I will know the difference between right and wrong. Without wisdom, it is impossible to rule this great people of yours.”

<sup>10</sup>The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked him for this. <sup>11</sup>So God said to him, “You did not ask for a long life. And you did not ask for riches for yourself. You did not ask for the death of your enemies. Since you asked for wisdom to make the right decisions, <sup>12</sup>I will give you what you asked. I will give you wisdom and understanding. Your wisdom will be greater than anyone has had in the past. And there will never be anyone in the future like you. <sup>13</sup>Also, I will give you what you did not ask for. You will have riches and honor. During your life no other king will be as great as you. <sup>14</sup>I ask you to follow me and obey my laws and commands. Do this as your father David did. If you do, I will also give you a long life.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Solomon woke up. He knew that God had talked to him in the dream. Then he went to Jerusalem and stood before the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. There he gave burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. After that, he gave a feast for all of his leaders and officers.

Solomon Makes a Wise Decision

<sup>16</sup>One day two women who were prostitutes<sup>d</sup> came to Solomon. They stood before him. <sup>17</sup>One of the women said, “My master, this woman and I live in the same house. I gave birth to a baby while she was there with me. <sup>18</sup>Three days later this woman also gave birth to a baby. No one else was in the house with us. There were only the two of us. <sup>19</sup>One night this woman rolled over on her baby, and it died. <sup>20</sup>So during the night she took my son from my bed while I was asleep. She carried him to her bed. Then she put the dead baby in my bed. <sup>21</sup>The next morning I got up to feed my baby. But I saw that he was dead! Then I looked at him more closely. I saw that he was not my son."

<sup>22</sup>But the other woman said, "No! The living baby is my son. The dead baby is yours!"

But the first woman said, "No! The dead baby is yours, and the living one is mine!" So the two women argued before the king.

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon said, "Each of you says the living baby is your own. And each of you says the dead baby belongs to the other woman."

<sup>24</sup>Then King Solomon sent his servants to get a sword. When they brought it to him, <sup>25</sup>he said, "Cut the living baby into two pieces. Give each woman half of the baby."

<sup>26</sup>The real mother of the living child was full of love for her son. She said to the king, "Please, my master, don't kill him! Give the baby to her!"

But the other woman said, "Neither of us will have him. Cut him into two pieces!"

<sup>27</sup>Then King Solomon said, "Give the baby to the first woman. Don't kill him. She is the real mother."

<sup>28</sup>When the people of Israel heard about King Solomon's decision, they respected him very much. They saw he had wisdom from God to make the right decisions.

Solomon's Officers

4 King Solomon ruled over all Israel. <sup>2</sup>These are the names of his leading officers:

Azariah son of Zadok was the priest;

<sup>3</sup>Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha, recorded what happened in the courts;

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud recorded the history of the people;

<sup>4</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was commander of the army;

Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

<sup>5</sup>Azariah son of Nathan was in charge of the district governors;

Zabud son of Nathan was a priest and adviser to the king;

<sup>6</sup>Ahishar was responsible for everything in the palace;

Adoniram son of Abda was in charge of the slaves.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon placed 12 governors over the districts of Israel. They had to gather food from their districts. Then they were to give it to the king and his family. Each governor was responsible for giving food to the king one month of each year. <sup>8</sup>These are the names of the 12 governors:

Ben-Hur was governor over the mountain country of Ephraim.

<sup>12</sup>Baana son of Ahilud was governor over Taanach, Megiddo and all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan. (This was below Jezreel from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across Jokmeam.)

<sup>13</sup>Ben-Geber was governor over Ramoth in Gilead. (He was governor over all the Towns of Jair in Gilead. Jair was the son of Manasseh. Ben-Geber was also over the district of Argob in Bashan. It had 60 large, walled cities with bronze bars on their gates.)

<sup>19</sup>Geber son of Uri was governor over Gilead. (Gilead was the country where Sihon king of the Amorite people lived. Og king of Bashan also lived there.) But Geber was the only governor over the district.

Solomon's Kingdom

<sup>20</sup>There were many people in Judah and Israel. There were as many people as there were grains of sand on the seashore. The people ate, drank and were happy. <sup>21</sup>Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistine people. His kingdom went as far as the border of Egypt. These countries brought Solomon the payments he demanded. And they obeyed him all his life.

<sup>22</sup>Solomon needed much food each day to feed himself and all the people who ate at his table. It took 185 bushels of fine flour and 375 bushels of meal. <sup>23</sup>It also took 10 cows that were fed good grain, 20 cows that were raised in the fields and 100 sheep. And it took 3 different kinds of deer and fat birds.

<sup>26</sup>Solomon had 4,000 stalls for his chariot horses. And he had 12,000 chariot soldiers. <sup>27</sup>Each month one of the district governors gave King Solomon all the food he needed. This was enough for every person who ate at the king's table. The governors made sure he had everything he needed. <sup>28</sup>They also gave the king enough barley and straw for the chariot and work horses. Each person brought this grain to the required places.

Solomon's Wisdom

<sup>29</sup>God gave great wisdom to Solomon. Solomon could understand many things. His wisdom was as hard to measure as the sand on the seashore. <sup>30</sup>His wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men in the East. And his wisdom was greater than all the wisdom of the men in Egypt. <sup>31</sup>He was wiser than any other man on earth. He was even wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite. He was wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda. They were the sons of Mahol. King Solomon became famous in all the countries around Israel and Judah. <sup>32</sup>During his life King Solomon spoke 3,000 wise teachings. He also knew 1,005 songs. <sup>33</sup>He taught about many different kinds of plants. He taught about everything from the great cedar trees of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the walls. He also taught about animals, birds, crawling things and fish. <sup>34</sup>People from all nations came to listen to King Solomon's wisdom. The kings of all nations sent them to listen to him. These kings had heard of Solomon's wisdom.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

S Now King Hiram was the king of Tyre. He had always been a friend of David. Hiram heard that Solomon had been made king in David's place. So he sent his messengers to Solomon. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon sent this message back to King Hiram: <sup>3</sup>"You remember that my father David had to fight many wars with the countries around him. So he was never able to build a temple for worship to the Lord his God. David was waiting until the Lord allowed him to defeat all his enemies. <sup>4</sup>But now the Lord my God has given me peace. There is peace on all sides of my country. I have no enemies now. My people are in no danger.

<sup>5</sup>"The Lord made a promise to my father David. The Lord said, 'I will make your son king after you. And he will build a temple for worship to me.' Now, I plan to build that temple for worship to the Lord my God. <sup>6</sup>And so I ask for your help. Send your men to cut down cedar trees for me from Lebanon. My servants will work with yours. I will pay your servants whatever wages you decide. We don't have anyone who can cut down trees as well as the people of Sidon can."

<sup>7</sup>When Hiram heard what Solomon asked, he was very happy. He said, "I thank the Lord today! He has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation!" <sup>8</sup>Then Hiram sent back this message to Solomon: "I received the message you sent. I will give you all the cedar and pine trees you want. <sup>9</sup>My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. There I will tie them together. Then I will float them down the shore to the place you choose. There I will separate the logs, and you can take them away. In return you will give food to all those who live with me." <sup>10</sup>So Hiram gave Solomon as much cedar and pine as he wanted. <sup>11</sup>And Solomon gave Hiram about 125,000 bushels of wheat each year. It was to feed all those who lived with Hiram. And Solomon gave him about 115,000 gallons of pure olive oil every year.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord gave wisdom to Solomon as he had promised. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon. These two kings made a treaty between themselves.

<sup>13</sup>King Solomon forced 30,000 men of Israel to help in this work. <sup>14</sup>He put a man named Adoniram over them. Solomon sent a group of 10,000 men each month to Lebanon. So each group worked in Lebanon one month. Then it went home for two months. <sup>15</sup>Solomon forced 80,000 men to work in the hill country, cutting stone. And he had 70,000 men to carry the stones. <sup>16</sup>There were also 3,300 men who directed the workers. <sup>17</sup>King Solomon commanded them to cut large blocks of fine stone. These were to be used for the foundation of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Solomon's and Hiram's builders and the men from Byblos carved the stones. They prepared the stones and the logs for building the Temple.

<sup>n</sup>Dan to Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6 So Solomon began to build the Temple.<sup>4</sup> This was 480 years after the people of Israel had left Egypt. (This was the fourth year of King Solomon's rule over Israel.) It was the second month, the month of Ziv.

<sup>2</sup>The Temple was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. It was 45 feet high. <sup>3</sup>The porch in front of the main room of the Temple was 15 feet deep and 30 feet wide. The room ran along the front of the Temple itself. Its width was equal to the width of the Temple. <sup>4</sup>There were narrow windows in the Temple. These windows were narrow on the outside and larger on the inside. <sup>5</sup>Then Solomon built some side rooms against the walls of the main room of the Temple. These rooms were built on top of each other. <sup>6</sup>The rooms on the bottom floor were 7½ feet wide. The rooms on the middle floor were 9 feet wide. The rooms above that were 10½ feet wide. The Temple wall which made the side of each room was thinner than the wall in the room below. The rooms were pushed against the wall but did not have their main beams built into the wall.

<sup>7</sup>The stones were prepared at the same place they were cut from the ground. Only these stones were used to build the Temple. So there was no noise of hammers, axes or any other iron tools at the Temple.

<sup>8</sup>The entrance to the bottom rooms built beside the Temple was on the south side. From there, stairs went up to the second floor rooms. And from there, they went on to the third floor rooms. <sup>9</sup>Solomon put a roof made from beams and cedar boards on the Temple. So he finished building the Temple. <sup>10</sup>He also finished building the bottom floor that was beside the Temple. It was 7½ feet high. It was attached to the Temple by cedar beams.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Solomon: <sup>12</sup>"Obey all my laws and commands. If you do, I will do for you what I promised your father David. <sup>13</sup>And I will live among the children of Israel in this Temple you are building. I will never leave the people of Israel."

<sup>14</sup>So Solomon finished building the Temple. <sup>15</sup>The inside walls were covered from floor to ceiling with cedar boards. The floor was made from pine boards. <sup>16</sup>A room 30 feet long was built in the back part of the Temple. It was divided from the rest of the Temple by cedar boards reaching from floor to ceiling. It was called the Most Holy Place. <sup>17</sup>The main room, the room in front of the Most Holy Place, was 60 feet long. <sup>18</sup>Inside the Temple was cedar. It was carved with pictures of flowers and plants. Everything inside was covered with cedar. So a person could not see the stones of the wall.

<sup>19</sup>He prepared the inner room at the back of the Temple to keep the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. <sup>20</sup>This inner room was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide and 30 feet high. Solomon covered this room with pure gold. He built an altar of cedar and covered it also. <sup>21</sup>He covered the inside of the Temple with pure gold. And he placed gold chains across the front of the inner room. It was covered with gold. <sup>22</sup>So all the inside of the Temple was covered with gold. Also the altar in the Most Holy Place was covered with gold.

<sup>23</sup>Solomon made two creatures with wings from olive wood. Each creature was 15 feet tall. They were put in the Most Holy Place. <sup>24</sup>Each creature had two wings. Each wing was 7½ feet long. So it was 15 feet from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing. <sup>25</sup>The creatures were the same size and shape. <sup>26</sup>And each was 15 feet tall. <sup>27</sup>These creatures were put beside each other in the Most Holy Place. Their wings were spread out. So one creature's wing touched one wall. The other creature's wing touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. <sup>28</sup>The two creatures were covered with gold.

<sup>29</sup>All the walls around the Temple were carved. They were carved with pictures of creatures with wings, palm trees and flowers. This was true for both the main room and the inner room. <sup>30</sup>The floors of both rooms were covered with gold.

<sup>31</sup>Doors made from olive wood were put at the entrance to the Most Holy Place. The doors were made to fit into an area with five sides. <sup>32</sup>Creatures with wings, palm trees and flowers were carved on the two olive wood doors. Then the doors were covered with gold. And the creatures and the palm trees were covered with gold. <sup>33</sup>At the entrance to the main room there was a door frame. It was square and was made of olive wood. <sup>34</sup>Two doors were made from pine. Each door had two parts so that the doors folded. <sup>35</sup>The doors were covered with pictures of creatures with wings, palm trees and flowers. And all of the carvings were covered with gold. The gold was smoothed over the carvings.

<sup>37</sup>Work began on the Temple in Ziv, the second month. This was during the fourth year Solomon ruled over Israel. <sup>38</sup>The Temple was finished during the eleventh year Solomon ruled. It was finished in the eighth month, the month of Bul. It was finished exactly as it was planned. Solomon had worked seven years to build the Temple.

Solomon's Palace

7 King Solomon also built a palace for himself. It took him 13 years to finish building it. 2He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. It was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high. It had four rows of cedar columns. They supported the cedar beams. 3The ceiling was covered with cedar above the beams. There were 45 beams on the roof, with 15 beams in each row. 4Windows were placed in three rows facing each other. 5All the doors were square. The three doors at each end faced each other.

6Solomon also built the porch of pillars. It was 75 feet long and 45 feet wide. Along the front of the porch, there was a covering supported by pillars.

7Solomon also built a throne room where he judged people. He called this the Hall of Justice. The room was covered with cedar from the floor to the ceiling. 8The palace where Solomon was to live was behind the Hall of Justice. And it was built like the Hall of Justice. Solomon also built the same kind of palace for his wife. She was the daughter of the king of Egypt.

9All these buildings were made with blocks of carefully cut fine stone. Then they were trimmed with a saw in the front and back. These fine stones went from the foundations of the buildings to the top of the walls. Even the courtyard was made with blocks of stone. 10The foundations were made with large blocks of fine stone. Some of the stones were 15 feet long. Others were 12 feet long. 11On top of those stones there were other cut blocks of fine stone and cedar beams. 12The palace courtyard, the courtyard inside the Temple<sup>d</sup> and the porch to the Temple were surrounded by walls. All of these walls had three rows of cut stone blocks and one row of cedar beams.

The Temple Is Completed Inside

13King Solomon sent to Tyre and had Hiram brought to him. 14Hiram's mother was a widow from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Naphtali. His father was from Tyre and had been skilled in making things from bronze. Hiram was also very skilled and experienced in bronze work. So he came to King Solomon. And he did all the bronze work Solomon wanted.

15He made two bronze pillars. Each one was 27 feet tall and 18 feet around. 16He also made two bronze capitals<sup>d</sup> that were 7½ feet tall. He put them on top of the pillars. 17Then he made a net of seven chains for each capital. They covered the capitals on top of the two pillars. 18Then he made two rows of bronze pomegranates<sup>d</sup> to go on the nets. They were to cover the capitals at the top of the pillars. 19The capitals on top of the pillars in the porch were shaped like lilies. They were 6 feet tall. 20The capitals were on top of both pillars. They were above the bowl-shaped section and next to the nets. At that place there were 200 pomegranates in rows all around the capitals. 21Hiram put these two bronze pillars at the porch of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He named the south pillar He Establishes. And he named the north pillar In Him Is Strength. 22The capitals on top of the pillars were shaped like lilies. So the work on the pillars was finished.

23Then Hiram made a large round bowl from bronze, which was called the Sea. It was 45 feet around. It was 15 feet across and 7½ feet deep. 24There was a rim around the outer edge of the bowl. Under this rim there were two rows of bronze plants surrounding the bowl. There were ten plants in every 18 inches. They were made in one piece with the bowl. 25The bowl rested on the backs of 12 bronze bulls. They faced outward from the center of the bowl. Three bulls faced north, 3 faced east, 3 faced south and 3 faced west. 26The sides of the bowl were 4 inches thick. The rim was like the rim of a cup or like a lily blossom. The bowl held about 11,000 gallons.

27Then Hiram made ten bronze stands. Each one was 6 feet long, 6 feet wide and 4½ feet high. 28The stands were made from square sides, which were put on frames. 29On the sides were bronze lions, bulls and creatures with wings. On the frames above and below the lions and bulls there were designs of flowers hammered into the bronze. 30Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. At the corners there were bronze supports for a large bowl. The supports had designs of flowers. 31There was a frame on top of the bowls. It was 18 inches high above the bowls. The opening of the bowl was round, 27 inches deep. There were designs carved into the bronze on the frame. The frame was square, not round. 32The four wheels were under the frame. They were 27 inches high. The axles between the wheels were made as one piece with the stand. 33The wheels were like a chariot's wheels. Everything on the wheels was made of bronze. The axles, rims, spokes and hubs were made of bronze.

<sup>34</sup>The four supports were on the four corners of each stand. They were made as one piece with the stand. <sup>35</sup>There was a strip of bronze around the top of each stand. It was 9 inches deep. It was made as one piece with the stand. <sup>36</sup>The sides of the stand and the frames were totally covered with carvings. They were carved with pictures of creatures with wings, lions and palm trees. There were also flowers carved all around. <sup>37</sup>So this is the way Hiram made the ten stands. The bronze for each stand was melted and poured into a mold. So all of the stands were the same size and shape.

<sup>38</sup>Hiram also made ten bronze bowls. There was one bowl for each of the ten stands. Each bowl was 6 feet across and could hold about 230 gallons. <sup>39</sup>Hiram put five of the stands on the south side of the Temple. And he put the other five stands on the north side. He put the large bowl in the southeast corner of the Temple. <sup>40</sup>Hiram also made bowls, shovels and small bowls.

So Hiram finished making everything King Solomon wanted him to make. Here is a list of what Hiram made for the Temple of the Lord:

<sup>41</sup>two pillars;

two large bowls for the capitals on top of the pillars;

two nets to cover the two large bowls for the capitals on top of the pillars;

<sup>42</sup>400 pomegranates for the two nets (there were two rows of pomegranates for each net covering the bowls for the capitals on top of the pillars);

<sup>45</sup>the pots, shovels, small bowls and all the dishes for the Temple of the Lord.

Hiram made everything King Solomon wanted. They were all made from polished bronze. <sup>46</sup>The king ordered these things to be made near the Jordan River between Succoth and Zarethan. They were made by melting and pouring bronze into clay molds. <sup>47</sup>Solomon never weighed the bronze used to make these things. There was too much to weigh. So the total weight of all the bronze was never known.

<sup>48</sup>Solomon also commanded that many things be made of gold for the Temple:

the golden altar;

the golden table which held the bread that shows God's people are in his presence;

<sup>49</sup>the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right side and five on the left side in front of the Most Holy Place);

the gold flowers, lamps and tongs;

<sup>50</sup>the pure gold bowls, wick trimmers, small bowls, pans and dishes used to carry coals;

the hinges for the doors of the Most Holy Place and the main room of the Temple.

<sup>51</sup>So the work King Solomon did for the Temple of the Lord was finished. David, Solomon's father, had saved silver, gold and other articles for the Temple. So Solomon brought these things into the Temple. And he put them into the treasuries of the Temple of the Lord.

The Ark Is Brought into the Temple

8 Then King Solomon called for all the leaders of Israel to come to him in Jerusalem. He called for the older leaders, the heads of the tribes<sup>a</sup> and the leaders of the families. He wanted them to bring the Ark<sup>a</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord from the older part of the city. <sup>2</sup>So all the men of Israel came together with King Solomon. This was during a festival in the month of Ethanim. That is the seventh month.

<sup>3</sup>All of the older leaders of Israel arrived. Then the priests took up the Ark. <sup>4</sup>They carried the Ark of the Lord, the Meeting Tent<sup>a</sup> and the holy things in it. The Levites helped the priests carry these things. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon and all the people of Israel gathered before the Ark of the Agreement. They sacrificed so many sheep and cattle no one could count them all. <sup>6</sup>Then the priests put the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord in its right place. This was inside the Most Holy Place in the Temple.<sup>a</sup> The Ark of the Agreement was put under the wings of the golden creatures. <sup>7</sup>The wings of the creatures were spread out over the place of the Ark. So they covered it and its carrying poles. <sup>8</sup>The carrying poles were very long. Anyone standing in the Holy Place in front of the Most Holy Place could see the ends of the poles. But no one could see them from outside the Holy Place. The poles are still there today. <sup>9</sup>The only things inside the Ark were two stone tablets.<sup>b</sup> Moses had put them in the Ark at Mount Sinai.

<sup>a</sup>stone tablets They were the two tablets on which God wrote the Ten Commandments.

That was where the Lord made his agreement with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>When the priests left the Holy Place, the cloud filled the Temple of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>The priests could not continue their work. This was because the Temple was filled with the glory of the Lord.

Solomon Speaks to the People

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon said, "The Lord said he would live in a dark cloud. <sup>13</sup>Lord, I have truly built a wonderful Temple<sup>d</sup> for you. It is a place for you to live forever."

<sup>14</sup>While all the people of Israel were standing there, King Solomon turned to them and blessed them.

<sup>15</sup>Then he prayed: "Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. He himself has done what he promised to my father David. The Lord told my father, <sup>16</sup>'I brought my people Israel out of Egypt. But I have not yet chosen a city in any tribe<sup>d</sup> of Israel where a temple will be built for worshiping me. But I have chosen David to rule over my people Israel.'

<sup>17</sup>"My father David wanted to build a temple for worshiping the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup>But the Lord said to my father David, 'I know you want to build a temple for worshiping me. And this is good. <sup>19</sup>But you are not the one to build the temple. It will be your son, who comes from your own body. He is the one who will build my temple.'

<sup>20</sup>"So the Lord has kept the promise that he gave. I am the king now in place of David my father. Now I rule Israel as the Lord promised. And I have built the Temple for worshiping the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>I have made a place in the Temple for the Ark. Inside that Ark is the agreement the Lord made with our ancestors. He made that agreement when he brought them out of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer

<sup>22</sup>Then Solomon stood facing the Lord's altar. All of the people of Israel were standing behind him. He spread out his hands and looked toward the sky. <sup>23</sup>He said:

"Lord, God of Israel, there is no god like you. There is no god like you in heaven above or on the earth below. You make agreements with your people because you love them. And you keep your agreements with those who truly follow you. <sup>24</sup>You have kept the promise you made to your servant David, my father. You made that promise with your own mouth. And with your great power you have made it come true today. <sup>25</sup>Now Lord, God of Israel, keep the other promises you made to your servant David, my father. You said, 'Your sons must be careful to obey me as you have obeyed me. If they do this, there will always be someone from your family ruling Israel.' <sup>26</sup>Again, Lord, God of Israel, I ask you. Please continue to keep that promise you made to my father.

<sup>27</sup>"But, God, can you really live here on the earth? Even the sky and the highest place in heaven cannot contain you. Certainly this house which I have built cannot contain you either. <sup>28</sup>But please listen to my prayer and my request. I am your servant, and you are the Lord my God. Hear this prayer I am praying to you today. <sup>29</sup>In the past you said, 'I will be worshiped there.' So please watch over this Temple<sup>d</sup> night and day. Hear the prayer I pray to you here. <sup>30</sup>Hear my prayers and the prayers of your people Israel. Please hear us when we pray facing this place. Hear us from your home in heaven. And when you hear us, forgive us.

<sup>31</sup>"If a person does something wrong against someone else, he will be brought to the altar in this Temple. If he swears an oath that he is not guilty, <sup>32</sup>then hear in heaven. Judge the man. Punish the guilty person for what he has done. And declare that the innocent person is not guilty.

<sup>33</sup>"Sometimes your people of Israel will sin against you. Because of this their enemies will defeat them. Then the people will come back to you and praise you. They will pray to you in this Temple. <sup>34</sup>Please hear them in heaven. Forgive the sins of your people Israel. Allow them to have their land again. This is the land you gave to their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup>"Sometimes when they sin against you, you will stop the rain from falling on their land. Then they will pray, facing this place. They will praise you. They will stop sinning when you make them suffer. <sup>36</sup>When this happens, please hear their prayer in heaven. Then forgive the sins of your servant. And forgive the sins of the people of Israel. Teach them to do what is right. Then please send rain to this land you gave them.

<sup>37</sup>"At times the land will become so dry that no food will grow. Or, a great sickness will spread among the people. Sometimes all the crops will be destroyed by locusts<sup>d</sup> or grasshoppers. Your people will be attacked in their cities by their enemies. Your people will become sick. <sup>38</sup>When any of these things happen, the people will become truly sorry. If anyone of your people Israel spreads his hands in prayer toward this Temple, <sup>39</sup>please hear his prayer. Hear it from your home in heaven. Then forgive the people and help them. Only you know what people are really thinking. So judge each person, and do to him what is right. <sup>40</sup>Do this so your people will respect you all the time they live in this land. This is the land you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>41-42</sup>“People who are not Israelites, who come from other lands, will hear about your greatness and power. They will come from far away to pray at this Temple. <sup>43</sup>Please hear their prayers from your home in heaven. Please do whatever they ask you. Then people everywhere will know you and respect you, as your people in Israel do. Then everyone will know I built this Temple for worship to you.

<sup>44</sup>“Sometimes you will command your people to go and fight against their enemies. Then your people will pray to you facing this city which you have chosen. They will pray facing the Temple I have built for your worship. <sup>45</sup>When they pray, hear their prayers from your home in heaven. Then help them.

<sup>46</sup>“Everyone sins. So your people will also sin against you. And you will become angry with your people. You will let their enemies defeat them. Their enemies will make them prisoners and carry them away to their own countries. <sup>47</sup>Your people might be sorry for their sins when they are held as prisoners in another country. Perhaps they will be sorry and pray to you in the land where they are held as prisoners. They might say, ‘We have sinned and done wrong.’ <sup>48</sup>They may truly turn back to you in the land of their enemies. Perhaps they will pray to you, facing this land you gave their fathers. They may pray to you, facing this city you have chosen. They may face this Temple I have built for your worship. <sup>49</sup>If they do, then please hear them from your home in heaven. Hear their prayers and do what is right. <sup>50</sup>Forgive your people of all their sins. And forgive them for turning against you. Make those who have taken them as prisoners show them mercy. <sup>51</sup>Remember that they are your people. Remember that you brought them out of Egypt. It was as if you pulled them out of a blazing furnace!

<sup>52</sup>“Please give your attention to my prayers. And please give your attention to the prayers of your people Israel. Listen to their prayers anytime they ask you for help. <sup>53</sup>You chose them from all the nations on earth to be your very own people. This is what you promised through Moses your servant. You promised it when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, Lord God.”

had been kneeling in front of the altar. And his arms had been raised toward heaven. When Solomon finished praying, he stood up. <sup>55</sup>Then, in a loud voice, he blessed all the people of Israel. Solomon said: <sup>56</sup>“Praise the Lord! He promised he would give rest to his people Israel. And he has given us rest! The Lord has kept all the good promises he gave through his servant Moses. <sup>57</sup>I ask that the Lord our God be with us. May he be with us as he was with our ancestors. May he never leave us. <sup>58</sup>May he cause us to turn to him and follow him. May we obey all the laws and commands he gave our ancestors. <sup>59</sup>I ask that the Lord our God always remember this prayer. I pray that he will help his servant and his people Israel. I pray he will help us every day as we need it. <sup>60</sup>Then all the people of the world will know the Lord is the only true God. <sup>61</sup>So you must fully obey the Lord our God. You must follow all his laws and commands. You must continue to obey in the future as you do now.”

Sacrifices Are Offered

<sup>62</sup>Then King Solomon and all Israel with him offered sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>63</sup>Solomon killed 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. These were fellowship offerings. In this way the king and the Israelites showed they had given the Temple<sup>d</sup> to the Lord.

<sup>64</sup>Also that day King Solomon made the courtyard before the Temple holy. He offered whole burnt sacrifices and grain offerings. He also offered the fat from the fellowship offerings. He had to make these offerings in the courtyard. This was because the bronze altar before the Lord was too small. It could not hold all the offerings.

<sup>65</sup>So King Solomon and all the people of Israel also celebrated the other festival that came at that time. People came from as far away as Lebo Hamath in the north. And they came from as far as the brook of Egypt in the south. A great many people were there. They ate, drank and rejoiced before the Lord for a total of 14 days. <sup>66</sup>On the following day Solomon sent the people home. So they blessed the king and went home. They were happy because of all the good things the Lord had done for his servant David and for his people, Israel.

The Lord Appears to Solomon Again

9 So Solomon finished building the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and his royal palace. Solomon finished building everything he wanted to build. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord appeared to him again. This was just as he had done before, in Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord said to him: "I have heard your prayer. I have heard what you asked me to do. You built this Temple. And I have made it a holy place. So I will be worshiped there forever. I will watch over it and protect it always.

<sup>4</sup>"But you must serve me as your father David did. He was fair and sincere. You must obey my laws and do everything I command. <sup>5</sup>If you do these things, I will allow your family to rule Israel forever. I made this promise to your father David. I told him that someone from his family would always be king over Israel.

<sup>6</sup>"But you and your children must follow me. You must obey the laws and commands I have given you. You must not go off to serve or worship other gods. <sup>7</sup>If you do, I will force Israel to leave the land I have given them. I made the Temple holy for people to worship me there. But if you don't obey me, I will tear it down. Then Israel will become a bad example, a joke, to other people. <sup>8</sup>If the Temple is destroyed, everyone who sees it will be shocked. They will make fun of you and ask, 'Why did the Lord do this? Why did he do this terrible thing to this land and this Temple?' <sup>9</sup>Other people will answer, 'This happened because they left the Lord their God. He brought their ancestors out of Egypt. But they decided to follow other gods. They worshiped and served those gods. That is why the Lord brought all this disaster to them.'"

Solomon's Other Activities

<sup>10</sup>By the end of 20 years, King Solomon had built the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he had built the royal palace. <sup>11</sup>At that time King Solomon gave 20 towns in Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre. Solomon did this because Hiram had helped with the buildings. Hiram had given him all the cedar, pine and gold he wanted. <sup>12</sup>So Hiram traveled from Tyre to see the towns Solomon had given him. When Hiram saw them, he was not pleased. <sup>13</sup>He asked, "What are these towns you have given me, my brother?" So he named that land the Land of Cabul. <sup>n</sup> And it is still called that today. <sup>14</sup>Hiram had sent to King Solomon about 9,000 pounds of gold.

<sup>15</sup>King Solomon had forced slaves to build the Temple and the palace. Then he had them fill in the land on the east side of the city. And he had them build the wall around Jerusalem. He also had them rebuild the cities of Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer. <sup>16</sup>(In the past the king of Egypt had attacked Gezer and captured it. He had burned it and killed the Canaanites who lived there. Then he gave it to his daughter as a wedding present. His daughter married Solomon. <sup>17</sup>So Solomon rebuilt it.) He also built the cities of Lower Beth Horon, <sup>18</sup>Baalath and Tadmor, which is in the Judean desert. <sup>19</sup>King Solomon also built cities where he could store grain and supplies. And he built cities for his chariots and chariot soldiers. Solomon built whatever he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon and everywhere he ruled.

<sup>20</sup>There were people in the land who were not Israelites. There were some Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. <sup>21</sup>The Israelites had not been able to destroy them from the land. So Solomon forced them to work for him as slaves. And they are still slaves today. <sup>22</sup>But Solomon did not force any Israelites to be his slaves. The Israelites were his soldiers, government leaders, officers, captains and chariot commanders and drivers.

<sup>23</sup>There were 550 supervisors over Solomon's projects. They were supervisors over the men who did the work.

<sup>24</sup>The daughter of the king of Egypt moved from the old part of Jerusalem to the palace. This was the palace Solomon had built for her. Then Solomon filled in the land on the east side of the city.

<sup>25</sup>Three times each year Solomon offered whole burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. This is the altar he had built for the Lord. Solomon also burned incense<sup>d</sup> before the Lord. So he finished the work on the Temple.

<sup>26</sup>Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber. This town is near Elath. It is on the shore of the Gulf of Aqaba, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>King Hiram had sailors who knew much about the sea. So he sent them to serve in Solomon's ships with Solomon's men. <sup>28</sup>Solomon's ships sailed to Ophir. From there they brought back about 32,000 pounds of gold to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

10 Now the queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame. So she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup>She traveled to Jerusalem with a very large group of servants. There were many camels carrying spices, jewels and much gold. She came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had in mind. <sup>3</sup>Solomon answered all her questions. Nothing was too hard for him to explain to her. <sup>4</sup>The queen of Sheba learned that Solomon was very wise. She saw the palace he had built. <sup>5</sup>She saw his many officers and the food on his table. She saw the palace servants and their good clothes. She was shown the servants who served him at feasts. And she was shown the whole burnt offerings he made in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. All these things amazed her.

<sup>6</sup>So she said to King Solomon, "I heard in my own country about your achievements and wisdom. And all of it is true. <sup>7</sup>I could not believe it then. But now I have come and seen it with my own eyes. I was not told even half of it! Your wisdom and wealth are much greater than I had heard. <sup>8</sup>Your men and officers are very lucky! In always serving you, they are able to hear your wisdom! <sup>9</sup>Praise the Lord your God! He was pleased to make you king of Israel. The Lord has constant love for Israel. So he made you king to keep justice and to rule fairly."

<sup>10</sup>Then the queen of Sheba gave the king about 9,000 pounds of gold. She also gave him many spices and jewels. No one since that time has brought more spices into Israel than the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>(Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir. They also brought from there very much juniper wood and jewels. <sup>12</sup>Solomon used the juniper wood to build supports for the Temple of the Lord and the palace. He also used it to make harps and lyres<sup>d</sup> for the musicians. Such fine juniper wood has not been brought in or seen since that time.)

<sup>13</sup>King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba many gifts. He gave her gifts that a king would give to another ruler. Then he gave her whatever else she wanted and asked for. After this, she and her servants went back to her own country.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup>Every year King Solomon received about 50,000 pounds of gold. <sup>15</sup>Besides that he also received gold from the traders and merchants. And he received gold from the kings of Arabia and governors of the land.

<sup>16</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about seven and one-half pounds of gold. <sup>17</sup>He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold. They each contained about three and three-fourths pounds of gold. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup>Then King Solomon built a large throne of ivory. And he covered it with pure gold. <sup>19</sup>There were six steps leading up to the throne. The back of the throne was round at the top. There were armrests on both sides of the chair.

And beside each armrest was a statue of a lion. <sup>20</sup>Twelve lions stood on the six steps. There was one lion at each end of each step. Nothing like this had ever been made for any other kingdom. <sup>21</sup>All of Solomon's drinking cups were made of gold. All of the dishes in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made from silver. In Solomon's time people did not think silver was valuable.

<sup>22</sup>King Solomon also had many trading ships at sea, along with Hiram's ships. Every three years the ships returned. They brought back gold, silver, ivory, apes and baboons.

<sup>23</sup>So Solomon had more riches and wisdom than all the other kings on earth. <sup>24</sup>People everywhere wanted to see King Solomon. They wanted to hear the wisdom God had given him. <sup>25</sup>Every year everyone who came brought a gift. They brought things made of gold and silver, along with clothes, weapons, spices, horses and mules.

<sup>26</sup>So Solomon had many chariots and horses. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 chariot soldiers. He kept some in special cities for the chariots. And he kept some with him in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>In Jerusalem silver was as common as stones while Solomon was king. Cedar trees were as common as the fig trees growing on the mountain slopes. <sup>28</sup>Solomon brought in horses from Egypt and Kue. His traders bought them in Kue and brought them to Israel. <sup>29</sup>A chariot from Egypt cost about 15 pounds of silver. And a horse cost about 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> pounds of silver. The traders also sold horses and chariots to the kings of the Hittites and the Arameans.

Solomon's Many Wives

11 But King Solomon loved many women who were not from Israel. He loved the daughter of the king of Egypt. He also loved women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. <sup>2</sup>The Lord had told the Israelites, "You must not marry people of other nations. If you do, they will cause you to follow their gods." But Solomon fell in love with these women. <sup>3</sup>He had 700 wives who were from royal families. He also had 300 slave women<sup>d</sup> who gave birth to his children. His wives caused him to turn away from God. <sup>4</sup>As Solomon grew old, his wives caused him to follow other gods. He did not follow the Lord completely as his father David had done. <sup>5</sup>Solomon worshiped Ashtoreth,<sup>d</sup> the goddess of the people of Sidon. And he worshiped Molech,<sup>d</sup> the hated god of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup>So Solomon did what the Lord said was wrong. He did not follow the Lord completely as his father David had done.

<sup>7</sup>On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built two places for worship. He built a place to worship Chemosh,<sup>d</sup> the hated god of the Moabites. And he built a place to worship Molech, the hated god of the Ammonites. <sup>8</sup>Solomon did the same thing for all of his foreign wives. So they burned incense<sup>d</sup> and gave sacrifices to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord had appeared to Solomon twice. But Solomon turned away from following the Lord, the God of Israel. So the Lord was angry with him. <sup>10</sup>The Lord had commanded Solomon not to follow other gods. But Solomon did not obey the Lord's command. <sup>11</sup>So the Lord said to Solomon, "You have chosen to break your agreement with me. You have not obeyed my commands. So I promise I will tear your kingdom away from you. I will give it to one of your officers. <sup>12</sup>But I will not take it away while you are alive. This is because of my love for your father David. I will tear it away from your son when he becomes king. <sup>13</sup>But I will not tear away all the kingdom from him. I will leave him one tribe<sup>d</sup> to rule. I will do this because of David, my servant. And I will do it because of Jerusalem, the city I have chosen."

Solomon's Enemies

<sup>14</sup>Now Hadad was a member of the family of the king of Edom. And the Lord caused Hadad the Edomite to become Solomon's enemy. <sup>15</sup>Earlier, David had defeated Edom. Joab, the commander of David's army, went into Edom to bury the dead. While he was there, he killed all the males. <sup>16</sup>Joab and all the Israelites stayed in Edom for six months. During that time they killed every male in Edom. <sup>17</sup>But at that time Hadad was only a young boy. So he ran away to Egypt with some of his father's officers. <sup>18</sup>They left Midian and went to Paran. In Paran other men joined them. Then they all went to Egypt to see the king. He gave Hadad a house, some land and food to eat.

<sup>19</sup>The king liked Hadad so much he gave Hadad a wife. She was the sister of Tahpenes, the king's wife. <sup>20</sup>They had a son named Genubath. Queen Tahpenes allowed him to grow up in the royal palace. So he grew up with the king's own children.

<sup>21</sup>While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David had died. He also heard that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead. So Hadad said to the king, "Let me go home. Let me return to my own country."

<sup>22</sup>But the king said, "Why do you want to go back to your own country? What haven't I given you here?"

Hadad answered, "Nothing. But please, let me go."

<sup>23</sup>God also caused another man to be an enemy to Solomon. This man was Rezon son of Eliada. Rezon had run away from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup>After David defeated the army of Zobah, Rezon gathered some men. He became the leader of a small army. They went to Damascus and settled there. And Rezon became king of Damascus. <sup>25</sup>Rezon ruled Aram, and he hated Israel. So he was an enemy of Israel all the time Solomon was alive. Rezon and Hadad caused some trouble for Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat was one of Solomon's officers. Jeroboam was one of the Ephraimite people. He was from the town of Zeredah. His mother was a widow named Zeruah. He turned against the king.

<sup>27</sup>This is the story of how Jeroboam turned against the king. Solomon was filling in the land on the east side of Jerusalem. He was also repairing the wall of Jerusalem. It was the city of David, his ancestor. <sup>28</sup>Jeroboam was a capable man. Solomon saw that this young man was a good worker. So Solomon put him over all the workers from the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Ephraim and Manasseh.

<sup>29</sup>One day Jeroboam was leaving Jerusalem. Ahijah, the prophet<sup>d</sup> from Shiloh, met him on the road. Ahijah was wearing a new coat. The two men were alone out in the country. <sup>30</sup>Ahijah took his new coat and tore it into 12 pieces. <sup>31</sup>Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take 10 pieces of this coat for yourself. The Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I will tear the kingdom away from Solomon. Then I will give you 10 tribes. <sup>32</sup>But I will allow the family of David to control 1 tribe. I will do this for my servant David and for Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the city I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel. <sup>33</sup>I will do this because Solomon has stopped following me. He worships the Sidonian god Ashtoreth<sup>d</sup> and the Moabite god Chemosh.<sup>d</sup> He also worships Molech,<sup>d</sup> the Ammonite god. Solomon has not obeyed me. He has not done what I said is right. He has not obeyed my laws and commands. He is not living the way his father David lived.

<sup>34</sup>"But I will not take all the kingdom away from Solomon. I will let him rule all his life. I will do this because of my servant David. I chose David, and he obeyed all my commands and laws. <sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom away from his son. Jeroboam, I will allow you to rule over the 10 tribes. <sup>36</sup>I will allow Solomon's son to continue to rule over 1 tribe. I will do this so that David, my servant, will always have a king before me in Jerusalem. It is the city where I chose to be worshiped. <sup>37</sup>But I will make you rule over everything you want. You will rule over all of Israel. <sup>38</sup>I will always be with you if you do what I say is right. You must obey all my commands. If you obey my laws and commands as David did, I will be with you. I will make your family a family of kings, as I did for David. I will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup>I will punish David's children because of this. But I will not punish them forever.' "

Solomon's Death

<sup>40</sup>Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam ran away to Egypt. He went to Shishak king of Egypt. And Jeroboam stayed there until Solomon died.

<sup>41</sup>Everything else Solomon did is written down. He showed much wisdom. It is written in the book of the history of Solomon. <sup>42</sup>Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. <sup>43</sup>Then he died and was buried in Jerusalem, the city of David, his father. And his son Rehoboam became king after him.

Israel Turns Against Rehoboam

12 Rehoboam went to Shechem because all the Israelites had gone there to make him king. <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat was still in Egypt. He had gone there to escape from Solomon. When Jeroboam heard about Rehoboam being made king, Jeroboam returned from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>So the people sent for him. Then he and the people went to Rehoboam. They said to Rehoboam, <sup>4</sup>"Your father forced us to work very hard. Now, make it easier for us. Don't make us work as hard as your father did. Then we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup>Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days. Then I will answer you." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup>Some of the older leaders had helped Solomon make decisions during his lifetime. So King Rehoboam asked them what he should do. He said, "How do you think I should answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup>They answered, "You should be like a servant to them today. Serve them, and give them a kind answer. If you do, they will serve you always."

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam did not listen to this advice. He asked the young men who had grown up with him. They advised him in making decisions. <sup>9</sup>Rehoboam said, "The people said,

'Don't make us work as hard as your father did.' How do you think I should answer them? What is your advice?"

<sup>10</sup>The young men answered, "Those people came to you and said, 'Your father forced us to work very hard. Now make our work easier.' So you should tell them, 'My little finger is bigger than my father's whole body. <sup>11</sup>My father forced you to work hard. But I will make you work even harder! My father beat you with whips. But I will beat you with whips that have sharp points.' "

<sup>12</sup>Rehoboam had told the people, "Come back to me in three days." So after three days all the people returned to Rehoboam. <sup>13</sup>At that time King Rehoboam spoke cruel words to them. He did not listen to the advice that the older leaders had given him. <sup>14</sup>He did what the young men had told him to do. Rehoboam said, "My father forced you to work hard. So I will give you even more work. My father beat you with whips. But I will beat you with whips that have sharp points." <sup>15</sup>So the king did not do what the people wanted. The Lord caused this to happen. He did this to keep the promise he had made to Jeroboam son of Nebat. He had made this promise through Ahijah, the prophet<sup>d</sup> from Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup>All the people of Israel saw that the new king refused to listen to them. So they said to the king,

"We have no share in David!

We have no part in the son of Jesse!

People of Israel, let's go to our own homes!

Let David's son rule his own people!"

So the Israelites went home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Adoniram was in charge of the people who were forced to work. King Rehoboam sent him to the people. But they threw stones at him until he died. But King Rehoboam ran to his chariot and escaped to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Since then, Israel has been against the family of David.

<sup>20</sup>All the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned. So they called him to a meeting. And they made him king over all Israel. But the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah continued to follow the family of David.

<sup>21</sup>When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he gathered the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. This was an army of 180,000 men. Rehoboam wanted to fight against the people of Israel. He wanted to take back his kingdom.

<sup>22</sup>But God spoke his word to Shemaiah, a man of God. The Lord said, <sup>23</sup>"Talk to Solomon's son Rehoboam, the king of Judah. Talk also to all the people of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people. <sup>24</sup>Say to them, 'The Lord says you must not go to war against your brothers, the Israelites. Every one of you should go home. I made all these things happen!' " So the men in Rehoboam's army obeyed the Lord's command. They all went home as the Lord had commanded.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jeroboam made Shechem a very strong city. It is in the mountains of Ephraim. And Jeroboam lived there. He also went to the city of Peniel and made it stronger.

Jeroboam Builds Golden Calves

<sup>26</sup>Jeroboam said to himself, "The kingdom will probably go back to David's family. <sup>27</sup>The people will continue going to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord in Jerusalem. If they do, they will want to be ruled again by Rehoboam. Then they will kill me and follow Rehoboam king of Judah.

<sup>28</sup>King Jeroboam asked his men for advice. So he made two golden calves. He said to the people, "It is too hard for you to go to Jerusalem to worship. Israel, here are your gods who brought you out of Egypt." <sup>29</sup>King Jeroboam put one golden calf in the city of Bethel. And he put the other in the city of Dan. <sup>30</sup>And this became a very great sin. The people traveled as far as Dan to worship the calf there.

<sup>31</sup>Jeroboam built temples on the places of worship. He chose priests from all the people. (He did not choose priests only from the tribe of Levi.) <sup>32</sup>And he started a new festival. It was the fifteenth day of the eighth month. This was like the festival in Judah. During that time the king offered sacrifices on the altar. He offered sacrifices to the calves in Bethel he had made. He also chose priests in Bethel to serve at the places of worship he had made. <sup>33</sup>So Jeroboam chose his own time for a festival for the Israelites. It was the fifteenth day of the eighth month. During that time he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built in Bethel. So he set up a festival for the Israelites. And he offered sacrifices on the altar.

The Man of God Speaks Against Bethel

13 The Lord commanded a man of God from Judah to go to Bethel. When he arrived, Jeroboam was standing by the altar to offer a sacrifice. <sup>2</sup>The Lord had commanded the man of God to speak against the altar. The man said, "Altar, the Lord says to you: 'David's family will have a son named Josiah. He will kill the priests of the places of worship. They now make their sacrifices on you. But Josiah will sacrifice those priests on you. Human bones will be burned on you.'" <sup>3</sup>The man of God gave proof that these things would happen. He said, "This is God's sign that this will happen. This altar will break apart. And the ashes on it will fall onto the ground."

<sup>4</sup>King Jeroboam heard what the man of God said about the altar in Bethel. So Jeroboam raised his hand from the altar and pointed at the man. "Capture him!" he said. But when the king said this, his arm became paralyzed. He could not move it. <sup>5</sup>Also, the altar broke into pieces. All its ashes fell onto the ground. This was the sign the Lord had told the man of God to give.

<sup>6</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, "Please pray to the Lord your God for me. Ask him to heal my arm."

So the man of God prayed to the Lord. And the king's arm was healed. It became as it was before.

<sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, "Please come home and eat with me. I will give you a gift."

<sup>8</sup>But the man of God answered the king, "I will not go home with you! Even if you gave me half of your kingdom, I would not go! I will not eat or drink anything in this place. <sup>9</sup>The Lord commanded me not to eat or drink anything. He also commanded me not to return on the same road by which I came." <sup>10</sup>So he traveled on a different road. He did not return on the same road by which he had come to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>Now there was an old prophet<sup>d</sup> living in Bethel. His sons came and told him what the man of God had done there that day. They told their father what he had said to King Jeroboam. <sup>12</sup>The father asked, "Which road did he use when he left?" So his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken. <sup>13</sup>The prophet told his sons to put a saddle on his donkey. So they saddled the donkey, and he left.

<sup>14</sup>He went after the man of God. He found the man sitting under an oak tree. The prophet asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

The man answered, "Yes, I am."

<sup>15</sup>So the prophet said, "Please come home and eat with me."

<sup>16</sup>But the man of God answered, "I can't go home with you. I can't eat or drink with you in this place. <sup>17</sup>The Lord said to me, 'You must not eat or drink anything there. And you must not return on the same road by which you came.' "

<sup>18</sup>Then the old prophet said, "But I also am a prophet like you." Then he told a lie. He said, "An angel from the Lord came to me. He told me to bring you to my home. He said you should eat and drink with me." <sup>19</sup>So the man of God went to the old prophet's house. And he ate and drank with him there.

<sup>20</sup>While they were sitting at the table, the Lord spoke his word to the old prophet. <sup>21</sup>The old prophet cried out to the man of God from Judah. He said, "The Lord said you did not obey him! He said you did not do what the Lord your God commanded you. <sup>22</sup>The Lord commanded you not to eat or drink anything in this place. But you came back and ate and drank. So your body will not be buried in your family grave."

<sup>26</sup>The old prophet who had brought the man of God back heard about what had happened. He said, "It is the man of God who did not obey the Lord's command. So the Lord sent a lion to kill him. The Lord said he would do this."

<sup>27</sup>Then the prophet said to his sons, "Put a saddle on my donkey." So they did. <sup>28</sup>The old prophet went out and found the body lying on the road. The donkey and the lion were still standing near it. The lion had not eaten the body. And it had not hurt the donkey. <sup>29</sup>So the prophet put the body on his donkey. And he carried it back to the city. There he would have a time of sadness for him and bury him. <sup>30</sup>The prophet buried the body in his own family grave. And he was sad for the man of God. He said, "Oh, my brother."

<sup>31</sup>So the prophet buried the body. Then he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in this same grave. Put my bones next to his.

<sup>32</sup>Through him the Lord spoke against the altar at Bethel. And he spoke against the places of worship in the towns of Samaria. And what the Lord spoke through him will certainly come true."

<sup>33</sup>But King Jeroboam did not stop doing evil things. He continued to choose priests for the places of worship from all the people. Anyone who wanted to be a priest for the places of worship was allowed. <sup>34</sup>In this way the kingdom of Jeroboam sinned. And that sin caused its ruin and destruction from the earth.

Jeroboam's Son Dies

14 At that time Jeroboam's son Abijah became very sick. <sup>2</sup>So Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go to Shiloh. Go to see the prophet<sup>a</sup> Ahijah. He is the one who said I would become king of Israel. But dress yourself so people won't know you are my wife. <sup>3</sup>Give the prophet ten loaves of bread, some cakes and a jar of honey. Then ask him what will happen to our son. And he will tell you." <sup>4</sup>So the king's wife did as he said. She went to Ahijah's home in Shiloh.

Now Ahijah was very old and had become blind. <sup>5</sup>But the Lord had said to him, "Jeroboam's son is sick. So Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about him. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else." Then the Lord told Ahijah what to say.

<sup>6</sup>When Ahijah heard her walking to the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have bad news for you. <sup>7</sup>Go back and tell Jeroboam that this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Jeroboam, I chose you from among all the people of Israel. I made you the leader of my people. <sup>8</sup>I took the kingdom away from David's family. And I gave it to you. But you are not like my servant David. He always obeyed my commands. He followed me with all his heart. He did only the things I said were right. <sup>9</sup>But you have done more evil things than anyone who ruled before you. You have quit following me. You have made other gods and idols of metal. This has made me very angry. <sup>10</sup>So I will bring disaster to the family of Jeroboam. I will kill all of the men in your family, both slaves and free men. I will destroy your family as completely as fire burns up manure. <sup>11</sup>Anyone from your family who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. And anyone from your family who dies in the fields will be eaten by the birds. The Lord has spoken!'"

<sup>12</sup>Then Ahijah said to Jeroboam's wife, "Now go home. When you enter your city gate, your son will die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel will be sad for him and bury him. He will be the only one of Jeroboam's family who will be buried. This is because he is the only one in Jeroboam's family who pleased the Lord, the God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord will put a new king over Israel. That king will destroy Jeroboam's family. This will happen soon. <sup>15</sup>Then the Lord will punish Israel. The people of Israel will be like grass moving in the water. The Lord will pull up Israel from this good land. This is the land he gave their ancestors. But he will scatter Israel beyond the Euphrates River. This will happen because the Lord is angry with the people. They made him angry when they made idols to worship Asherah.<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>Jeroboam sinned, and then he made the people of Israel sin. So the Lord will let the people of Israel be defeated.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeroboam's wife traveled back to Tirzah. When she entered her home, the boy died. <sup>18</sup>They buried him. And all Israel had a time of sadness for him. This happened as the Lord said it would. The Lord had said these things through his servant, the prophet Ahijah.

<sup>19</sup>Everything else Jeroboam did is written down. He fought wars and continued to rule the people. It is all written in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam ruled as king for 22 years. Then he died, and his son Nadab became king in his place.

The Death of Rehoboam

<sup>21</sup>Solomon's son Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king of Judah. His mother was Naamah from the land of Ammon. Rehoboam ruled in Jerusalem for 17 years. (The Lord had chosen that city from all the land of Israel. He chose to be worshiped there.)

<sup>22</sup>The people of Judah did what the Lord said was wrong. The people's sins made the Lord very angry at them. They made the Lord even more angry than their ancestors had done. <sup>23</sup>The people built stone pillars and places to worship false gods and Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. They built them on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup>There were even male prostitutes<sup>d</sup> at the places of worship to the gods. The people who had lived in the land before the Israelites had done many evil things. And God had taken the land away from them. Now the people of Judah were doing the same evil things.

<sup>29</sup>Everything else King Rehoboam did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>30</sup>Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always fighting a war with each other. <sup>31</sup>Rehoboam died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. His mother was Naamah from Ammon. And Rehoboam's son Abijah became king in his place.

Abijah King of Judah

15 Abijah became king of Judah. This was during the eighteenth year Jeroboam son of Nebat ruled Israel. <sup>2</sup>And Abijah ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother was Maacah daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup>He did all the same sins his father before him had done. Abijah was not faithful to the Lord his God. In this way he was not like David, his great-grandfather. <sup>4</sup>Because the Lord had loved David, the Lord gave Abijah a kingdom in Jerusalem. And the Lord allowed him to have a son to be king after him. The Lord also kept Jerusalem safe. <sup>5</sup>David had always done what the Lord said was right. All his life he had always obeyed the Lord's commands. There was only one time David did not obey the Lord. This was when he sinned against Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup>Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam during Abijah's lifetime. <sup>7</sup>Everything else Abijah did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. During the time Abijah ruled, there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup>And Abijah died and was buried in Jerusalem. Abijah's son Asa became king in his place.

Asa King of Judah

<sup>9</sup>During the twentieth year Jeroboam was king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah. <sup>10</sup>Asa ruled in Jerusalem for 41 years. His grandmother's name was Maacah. She was the daughter of Abishalom.

<sup>11</sup>Asa did what the Lord said was right. This was as his ancestor David had done. <sup>12</sup>There were male prostitutes<sup>d</sup> at the places where false gods were worshiped. Asa forced them to leave the country. He also took away the idols that his ancestors had made. <sup>13</sup>His grandmother Maacah had made a terrible Asherah<sup>d</sup> idol. So Asa removed her from being queen. He cut down this idol and burned it in the Kidron Valley. <sup>14</sup>Asa was faithful to the Lord all his life. But he did not destroy the places where false gods were worshiped. <sup>15</sup>Asa and his father had given some things to God. They had given gifts of gold, silver and other objects. Asa put all these things in the Temple.<sup>d</sup>

He wanted to stop people from leaving or entering Asa's country, Judah. So he made the city of Ramah very strong.

<sup>18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and gold from the treasuries of the Temple of the Lord and his own palace. He gave it to his officers. And he sent them to Ben-Hadad king of Aram. (Ben-Hadad was the son of Tabrimmon. And he was the son of Hezion.) Ben-Hadad was ruling in the city of Damascus. <sup>19</sup>Asa sent this message: "My father and your father had a peace agreement. I am sending you a gift of gold and silver. Break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will leave my land."

<sup>20</sup>Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa. So he sent his army to fight against the towns of Israel. He defeated the towns of Ijon, Dan and Abel Bethmaacah. And he defeated all the land near Lake Galilee and the area of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup>Baasha heard about these attacks. So he stopped building up Ramah and returned to Tirzah. <sup>22</sup>Then King Asa gave an order to all the people of Judah. Everyone had to help. They carried away all the stones and wood Baasha had been using in Ramah. King Asa used those things to build up Geba and Mizpah. (Geba was in the land of Benjamin.)

<sup>23</sup>Everything else Asa did is written down. His victories and the cities he built are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. When he became old, he got a disease in his feet. <sup>24</sup>Then Asa died. And he was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. It was the city of David, his ancestor. Then Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became king in his place.

Nadab King of Israel

<sup>25</sup>Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel. This was during the second year Asa was king of Judah. And Nadab was king of Israel for two years. <sup>26</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to sin. Nadab sinned in the same way his father Jeroboam had sinned.

<sup>27</sup>Baasha son of Ahijah was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Issachar. He made plans to kill Nadab. Nadab and all Israel were attacking the Philistine town of Gibeon. So Baasha killed Nadab there. <sup>28</sup>This happened during Asa's third year as king of Judah. And Baasha became the next king of Israel.

Baasha King of Israel

<sup>29</sup>As soon as Baasha became king, he killed all of Jeroboam's family. He left no one in Jeroboam's family alive. This happened as the Lord had said it would. The Lord had said this through his servant Ahijah from Shiloh. <sup>30</sup>This happened because King Jeroboam had sinned very much. And he had caused the people of Israel to sin. Jeroboam had made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry.

<sup>31</sup>Everything else Nadab did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>32</sup>There was war between Asa king of Judah and Baasha king of Israel all the time they were kings.

<sup>33</sup>Baasha son of Ahijah became king of Israel. This was during Asa's third year as king of Judah. And Baasha ruled in Tirzah for 24 years. <sup>34</sup>But Baasha did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to sin. And Baasha sinned in the same way Jeroboam had sinned.

16 Then Jehu son of Hanani spoke the word of the Lord against King Baasha. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said, "You were nothing. Then I took you and made you a leader over my people Israel. But you have followed the ways of Jeroboam. You have caused my people Israel to sin. Their sins have made me angry. <sup>3</sup>So, Baasha, I will destroy you and your family. I will do to you what I did to the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>Anyone from your family who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. And anyone from your family who dies in the fields will be eaten by birds."

<sup>5</sup>Everything else Baasha did and all his victories are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>6</sup>So Baasha died and was buried in Tirzah. His son Elah became king in his place.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord spoke his word through the prophet<sup>d</sup> Jehu son of Hanani. The Lord's message was against Baasha and his family. Baasha had done many things the Lord said were wrong. This made the Lord very angry. Baasha did the same things that Jeroboam's family had done before him. The Lord was also angry because Baasha killed all of Jeroboam's family.

Elah King of Israel

<sup>8</sup>Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel. This was during Asa's twenty-sixth year as king of Judah. And Elah ruled in Tirzah for two years.

<sup>9</sup>Zimri was one of Elah's officers. He commanded half of Elah's chariots. But Zimri made plans against Elah.

Elah was in Tirzah, getting drunk at Arza's home. (Arza was the man in charge of the palace at Tirzah.) <sup>10</sup>So Zimri went into Arza's house and killed Elah. This was during Asa's twenty-seventh year as king of Judah. Then Zimri became king of Israel in Elah's place.

Zimri King of Israel

<sup>11</sup>As soon as Zimri became king, he killed all of Baasha's family. He did not let any man of Baasha's family or friends live. <sup>12</sup>So Zimri destroyed all of Baasha's family. This happened as the Lord had said it would. The Lord had spoken this against Baasha through the prophet<sup>d</sup> Jehu. <sup>13</sup>This happened because of all the sins of Baasha and his son Elah. They sinned and caused the people of Israel to sin. They also made the Lord, the God of Israel, angry because they had made worthless idols.

<sup>14</sup>Everything else Elah did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>So Zimri became king of Israel. This was during Asa's twenty-seventh year as king of Judah. Zimri ruled in Tirzah seven days. This is what happened:

The army of Israel was camped near Gibbethon, a Philistine town. <sup>16</sup>The men in the camp heard that Zimri had made secret plans against the king. And they heard that Zimri had killed him. So that day in the camp they made Omri king over Israel. (Omri was commander of the army.) <sup>17</sup>So Omri and all the Israelites left Gibbethon and attacked Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>Zimri saw that the city had been captured. So he went into the palace and set it on fire. He burned the palace and himself with it. <sup>19</sup>So Zimri died because he had sinned. He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to sin. And Zimri sinned in the same way Jeroboam had sinned.

<sup>20</sup>Everything else Zimri did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. The story of how Zimri turned against King Elah is also written there.

Omri King of Israel

<sup>21</sup>The people of Israel were divided into two groups. Half of the people wanted Tibni to be king. He was the son of Ginath. The other half of the people wanted Omri. <sup>22</sup>But Omri's followers were stronger than the followers of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king.

<sup>23</sup>Omri became king of Israel. This was during the thirty-first year Asa was king of Judah. And Omri ruled Israel for 12 years. Six of those years he ruled in the town of Tirzah. <sup>24</sup>Omri bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer. He paid about 150 pounds of silver for it. Omri built a city on that hill. And he called it Samaria after the name of its earlier owner, Shemer.

<sup>25</sup>But Omri did what the Lord said was wrong. He did more evil than all the kings who were before him. <sup>26</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused the people of Israel to sin. And Omri sinned in the same way Jeroboam had sinned. So the Israelites made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry. He was angry because they worshiped worthless idols.

<sup>27</sup>Everything else Omri did and all his successes are written down. They are all in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>28</sup>So Omri died and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab became king in his place.

Ahab King of Israel

<sup>29</sup>So Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel. This was during Asa's thirty-eighth year as king of Judah. Ahab ruled Israel in the town of Samaria for 22 years. <sup>30</sup>Ahab did many things that the Lord said were wrong. He did more evil than any of the kings before him. <sup>31</sup>He sinned in the same ways that Jeroboam son of Nebat had sinned. But he did even worse things. He married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal. (Ethbaal was king of the city of Sidon.) Then Ahab began to serve Baal<sup>d</sup> and worship him. <sup>32</sup>He built a temple in Samaria for worshiping Baal. And he put an altar there for Baal. <sup>33</sup>Ahab also made an idol for worshiping Asherah.<sup>d</sup> He did more things to make the Lord, the God of Israel, angry than all the other kings before him.

<sup>34</sup>During the time of Ahab, Hiel from Bethel rebuilt the town of Jericho. It cost Hiel the life of Abiram, his oldest son, to begin work on the city. And it cost the life of Segub, his youngest son, to build the city gates. The Lord had said, through Joshua, that this would happen.<sup>a</sup> (Joshua was the son of Nun.)

Elijah Stops the Rain

17 Now Elijah was a prophet<sup>d</sup> from the town of Tishbe in Gilead. Elijah said to King Ahab, "I serve the Lord, the God of Israel. As surely as the Lord lives, I tell you the truth. No rain or dew will fall during the next few years unless I command it."

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Elijah: <sup>3</sup>"Leave this place. Go east and hide near Kerith Ravine. It is east of the Jordan River. <sup>4</sup>You may drink from the brook. And I have commanded ravens to bring you food there.”<sup>5</sup> So Elijah did what the Lord told him to do. He went to Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and lived there.<sup>6</sup> The birds brought Elijah bread and meat every morning and every evening. And he drank water from the brook.

<sup>7</sup>After a while the brook dried up because there was no rain.<sup>8</sup> Then the Lord spoke his word to Elijah,<sup>9</sup> “Go to Zarephath in Sidon. Live there. I have commanded a widow there to take care of you.”

<sup>10</sup>So Elijah went to Zarephath. When he reached the town gate, he saw a widow there. She was gathering wood for a fire. Elijah asked her, “Would you bring me a little water in a cup? I would like to have a drink.”<sup>11</sup> As she was going to get his water, Elijah said, “Please bring me a piece of bread, too.”

<sup>12</sup>The woman answered, “As surely as the Lord your God lives, I tell you the truth. I have no bread. I have only a handful of flour in a jar. And I have only a little olive oil in a jug. I came here to gather some wood. I will take it home and cook our last meal. My son and I will eat it and then die from hunger.”

<sup>13</sup>Elijah said to her, “Don’t worry. Go home and cook your food as you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread from the flour you have. Bring it to me. Then cook something for yourself and your son.”<sup>14</sup> The Lord, the God of Israel, says, “That jar of flour will never become empty. The jug will always have oil in it. This will continue until the day the Lord sends rain to the land.”

<sup>15</sup>So the woman went home. And she did what Elijah told her to do. So Elijah, the woman and her son had enough food every day.

<sup>16</sup>The jar of flour and the jug of oil were never empty. This happened just as the Lord, through Elijah, said it would.

Elijah Brings a Boy Back to Life

<sup>17</sup>Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. He grew worse and worse. Finally he stopped breathing.<sup>18</sup> So the woman said to Elijah, “You are a man of God. What have you done to me? Did you come here to remind me of my sin? Did you come here to kill my son?”

<sup>19</sup>Elijah said to her, “Give me your son.” So Elijah took the boy from her and carried him upstairs. Elijah laid the boy on the bed in the room where he was staying.<sup>20</sup> Then he prayed to the Lord. He said, “Lord my God, this widow is letting me stay in her house. Why have you done this terrible thing to her? Why have you caused her son to die?”<sup>21</sup> Then Elijah lay on top of the boy three times. Elijah prayed to the Lord, “Lord my God, let this boy live again!”

<sup>22</sup>The Lord answered Elijah’s prayer. The boy began breathing again, and he was alive.<sup>23</sup> Elijah carried the boy downstairs. He gave the boy to his mother and said, “See! Your son is alive!”

<sup>24</sup>The woman said to Elijah, “Now I know you really are a man from God. I know that the Lord truly speaks through you!”

Elijah Kills the Prophets of Baal

18 During the third year without rain, the Lord spoke his word to Elijah. The Lord said, “Go and meet King Ahab. I will soon send rain.”<sup>2</sup> So Elijah went to meet Ahab.

By this time there was no food in Samaria.<sup>3</sup> So King Ahab sent for Obadiah. Obadiah was in charge of the king’s palace. (Obadiah was a true follower of the Lord.<sup>4</sup> One time Jezebel was killing all the Lord’s prophets.<sup>5</sup> So Obadiah took 100 of them and hid them in two caves. He put 50 in one cave and 50 in another cave. And he brought them food and water.)<sup>6</sup> King Ahab said to Obadiah, “Let’s look at every spring and valley in the land. Maybe we can find enough grass to keep our horses and mules alive. Then we will not have to kill our animals.”<sup>7</sup> So each one chose a part of the country to search. Ahab went in one direction. Obadiah went in another direction.

<sup>7</sup>While Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah knew who Elijah was. So he bowed down to the ground before Elijah. He said, “Elijah? Is it really you, master?”

<sup>9</sup>Then Obadiah said, “If I tell Ahab that, he will kill me! I have done nothing wrong that I should be killed!<sup>10</sup> As surely as the Lord your God lives, the king has looked everywhere for you! He has sent people to every country to look for you. If the ruler said you were not there, that was not enough. Ahab then forced the ruler to swear you could not be found in his country.<sup>11</sup> Now you want me to go to my master and tell him, ‘Elijah is here?’<sup>12</sup> The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord may carry you to some other place after I leave. If I go tell King Ahab you are here, he will come. If he doesn’t find you, he will kill me! I have followed the Lord since I was a boy.<sup>13</sup> Haven’t you heard what I did? When Jezebel was killing the Lord’s prophets, I hid 100 of them. I put 50 prophets in one cave and 50 prophets in another cave. I brought them food and water. <sup>14</sup>Now you want me to go and tell the king you are here. He will kill me!"

<sup>15</sup>Elijah answered, "I serve the Lord of heaven's armies. As surely as the Lord lives, I will stand before Ahab today."

<sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to Ahab and told him where Elijah was. Then Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>When he saw Elijah, he said, "Is it you—the biggest troublemaker in Israel?"

<sup>18</sup>Elijah answered, "I have not caused trouble in Israel. You and your father's family have caused all this trouble. You have not obeyed the Lord's commands. You have followed the Baals." <sup>19</sup>Now tell all Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel. Also bring the 450 prophets of Baal there. And bring the 400 prophets of Asherah,<sup>a</sup> who eat at Jezebel's table."

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab called all the Israelites and those prophets to Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup>Elijah stood before the people. He said, "How long will you try to serve both Baal and the Lord? If the Lord is the true God, follow him. But if Baal is the true God, follow him!"

But the people said nothing.

<sup>22</sup>Elijah said, "I am the only prophet of the Lord here. But there are 450 prophets of Baal.

<sup>23</sup>So bring two bulls. Let the prophets of Baal choose one bull. Let them kill it and cut it into pieces. Then let them put the meat on the wood. But they are not to set fire to it. Then I will do the same with the other bull. And I will put it on the wood. But I will not set fire to it. <sup>24</sup>You prophets of Baal, pray to your god. And I will pray to the Lord. The god who answers the prayer will set fire to his wood. He is the true God."

All the people agreed that this was a good idea.

<sup>25</sup>Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "There are many of you. So you go first. Choose a bull and prepare it. Pray to your god, but don't start the fire."

<sup>26</sup>So they took the bull that was given to them and prepared it. They prayed to Baal from morning until noon. They shouted, "Baal, answer us!" But there was no sound. No one answered. They danced around the altar they had built.

<sup>27</sup>At noon Elijah began to make fun of them. He said, "Pray louder! If Baal really is a god, maybe he is thinking. Or maybe he is busy or traveling! Maybe he is sleeping so you will have to wake him!" <sup>28</sup>So the prophets prayed louder. They cut themselves with swords and spears until their blood flowed. (This was the way they worshiped.) <sup>29</sup>The afternoon passed, and the prophets continued to act wildly. They continued until it was time for the evening sacrifice. But no voice was heard. Baal did not answer. No one paid attention.

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah said to all the people, "Now come to me." So they gathered around him. Elijah rebuilt the altar of the Lord because it had been torn down. <sup>31</sup>He took 12 stones. He took 1 stone for each of the 12 tribes.<sup>a</sup> These 12 tribes were named for the 12 sons of Jacob. (Jacob was the man the Lord had called Israel.) <sup>32</sup>Elijah used these stones to rebuild the altar in honor of the Lord. Then he dug a small ditch around it. It was big enough to hold about 13 quarts of seed. <sup>33</sup>Elijah put the wood on the altar. He cut the bull into pieces and laid them on the wood. Then he said, "Fill four jars with water. Put the water on the meat and on the wood."

<sup>34</sup>Then Elijah said, "Do it again." And they did it again.

Then he said, "Do it a third time." And they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup>So the water ran off of the altar and filled the ditch.

<sup>36</sup>It was time for the evening sacrifice. So the prophet Elijah went near the altar. He prayed, "Lord, you are the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. I ask you now to prove that you are the God of Israel. And prove that I am your servant. Show these people that you commanded me to do all these things. <sup>37</sup>Lord, answer my prayer. Show these people that you, Lord, are God. Then the people will know that you are bringing them back to you."

<sup>38</sup>Then fire from the Lord came down. It burned the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the ground around the altar. It also dried up the water in the ditch. <sup>39</sup>When all the people saw this, they fell down to the ground. They cried, "The Lord is God! The Lord is God!"

<sup>40</sup>Then Elijah said, "Capture the prophets of Baal! Don't let any of them run away!" So the people captured all the prophets. Then Elijah led them down to Kishon Valley. There he killed all the prophets.

The Rain Comes Again

<sup>41</sup>Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Now, go, eat and drink. A heavy rain is coming." <sup>42</sup>So King Ahab went to eat and drink. At the same time Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel. There he bent down to the ground with his head between his knees.

<sup>43</sup>Then Elijah said to his servant, "Go and look toward the sea."

The servant went and looked. He said, "I see nothing."

Elijah told him to go and look again. This happened seven times. <sup>44</sup>The seventh time, the servant said, "I see a small cloud. It's the size of a man's fist. It's coming from the sea."

Elijah told the servant, "Go to Ahab. Tell him to get his chariot ready and to go home now. If he doesn't leave now, the rain will stop him."

<sup>45</sup>After a short time the sky was covered with dark clouds. The wind began to blow. Then a heavy rain began to fall. Ahab got in his chariot and started back to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup>The Lord gave his power to Elijah. Elijah tightened his clothes around him. Then he ran ahead of King Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

Elijah Runs Away

19 King Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done. Ahab told her how Elijah had killed all the prophets<sup>d</sup> with a sword. <sup>2</sup>So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah. Jezebel said, "By this time tomorrow I will kill you. I will kill you as you killed those prophets. If I don't succeed, may the gods punish me terribly."

<sup>3</sup>When Elijah heard this, he was afraid. So he ran away to save his life. He took his servant with him. When they came to Beersheba in Judah, Elijah left his servant there. <sup>4</sup>Then Elijah walked for a whole day into the desert. He sat down under a bush and asked to die. Elijah prayed, "I have had enough, Lord. Let me die. I am no better than my ancestors." <sup>5</sup>Then Elijah lay down under the tree and slept.

Suddenly an angel came to him and touched him. The angel said, "Get up and eat." <sup>6</sup>Elijah saw near his head a loaf baked over coals and a jar of water. So he ate and drank. Then he went back to sleep.

<sup>7</sup>Later the Lord's angel came to him a second time. The angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat. If you don't, the journey will be too hard for you." <sup>8</sup>So Elijah got up and ate and drank. The food made him strong enough to walk for 40 days and nights. He walked to Mount Sinai, the mountain of God. <sup>9</sup>There Elijah went into a cave and stayed all night.

Then the Lord spoke his word to him: "Elijah! Why are you here?"

<sup>10</sup>Elijah answered, "Lord, God of heaven's armies, I have always served you the best I could. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you. They have destroyed your altars. They have killed your prophets with swords. I am the only prophet left. And now they are trying to kill me, too!"

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to Elijah, "Go. Stand in front of me on the mountain. I will pass by you." Then a very strong wind blew. It caused the mountains to break apart. It broke apart large rocks in front of the Lord. But the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind, there was an earthquake. But the Lord was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>After the earthquake, there was a fire. But the Lord was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a quiet, gentle voice. <sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his coat. He went out and stood at the entrance to the cave.

Then a voice said to him, "Elijah! Why are you here?"

<sup>14</sup>Elijah answered, "Lord, God of heaven's armies, I have always served you the best I could. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you. They have destroyed your altars. They have killed your prophets with swords. I am the only prophet left. And now they are trying to kill me, too."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord said to him, "Go back on the road that leads to the desert around Damascus. Enter that city. There pour olive oil on Hazael to make him king over Aram. <sup>16</sup>Then pour oil on Jehu son of Nimshi to make him king over Israel. Next, pour oil on Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah. He will be a prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup>Jehu will kill anyone who escapes from Hazael's sword. And Elisha will kill anyone who escapes from Jehu's sword. <sup>18</sup>But I have left 7,000 people living in Israel. Those 7,000 have never bowed down before Baal. <sup>19</sup>Their mouths have never kissed his idol."

Elisha Becomes a Prophet

<sup>19</sup>So Elijah left there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was plowing a field with a team of oxen. There were 11 teams ahead of him. Elisha was plowing with the twelfth team of oxen. Elijah came up to Elisha. Elijah took off his coat and put it on Elisha. <sup>20</sup>Then Elisha left his oxen and ran to follow Elijah. Elisha said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother goodbye. Then I will go with you."

Elijah answered, "That is fine. Go back. I won't stop you."

<sup>21</sup>So Elisha went back. He took his pair of oxen and killed them. He used the wooden yoke<sup>d</sup> for the fire. Then he cooked the meat and gave it to the people. And they ate it. Then Elisha went and followed Elijah and became his helper.

Ben-Hadad and Ahab Go to War

20 Now Ben-Hadad was king of Aram. He gathered together all his army. There were 32 kings with their horses and chariots.

They went with him and surrounded Samaria and attacked it. <sup>2</sup>The king sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>This was his message: "Ben-Hadad says, 'You must give me your silver and gold. You must also give me your wives and children.'"

<sup>4</sup>Ahab king of Israel answered, "My master and king, I agree to what you say. I and everything I have belongs to you."

<sup>5</sup>Then the messengers came to Ahab again. They said, "Ben-Hadad says, 'I told you before that you must give me your silver and gold, your wives and your children. <sup>6</sup>About this time tomorrow I am going to send my men to you. They are to search everywhere in your palace. And they are to search the homes of the men who rule under you. My men will take anything they want.'"

<sup>7</sup>So Ahab called a meeting of all the older leaders of his country. He said, "Ben-Hadad is looking for trouble. First he said I had to give him my wives, my children, my silver and my gold. I agreed to that."

<sup>8</sup>But the older leaders and all the people said, "Pay no attention to him. Don't do what he says."

<sup>9</sup>So Ahab said to Ben-Hadad's messengers, "Tell my master the king this: 'I will do what you said at first. But I will not obey your second command.'" So King Ben-Hadad's men carried the message back to him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: "I will completely destroy Samaria. There won't be even enough left for each of my men to get a handful of dust. May the gods punish me terribly if I don't do this!"

<sup>11</sup>Ahab answered, "Tell Ben-Hadad this: 'The man who puts on his armor should not brag too soon. It's the man who lives long enough to take it off who has the right to brag.'"

<sup>12</sup>Now Ben-Hadad was drinking in his tent with the other rulers. The messengers came and gave him the message from Ahab. Ben-Hadad commanded his men to prepare to attack the city. So they moved into their places for the battle.

<sup>13</sup>At the same time a prophet<sup>d</sup> came to Ahab, king of Israel. The prophet said, "Ahab, the Lord says to you, 'Do you see that big army? I will let you defeat it today. Then you will know I am the Lord.'"

<sup>14</sup>Ahab said, "Who will you use to defeat them?"

The prophet answered, "The Lord says, 'The young officers of the district governors will defeat them.'"

Then the king asked, "Who will command the main army?"

The prophet answered, "You will."

<sup>15</sup>So Ahab gathered the young officers of the district governors. There were 232 of them. Then he called together the army of Israel. There were 7,000 of them.

<sup>16</sup>At noon Ben-Hadad and the 32 rulers helping him were getting drunk in their tents. At this time Ahab attacked them. <sup>17</sup>The young officers of the district governors attacked first.

Ben-Hadad's scouts told him that soldiers were coming from Samaria. <sup>18</sup>So Ben-Hadad said, "They may be coming to fight. Or they may be coming to ask for peace. In either case capture them alive."

<sup>19</sup>The young officers of the district governors led the attack. The army of Israel followed them. <sup>20</sup>Then each officer of Israel killed the man who came against him. So the men from Aram ran away as Israel chased them. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with some of his horsemen. <sup>21</sup>Ahab king of Israel led the army. He captured the Arameans' horses and chariots. So King Ahab caused a great defeat of the Aramean army.

<sup>22</sup>Then the prophet went to Ahab king of Israel and said, "The king of Aram will attack you again next spring. So you should go home now and make your army stronger. Make plans to defend yourself."

<sup>23</sup>The officers of Ben-Hadad king of Aram said to him, "The gods of Israel are mountain gods. Since we fought in a mountain area, Israel won. So let's fight them on the flat land. Then we will win. <sup>24</sup>This is what you should do. Don't allow the 32 rulers to command the armies. Put commanders in their places. <sup>25</sup>Gather an army like the one that was destroyed. Gather as many horses and chariots as it had. We will fight the Israelites on flat land. Then we will win." Ben-Hadad agreed with their advice and did what they said.

<sup>26</sup>The next spring Ben-Hadad gathered the people of Aram. He went to Aphek to fight against Israel.

<sup>27</sup>The Israelites also prepared for war. They marched out to meet the Arameans and camped opposite them. They looked like two small groups of goats. But the Arameans covered the area.

<sup>28</sup>A man of God came to the king of Israel with this message: "The Lord says, 'The people of Aram say that I, the Lord, am a god of the mountains. They think I am not a god of the valleys. So I will allow you to defeat this big army. Then you will know I am the Lord.'"

<sup>29</sup>The armies were camped across from each other for seven days. On the seventh day the battle began. The Israelites killed 100,000 Aramean soldiers in one day. <sup>30</sup>The rest of them ran away to the city of Aphek. There a city wall fell on 27,000 of them. Ben-Hadad also ran away to the city and hid in a room.

<sup>31</sup>His officers said to him, "We have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. Let's dress in rough cloth to show our sadness. And let's wear ropes on our heads as a sign of surrender. Then let's go to the king of Israel. Maybe he will let you live."

<sup>32</sup>So they dressed in rough cloth and wore ropes on their heads. Then they went to the king of Israel. They said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

Ahab answered, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

<sup>33</sup>Now Ben-Hadad's men had wanted a sign from Ahab. They wanted to know he would not kill Ben-Hadad. So when Ahab called Ben-Hadad his brother, they quickly said, "Yes! Ben-Hadad is your brother."

Ahab said, "Bring him to me." When Ben-Hadad came, Ahab asked him to join him in the chariot.

<sup>34</sup>Ben-Hadad said to him, "Ahab, I will give you back the towns my father took from your father. And you may put shops in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria."

Ahab said, "If you agree to this, I will allow you to go free." So the two kings made a peace agreement. Then Ahab let Ben-Hadad go free.

A Prophet Speaks Against Ahab

<sup>35</sup>One of the prophets<sup>d</sup> told another prophet, "Hit me!" He told him to do this because the Lord had commanded it. But the other prophet refused. <sup>36</sup>So the first prophet said, "You did not obey the Lord's command. So a lion will kill you as soon as you leave me." When the second prophet left, a lion found him and killed him.

<sup>37</sup>The first prophet went to another man and said, "Hit me, please!" So the man hit him and hurt him. <sup>38</sup>Then the prophet wrapped his face in a cloth. This way no one could tell who he was. Then he went and waited by the road for the king. <sup>39</sup>As Ahab king of Israel passed by, the prophet called out to him. The prophet said, "I went to fight in the battle. One of our men brought an enemy soldier to me. Our man said, 'Guard this man. If he runs away, you will have to give your life in his place. Or, you will have to pay a fine of 75 pounds of silver.' <sup>40</sup>But I became busy doing other things. So the man ran away."

The king of Israel answered, "You have said what the punishment is. You must do what the man said."

<sup>41</sup>Then the prophet quickly took the cloth from his face. When the king of Israel saw him, he knew he was one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup>Then the prophet said to the king, "This is what the Lord says: 'You set free the man I said should die. So your life will be taken in his place. And the lives of your people will be taken in place of the lives of his people.'"

<sup>43</sup>Then the king went back to his palace in Samaria. He was angry and upset.

Ahab Takes Naboth's Vineyard

21 A man named Naboth owned a vineyard. It was in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>One day Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard. It is near my palace. I want to make it into a vegetable garden. I will give you a better vineyard in its place. Or, if you prefer, I will pay you what it is worth."

<sup>3</sup>Naboth answered, "May the Lord keep me from ever giving my land to you. It belongs to my family."

<sup>4</sup>So Ahab went home, angry and upset. He did not like what Naboth from Jezreel had said. (Naboth had said, "I will not give you my family's land.") So Ahab lay down on his bed. He turned his face to the wall and refused to eat.

<sup>5</sup>His wife, Jezebel, came in. She asked him, "Why are you upset? Why do you refuse to eat?"

<sup>6</sup>Ahab answered, "I talked to Naboth, the man from Jezreel. I said, 'Sell me your vineyard. Or, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it.' But Naboth refused."

<sup>7</sup>Jezebel answered, "Is this how you rule as king over Israel? Get out of bed. Eat something. Cheer up. I will get Naboth's vineyard for you."

<sup>8</sup>So Jezebel wrote some letters and signed Ahab's name to them. And she used his own seal<sup>d</sup> to seal them. Then she sent them to the older leaders and important men who lived in Naboth's town. <sup>9</sup>The letter she wrote said: "Declare a day during which the people are to give up eating. Call the people together. And give Naboth a place of honor among them. <sup>10</sup>Seat two troublemakers across from him. Have them say they heard Naboth speak against God and the king. Then take Naboth out of the city and kill him with stones."

Jezreel obeyed Jezebel's command. <sup>12</sup>They declared a special day. On that day the people were to give up eating. They called the people together. And they put Naboth in a place of honor before the people. <sup>13</sup>Then two troublemakers sat across from Naboth. They said they had heard Naboth speak against God and the king. So the people carried Naboth out of the city. And they killed him with stones. <sup>14</sup>Then the leaders sent a message to Jezebel. It said, "Naboth has been killed."

<sup>15</sup>When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been killed, she told Ahab. She said, "Naboth of Jezreel is dead. Now you may go and take for yourself his vineyard you wanted." <sup>16</sup>When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he left. He went to the vineyard to take it for his own.

<sup>17</sup>At this time the Lord spoke his word to Elijah. (Elijah was the prophet<sup>d</sup> from Tishbe.) The Lord said, <sup>18</sup>"Go to Ahab king of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is at Naboth's vineyard to take it as his own. <sup>19</sup>Tell Ahab that I, the Lord, say to him, 'Ahab! You have murdered Naboth and have taken his land. So I tell you this! In the same place that Naboth died, you will also die. The dogs that licked up Naboth's blood will lick up your blood in the same place!'"

<sup>20</sup>When Ahab saw Elijah, he said, "So you have found me, my enemy!"

Elijah answered, "Yes, I have found you. You have always chosen to do what the Lord says is wrong. <sup>21</sup>So the Lord says to you, 'I will destroy you. I will kill you and every male in your family, both slave and free. <sup>22</sup>Your family will be like the family of King Jeroboam son of Nebat. And it will be like the family of King Baasha son of Ahijah. Both of these families were completely destroyed. I will do this to you because you have made me angry. And you have caused the people of Israel to sin.'

<sup>23</sup>"And the Lord also says, 'Dogs will eat the body of Jezebel in the city of Jezreel.'

<sup>24</sup>"Anyone in your family who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. Anyone who dies in the fields will be eaten by birds."

<sup>25</sup>There was no one like Ahab. No one had so often chosen to do what the Lord said was wrong. His wife Jezebel influenced him to do evil. <sup>26</sup>Ahab sinned terribly by worshiping idols. This was the same thing the Amorite people did. So the Lord took their land away from them. And he gave it to the people of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>After Elijah finished speaking, Ahab tore his clothes. He put on rough cloth and refused to eat. He even slept in the rough cloth. He did this to show how sad and upset he was.

<sup>28</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Elijah from Tishbe: <sup>29</sup>"I see that Ahab is now sorry for what he has done. So I will not cause the trouble to come to him during his life. I will wait until his son is king. Then I will bring this trouble to Ahab's family."

The Death of Ahab

22 For three years there was peace between Israel and Aram. <sup>2</sup>During the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to visit Ahab king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>At this same time Ahab asked his officers, "Remember that the king of Aram took Ramoth in Gilead from us? Why have we done nothing to get it back?" <sup>4</sup>So Ahab asked King Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with us? Will you fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth in Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat answered, "I will go with you. My soldiers and my horses are ready to join with your army. <sup>5</sup>But first we should ask the Lord to guide us."

<sup>6</sup>So Ahab called the prophets<sup>d</sup> together. There were about 400 men. He asked them, "Should I go to war against the army of Aram at Ramoth in Gilead? Or should I wait?"

The prophets answered, "Go, because the Lord will let you defeat them."

<sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of the Lord here? Let's ask him what we should do."

<sup>8</sup>King Ahab answered, "There is one other prophet. We could ask the Lord through him. But I hate him. When he prophesies, he never says anything good about me. He always says something bad. He is Micaiah, Imlah's son."

Jehoshaphat said, "King Ahab, you shouldn't say that!"

<sup>9</sup>So Ahab king of Israel told one of his officers to bring Micaiah to him at once.

<sup>12</sup>All the other prophets said the same thing. They said, "Attack Ramoth in Gilead and win. The Lord will let you defeat the Arameans."

<sup>13</sup>The messenger who had gone to get Micaiah found him. He said to Micaiah, "All the other prophets are saying the king will succeed. You should agree with them. Give the king a good answer.”

<sup>14</sup>But Micaiah answered, “As surely as the Lord lives, I can tell him only what the Lord tells me.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Micaiah came to Ahab. The king asked him, “Micaiah, should we attack Ramoth in Gilead or not?”

Micaiah answered, “Attack and win! The Lord will let you defeat them.”

<sup>16</sup>But Ahab said to Micaiah, “Tell me only the truth in the name of the Lord. How many times do I have to tell you this?”

<sup>17</sup>So Micaiah answered, “I saw the army of Israel. They were scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd. The Lord said, ‘They have no leader. They should go home and not fight.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I told you! This prophet never says anything good about me. He only says bad things about me.”

<sup>19</sup>But Micaiah continued to speak. He said, “Hear the message from the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne. His heavenly army was standing near him on his right and on his left. <sup>20</sup>The Lord said, ‘Who will trick Ahab into attacking Ramoth in Gilead? Do this so he will go and be killed.’”

“The spirits did not agree about what they should do. <sup>21</sup>Then one spirit came and stood before the Lord. He said, ‘I will trick him.’”

<sup>22</sup>“The Lord asked, ‘How will you trick Ahab?’”

“The spirit answered, ‘I will go to Ahab’s prophets. I will make them tell lies.’”

“So the Lord said, ‘You will succeed in tricking him. Go and do it.’”

<sup>23</sup>Micaiah said, “Ahab, this has now happened. The Lord has caused your prophets to lie to you. The Lord has decided that great trouble should come to you.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up to Micaiah. And he hit Micaiah in the face. Zedekiah said, “Do you really believe the Lord’s spirit has left me and is now speaking through you?”

<sup>25</sup>Micaiah answered, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Ahab king of Israel ordered, “Take Micaiah. Send him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son. <sup>27</sup>Tell them I said to put Micaiah in prison. Give him only bread and water for food. Keep him there until I come home from the battle.”

<sup>28</sup>Micaiah said, “Ahab, if you come back safely from battle, the Lord has not spoken through me. Remember my words, all you people.”

<sup>29</sup>So Ahab king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to Ramoth in Gilead.

<sup>30</sup>Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “I will go into battle. But I will change my appearance so that no one will recognize me. But you wear your royal clothes.” So Ahab changed his appearance and went into battle.

<sup>31</sup>The king of Aram had 32 chariot commanders. He ordered them, “Don’t fight with anyone but the king of Israel. It doesn’t matter if they are important or unimportant.” <sup>32</sup>When these commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought he was the king of Israel. So they turned to attack him. But Jehoshaphat began shouting. <sup>33</sup>Then the commanders saw he was not Ahab. So they stopped chasing him. <sup>34</sup>A soldier shot an arrow without aiming at anyone. But he hit Ahab king of Israel. The arrow hit him in a place not covered by his armor. King Ahab said to his chariot driver, “Turn the chariot around. Take me out of the battle. I am hurt!” <sup>35</sup>The battle continued all day. King Ahab was in his chariot, leaning against it to hold himself up. He was facing the Arameans. His blood flowed down and covered the bottom of the chariot. That evening he died. <sup>36</sup>Near sunset a cry went out through the army of Israel: “Each man go back to his own country and city.”

<sup>37</sup>So in that way King Ahab died. His body was carried to Samaria and buried there. <sup>38</sup>The men cleaned Ahab’s chariot at a pool in Samaria. This was a pool where prostitutes<sup>d</sup> bathed. And the dogs licked King Ahab’s blood from the chariot. These things happened as the Lord had said they would.

<sup>39</sup>Everything else Ahab did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. That book also tells about the palace Ahab built and decorated with ivory. And it tells about the cities he built. <sup>40</sup>So Ahab died, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

<sup>41</sup>Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah. This was during Ahab’s fourth year as king over Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king. And he ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. His mother was the daughter of Shilhi. She was named Azubah. <sup>43</sup>Jehoshaphat was good like his father before him. He did what the Lord said was right. But Jehoshaphat did not destroy the places where false gods were worshiped. So the people continued offering sacrifices and burning incense<sup>d</sup> there. <sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat was at peace with the king of Israel. <sup>45</sup>Jehoshaphat fought many wars. These wars and his successes are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>46</sup>There were prostitutes<sup>d</sup> in the places where false gods were worshiped. Jehoshaphat's father, Asa, had not forced all of them out. But Jehoshaphat forced the rest of them to leave.

<sup>47</sup>During this time the land of Edom had no king. It was ruled by a governor.

<sup>48</sup>King Jehoshaphat built trading ships to sail to Ophir for gold. But the ships were destroyed at Ezion Geber. So they never set sail. <sup>49</sup>Ahaziah son of Ahab went to help Jehoshaphat. Ahaziah said he would give Jehoshaphat some men to sail with his men. But Jehoshaphat refused.

<sup>50</sup>Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors. He was buried in Jerusalem, the city of David, his ancestor. And his son Jehoram became king.

Ahaziah King of Israel

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria. This was during Jehoshaphat's seventeenth year as king over Judah. Ahaziah ruled Israel for two years. <sup>52</sup>Ahaziah did what the Lord said was wrong. He did the same things his father Ahab, his mother Jezebel and Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. All these rulers led the people of Israel into more sin. <sup>53</sup>Ahaziah worshiped and served the god Baal.<sup>d</sup> So Ahaziah made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry. In these ways Ahaziah did what his father had done.

2 KINGS

Two Kingdoms Are Destroyed

Elijah and King Ahaziah

1 After Ahab died, Moab broke away from Israel's rule. <sup>2</sup>Ahaziah fell down through the wooden bars in his upstairs room in Samaria. He was badly hurt. He sent messengers and told them, "Go. Ask Baal-Zebub god of Ekron if I will get well from my injuries."

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord's angel said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Get up. Go meet the messengers sent by the king of Samaria. Say to them, 'Why are you going to ask questions of Baal-Zebub god of Ekron? Is it because you think there is no God in Israel?' <sup>4</sup>So this is what the Lord says: 'You will not get up from the bed you are lying on. You will die.'" Then Elijah left.

<sup>5</sup>The messengers came back to Ahaziah. He asked them, "Why have you come back?"

<sup>6</sup>They said, "A man came to meet us. He said, 'Go back to the king who sent you. Tell him what the Lord says: "Why do you send men to ask questions of Baal-Zebub god of Ekron? Is it because you think there is no God in Israel? This is why you will not get up from your bed. You will die."'"

<sup>7</sup>Ahaziah asked them, "What did the man look like who met you and told you this?"

<sup>8</sup>They answered, "He wore a hairy coat and a leather belt around his waist."

Ahaziah said, "It was Elijah the Tishbite."

<sup>9</sup>Then he sent a captain with his 50 men to Elijah. The captain went to Elijah, who was sitting on top of the hill. He said to Elijah, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!'"

<sup>10</sup>Elijah answered the captain, "I am a man of God. So let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your 50 men." Then fire came down from heaven. It burned up the captain and his 50 men.

<sup>11</sup>Ahaziah sent another captain and 50 men to Elijah. The captain said to him, "Man of God, this is what the king says: 'Come down quickly!'"

<sup>12</sup>Elijah answered, "I am a man of God. So let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your 50 men!" Then fire came down from heaven. It burned up the captain and his 50 men.

<sup>13</sup>Ahaziah sent a third captain with his 50 men. The third captain came and fell down on his knees before Elijah. He begged Elijah, "Man of God, I ask you. Please let my life and the lives of your 50 servants be valuable to you! <sup>14</sup>See, fire came down from heaven. It burned up the first two captains of 50 with all their men. But now, let my life be valuable to you."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord's angel said to Elijah, "Go with him. Don't be afraid of him." So Elijah got up and went with him to see the king.

<sup>16</sup>Elijah told Ahaziah, "This is what the Lord says: 'You have sent messengers to ask questions of Baal-Zebub god of Ekron. Is it because you think there is no God in Israel to ask? Because of this, you will not get up from your bed. You will die.'" <sup>17</sup>So he died, just as the Lord, through Elijah, had said he would.

Joram became king in Ahaziah's place. This was during the second year Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat was king of Judah. Joram ruled because Ahaziah had no son to take his place. <sup>18</sup>The other things Ahaziah did are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

Elijah Is Taken to Heaven

2 It was near the time for the Lord to take Elijah. He was going to take him by a whirlwind up into heaven. Elijah and Elisha were at Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Please stay here. The Lord has told me to go to Bethel."

But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you live, I won't leave you." So they went down to Bethel. <sup>3</sup>A group of the prophets<sup>d</sup> at Bethel came to Elisha. They said to him, "Do you know the Lord will take your master away from you today?"

Elisha said, "Yes, I know. But don't talk about it."

<sup>4</sup>Elijah said to him, "Stay here, because the Lord has sent me to Jericho."

But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you live, I won't leave you."

So they went to Jericho. <sup>5</sup>A group of the prophets at Jericho came to Elisha. They said, "Do you know that the Lord will take your master away from you today?"

Elisha answered, "Yes, I know. But don't talk about it."

<sup>6</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. The Lord has sent me to the Jordan River."

Elisha answered, "As the Lord lives, and as you live, I won't leave you."

So the two of them went on. <sup>7</sup>Fifty men from a group of the prophets came. They stood far from where Elijah and Elisha were by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Elijah took off his coat. Then he rolled it up and hit the water. The water divided to the right and to the left. Then Elijah and Elisha crossed over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>After they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "What can I do for you before I am taken from you?"

Elisha said, "Leave me a double share of your spirit."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Elijah said, "You have asked a hard thing. But if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours. If you don't, it won't happen."

<sup>11</sup>Elijah and Elisha were still walking and talking. Then a chariot and horses of fire appeared. The chariot and horses of fire separated Elijah from Elisha. Then Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. <sup>12</sup>Elisha saw it and shouted, "My father! My father! The chariots of Israel and their horsemen!" Elisha did not see him anymore. Elisha grabbed his own clothes and tore them to show how sad he was.

<sup>13</sup>He picked up Elijah's coat that had fallen from him. Then Elisha returned and stood on the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup>Elisha hit the water with Elijah's coat. He said, "Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?" When he hit the water, it divided to the right and to the left. Then Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup>A group of the prophets at Jericho were watching. They said, "Elisha now has the spirit Elijah had." They came to meet him. And they bowed down to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>They said to him, "There are 50 strong men with us! Please let them go and look for your master. Maybe the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of the Lord has taken Elijah up and set him down. He may be on some mountain or in some valley."

But Elisha answered, "No. Don't send them."

<sup>17</sup>The group of prophets begged Elisha until he hated to refuse them anymore. Then he said, "Send them." So they sent 50 men who looked for three days. But they could not find Elijah. <sup>18</sup>Then they came back to Elisha at Jericho where he was staying. He said to them, "I told you not to go, didn't I?"

Elisha Makes the Water Pure

<sup>19</sup>The men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, master, this city is a nice place to live. You can see that. But the water is bad. That's why the land cannot grow crops."

<sup>20</sup>Elisha said, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

<sup>21</sup>Then Elisha went out to the spring of water and threw the salt in it. He said, "This is what the Lord says: 'I have healed this water. From now on it won't cause death. And it won't keep the land from growing crops.'" <sup>22</sup>The water was healed. It is still good today. It happened just as Elisha had said.

Young People Make Fun of Elisha

<sup>23</sup>From there Elisha went up to Bethel. On the way some young men came out of the city. They made fun of Elisha. They said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!" <sup>24</sup>Elisha turned around and looked at them. He put a curse on them in the name of the Lord. Then two female bears came out of the woods. They tore to pieces 42 of the young men. <sup>25</sup>Then Elisha left and went on to Mount Carmel. From there he went back to Samaria.

War Between Israel and Moab

3 Joram son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria. He began to rule in Jehoshaphat's eighteenth year as king of Judah. Joram ruled 12 years. <sup>2</sup>Joram did what the Lord said was wrong. But he was not like his father and mother. He removed the stone pillars his father had made for Baal.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>But he continued to do the same sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to sin. And Joram did not stop doing these same sins.

<sup>4</sup>Meshah king of Moab raised sheep. He had to give 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 male sheep to the king of Israel. <sup>5</sup>But when Ahab died, the king of Moab turned against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>So King Joram went out from Samaria and gathered all Israel. <sup>7</sup>He sent messengers to Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He said, "The king of Moab has turned against me. Will you go with me against Moab in battle?"

Jehoshaphat said, "I will go with you. I am ready to join you. My soldiers and my horses are ready to join with your army."

<sup>8</sup>Jehoshaphat asked, "Which way should we go to attack?"

<sup>a</sup>Leave . . . spirit By law, the first son in a family would inherit a double share of his father's possessions. Elisha is asking to inherit a share of his master's power. He is not asking for twice as much power as Elijah had.

Joram answered, "Through the Desert of Edom."

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They marched seven days. There was no more water for the army or for their animals that were with them. <sup>10</sup>The king of Israel said, "How terrible this is! Has the Lord called us three kings together so the Moabites can defeat us?"

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there a prophet of the Lord here? We can ask the Lord through a prophet."

An officer of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He was Elijah's servant."

<sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat said, "He speaks the Lord's truth." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to see Elisha.

<sup>13</sup>Elisha spoke to the king of Israel. He said, "I have nothing to do with you! Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother!"

The king of Israel said to Elisha, "No. The Lord has called us three kings together to let the Moabites defeat us."

<sup>14</sup>Elisha said, "I serve the Lord of heaven's armies. As surely as he lives, I tell you the truth. I wouldn't even look at you or notice you if Jehoshaphat king of Judah were not here. I respect him! <sup>15</sup>Now bring me someone who plays the harp."

While the harp was being played, the Lord gave Elisha power. <sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said, "The Lord says to dig holes in the valley. <sup>17</sup>He says that you won't see wind or rain. But the valley will be filled with water. Then you, your cattle and other animals will drink. <sup>18</sup>This is easy for the Lord to do. He will also let you defeat Moab. <sup>19</sup>You will destroy every strong, walled city and every important town. You will cut down every good tree. You will stop up all springs of water. You will ruin every good field with rocks."

<sup>20</sup>The next morning, about the time the sacrifice was offered, there was water! It came from the direction of Edom and filled the valley.

<sup>21</sup>All the Moabites had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. They gathered everyone old enough to put on armor. And they waited at the border. <sup>22</sup>But when the Moabites got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. They saw the water across from them. It looked as red as blood. <sup>23</sup>The Moabites said, "This is blood! Surely the kings have fought and killed each other! Come, Moabites, let's take what is valuable from the dead bodies!"

<sup>24</sup>The Moabites came to the camp of the Israelites. But the Israelites came out and fought them until they ran away. The Israelites went on into the land to fight the Moabites. <sup>25</sup>They tore down the cities. They threw rocks on every good field and filled it. They stopped up all the springs of water. And they cut down all the good trees. Kir Hareseth was the only city with its stones still in place. But the men with slings surrounded Kir Hareseth and conquered it, too.

<sup>26</sup>The king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him. So he took 700 men with swords to break through to the king of Edom. But they could not break through. <sup>27</sup>Then the king of Moab took his oldest son, who would have become king after him. And he offered his son as a burnt offering on the wall. So there was great anger against the Israelites. They left and went back to their own land.

A Widow Asks Elisha for Help

4 The wife of a man from a group of the prophets came to Elisha. She said, "Your servant, my husband, is dead! You know he honored the Lord. But now the man he owes money to is coming to take my two boys. He will make them his slaves!"

<sup>2</sup>Elisha answered, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?"

The woman said, "I don't have anything there except a pot of oil."

<sup>3</sup>Then Elisha said, "Go and get empty jars from all your neighbors. Don't ask for just a few. <sup>4</sup>Then you must go into your house and close the door. Only you and your sons will be there. Then pour oil into all the jars. Set the full ones to one side."

<sup>5</sup>She left Elisha and shut the door. Only she and her sons were in the house. As they brought the jars to her, she poured the oil. <sup>6</sup>When the jars were all full, she said to her son, "Bring me another jar."

But he said, "There are no more jars." Then the oil stopped flowing.

<sup>7</sup>She went and told Elisha. Elisha said to her, "Go. Sell the oil and pay what you owe. You and your sons can live on what is left."

The Shunammite Woman

<sup>8</sup>One day Elisha went to Shunem. An important woman lived there. She begged Elisha to stay and eat. So every time Elisha passed by, he stopped there to eat. <sup>9</sup>The woman said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. He passes by our house all the time. <sup>10</sup>Let's make a small room on the roof. <sup>a</sup> Let's put a bed in the room for Elisha. And we can put a table, a chair and a lampstand there. Then when he comes by, he can stay there."

<sup>11</sup>One day Elisha came to the woman's house. He went to his room and rested. <sup>12</sup>He said to his servant Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite."

When the servant called her, she stood in front of him. <sup>13</sup>Elisha told his servant, "Now say to her, 'You have gone to all this trouble for us. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak to the king or the commander of the army for you?'"

The woman answered, "I live among my own people."

<sup>14</sup>Elisha said, "But what can we do for her?"

Gehazi answered, "She has no son, and her husband is old."

<sup>15</sup>Then Elisha said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood in the doorway. <sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said, "About this time next year, you will hold a son in your arms."

The woman said, "No, master, man of God. Don't lie to me!"

<sup>17</sup>But the woman became pregnant. And she gave birth to a son at that time the next year as Elisha had told her.

<sup>18</sup>The child grew. One day he went out to his father, who was with the men harvesting grain. <sup>19</sup>The boy said to his father, "My head! My head!"

The father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother!" <sup>20</sup>The servant took him to his mother. He lay on his mother's lap until noon. Then he died. <sup>21</sup>She took him up and laid him on Elisha's bed. Then she shut the door and went out.

<sup>22</sup>She called to her husband. She said, "Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys. Then I can go quickly to the man of God and come back."

<sup>23</sup>The woman's husband said, "Why do you want to go to him today? It isn't the New Moon<sup>d</sup> or the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day."

She said, "It will be all right."

<sup>24</sup>Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Lead on. Don't slow down for me unless I tell you." <sup>25</sup>So she went to Elisha at Mount Carmel.

He saw her coming from far away. So he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, there's the Shunammite woman! <sup>26</sup>Run to meet her! Say to her, 'Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?'"

She answered, "Everything is all right."

<sup>27</sup>Then she came to Elisha at the hill. She caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to pull her away. But Elisha said to him, "Let her alone. She's very upset, and the Lord has not told me about it. He has hidden it from me."

<sup>28</sup>She said, "Master, I didn't tell you I wanted a son. I told you, 'Don't fool me.'"

<sup>29</sup>Then Elisha said to Gehazi, "Get ready. Take my walking stick in your hand and go quickly. If you meet anyone, don't greet him. If anyone greets you, don't answer him. Lay my walking stick on the face of the boy."

<sup>30</sup>But the child's mother said, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I won't leave you!" So he got up and followed her.

<sup>31</sup>Gehazi went on ahead. He laid the walking stick on the child's face. But the child did not talk or move. Then Gehazi went back to meet Elisha. He told Elisha, "The child has not awakened."

<sup>32</sup>Elisha came into the house. There was the child, lying dead on his bed. <sup>33</sup>When Elisha entered the room, he shut the door. Only he and the child were in the room. Then Elisha prayed to the Lord. <sup>34</sup>He went to the bed and lay on the child. He put his mouth on the child's mouth. He put his eyes on the child's eyes and his hands on the child's hands. He stretched himself out on top of the child. Then the child's skin became warm. <sup>35</sup>Elisha turned away and walked around the room. Then he went back and put himself on the child again. Then the child sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup>Elisha called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite!" And he did. When she came, Elisha said, "Pick up your son." <sup>37</sup>She came in and fell at Elisha's feet. She bowed facedown to the floor. Then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha and the Poison

<sup>38</sup>Elisha came to Gilgal again. There was a time of hunger in the land. A group of prophets<sup>d</sup> was sitting in front of him. He said to his servant, "Put the large pot on the fire. Boil some stew for these men."

<sup>39</sup>One of them went out into the field to gather plants. He found a wild vine. He picked fruit from the vine and filled his robe with it. Then he came and cut up the fruit into the pot.

<sup>a</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

But they did not know what kind of fruit it was. <sup>40</sup>Then they poured out the stew for the men to eat. But when they began to eat it, they shouted out, "Man of God! There's death in the pot!" They could not eat it.

<sup>41</sup>Elisha told them to bring some flour. Then he threw it into the pot. He said, "Pour it out for the people to eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

Elisha Multiplies Bread

<sup>42</sup>A man from Baal Shalishah came to Elisha. He brought 20 loaves of barley bread from the first harvest to Elisha. He also brought fresh grain in his sack. Then Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat."

<sup>43</sup>Elisha's servant said, "How can I feed 100 men with so little?"

But Elisha said, "Give the bread to the people to eat. This is what the Lord says: 'They will eat and will have food left over.'" <sup>44</sup>Then he gave it to them. The people ate and had food left over, as the Lord had said.

Naaman Is Healed

5 Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man to his master. He had much honor because the Lord had used him to give victory to Aram. He was a mighty and brave man. But he had a harmful skin disease.

<sup>2</sup>The Arameans had gone out to steal from the Israelites. And they had taken a little girl as a captive from Israel. This little girl served Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup>She said to her mistress, "I wish that my master would meet the prophet<sup>d</sup> who lives in Samaria. He would heal Naaman of his disease."

<sup>4</sup>Naaman went to the king. He told him what the girl from Israel had said. <sup>5</sup>The king of Aram said, "Go now. And I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left and took about 750 pounds of silver. He also took about 150 pounds of gold and ten changes of clothes with him. <sup>6</sup>He brought the letter to the king of Israel. It read, "I am sending my servant Naaman to you. I'm sending him so you can heal him of his skin disease."

<sup>7</sup>The king of Israel read the letter. Then he tore his clothes to show how upset he was. He said, "I'm not God! I can't kill and make alive again! Why does this man send someone with a harmful skin disease for me to heal? You can see that the king of Aram is trying to start trouble with me!"

<sup>8</sup>Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes. So he sent a message to the king. It said, "Why have you become so upset that you tore your clothes? Let Naaman come to me. Then he will know there is a prophet in Israel!" <sup>9</sup>So Naaman went with his horses and chariots to Elisha's house. And he stood outside the door.

<sup>10</sup>Elisha sent a messenger to Naaman. The messenger said, "Go and wash in the Jordan River seven times. Then your skin will be healed, and you will be clean."

<sup>11</sup>Naaman became angry and left. He said, "I thought Elisha would surely come out and stand before me. I thought he would call on the name of the Lord his God. I thought he would wave his hand over the place and heal the disease! <sup>12</sup>Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, are better than all the waters of Israel! Why can't I wash in them and become clean?" So Naaman went away very angry.

<sup>13</sup>But Naaman's servants came near and talked to him. They said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? Doesn't it make more sense just to do it? After all, he only told you, 'Wash, and you will be clean.'" <sup>14</sup>So Naaman went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times. He did just as Elisha had said. Then Naaman's skin became new again. It was like the skin of a little boy. And Naaman was clean!

<sup>15</sup>Naaman and all his group came back to Elisha. He stood before Elisha and said, "Look. I now know there is no God in all the earth except in Israel! Now please accept a gift from me."

<sup>16</sup>But Elisha said, "I serve the Lord. As surely as the Lord lives, I won't accept anything." Naaman urged him to take the gift, but he refused.

<sup>17</sup>Then Naaman said, "If you won't take the gift, then please give me some dirt. Give me as much as two of my mules can carry. From now on I'll not offer any burnt offering or sacrifice to any other gods. I'll only offer sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>But let the Lord pardon me for this: My master goes into the temple of Rimmon<sup>a</sup> to worship. When he goes, he will lean on my arm. Then I must bow in that temple. May the Lord pardon me when I do that."

<sup>19</sup>Elisha said to him, "Go in peace."

Naaman left Elisha and went a short way. <sup>20</sup>Gehazi was the servant of Elisha the man of God. Gehazi thought, "My master has not accepted what Naaman the Aramean brought. As surely as the Lord lives, I'll run after him. I'll get something from him." <sup>21</sup>So he went after him.

Naaman saw someone running after him. So he got off the chariot to meet Gehazi. He said, "Is everything all right?"

<sup>22</sup>Gehazi said, "Everything is all right. My master has sent me. He said, 'Two young men just came to me. They are from the group of the prophets in the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them 75 pounds of silver and two changes of clothes.'"

<sup>23</sup>Naaman said, "Please take 150 pounds." He urged Gehazi to take it. He tied 150 pounds of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes. Then he gave them to two of his servants. They carried them for Gehazi. <sup>24</sup>When they came to the hill, Gehazi took these things from Naaman's servants. And he put them in the house. He let Naaman's servants go, and they left.

<sup>25</sup>Then he came in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?"

Gehazi said, "I didn't go anywhere."

<sup>26</sup>But Elisha said to him, "My spirit was with you. I knew when the man turned from his chariot to meet you. This isn't a time to receive money, clothes, olives and grapes. It isn't a time to receive sheep, oxen, male servants and female servants. <sup>27</sup>Naaman's skin disease will come on you and your children forever." When Gehazi left Elisha, he had the disease. He was as white as snow.

An Axhead Floats

6 The group of the prophets<sup>d</sup> said to Elisha, "The place where we meet with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup>Let's go to the Jordan River. There every man can get a pole. And let's build a place there to live."

Elisha said, "Go."

<sup>3</sup>One of them said, "Please go with us."

Elisha said, "I will go." <sup>4</sup>So he went with them. When they arrived at the Jordan, they cut down some trees. <sup>5</sup>As one man was cutting down a tree, the head of his ax fell into the water. He yelled, "Oh, my master! I borrowed that ax!"

<sup>6</sup>Elisha asked, "Where did it fall?" The man showed Elisha the place. Then Elisha cut down a stick and threw it into the water. It made the iron head float. <sup>7</sup>Elisha said, "Pick up the ax-head." Then the man reached out and took it.

Elisha and the Blinded Arameans

had a council meeting with his officers. He said, "I will set up my camp in this place."

<sup>9</sup>But Elisha sent a message to the king of Israel. It said, "Be careful! Don't pass that place. The Arameans are going down there!"

<sup>10</sup>The king of Israel checked the place about which Elisha had warned him. Elisha warned him several times. So the king added guards in those places.

<sup>11</sup>The king of Aram was angry about this. He called his officers together. He said to them, "Tell me who of us is working for the king of Israel."

<sup>13</sup>The king said, "Go and find him. Then I can send men and catch him."

The servants came back and reported, "He is in Dothan."

<sup>14</sup>Then the king sent horses, chariots and a large army to Dothan. They arrived at night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup>The servant of Elisha got up early. When he went out, he saw an army with horses and chariots all around the city. The servant said to Elisha, "Oh, my master, what can we do?"

<sup>16</sup>Elisha said, "Don't be afraid. The army that fights for us is larger than the one against us."

<sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed, "Lord, open my servant's eyes. Let him see."

The Lord opened the eyes of the young man. And he saw that the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

<sup>18</sup>As the enemy came down toward Elisha, he prayed to the Lord. He said, "Make these people blind." So the Lord made the Aramean army blind, as Elisha had asked.

<sup>19</sup>Elisha said to them, "This is not the right road. This is not the right city. Follow me. I'll take you to the man you are looking for." Then Elisha led them to Samaria.

<sup>20</sup>After they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "Lord, open these men's eyes so they can see." So the Lord opened their eyes. And the Aramean army saw that they were inside the city of Samaria!

<sup>21</sup>The king of Israel saw the Aramean army. He said to Elisha, "My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?"

<sup>22</sup>Elisha answered, "Don't kill them. You wouldn't kill people whom you captured with your sword and bow. Give them food and water. And let them eat and drink. Then let them go home to their master." <sup>23</sup>So he prepared a great feast for the Aramean army. They ate and drank. Then the king sent them away. They went home to their master. The soldiers of Aram did not come anymore into the land of Israel.

A Time of Hunger

<sup>24</sup>Later, Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army. He went to surround and attack Samaria. <sup>25</sup>There was a time of terrible hunger in Samaria. It was so bad that a donkey's head was sold for about two pounds of silver. Half of a pint of dove's dung sold for about two ounces of silver.

<sup>26</sup>The king of Israel was passing by on the wall. A woman yelled out to him, "Help me, my master and king!"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son so we can eat him today. Then we will eat my son tomorrow.' <sup>29</sup>So we boiled my son and ate him. Then the next day I said to her, 'Give up your son so we can eat him.' But she had hidden him."

<sup>30</sup>When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes to show how upset he was. He walked along the wall. The people looked and saw he had on rough cloth under his clothes. This was to show his sadness. <sup>31</sup>He said, "The head of Elisha son of Shaphat will be taken from his body today! May God punish me terribly if this doesn't happen!"

<sup>32</sup>The king sent a messenger to Elisha. Elisha was sitting in his house. And the older leaders were sitting with him. But before the messenger arrived, Elisha spoke to them. He said, "See, this murderer is sending men to take off my head. When the messenger arrives, shut the door. Hold it and don't let him in. The sound of his master's feet is behind him."

<sup>33</sup>While Elisha was still talking with the leaders, the king came. He said, "This trouble has come from the Lord. Why should I wait for the Lord any longer?"

7 Elisha said, "Listen to the Lord's word. This is what he says: 'About this time tomorrow 7 quarts of fine flour will be sold for two-fifths of an ounce of silver. And 13 quarts of barley will be sold for two-fifths of an ounce of silver. This will happen at the gate of Samaria.'"

<sup>2</sup>Then the officer who was close to the king answered Elisha. He said, "Even if the Lord opened windows in heaven, that couldn't happen."

Elisha said, "Because you have said that, you will see it with your eyes. But you will not eat any of it."

<sup>3</sup>There were four men with a harmful skin disease at the entrance to the city gate. They said to each other, "Why do we sit here until we die? <sup>4</sup>A time of hunger is in the city. So if we go into the city, we will die there. If we stay here, we will die. So let's go to the Aramean camp. If they let us live, we will live. If they kill us, then we die."

<sup>5</sup>So they got up at twilight. And they went to the Aramean camp. But when they arrived, no one was there. <sup>6</sup>The Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots, horses and a large army. They had said to each other, "The king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack us!" <sup>7</sup>So they ran away in the twilight. They left their tents, horses and donkeys. They left the camp standing and ran for their lives.

<sup>8</sup>The men with the skin disease came to the edge of the camp. Then they went into one of the tents. They ate and drank. They carried silver, gold and clothes out of the camp and hid them. Then they came back and entered another tent. They carried things from this tent and hid them, also. <sup>9</sup>Then they said to each other, "We're doing wrong. Today we have good news, but we are silent. If we wait until the sun comes up, we'll be punished. Let's go now and tell the people in the king's palace."

<sup>10</sup>So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city. They said, "We went to the Aramean camp. But no one is there. We didn't hear anyone. The horses and donkeys were still tied up, and the tents were still standing." <sup>11</sup>Then the gatekeepers shouted out and told the people in the palace.

<sup>12</sup>So the king got up in the night. He said to his officers, "I'll tell you what the Arameans are doing to us. They know we are hungry. They have gone out of the camp to hide in the field. They're saying, 'When the Israelites come out of the city, we'll capture them alive. Then we'll enter the city.'"

<sup>14</sup>So the men took two chariots with horses. The king sent them after the Aramean army. He told them, "Go and see what has happened." <sup>15</sup>The men followed the Aramean army as far as the Jordan River. The road was full of clothes and equipment. The Arameans had thrown these things away as they had hurried away. So the messengers came back and told the king. <sup>16</sup>Then the people went out and took valuable things from the Aramean camp. So 7 quarts of fine flour were sold for two-fifths of an ounce of silver. And 13 quarts of barley were sold for two-fifths of an ounce of silver. It happened just as the Lord had said.

<sup>17</sup>The king chose the officer who was close to him to guard the gate. But the people ran over the officer so that he died. This happened just as the man of God had told the king. Elisha had said it when the king came to his house. <sup>18</sup>He had said, "Thirteen quarts of barley and 7 quarts of fine flour will each sell for two-fifths of an ounce of silver. It will happen about this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria."

<sup>19</sup>But the officer had answered, "Even if the Lord opened windows in heaven, that couldn't happen." And Elisha had told him, "Because you have said that, you will see it with your eyes. But you won't eat any of it." <sup>20</sup>It happened to the officer just that way. The people ran over him in the gate, and he died.

The Shunammite Regains Her Land

8 Elisha talked to the woman whose son he had brought back to life. He said, "Get up and go with your family. Stay any place you can. This is because the Lord has called for a time of hunger. It will last seven years." <sup>2</sup>So the woman got up and did as the man of God said. She left with her family. And they stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years. <sup>3</sup>After seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines. She went to beg the king for her house and land back. <sup>4</sup>The king was talking with Gehazi. He was the servant of the man of God. The king had said to Gehazi, "Please tell me all the great things Elisha has done." <sup>5</sup>Now Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had brought a dead person back to life. Just then the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came and begged the king for her house and land.

Gehazi said, "My master and king, this is the woman. And this is the son Elisha brought back to life."

Ben-Hadad Is Killed

king of Aram was sick. Someone told him, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8</sup>Then the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift in your hand and go meet him. Ask the Lord through him if I will get well from my sickness."

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael went to meet Elisha. He took with him a gift. It was 40 camels loaded with every good thing in Damascus. He came and stood before Elisha. Hazael said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram sent me to you. He asks if he will get well from his sickness."

<sup>10</sup>Then Elisha said to Hazael, "Go and tell Ben-Hadad, 'You will surely get well.' But the Lord has told me he will really die." <sup>11</sup>Elisha stared at Hazael until Hazael felt ashamed. Then Elisha cried.

<sup>12</sup>Hazael asked, "Why are you crying, master?"

Elisha answered, "Because I know what evil you will do to the Israelites. You will burn their strong, walled cities with fire. You will kill their young men with swords. You will throw their babies to the ground. You will split open their pregnant women."

<sup>13</sup>Hazael said, "I, your servant, am only a dog. How could I do such things?"

Elisha answered, "The Lord has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

<sup>14</sup>Then Hazael left Elisha and came to his master. Ben-Hadad said to Hazael, "What did Elisha say to you?"

Hazael answered, "He told me that you will surely get well." <sup>15</sup>But the next day Hazael took a blanket and dipped it in water. Then he put it over Ben-Hadad's face, and he died. So Hazael became king in Ben-Hadad's place.

Jehoram King of Judah

<sup>16</sup>Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah. This was during Joram's fifth year as king of Israel. Joram was the son of Ahab. <sup>17</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>But Jehoram followed the ways of the kings of Israel. This was just as the family of Ahab had done. It was because Ahab's daughter was Jehoram's wife. Jehoram did what the Lord said was wrong. <sup>19</sup>But the Lord would not destroy Judah because of his servant David. The Lord had promised that David and his children would always have a kingdom.

<sup>20</sup>In Jehoram's time Edom broke away from Judah's rule. The people of Edom chose their own king. <sup>21</sup>So Jehoram and all his chariots went to Zair. At night the Edomites came around him and his chariot commanders. Jehoram got up and attacked the Edomites. But his army ran away to their tents. <sup>22</sup>So the Edomites broke away from the rule of Judah. And they are still separate today. At the same time Libnah also broke away from Judah's rule.

<sup>23</sup>The other acts of Jehoram and all the things he did are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>24</sup>Jehoram died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. Jehoram's son Ahaziah ruled in his place.

<sup>25</sup>Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah. This was during Joram's twelfth year as king of Israel. Joram was the son of Ahab. <sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king. He ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah. She was a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaziah followed the ways of Ahab's family. He did what the Lord said was wrong, as Ahab's family had done. He did this because he was a son-in-law in Ahab's family.

<sup>28</sup>Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to Ramoth in Gilead. There they fought against Hazael king of Aram. The Arameans wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup>So King Joram returned to Jezreel to heal from the injuries. (He had been wounded by the Arameans at Ramoth. This was when he fought Hazael king of Aram.) And Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram. He went to see Joram son of Ahab at Jezreel because he had been wounded.

Jehu Is Chosen King

9 Elisha called a man from the group of the prophets. <sup>4</sup>Elisha said, "Tighten your clothes around you. And take this small bottle of olive oil in your hand. Go to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>2</sup>When you arrive, find Jehu son of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat is the son of Nimshi. Go in and make Jehu get up from among his brothers. Take him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup>Take the bottle and pour the oil on Jehu's head. Say, 'This is what the Lord says: I have appointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and run away. Don't wait!"

<sup>4</sup>So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>5</sup>When he arrived, he saw the officers of the army sitting together. He said, "Commander, I have a message for you."

Jehu asked, "For which one of us?"

The young man said, "For you, commander."

<sup>6</sup>Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the young prophet poured the olive oil on Jehu's head. He said to Jehu, "This is what the Lord of Israel says: 'I have appointed you king over the Lord's people, Israel. <sup>7</sup>You must destroy the family of Ahab your master. I will punish Jezebel for the deaths of my servants the prophets. And I will punish her for all the Lord's servants who were murdered. <sup>8</sup>So all Ahab's family will die. I will not let any male child in Ahab's family live in Israel. It does not matter if he is a slave or a free person. <sup>9</sup>I will make Ahab's family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat. They will be like the family of Baasha son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup>The dogs will eat Jezebel in the portion of land at Jezreel. And no one will bury her.' "

Then the young prophet opened the door and ran away.

<sup>11</sup>Jehu went back to his master's officers. One of them said to Jehu, "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy man come to you?"

Jehu answered, "You know the man and how he talks."

Jehu said, "He said, 'This is what the Lord says: I have appointed you to be king over Israel.' "

<sup>13</sup>Then the officers hurried. Each man took off his own coat. They put them on the stairs for Jehu. Then they blew the trumpet. They said, "Jehu is king!"

Joram and Ahaziah Are Killed

<sup>14</sup>So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat made plans against Joram. (Jehoshaphat was the son of Nimshi.) Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth in Gilead from Hazael king of Aram. <sup>15</sup>But King Joram had to return to Israel to heal from the injuries the Arameans had given him. He received these injuries when he fought against Hazael king of Aram.

Jehu said, "If you agree with this, don't let anyone leave the city. They might tell the news in Jezreel." <sup>16</sup>Then he got into his chariot and set out for Jezreel. Joram was resting there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

<sup>17</sup>The lookout was standing on the watchtower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu's troops coming. He said, "I see some soldiers!"

Joram said, "Take a horseman and send him to meet them. Tell him to ask, 'Do you bring good news?'"

<sup>18</sup>So the horseman rode out to meet Jehu. The horseman said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you bring good news?'"

Jehu said, "That's none of your business! Come along behind me."

The watchman reported, "The messenger reached them. But he is not coming back."

<sup>19</sup>So Joram sent out a second horseman. This rider came to Jehu's group and said, "This is what the king says: 'Do you bring good news?' "

Jehu answered, "That's none of your business! Come along behind me."

<sup>20</sup>The watchman reported, "The second man reached them. But he is not coming back. The man in the chariot is driving like Jehu son of Nimshi. He drives as if he were crazy!"

<sup>21</sup>Joram said, "Get my chariot ready." Then the servant got Joram's chariot ready. Joram and Ahaziah king of Judah went out. Each king went in his own chariot to meet Jehu. And they met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>22</sup>When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Do you bring good news, Jehu?"

Jehu answered, "There will never be any good news as long as your mother Jezebel worships idols and uses witchcraft."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Joram turned the horses to run away. He yelled to Ahaziah, "It's a trick, Ahaziah!"

<sup>24</sup>Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between his shoulders. The arrow went through Joram's heart. And he fell down in his chariot.

<sup>25</sup>Jehu ordered Bidkar, his chariot officer, "Pick up Joram's body. Throw it into the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember when you and I rode together with Joram's father Ahab. The Lord made this prophecy<sup>d</sup> against him: <sup>26</sup>'Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and his sons, says the Lord. So I will punish Ahab in his field, says the Lord.' So take Joram's body and throw it into the field, as the Lord has said."

<sup>27</sup>When Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he ran away toward Beth Haggan. Jehu chased him, saying, "Shoot Ahaziah, too!" Ahaziah was wounded in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam. Ahaziah got as far as Megiddo but died there. <sup>28</sup>His servants carried his body in a chariot to Jerusalem. They buried him with his ancestors in his tomb in Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup>(Ahaziah had become king over Judah in Joram's eleventh year as king. Joram was the son of Ahab.)

Death of Jezebel

<sup>30</sup>When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it. She put paint on her eyes and fixed her hair. Then she looked out the window. <sup>31</sup>Jehu entered the city gate. And Jezebel said, "Have you come in peace, you Zimri,<sup>n</sup> you who killed your master?"

<sup>32</sup>Jehu looked up at the window. He said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs<sup>d</sup> looked out from the window at Jehu. <sup>33</sup>Jehu said to them, "Throw her down!" So they threw Jezebel down. And the horses ran over her body. Some of her blood splashed on the wall and on the horses.

<sup>34</sup>Jehu went into the house and ate and drank. Then he said, "Now see about this cursed woman. Bury her, because she is a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup>The men went to bury Jezebel. But they could not find her body. They could only find the skull, feet and palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup>So they came back and told Jehu. Then Jehu said, "The Lord said this through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: 'The dogs will eat the body of Jezebel in the portion of land at Jezreel. <sup>37</sup>Her body will be like manure on the field in the land at Jezreel. Then people cannot say that the body is Jezebel.'"

Families of Ahab and Ahaziah Killed

10 Ahab's family had 70 sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria. He sent them to the officers and older leaders of Jezreel. He also sent them to the guardians of the sons of Ahab. Jehu said, <sup>2</sup>"You have chariots, horses and a city with strong walls. You also have weapons. When you get this letter, <sup>3</sup>choose the best and most worthy person among your master's sons. Make him king. Then fight for your master's family."

<sup>4</sup>But the officers and older leaders of Jezreel were very frightened. They said, "The two kings could not stop Jehu. So, surely we can't either."

<sup>5</sup>The palace manager, the city governor, the older leaders and the guardians sent a message to Jehu. They said, "We are your servants. We will do everything you tell us to do. We won't make any man king. Do whatever you think is best."

<sup>6</sup>Then Jehu wrote a second letter. It said, "If you are on my side and will obey me, cut off the heads of your master's sons. And come to me at Jezreel tomorrow about this time."

Now there were 70 sons of the king's family. They were with the leading men of the city who were their guardians. <sup>7</sup>The leaders received the letter. Then they took the king's sons and killed all 70 of them. They put their heads in baskets. And they sent them to Jehu at Jezreel. <sup>8</sup>The messenger came to Jehu. He told Jehu, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons!"

<sup>n</sup>Zimri He was the man who killed Elah and the family of Baasha. Read 1 Kings 16:8-12.

Then Jehu said, "Lay the heads in two piles at the city gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup>In the morning, Jehu went out and stood before the people. He said to them, "You are innocent. Look, I made plans against my master. I killed him. But who killed all these? <sup>10</sup>You should know that nothing the Lord said will fail. Everything the Lord said about Ahab's family will come true. The Lord has spoken through his servant Elijah. And the Lord has done what he said." <sup>11</sup>So Jehu killed everyone of Ahab's family in Jezreel who was still alive. He also killed all Ahab's leading men, close friends and priests. No one was left alive who had helped Ahab.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jehu left and went to Samaria. He went on the road to Beth Eked of the Shepherds. <sup>13</sup>There Jehu met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We are relatives of Ahaziah. We have come down to visit the families of the king and the king's mother."

<sup>14</sup>Then Jehu said, "Take them alive!" So they captured Ahaziah's relatives alive. But they killed them at the well near Beth Eked. There were 42 of them. Jehu did not leave anyone alive.

<sup>15</sup>After Jehu left there, he met Jehonadab son of Recab. He was also on his way to meet Jehu. Jehu greeted him and said, "Are you as good a friend to me as I am to you?"

Jehonadab answered, "Yes, I am."

Jehu said, "If you are, then give me your hand." So Jehonadab gave him his hand, and Jehu pulled him into the chariot. <sup>16</sup>Jehu said, "Come with me. You can see how strong my feelings are for the Lord." So Jehu had Jehonadab ride in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup>When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all of Ahab's family. He did this until he had destroyed all of those who were left. Jehu did what the Lord had told Elijah would happen.

Baal Worshipers Killed

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu gathered all the people together. He said to them, "Ahab served Baal<sup>d</sup> a little. But Jehu will serve Baal much. <sup>19</sup>Now call for me all Baal's prophets and priests. Call all the people who worship Baal. Don't let anyone miss this meeting. I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who is not there will not remain alive." But Jehu was tricking them so he could destroy the worshipers of Baal. <sup>20</sup>He said, "Prepare a holy meeting for Baal." So they announced the meeting. <sup>21</sup>Then Jehu sent word through all Israel. All the worshipers of Baal came. Not one stayed home. They came into the temple of Baal. The temple was filled from one side to the other.

<sup>22</sup>Jehu spoke to the man who kept the robes. He said, "Bring out robes for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out robes for them. <sup>23</sup>Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the worshipers of Baal, "Look around. Be sure there are no servants of the Lord with you. Be sure there are only people here who worship Baal." <sup>24</sup>So the worshipers of Baal went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

But Jehu had 80 men waiting outside. He told them, "Don't let anyone escape. If you let anyone escape, you must pay with your own life."

<sup>25</sup>Jehu finished offering the burnt offering. Then he spoke to the guards and the captains. He said, "Go in and kill the worshipers of Baal! Don't let anyone come out." So the guards and captains killed the worshipers of Baal with the sword. They threw the bodies of the worshipers of Baal out. Then they went to the inner rooms of the temple. <sup>26</sup>They brought out the pillars of the temple of Baal and burned them. <sup>27</sup>Then they tore down the stone pillar of Baal. They also tore down the temple of Baal. They made it into a sewage pit, and it is still one today.

<sup>28</sup>So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel. <sup>29</sup>But he did not stop doing the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. They worshiped the golden calves in Bethel and Dan.

<sup>30</sup>The Lord said to Jehu, "You have done well. You have done what I said was right. You have done to the family of Ahab as I wanted. Your descendants<sup>d</sup> as far as your great-great-grandchildren will be kings of Israel." <sup>31</sup>But Jehu was not careful to keep the teachings of the Lord with all his heart. He did not stop doing the same sins Jeroboam had done. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin.

<sup>32</sup>At that time the Lord began to make Israel smaller. Hazael defeated the Israelites in all the land of Israel. <sup>33</sup>He took all the land on the east side of the Jordan. This was the land of Gilead. (It was the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh.) He took land from Aroer by the Arnon Ravine through Gilead to Bashan.

<sup>34</sup>The other things Jehu did are written down. Everything he did and all his victories are recorded. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>35</sup>Jehu died and was buried in Samaria. Jehu's son Jehoahaz became king in his place. <sup>30</sup>Jehu was king over Israel in Samaria for 28 years.

Athaliah and Joash

11 Now Ahaziah's mother, Athaliah, saw that her son was dead. Then she killed all the royal family. <sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba took Joash, Ahaziah's son. She stole him from among the other sons of the king who were about to be murdered. (Jehosheba was King Jehoram's daughter and Ahaziah's sister.) She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom. She hid Joash from Athaliah. So he was not killed. <sup>3</sup>He was hidden with her in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord for six years. During that time Athaliah ruled the land.

<sup>4</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the commanders of groups of 100 men. He sent for guards and the Carites, the royal bodyguards. He brought them together in the Temple of the Lord. Then he made an agreement with them. There, in the Temple of the Lord, he made them promise loyalty. Then he showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup>He commanded them, "This is what you must do. A third of you who come in on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> will guard the king's palace. <sup>6</sup>Another third of you will be at the Sur Gate. And another third will be at the gate behind the guard. This way you will guard the Temple. <sup>7</sup>Two groups will go off duty on the Sabbath. They must protect the Temple of the Lord for the king. <sup>8</sup>All of you must stand around the king. Each man must have his weapon in his hand. If anyone comes near, kill him. Stay close to the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

<sup>9</sup>The commanders over 100 men obeyed everything Jehoiada the priest had commanded. Each one took his men who were beginning their Sabbath duty. Each one also took those who were ending their Sabbath duty. Both groups came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup>And he gave spears and shields to the commanders. They used to belong to King David. They were kept in the Temple of the Lord.

Joash Becomes King

<sup>11</sup>Then each of the guards took his place. Each man had his weapon in his hand. There were guards from the south side of the Temple<sup>d</sup> to the north side. They stood by the altar and the Temple and around the king. <sup>12</sup>Jehoiada brought out the king's son. He put the crown on Joash. Then he gave Joash a copy of the Agreement with the Lord. They appointed him king and poured olive oil on him. They clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup>Athaliah heard the noise of the guards and the people. So she came to the people at the Temple of the Lord. <sup>14</sup>She looked, and there was the king. He was standing by the pillar, as the custom was. The officers and trumpeters were standing beside him. All the people of the land were very happy and were blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes to show how upset she was. She screamed, "Traitors! Traitors!"

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada the priest gave orders to the commanders of 100 men who led the army. He said, "Surround her with soldiers. Kill with a sword anyone who follows her." He said this because he had said, "Don't put Athaliah to death in the Temple of the Lord." <sup>16</sup>So they caught her when she came to where the horses enter the palace grounds. There she was put to death.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jehoiada made an agreement. It was between the Lord and the king and the people. They agreed to be the Lord's special people. He also made an agreement between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup>All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal<sup>d</sup> and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols into small pieces. And they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

Then Jehoiada the priest placed guards at the Temple of the Lord. <sup>19</sup>He took with him the commanders of 100 men and the Carites, the royal bodyguards. He took the guards and all the people of the land. Together they took the king out of the Temple of the Lord. They went into the palace through the gate of the guards. Then the king sat on the royal throne. <sup>20</sup>So all the people of Judah were very happy. And Jerusalem had peace because Athaliah had been put to death with the sword at the palace.

<sup>21</sup>Joash was seven years old when he became king.

12 Joash became king of Judah in Jehu's seventh year as king of Israel. Joash ruled for 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah. She was from Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Joash did what the Lord said was right all the time Jehoiada the priest taught him. <sup>3</sup>But the places where false gods were worshiped were not removed. The people still made sacrifices and burned incense<sup>d</sup> there.

The Temple to Be Repaired

<sup>4</sup>Joash said to the priests, "Take all the money brought as offerings to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. This includes the money each person owes in taxes. It also includes the money each person promises or brings to the Lord because he wants to. <sup>5</sup>Each priest must take the money from the people he serves. Then the priests must repair any damage they find in the Temple.”

<sup>6</sup>But by the twenty-third year of Joash the priests still had not repaired the Temple. <sup>7</sup>So King Joash called for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests. He said to them, “Why are you not repairing the damage of the Temple? Don’t take any more money from the people you serve. But hand over the money for the repair of the Temple.” <sup>8</sup>The priests agreed not to take any more money from the people. And they agreed not to repair the Temple themselves.

<sup>9</sup>But Jehoiada the priest took a box and made a hole in the top of it. Then he put it by the altar. It was on the right side as the people came into the Temple of the Lord. The priests guarding the doorway put all the money brought to the Temple of the Lord into the box.

<sup>10</sup>Each time the priests saw that the box was full of money, the king’s royal assistant and the high priest came. They counted the money that had been brought to the Temple of the Lord. Then they put it into bags. <sup>11</sup>Next they weighed the money. They gave it to the men who were in charge of the work on the Temple. With it they paid the carpenters and the builders who worked on the Temple of the Lord. <sup>12</sup>They also paid the stoneworkers and stonecutters. They used the money to buy timber and cut stone. The money was used to repair the damage of the Temple of the Lord. It paid for everything.

<sup>13</sup>The money brought into the Temple of the Lord was not used to make silver cups. It was not used for wick trimmers, bowls or trumpets. And it wasn’t used for any gold or silver vessels. <sup>14</sup>They paid the money to the workers. And the workers used it to repair the Temple of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>They did not make the men tell how the money was spent. This was because the men were honest. <sup>16</sup>The money from the penalty offerings and sin offerings was not brought into the Temple of the Lord. It belonged to the priests.

Joash Saves Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup>About this time Hazael king of Aram attacked Gath and captured it. Then he went to attack Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>But Joash king of Judah took all the holy things his ancestors had given. His ancestors were the kings of Judah—Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah. He also took his own holy things. He took the gold that was found in the treasuries of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he took the gold from the palace. Joash sent all this treasure to Hazael king of Aram. Then Hazael turned away from Jerusalem.

Jehoahaz King of Israel

13 Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during Joash’s twenty-third year as king of Judah. Joash was the son of Ahaziah. And Jehoahaz ruled 17 years. <sup>2</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jehoahaz did the same sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. And Jehoahaz did not stop doing these same sins. <sup>3</sup>So the Lord was angry with Israel. And he gave them into the power of Hazael king of Aram and his son Ben-Hadad.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jehoahaz begged the Lord, and the Lord listened to him. The Lord had seen the troubles of Israel. He saw how terribly the king of Aram was treating the Israelites. <sup>5</sup>So he gave Israel a man to save them. And they escaped from the Arameans. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before. <sup>6</sup>But the Israelites still did not stop doing the same sins that the family of Jeroboam had done. He had caused Israel to sin. They continued doing those sins. The Asherah<sup>d</sup> idol also was left standing in Samaria.

<sup>7</sup>Nothing was left of Jehoahaz’s army except 50 horsemen, 10 chariots and 10,000 foot soldiers. The king of Aram had destroyed them. He had made them like dust at the time of threshing.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Everything else Jehoahaz did and all his victories are written down. They are in the book of history of the kings of Israel. <sup>9</sup>Jehoahaz died and was buried in Samaria. His son Jehoash became king in his place.

Jehoash King of Israel

<sup>10</sup>Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria. This was during Joash’s thirty-seventh year as king of Judah. Jehoash ruled 16 years. <sup>11</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. He did not stop doing the same sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. And Jehoash continued to do the same thing. <sup>12</sup>Everything else he did and all his victories are written down. This includes his war against Amaziah king of Judah. All this is written in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>13</sup>Jehoash died, and Jeroboam took his place on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

The Death of Elisha

<sup>14</sup>At this time Elisha became sick. (Later, he died from this illness.) Jehoash king of Israel went to Elisha and cried for him. Jehoash said, "My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

<sup>15</sup>Elisha said to Jehoash, "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said to him, "Put your hand on the bow." So Jehoash put his hand on the bow. Then Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. <sup>17</sup>Elisha said, "Open the east window." So Jehoash opened the window. Then Elisha said, "Shoot," and Jehoash shot. Elisha said, "The Lord's arrow of victory over Aram! You will defeat the Arameans at Aphek until you destroy them."

<sup>18</sup>Elisha said, "Take the arrows." So Jehoash took them. Then Elisha said to him, "Hit the ground." So Jehoash hit the ground three times. Then he stopped. <sup>19</sup>The man of God was angry with him. Elisha said, "You should have hit five or six times! Then you would have defeated Aram until you had completely destroyed it! But now you will defeat it only three times."

<sup>20</sup>So Elisha died and was buried.

At that time groups of Moabites would rob the land in the springtime. <sup>21</sup>Once the Israelites were burying a man. Suddenly they saw a group of Moabites coming. The Israelites threw the dead man into Elisha's grave. When the man touched Elisha's bones, the man came back to life. And he stood up on his feet.

War with Aram

<sup>22</sup>During all the days Jehoahaz was king, Hazael king of Aram troubled Israel. <sup>23</sup>But the Lord was kind to the Israelites. He had mercy on them. And he helped them because of his agreement with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He did not destroy them or reject them.

<sup>24</sup>Hazael king of Aram died. And his son Ben-Hadad became king in his place. <sup>25</sup>During a war Hazael had taken some cities from Jehoahaz, Jehoash's father. But now Jehoash took back those cities from Hazael's son Ben-Hadad.

He defeated Ben-Hadad three times and took back the cities of Israel.

Amaziah King of Judah

14 Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah. This was during the second year Jehoash son of Jehoahaz was king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddin. She was from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Amaziah did what the Lord said was right. Amaziah did everything his father Joash had done. But he did not do as David his ancestor had done. <sup>4</sup>The places where false gods were worshiped were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense<sup>d</sup> there.

<sup>5</sup>Amaziah took strong control of the kingdom. Then he put the officers to death who had killed his father the king. <sup>6</sup>But he did not put to death the children of the murderers. This is because of the rule written in the Book of the Teachings of Moses. The Lord had commanded: "Fathers must not be put to death when their children do wrong. And children must not be put to death when their fathers do wrong. Each person must die for his own sins."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Amaziah killed 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. In a battle Amaziah took the city of Sela. He called it Joktheel, and it is still called that today.

<sup>8</sup>Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz. (Jehoahaz was the son of Jehu, king of Israel.) The message read, "Come, let's meet face to face in battle."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoash king of Israel answered Amaziah king of Judah. Jehoash said, "A little thornbush in Lebanon sent a message to a big cedar tree in Lebanon. It said, 'Let your daughter marry my son.' But then a wild animal from Lebanon came by. It walked on and crushed the thornbush. <sup>10</sup>Yes, you have defeated Edom. But you have become proud because of your victory over Edom. Stay at home and brag! Don't ask for trouble by fighting me. If you do, you and Judah will be defeated."

<sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went to attack. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other in battle at Beth Shemesh in Judah. <sup>12</sup>Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran away to his home. <sup>13</sup>At Beth Shemesh Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah. Amaziah was the son of Joash, who was the son of Ahaziah. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem. He broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate. This part of the wall was about 600 feet long. <sup>14</sup>Then he took all the gold and silver and everything in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he took the treasuries of the palace. He also took some hostages and returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>The other acts of Jehoash and his victories are written down. This includes his war against Amaziah king of Judah. All this is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup>Jehoash died and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And his son Jeroboam became king in his place.

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah son of Joash was king of Judah. He lived 15 years after Jehoash king of Israel died. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz. <sup>18</sup>The other things Amaziah did as king are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>19</sup>The people made plans in Jerusalem against Amaziah. So he ran away to the town of Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him. <sup>20</sup>They brought his body back on horses. And he was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem, the city of David.

<sup>21</sup>Then all the people of Judah chose Azariah<sup>a</sup> to be king. He became king in place of his father Amaziah. Azariah was 16 years old. <sup>22</sup>He rebuilt the town of Elath and made it part of Judah again. He did this after Amaziah died.

Jeroboam King of Israel

<sup>23</sup>Jeroboam son of Jehoash became king of Israel in Samaria. This was during the fifteenth year Amaziah was king of Judah. (Amaziah was the son of Joash.) And Jeroboam ruled 41 years. <sup>24</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to sin. And Jeroboam son of Jehoash did not stop doing the same sins. <sup>25</sup>Jeroboam won back Israel's border from Lebo Hamath to the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup> This happened as the Lord of Israel had said. He said it through his servant Jonah son of Amittai. He was the prophet<sup>d</sup> from Gath Hepher. <sup>26</sup>The Lord had seen how the Israelites, both slave and free, were suffering terribly. No one was left who could help Israel. <sup>27</sup>But the Lord had not said that he would completely destroy Israel from the world. So he saved the Israelites through Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

<sup>28</sup>Everything else Jeroboam did is written down. All his victories are recorded. He won back Damascus and Hamath for Israel. (They had belonged to Judah.) All this is written in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>29</sup>Jeroboam died and was buried with his ancestors, the kings of Israel. Jeroboam's son Zechariah became king in his place.

Azariah King of Judah

15 Azariah<sup>a</sup> son of Amaziah became king of Judah. This was during Jeroboam's twenty-seventh year as king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Azariah was 16 years old when he became king. He ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother was named Jecoliah, and she was from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He did what the Lord said was right. He obeyed God just as his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup>But the places where false gods were worshiped were not removed. So the people still made sacrifices and burned incense<sup>d</sup> there.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord struck Azariah with a harmful skin disease. He had this disease until the day he died. He lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son, was in charge of the palace. He governed the people of the land.

<sup>6</sup>All the other things Azariah did are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Azariah died and was buried near his ancestors in Jerusalem. And his son Jotham became king in his place.

Zechariah King of Israel

<sup>8</sup>Zechariah son of Jeroboam was king over Israel in Samaria. He ruled for six months. This was during Azariah's thirty-eighth year as king of Judah. <sup>9</sup>Zechariah did what the Lord said was wrong. He did just as his ancestors had done. Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused the people of Israel to sin. And Zechariah did not stop doing the same sins.

<sup>10</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh made plans against Zechariah. He killed Zechariah in Ibleam. And Shallum became king in Zechariah's place.

<sup>11</sup>The other acts of Zechariah are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>Now the Lord had told Jehu: "Your sons down to your great-great-grandchildren will be kings of Israel." And the Lord's word came true.

Shallum King of Israel

<sup>13</sup>Then Shallum son of Jabesh became king. This was during Uziah's thirty-ninth year as king of Judah. Shallum ruled for a month in Samaria. <sup>14</sup>Then Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria. He killed him and became king in Shallum's place.

<sup>15</sup>The other acts of Shallum and his secret plans are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

Menahem King of Israel

<sup>16</sup>Menahem started out from Tirzah and attacked Tiphshah. He destroyed the city and the area nearby. This was because the people had refused to open the city gate for him. So he defeated them and ripped open all their pregnant women.

<sup>17</sup>Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel. This was during Azariah's thirty-ninth year as king of Judah. And Menahem ruled ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to sin. And all the time Menahem was king, he did not stop doing the same sins.

<sup>19</sup>Pul king of Assyria came to attack the land. Menahem gave him about 74,000 pounds of silver. This was so Pul would support Menahem and make his hold on the kingdom stronger. <sup>20</sup>Menahem raised the money by taxing all the rich men of Israel. He taxed each man about 1¼ pounds of silver. Then he gave the money to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria left and did not stay in the land.

<sup>21</sup>Everything else Menahem did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Then Menahem died. And his son Pekahiah became king in his place.

Pekahiah King of Israel

<sup>23</sup>Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during Azariah's fiftieth year as king of Judah. Pekahiah ruled two years. <sup>24</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to sin. And Pekahiah did not stop doing the same sins.

<sup>25</sup>Pekah son of Remaliah was one of Pekahiah's captains. He made plans against Pekahiah. He took 50 men of Gilead with him and killed Pekahiah. They killed him, Argob and Arieah in the palace at Samaria. Then Pekah became king in Pekahiah's place.

<sup>26</sup>Everything else Pekahiah did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

Pekah King of Israel

<sup>27</sup>Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during Azariah's fifty-second year as king of Judah. And Pekah ruled 20 years. <sup>28</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to sin. And Pekah did not stop doing the same sins.

<sup>29</sup>Tiglath-Pileser, also called Pul, was king of Assyria. He attacked while Pekah was king of Israel. Tiglath-Pileser captured the cities of Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He also captured Gilead and Galilee. And he captured all the land of Naphtali. He sent the people from these places away to Assyria. <sup>30</sup>Then Hoshea son of Elah made plans against Pekah son of Remaliah. Hoshea attacked and killed Pekah. Then he became king in Pekah's place. This was during the twentieth year Jotham son of Uzziah was king.

<sup>31</sup>Everything else Pekah did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

Jotham King of Judah

<sup>32</sup>Then Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah. This was during the second year Pekah son of Remaliah was king of Israel. <sup>33</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup>Jotham did what the Lord said was right. He obeyed God just as his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35</sup>But the places where false gods were worshiped were not removed. And the people still made sacrifices and burned incense<sup>d</sup> there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>The other things Jotham did while he was king are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>37</sup>At that time the Lord began to send Rezin king of Aram against Judah. He also sent Pekah son of Remaliah against them. <sup>38</sup>Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. It was the city of David, his ancestor. And Jotham's son Ahaz became king in his place.

Ahaz King of Judah

16 Ahaz was the son of Jotham king of Judah. Ahaz became king of Judah in the seventeenth year Pekah was king of Israel. Pekah was the son of Remaliah. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. He was not like his ancestor David. He did not do what the Lord his God said was right. <sup>3</sup>Ahaz did the same things the kings of Israel had done. He even sacrificed his sons by burning them in the fire. He did the same hated sins as the other nations had done. And the Lord had forced these nations out of the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup>Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense<sup>d</sup> at the places where false gods were worshiped. And he did this on the hills and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>Rezin king of Aram and Pekah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to attack it. (Pekah was the son of Remaliah.) They surrounded Ahaz but could not defeat him. <sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Aram took back the city of Elath for Aram. He forced out all the people of Judah. Then Edomites moved into Elath. And they still live there today.

<sup>7</sup>Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. Ahaz said, "I am your servant. Come and save me from the king of Aram and the king of Israel. They are attacking me."

<sup>8</sup>Ahaz took the silver and gold that was in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He also took the treasures of the palace. He sent these as a gift to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup>So the king of Assyria listened to Ahaz. He attacked Damascus and captured it. Then he sent all the people of Damascus to Kir. And he killed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. Ahaz saw an altar at Damascus. He sent plans and a pattern of this altar to Uriah the priest. <sup>11</sup>So Uriah the priest built an altar. It was just like the plans King Ahaz had sent him from Damascus. Uriah finished the altar before King Ahaz came back from Damascus. <sup>12</sup>When the king arrived from Damascus, he saw the altar. He went near and offered sacrifices on it. <sup>13</sup>He burned his burnt offerings and grain offerings. He poured out his drink offering. He also sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>Ahaz moved the bronze altar that was before the Lord at the front of the Temple. It was between Ahaz's altar and the Temple of the Lord. He put it on the north side of his altar.

<sup>15</sup>King Ahaz gave a command to Uriah the priest. Ahaz said, "Burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering on the large altar. Also offer the king's burnt offering and his grain offering. Offer the whole burnt offering for all the people of the land. And offer their grain offering and drink offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offering and of the sacrifice. But I will use the bronze altar to ask questions of God." <sup>16</sup>Uriah the priest did everything King Ahaz commanded him to do.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Ahaz took off the side panels from the bases. He took the washing bowls off the top of the bases. He also took the large bowl, which was called the Sea, off the bronze bulls that held it up. And he put it on a stone base. <sup>18</sup>Ahaz took away the platform for the royal throne. It had been built at the Temple.

He also took away the outside entrance for the king. He did these things because of the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>The other things Ahaz did as king are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>20</sup>Ahaz died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. Ahaz's son Hezekiah became king in his place.

Hoshea, Last King of Israel

17 Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel. This was during Ahaz's twelfth year as king of Judah. Hoshea ruled in Samaria nine years. <sup>2</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. But he was not as bad as the kings of Israel who had ruled before him.

<sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria came to attack Hoshea. Hoshea had been Shalmaneser's servant. He had made the payments to Shalmaneser that he had demanded. <sup>4</sup>But the king of Assyria found out that Hoshea had made plans against him. Hoshea had sent messengers to So, the king of Egypt. And Hoshea had quit giving Shalmaneser the payments he demanded. In the past Hoshea had paid him every year. So the king put Hoshea in prison. <sup>5</sup>Then the king of Assyria came and attacked all the land of Israel. He surrounded Samaria and attacked it for three years. <sup>6</sup>He defeated Samaria in the ninth year Hoshea was king. He took the Israelites away to Assyria. He settled some of them in Halah. Some were made to settle in Gozan on the Habor River. Others were settled in the cities of the Medes.

Israelites Punished for Sin

<sup>7</sup>All these things happened because the Israelites had sinned against the Lord their God. He had brought them out of Egypt. He had rescued them from the power of the king of Egypt. But the Israelites had honored other gods. <sup>8</sup>They lived like the nations the Lord had forced out of the land ahead of them. They also lived as the evil kings had shown them. <sup>9</sup>They secretly sinned against the Lord their God. They built places in all their cities where false gods were worshiped. They built them everywhere from the watchtower to the strong, walled city. <sup>10</sup>They put up stone pillars for worshiping false gods. And they put up Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup>The Israelites burned incense<sup>d</sup> everywhere false gods were worshiped. The nations who lived there before them had done this. And the Lord had forced them out of the land. The Israelites did wicked things that made the Lord angry. <sup>12</sup>They served idols. And the Lord had said, "You must not do this." <sup>13</sup>The Lord used every prophet<sup>d</sup> and seer<sup>d</sup> to warn Israel and Judah. He said, "Stop your evil ways. Obey my commands and laws. Follow all the teachings that I commanded your ancestors to obey. I sent you this law through my servants the prophets."

<sup>14</sup>But the people would not listen. They were stubborn, just as their ancestors had been. Their ancestors did not believe in the Lord their God. <sup>15</sup>They rejected the Lord's laws and the agreement he had made with their ancestors. And they refused to listen to his warnings. They worshiped useless idols and became useless themselves. They did what the nations around them did. And the Lord had warned them not to do this.

<sup>16</sup>The people disobeyed all the commands of the Lord their God. They made statues of two calves from melted metal. And they made an Asherah idol. They worshiped all the stars of heaven and served Baal.<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. And they tried to find out the future by magic and witchcraft.<sup>d</sup> They always chose to do what the Lord said was wrong. And this made him angry. <sup>18</sup>So he was very angry with the people of Israel. He removed them from his presence. Only the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah was left.

Judah Is Also Guilty

<sup>19</sup>But even Judah did not obey the commands of the Lord their God. They did what the Israelites had done. <sup>20</sup>So the Lord rejected all the people of Israel. He punished them and let people destroy them. He threw them out of his presence. <sup>21</sup>The Lord separated them from the family of David. And the Israelites made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam led the Israelites away from following the Lord. He caused them to sin greatly. <sup>22</sup>So they continued to do all the sins Jeroboam did. They did not stop doing these sins <sup>23</sup>until the Lord removed the people from his presence. This was just as he had said he would do. He had said this through all his servants the prophets.<sup>d</sup> So the Israelites were taken out of their land to Assyria. And they have been there to this day.

The Beginning of the Samaritan People

<sup>24</sup>The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim. He put them in the cities of Samaria to replace the Israelites. These people took over Samaria and lived in the cities. <sup>25</sup>At first they did not worship the Lord. So he sent lions among them. The lions killed some of them.

<sup>26</sup>The king of Assyria was told this. It was said, "You sent foreigners into the cities of Samaria. They do not know the law of the god of the land. This is why that land's god has sent lions among them. The lions are killing them because they don't know what the god wants."

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Assyria gave a command. He said, "You took Samaria's priests away. Send back one of the priests to live there. Let him teach them what the god wants."<sup>28</sup>So one of the priests who had been carried away from Samaria returned. He came to live in Bethel. And he taught the people how to worship the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>But each nation made gods of its own. They put them in the cities where they lived. They put them in the temples where false gods were worshiped. These temples had been made by the Samaritans. <sup>30</sup>The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth their god. The men from Cuthah worshiped Nergal. The men of Hamath worshiped Ashima. <sup>31</sup>The Avvites worshiped Nibhaz and Tartak. And the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire. They sacrificed them to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup>They also worshiped the Lord. But they chose priests for the places where false gods were worshiped. The priests were chosen from among themselves. And they made sacrifices for the people. <sup>33</sup>The people worshiped the Lord but also served their own gods. They served their gods as the nations did from which they had been brought. <sup>34</sup>Even today they do as they did in the past. They do not worship the Lord. They do not obey his rules and commands. They do not obey the teachings or the commands of the Lord. He gave these commands to the children of Jacob, whom the Lord had named Israel. <sup>35</sup>The Lord had made an agreement with them. He had commanded them, "Do not worship other gods. Do not bow down to them or serve them. Do not give sacrifices to them. <sup>36</sup>Worship the Lord who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. He did it with great power and strength. Bow to the Lord and make sacrifices to him. <sup>37</sup>Obey the rules, orders and the teachings. Obey the commands the Lord wrote for you. Obey and always do them. Do not worship other gods. <sup>38</sup>Do not forget the agreement I made with you. And do not worship other gods. <sup>39</sup>Instead worship the Lord your God. He will save you from all your enemies."

grandchildren still do as their ancestors did.

Hezekiah King of Judah

18 Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah became king. This was during the third year Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king. And he ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3</sup>Hezekiah did what the Lord said was right. He did just as his ancestor David had done. <sup>4</sup>He removed the places where false gods were worshiped. He broke the stone pillars they worshiped. He cut down the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. Also the Israelites had been burning incense<sup>d</sup> to the bronze snake made by Moses. (It was called Nehushtan.) But Hezekiah broke it into pieces.

<sup>5</sup>Hezekiah trusted in the Lord, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah. There was no king like him, before him or after him. <sup>6</sup>Hezekiah was loyal to the Lord. He did not stop following the Lord. He obeyed the commands the Lord had given Moses. <sup>7</sup>And the Lord was with Hezekiah. He had success in everything he did. He turned against the king of Assyria and stopped serving him. <sup>8</sup>Hezekiah defeated the Philistines all the way to Gaza and its borders. He defeated them everywhere, from the watchtower to the strong, walled city.

The Assyrians Capture Samaria

<sup>9</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria surrounded Samaria and attacked it. This was in the fourth year Hezekiah was king. And it was the seventh year Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel. <sup>10</sup>After three years the Assyrians captured Samaria. This was in the sixth year Hezekiah was king. And it was Hoshea's ninth year as king of Israel. <sup>11</sup>The king of Assyria took the Israelites away to Assyria. He put them in Halah and in Gozan on the Habor River. He also put them in the cities of the Medes. <sup>12</sup>This happened because they did not obey the Lord their God. They broke his agreement. They did not obey all that Moses, the Lord's servant, had commanded. They would not listen to the commands or do them.

Assyria Attacks Judah

<sup>13</sup>During Hezekiah's fourteenth year as king, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked Judah. He attacked all the strong, walled cities of Judah and defeated them. <sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent a message to the king of Assyria at Lachish. He said, "I have done wrong. Leave me alone. Then I will pay anything you demand of me." So the king of Assyria told Hezekiah how much to pay. It was about 22,000 pounds of silver and 2,000 pounds of gold. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he gave him all the silver in the palace treasuries. <sup>16</sup>Hezekiah cut off all the gold that covered the doors of the Temple of the Lord. He also removed the gold from the doorposts. Hezekiah had put gold on these doors himself. He gave it all to the king of Assyria.

Assyria Troubles Hezekiah

<sup>17</sup>The king of Assyria sent out his supreme commander, his chief officer and his field commander. They went with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. When they came near the waterway from the upper pool, they stopped. The upper pool is on the road to the Washerman's Field. <sup>18</sup>They called for the king. So Eliakim, Shebna and Joah went out to meet them. Eliakim son of Hilkiah was the palace manager. Shebna was the royal assistant. And Joah son of Asaph was the recorder.

<sup>19</sup>The field commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah this:

"The great king, the king of Assyria, says: You have nothing to trust in to help you. <sup>20</sup>You say you have battle plans and power for war. But your words mean nothing. Whom are you trusting for help so that you turn against me? <sup>21</sup>Look, you are depending on Egypt to help you. Egypt is like a splintered walking stick. If you lean on it for help, it will stab you and hurt you. The king of Egypt will hurt those who depend on him. <sup>22</sup>You might say, "We are depending on the Lord our God." But Hezekiah destroyed the Lord's altars and the places of worship. Hezekiah told Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship only at this one altar in Jerusalem."

<sup>23</sup>"Now make an agreement with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find enough men to ride them. <sup>24</sup>You cannot defeat one of my master's least important officers. So why do you depend on Egypt to give you chariots and horsemen? <sup>25</sup>I have not come to attack and destroy this place without an order from the Lord. The Lord himself told me to come to this country and destroy it.' "

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna and Joah spoke to the field commander. They said, "Please speak to us in the Aramaic language. We understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew because the people on the city wall can hear you."

<sup>27</sup>But the commander said, "No. My master did not send me to tell these things only to you and your king. My master sent me to tell them also to those people sitting on the wall. They will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine like you."

<sup>28</sup>Then the commander stood and shouted loudly in the Hebrew language. He said, "Listen to the word from the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>29</sup>The king says you should not let Hezekiah fool you. Hezekiah can't save you from my power. <sup>30</sup>Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting the Lord. Hezekiah says, 'The Lord will surely save us. This city won't be given over to the king of Assyria.'

<sup>31</sup>"Don't listen to Hezekiah. The king of Assyria says, 'Make peace with me. Come out of the city to me. Then everyone will be free to eat the fruit from his own grapevine and fig tree. Everyone will be free to drink water from his own well. <sup>32</sup>Then I will come and take you to a land like your own. It is a land with grain and new wine. It has bread and vineyards. It is a land of olives and honey. Then you can choose to live and not to die!'

"Don't listen to Hezekiah. He is fooling you when he says, 'The Lord will save us.' <sup>33</sup>The god of any other nation has not saved his people from the power of the king of Assyria. <sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? They did not save Samaria from my power. <sup>35</sup>Not one of all the gods of these countries has saved his people from me. Then the Lord cannot save Jerusalem from my power."

<sup>36</sup>The people were silent. They didn't answer the commander at all. This was because King Hezekiah had ordered, "Don't answer him."

<sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah tore their clothes to show how upset they were. (Eliakim son of Hilkiyah was the palace manager. Shebna was the royal assistant. And Joah son of Asaph was the recorder.) The three men went to Hezekiah and told him what the field commander had said.

Jerusalem Will Be Saved

19 When King Hezekiah heard the message, he tore his clothes. And he put on rough cloth to show how sad he was. Then he went into the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah sent Eliakim, Shebna and the older priests to Isaiah. Eliakim was the palace manager, and Shebna was the royal assistant. The men were all wearing the rough cloth when they came to Isaiah. He was a prophet,<sup>d</sup> the son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup>These men told Isaiah, "This is what Hezekiah says: Today is a day of sorrow and punishment and disgrace. It is sad, as when a child should be born, but the mother is not strong enough to give birth to it. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria sent his field commander to make fun of the living God. Maybe the Lord your God will hear what the commander said. Maybe the Lord your God will punish him for what he said. So pray for the few people of Israel who are left alive."

<sup>9</sup>The king received a report that Tirhakah was coming to attack him. Tirhakah was the Cushite king of Egypt. When the king of Assyria heard this, he sent messengers to Hezekiah. The king said: <sup>10</sup>"Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: Don't be fooled by the god you trust. Don't believe him when he says Jerusalem will not be defeated by the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done. They have completely defeated every country. Do not think you will be saved. <sup>12</sup>The gods of those people did not save them. My ancestors destroyed them. My ancestors defeated the cities of Gozan, Haran and Rezeph. They defeated the people of Eden living in Tel Assar. <sup>13</sup>Where are the kings of Hamath and Arpad? Where is the king of the city of Sepharvaim? Where are the kings of Hena and Ivvah?"

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Hezekiah spread the letter out before the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And he prayed to the Lord: "Lord, God of Israel, your throne is between the gold creatures with wings! Only you are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup>Hear, Lord, and listen. Open your eyes, Lord, and see. Listen to the word Sennacherib has said to insult the living God. <sup>17</sup>It is true, Lord. The kings of Assyria have destroyed these countries and their lands. <sup>18</sup>These kings have thrown the gods of these nations into the fire. But they were only wood and rock statues that men made. So the kings have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup>Now, Lord our God, save us from the king's power. Then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you, Lord, are the only God."

God Answers Hezekiah

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, "The Lord, the God of Israel, says this: I have heard your prayer to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria. <sup>21</sup>So this is what the Lord has said against Sennacherib:

The people of Jerusalem hate you and make fun of you.
The people of Jerusalem
laugh at you as you run away.

<sup>22</sup>You have insulted me and spoken against me.

You have raised your voice against me.
You have a proud look on your face.
You disobey me, the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup>You have used your messengers to insult the Lord.

You have said, "I have many chariots.
With them I have gone to the tops of the mountains.

I have climbed the highest mountains of Lebanon.

I have cut down its tallest cedars.
I have cut down its best pine trees.
I have reached its farthest places.
I have gone to its best forests.

<sup>24</sup>I have dug wells in foreign countries.
I have drunk water there.

By the soles of my feet,
I have dried up all the rivers of Egypt."

<sup>25</sup>"King of Assyria, surely you have heard.
Long ago I, the Lord, planned these things.

Long ago I planned them.
Now I have made them happen.
I allowed you to turn those strong, walled cities into piles of rocks.

<sup>26</sup>The people living in those cities were weak.

They were frightened and put to shame.
They were like grass in the field.
They were like tender, young grass.
They were like grass that grows on the housetop.

It is burned by the wind before it can grow.

<sup>27</sup>"I know when you rest and when you come and go.

I know how you speak against me.

<sup>28</sup>You speak strongly against me.

And I have heard your proud words.

So I will put my hook in your nose.

And I will put my bit in your mouth.

Then I will force you to leave my country the same way that you came.'

<sup>29</sup>"Then the Lord said, 'Hezekiah, I will give you this sign:

This year you will eat the grain that grows wild.

And the second year you will eat what grows wild from that.

But in the third year, plant grain and harvest it.

Plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>30</sup>Some of the people in the family of Judah will be saved.

Like plants that take root,
they will grow strong and have many children.

<sup>31</sup>A few people will come out of Jerusalem alive.

There will be a few from Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> who will live.

The strong love of the Lord of heaven's armies will cause this to happen.'

<sup>32</sup>"So this is what the Lord says about the king of Assyria:

'He will not enter this city.

He will not even shoot an arrow here.

He will not fight against it with shields.

He will not build a ramp to attack the city walls.

<sup>33</sup>He will return to his country the same way he came.

He will not enter this city,'
says the Lord.

<sup>34</sup>The Lord says, 'I will defend and save this city.

I will do this for myself and for David, my servant.' "

<sup>35</sup>That night the angel of the Lord went out. He killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. The people got up early the next morning. And they saw all the dead bodies! <sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria left. He went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>37</sup>One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch. While he was there, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword. Then they escaped to the land of Ararat. So Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon became king of Assyria.

Hezekiah's Illness

20 At that time Hezekiah became very sick. He was almost dead. The prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him. Isaiah told him, "This is what the Lord says: You are going to die. So you should give your last orders to everyone. You will not get well."

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah turned toward the wall and prayed to the Lord. He said, <sup>3</sup>"Lord, please remember that I have always obeyed you. I have given myself completely to you. I have done what you said was right." And Hezekiah cried loudly.

<sup>4</sup>Before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard, the Lord spoke his word to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup>"Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people: 'This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer. And I have seen your tears. So I will heal you. Three days from now you will go up to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>I will add 15 years to your life. I will save you and this city from the king of Assyria. And I will protect the city for myself and for my servant David.'"

<sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Make a paste from figs." So they made it and put it on Hezekiah's boil. And he got well.

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah asked Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the Lord will heal me? What is the sign that I will go up to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord on the third day?"

<sup>9</sup>Isaiah said, "The Lord will do what he says. This is the sign from the Lord to show you: Do you want the shadow to go forward ten steps? Or do you want it to go back ten steps?"

<sup>10</sup>Hezekiah answered, "It's easy for the shadow to go forward ten steps. Instead, let it go back ten steps."

<sup>11</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet called to the Lord. And the Lord brought the shadow back ten steps. It went back up the stairway of Ahaz that it had gone down.

Messengers from Babylon

<sup>12</sup>At that time Merodach-Baladan, son of Baladan, was king of Babylon. He sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah. He did this because he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah was happy to see the messengers. So he showed them what was in his storehouses: the silver, gold, spices and expensive perfumes. He showed them his swords and shields. He showed them all his wealth. He showed them everything in his palace and his kingdom.

Hezekiah. Isaiah asked him, "What did these man say? Where did they come from?"

Hezekiah said, "They came from a faraway country. They came to me from Babylon."

<sup>15</sup>So Isaiah asked him, "What did they see in your palace?"

Hezekiah said, "They saw everything in my palace. I showed them all my wealth."

<sup>16</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the words of the Lord: <sup>17</sup>In the future everything in your palace will be taken away to Babylon. Everything your ancestors have stored up until this day will be taken away. Nothing will be left," says the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Some of your own children will be taken away. Those who will be born to you will be taken away. And they will become eunuchs<sup>d</sup> in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>19</sup>Hezekiah told Isaiah, "These words from the Lord are good." He said this because he thought, "There will be peace and security while I am king."

<sup>20</sup>Everything else Hezekiah did is written down. All his victories and his work on the pool are written down. And his work on the tunnel to bring water into the city is recorded. They are all written in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>21</sup>Then Hezekiah died. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

Manasseh King of Judah

21 Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king. And he was king 55 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. He did the hated things the other nations had done. And the Lord had forced these nations out of the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>3</sup>Manasseh's father, Hezekiah, had destroyed the places where false gods were worshiped. But Manasseh rebuilt them. He built altars for Baal.<sup>d</sup> And he made an Asherah<sup>d</sup> idol as Ahab king of Israel had done. Manasseh worshiped all the stars of heaven and served them. <sup>4</sup>The Lord had said about the Temple,<sup>d</sup> "I will be worshiped in Jerusalem." But Manasseh built altars in the Temple of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>He built altars to worship the stars in the two courtyards of the Temple of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>He burned his own son as a sacrifice. He practiced magic and told the future by explaining signs and dreams. He got advice from mediums<sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers. He did many things that the Lord said were wrong. And this made the Lord angry.

<sup>7</sup>Manasseh carved an Asherah idol and put it in the Temple. The Lord had spoken to David and his son Solomon about the Temple. He had said, "I will be worshiped in this Temple and in Jerusalem forever. I have chosen Jerusalem from all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>8</sup>I will never again make the Israelites wander out of the land I gave their ancestors. But they must obey everything I have commanded them. And they must obey all the teachings my servant Moses gave them." <sup>9</sup>But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them to do wrong. They did more evil than the nations the Lord had destroyed ahead of the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord spoke through his servants the prophets.<sup>d</sup> He said, <sup>11</sup>"Manasseh king of Judah has done these hated things. He has done more evil than the Amorites before him. Manasseh also has caused Judah to sin with his idols. <sup>12</sup>So this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I will bring much trouble on Jerusalem and Judah. Anyone who hears about it will be shocked. <sup>13</sup>I will stretch the measuring line of Samaria over Jerusalem. And the plumb line<sup>d</sup> used against Ahab's family will be used on Jerusalem. I will wipe out Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish. He wipes it and turns it upside down. <sup>14</sup>I will go away from the rest of my people who are left. I will give them to their enemies. They will be robbed by all their enemies. <sup>15</sup>My people did what I said was wrong. They have made me angry from the day their ancestors left Egypt until now.'"

<sup>16</sup>Manasseh also killed many innocent people. He filled Jerusalem from one end to the other with their blood. This was besides the sin he caused Judah to do. He caused Judah to do what the Lord said was wrong.

<sup>17</sup>The other things Manasseh did as king are written down, even the sin he did. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>18</sup>Manasseh died and was buried in the garden of his own palace. It is the garden of Uzza. Then Manasseh's son Amon became king in his place.

Amon King of Judah

<sup>19</sup>Amon was 22 years old when he became king. He was king for two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz. She was from Jothab. <sup>20</sup>Amon did what the Lord said was wrong. He did as his father Manasseh had done. <sup>21</sup>Amon lived in the same way his father had lived. He worshiped the idols his father had worshiped. And he bowed down before them. <sup>22</sup>Amon rejected the Lord, the God of his ancestors. He did not follow the ways of the Lord.

and killed him in his palace. <sup>24</sup>Then the people of Judah killed all those who had made plans to kill King Amon. And they made his son Josiah king in his place.

<sup>25</sup>Everything else Amon did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>26</sup>He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza. And his son Josiah became king in his place.

Josiah King Of Judah

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled 31 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah. Adaiah was from Bozkath. <sup>2</sup>Josiah did what the Lord said was right. He did good things as his ancestor David had done. Josiah did not stop doing what was right.

<sup>3</sup>In Josiah's eighteenth year as king, he sent Shaphan to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Shaphan was the son of Azaliah, who was the son of Meshullam. Shaphan was the royal assistant. Josiah said, <sup>4</sup>"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest. Have him empty out the money the gatekeepers have gathered from the people. This is the money they have brought into the Temple of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Have him give the money to the supervisors of the work on the Temple. They must pay the men who work to repair the Temple of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>The workers are carpenters, builders and stoneworkers. Also use the money to buy timber and cut stone to repair the Temple. <sup>7</sup>They do not need to report how they use the money given to them. They are working honestly."

The Book of the Law Is Found

<sup>8</sup>Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the royal assistant, "I've found the Book of the Teachings. It was in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord." He gave it to Shaphan, who read it.

<sup>9</sup>Then Shaphan the royal assistant went to the king and reported to Josiah, "Your officers have paid out the money that was in the Temple of the Lord. They have given it to the workers and supervisors at the Temple." <sup>10</sup>Then Shaphan the royal assistant told the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from the book to the king.

<sup>11</sup>The king heard the words of the Book of the Teachings. Then he tore his clothes to show how upset he was. <sup>12</sup>He gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest and Ahikam son of Shaphan. He also gave them to Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan and Asaiah. Shaphan was the royal assistant. And Asaiah was the king's servant. These were the orders: <sup>13</sup>"Go and ask the Lord about the words in the book that has been found. Ask for me and for all the people and for all Judah. The Lord's anger is burning against us because our ancestors did not obey the words of this book. They did not do all the things written for us to do!"

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan and Asaiah left. They went to talk to Huldah the prophetess.<sup>a</sup> She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas. Harhas took care of the king's clothes. Huldah lived in Jerusalem, in the new area of the city.

<sup>15</sup>She said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>16</sup>This is what the Lord says: I will bring trouble to this place and to the people living here. It is in the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup>The people of Judah, have left me. They have burned incense<sup>d</sup> to other gods. They have made me angry by all the idols they have made. My anger burns against this place like a fire. It will not be put out." <sup>18</sup>Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to ask the Lord, 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the words you heard: <sup>19</sup>You heard my words against this place and its people. You became sorry in the Lord's presence for what you had done. I said they would become cursed and would be destroyed. Then you tore your clothes to show how upset you were. And you cried in my presence. This is why I have heard you, says the Lord. <sup>20</sup>So I will cause you to die. You will be buried in peace. You won't see all the trouble I will bring to this place.' "

So they took her message back to the king.

The People Hear the Law

23 Then the king gathered all the older leaders of Judah and Jerusalem together. <sup>2</sup>He went up to the Temple<sup>a</sup> of the Lord. All the men from Judah and Jerusalem went with him. The priests, prophets<sup>d</sup> and all the people—from the least important to the most important—went with him. He read to them all the words of the Book of the Agreement. That book was found in the Temple of the Lord. <sup>3</sup>The king stood by the pillar. He made an agreement in the presence of the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord and obey his commands, rules and laws with his whole being. He agreed to do what was written in this book. Then all the people promised to obey the agreement.

Josiah Destroys the Places for Idol Worship

<sup>4</sup>The king gave a command to Hilkiah the high priest. He also gave it to the priests of the next rank and the gatekeepers. He told them to bring out of the Temple of the Lord everything made for Baal,<sup>a</sup> Asherah<sup>d</sup> and all the stars of heaven. Then Josiah burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley. And he carried the ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup>The kings of Judah had chosen priests for these gods. These priests burned incense<sup>d</sup> on the places where false gods were worshiped. These places were in the cities of Judah and the towns around Jerusalem. The priests burned incense to Baal, the sun and the moon. And they burned incense to the planets and all the stars of heaven. But Josiah took those priests away. <sup>6</sup>He removed the Asherah idol from the Temple of the Lord. He took it outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley. There he burned it and beat it into dust. And he threw the dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup>Then he tore down the houses of the male prostitutes<sup>d</sup> who were in the Temple of the Lord. This was where the women did weaving for Asherah.

<sup>8</sup>King Josiah brought all the false priests from the cities of Judah. He made the places where false gods were worshiped impure. This is where the priests had burned incense. These places of worship were everywhere, from Geba to Beersheba. He destroyed the places of worship at the entrance to the Gate of Joshua. (Joshua was the ruler of the city.) This gate was on the left side of the city gate. <sup>9</sup>The priests at the places where false gods were worshiped were not allowed to serve at the Lord's altar in Jerusalem. But they could eat bread made without yeast with their brothers.

<sup>10</sup>Topheth was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. Josiah made it impure so no one could sacrifice his son or daughter to Molech.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>Judah's kings had placed horses at the front door of the Temple of the Lord. This was in the courtyard near the room of Nathan-Melech, an officer. These horses were for the worship of the sun. But Josiah removed them. Then he burned the chariots that were for sun worship.

<sup>12</sup>The kings of Judah had also built altars on the roof<sup>n</sup> of the upstairs room of Ahaz. Josiah broke down these altars. He also broke down the altars Manasseh had made. These were in the two courtyards of the Temple of the Lord. He smashed them to pieces. Then he threw their dust into the Kidron Valley. <sup>13</sup>King Josiah made impure the places east of Jerusalem where false gods were worshiped. These were south of the Mount of Olives.<sup>a</sup> Solomon king of Israel had built these places. One was for Ash-toreth,<sup>d</sup> the hated goddess of the Sidonians. One was for Chemosh,<sup>d</sup> the hated god of Moab. And one was for Molech, the hated god of the Ammonites. <sup>14</sup>Josiah smashed into pieces the stone pillars they worshiped. He cut down the Asherah idols. And he covered the places with human bones.

<sup>15</sup>Josiah also broke down the altar at Bethel. This was the place of worship Jeroboam son of Nebat had made. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. Josiah burned that place. He broke the stones of the altar to pieces. Then he beat them into dust. And he burned the Asherah idol. <sup>16</sup>When he turned around, he saw the graves on the mountain. He had the bones taken from the graves. Then he burned the bones on the altar to make it impure. This happened as the Lord had said it would through the man of God.

<sup>17</sup>Josiah asked, "What is that monument to the dead I see?"

The people of the city answered, "It's the grave of the man of God who came from Judah. This prophet announced the things you have done against the altar of Bethel."

<sup>19</sup>The kings of Israel had built temples for worshiping false gods in the cities of Samaria. That had caused the Lord to be angry. Josiah removed all those temples. He did the same things as he had done at Bethel. <sup>20</sup>Josiah killed all the priests of those places of worship. He killed them on the altars. And he burned human bones on the altars. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

The Passover Is Brought Back

<sup>21</sup>The king gave a command to all the people. He said, "Celebrate the Passover<sup>d</sup> to the Lord your God. Do it as it is written in this Book of the Agreement." <sup>22</sup>No Passover like this one had been celebrated since the judges led Israel. Nor had one like it happened while there were kings of Israel and kings of Judah. <sup>23</sup>This Passover was celebrated to the Lord in Jerusalem. It was the eighteenth year of King Josiah's rule.

tellers, house gods and idols. He destroyed all the hated gods seen in the land of Judah and Jerusalem. He did this to obey the words of the teachings. They were written in the book Hilki-ah the priest had found in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>There was no king like Josiah before or after him. He obeyed the Lord with all his heart, soul and strength. He followed all the Teachings of Moses.

<sup>26</sup>Even so, the Lord did not stop his strong and terrible anger. His anger burned against Judah. It was because of all that Manasseh had done to make him angry. <sup>27</sup>The Lord said, "I have taken Israel away. I will do the same to Judah. I will take them out of my sight. I will reject Jerusalem which I chose. I will take away the Temple about which I said, 'I will be honored there.'"

<sup>28</sup>Everything else Josiah did is written down. It is in the book of the history of the kings of Judah.

<sup>29</sup>While Josiah was king, Neco king of Egypt went to help the king of Assyria. Neco was at the Euphrates River. King Josiah marched out to fight against Neco. But at Megiddo, Neco faced Josiah and killed him. <sup>30</sup>Josiah's servants carried his body in a chariot from Megiddo. They brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own grave. Then the people of Judah chose Josiah's son Jehoahaz. They poured olive oil on him to appoint him king in his father's place.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Hamutal. She was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>32</sup>Jehoahaz did what the Lord said was wrong. He did just as his ancestors had done.

<sup>33</sup>King Neco took Jehoahaz prisoner at Riblah in the land of Hamath. He did this so Jehoahaz could not rule in Jerusalem. Neco made the people of Judah pay about 7,500 pounds of silver and about 75 pounds of gold.

<sup>34</sup>King Neco made Josiah's son Eliakim the king in place of Josiah his father. Then Neco changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt, and he died there. <sup>35</sup>Jehoiakim gave King Neco the silver and gold he demanded. But Jehoiakim taxed the land so he could pay the king. He took silver and gold from the people of the land. The amount he took from each person depended on how much he had.

Jehoiakim King of Judah

<sup>30</sup>Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. He was king in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah. She was from Rumah. <sup>37</sup>Jehoiakim did what the Lord said was wrong, just as his ancestors had done.

24 While Jehoiakim was king, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the land of Judah. So Jehoiakim became Nebuchadnezzar's servant for three years. Then Jehoiakim turned against Nebuchadnezzar. And he broke away from his rule. <sup>2</sup>The Lord sent men from Babylon, Aram, Moab and Ammon against Jehoiakim. He sent them to destroy Judah. This happened the way the Lord had said it would through his servants the prophets.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>The Lord commanded this to happen to the people of Judah. He did it to remove them from his presence. This was because of all the sins Manasseh had done. <sup>4</sup>He had killed many innocent people. He had filled Jerusalem with their blood. And the Lord would not forgive these sins.

<sup>5</sup>The other things that happened while Jehoiakim was king and all he did are written down. They are in the book of the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiakim died, and his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not come out of his land again. This was because of the king of Babylon. He had captured all that belonged to the king of Egypt. He took all the land from the book of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king. He was king three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan. She was from Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin did what the Lord said was wrong, just as his father had done.

<sup>10</sup>At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem. They surrounded the city and attacked it. <sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar himself came to the city while his officers were attacking it. <sup>12</sup>Jehoiachin king of Judah surrendered to the king of Babylon. Jehoiachin's mother, servants, leaders and officers also surrendered. Then the king of Babylon made Jehoiachin a prisoner. This was in the eighth year Nebuchadnezzar was king.

<sup>13</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took all the treasures from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He also removed the treasures from the palace. He took all the gold objects Solomon king of Israel had made for the Temple. This happened as the Lord had said it would. <sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took away all the people of Jerusalem. This included all the leaders and all the wealthy people. He also took all the craftsmen and metal workers. There were 10,000 prisoners in all. Only the poorest people in the land were left. <sup>15</sup>Nebuchadnezzar carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon. He took the king's mother and his wives. He also took the officers and leading men of the land. They were taken captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup>The king of Babylon also took all 7,000 soldiers. These men were all strong and able to fight in war. And 1,000 craftsmen and metal workers were taken, too. Nebuchadnezzar took them as prisoners to Babylon. <sup>17</sup>He made Mattaniah king in Jehoiachin's place. Mattaniah was Jehoiachin's uncle. He also changed Mattaniah's name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah King of Judah

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah.<sup>e</sup> She was from Libnah. <sup>19</sup>Zedekiah did what the Lord said was wrong, just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup>All this happened in Jerusalem and Judah because the Lord was angry with them. Finally, he threw them out of his presence.

The Fall of Jerusalem

Zedekiah turned against the king of Babylon. 25 Then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. This happened during Zedekiah's ninth year, tenth month and tenth day as king. He made a camp around the city. Then he built devices all around the city walls to attack it. <sup>2</sup>The city was under attack until Zedekiah's eleventh year as king. <sup>3</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month, the hunger was terrible in the city. There was no food for the people to eat. <sup>4</sup>Then the city wall was broken through. And the whole army ran away at night. They went through the gate between the two walls by the king's garden. The Babylonians were still surrounding the city. Zedekiah and his men ran toward the Jordan Valley. <sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah. They caught up with him in the plains of Jericho. All of his army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup>So they captured Zedekiah and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah. There he passed sentence on Zedekiah. <sup>7</sup>They killed Zedekiah's sons as he watched. Then they put out his eyes. They put bronze chains on him and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king's special guards. This officer of the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem. This was on the seventh day of the fifth month. This was in Nebuchadnezzar's nineteenth year as king of Babylon. <sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan set fire to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and the palace. He also set fire to all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building was burned.

<sup>10</sup>The whole Babylonian army broke down the walls around Jerusalem. That army was led by the commander of the king's special guards. <sup>11</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, took captive the people left in Jerusalem. And he took captive those who had surrendered to the king of Babylon. The rest of the people were also taken away. <sup>12</sup>But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land. They were to take care of the vineyards and fields.

<sup>13</sup>The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the bronze stands and the large bronze bowl, which was called the Sea. These were in the Temple of the Lord. Then they carried the bronze to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>They also took the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes and all the bronze objects. These were used to serve in the Temple. <sup>15</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took away the pans for carrying hot coals. He also took the bowls and everything made of pure gold or silver. <sup>16</sup>There was so much bronze that it could not be weighed. There were two pillars and the large bronze bowl. There were also the movable stands which Solomon had made for the Temple of the Lord. <sup>17</sup>Each pillar was about 27 feet high. The bronze capital<sup>d</sup> on top of the pillar was about 4½ feet high. It was decorated with a net design and bronze pomegranates<sup>d</sup> all around it. The other pillar also had a net design. It was like the first pillar.

Judah Is Taken Prisoner

<sup>18</sup>The commander of the guards took some prisoners. He took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup>The commander also took other people who were still in the city. He took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took five people who advised the king. And he took the royal assistant who selected people for the army. And he took 60 other men who were in the city. <sup>20</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all these people. And he brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>21</sup>There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them killed. So the people of Judah were led away from their country as captives.

Gedaliah Becomes Governor

<sup>22</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon left some people in the land of Judah. He appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor. (Ahikam was the son of Shaphan.)

<sup>23</sup>The army captains and their men heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor. So they all came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael son of Nethaniah and Johanan son of Kareah. Also there were Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite and their men. <sup>24</sup>Then Gedaliah made promises to these army captains and their men. He said, "Don't be afraid of the Babylonian officers. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon. Then everything will go well for you."

<sup>25</sup>Ishmael was the son of Nethaniah. Nethaniah was the son of Elishama from the king's family. In the seventh month Ishmael came with ten men and killed Gedaliah. They also killed the men of Judah and Babylon who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup>Then all the people, from the least important to the most important, ran away to Egypt. The army leaders also went. This was because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

<sup>27</sup>Jehoiachin king of Judah was held in Babylon for 37 years. In the thirty-seventh year Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon. He let Jehoiachin out of prison on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month. <sup>28</sup>Evil-Merodach spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a seat of honor. It was above the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup>So Jehoiachin put away his prison clothes. For the rest of his life, he ate at the king's table. <sup>30</sup>Every day the king gave Jehoiachin an allowance. This lasted as long as he lived.

Caleb's Family

<sup>18</sup>Caleb son of Hezron had children by his wife Azubah and by Jerioth. Caleb and Azubah's sons were Jeshur, Shobab and Ardon. <sup>19</sup>When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath. They had a son named Hur. <sup>20</sup>Hur was the father of Uri. Uri was the father of Bezalel.

<sup>21</sup>Later, when Hezron was 60 years old, he married the daughter of Makir. Makir was Gilead's father. Hezron had sexual relations with Makir's daughter, and she had a son named Segub. <sup>22</sup>Segub was the father of Jair. Jair controlled 23 cities in the country of Gilead. <sup>23</sup>(But Geshur and Aram captured the Towns of Jair. They also captured Kenath and the small towns around it. There were 60 towns in all.) All these were descendants<sup>d</sup> of Makir, the father of Gilead.

<sup>24</sup>After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, his wife Abijah had his son. He was named Ashur. Ashur became the father of Tekoa.

Jerahmeel's Family

<sup>25</sup>Jerahmeel was Hezron's first son. Jerahmeel's sons were Ram, Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. Ram was Jerahmeel's first son. <sup>26</sup>Jerahmeel had another wife, who was named Atarah. She was the mother of Onam.

Shammai's sons were Nadab and Abishur.

<sup>29</sup>Abishur's wife was named Abihail. Abishur and Abihail's sons were Ahban and Molid.

<sup>30</sup>Nadab's sons were Seled and Appaim. Seled died without having children.

Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.

<sup>33</sup>Jonathan's sons were Peleth and Zaza.

These were Jerahmeel's descendants.<sup>d</sup>

daughters. He had a servant from Egypt named Jarha. <sup>35</sup>Sheshan let his daughter marry his servant Jarha. Then she had a son named Attai.

<sup>36</sup>Attai was the father of Nathan. Nathan was the father of Zabad. <sup>37</sup>Zabad was the father of Ephlal. Ephlal was the father of Obed. <sup>38</sup>Obed was the father of Jehu. Jehu was the father of Azariah. <sup>39</sup>Azariah was the father of Helez. Helez was the father of Eleasah. <sup>40</sup>Eleasah was the father of Sismai. Sismai was the father of Shallum. <sup>41</sup>Shallum was the father of Jekamiah. And Jekamiah was the father of Elishama.

Caleb's Family

<sup>50</sup><sup>51</sup>These were Caleb's descendants:<sup>d</sup> Caleb's son Hur was the first son of his mother Ephrathah. Hur's sons were Shobal, Salma and Hareph. Shobal was the father of Kiriath Jearim. Salma was the father of Bethlehem. And Hareph was the father of Beth Gader.

<sup>52</sup>Shobal was the father of Kiriath Jearim. These were Shobal's descendants: Haroeh, half the Manahathites, <sup>53</sup>and the family groups of Kiriath Jearim. Shobal was also the ancestor of the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and the Mishraitites. The Zorathites and the Eshtaolites came from the Mishraite people.

<sup>54</sup>Salma's descendants were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half the Manahathites and the Zorites. <sup>55</sup>His descendants were also the families who lived at Jabez. These were the people who wrote and copied important papers. These people were the Tirathites, Shimeathites and Sucathites. They were from the Kenite family group who came from Hammath. He was the father of the people living in Recab.

David's Family

3 These are David's sons who were born in Hebron. David's first son was Amnon. Amnon's mother was Ahinoam from the town of Jezreel. David's second son was Daniel. His mother was Abigail from Carmel. <sup>2</sup>David's third son was Absalom. His mother was Maacah, the daughter of Talmi king of Geshur. David's fourth son was Adonijah. His mother was Haggith. <sup>3</sup>David's fifth son was Shephatiah. His mother was Abital. David's sixth son was Ithream. David's wife Eglah was his mother. <sup>4</sup>These six sons of David were born to him in Hebron. David ruled there 7 years and 6 months.

David ruled in Jerusalem 33 years. <sup>5</sup>These were David's children who were born in Jerusalem: David and Bathsheba, Ammiel's daughter, had four children. They were Shammua, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon. <sup>6</sup><sup>8</sup>David's other nine children were Ibhaz, Elishua, Eliphelet, Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet. <sup>9</sup>Those are all of David's sons, except for those born to his slave women.<sup>d</sup> David also had a daughter named Tamar.

The Kings of Judah

<sup>10</sup>Solomon's son was Rehoboam. Rehoboam's son was Abijah. Abijah's son was Asa. Asa's son was Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup>Jehoshaphat's son was Jehoram. Jehoram's son was Ahaziah. Ahaziah's son was Joash. <sup>12</sup>Joash's son was Amaziah. Amaziah's son was Azariah. Azariah's son was Jotham. <sup>13</sup>Jotham's son was Ahaz. Ahaz's son was Hezekiah. Hezekiah's son was Manasseh. <sup>14</sup>Manasseh's son was Amon. Amon's son was Josiah.

<sup>15</sup>These were Josiah's sons: Josiah's first son was Johanan. His second son was Jehoiakim. His third son was Zedekiah. His fourth son was Shallum.

<sup>16</sup>Jehoiakim was followed by Jehoiachin. Jehoiachin was followed by Zedekiah.

David's Descendants After the Babylonian Captivity

<sup>17</sup>Jehoiachin was taken as a prisoner. His sons were Shealtiel, <sup>18</sup>Malkiram, Pedaiah, She-nazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.

Zerubbabel's sons were Meshullam and Hananiah. Their sister was Shelomith. <sup>20</sup>Zerubbabel also had five other sons. Their names were Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiyah, Hasadiah and Jushab-Hesed.

<sup>22</sup>Shecaniah's son was Shemaiah. Shemaiah's sons were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat. There were six in all.

<sup>23</sup>Neariah had three sons. They were Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam.

<sup>24</sup>Elioenai had seven sons. They were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani.

Other Family Groups of Judah

4 Judah's descendants<sup>d</sup> were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.

<sup>2</sup>Reaiah was Shobal's son. Reaiah was the father of Jahath. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. They were the family groups of the Zorathite people.

<sup>3</sup>Hur was the oldest son of Caleb and his wife Ephrath. Hur was the leader of Bethlehem. Hur's three sons were Etam, Penuel and Ezer. Etam's sons were Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. They had a sister named Hazzelponi. Penuel was the father of Gedor. Ezer was the father of Hushah.

<sup>5</sup>Tekoa's father was Ashhur. Ashhur had two wives named Helah and Naarah.

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Ashhur and Naarah were Ahuzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the descendants of Naarah.

<sup>7</sup>Helah's sons were Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan<sup>8</sup> and Koz. Koz was the father of Anub and Hazzobebah. He was also the father of the Aharhel family group. Aharhel was the son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup>There was a man named Jabez. He was respected more than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez<sup>a</sup> because she said, "I was in much pain when I gave birth to him." <sup>10</sup>Jabez prayed to the God of Israel. Jabez said, "Please do good things for me. Please give me more land. Stay with me, and don't let anyone hurt me. Then I won't have any pain." And God did what Jabez had asked.

<sup>11</sup>Kelub was Shuhah's brother. Kelub was the father of Mehir. Mehir was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup>Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of the people from the town of Nahash. These people were from Recah.

Othniel's sons were Hathath and Meonothai. <sup>14</sup>Meonothai was the father of Ophrah.

Seraiah was the father of Joab. Joab was the ancestor of the people from Craftsmen's Valley. It is called Craftsmen's Valley because the people living there were craftsmen.

<sup>15</sup>Caleb was Jephunneh's son. Caleb's sons were Iru, Elah and Naam. Elah's son was Kenaz.

<sup>17-18</sup>Ezrah's sons were Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon. Mered married Bithiah, the daughter of the king of Egypt. The children of Mered and Bithiah were Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah. Ishbah was the father of Eshtemoa. Mered also had a wife from Judah. She gave birth to Jered, Heber and Jekuthiel. Jered became the father of Gedor. Heber became the father of Soco. And Jekuthiel became the father of Zanoah.

<sup>19</sup>Hodiah's wife was Naham's sister. The sons of Hodiah's wife were Eshtemoa and the father of Keilah. Keilah was from the Garmite people. And Eshtemoa was from the Maacathite people.

Ishi's sons were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

<sup>21-22</sup>Shelah was Judah's son. Shelah's sons were Er, Laadah, Jokim, the men from Cozeba, Joash and Saraph. Er was the father of Lecah. Laadah was the father of Mareshah and the family groups of linen workers at Beth Ashbea. Joash and Saraph ruled in Moab and Jashubi Lehem. The writings about this family are very old. <sup>23</sup>These sons of Shelah made things from clay. They lived in Netaim and Gederah. They stayed there and worked for the king.

Simeon's Children

<sup>24</sup>Simeon's sons were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerach and Shaul. <sup>25</sup>Shaul's son was Shallum. Shallum's son was Mibsam. Mibsam's son was Mishma.

<sup>26</sup>Mishma's son was Hammuel. Hammuel's son was Zaccur. Zaccur's son was Shimei. <sup>27</sup>Shimei had 16 sons and 6 daughters. But his brothers did not have many children. So there were not as many people in their family group as there were in Judah.

Shaaraim. They lived in these cities until David became king. <sup>32</sup>The five villages near these cities were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token and Ashan. <sup>33</sup>There were also other villages as far away as Baalath. This is where they lived. And they wrote the history of their family.

<sup>34</sup><sup>38</sup>This is the list of men who were leaders of their family groups. There were Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, Joel and Jehu son of Joshibiah. (Joshibiah was the son of Seraiah, who was the son of Asiel.) There were also Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah and Ziza. (Ziza was the son of Shiphai, who was the son of Allon. Allon was the son of Jedaiah, who was the son of Shimri. And Shimri was the son of Shemaiah.)

These men's families grew to be very large. <sup>39</sup>They went to the area outside the city of Gedor to the east side of the valley. They went there to look for pasture for their sheep. <sup>40</sup>They found good pastures with plenty of grass. The land was open country and peaceful and quiet. Ham's descendants<sup>d</sup> had lived there in the past.

<sup>41</sup>These men listed above came to Gedor while Hezekiah was king of Judah. They fought against the Hamite people and destroyed their tents. They also fought against the Meunite people who lived there and completely destroyed them. So there are no Meunites there even today. Then these men began to live there, because there was pasture for their sheep. <sup>42</sup>Ishi's sons, Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephah and Uzziel, led 500 of the Simeonite people. They attacked the people living in the mountains of Edom. <sup>43</sup>They killed the few Amalekite people who were still alive. From that time until now these Simeonites have lived in Edom.

Reuben's Children

5 Reuben was Israel's first son. Reuben should have received the special privileges of the oldest son. But he had sexual relations with his father's slave woman.<sup>d</sup> So those special privileges were given to Joseph's sons. (Joseph was a son of Israel.) In the family history Reuben's name is not listed as the first son. <sup>2</sup>Judah became stronger than his brothers. And a leader came from his family. But Joseph's family received the privileges that belonged to the oldest son. <sup>3</sup>Reuben was the first son born to Israel. Reuben's sons were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

<sup>4</sup>These were the children of Joel: Shemaiah was Joel's son. Gog was Shemaiah's son. Shim-ei was Gog's son. <sup>5</sup>Micah was Shimei's son. Reaiah was Micah's son. Baal was Reaiah's son.

<sup>7</sup>Joel's brothers and all his family groups are listed just as they are written in their family histories: Jeiel was the first, then Zechariah<sup>8</sup> and Bela. (Bela was the son of Azaz. Azaz was Shema's son. Shema was Joel's son.) They lived in the area of Aroer all the way to Nebo and Baal Meon. <sup>9</sup>Bela's people lived to the east. Their land went as far as the edge of the desert, which is beside the Euphrates River. They lived there because they had too many cattle for the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup>When Saul was king, Bela's people fought a war against the Hagrite people. And they defeated the Hagarites. Then Bela's people lived in the tents that had belonged to the Hagarites. They lived in all the area east of Gilead.

Gad's Children

<sup>11</sup>The people from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Gad lived near the Reubenite people. The Gadites lived in the area of Bashan all the way to Salecah.

<sup>12</sup>Joel was the main leader in Bashan. Shapham was the second leader. Then Janai and Shaphat were leaders.

<sup>13</sup>The seven relatives in their families were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber. <sup>14</sup>They were the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Abihail. Abihail was Huri's son. Huri was Jaroah's son. Jaroah was Gilead's son. Gilead was Michael's son. Michael was Jeshishai's son. Jeshishai was Jahdo's son. Jahdo was the son of Buz. <sup>15</sup>Ahi was Abdiel's son. Abdiel was Guni's son. Ahi was the leader of their family.

<sup>16</sup>The Gadite people lived in Gilead, Bashan and in the small towns around Bashan. They also lived on all the pasturelands in the Plain of Sharon all the way to the borders.

<sup>17</sup>All these people's names were written in the family history of Gad. This was done during the time Jotham was king of Judah and Jeroboam was king of Israel.

Soldiers Skilled in War

<sup>18</sup>There were 44,760 fighters from the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Reuben and Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. They were brave men who could use shields and swords. They could use their bows well. They were skilled in war. <sup>19</sup>They started a war against the Hagarites and the people of Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. <sup>20</sup>The men from the tribes of Manasseh, Reuben and Gad prayed to God in the war. They asked God to help them. So he helped them because they trusted him. He allowed them to defeat the Hagrites. And they also defeated all those who were with the Hagrites. <sup>21</sup>They took the animals that belonged to the Hagrites. They took 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep and 2,000 donkeys. They also captured 100,000 people. <sup>22</sup>Many Hagrites were killed. This is because God helped the people of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh. Then they lived there until Babylon captured them and took them away.

The Eastern Half-Tribe of Manasseh

<sup>23</sup>There were many people in the eastern half-tribe<sup>d</sup> of Manasseh. They lived in the area of Bashan all the way to Baal Hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon.

<sup>24</sup>These were the family leaders: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were all strong, brave and famous men. And they were leaders in their families. <sup>25</sup>But they sinned against the God that their ancestors had worshiped. They began worshipping the gods of the people in that land. And those were the people God was destroying. <sup>26</sup>So the God of Israel made Pul king of Assyria want to go to war. Pul was also called Tiglath-Pileser. He captured the people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. And he took them away to Halah, Habor, Hara and near the Gozan River. And they have lived there from that time until this day.

<sup>48</sup>The other Levites served by doing their own special work in the Holy Tent. It is the house of God. <sup>49</sup>Aaron and his descendants<sup>d</sup> offered the sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering. They also burned the incense on the altar of incense. They offered the sacrifices that removed the Israelites' sins so they could belong to God. They did all the work in the Most Holy Place. They followed all the laws that Moses, God's servant, had commanded.

<sup>50</sup>These were Aaron's sons: Eleazar was Aaron's son. Phinehas was Eleazar's son. Abishua was Phinehas' son. <sup>51</sup>Bukki was Abishua's son. Uzzi was Bukki's son. Zerahiah was Uzzi's son. <sup>52</sup>Meraioth was Zerahiah's son. Amariah was Meraioth's son. Ahitub was Amariah's son. <sup>53</sup>Zadok was Ahitub's son. Ahimaaz was Zadok's son.

Land for the Levites

<sup>54</sup>These are the places where Aaron's descendants<sup>d</sup> lived. Aaron's descendants from the Kohath family group were given this land to live in. They received the first share of the land that was given to the Levites.

<sup>55</sup>They were given the city of Hebron in Judah and the pastures around it. <sup>56</sup>But the fields farther from the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. And the villages near Hebron were given to Caleb. <sup>57</sup>So the descendants of Aaron were given Hebron. It was one of the cities of safety.<sup>n</sup> They also received the cities of Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, <sup>58</sup>Hilen, Debir, <sup>59</sup>Ashan, Juttah and Beth Shemesh. They received all these cities and the pastures around them. <sup>60</sup>They also received cities from the tribe of Benjamin. They received Gibeon, Geba, Alemeth, Anathoth and their pastures.

The Kohath family groups received a total of 13 cities.

<sup>62</sup>The Gershon family group received 13 cities. They were from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the part of Manasseh living in Bashan.

<sup>70</sup>The rest of the people in the Kohath family group received cities from the western half-tribe of Manasseh. They received the cities of Aner and Bileam and their pastures.

<sup>71</sup>From the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh, the Gershon family received towns and pastures. They received Golan in Bashan, Ashtaroth and the pastures around them.

<sup>76</sup>From the tribe of Naphtali, the Gershon family received towns and pastures. They received Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, Kiriathaim and their pastures.

<sup>77</sup>The rest of the Levites, the people from the Merari family, also received towns and pastures. They received Jokneam, Kartah, Rimmono and Tabor from the tribe of Zebulun. They also received the pastures around those cities.

<sup>80-81</sup>From the tribe of Gad, the Merari family received towns and pastures. They received Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, Heshbon, Jazer and their pastures.

<sup>39</sup>Azel's brother was Eshek. Eshek's first son was Ulam. Jeush was his second son, and Eliphelet was his third son. <sup>40</sup>Ulam's sons were mighty warriors who could use a bow and arrow well. They had many sons and grandsons. There were 150 of them in all.

All these men were Benjamin's descendants.

9 The names of all the people of Israel were listed in their family histories. Those family histories were put in the book of the kings of Israel.

The People in Jerusalem

The people of Judah were captured and forced to go to Babylon. This is because they were not faithful to God. <sup>2</sup>The first people to come back and live in their own lands and towns were some Israelites, priests, Levites and Temple<sup>d</sup> servants.

<sup>4</sup>There was Uthai son of Ammihud. (Ammihud was Omri's son. Omri was Imri's son. Imri was Bani's son. Bani was a descendant<sup>d</sup> of Perez. Perez was Judah's son.)

<sup>5</sup>Of the Shilonite people there were Asaiah and his sons. Asaiah was the oldest son in his family.

<sup>6</sup>Of the Zerahite people there were Jeuel and other relatives of Zerah. There were 690 of them in all.

<sup>7</sup>From the tribe of Benjamin there was Sallu son of Meshullam. (Meshullam was Hodaviah's son. Hodaviah was Hassenuah's son.) <sup>8</sup>There was also Ibneiah son of Jeroham and Eiah son of Uzzi. (Uzzi was Micri's son.) And there was Meshullam son of Shephatiah. (Shephatiah was Reuel's son, and Reuel was Ibnijah's son.) <sup>9</sup>The family history of Benjamin lists 956 people living in Jerusalem. All these men were leaders of their families.

<sup>10</sup>Of the priests there were Jedaiah, Jehoia-rib, Jakin and <sup>11</sup>Azariah son of Hilkiah. (Hilkiah was Meshullam's son. Meshullam was Zadok's son. Zadok was Meraioth's son. Meraioth was Ahitub's son. Ahitub was the officer who was responsible for the Temple of God.) <sup>12</sup>Also there was Adaiah son of Jeroham. (Jeroham was Pashhur's son, and Pashhur was Malkijah's son.) And there was Maasai son of Adiel. (Adiel was Jahzerah's son. Jahzerah was Meshullam's son. Meshullam was Meshillemith's son, and Meshillemith was Immer's son.)

<sup>13</sup>There were 1,760 priests. They were leaders of their families. They were responsible for serving in the Temple of God.

<sup>14</sup>Of the Levites there was Semaiah son of Hasshub. (Hasshub was Azrikam's son. Azrikam was Hashabiah's son. Hashabiah was from the family of Merari.) <sup>15</sup>There were also Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah son of Mica. (Mica was Zicri's son. Elkanah lived in the villages of the Netophathite people.)

from the tribe of Levi still stand next to the King's Gate on the east side of the city. <sup>19</sup>Shallum was Kore's son. Kore was Ebiasaph's son. Ebiasaph was Korah's son. Shallum and his relatives from the family of Korah were gatekeepers. They were responsible for guarding the gates of the Temple. Their ancestors had also been responsible for guarding the entrance to the Temple. <sup>20</sup>In the past Phinehas was in charge of the gatekeepers. He was Eleazar's son. The Lord was with Phinehas. <sup>21</sup>Zechariah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Temple. He was the son of Meshelemiah.

<sup>22</sup>In all, 212 men were chosen to guard the gates. Their names were written in their family histories in their villages. David and Samuel the seer<sup>d</sup> chose these men because they were dependable. <sup>23</sup>The gatekeepers and their descendants had the responsibility of guarding the gates of the Temple of the Lord. (The Temple took the place of the Holy Tent.) <sup>24</sup>There were gatekeepers on all four sides of the Temple: east, west, north and south. <sup>25</sup>The gatekeepers' relatives who lived in the villages had to come and help them at certain times. Each time they came they helped the gatekeepers for seven days. <sup>26</sup>Because they were dependable, four gatekeepers were made the leaders of all the gatekeepers. They were Levites. They were responsible for the rooms and treasures in the Temple of God. <sup>27</sup>They stayed up all night guarding the Temple of God. And they opened it every morning.

<sup>28</sup>Some of the gatekeepers were responsible for the tools and dishes used in the Temple services. They counted these tools and dishes when people took them out. And they counted them when people brought them back. <sup>29</sup>Other gatekeepers were chosen to take care of the things in the Holy Place. They also took care of the flour, wine, oil, incense<sup>d</sup> and spices. <sup>30</sup>But some of the priests took care of mixing the spices. <sup>31</sup>There was a Levite named Mattithiah. Because he was dependable, he had the job of baking the bread used for the offerings. He was Shallum's first son. Shallum was from the family of Korah. <sup>32</sup>Some of the gatekeepers had the job of preparing the special bread. This was the bread that was put on the table every Sabbath.<sup>d</sup> These people were from the Kohath family.

<sup>33</sup>Some of the Levites were musicians in the Temple. The leaders of these families stayed in the rooms of the Temple. They were on duty day and night. So they did not do other work in the Temple.

<sup>34</sup>These are the leaders of the Levite families.

Their names were listed in their family histories. They lived in Jerusalem.

The Family History of King Saul

The Death of King Saul

10 The Philistine people fought against the people of Israel. The Israelites ran away from them. And many Israelites were killed on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines continued chasing Saul and his sons. And they killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. <sup>3</sup>The fighting became heavy around Saul. The archers shot him with their arrows and wounded him.

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to the officer who carried his armor, "Pull out your sword and kill me. If you don't, these men who are not circumcised will come and hurt me." But the officer was afraid. So he refused to kill Saul. Then Saul took his own sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>The officer saw that Saul was dead. So he fell on his own sword and died. <sup>6</sup>So Saul and three of his sons died. All his family died together.

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites living in the valley saw that their army had run away. And they saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So they left their towns and ran away. Then the Philistines came and lived in those towns.

<sup>8</sup>The next day the Philistines came to take valuable things from the dead bodies. On Mount Gilboa they found the bodies of Saul and his sons. <sup>9</sup>The Philistines stripped Saul's body. And they took his head and his armor. They sent messengers through all their country to tell the news to their idols and their people. <sup>10</sup>The Philistines put Saul's armor in the temple of their idols. And they hung his head in the temple of Dagon.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>11</sup>All the people living in Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul. <sup>12</sup>So all the brave men from Jabesh Gilead went and got the bodies of Saul and his sons. They brought them to Jabesh Gilead. Then they buried the bones of Saul and his sons under the large tree in Jabesh. And they gave up eating for seven days.

<sup>13</sup>Saul died because he was not faithful to the Lord. He did not obey the Lord. He even went to a medium<sup>d</sup> and asked her for advice. <sup>14</sup>He did this instead of asking the Lord for help. This is why the Lord put Saul to death and gave the kingdom to Jesse's son David.

David Becomes King

11 All the people of Israel came to David at the town of Hebron. They said, "We are your people. <sup>2</sup>Even when Saul was king, you were the man who led Israel in battle. The Lord your God spoke to you. He said, 'David, you will be the shepherd of my people, the people of Israel. You will become their leader.'" <sup>3</sup>All the leaders of Israel came to King David at Hebron. He made an agreement with them before the Lord in Hebron. The leaders poured olive oil on David to appoint him king over Israel. The Lord had promised this would happen. He had made this promise through Samuel.

David Defeats Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup>David and all the Israelites went to the city of Jerusalem. At that time Jerusalem was called Jebus. The people living there were named Jebusites. <sup>5</sup>They said to David, "You can't get inside our city." But David captured their strong city of Jerusalem, the City of David.

<sup>6</sup>David had said, "The person who leads the attack against the Jebusites will become the commander over all my army." Joab son of Zeruiah led the attack. So he became the commander of the army.

<sup>7</sup>Then David made his home in the strong, walled city. That is why it was named the City of David. <sup>8</sup>David rebuilt the city. He started where the land was filled in and went to the wall that was around the city. Joab repaired the other parts of the city. <sup>9</sup>David became more and more powerful. And the Lord of heaven's armies was with him.

David's Mighty Warriors

<sup>10</sup>This is a list of the leaders over David's warriors. These warriors helped make David's kingdom strong. All the people of Israel also supported David's kingdom. These heroes and all the people of Israel made David king. This happened as the Lord had promised.

Jashobeam was from the Hacmonite people. He was the leader of the Three, <sup>n</sup> David's most powerful soldiers. He used his spear to fight 300 men at one time. And he killed them all.

<sup>12</sup>Next was Eleazar. He was one of the Three. Eleazar was Dodai's son. Dodai was from the Ahohite people. <sup>13</sup>Eleazar was with David at Pas-Dammim. The Philistines came there to fight the Israelites. There was a field of barley at that place. The Israelites ran away from the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>But they stopped in the middle of that field and fought the Philistines. And they killed the Philistines. The Lord gave Israel a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Three of the 30 leaders went to David. He was at the rock by the cave near Adullam. At the same time a group from the Philistine army was camped in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>16</sup>David was in a protected place at that time. The Philistine army was staying in the town of Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>David had a strong desire for some water. He said, "Oh, I wish someone would get me water from the well near the city gate of Bethlehem!" <sup>18</sup>So the Three fought their way through the Philistine army. And they took water out of the well near the city gate in Bethlehem. Then they took it back to David. But he refused to drink it. He poured it out before the Lord. <sup>19</sup>David said, "May God keep me from drinking this water! It would be like drinking the blood of the men who risked their lives to bring me this water." So David refused to drink it.

These were the brave things the Three did.

<sup>20</sup>Abishai brother of Joab was the leader of the Three. Abishai fought 300 men with his spear and killed them. He became as famous as the Three. <sup>21</sup>He was more honored than the Three. He became their commander even though he was not one of them.

<sup>22</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a brave fighter from Kabzeel. Benaiah did many brave things. He killed two of the best warriors from Moab. He also went down into a pit when it was snowing. There he killed a lion. <sup>23</sup>Benaiah also killed an Egyptian who was about seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian had a spear as large as a weaver's rod. Benaiah had a club. But he grabbed the spear from the Egyptian's hand. And he used the Egyptian's own spear to kill him. <sup>24</sup>These were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did. Benaiah became as famous as the Three. <sup>25</sup>He received more honor than the Thirty, David's most powerful soldiers. But he did not become a member of the Three. David chose Benaiah to be the leader of his bodyguards.

<sup>26</sup>These were also mighty warriors:

Asahel brother of Joab;

Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem;

<sup>27</sup>Shammoth from the Harorites;

Helez from the Pelonites;

<sup>28</sup>Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa;

Abiezer from the Anathothites;

<sup>29</sup>Sibbecai from the Hushathites;

Ilai from the Ahohites;

<sup>30</sup>Maharai from the Netophathites;

Heled son of Baanah from the Netophathites;

<sup>31</sup>Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin.

Benaiah from the Pirathonites;

<sup>32</sup>Hurai from the ravines of Gaash;

Abiel from the Arbathites;

<sup>33</sup>Azmaveth from the Baharumites;

Eliabba from the Shaalbonites;

<sup>34</sup>the sons of Hashem from the Gizonites;

Jonathan son of Shagee from the Hararites;

<sup>35</sup>Ahiam son of Sacar from the Hararites;

Eliphal son of Ur;

<sup>36</sup>Hepher from the Mekerathites;

Ahijah from the Pelonites;

<sup>37</sup>Hezro from the Carmelites;

Naarai son of Ezbai;

<sup>38</sup>Joel brother of Nathan;

Mibhar son of Hagri;

Naharai, from the Berothites, the officer who carried the armor for Joab son of Zeruiah;

<sup>40</sup>Ira from the Ithrites;

Gareb from the Ithrites;

<sup>41</sup>Uriah from the Hittites;

Zabad son of Ahlai;

<sup>42</sup>Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was the leader of the Reubenites, and his 30 soldiers;

<sup>n</sup>Three Or maybe "Thirty." These were David's most powerful soldiers. See 2 Samuel 23:8.

Joshaphat from the Mithnites;
<sup>44</sup>Uzzia from the Ashterahites; Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham from the Aroer;
<sup>45</sup>Jediael son of Shimri;
 Joha, Jediael's brother, from the Tizites;
<sup>46</sup>Eliel from the Mahavites;
 Jeribai and Joshaviah, Elnaam's sons;
 Ithmah from the Moabites;
<sup>47</sup>Eliel, Obad and Jaasiel from the Mezobaites.

Warriors Join David

12 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag. David was hiding from Saul son of Kish at that time. These were the men who helped David in battle. <sup>2</sup>They came with bows for weapons. They could use either their right or left hands to shoot arrows or to sling rocks. They were Saul's relatives from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup>Ahiezer was their leader. And there was Joash. (Ahiezer and Joash were Shemaah's sons. He was from the town of Gibeon.) There were also Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth. There were Beracah and Jehu from the town of Anathoth. <sup>4</sup>And there was Ishmaiah from the town of Gibeon. Ishmaiah was one of the Thirty. In fact, he was the leader of the Thirty. There were Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan and Jozabad from Gederah. <sup>5</sup>There were Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah and Shemariah. There was Shephatiah from Haruph. <sup>6</sup>There were Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam. They were from the family group of Korah. <sup>7</sup>And there were Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham. They were from the town of Gedor.

<sup>8</sup>Part of the people of Gad joined David at his protected place in the desert. They were brave warriors trained for war. They were skilled with shields and spears. They were as fierce as lions. And they could run as fast as gazelles<sup>d</sup> over the hills.

<sup>9</sup>Ezer was the leader of the Gad's army. Obadiah was second in command. Eliab was third. <sup>10</sup>Mishmannah was fourth, and Jeremiah was fifth. <sup>11</sup>Attai was sixth, and Eliel was seventh. <sup>12</sup>Johanan was eighth, and Elzabad was ninth. <sup>13</sup>Jeremiah was tenth, and Macbannai was eleventh in command.

<sup>14</sup>They were the commanders of the army from Gad. The weakest of these leaders was in charge of 100 soldiers. The strongest was in charge of 1,000 soldiers. <sup>15</sup>They crossed the Jordan River and chased away the people living in the valleys. They chased them to the east and to the west. This happened in the first month of the year when the Jordan floods the valley.

<sup>16</sup>Other people from the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at his protected place. <sup>17</sup>David went out to meet them. He said to them, "If you have come peacefully to help me, I welcome you. Join me. But you might have come to turn me over to my enemies, even though I have done nothing wrong. If you do this, the God of our fathers will see this and punish you."

<sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> entered Amasai, the leader of the Thirty. Amasai said:

"We belong to you, David.
 We are with you, son of Jesse.
 Success, success to you.

Success to those who help you, because your God helps you."

So David welcomed these men. He made them leaders of his army.

<sup>19</sup>Some of the men from Manasseh also joined David. They joined him when he went with the Philistines to fight Saul. But David and his men did not really help the Philistines. After talking about it, the Philistine leaders decided to send David away. They said, "If David goes back to his master Saul, we will be killed!" <sup>20</sup>The men from Manasseh joined David when he went to Ziklag. These were the men: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai. Each of these men was a leader of a thousand men from Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>All these men of Manasseh were brave soldiers. They helped David fight against groups of men who went around the country robbing people. These soldiers became commanders in David's army. <sup>22</sup>Every day more men joined David. So his army became large. It was like the army of God.

Others Join David at Hebron

<sup>24</sup>There were 6,800 men with their weapons from the people of Judah. They carried shields and spears.

<sup>25</sup>There were 7,100 men from the people of Simeon. They were warriors ready for war.

<sup>26</sup>There were 4,600 men from the people of Levi. <sup>27</sup>Jehoiada, a leader from Aaron's family, was in that group. There were 3,700 with him.

<sup>28</sup>Zadok was also in that group. He was a strong young warrior. He came with 22 leaders from his family.

<sup>29</sup>There were 3,000 men from the people of Benjamin. They were Saul's relatives. And most of them had remained loyal to Saul's family until then.

<sup>30</sup>There were 20,800 men from the people of Ephraim. They were brave warriors. They were famous men in their own family groups.

<sup>31</sup>There were 18,000 men from the western half-tribe of Manasseh. Each man was especially chosen to make David king.

<sup>32</sup>There were 200 leaders from the family of Issachar. They knew what Israel should do. And they knew the right time to do it. Their relatives were with them and under their command.

<sup>33</sup>There were 50,000 men from the people of Zebulun. They were trained soldiers. They were trained to use every kind of weapon of war. They followed David completely.

<sup>34</sup>There were 1,000 officers from the people of Naphtali. They had 37,000 men with them who carried shields and spears.

<sup>35</sup>There were 28,600 men from the people of Dan. They were ready for war.

<sup>36</sup>There were 40,000 trained soldiers from the people of Asher. They were ready for war.

<sup>37</sup>There were 120,000 men from the east side of the Jordan River. They were from the people of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. They had every kind of weapon.

<sup>38</sup>All these fighting men were ready to go to war. They came to Hebron fully agreed to make David king of all Israel. All the other Israelites also agreed to make David king. <sup>39</sup>The men spent three days there with David. They ate and drank, because their relatives had prepared food for them. <sup>40</sup>Also, their neighbors brought food. They came from as far as the areas belonging to Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali. They brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. They brought much flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, oil, cows and sheep. This was because the people of Israel were very happy.

Bringing Back the Ark

13 David talked with all the officers of his army. He talked with the commanders of 100 men and the commanders of 1,000 men. <sup>2</sup>Then David called the people of Israel together. He said, "If you think it is a good idea, and if it is what the Lord our God wants, let's send a message. Let's send it to our fellow Israelites in all the areas of Israel. Let's also send it to the priests and Levites living with them in their towns and pastures. Tell them to come and join us. <sup>3</sup>Let's bring the Ark<sup>d</sup> of our God back to us. We did not use it to ask God for help while Saul was king." <sup>4</sup>So all the people agreed with David. They all thought it was the right thing to do.

<sup>5</sup>So David gathered all the Israelites from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath. They were to bring the Ark of God back from the town of Kiriath Jearim. <sup>6</sup>David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah. (Baalah is another name for Kiriath Jearim.) They went there to get the Ark of God the Lord. His throne is between the golden creatures with wings on the Ark. It is called by the Lord's name.

<sup>7</sup>The people moved the Ark of God from Abinadab's house. They put it on a new cart. And Uzzah and Ahio guided the cart. <sup>8</sup>David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their strength before God. They were singing and playing harps, lyres,<sup>d</sup> tambourines,<sup>d</sup> cymbals and trumpets.

<sup>9</sup>They came to the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor of Kidon. The oxen pulling the cart stumbled. And Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the Ark. <sup>10</sup>The Lord became very angry with Uzzah. And he killed Uzzah because Uzzah had touched the Ark. So Uzzah died there in the presence of God.

<sup>11</sup>David became angry because the Lord had punished Uzzah in his anger. So even today that place is called the Punishment of Uzzah.

<sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day. David asked, "How can I bring the Ark of God home to me?" <sup>13</sup>So David did not take the Ark with him to Jerusalem. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-Edom of Gath. <sup>14</sup>The Ark of God stayed with Obed-Edom's family in his house for three months. And the Lord blessed Obed-Edom's family and everything he owned.

David's Kingdom Grows

14 Hiram king of the city of Tyre sent messengers to David. He also sent cedar logs, stonecutters and carpenters. He sent them to build a palace for David. <sup>2</sup>Then David knew that the Lord really had made him king of Israel. And he knew the Lord had made his kingdom very important. The Lord did this because he loved his people, the Israelites.

David Defeats the Philistines

<sup>8</sup>The Philistine people heard that David had been appointed king of all Israel. So all the Philistines went to look for him. When David heard about it, he went out to fight them. <sup>9</sup>The Philistines had attacked and robbed the people in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup>David asked God, "Should I go and attack the Philistines? Will you let me defeat them?"

The Lord answered him, "Go. I will let you defeat them."

<sup>11</sup>So David and his men went up to the town of Baal Perazim. There he defeated the Philistines. David said, "Like a flood of water, God has broken through my enemies. He has done this through me." So that place was named Baal Perazim.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>The Philistines had left their idols there. So David ordered his men to burn them.

<sup>13</sup>Soon the Philistines attacked the people in the valley again. <sup>14</sup>So David prayed to God again, and God answered him. God said, "Don't attack the Philistines from the front. Instead, go around them. Attack them in front of the balsam trees. <sup>15</sup>You will hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees. Then quickly attack the Philistines. I, God, will have gone out before you to defeat the Philistine army." <sup>16</sup>David did what God commanded him to do. So David and his men defeated the Philistine army. They killed the Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

<sup>17</sup>So David became famous in all the countries. And the Lord made all nations afraid of David.

The Ark Is Brought to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in Jerusalem. Then he built a place for the Ark<sup>d</sup> of God. And he set up a tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, "Only the Levites may carry the Ark of God. The Lord chose them to carry the Ark of the Lord. He chose them to serve him forever."

<sup>3</sup>David called all the people of Israel to come to Jerusalem. He wanted to bring the Ark of the Lord to the place he had made for it. <sup>4</sup>David called together the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Aaron and the Levites. <sup>5</sup>There were 120 people from Kohath's family group. Uriel was their leader. <sup>6</sup>There were 220 people from Merari's family group. Asaiah was their leader. <sup>7</sup>There were 130 people from Gershon's family group. Joel was their leader. <sup>8</sup>There were 200 people from Elizaphan's family group. Shemaiah was their leader. <sup>9</sup>There were 80 people from Hebron's family group. Eliel was their leader. <sup>10</sup>There were 112 people from Uzziel's family group. Amminadab was their leader.

<sup>11</sup>Then David asked the priests Zadok and Abiathar to come to him. He also asked these Levites to come: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup>David said to them, "You are the leaders of the families of Levi. You and the other Levites must give yourselves for service to the Lord. Then bring up the Ark of the Lord, the God of Israel. Bring it to the place I have made for it. <sup>13</sup>The last time we did not ask the Lord how to carry it. You Levites didn't carry it. So the Lord our God punished us."

<sup>14</sup>Then the priests and Levites prepared themselves for service to the Lord. They did this so they could carry the Ark of the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The Levites used special poles to carry the Ark of God on their shoulders. This was the way Moses had commanded. They carried it just as the Lord had said they should.

<sup>16</sup>David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers. The singers were to play their lyres,<sup>d</sup> harps and cymbals. And they were to sing happy songs.

<sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman and his relatives Asaph and Ethan. Heman was Joel's son. Asaph was Berekiah's son. And Ethan, from the Merari family group, was Kushaiah's son. <sup>18</sup>There was also a second group of Levites. They were Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were the Levite guards.

hiah were also guards for the Ark of the Agreement.

<sup>25</sup>David, the leaders of Israel, and the commanders went to get the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord. Each of the commanders was over a group of 1,000 soldiers. They all went to bring the Ark from Obed-Edom's house. And they were very happy. <sup>26</sup>God helped the Levites who carried the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord. So they sacrificed seven bulls and seven male sheep. <sup>27</sup>All the Levites who carried the Ark wore robes of fine linen. Kenaniah, the man in charge of the singing, and all the singers wore robes of fine linen. David wore a robe of fine linen. And he also wore a holy vest<sup>d</sup> of fine linen. <sup>28</sup>So all the people of Israel brought up the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord. They shouted and blew sheep horns and trumpets. They played cymbals, lyres, and harps.

<sup>29</sup>So the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord entered Jerusalem. As it entered, Saul's daughter Michal watched from a window. When she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she hated him.

16 They brought the Ark of God and put it inside the tent. This was the tent David had set up for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God. <sup>2</sup>David finished giving the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he used the Lord's name to bless the people. <sup>3</sup>He gave a loaf of bread, some dates and raisins to every Israelite man and woman.

<sup>4</sup>Then David appointed some of the Levites to serve before the Ark of the Lord. They had the job of leading the worship. They gave thanks and praise to the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Asaph was the leader. He played the cymbals. Zechariah was second to him. The other Levites were Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Matithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They played the lyres and harps. <sup>6</sup>Benaiah and Jahaziel were priests. They blew the trumpets regularly before the Ark of the Agreement with God. <sup>7</sup>That day David first gave Asaph and his relatives the job of singing praises to the Lord.

David's Song of Thanks

<sup>8</sup>Give thanks to the Lord and pray to him.
Tell the nations what he has done.

<sup>9</sup>Sing to him. Sing praises to him.

Tell about all the wonderful things he has done.

<sup>10</sup>Be glad that you are his.

Let those who ask the Lord for help be happy.

<sup>11</sup>Depend on the Lord and his strength.
Always go to him for help.

<sup>12</sup>Remember the wonderful things he has done.

Remember his miracles<sup>d</sup> and his decisions.

You are the children of Jacob, his chosen people.

<sup>14</sup>He is the Lord our God.

His laws are for all the world.

<sup>15</sup>He will keep his agreement forever.

He will keep his promises always.

<sup>16</sup>He will keep the agreement he made with Abraham.

He will keep the promise he made to Isaac.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord made it a law for the people of Jacob.

He made it an agreement with Israel to last forever.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord said, "I will give you the land of Canaan. The promised land will belong to you."

<sup>19</sup>Then God's people were few in number.
They were strangers in the land.

<sup>20</sup>They went from one nation to another.

They went from one kingdom to another.

<sup>21</sup>But the Lord did not let anyone hurt them.
He warned kings not to harm them.

<sup>22</sup>He said, "Don't hurt my chosen people.
Don't harm my prophets."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Sing to the Lord, all the earth.

Every day tell how he saves us.

<sup>24</sup>Tell the nations about the Lord's glory.
Tell all peoples about his wonderful works.

<sup>25</sup>The Lord is great; he should be praised.

He should be honored more than all the gods.

<sup>26</sup>All the gods of the nations are only idols.
But the Lord made the skies.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord has glory and majesty.

He has power and joy in his Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Praise the Lord, all nations on earth.

Praise the Lord's glory and power.

<sup>29</sup> Praise the Lord for the glory of his name.
Bring your offering to him.

Worship the Lord because he is holy.

<sup>30</sup>The whole earth should tremble before the Lord.

The earth is set, and it cannot be moved.

<sup>31</sup>Let the skies rejoice and the earth be glad.

Let people everywhere say, "The Lord is king!"

<sup>32</sup>Let the sea and everything in it shout.

Let the fields and everything in them show their joy.

<sup>33</sup>Then the trees of the forest will sing.

They will sing with joy before the Lord. They will sing because the Lord is coming to judge the world.

<sup>34</sup>Thank the Lord because he is good.

His love continues forever.

<sup>35</sup>Say to him, "Save us, God our Savior.

Bring us back and save us from the nations.

Then we will thank you.

Then we will gladly praise you."

<sup>36</sup>Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, forever and forever.

All the people said, "Amen" and "Praise the Lord."

<sup>37</sup>Then David left Asaph and the other Levites there in front of the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. They were to serve there every day. <sup>38</sup>David also left Obed-Edom and 68 other Levites to serve with them. Hosah and Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun were guards.

<sup>39</sup>David left Zadok the priest and the other priests who served with him in front of the Tent of the Lord. This was at the place of worship in Gibeon. <sup>40</sup>Every morning and evening they offered burnt offerings on the altar of burnt offerings. They did this to follow the rules written in the Teachings of the Lord. These were the Teachings he had given Israel.

<sup>41</sup>With them were Heman and Jeduthun and other Levites. They were chosen by name to sing praises to the Lord because the Lord's love continues forever. <sup>42</sup>Heman and Jeduthun also had the job of playing the trumpets and cymbals. They also played other musical instruments when songs were sung to God. Jeduthun's sons guarded the gates.

<sup>43</sup>Then all the people left. Each person went to his own home. And David also went home to bless his family.

God's Promise to David

17 David moved into his palace. Then he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a palace made of cedar. But the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord sits in a tent."

<sup>3</sup>But that night God spoke his word to Nathan. God said, <sup>4</sup>"Go and tell my servant David: 'This is what the Lord says: David, you are not the person to build a house for me to live in. <sup>5</sup>From the time I brought Israel out of Egypt until now I have not lived in a house. I have moved from one tent site to another. I have gone from one place to another. <sup>6</sup>I have moved with the Israelites to different places. I commanded leaders to take care of my people. I never said to any of those leaders, "Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?"'

<sup>7</sup>"Now, tell my servant David: 'The Lord of heaven's armies says: I took you from the pasture and from tending the sheep. I made you king of my people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you everywhere you have gone. I have killed your enemies for you. Now I will make you one of the most famous men on earth. <sup>9</sup>I will give this place to my people Israel. I will settle them here. Then they will have a home of their own. They won't be bothered anymore. Evil people won't hurt them as they have done since the first. <sup>10</sup>Evil people have hurt them since I chose leaders for my people Israel. I will also defeat all your enemies.

"I tell you that the Lord will make your descendants<sup>d</sup> kings of Israel after you. <sup>11</sup>When you die and join your ancestors, I will let your child be the new king. He will be one of your own sons. And I will make his kingdom strong. <sup>12</sup>He will build a house for me. And I will let his family rule forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his father, and he will be my son. I took away my love from Saul, who ruled before you. But I will never stop loving your son. <sup>14</sup>I will put him in charge of my house and kingdom forever. His family will rule forever."

<sup>15</sup>Nathan told David everything God had said in this vision.

David's Prayer

<sup>16</sup>Then King David went in and sat in front of the Lord. David said, "Lord God, why have you made me so important to you? Why have you made my family important? <sup>17</sup>But that was not enough for you, God. You have also said these kind things about my future family. I am your servant. Lord God, you have treated me like a very important man.

<sup>18</sup>"What more can I say to you? You have done so much for me, your servant. You love me so much. <sup>19</sup>Lord, you have done this wonderful thing for me for my sake. And you have done it because you wanted to. You have let me know all these great promises.

<sup>20</sup>"There is no one like you, Lord. There is no God except you. We have heard all this ourselves. <sup>21</sup>There is no one like your people, the Israelites. It is the one nation on earth that God chose to be his people. You used them to make your name well-known. You did great and wonderful things for them. You went ahead of them and forced other nations out of the land. You freed your people from slavery in Egypt. <sup>22</sup>You made the people of Israel your very own people forever. And, Lord, you became their God.

<sup>23</sup>“Lord, you made this promise about my family and me, your servant. Now, keep your promise forever. Do what you have promised. <sup>24</sup>Then people will know you and honor you forever. And people will say, ‘The Lord of heaven’s armies, the God over Israel, is Israel’s God!’ And the family of your servant David will continue before you.

<sup>25</sup>“My God, you have told me that you would make my family great. So I, your servant, am brave enough to pray to you. <sup>26</sup>Lord, you are God. You have promised these good things to me, your servant. <sup>27</sup>You have chosen to bless my family. Let it continue before you forever. Lord, you have blessed my family. So it will be blessed forever.”

David Defeats Nations

18 Later, David attacked the Philistine people and defeated them. He took Gath and the small towns around it from the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup>Then David defeated the country of Moab. So the Moabites became David’s servants. And they brought the payments he demanded from them.

<sup>3</sup>David also fought against Hadadezer king of Zobah. David fought Hadadezer’s army all the way to the town of Hamath. He did this because Hadadezer tried to spread his kingdom all the way to the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup>David took from Hadadezer 1,000 chariots and 7,000 chariot drivers. And he took 20,000 soldiers on foot. David also crippled most of Hadadezer’s horses used for pulling chariots. He saved only 100 of the chariot horses.

<sup>5</sup>The Aramean people from Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah. But David killed 22,000 of them. <sup>6</sup>Then David put camps of troops in Damascus in Aram. The Arameans became David’s servants and brought him the payments he demanded. So the Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

bronze to make things for the Temple:<sup>d</sup> the large bronze bowl, which was called the Sea, the pillars and other bronze things.

<sup>9</sup>Toi was king of the city of Hamath. He heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>10</sup>So Toi sent his son Hadoram to greet King David. Hadoram also congratulated David for fighting and defeating Hadadezer. Hadadezer had been at war with Toi before. Hadoram gave David all kinds of things made of gold, silver and bronze. <sup>11</sup>King David gave these things to the Lord. David had done the same thing with the silver and gold he had taken from these nations: Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah killed 18,000 Edomite people in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup>Abishai also put camps of troops in Edom. And all the Edomites became David’s servants. The Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

David’s Important Officers

<sup>14</sup>David was king over all of Israel. He did what was right and fair for everyone. <sup>15</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was commander of David’s army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder. <sup>16</sup>Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests. Shavsha was the royal assistant. <sup>17</sup>Benaiah was responsible for leading the Kerethites and Pelethites, the king’s bodyguards. Benaiah was Jehoiada’s son. And David’s sons were important officers. They served at King David’s side.

David Fights the Ammonites

19 Nahash was king of the Ammonite people. When Nahash died, his son became the king. <sup>2</sup>David said, “Nahash was kind to me. So I will be kind to Hanun son of Nahash.” Then David sent a group to comfort Hanun about the death of his father.

David’s men went to comfort Hanun in the country of Ammon. <sup>3</sup>But the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, “Don’t be fooled. David didn’t send these men to comfort you. They are not here to honor your dead father. David sent his men to spy on you and your land. He wants to destroy your country.” <sup>4</sup>So Hanun arrested David’s men. To shame them he cut off their beards and cut off their clothes at the hips. Then he sent them away.

<sup>5</sup>David’s men were too ashamed to go home. Some people came to David and told him what had happened to his men. So he sent messengers to meet them. He said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards have grown back. Then come home.”

<sup>6</sup>The Ammonite people saw they had caused David to hate them. So Hanun and the Ammonites sent about 74,000 pounds of silver to hire chariots and chariot drivers. They hired Arameans from Northwest Mesopotamia, Aram Maacah and Zobah. <sup>7</sup>The Ammonites hired 32,000 chariots and chariot drivers. They also hired the king of Maacah and his army. So he and his army came and set up camp near the town of Medeba. The Ammonites themselves came out of their towns and got ready for battle.

<sup>8</sup>David heard about this. So he sent out Joab and the whole army of Israel. <sup>9</sup>The Ammonites came out and got ready for battle. They were near the city gate. The kings who had come to help stayed out in the fields by themselves.

<sup>10</sup>Joab saw that there were enemy troops in front of him and behind him. So Joab chose some of the best soldiers of Israel. And he sent them out to fight the Arameans. <sup>11</sup>Joab put the rest of the army of Israel under the command of Abishai, his brother. Then they went out to fight the Ammonites. <sup>12</sup>Joab said to Abishai, “The Arameans may be too strong for me. If they are, then you must help me. Or, the Ammonites may be too strong for you. If they are, then I will help you. <sup>13</sup>Let’s be strong. We must fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The Lord will do what he thinks is right.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Joab and the army with him went to attack the Arameans. And the Arameans ran away from them. <sup>15</sup>The Ammonite army saw that the Arameans were running away. So they also ran away from Abishai and his army. The Ammonites went back inside their city. And Joab went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>The Arameans saw that Israel had defeated them. So they sent messengers to bring other Arameans from east of the Euphrates River. Shophach the commander of Hadadezer’s army led them.

<sup>17</sup>When David heard about this, he gathered all the Israelites. And he led them across the Jordan River. He lined them up for battle, facing the Arameans. And they attacked the Arameans. <sup>18</sup>But the Arameans ran away from the Israelites. David and his army killed 7,000 Aramean chariot drivers. And they killed 40,000 Aramean foot soldiers. They also killed Shophach, the commander of the Aramean army.

<sup>19</sup>Hadadezer’s officers saw that Israel had defeated them. So they made peace with David.

They became his servants. So the Arameans refused to help the Ammonites again.

Joab Destroys the Ammonites

20 In the spring Joab led the army of Israel out to battle. This was the time of year when kings went out to battle. But David stayed in Jerusalem. The army of Israel destroyed the land of Ammon. Then they went to the city of Rabbah. They surrounded it and attacked it until they destroyed it. <sup>2</sup>David took the crown from the head of their king. <sup>3</sup>That gold crown weighed about 75 pounds. And it had valuable gems in it. The crown was put on David’s head. Then David took many valuable things from the city. <sup>4</sup>David brought out the people from Rabbah. And he forced them to work with saws, iron picks and axes. David did the same thing to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Are Killed

<sup>5</sup>Another time, the Israelites again fought the Philistines. Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath. Goliath was from the town of Gath. Lahmi’s spear was as large as a weaver’s rod.

<sup>6</sup>Later, the Israelites fought another war with the Philistines at Gath. In this town there was a very large man. He had 6 fingers on each hand and 6 toes on each foot. So he had 24 fingers and toes in all. He also was a descendant of Rapha. <sup>4</sup><sup>7</sup>When he made fun of Israel, Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was the son of Shimea, David’s brother.

<sup>8</sup>These Philistines were descendants of Rapha from Gath. David and his men killed them.

David Counts Israel

21 Satan was against Israel. He encouraged David to count the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So David gave an order to Joab and the commanders of the troops. He said, “Go and count all the Israelites. Count everyone from

Beersheba to Dan. <sup>a</sup>Then tell me so I will know how many people there are.”

<sup>3</sup>But Joab answered, “May the Lord make the nation 100 times as large. My master the king, all the Israelites are your servants. Why do you want to do this, my master? You will make Israel guilty of sin.”

<sup>4</sup>But King David made Joab follow his order. So Joab left and went through all Israel, counting the people. Then he returned to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>He told David how many people there were. In Israel there were 1,100,000 men who could use a sword. And there were 470,000 men in Judah who could use a sword. <sup>6</sup>But Joab did not count the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Levi and Benjamin. He didn’t count them because he didn’t like King David’s order. <sup>7</sup>David had done something God had said was wrong. So God punished Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Then David said to God, “I have done something very foolish. It was a terrible sin. Now, I beg you to forgive me, your servant.”

<sup>9</sup>Gad was David’s seer.<sup>d</sup> The Lord said to Gad, <sup>10</sup>“Go and tell David: ‘This is what the Lord says: I am going to give you three choices. Choose one, and I will punish you in that way.’”

<sup>11</sup>So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what the Lord says: ‘Choose which punishment you want. <sup>12</sup>You may choose three years without enough food for the nation. Or choose three months of running from your enemies as they chase you with their swords. Or choose three days of punishment from the Lord. A terrible disease will spread through the country. The angel of the Lord will go through Israel destroying the people.’ Now, David, decide which answer I will give to the Lord, who sent me.”

<sup>13</sup>David said to Gad, “I am in trouble. I don’t want some man to punish me. The Lord is very merciful. So let the Lord punish me.”

<sup>14</sup>So the Lord sent a terrible disease on Israel, and 70,000 people died. <sup>15</sup>God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But when the angel started to destroy it, the Lord saw it and felt sorry. So he said to the angel who was destroying, “That is enough! Stop!” The angel of the Lord was then standing at the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup>David looked up and saw the angel of the Lord in the sky. The angel was holding his sword over Jerusalem. Then David and the older leaders bowed facedown on the ground. They were wearing rough cloth to show their sadness. <sup>17</sup>David said to God, “I am the one who sinned. I gave the order for the people to be counted. I have done wrong. These people are only sheep. What wrong have they done? Lord my God, punish me and my family. But stop the terrible disease that is killing your people.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the angel of the Lord gave an order to Gad. He told Gad to tell David to build an altar to worship the Lord. It was to be at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>Gad told David these things from the Lord. So David went to Araunah’s threshing floor.

<sup>20</sup>Araunah was separating the straw from the wheat. When he turned around, he saw the angel. Araunah’s four sons who were with him hid. <sup>21</sup>David went to Araunah. When Araunah saw David, he left the threshing floor. He bowed facedown on the ground before David.

<sup>22</sup>David said to him, “Sell me your threshing floor. Then I can build an altar to worship the Lord here. Then the terrible disease will be stopped. Sell it to me for the full price.”

<sup>23</sup>Araunah said to David, “Take this threshing floor. You are my master the king. Do anything you want. Look, I will also give you oxen for the burnt offering. I will give you boards as wood for the fire. And I will give the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this to you.”

<sup>24</sup>But King David answered Araunah, “No, I must pay the full price. I won’t take anything that is yours and give it to the Lord. I won’t give an offering that costs me nothing.”

<sup>25</sup>So David paid Araunah about 15 pounds of gold for the place. <sup>26</sup>David built an altar to worship the Lord there. He offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. David prayed to the Lord. And the Lord answered him by sending down fire from heaven. It came down on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>27</sup>Then the Lord commanded the angel to put his sword back into its holder.

<sup>28</sup>David saw that the Lord had answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah. So he offered sacrifices to the Lord there. <sup>29</sup>The Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> and the altar of burnt offerings were in Gibeon. They were at the place of worship there. Moses had made the Holy Tent while the Israelites were in the desert. <sup>30</sup>But David could not go to the Holy Tent to speak with God. He was afraid of the angel of the Lord and his sword.

22 David said, “The Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord God will be built here. And the altar for burnt offerings for Israel will be built here.”

<sup>a</sup>Beersheba to Dan Beersheba was the city farthest south in Israel. Dan was the city farthest north. So this means all the people of Israel.

David Makes Plans for the Temple

<sup>2</sup>So David gave an order for all foreigners living in Israel to be gathered together. From that group David chose stonecutters. Their job was to cut stones to be used in building the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God. <sup>3</sup>David supplied a large amount of iron. It was used for making nails and hinges for the gate doors. He also supplied more bronze than could be weighed. <sup>4</sup>And he supplied more cedar logs than could be counted. Much of the cedar had been brought to David by the people from Sidon and Tyre.

<sup>5</sup>David said, “We should build a great Temple for the Lord. It should be famous everywhere for its greatness and beauty. But my son Solomon is young. He hasn’t yet learned what he needs to know. So I will prepare for the building of it.” So David got many of the materials ready before he died.

<sup>6</sup>Then David called for his son Solomon. He told Solomon to build the Temple for the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup>David said to him, “My son, I wanted to build a temple for worshipping the Lord my God. <sup>8</sup>But the Lord spoke his word to me, ‘David, you have killed too many people. You have fought too many wars. So you cannot build a temple for worship to me. You have killed too many people. <sup>9</sup>But, you will have a son. He will be a man of peace and rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies around him. His name will be Solomon.’” And I will give Israel peace and quiet while he is king. <sup>10</sup>Solomon will build a temple for worship to me. He will be my son, and I will be his father. I will make his kingdom strong. Someone from his family will rule Israel forever.’”

<sup>11</sup>David also said, “Now, my son, may the Lord be with you. May you build a temple for the Lord your God, as he said you would. <sup>12</sup>The Lord will make you the king of Israel. May the Lord give you wisdom and understanding. Then you will be able to obey the teachings of the Lord your God. <sup>13</sup>Be careful to obey the rules and laws the Lord gave Moses for Israel. If you obey them, you will have success. Be strong and brave. Don’t be afraid or discouraged.

<sup>14</sup>“Solomon, I have worked hard getting many of the materials for building the Temple of the Lord. I have supplied about seven and a half million pounds of gold. And I have supplied about seventy-five million pounds of silver. I have supplied so much bronze and iron it cannot be weighed. And I have supplied wood and stone. And you may add to them. <sup>15</sup>You have many workmen. You have stonecutters, stoneworkers and carpenters. You have men skilled in every kind of work. <sup>16</sup>They are skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze and iron. You have more craftsmen than can be counted. Now begin the work. And may the Lord be with you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon. <sup>18</sup>David said to them, “The Lord your God is with you. He has given you rest from our enemies. He helped me to defeat the people living around us. The Lord and his people are in control of this land. <sup>19</sup>Now give yourself completely to obeying the Lord your God. Build the holy place of the Lord God. Build the Temple for worship to the Lord. Then bring the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord into the Temple. And bring in the holy things that belong to God.”

The Levites

23 David had lived long and was old. Then he made his son Solomon the new king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>David gathered all the leaders of Israel, along with the priests and Levites. <sup>3</sup>David counted the Levites who were 30 years old and older. In all, there were 38,000 Levites. <sup>4</sup>David said, “Of these, 24,000 Levites will direct the work of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And 6,000 Levites will be officers and judges. <sup>5</sup>And 4,000 Levites will be gatekeepers. And 4,000 Levites will praise the Lord with musical instruments. I made these instruments for them to use for praise.”

<sup>6</sup>David separated the Levites into three groups. These groups were led by Levi’s three sons: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

The People of Gershon

<sup>7</sup>From the people of Gershon, there were Ladan and Shimei.

<sup>8</sup>Ladan had three sons. His first son was Jehiel. His other sons were Zetham and Joel.

<sup>9</sup>Shimei’s sons were Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran. These three sons were leaders of Ladan’s families. <sup>10</sup>Shimei had four sons. They were Jahath, Ziza, Jeush and Beriah. <sup>11</sup>Jahath was the first son, and Ziza was the second son. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many children. So they were counted as if they were one family.

The People of Kohath

<sup>12</sup>Kohath had four sons. They were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

<sup>13</sup>Amram's sons were Aaron and Moses. Aaron and his descendants<sup>d</sup> were chosen to be special forever. They were chosen to prepare the holy things for the Lord's service. They were to offer sacrifices before the Lord. They were to serve him as priests. They were to give blessings in the Lord's name forever.

<sup>19</sup>Hebron's first son was Jeriah. His second son was Amariah. Jahaziel was the third son. And Jakameam was the fourth son.

<sup>20</sup>Uzziel's first son was Micah. And Isshiah was his second son.

The People of Merari

<sup>21</sup>Merari's sons were Mahli and Mushi. Mahli's sons were Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>Eleazar died without having sons. He had only daughters. Eleazar's daughters married their cousins, the sons of Kish. <sup>23</sup>Mushi's three sons were Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.

The Levites' Work

<sup>24</sup>These were Levi's descendants<sup>d</sup> listed by their families. They were the leaders of families. Each person who was 20 years old or older was listed. They served in the Lord's Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>25</sup>David had said, "The Lord is the God of Israel. He has given rest to his people. He has come to live in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup>So the Levites don't need to carry the Holy Tent.<sup>d</sup> They don't need to carry any of the things used in its services anymore." <sup>27</sup>David's last instructions were to count the Levites. All who were 20 years old and older were counted.

<sup>28</sup>The Levites had the job of helping Aaron's descendants. They helped in the service of the Temple of the Lord. They cared for the Temple courtyard and side rooms. They had the job of making all the holy things pure. Their job was to serve in the Temple of God. <sup>29</sup>They were responsible for putting the holy bread on the table. They also were responsible for the flour in the grain offerings. And they were responsible for the bread made without yeast. They were also responsible for the baking and mixing. And they did all the measuring. <sup>30</sup>The Levites also stood every morning and gave thanks and praise to the Lord. They also did this every evening. <sup>31</sup>The Levites offered all the burnt offerings to the Lord on the special days of rest. And they offered them at the New Moon<sup>d</sup> festivals and at all appointed feasts. They served before the Lord every day. They were to follow the rules for how many Levites should serve each time. <sup>32</sup>So the Levites took care of the Meeting Tent. They also took care of the Holy Place. And they helped their relatives, Aaron's descendants, with the services at the Temple of the Lord.

The Groups of the Priests

24 These were the groups of Aaron's sons:

Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did. And they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. <sup>3</sup>David separated the family groups of Eleazar and Ithamar into two different groups. Each group had certain duties it had been given. Zadok and Ahimelech helped David. Zadok was a descendant<sup>d</sup> of Eleazar. And Ahimelech was a descendant of Ithamar. <sup>4</sup>There were more leaders from Eleazar's family than from Ithamar's. There were 16 leaders from Eleazar's family. And there were 8 leaders from Ithamar's family. <sup>5</sup>Men were chosen from Eleazar's and Ithamar's families by throwing lots.<sup>d</sup> Some men from each family were chosen to be in charge of the Holy Place. And some men from each family were chosen to serve as priests.

<sup>6</sup>Shemaiah son of Nethanel was the secretary. He was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Levi. Shemaiah recorded the names of those descendants in front of King David and these officers: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the families of the priests and Levites. The work was divided by lots among the families of Eleazar and Ithamar. The following men with their groups were chosen.

<sup>7</sup>The first one chosen was Jehoiarib. The second was Jedaiah. <sup>8</sup>The third was Harim. The fourth was Seorim. <sup>9</sup>The fifth was Malkijah. The sixth was Mijamin. <sup>10</sup>The seventh was Hakkoz. The eighth was Abijah. <sup>11</sup>The ninth was Jeshua. The tenth was Shecaniah. <sup>12</sup>The eleventh was Eliashib. The twelfth was Jakim. <sup>13</sup>The thirteenth was Huppah. The fourteenth was Jeshebeab. <sup>14</sup>The fifteenth was Bilgah. The sixteenth was Immer. <sup>15</sup>The seventeenth was Hezir. The eighteenth was Happizzez. <sup>16</sup>The nineteenth was Pethahiah. The twentieth was Jehezkel. <sup>17</sup>The twenty-first was Jakin. The twenty-second was Gamul. <sup>18</sup>The twenty-third was Delaiah. The twenty-fourth was Maaziah.

<sup>19</sup>These were the groups chosen to serve in the Temple of the Lord. They obeyed the rules Aaron had given them. The Lord, the God of Israel, had given those rules to Aaron.

The Other Levites

<sup>20</sup>These are the names of the rest of Levi's descendants:<sup>d</sup>

Shubael was a descendant of Amram. And Jehdeiah was a descendant of Shubael.

<sup>22</sup>From the Izhar family group, there was Shelomoth. And Jahath was a descendant of Shelomoth.

<sup>23</sup>Hebron's first son was Jeriah. Amariah was his second son. Jahaziel was his third son, and Jekameam was his fourth.

<sup>24</sup>Uzziel's son was Micah. Micah's son was Shamir. <sup>25</sup>Isshiah was Micah's brother. Isshiah's son was Zechariah.

<sup>26</sup>Merari's descendants were Mahli and Mushi. Merari's son was Jaaziah. <sup>27</sup>Jaaziah son of Merari had sons named Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri. <sup>28</sup>Mahli's son was Eleazar. But Eleazar did not have any sons.

These are the Levites, listed by their families.

<sup>31</sup>They were chosen for special jobs by throwing lots.<sup>d</sup> They did this just as their relatives, the priests, had done. The priests were Aaron's descendants. They threw lots in front of King David, Zadok and Ahimelech. The leaders of the families of the priests and Levites were also there. The families of the oldest brother and the youngest brother were treated the same.

The Music Groups

25 David and the commanders of the army chose some men to preach. They chose some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun. They were to preach God's message and play harps, lyres<sup>d</sup> and cymbals. Here is a list of the men who served in this way:

<sup>2</sup>Asaph's sons who served were Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. King David chose Asaph to preach. And Asaph directed his sons.

<sup>3</sup>Jeduthun's sons who served were Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah. There were six of them, and Jeduthun directed them. He preached. And he used a harp to give thanks and praise to the Lord.

Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth. There were also Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer. And there were Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup>All these men were sons of Heman, David's seer.<sup>d</sup> God promised to make Heman strong. So Heman had many sons. God gave him 14 sons and 3 daughters. <sup>6</sup>Heman directed all his sons in making music for the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. They used cymbals, lyres and harps. That was their way of serving in the Temple of God. And King David was in charge of Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman. <sup>7</sup>These men and their relatives from the Levites were trained in music. They were skilled in making music for the Lord. There were 288 of them. <sup>8</sup>Everyone threw lots<sup>d</sup> to choose the time his family was to serve at the Temple. The young and the old had to throw lots. The teacher and the student had to throw lots.

<sup>9</sup>First, 12 men were chosen from Joseph, his sons and relatives. Joseph was from the family of Asaph.

Second, 12 men were chosen from Gedaliah, his sons and relatives.

<sup>10</sup>Third, 12 men were chosen from Zaccur, his sons and relatives.

<sup>11</sup>Fourth, 12 men were chosen from Izri, his sons and relatives.

<sup>29</sup>Twenty-second, 12 men were chosen from Giddalti, his sons and relatives.

<sup>30</sup>Twenty-third, 12 men were chosen from Mahazioth, his sons and relatives.

The Gatekeepers

26 These are the groups of the gatekeepers.

From the family of Korah, there was Meshemiah and his sons. (Meshemiah son of Kore was from Asaph's family.) <sup>2</sup>Meshelemiah had sons. Zechariah was his first son. Jediahel was his second son. Zebadiah was his third son. Jathniel was his fourth son. <sup>3</sup>Elam was his fifth son. Jehohanan was his sixth son, and Eliehoenai was his seventh son.

<sup>4</sup>There were also Obed-Edom and his sons. Obed-Edom's first son was Shemaiah. Jehoabad was his second son. Joah was his third son. Sacar was his fourth son. Nethanel was his fifth son. <sup>5</sup>Ammiel was his sixth son. Issachar was his seventh son, and Peullethai was his eighth son. God had blessed Obed-Edom with children.

<sup>6</sup>Obed-Edom's son Shemaiah also had sons. They were leaders in their father's family because they were capable men. <sup>7</sup>Shemaiah's sons were Othni, Rephael, Obed, Elzabad, Elihu and Semakiah. Elihu and Semakiah were skilled workers. <sup>8</sup>All these men were Obed-Edom's descendants. <sup>4</sup>They and their sons and relatives were capable men. They were strong enough to do the work. Obed-Edom had 62 descendants in all.

<sup>9</sup>Meshelemiah had sons and relatives. They were skilled workers. In all, there were 18 sons and relatives.

<sup>10</sup>These are the gatekeepers from the Merari family. Hosah had sons. Shimri was chosen to be in charge. He was not the oldest son, but his father chose him to be in charge. <sup>11</sup>Hilkiah was his second son. Tabaliah was his third son, and Zechariah was his fourth son. In all, Hosah had 13 sons and relatives.

<sup>12</sup>These were the leaders of the groups of the gatekeepers. They had jobs for serving in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Their relatives also had jobs in the Temple. <sup>13</sup>Each family was given a gate to guard. They were chosen by throwing lots.<sup>d</sup> Young and old threw lots.

<sup>14</sup>Meshelemiah was chosen by lot to guard the East Gate. Then lots were thrown for Meshelemiah's son Zechariah. He was a wise counselor. He was chosen for the North Gate. <sup>15</sup>Obed-Edom was chosen for the South Gate. And Obed-Edom's sons were chosen to guard the storehouse. <sup>16</sup>Shuppim and Hosah were chosen for the West Gate. They also were to guard the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road.

Guards stood side by side with guards. <sup>17</sup>Six Levites stood guard every day at the East Gate. Four Levites stood guard every day at the North Gate. Four Levites stood guard every day at the South Gate. And two Levites at a time guarded the storehouse. <sup>18</sup>There were two guards at the western court. And there were four guards on the road to the court.

<sup>19</sup>These were the groups of the gatekeepers. They were from the families of Korah and Merari.

Other Leaders

<sup>20</sup>Other Levites were responsible for taking care of the treasuries of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God. They were also responsible for the places where the holy things were kept.

<sup>21</sup>Ladan was Gershon's son. Ladan was the ancestor of several family groups. Jehiel was a leader of one of the family groups. <sup>22</sup>Jehiel's sons were Zetham and his brother Joel. They were responsible for the treasuries of the Temple of the Lord.

<sup>23</sup>Other leaders were chosen from the family groups of Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>24</sup>Shubael was the leader responsible for the treasuries of the Temple of the Lord. Shubael was the descendant<sup>d</sup> of Gershom, who was Moses' son. <sup>25</sup>These were Shubael's relatives from Eliezer: Eliezer's son Rehabiah, Rehabiah's son Jeshaiiah, Jeshaiiah's son Joram, Joram's son Zicri and Zicri's son Shelomith. <sup>26</sup>Shelomith and his relatives were responsible for everything that had been collected for the Temple. Things had been collected by King David and the heads of families. They had been collected by commanders of 1,000 men and of 100 men and other army commanders. <sup>27</sup>They also gave some of the things they had taken in wars. They gave them to be used in repairing the Temple of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Shelomith and his relatives took care of all the holy things. Some had been given by Samuel the seer<sup>d</sup> and Saul son of Kish. Some had been given by Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah.

and his sons worked outside the Temple. They worked as officers and judges in different places in Israel.

<sup>30</sup>Hashabiah was from the Hebron family. He and his relatives were responsible for the Lord's work and the king's business in Israel west of the Jordan River. There were 1,700 skilled men in Hashabiah's group. <sup>31</sup>The history of the Hebron family shows that Jeriah was their leader. In David's fortieth year as king, the records were searched. Some capable men of the Hebron family were found living at Jazer in Gilead. <sup>32</sup>Jeriah had 2,700 relatives who were skilled men. They were leaders of families. King David gave them the responsibility of directing the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Reuben, Gad and the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. They took care of the Lord's work and the king's business for them.

Army Divisions

27 This is the list of the Israelite people who served the king in the army. Each division was on duty one month each year. There were leaders of families, commanders of 100 men, commanders of 1,000 men and other officers. Each division had 24,000 men.

<sup>4</sup>Dodai was in charge of the division for the second month. He was from the Ahothites. Mikloth was a leader in the division. There were 24,000 men in Dodai's division.

<sup>5</sup>The third commander was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest. He was the commander for the third month. There were 24,000 men in Benaiah's division. <sup>6</sup>He was the Benaiah who was one of the Thirty<sup>a</sup> soldiers. Benaiah was a brave warrior who led those men. Benaiah's son Ammizabad was in charge of Benaiah's division.

<sup>7</sup>The fourth commander was Asahel, the brother of Joab. He was the commander for the fourth month. Later, Asahel's son Zebadiah took his place as commander. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>8</sup>The fifth commander was Shamhuth, from Izrah's family. He was the commander for the fifth month. There were 24,000 men in his division.

kes. He was the commander for the sixth month. He was from the town of Tekoa. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>10</sup>The seventh commander was Helez. He was the commander for the seventh month. He was from the Pelonites and a descendant of Ephraim. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>11</sup>The eighth commander was Sibbecai. He was the commander for the eighth month. He was from Hushah and was from Zerah's family. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>12</sup>The ninth commander was Abiezer, from the town of Anathoth. He was the commander for the ninth month. He was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>13</sup>The tenth commander was Maharai. He was the commander for the tenth month. He was from Netophah and was from Zerah's family. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>14</sup>The eleventh commander was Benaiah. He was the commander for the eleventh month. He was from Pirathon and was from the tribe of Ephraim. There were 24,000 men in his division.

<sup>15</sup>The twelfth commander was Heldai. He was the commander for the twelfth month. He was from Netophah and was from Othniel's family. There were 24,000 men in his division.

Leaders of the Tribes

<sup>16</sup>These were the leaders of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. Eliezer son of Zicri was over the tribe of Reuben. Shephatiah son of Maacah was over the tribe of Simeon. <sup>17</sup>Hashabiah son of Kemuel was over the tribe of Levi. Zadok was over the people of Aaron. <sup>18</sup>Elihu, one of David's brothers, was over the tribe of Judah. Omri son of Michael was over the tribe of Issachar. <sup>19</sup>Ishmaiah son of Obadiah was over the tribe of Zebulun. Jerimoth son of Azriel was over the tribe of Naphtali. <sup>20</sup>Hoshea son of Azaziah was over the tribe of Ephraim. Joel son of Pedaiah was over the western half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>Iddo son of Zechariah was over the eastern half-tribe of Manasseh. Jaasiel son of Abner was over the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>Azareel son of Jeroham was over the tribe of Dan.

These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>The Lord had promised to make the Israelites as many as the stars in the sky. So David only counted the men who were 20 years old and older. <sup>24</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the people. But he did not finish. God became angry with Israel for counting the people. So the number of the people was not put in the history book about King David's rule.

The King's Directors

<sup>25</sup>Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses.

Jonathan was in charge of the storehouses in the towns, villages and towers. He was the son of Uzziah.

<sup>26</sup>Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers. They farmed the land.

<sup>27</sup>Shimei was in charge of the vineyards. He was from the town of Ramah.

Zabdi was in charge of storing the wine that came from the vineyards. Zabdi was from Shepham.

<sup>28</sup>Baal-Hanan was in charge of the olive trees and sycamore trees in the western mountain slopes. He was from Geder.

Joash was in charge of storing the olive oil.

<sup>29</sup>Shitrai was in charge of the cows that fed in the Plain of Sharon. He was from Sharon.

Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the cows in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup>Obil was in charge of the camels. He was an Ishmaelite.

Jehdeiah was in charge of the donkeys. He was from Meronoth.

<sup>31</sup>Jaziz was in charge of the sheep. He was from the Hagrites.

All these men were the officers who took care of King David's property.

<sup>32</sup>Jonathan was David's uncle. He advised David. Jonathan was a wise man and a teacher of the law. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king's sons. <sup>33</sup>Ahithophel advised the king. Hushai was the king's friend. He was from the Arkite people. <sup>34</sup>Jehoiada and Abiathar later took Ahithophel's place in advising the king. Jehoiada was Benaiah's son. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

David's Plans for the Temple

28 David commanded all the leaders of Israel to come to Jerusalem. There were the leaders of the tribes<sup>a</sup> and the commanders of the divisions serving the king. There were the commanders of 1,000 men and of 100 men. There were the leaders who took care of the property and animals that belonged to the king and his sons. There were the men over the palace, the powerful men and all the brave warriors.

<sup>2</sup>King David stood up and said, "Listen to me, my relatives and my people. I wanted to build a place to keep the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord. I wanted it to be God's footstool. And I made plans to build a temple for worship to God. <sup>3</sup>But God said to me, 'You must not build a temple for worship to me. You must not do that because you are a soldier. You have killed many men.'

<sup>4</sup>"But the Lord, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family. He chose me to be king of Israel forever. The Lord chose the tribe of Judah to be a leader. And from the people of Judah, he chose my father's family. And from that family God was pleased to make me king of Israel. <sup>5</sup>The Lord has given me many sons. And from those sons he has chosen Solomon. Solomon will be the new king of Israel. Israel is the Lord's kingdom. <sup>6</sup>The Lord said to me, 'Your son Solomon will build my Temple.<sup>d</sup> And he will build the area around it. This is because I have chosen Solomon to be my son. And I will be his father. <sup>7</sup>He is obeying my laws and commands now. If he continues to obey them, I will make his kingdom strong forever.'"

<sup>8</sup>David said, "Now, in front of all Israel and God, I tell you these things: Be careful to obey all the commands of the Lord your God. Then you may keep this good land. And you may pass it on to your descendants<sup>d</sup> forever.

<sup>9</sup>"And you, my son Solomon, accept the God of your father. Serve him completely. Be happy to serve him. Do this because the Lord knows what is in every person's mind. He understands everything you think. If you go to him for help, you will get an answer. But if you turn away from the Lord, he will leave you forever. <sup>10</sup>Solomon, you must understand this. The Lord has chosen you to build the Temple as his holy place. Be strong and finish the job."

<sup>11</sup>Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for building the Temple. Those plans were also for the porch around the Temple. They were for its buildings, its storerooms, its upper rooms and its inside rooms. They also were the plans for the place where the people's sins were removed. <sup>12</sup>David gave him plans for everything he had in mind. David gave him plans for the courtyards around the Lord's Temple and all the rooms around it. He gave him plans for the Temple treasuries. And he gave him plans for the treasuries of the holy things used in the Temple. <sup>13</sup>David gave Solomon directions for the groups of the priests and Levites. David told him about all the work of serving in the Temple of the Lord. He told him about the things to be used in the Temple service. <sup>14</sup>Many things made of gold or silver would be used in the Temple. David told Solomon how much gold or silver should be used to make each thing. <sup>15</sup>David told him how much gold to use for each gold lampstand and its lamps. He told him how much silver to use for each silver lampstand and its lamps. The different lampstands were to be used where needed. <sup>16</sup>David told how much gold should be used for each table that held the holy bread. And he told how much silver should be used for the silver tables. <sup>17</sup>He told how much pure gold should be used to make the forks, bowls and pitchers. He told how much gold should be used to make each gold dish. He told how much silver should be used to make each silver dish. <sup>18</sup>David told how much pure gold should be used for the altar of incense. <sup>d</sup>He also gave Solomon the plans for the chariot. This is where the golden creatures spread their wings over the Ark <sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord.

<sup>19</sup>David said, "All these plans were written with the Lord guiding me. He helped me understand everything in the plans."

<sup>20</sup>David also said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and brave. Do the work. Don't be afraid or discouraged. The Lord God, my God, is with you. He will help you until all the work is finished. He will not leave you. You will build the Temple of the Lord. <sup>21</sup>The groups of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the Temple of God. Every skilled worker is ready to help you with all the work. The leaders and all the people will obey every command you give."

Gifts for Building the Temple

29 King David spoke to all the Israelites who were gathered. He said, "God chose my son Solomon. Solomon is young and hasn't yet learned what he needs to know. But the work is important. This palace is not for people. It is for the Lord God. <sup>2</sup>I have done my best to prepare for building the Temple <sup>d</sup> of God. I have given gold for the things made of gold. I have given silver for the things made of silver. I have given bronze for the things made of bronze. I have given iron for the things made of iron. I have given wood for the things made of wood. I have given onyx for the settings and turquoise. I have given gems of many different colors. I have given valuable stones and white marble. I have given much of all these things. <sup>3</sup>I have already given this for the Temple. But now I am also giving my own treasures of gold and silver. I am doing this because I really want the Temple of my God to be built. <sup>4</sup>I have given about 220,000 pounds of pure gold from Ophir. And I have given about 520,000 pounds of pure silver. They will be used to cover the walls of the buildings. <sup>5</sup>They will also be used for all the gold and silver work. Skilled men may use the gold and silver to make things for the Temple. Now, who is ready to give himself to the service of the Lord today?"

<sup>6</sup>The family leaders and the leaders of the tribes of Israel gave their valuable things. The commanders of 1,000 men and of 100 men gave their valuable things. And the leaders responsible for the king's work gave their valuable things. <sup>7</sup>These are the things they gave for the Temple of God: about 380,000 pounds of gold, about 750,000 pounds of silver, about 1,350,000 pounds of bronze and about 7,500,000 pounds of iron. <sup>8</sup>People who had valuable gems gave them to the treasury of the Temple of the Lord. Jehiel, from the Gershon family, took care of the valuable gems. <sup>9</sup>The leaders gave freely and completely to the Lord. The people were happy to see their leaders give so gladly. King David was also very happy.

David's Prayer

<sup>10</sup>David praised the Lord in front of all of the people who were gathered. He said:

"We praise you, Lord.

You are the God of our father Israel.

We praise you forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>Lord, you are great and powerful.

You have glory, victory and honor.

Everything in heaven and on earth belongs to you.

The kingdom belongs to you, Lord.

You are the ruler over everything.

<sup>12</sup>Riches and honor come from you.

You rule everything.

You have the power and strength to make anyone great and strong.

<sup>13</sup>Now, our God, we thank you.

And we praise your glorious name.

<sup>14</sup>"These things did not really come from me and my people.

Everything comes from you.

We have given you back what you gave us.

<sup>15</sup>We are like foreigners and strangers.

All our ancestors were also foreigners and strangers.

Our time on earth is like a shadow.

There is no hope.

<sup>16</sup>Lord our God, we have gathered all this to build your Temple.

We will build it for worship to you.

But everything has come from you.

Everything belongs to you.

<sup>17</sup>I know, my God, that you test people's hearts.
 You are happy when people do what is right.
 I was happy to give all these things.
 I gave with an honest heart.
 Your people gathered here are happy to give to you.
 I am happy to see their giving.

<sup>18</sup>Lord, you are the God of our ancestors.
 You are the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
 Please help your people to want to serve you always.
 And help them to want to obey you always.

<sup>19</sup>Give my son Solomon a strong desire to serve you.
 Help him always obey your commands, laws and rules.
 Help him build the Temple for which I have prepared."

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to all the people who were gathered, "Praise the Lord your God." So they all praised the Lord, the God their ancestors worshiped. They bowed to the ground to give honor to the Lord and the king.

Solomon Becomes King

<sup>21</sup>The next day the people made sacrifices to the Lord. They offered burnt offerings to him. They offered 1,000 bulls, 1,000 male sheep and 1,000 male lambs. They also brought drink offerings. Many sacrifices were made for all the people of Israel. <sup>22</sup>That day the people ate and drank with much joy. And the Lord was with them.

And they made David's son Solomon king for the second time. They poured olive oil on Solomon to appoint him king. And they poured oil on Zadok to appoint him as priest. They did this in the presence of the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Then Solomon sat on the Lord's throne as king. He took his father David's place. Solomon was very successful. And all the people of Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup>All the leaders and soldiers and King David's sons accepted Solomon as king. They promised to obey him. <sup>25</sup>The Lord made Solomon great before all the Israelites. The Lord gave Solomon much honor. No king of Israel before Solomon had such honor.

David's Death

<sup>26</sup>David son of Jesse was king over all Israel. <sup>27</sup>He was king for 40 years. He ruled in the city of Hebron for 7 years. And he ruled in Jerusalem for 33 years. <sup>28</sup>David died when he was old. He had lived a good, long life. He had received many riches and honors. And David's son Solomon became king after him.

<sup>29</sup>Everything King David did as king, from beginning to end, is recorded. Those things are written in the records of Samuel the seer. <sup>4</sup> And they are in the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer. <sup>30</sup>Those writings tell what David did as king of Israel. They tell about his power and all that happened to him. And they tell what happened to Israel and all the kingdoms around them.

2 CHRONICLES

Israel's History from Solomon to the Captivity

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

1 Solomon was David's son, and he became a powerful king. This was because the Lord his God was with him. The Lord made Solomon very great.

<sup>2</sup>Solomon spoke to all the people of Israel. He spoke to the commanders of 100 men and of 1,000 men. He spoke to the judges, to every leader in all Israel and to the leaders of the families. <sup>3</sup>Then Solomon and all the people gathered with him went to the place of worship. This was at the town of Gibeon. God's Meeting Tent<sup>d</sup> was there. Moses, the Lord's servant, had made that Tent in the desert. <sup>4</sup>David had brought the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with God from Kiriath Jearim to Jerusalem. David had made a place for it there. He had set up a tent for it in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Bezalel was Uri's son, and Uri was Hur's son. Bezalel had made a bronze altar. It was in Gibeon in front of the Holy Tent. So Solomon and the people worshiped the Lord there. <sup>6</sup>Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the Lord at the Meeting Tent. He offered 1,000 burnt offerings on the altar.

<sup>7</sup>That night God appeared to Solomon. God said, "Solomon, ask for whatever you want me to give you."

<sup>8</sup>Solomon answered, "You have been very kind to my father David. You have chosen me to be the king in his place. <sup>9</sup>Now, Lord God, may your promise to my father David come true. You have made me king of a very large nation. There are so many of them they are like the dust of the earth. <sup>10</sup>Now give me wisdom and knowledge so I can lead these people in the right way. No one can rule them without your help."

<sup>11</sup>God said to Solomon, "What you want is good. I have chosen you to be king of these people. You have not asked for wealth or riches or honor. You have not asked for your enemies to be killed. You have not asked for a long life. But you have asked for wisdom and knowledge to lead my people. <sup>12</sup>So I will give you wisdom and knowledge. I will also give you more wealth, riches and honor than any king who has lived before you. And the kings who will live after you will not have as much."

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup>Solomon gathered horses and chariots. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He put some horses and chariots in the cities where the chariots were kept. And he kept some with him in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem, Solomon gathered much silver and gold. He got so much it was as common as rocks. He also gathered much cedar wood. It became as plentiful as the sycamore trees on the western mountain slopes. <sup>16</sup>Solomon imported horses from Egypt and Kue. The king's traders bought the horses in Kue. <sup>17</sup>They imported a chariot from Egypt for about 15 pounds of silver. And they imported a horse for nearly 4 pounds of silver. Then they sold the horses and chariots to all the kings of the Hittites and the Arameans.

Solomon Prepares for the Temple

2 Solomon decided to build a temple<sup>d</sup> as a place to worship the Lord. He also decided to build a palace for himself. <sup>2</sup>He chose 70,000 men to carry things. He chose 80,000 men to cut stone in the mountains. And he chose 3,600 men to direct the workers.

<sup>3</sup>Then Solomon sent a message to Hiram king of the city of Tyre. Solomon said:

Help me as you helped my father David.

You sent him cedar logs so he could build himself a palace to live in. <sup>4</sup>I will build a temple as a place to worship the Lord my God. And I will give this temple to the Lord. There we will burn sweet-smelling spices in his presence. We will set out the bread that shows we are in God's presence. And we will burn sacrifices every morning and evening. We will worship him on Sabbath<sup>d</sup> days and New Moons.<sup>d</sup> And we will worship him on the other feast days the Lord our God has commanded us to celebrate. This is a rule for Israel to obey forever.

<sup>5</sup>The temple I build will be great. This is because our God is greater than all gods. <sup>6</sup>But no one can really build a house for our God. Not even the highest of heavens can hold God. How then can I build a temple for him? I can only build a place to burn sacrifices to God.

<sup>7</sup>Now send me a man skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze and iron. He must know how to work with purple, red and blue thread. He must know how to make engravings. He will work with my skilled craftsmen in Judah and Jerusalem. These are the men my father David chose.

<sup>8</sup>Also send me cedar, pine and juniper logs from Lebanon. I know your servants are experienced at cutting down the trees in Lebanon. My servants will help them.

<sup>9</sup>Send me a lot of wood. The temple I am going to build will be large and wonderful.

<sup>10</sup>I will give your servants who cut the wood 125,000 bushels of wheat. And I will give them 125,000 bushels of barley, 115,000 gallons of wine and 115,000 gallons of oil.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre answered Solomon with this letter:

Solomon, the Lord loves his people. That is why he chose you to be their king.

<sup>12</sup>Hiram also said:

Praise the Lord, the God of Israel! He made heaven and earth! He gave King David a wise son. Solomon, you have wisdom and understanding. You will build a temple for the Lord and a palace for yourself.

<sup>13</sup>I will send you a skilled and wise man named Hiram-Abi. <sup>14</sup>His mother was from the people of Dan. And his father was from Tyre. Hiram-Abi has skill in working with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone and wood. He has skill in working with purple, blue and red thread and expensive linen. And he is skilled in making engravings. He can make any design you show him. He will help your craftsmen and the craftsmen of your father David.

<sup>15</sup>Now send my servants the wheat, barley, oil and wine you promised. <sup>16</sup>We will cut as much wood from Lebanon as you need. We will use rafts to carry it by sea to Joppa. Then you may carry it to Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup>Solomon counted all the foreigners living in Israel. This was after the time his father David had counted the people. There were 153,600 foreigners in the country. <sup>18</sup>Solomon chose 70,000 of them to carry things. He chose 80,000 of them to cut stone in the mountains. And he chose 3,600 of them to direct the workers. They were to keep the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3 Solomon began to build the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He built it in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah. This was where the Lord had appeared to David, Solomon's father. Solomon built the Temple on the place David had prepared. This place was the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup>Solomon began building in the second month of the fourth year he ruled Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Solomon used these measurements for building the Temple of God. It was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. (Solomon used the old measurement.) <sup>4</sup>The porch in front of the Temple was 30 feet long and 30 feet high.

Solomon covered the inside of the porch with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>He put panels of pine on the walls of the main room. Then he covered them with pure gold. And he put designs of palm trees and chains in the gold. <sup>6</sup>He put gems in the Temple for beauty. And he used gold from Parvaim. <sup>7</sup>Solomon put gold on the Temple's ceiling beams, doorposts, walls and doors. And he carved creatures with wings on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>Then Solomon made the Most Holy Place. It was 30 feet long and 30 feet wide. It was as wide as the Temple. He covered its walls with about 46,000 pounds of pure gold. <sup>9</sup>The gold nails weighed over a pound. Solomon also covered the upper rooms with gold.

<sup>10</sup>He made two creatures with wings for the Most Holy Place. He made them out of hot liquid gold. <sup>11</sup>The wings of the gold creatures were spread out. Together, they were 30 feet across. One wing of one creature touched the Temple wall. The wing was 7½ feet long. The creature's other wing touched a wing of the second creature. This wing was also 7½ feet long. <sup>12</sup>One wing of the second creature touched the other side of the room. It was also 7½ feet long. The second creature's other wing touched the first creature's wing. This wing was also 7½ feet long. <sup>13</sup>Together, the creatures' wings were 30 feet across. The creatures stood on their feet. They looked inside toward the main room.

of the Temple. They were about 52 feet tall. The capital<sup>d</sup> of each pillar was over 7 feet tall. <sup>16</sup>Solomon made a net of chains. He put them on the tops of the pillars. He made 100 pomegranates<sup>d</sup> and put them on the chains. <sup>17</sup>Then Solomon put the pillars up in front of the Temple. One pillar stood on the south side. The other stood on the north. He named the south pillar He Establishes. And he named the north pillar In Him Is Strength.

Things for the Temple

4 Solomon made a bronze altar. It was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide and 15 feet tall. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon used melted bronze to make a large bowl, which was called the Sea. It was round and measured 15 feet across from edge to edge. It was over 7 feet tall, and it measured 45 feet around. <sup>3</sup>There were carvings of bulls under the rim of the bowl. There were 10 bulls in every 1½ feet. They were put in two rows around the bowl when it was made.

<sup>4</sup>The bowl rested on 12 statues of bulls. Three bulls faced north, 3 faced west, 3 faced south and 3 faced east. The bowl was on top of them. They faced outward from the center of the bowl. <sup>5</sup>The bowl was 3 inches thick. Its rim was like the rim of a cup. It looked like a lily blossom. It could hold about 17,500 gallons.

<sup>6</sup>Solomon made 10 smaller bowls. He put 5 of them on the south side. And he put 5 of them on the north. They were to be used to wash the animals for the burnt offerings. But the large bowl was to be used by the priests for washing.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon made 10 lampstands of gold, following the plans for them. He put them in the Temple. <sup>4</sup> He put 5 on the south side and 5 on the north.

<sup>8</sup>Solomon made 10 tables and put them in the Temple. He put 5 on the south side and 5 on the north. And he used gold to make 100 other bowls.

<sup>9</sup>Solomon also made the priests' courtyard and the large courtyard. He made the doors that opened to the courtyard and covered them with bronze. <sup>10</sup>Then he put the large bowl on the south side. He put it in the Temple's south-east corner.

<sup>11</sup>He made the pots, shovels and bowls. So Hiram finished his work for King Solomon on the Temple of God. He had made these things:

<sup>12</sup>two pillars;

two large bowls for the capitals on top of the pillars;

two nets to cover the two large bowls for the capitals on top of the pillars;

All the things Hiram-Abi made King Solomon for the Temple of the Lord were made of polished bronze. <sup>17</sup>King Solomon first had these things poured into clay molds. The molds were made in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>18</sup>Solomon had so many things made no one even tried to weigh all the bronze used.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon also made all the things for God's Temple. He made the gold altar. He made tables to hold the bread that shows we are in God's presence. <sup>20</sup>He made the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold. They were to burn in front of the Most Holy Place as planned. <sup>21</sup>Solomon used pure gold to make the flowers, lamps and tongs. <sup>22</sup>He used pure gold to make the wick trimmers. He used pure gold for the bowls, pans and dishes used to carry coals. He used pure gold to make the doors for the Temple. And he used pure gold for the inside doors for the Most Holy Place and the doors for the main room.

5 Then all the work Solomon had done for the Temple of the Lord was finished. He brought in everything his father David had given for the Temple. He brought in all the silver and gold and all the furniture. And he put everything in the treasuries of God's Temple.

The Ark Is Carried into the Temple

<sup>2</sup>Then Solomon called for all the leaders of Israel. He asked them to come to him in Jerusalem. He called for all the older leaders, the heads of the tribes<sup>d</sup> and the leaders of the families. He wanted them to bring the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement with the Lord from the older part of the city. <sup>3</sup>All the men of Israel came together with King Solomon. This was during the festival that was held in the seventh month.

ment. They sacrificed so many sheep and bulls no one could count them.

<sup>7</sup>Then the priests put the Ark of the Agreement with the Lord in its place. This was inside the Most Holy Place in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> They put it under the wings of the gold creatures. <sup>8</sup>The wings of the creatures were spread out over the place for the Ark. They covered it and its carrying poles. <sup>9</sup>The carrying poles were very long. Anyone standing in the Holy Place in front of the Most Holy Place could see the ends of the poles. But no one could see the poles from outside the Holy Place. The poles are still there today. <sup>10</sup>The only things inside the Ark were two stone tablets.<sup>n</sup> Moses had put them in the Ark at Mount Sinai. That was where the Lord made an agreement with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>Then all the priests left the Holy Place. All the priests from each group made themselves ready to serve the Lord. <sup>12</sup>All the Levite musicians stood on the east side of the altar. They were Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and all their sons and relatives. They were dressed in white linen and played cymbals, lyres<sup>d</sup> and harps. With them were 120 priests who blew trumpets. <sup>13</sup>Those who blew the trumpets and those who sang together sounded like one person. They praised and thanked the Lord. They sang as they played their trumpets, cymbals and other instruments. They praised the Lord with this song:

“The Lord is good.

His love continues forever.”

Then the Temple of the Lord was filled with a cloud. <sup>14</sup>The priests could not continue their work because of the cloud. This was because the Lord's glory filled the Temple of God.

6 Then Solomon said, “The Lord said he would live in the dark cloud. <sup>2</sup>I have built a great Temple for you, Lord. It is a place for you to live forever.”

Solomon's Speech

<sup>3</sup>King Solomon turned around and blessed all the Israelites gathered in front of him. <sup>4</sup>He said, “Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. He has done what he promised my father David. The Lord said, <sup>5</sup>‘I brought my people out of Egypt. But I have not yet chosen a city in any tribe<sup>d</sup> of Israel for my temple.’ This is where I have chosen to be worshiped. I have not chosen a man to lead my people, the Israelites. <sup>6</sup>But now I have chosen Jerusalem as the place I am to be worshiped. And I have chosen David to lead my people Israel.’

<sup>7</sup>“My father David wanted to build a temple as a place to worship the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>But the Lord said to my father, ‘David, it was good that you wanted to build a temple as a place to worship me. <sup>9</sup>But you are not the one who will build the temple. Your own son will build my temple.’

<sup>10</sup>“Now the Lord has kept his promise. I have taken my father David's place. Now I am Israel's king. This is what the Lord promised. And I have built the Temple where the Lord, the God of Israel, will be worshiped. <sup>11</sup>I have put the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement there. The agreement that the Lord made with the people of Israel is kept in the Ark.”

Solomon's Prayer

<sup>12</sup>Solomon stood in front of the Lord's altar. He was standing before all the people gathered there. Then he spread his arms out. <sup>13</sup>He had made a bronze platform. It was 7½ feet long, 7½ feet wide and 7½ feet high. And he had placed it in the middle of the outer courtyard. Solomon stood on the platform. Then he kneeled in front of all the people of Israel who were gathered there. Solomon spread his hands out toward the sky. <sup>14</sup>He said, “Lord, God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven or on earth. You keep your agreement of love with your servants who completely obey you. <sup>15</sup>You have kept your promise to my father David, your servant. With your words you made a promise. And with the work of your hands, you have made that promise come true today.

<sup>16</sup>“Now, Lord, God of Israel, also keep this promise you made to my father David, your servant. You said, ‘David, you will always have someone from your family rule Israel. But this will happen only if they are careful to obey my teachings in everything they do. They must obey my teachings just as you have.’ <sup>17</sup>Now, Lord, God of Israel, keep your promise. Let this promise to your servant David come true.

<sup>18</sup>“But, God, can you really live here on the earth with people? Not even the highest of heavens can hold you. And this Temple<sup>d</sup> I built cannot hold you. <sup>19</sup>But pay attention to my prayer and my cry for mercy. Lord my God, listen to my cry. Listen to the prayer I, your servant, pray to you. <sup>20</sup>I pray that you will watch over this Temple day and night. You said you would make this the place to worship you. I pray that you will hear my prayers when I pray facing this Temple. <sup>21</sup>Hear my prayers and the prayers of your people Israel. Hear us when we pray facing this Temple. Hear from your home in heaven. And when you hear our prayers, forgive us.

<sup>22</sup>"A person might do something wrong against someone else. The person who did the wrong will have to swear he is innocent. He will come to swear this before your altar in the Temple. <sup>23</sup>When he does this, listen from heaven and act. Judge your servants. Punish the one who did wrong. Make him suffer the same things he made others suffer. Prove that the person who has done right is innocent.

<sup>24</sup>"An enemy might defeat your people Israel because they have sinned against you. Then the people of Israel will return to you and say you are God. They will pray and beg you for help in this Temple. <sup>25</sup>When this happens, listen from heaven. Forgive the sin of your people, the Israelites. Bring them back into the land you gave to them and their ancestors.

<sup>26</sup>"The sky might not let it rain because your people have sinned against you. Then they will pray, facing this Temple. They will say you are God. They will stop doing their sin because you are punishing them. <sup>27</sup>When that happens, then listen from heaven. Forgive the sins of your servants, the Israelites. Then teach them the right way to live. And send rain on your land. This is the land you gave your people as their own.

<sup>28</sup>"There might be a time without food in the land. Or there might be terrible sicknesses, disease in the crops, mildew,<sup>d</sup> locusts<sup>d</sup> or grasshoppers. Or enemies might attack Israel's cities. There might be a disaster in Israel. <sup>29</sup>Then one of your people, an Israelite, will pray or cry for help. Each person knows his own trouble and pain. He will spread his arms out, facing this Temple. <sup>30</sup>When that happens, then listen from heaven, your home. Forgive and treat each person as he should be treated. You know what is in his heart. (Only you know what is in a person's heart.) <sup>31</sup>Then the people will fear and obey you as long as they live in this land. This is the land you gave our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup>"A foreigner might come here from a country far away. He is not one of your people, the people of Israel. But he will come because he has heard about your greatness and power. He knows about the things you have done. When he comes and prays, facing this Temple, <sup>33</sup>then listen. Listen from heaven, your home. And do what he asks you to do. Then all the peoples of the earth will know you and respect you, just as your people Israel do. And they will know that this Temple I built is for worshiping you.

<sup>34</sup>"You might send your people to fight their enemies. They will pray to you, facing this city you chose and the Temple I built for worshiping you. <sup>35</sup>If they do, then listen from heaven to their prayer. Listen to their cry and help them.

<sup>36</sup>"People will sin against you. There is not a person who does not sin. And you will become angry with them. You will let an enemy defeat them. The enemy will capture them and take them away. It may be to a land far away or near. <sup>37</sup>But then they will be sorry for what they have done. As captives in that land, they will cry out to you. They will say, 'We have sinned. We have done wrong and acted wickedly.' <sup>38</sup>In the land where they are captives, they will come back to you. They will want to obey you completely. They will pray, facing their land, the land you gave their ancestors. They will pray, facing the city you chose and the Temple I built for you. <sup>39</sup>When this happens, listen from your home in heaven. Listen to their cries and help them. Forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>40</sup>"Now, my God, look at us. Listen to the prayers we will pray in this place.

Come with the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement that shows your strength.

Let your priests receive your salvation, Lord God.

And may your holy people be happy because of your goodness.

<sup>42</sup>Lord God, do not reject your appointed one.

Remember your love for your servant David."

The Temple Is Given to the Lord

7 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from the sky. It burned up the burnt offering and the sacrifices. The Lord's glory filled the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>The priests could not enter the Temple of the Lord because the Lord's glory filled it. <sup>3</sup>All the people of Israel saw the fire come down from heaven. They also saw the Lord's glory on the Temple. Then they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground. They worshiped and thanked the Lord. They said,

"The Lord is good.

His love continues forever."

<sup>4</sup>Then King Solomon and all the Israelites offered sacrifices before the Lord. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people gave the Temple for the worship of God. <sup>6</sup>The priests stood ready to do their work. The Levites also stood with the instruments of the Lord's music. King David had made these instruments for praising the Lord. The priests and Levites were saying, "The Lord's love continues forever." The priests, who stood across from the Levites, blew their trumpets. And all the Israelites were standing.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon made the middle part of the courtyard holy for the Lord. That courtyard is in front of the Temple of the Lord. There Solomon offered burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings. He used the middle of the courtyard because the bronze altar he had made could not hold everything. It couldn't hold the burnt offerings, grain offerings and fat.

<sup>8</sup>Solomon and all the Israelites celebrated the festival for seven days. There were many people. They came from as far away as Lebo Hamath. And they came all the way from the brook of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>They had given the altar for the worship of the Lord. And they celebrated that for seven days. Then they celebrated the festival for seven days. On the eighth day they had a meeting. <sup>10</sup>On the twenty-third day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people home. They were full of joy. They were happy because the Lord had been so good to David, Solomon and his people the Israelites.

The Lord Appears to Solomon

<sup>11</sup>Solomon finished the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and the king's palace. He had success in doing everything he planned in the Temple of the Lord and his own palace. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord appeared to Solomon at night. The Lord said, "Solomon, I have heard your prayer. And I have chosen this place for myself to be a Temple for sacrifices.

<sup>13</sup>"I may stop the sky from sending rain. I may command the locusts<sup>d</sup> to destroy the land. I may send sicknesses to my people. <sup>14</sup>Then my people, who are called by my name, will be sorry for what they have done. They will pray and obey me and stop their evil ways. If they do, I will hear them from heaven. I will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land. <sup>15</sup>Now I will see them. And I will listen to the prayers prayed in this place. <sup>16</sup>I have chosen this Temple and made it holy. So I will be worshiped here forever. Yes, I will always watch over it and love it.

<sup>17</sup>"Solomon, obey me as your father David did. Obey all I have commanded. Obey my laws and rules. <sup>18</sup>If you do, I will make your kingdom strong. This is the agreement I made with your father David. I told him, 'David, someone from your family will always be king in Israel.'

<sup>19</sup>"But you must not turn away from me. You must not stop obeying the laws and commands I gave you. You must not serve and worship other gods. <sup>20</sup>If you do, I will take the Israelites out of my land, the land I gave them. And I will leave this Temple that I have made holy. All the nations will make fun of it and speak evil about it. <sup>21</sup>This Temple is honored now. But then, everyone who passes by will be surprised. They will say, 'Why has the Lord done this terrible thing to this land and this Temple?' <sup>22</sup>Then people will answer, 'It's because the Israelites left the Lord, the God their ancestors obeyed. He is the God who led them out of Egypt. But they accepted other gods and worshiped and served them. That is why the Lord brought this disaster on them.' "

Solomon's Other Achievements

8 It took Solomon 20 years to build the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and his own palace. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon rebuilt the towns that Hiram had given him. And Solomon sent Israelites to live in them. <sup>3</sup>Then he went to Hamath Zobah and captured it. <sup>4</sup>Solomon also built the town of Tadmor in the desert. He built all the towns in Hamath as towns for storing things. <sup>5</sup>He rebuilt the towns of Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon. He made them protected towns with strong walls, gates and bars in the gates. <sup>6</sup>He also rebuilt the town of Baalath. And he built all the other towns where he stored things. He built all the cities where the chariots and horses were kept. Solomon built all he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon and in all the country he ruled.

<sup>7</sup><sup>8</sup>Many people who were not Israelites were left living in the country. These people were the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. They were descendants<sup>d</sup> of the people that the Israelites had not destroyed. Solomon forced all of them to be slave workers. This is still true today. <sup>9</sup>But Solomon did not force any of the Israelites to be slave workers. They were his fighting men. They were the commanders of his army officers, his chariots and his chariot drivers. <sup>10</sup>Some of them were his most important officers. There were 250 of them to direct the people.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon brought the daughter of the king of Egypt from the older part of Jerusalem. He brought her to the palace he had built for her. Solomon said, "My wife must not live in King David's palace. This is because the places where the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement has been are holy places.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the Lord on the Lord’s altar. Solomon built that altar in front of the Temple porch. <sup>13</sup>He offered sacrifices every day as Moses had commanded. Sacrifices were to be offered on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> days, New Moons<sup>d</sup> and the three yearly feasts. The three yearly feasts were the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Shelters. <sup>14</sup>Solomon followed his father David’s instructions. Solomon chose the groups of priests for their service. He chose the Levites to lead the praise. And they were to help the priests do their daily work. And he chose the gatekeepers by their groups to serve at each gate. This is what David, the man of God, had commanded. <sup>15</sup>They obeyed all of Solomon’s commands to the priests and Levites. And they obeyed his commands about the treasures.

<sup>16</sup>All Solomon’s work was done. Everything was done as he had said from the day the Temple of the Lord was begun until it was finished. So the Temple was finished.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon went to the towns of Ezion Geber and Elath. They were near the Red Sea<sup>d</sup> in the country of Edom. <sup>18</sup>Hiram sent to Solomon ships commanded by his own men. They were skilled sailors. Hiram’s men went with Solomon’s men to Ophir. And they brought back about 34,000 pounds of gold to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

9 The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon’s fame. So she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. She had a very large group of people with her. She had camels that carried spices, much gold and many gems. She came to Solomon and talked with him about all her questions. <sup>2</sup>And Solomon answered all her questions. Nothing was too hard for him to explain to her. <sup>3</sup>The queen of Sheba saw that Solomon was very wise. She also saw the palace he had built. <sup>4</sup>She saw the food on his table and his many officers. She saw the palace servants and their good clothes. She saw the servants who served Solomon his wine. And she saw their good clothes. She saw the burnt offerings he made in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. All these things amazed her. <sup>5</sup>So she said to King Solomon, “I heard in my own country about your achievements and wisdom. And all of it is true. <sup>6</sup>I did not believe it then. But now I have come and seen it with my own eyes. Not even half of your great wisdom was told to me! You are much greater than I had heard.

<sup>7</sup>Your men and officers are very lucky! Since they are always serving you, they are able to hear your wisdom! <sup>8</sup>Praise the Lord your God! He was pleased to make you king. He has put you on his throne to rule for the Lord your God. Your God loves Israel and supports Israel forever. So the Lord has made you king of Israel to keep law and order and to rule fairly.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon about 9,000 pounds of gold. She also gave him many spices and gems. No one had ever given such fine spices as she gave to King Solomon.

<sup>12</sup>King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she wanted and asked for. He gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she and her servants left and returned to their own country.

Solomon’s Great Wealth

<sup>13</sup>The amount of gold that Solomon received in one year weighed about 50,000 pounds. <sup>14</sup>Besides that, he also received gold from merchants and traders. All the kings of Arabia and the rulers of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields from hammered gold. Each shield contained about 7½ pounds of hammered gold. <sup>16</sup>Solomon also made 300 small shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about 4 pounds of gold. King Solomon put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup>Then he built a large throne of ivory. And he covered it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>The throne had six steps on it. And it had a gold footstool on it. There were armrests on both sides of the chair. And beside each armrest was a statue of a lion. <sup>19</sup>Twelve lions stood on the six steps. There was one lion at each end of each step. Nothing like this had ever been made for any other kingdom. <sup>20</sup>All King Solomon’s drinking cups were made of gold. All of the dishes in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. In Solomon’s time people did not think silver was valuable. So nothing was made of silver. <sup>21</sup>King Solomon had many ships that he sent out to trade. Hiram’s men sailed Solomon’s ships. Every three years the ships returned. They brought back gold, silver, ivory, apes and baboons.

<sup>22</sup>King Solomon had more riches and wisdom than all the other kings on earth. <sup>23</sup>All the kings of the earth came to see Solomon. They wanted to hear the wisdom God had given him. <sup>24</sup>Every year everyone who came brought a gift. They brought things made of silver and gold, clothes, weapons, spices, horses and mules.

<sup>25</sup>Solomon had 4,000 stalls to hold his horses and chariots. He had 12,000 horses. He kept them in special cities for the chariots. And he kept some with him in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>Solomon was king over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the Philistine country to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>In Jerusalem silver was as common as stones while Solomon was king. Cedar trees were as common as the fig trees growing on the western mountain slopes. <sup>28</sup>Solomon imported horses from Egypt and all other countries.

Solomon's Death

<sup>29</sup>The other things Solomon did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the writings of Nathan the prophet. <sup>4</sup> And they are in the prophecy of Ahijah and the visions of Iddo. Ahijah was from Shiloh. Iddo was a seer<sup>d</sup> who wrote about Jeroboam, Nebat's son. <sup>30</sup>Solomon was king in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. <sup>31</sup>Then Solomon died and was buried in Jerusalem. This was the city of his father David. And Solomon's son Rehoboam became king in his place.

Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem because all the Israelites had gone there to make him king. <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat was in Egypt. He had gone there to run away from King Solomon. Jeroboam heard that Rehoboam was going to be the new king. So he returned from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>The people sent for Jeroboam. Then he and the people went to Rehoboam. They said to Rehoboam, <sup>4</sup>"Your father forced us to work very hard. Now, make it easier for us. Don't make us work as hard as your father did. Then we will serve you."

<sup>6</sup>There were some older leaders who had helped Solomon make decisions during his lifetime. So King Rehoboam asked them what he should do. He said, "How do you think I should answer these people?"

Please them and give them a kind answer. If you do, they will serve you always."

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam did not listen to the advice the older leaders gave him. He talked with the young men who had grown up with him. They advised him in making decisions. <sup>9</sup>Rehoboam asked them, "What is your advice? How should we answer these people? They said, 'Don't make us work as hard as your father did.'"

<sup>10</sup>Then the young men who had grown up with him said, "The people said to you, 'Your father forced us to work very hard. Now make our work easier.' But you should tell those people, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>11</sup>My father forced you to work hard. But I will make you work even harder. My father beat you with whips. But I will beat you with whips that have sharp points.'"

<sup>12</sup>King Rehoboam had told the people, "Come back to me in three days." So three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam. <sup>13</sup>Then King Rehoboam spoke to them in a cruel way. He did not take the advice of the older leaders. <sup>14</sup>He followed the advice of the young men. He said, "My father forced you to work hard. But I will give you even more work. My father beat you with whips. But I will beat you with whips that have sharp points." <sup>15</sup>So King Rehoboam did not do what the people wanted. God caused this to happen. He did this so the Lord could keep his promise to Jeroboam son of Nebat. The Lord had made this promise through Ahijah, a prophet<sup>d</sup> from Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup>The people of Israel saw that King Rehoboam did not listen to them. So they said to the king,

"We have no share in David.

We have no part in the son of Jesse.

People of Israel, let's go to our own homes!

Let David's son rule his own people."

So all the Israelites went home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Adoniram was in charge of the people who were forced to work. Rehoboam sent him to the people. But they threw stones at Adoniram until he died. But King Rehoboam was able to run to his chariot and escape to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Since then, Israel has always turned against the family of David.

11 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered 180,000 of the best soldiers. They were from the people of Judah and Benjamin. He gathered them to fight Israel. He wanted to bring the kingdom back under his control. <sup>2</sup>But the Lord spoke his word to She-maiah, the man of God. The Lord said, <sup>3</sup>“She-maiah, speak to Solomon’s son Rehoboam, the king of Judah. Speak also to all the Israelites living in Judah and Benjamin. Say to them, <sup>4</sup>“The Lord says you must not go to war against your brothers. Every one of you should go home. I made all these things happen.” So King Rehoboam and his army obeyed the Lord’s command. They turned back and did not attack Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Makes Judah Strong

Rehoboam’s Family

<sup>18</sup>Rehoboam married Mahalath. She was the daughter of Jerimoth and Abihail. Jerimoth was David’s son. Abihail was Eliab’s daughter, and Eliab was Jesse’s son. <sup>19</sup>Mahalath gave Rehoboam these sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. <sup>20</sup>Then Rehoboam married Absalom’s daughter Maacah. And she gave Rehoboam these children: Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah more than his other wives and slave women.<sup>d</sup> Rehoboam had 18 wives and 60 slave women. He was the father of 28 sons and 60 daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Rehoboam chose Abijah to be the leader of his own brothers. He did this because he planned to make Abijah king. <sup>23</sup>Rehoboam acted wisely. He spread his sons through all the areas of Judah and Benjamin. He sent them to every strong, walled city. And he gave plenty of supplies to his sons. He also found wives for them.

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

12 Rehoboam became a strong king. He also made his kingdom strong. Then he and the people of Judah stopped obeying the teachings of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Shishak was the king of Egypt. He attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year Rehoboam was king. This happened because Rehoboam and the people were unfaithful to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Shishak had 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. He brought troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites from Egypt with him. There were so many they couldn’t be counted. <sup>4</sup>Shishak captured the strong, walled cities of Judah. And he came as far as Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Shemaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah. They had gathered in Jerusalem because they were afraid of Shishak. Shemaiah said to them, “This is what the Lord says: ‘You have left me. So now I will leave you to face Shishak alone.’”

<sup>6</sup>Then the leaders of Judah and King Rehoboam were sorry for what they had done. They said, “The Lord does what is right.”

<sup>7</sup>The Lord saw that they were sorry for what they had done. So the Lord spoke his word to Shemaiah. The Lord said, “The king and the leaders are sorry. So I will not destroy them but will save them soon. I will not use Shishak to punish Jerusalem in my anger. <sup>8</sup>But the people of Jerusalem will become Shishak’s servants. Then they may learn that serving me is different than serving the kings of other nations.”

<sup>9</sup>Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem. He took the treasures from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and from the king’s palace. He took everything, even the gold shields Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup>So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to take their place. He gave them to the commanders of the guards for the entrance to the king’s palace. <sup>11</sup>Whenever the king entered the Temple of the Lord, the guards went with him. They would carry the shields. Later, they would put them back in the guard room.

<sup>12</sup>When Rehoboam was sorry for what he had done, the Lord held his anger back. So the Lord did not fully destroy Rehoboam. There was some good in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>King Rehoboam made himself a strong king in Jerusalem. He was 41 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for 17 years. Jerusalem is the city that the Lord chose from all the tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel. He chose to be worshiped in Jerusalem. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah from the country of Ammon. <sup>14</sup>Rehoboam did evil things because he did not want to ask the Lord for help.

<sup>15</sup>The things Rehoboam did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the records of Shemaiah the prophet. And they are in the records of Iddo the seer.<sup>d</sup> These men wrote family histories. There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the time they ruled. <sup>16</sup>Rehoboam died and was buried in Jerusalem. Then Rehoboam's son Abijah became king.

Abijah King of Judah

13 Abijah became the king of Judah. This was during the eighteenth year Jeroboam was king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Abijah was king in Jerusalem for three years. Abijah's mother was Machah daughter of Uriel. Uriel was from the town of Gibeah.

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>Abijah led an army of 400,000 capable soldiers into battle. And Jeroboam prepared to fight him with 800,000 capable soldiers.

<sup>4</sup>Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim in the mountains of Ephraim. He said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me! <sup>5</sup>You should know this: The Lord, the God of Israel, gave David and his sons the right to be king over Israel forever. God gave this right to David with an agreement which will last forever. <sup>6</sup>But Jeroboam turned against his master. Jeroboam was the son of Nebat, one of Solomon's officers. Solomon was David's son. <sup>7</sup>Then worthless, evil men became friends with Jeroboam. They were against Rehoboam, Solomon's son. Rehoboam was young and didn't know what to do. So he could not stop them.

<sup>8</sup>"Now you people are making plans against the Lord's kingdom. The Lord's kingdom belongs to David's sons! There are many of you. And you have the gold calves Jeroboam made for you as gods. <sup>9</sup>You have thrown out the Lord's priests and the Levites. The priests are Aaron's sons. You have chosen your own priests as people in other countries do. Anyone who comes to make himself ready to serve the Lord with a young bull and seven male sheep can become a priest. He may become a priest of idols that are not gods.

<sup>10</sup>"But as for us, the Lord is our God. We have not left him. The priests who serve the Lord are Aaron's sons. And the Levites help the priests serve the Lord. <sup>11</sup>They offer burnt offerings and sweet-smelling incense<sup>d</sup> to the Lord every morning and evening. They also put the bread on the special table in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> And they light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We obey the command of the Lord our God. But you have left the Lord. <sup>12</sup>God himself is with us. He is our ruler, and his priests are with us. The priests blow the trumpet to call us to war against you. Men of Israel, don't fight against the Lord because you won't succeed. He is the God of your ancestors."

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam had sent some troops to sneak behind Abijah's army. So while Jeroboam was in front of Abijah's army, Jeroboam's soldiers were behind them. <sup>14</sup>The soldiers in Abijah's army looked around. Then they saw Jeroboam's army attacking both in front and back. They cried out to the Lord. And the priests blew the trumpets. <sup>15</sup>Then the men of Judah gave a battle cry. When they shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and the army of Israel. They ran away from Abijah and the army of Judah. <sup>16</sup>The men of Israel ran away from the men of Judah. God let the army from Judah defeat them. <sup>17</sup>Abijah's army killed many of Israel's men. Of Israel's best men 500,000 were killed. <sup>18</sup>So at that time the people of Israel were defeated. And the people of Judah won. They won because they depended on the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>19</sup>Abijah's army chased Jeroboam's army. Abijah's army captured from Jeroboam the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron. They also captured the small villages near these towns. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam never became strong again while Abijah was alive. The Lord struck Jeroboam, and he died.

<sup>21</sup>But Abijah became strong. He married 14 women. And he was the father of 22 sons and 16 daughters. <sup>22</sup>All the other things Abijah did as king are written down. What he said and did are recorded in what the prophet Iddo has written.

14 Abijah died and was buried in Jerusalem. Then Abijah's son Asa became king in his place. There was peace in the country for 10 years in Asa's time.

Asa King of Judah

right. <sup>3</sup>He removed the foreign altars used for idol worship. He removed the places where false gods were worshiped. He smashed the stone pillars that honored false gods. And he tore down the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. <sup>4</sup>Asa commanded the people of Judah to obey the Lord, the God their ancestors followed. Asa commanded them to obey the Lord's teachings and commandments. <sup>5</sup>He also removed the places where false gods were worshiped and the incense altars from every town in Judah. So the kingdom had peace while Asa was king. <sup>6</sup>Asa built strong, walled cities in Judah during the time of peace. He had no war in these years because the Lord gave him peace.

<sup>7</sup>Asa said to the people of Judah, "Let's build up these towns and put walls around them. Let's make towers, gates and bars in the gates. This country is ours because we have obeyed the Lord our God. We have tried to obey him, and he has given us peace all around." So they built and had success.

<sup>8</sup>Asa had an army of 300,000 men from the people of Judah. And he had 280,000 men from the people of Benjamin. The men from Judah carried large shields and spears. The men from Benjamin carried small shields and bows and arrows. All these men were brave fighting men.

<sup>9</sup>Then Zerah from Cush came out to fight Asa's army. Zerah had a large army and 300 chariots. They came as far as the town of Maresah. <sup>10</sup>Asa went out to fight Zerah. Asa's army prepared for battle in the Valley of Zephathah at Maresah.

<sup>11</sup>Asa called out to the Lord his God. He said, "Lord, only you can help weak people against the strong. Help us, Lord our God. We depend on you. We fight against this large army in your name. Lord, you are our God. Don't let anyone win against you."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord defeated the Cushites when Asa's army from Judah attacked them. And the Cushites ran away. <sup>13</sup>Asa's army chased them as far as the town of Gerar. So many Cushites were killed that the army could not fight again. They were crushed by the Lord and his army. Asa and his army carried many valuable things away from the enemy. <sup>14</sup>They destroyed all the towns near Gerar. The people living in these towns were afraid of the Lord. These towns had many valuable things. So Asa's army took these things away. <sup>15</sup>Asa's army also attacked the camps where the shepherds lived. And they took many sheep and camels. Then they went back to Jerusalem.

Asa's Changes

15 The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God entered Azariah son of Oded. <sup>2</sup>Azariah went to meet Asa. Azariah said, "Listen to me, Asa and all you people of Judah and Benjamin. The Lord is with you when you are with him. If you obey the Lord, you will find him. But if you leave him, he will leave you. <sup>3</sup>For a long time Israel was without the true God. And they were without a priest to teach them and without the teachings. <sup>4</sup>But when they were in trouble, they turned to the Lord again. He is the God of Israel. They looked for the Lord and found him. <sup>5</sup>In those days no one could travel safely. There was much trouble in all the nations. <sup>6</sup>One nation would destroy another nation. And one city would destroy another city. This happened because God troubled them with all kinds of trouble. <sup>7</sup>But you should be strong. Don't give up, because you will get a reward for your good work."

<sup>8</sup>Asa felt brave when he heard these words and the message from Azariah. Azariah was the son of Oded the prophet.<sup>d</sup> So he removed the hated idols from all of Judah and Benjamin. And he removed them from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the Lord's altar that was in front of the porch of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Then Asa gathered all the people from Judah and Benjamin. He also gathered the people of the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who were living in Judah. Many people came to Asa from Israel. They came because they saw that the Lord, Asa's God, was with him.

<sup>10</sup>Asa and these people gathered in Jerusalem. This was in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's rule. <sup>11</sup>At that time they sacrificed to the Lord 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats. Asa's army had taken these animals and other valuable things from their enemies. <sup>12</sup>Then they made an agreement. They promised to obey the Lord with their whole being. He is the God their ancestors served. <sup>13</sup>Anyone who refused to obey the Lord, the God of Israel, was to be killed. It did not matter if that person was important or unimportant. It did not matter if that person was a man or woman. <sup>14</sup>Then Asa and the people made a promise before the Lord. They shouted with a loud voice. They also blew on trumpets and sheep's horns. <sup>15</sup>All the people of Judah were happy about the promise. They had promised with all their heart. They looked for God and found him. So the Lord gave them peace in all the country.

<sup>16</sup>King Asa also removed Maacah, his mother, from being queen mother. He did this because she had made an Asherah<sup>d</sup> idol, which the Lord hated. Asa cut down that idol and smashed it into pieces. Then he burned it in the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>The places of worship to false gods were not removed from Judah. Asa desired very much to obey the Lord all his life.

<sup>18</sup>And Asa put the holy gifts that he and his father had given into the Temple of God. These things were made of silver and gold.

<sup>19</sup>There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's rule.

Asa's Last Years

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's rule, Baasha king of Israel attacked Judah. He went to the town of Ramah and made it strong. He used it to keep people from going in or out of the country of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Asa took silver and gold out of the treasuries of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he took silver and gold out of his own palace. Then he sent it with messengers to Ben-Hadad king of Aram. Ben-Hadad was living in Damascus. Asa's message said: <sup>3</sup>"Let's make an agreement between you and me. Let's make it like the agreement between your father and mine. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your agreement with Baasha king of Israel. Then he will take his army away from my country."

<sup>4</sup>Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa. So Ben-Hadad sent the commanders of his armies to attack the towns of Israel. These commanders defeated the towns of Ijon, Dan and Abel Beth Maacah. They also defeated all the towns in Naphtali where treasures were stored. <sup>5</sup>When Baasha heard about this, he stopped building Ramah. He left his work. <sup>6</sup>Then King Asa called all the men of Judah together. They went to Ramah and took away the rocks and wood that Baasha had used. And they used the rocks and wood to build up Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>At that time Hanani the seer<sup>d</sup> came to Asa king of Judah. Hanani said to him, "You depended on the king of Aram to help you. You did not depend on the Lord your God. So the king of Aram's army escaped from you. <sup>8</sup>The Cushites and Libyans had a large and powerful army. They had many chariots and horsemen. But you depended on the Lord to help you. So he let you defeat them. <sup>9</sup>The Lord searches all the earth for people who have given themselves completely to him. He wants to make them strong. Asa, you did a foolish thing. From now on you will have wars."

<sup>10</sup>Asa was angry with Hanani the seer because of what he had said. Asa was so angry that he put Hanani in prison. Asa was cruel with some of the people at that same time.

<sup>11</sup>The things Asa did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of his rule, Asa got a disease in his feet. His disease was very bad. But he did not ask for help from the Lord. He only asked for help from the doctors. <sup>13</sup>Then Asa died in the forty-first year of his rule. <sup>14</sup>The people buried Asa in the tomb he had made for himself in Jerusalem. They laid him on a bed. It was filled with spices and different kinds of mixed perfumes. And they made a large fire to honor Asa.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

17 Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became king of Judah in Asa's place. Jehoshaphat made Judah strong so they could fight against Israel. <sup>2</sup>He put troops in all the strong, walled cities of Judah. And he put troops in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim his father Asa had captured.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because he did good things. He lived as his father Asa did when he first became king. Jehoshaphat did not ask for help from the Baal<sup>d</sup> idols. <sup>4</sup>He asked for help from the God his father had followed. He obeyed God's commands. He did not live as the people of Israel lived. <sup>5</sup>The Lord made Jehoshaphat a strong king over Judah. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. So he had much wealth and honor. <sup>6</sup>He wanted very much to obey the Lord. He also removed the places for worshiping false gods and the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols from Judah.

<sup>7</sup>Jehoshaphat sent his officers to teach in the towns of Judah. This happened in the third year of his rule. These officers were Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah. <sup>8</sup>Jehoshaphat sent with them these Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah. He also sent the priests Elishama and Jehoram. <sup>9</sup>These leaders, Levites and priests taught the people in Judah. They took the Book of the Teachings of the Lord with them. And they went through all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

<sup>10</sup>The nations near Judah were afraid of the Lord. So they did not start a war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver to Jehoshaphat as forced payments. Some Arabs brought him flocks. They brought him 7,700 male sheep and 7,700 goats.

<sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built strong, walled cities and storage towns in Judah. <sup>13</sup>He kept many supplies in the towns of Judah. And he kept trained soldiers in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>These soldiers were listed by families.

From the families of Judah, these were the commanders of groups of 1,000 men: Adnah was the commander of 300,000 soldiers. <sup>15</sup>Jehohanan was the commander of 280,000 soldiers. <sup>16</sup>And Amasiah was the commander of 200,000 soldiers. Amasiah son of Zicri had volunteered to serve the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>These were the commanders from the families of Benjamin: Eliada had 200,000 soldiers who used bows and shields. Eliada was a brave soldier. <sup>18</sup>And Jehozabad had 180,000 men armed for war.

<sup>19</sup>All these soldiers served King Jehoshaphat. The king also put other men in the strong, walled cities through all of Judah.

Micaiah Warns King Ahab

18 Jehoshaphat had much wealth and honor. He made an agreement with King Ahab through marriage. <sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>A few years later Jehoshaphat visited Ahab in Samaria. Ahab sacrificed many sheep and cattle as a great feast to honor Jehoshaphat and the people with him. He encouraged Jehoshaphat to attack Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>3</sup>Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth in Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat answered, "I will be with you. And my soldiers will be like your own soldiers. We will join you in the battle." <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat also said to Ahab, "But first we should ask the Lord to guide us."

<sup>5</sup>So King Ahab called a meeting of the prophets. <sup>d</sup> There were 400 men. Ahab asked them, "Should we go to war against Ramoth in Gilead or not?"

They answered, "Go, because God will let you defeat it."

<sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there a prophet of the Lord here? If there is, let's ask him what we should do."

<sup>7</sup>Then King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "There is one other prophet. We could ask the Lord through him. But I hate him. When he prophesies, he never says anything good about me. He always says something bad. He is Micaiah, Imlah's son."

Jehoshaphat said, "King Ahab, you shouldn't say that."

<sup>11</sup>All the other prophets said the same thing. They said, "Attack Ramoth in Gilead and win. The Lord will let you defeat the Arameans."

<sup>12</sup>The messenger who had gone to get Micaiah found him. He said to Micaiah, "All the other prophets are saying the same thing. They are saying that King Ahab will win against the Arameans. You had better agree with them. Give the king a good answer."

<sup>13</sup>But Micaiah said, "As surely as the Lord lives, I can tell him only what my God says."

<sup>14</sup>Then Micaiah came to King Ahab. The king asked him, "Micaiah, should we attack Ramoth in Gilead or not?"

Micaiah answered, "Attack and win. You will defeat it."

<sup>15</sup>King Ahab said to Micaiah, "Tell me only the truth by the power of the Lord. How many times do I have to tell you this?"

<sup>16</sup>Then Micaiah answered, "I saw the army of Israel. They were scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd. The Lord said, 'They have no leaders. Let each one go home and not fight.'"

<sup>17</sup>Then King Ahab of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I told you! This prophet never says anything good about me. He only says bad things about me."

it?' <sup>21</sup>The spirit answered, 'I will go to Ahab's prophets. I will make them tell lies.' So the Lord said, 'You will succeed in tricking him. Go and do it.' "

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up to Micaiah. And he slapped Micaiah in the face. Zedekiah said, "Do you really believe that the Lord's Spirit<sup>d</sup> has left me and is now speaking through you?"

<sup>24</sup>Micaiah answered, "You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room."

<sup>25</sup>Then King Ahab ordered, "Take Micaiah. Send him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king's son. <sup>26</sup>Tell them I said to put Micaiah in prison. Give him only bread and water. Keep him there until I come back safely from the battle."

<sup>27</sup>Micaiah said, "Ahab, if you come back safely from the battle, the Lord has not spoken through me. Remember my words, all you people!"

Ahab Is Killed

<sup>28</sup>So Ahab king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to Ramoth in Gilead. <sup>29</sup>King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I will go into battle. But I will wear other clothes so no one will know who I am. But you wear your royal clothes." So King Ahab of Israel wore other clothes and went into battle.

<sup>30</sup>The king of Aram gave an order to his chariot commanders. He said, "Don't fight with anyone but the king of Israel. It doesn't matter if they are important or unimportant." <sup>31</sup>When these commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought he was the king of Israel. So they turned to attack him. But Jehoshaphat called out, and the Lord helped him. God made the chariot commanders turn away from Jehoshaphat. <sup>32</sup>When they saw he was not King Ahab, they stopped chasing him.

<sup>33</sup>By chance, a soldier shot an arrow. And it hit Ahab king of Israel. The arrow went in between the pieces of his armor. King Ahab said to his chariot driver, "Turn around and get me out of the battle. I've been wounded." <sup>34</sup>The battle went on all day. King Ahab held himself up in his chariot. He faced the Arameans until evening. Then Ahab died at sunset.

19 Jehoshaphat king of Judah came back safely to his palace in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Jehu son of Hanani went out to meet him. Jehu was a seer.<sup>d</sup> He said to King Jehoshaphat, "Why did you help evil people? Why do you love those who hate the Lord? That is the reason the Lord is angry with you. <sup>3</sup>But there is some good in you. You took the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols out of this country. And you have wanted to obey God."

Jehoshaphat Chooses Judges

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. He went out again to be with the people. He went from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim. He brought these people back to the Lord, the God their ancestors followed. <sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat appointed judges in all the land. He appointed judges for each of the strong, walled cities of Judah. <sup>6</sup>Jehoshaphat said to them, "Be careful in what you do. This is because you are not judging for people but for the Lord. He will be with you when you make a decision. <sup>7</sup>Now let each of you fear the Lord. Be careful in what you do because the Lord our God wants people to be fair. He wants all people to be treated the same. And he doesn't want people to accept money to change their judgments."

<sup>8</sup>And in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests and leaders of Israelite families to be judges. They were to decide cases about the law of the Lord. And they were to settle problems between the people who lived in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jehoshaphat gave them commands. He said, "You must always serve the Lord completely. You must fear him. <sup>10</sup>You will have cases about killing, about the teachings, commands, rules or some other law. These cases will come from your people living in the cities. In all these cases you must warn the people not to sin against the Lord. If you don't, the Lord will be angry with you and your people. But if you warn them, you won't be guilty.

<sup>11</sup>"Amariah is the leading priest. He will be over you in all cases about the Lord. Zebadiah son of Ishmael is a leader in the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah. He will be over you in all cases about the king. Also, the Levites will serve as officers for you. Have courage. May the Lord be with those who do what is right."

Jehoshaphat Faces War

20 Later some people came to start a war with Jehoshaphat. They were the Moabites, Ammonites and some Meunites. <sup>2</sup>Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "A large army is coming against you from Edom. They are coming from the other side of the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup> They are already in Hazazon Tamar!" (Hazazon Tamar is also called En Gedi.) <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat was afraid. So he decided to ask the Lord what to do. He announced that no one in Judah should eat during this special time of prayer to God. <sup>4</sup>The people of Judah came together to ask the Lord for help. They came from every town in Judah to ask for his help.

<sup>5</sup>The people of Judah and Jerusalem met in front of the new courtyard in the Temple<sup>a</sup> of the Lord. Then Jehoshaphat stood up before them. <sup>6</sup>He said, "Lord, you are the God of our ancestors. You are the God in heaven. You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. You have power and strength. No one can stand against you. <sup>7</sup>Our God, you forced out the people who lived in this land. You forced them out as your people Israel moved in. And you gave this land forever to the descendants<sup>a</sup> of your friend Abraham. <sup>8</sup>They lived in this land and built a Temple for worshiping you. They said, <sup>9</sup>'Trouble may come to us. It may be war, punishment, sickness or a time of hunger. If it comes, we will stand before you and before this Temple where you have chosen to be worshiped. We will cry out to you when we are in trouble. Then you will hear and save us.'

<sup>10</sup>"But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Edom. You wouldn't let the Israelites enter their lands when the Israelites came from Egypt. So the Israelites turned away and did not destroy them. <sup>11</sup>But see how they repay us for not destroying them! They have come to force us out of your land. And you gave us this land as our own. <sup>12</sup>Our God, punish those people. We have no power against this large army that is attacking us. We don't know what to do. So we look to you for help."

<sup>13</sup>All the men of Judah stood before the Lord. Their babies, wives and children were with them. <sup>14</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>a</sup> of the Lord entered Jahaziel. (Jahaziel was Zechariah's son. Zechariah was Benaiah's son. Benaiah was Jeiel's son, and Jeiel was Mattaniah's son.) Jahaziel was a Levite and a descendant of Asaph. He stood up in the meeting. <sup>15</sup>And he said: "Listen to me, King Jehoshaphat! Listen, all you people living in Judah and Jerusalem! The Lord says this to you: 'Don't be afraid or discouraged because of this large army. The battle is not your battle. It is God's battle. <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow go down there and fight those people. They will come up through the Pass of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the ravine that leads to the Desert of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup>You won't need to fight in this battle. Just stand strong in your places. You will see the Lord save you. Judah and Jerusalem, don't be afraid. Don't be discouraged. The Lord is with you. So go out against those people tomorrow!'"

<sup>18</sup>Jehoshaphat bowed facedown on the ground. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem bowed down before the Lord. And they worshiped him. <sup>19</sup>Then some Levites from the Kohathite and Korahite people stood up and praised the Lord. They praised the God of Israel with very loud voices.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoshaphat's army went out into the Desert of Tekoa early in the morning. As they were starting out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, people of Judah and Jerusalem! Have faith in the Lord your God. Then you will stand strong. Have faith in the Lord's prophets.<sup>a</sup> Then you will succeed." <sup>21</sup>Jehoshaphat listened to the people's advice. Then he chose men to be singers to the Lord. They were to praise the Lord because he is holy and wonderful. They marched in front of the army. They said,

"Thank the Lord.

His love continues forever."

<sup>22</sup>As they began to sing and praise God, the Lord set ambushes. He set them for the people of Ammon, Moab and Edom. They were the ones who came to attack Judah. And they were defeated. <sup>23</sup>The men of Ammon and Moab started to attack the men from Edom. They killed and destroyed them. After they had killed the men from Edom, they killed each other.

<sup>24</sup>The men from Judah came to a place where they could see the desert. They looked at the enemy's large army. But they only saw dead bodies lying on the ground. No one had escaped. <sup>25</sup>Jehoshaphat and his army came to take valuable things from the dead bodies. They found many supplies, much clothing, and other valuable things. There was more than they could carry away. There was so much it took three days to gather it all. <sup>26</sup>On the fourth day Jehoshaphat and his army met in the Valley of Beracah. There they praised the Lord. That is why that place has been called the Valley of Beracah<sup>a</sup> to this day.

<sup>27</sup>Then Jehoshaphat led all the men from Judah and Jerusalem back to Jerusalem. The Lord had made them happy because their enemies were defeated. <sup>28</sup>They entered Jerusalem with lyres,<sup>a</sup> harps and trumpets and went to the Temple of the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>All the kingdoms of the lands around them heard how the Lord had fought Israel's enemies. So they feared the Lord. <sup>30</sup>So Jehosha-phat's kingdom was not at war. His God gave him peace from all the countries around him.

Jehoshaphat's Rule Ends

<sup>31</sup>Jehoshaphat ruled over the country of Judah. He was 35 years old when he began to rule. And he ruled 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup>Jehoshaphat lived as his father Asa had lived. He followed what Asa had done. He did what the Lord said was right. <sup>33</sup>But the places where false gods were worshiped were not removed. And the people did not strongly desire to follow the God their ancestors had followed.

<sup>34</sup>The other things Jehoshaphat did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the writings of Jehu son of Hanani. These writings are in the book of the kings of Israel.

<sup>35</sup>Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an agreement with Ahaziah king of Israel. It was wrong for him to do this. <sup>36</sup>Jehoshaphat agreed with Ahaziah to build trading ships. They built them in the town of Ezion Geber. <sup>37</sup>Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu spoke against Jehoshaphat. Eliezer was from the town of Mareshah. He said, "Jehoshaphat, because you joined with Ahaziah, the Lord will destroy what you have made." The ships were wrecked. So Jehoshaphat and Ahaziah could not send them out to trade.

21 Then Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem. Jehoshaphat's son Jehoram became king in his place. <sup>2</sup>Jehoram's brothers were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael and Shephatiah. They were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat gave his sons many gifts of silver, gold and valuable things. He also gave them strong, walled cities in Judah. But Jehoshaphat gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the first son.

Jehoram King of Judah

<sup>4</sup>Jehoram took control of his father's kingdom. Then he killed all his brothers with a sword. He also killed some of the leaders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>He was 32 years old when he began to rule. And he ruled eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He lived as the kings of Israel had lived. He lived as Ahab's family had lived. This was because he married Ahab's daughter. Jehoram did what the Lord said was wrong. <sup>7</sup>But the Lord would not destroy David's family. This was because of the agreement he had made with David. The Lord had promised that one of David's descendants<sup>d</sup> would always rule.

<sup>8</sup>While Jehoram was king, Edom turned against Judah's rule. The people of Edom chose their own king. <sup>9</sup>So Jehoram went to Edom with all his commanders and chariots. The Edomite army surrounded Jehoram and his chariot commanders. But Jehoram fought his way out at night. <sup>10</sup>From then until now the country of Edom has fought against Judah.

At the same time the people of Libnah also turned against Jehoram. This happened because Jehoram left the Lord, the God his ancestors followed. <sup>11</sup>Jehoram also had built places to worship false gods on the hills in Judah. He had led the people of Jerusalem into sinning. And he had led the people of Judah away from the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet. The letter said:

This is what the Lord says. He is the God your father David followed. The Lord says, "Jehoram, you have not lived as your father Jehoshaphat lived. You have not lived as Asa king of Judah lived. <sup>13</sup>But you have lived as the kings of Israel lived. You have led the people of Judah and Jerusalem into sinning against God. That is what Ahab and his family did. You have killed your brothers. And they were better than you. <sup>14</sup>So now the Lord is about to punish your people terribly. He will punish your children, wives and everything you own. <sup>15</sup>You will have a terrible disease in your intestines. It will become worse every day. Finally it will cause your intestines to come out."

<sup>16</sup>The Lord caused the Philistines and the Arabs to be angry with Jehoram. They lived near the Cushites. <sup>17</sup>So the Philistines and Arabs attacked Judah. They took away all the wealth of Jehoram's palace, as well as his sons and wives. Only Jehoram's youngest son, Ahaziah, was left.

<sup>18</sup>After these things happened, the Lord gave Jehoram a disease in his intestines. It could not be cured. <sup>19</sup>After he was sick for two years, Jehoram's intestines fell out because of the disease. He died in terrible pain. The people did not make a large fire to honor Jehoram as they had done for his ancestors.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. And he ruled eight years in Jerusalem. No one was sad when he died. He was buried in Jerusalem, but not in the graves for the kings.

Ahaziah King of Judah

22 The people of Jerusalem chose Ahaziah to be king in Jehoram's place. Ahaziah was Jehoram's youngest son. The robbers who had come with the Arabs to attack Jehoram's camp had killed all of Jehoram's older sons. So Ahaziah began to rule Judah. <sup>2</sup>He was 22 years old when he began to rule. And he ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri. <sup>3</sup>Ahaziah also lived as Ahab's family had lived. This was because his mother encouraged him to do wrong things. <sup>4</sup>Ahaziah did what the Lord said was wrong. That is what Ahab's family had done. And they gave advice to Ahaziah after his father died. Their bad advice led to his death. <sup>5</sup>Ahaziah followed their advice when he went to fight King Hazael of Aram. King Joram of Israel, Ahab's son, went with him. They met Hazael at the town of Ramoth in Gilead. The Amalekites wounded Joram in battle. <sup>6</sup>So Joram returned to the town of Jezreel to get well. He was wounded at Ramoth when he fought Hazael king of Aram.

Then King Ahaziah of Judah, son of Jehoram, went to Jezreel. He went there to visit Joram son of Ahab because he was wounded.

<sup>7</sup>God caused Ahaziah's death when he went to visit Joram. Ahaziah arrived and went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi. The Lord had appointed Jehu to destroy Ahab's family. <sup>8</sup>While Jehu was punishing Ahab's family, he found the leaders of Judah. He also found Ahaziah's relatives who served Ahaziah. Jehu killed them all. <sup>9</sup>Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah. Jehu's men caught him hiding in Samaria. So they brought him to Jehu. Then they killed and buried him. They said, "Ahaziah is a descendant<sup>d</sup> of Jehoshaphat. And Jehoshaphat obeyed the Lord with all his heart." No one in Ahaziah's family had the power to take control of the kingdom of Judah.

Athaliah Queen of Judah

<sup>10</sup>Now Ahaziah's mother, Athaliah, saw that her son was dead. Then she killed all the royal family in Judah. <sup>11</sup>But Jehosheba took Joash, Ahaziah's son. She stole him from among the other sons of the king. Those sons were going to be murdered. She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom. Jehosheba was King Jehoram's daughter and Ahaziah's sister. She was also the wife of Jehoiada the priest. She hid Joash so Athaliah could not kill him. <sup>12</sup>Joash was hidden with them in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God for six years. During that time Athaliah ruled the land.

23 In the seventh year Jehoiada decided to do something. He made an agreement with the commanders of the groups of 100 men. These were the commanders: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. <sup>2</sup>They went around in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns. They also gathered the leaders of the families of Israel. Then they went to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>All the people together made an agreement with the king in the Temple of God.

Jehoiada said to them, "The king's son will rule. That is what the Lord promised about David's descendants.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Now this is what you must do: You priests and Levites go on duty on the Sabbath.<sup>d</sup> A third of you will guard the doors. <sup>5</sup>A third of you will be at the king's palace. And a third of you will be at the Foundation Gate. All the other people will stay in the courtyards of the Temple of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Don't let anyone come into the Temple of the Lord. Only the priests and Levites who serve may come in. They may come because they have been made ready to serve the Lord. But all the other men must do the job the Lord has given them. <sup>7</sup>The Levites must stay near the king. Every man must have his sword with him. If anyone tries to enter the Temple, kill him. You must stay with the king everywhere he goes."

<sup>8</sup>The Levites and all the people of Judah obeyed everything Jehoiada the priest had commanded. He did not excuse anyone from the groups of the priests. So each commander took the men who came on duty on the Sabbath with those who went off duty on the Sabbath. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiada gave the commanders of the groups of 100 men the spears and the large and small shields. They had belonged to King David. They were kept in the Temple of God. <sup>10</sup>Then Jehoiada told the men where to stand. Every man had his weapon in his hand. They stood around the king, near the altar and the Temple. They stood from the south side of the Temple to the north side.

<sup>11</sup>Jehoiada and his sons brought out the king's son. And they put the crown on him. They gave him a copy of the law. Then they appointed him king and poured olive oil on him. Then they shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>12</sup>Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king. So she went to them at the Temple of the Lord. <sup>13</sup>She looked and saw the king standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and the men who blew trumpets were near him. All the people of the land were happy and blowing trumpets. The singers were playing musical instruments and leading praises. Then Athaliah tore her clothes to show how upset she was. She shouted, "Traitors! Traitors!"

<sup>14</sup>Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of 100 men who led the army. He said to them, "Surround her with soldiers and take her out of the Temple area. Kill with a sword anyone who follows her." He had said, "Don't put Athaliah to death in the Temple of the Lord." <sup>15</sup>So they caught her when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate near the palace. And they put her to death there.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made an agreement with the people and the king. They agreed that they would be the Lord's special people. <sup>17</sup>All the people went to the temple of Baal<sup>d</sup> and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols there. And they killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehoiada chose the priests to be responsible for the Temple of the Lord. These priests were Levites. David had given them duties in the Temple of the Lord. They were to offer the burnt offerings to the Lord as the Teachings of Moses commanded. They offered the sacrifices with much joy and singing as David had commanded. <sup>19</sup>Jehoiada put guards at the gates of the Temple of the Lord. Then anyone who was unclean<sup>d</sup> in any way could not enter the Temple.

<sup>20</sup>Jehoiada took with him the commanders of 100 men, the important men, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land. They brought the king down from the Temple of the Lord. They went through the Upper Gate into the palace. Then they seated the king on the throne. <sup>21</sup>All the people of Judah were very happy. And Jerusalem had peace because Athaliah had been put to death with the sword.

Joash Rebuilds the Temple

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king. And he ruled 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah. She was from Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Joash did what the Lord said was right as long as Jehoiada the priest was alive. <sup>3</sup>Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash. And Joash had sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup>Later, Joash decided to repair the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>He called the priests and the Levites together. He said to them, "Go to the towns of Judah. Gather the money all the Israelites have to pay every year. Use it to repair the Temple of your God. Do this now." But the Levites did not hurry.

<sup>6</sup>So King Joash called Jehoiada the leading priest. Joash said to him, "Why haven't you made the Levites bring in the tax money from Judah and Jerusalem? Moses the Lord's servant and the people of Israel used that money for the Holy Tent."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>In the past the sons of wicked Athaliah had broken into the Temple of God. They had used its holy things for worshiping the Baal<sup>d</sup> idols.

<sup>8</sup>King Joash commanded that a box for contributions be made. It was to be put outside, at the gate of the Temple of the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Then the Levites made an announcement in Judah and Jerusalem. They told the people to bring the tax money to the Lord. Moses the servant of God had made the Israelites give it while they were in the desert. <sup>10</sup>All the officers and people were happy to give their money. They put it in the box until the box was full. <sup>11</sup>Then the Levites would take the box to the king's officers. They would see that it was full of money. Then the king's royal assistant and the leading priest's officer would come and take out the money. Then they would take the box back to its place. They did this often and gathered much money. <sup>12</sup>King Joash and Jehoiada gave the money to the people who worked on the Temple of the Lord. And they hired stoneworkers and carpenters to repair the Temple of the Lord. They also hired people to work with iron and bronze to repair the Temple.

<sup>13</sup>The people worked hard. And the work to repair the Temple went well. They rebuilt the Temple of God to be as it was before. And they made it stronger. <sup>14</sup>When the workers finished, they brought the money that was left to King Joash and Jehoiada. They used that money to make things for the Temple of the Lord. They made things for the service in the Temple and for the burnt offerings. They also made bowls and other things from gold and silver. Burnt offerings were given every day in the Temple of the Lord while Jehoiada was alive.

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada grew old. He had lived many years. Then he died when he was 130 years old. <sup>16</sup>Jehoiada was buried in Jerusalem with the kings. He was buried there because he had done much good in Israel for God and his Temple.

Joash Does Evil

<sup>17</sup>After Jehoiada died, the officers of Judah came and bowed down to King Joash. The king listened to them. <sup>18</sup>The king and these leaders stopped worshiping in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He is the God their ancestors obeyed. The king and the officers began to worship the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols and other idols. Because they did wrong, God was angry with the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>The Lord sent prophets<sup>d</sup> to the people to turn them back to him. The prophets warned them, but the people refused to listen.

<sup>20</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God entered Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. Zechariah stood before the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why do you disobey the Lord's commands? You will not be successful. You have left the Lord. So the Lord has also left you.'"

<sup>21</sup>But the king and his officers made plans against Zechariah. The king commanded them to kill Zechariah. So they threw stones at him in the Temple courtyard until he died. <sup>22</sup>King Joash did not remember Jehoiada's kindness to him. So Joash killed Zechariah, Jehoiada's son. Before Zechariah died, he said, "May the Lord see what you are doing and punish you."

<sup>23</sup>At the end of the year, the Aramean army came against Joash. They attacked Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. Then they sent all the valuable things to their king in Damascus. <sup>24</sup>The Aramean army came with only a small group of men. But the Lord let them defeat a very large army from Judah. He did this because the people of Judah had left the Lord. He is the God their ancestors followed. So Joash was punished. <sup>25</sup>When the Arameans left, Joash was badly wounded. His own officers made plans against him. They did this because he had killed Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. So they killed Joash in his own bed. He died and was buried in Jerusalem. But he was not buried in the graves of the kings.

<sup>26</sup>The officers who made plans against Joash were Jozabad and Jehozabad. Jozabad was the son of Shimeath, a woman from Ammon. And Jehozabad was the son of Shimrith, a woman from Moab. <sup>27</sup>The story of Joash's sons, the great prophecies<sup>d</sup> against him, and how he rebuilt the Temple of God are written down. They are in the book of the kings. Joash's son Amaziah became king in his place.

Amaziah King of Judah

25 Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin. She was from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah did what the Lord said was right. But he did not really want to obey the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Amaziah took strong control of the kingdom. Then he put to death the officers who had murdered his father the king. <sup>4</sup>But Amaziah did not put their children to death. He obeyed what was written in the Book of Moses. There the Lord commanded,

"Fathers must not be put to death when their children do wrong. And children must not be put to death when their fathers do wrong. Each person must die for his own sins." <sup>n</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Amaziah gathered the people of Judah together. He grouped all the people of Judah and Benjamin by families. And he put commanders over groups of 1,000 and over groups of 100. He counted the men who were 20 years old and older. In all there were 300,000 soldiers ready to fight. They were skilled with spears and shields. <sup>6</sup>Amaziah also hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel. He paid about 7,500 pounds of silver for them. <sup>7</sup>But a man of God came to Amaziah and said, "My king, don't let the army of Israel go with you. The Lord is not with Israel. He is not with the people from the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>8</sup>You can make yourself strong for war. But God will defeat you. He has the power to help you or to defeat you."

<sup>9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what about the 7,500 pounds of silver I paid to the Israelite army?"

The man of God answered, "The Lord can give you much more than that!"

<sup>10</sup>So Amaziah sent the Israelite army back home to Israel. They were very angry with the people of Judah. And they went home angry.

<sup>11</sup>Then Amaziah became very brave and led his army to the Valley of Salt. It is in the country of Edom. There Amaziah's army killed 10,000 men from Edom. <sup>12</sup>The army of Judah also captured 10,000 men. They took those men to the top of a cliff and threw them off. And they were broken to pieces.

<sup>13</sup>At the same time the Israelite army was robbing some towns in Judah. These were troops that Amaziah had not let fight in the war. They robbed towns from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed 3,000 people and took many valuable things.

<sup>14</sup>Amaziah came home after he had defeated the Edomites. He brought back the idols they worshiped. And he started to worship them also. He bowed down to them and offered sacrifices to them. <sup>15</sup>The Lord was very angry with Amaziah. The Lord sent a prophet<sup>d</sup> to him. The prophet said, "Why have you asked their gods for help? They could not even save their own people from you!"

<sup>16</sup>As the prophet spoke, Amaziah said to him, "We never gave you the job of advising the king! Stop, or you will be killed."

The prophet stopped speaking. Then he said,

"I know that God has decided to destroy you because you have done this. You did not listen to my advice."

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah king of Judah talked with his men who gave him advice. Then he sent a message to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz. (Jehoahaz was the son of Jehu king of Israel.) Amaziah said to Jehoash, "Come, let's meet face to face in battle."

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehoash king of Israel answered Amaziah king of Judah. Jehoash said, "A little thornbush in Lebanon sent a message to a big cedar tree in Lebanon. It said, 'Let your daughter marry my son.' But then a wild animal from Lebanon came by. It walked on and crushed the thornbush. <sup>19</sup>You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom. You are proud, and you brag. But you stay at home! Don't ask for trouble by fighting me. If you do, you and Judah will be defeated."

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah would not listen. God caused this to happen. He planned to let Jehoash of Israel defeat Judah. This was because Judah asked for help from the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup>So Jehoash king of Israel went to attack. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other in battle at Beth Shemesh in Judah. <sup>22</sup>Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran away to his home. <sup>23</sup>At Beth Shemesh Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah. (Amaziah was the son of Joash, who was the son of Ahaziah.) Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem. Jehoash broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate. This part of the wall was about 600 feet long. <sup>24</sup>Then he took all the gold and silver and everything in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God. Obed-Edom had taken care of these things. Jehoash also took the treasures from the king's palace. Then he took some hostages and returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>Amaziah son of Joash was king of Judah. He lived 15 years after Jehoash king of Israel died. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz. <sup>26</sup>The other things Amaziah did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>When Amaziah stopped obeying the Lord, the people in Jerusalem made plans against him. So he ran away to the town of Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. <sup>28</sup>They brought his body back on horses. And he was buried with his ancestors in Jerusalem.

Uzziah King of Judah

26 Then all the people of Judah chose Uzziah<sup>a</sup> to be king. He became king in place of Amaziah, his father. Uzziah was 16 years old. <sup>2</sup>He rebuilt the town of Elath and made it part of Judah again. He did this after Amaziah died.

<sup>3</sup>Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. And he ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah, and she was from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>He did what the Lord said was right. He obeyed God just as his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup>Uzziah obeyed God while Zechariah was alive. Zechariah taught Uzziah how to respect and obey God. As long as Uzziah obeyed the Lord, God gave him success.

<sup>6</sup>Uzziah fought a war against the Philistine people. He tore down the walls around their towns of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He built new towns near Ashdod and in other places among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup>God helped Uzziah fight the Philistines, the Arabs living in Gur Baal and the Meunites. <sup>8</sup>The Ammonites made payments Uzziah demanded. Uzziah was very powerful. So his name became famous all the way to the border of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem and made them strong. He built them at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate and where the wall turned. <sup>10</sup>He also built towers in the desert and dug many wells. He had many cattle on the western mountain slopes and in the plains. He had people who worked his fields and vineyards. They worked in the hills and in the fertile lands. Uzziah loved the land.

<sup>11</sup>He had an army of trained soldiers. They were counted and put in groups by Jeiel the royal assistant and Maaseiah the officer. Haniah, one of the king's commanders, was their leader. <sup>12</sup>There were 2,600 leaders over the soldiers. <sup>13</sup>They were in charge of an army of 307,500 men. The army fought with great power. And they helped the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Uzziah gave his army shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows and stones for their slings. <sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem Uzziah made devices that were invented by clever men. These devices were put on the towers and corners of the city walls. They were used to shoot arrows and large rocks. So Uzziah became famous in far-away places. He had much help until he became powerful.

<sup>16</sup>But when Uzziah became strong, his pride caused him to be destroyed. He was unfaithful to the Lord his God. He went into the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord to burn incense<sup>d</sup> on the altar for incense. <sup>17</sup>Azariah and 80 other brave priests who served the Lord followed Uzziah into the Temple. <sup>18</sup>They told Uzziah he was wrong. They said to him, "You don't have the right to burn incense to the Lord. Only the priests, Aaron's descendants,<sup>d</sup> should burn the incense. They have been made holy for the Lord to do this special duty. Leave this holy place. You have been unfaithful to God. The Lord God will not honor you for this."

<sup>19</sup>Uzziah was standing beside the altar for incense in the Temple of the Lord. He had in his hand a pan for burning incense. He was very angry with the priests. As he was standing in front of the priests, a harmful skin disease broke out on his forehead. <sup>20</sup>Azariah the leading priest and all the other priests looked at him. They could see the harmful skin disease on his forehead. So they hurried him out of the Temple. Uzziah rushed out, because the Lord had punished him. <sup>21</sup>So King Uzziah had the skin disease until the day he died. He had to live in a separate house. He could not enter the Temple of the Lord. His son Jotham was in charge of the palace. He governed the people of the land.

<sup>22</sup>The other things Uzziah did as king were written down by the prophet Isaiah. Isaiah son of Amoz wrote about Uzziah's rule from beginning to end. <sup>23</sup>Uzziah died and was buried near his ancestors in a graveyard that belonged to the kings. This was because people said, "He had a harmful skin disease." And his son Jotham became king in his place.

Jotham King of Judah

27 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. <sup>2</sup>Jotham did what the Lord said was right. He obeyed God just as his father Uzziah had done. But Jotham did not enter the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord to burn incense<sup>d</sup> as his father had. But the people continued doing wrong. <sup>3</sup>Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the Temple of the Lord. He did much building on the wall at the place named Ophel. <sup>4</sup>He also built towns in the hill country of Judah. And he built walled cities and towers in the forests.

<sup>5</sup>Jotham also fought the king of the Ammonites. And Jotham defeated the Ammonites. So each year for three years they gave Jotham about 7,500 pounds of silver. They also gave him about 62,000 bushels of wheat and about 62,000 bushels of barley. <sup>6</sup>Jotham became powerful because he always obeyed the Lord his God.

<sup>7</sup>The other things Jotham did while he was king and all his wars are written down. They are in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. And he ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jotham died and was buried in Jerusalem. And Jotham's son Ahaz became king in his place.

Ahaz King of Judah

28 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. And he ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. He was not like his ancestor David. He did not do what the Lord said was right. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz did the same things the kings of Israel had done. He made metal idols to worship Baal.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>He burned incense<sup>d</sup> in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He sacrificed his own sons by burning them in the fire. He did the same terrible sins as the other nations had done. And the Lord had forced these nations out of the land ahead of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup>Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense at the places where false gods were worshiped. And he did this on the hills and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>So the Lord his God let the king of Aram defeat Ahaz. The Arameans defeated Ahaz and took many people of Judah as prisoners. The Arameans took them to Damascus.

The Lord also let Pekah king of Israel defeat Ahaz. Pekah's army killed many soldiers of Ahaz. <sup>6</sup>Pekah was the son of Remaliah. Pekah's army killed 120,000 brave soldiers from Judah in one day. Pekah defeated them because they had left the Lord. He is the God their ancestors obeyed. <sup>7</sup>Zicri was a warrior from Ephraim. He killed King Ahaz's son Maaseiah. He also killed Azrikam, the officer in charge of the palace and Elkanah, second in command to the king. <sup>8</sup>The Israelite army captured 200,000 of their own relatives. They took women, sons and daughters and many valuable things from Judah. Then they carried them back to Samaria. <sup>9</sup>But a prophet<sup>d</sup> of the Lord named Oded was there. He met the Israelite army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "The Lord is the God your ancestors obeyed. He let you defeat Judah because he was angry with those people. But God has seen the cruel way you killed them. <sup>10</sup>Now you plan to make the people of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But you also have sinned against the Lord your God. <sup>11</sup>Now listen to me. Send back your brothers and sisters whom you captured. Do this because the Lord is very angry with you."

Israelite soldiers coming home from war. These leaders were Azariah son of Jehohanan, Bereki-ah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shalum and Amasa son of Hadlai. <sup>13</sup>They warned the soldiers, "Don't bring the prisoners from Judah here. If you do, we will be guilty of sin. That will make our sin and guilt even worse. And our guilt is already so much that the Lord is angry with Israel."

<sup>14</sup>So the soldiers left the prisoners and valuable things in front of the officers and people there. <sup>15</sup>The leaders who were named took the prisoners. These four men got the clothes that the Israelite army had taken. And they gave them to these people who were naked. They gave the prisoners clothes, sandals, food, drink and medicine. They put the weak prisoners on donkeys. Then they took them back to their families in Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned home to Samaria.

<sup>16-17</sup>At that same time the Edomites came again. They attacked Judah and carried away prisoners. So King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria for help. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines also robbed the towns in the western mountain slopes and in southern Judah. They captured the towns of Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco, Timnah and Gimzo. They also captured the villages around them. Then the Philistines lived in those towns. <sup>19</sup>The Lord brought trouble on Judah because of Ahaz their king. Ahaz had caused the people of Judah to sin. And he had been unfaithful to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to Ahaz. But he gave Ahaz trouble instead of help. <sup>21</sup>Ahaz took some valuable things from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He also took some from the king's palace and from the princes. Ahaz gave them to the king of Assyria, but it did not help.

<sup>22</sup>In Ahaz's troubles he was even more unfaithful to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>He offered sacrifices to the gods the people of Damascus worshiped. These people had defeated him. So he thought, "The gods of the kings of Aram helped them. If I offer sacrifices to them, they will help me also." But this brought ruin to Ahaz and all Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Ahaz gathered the things from the Temple of God and broke them into pieces. Then he closed the doors of the Temple of the Lord. He made altars and put them on every street corner in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>In every town in Judah, Ahaz made places for burning sacrifices to worship other gods. He made the Lord, the God his ancestors worshiped, very angry.

<sup>26</sup>The other things Ahaz did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down. They are in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaz died and was buried in the city of Jerusalem. But he was not buried in the graves of the kings of Israel. Ahaz's son Hezekiah became king in his place.

Hezekiah Purifies the Temple

29 Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king. And he ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah did what the Lord said was right. He did just as his ancestor David had done.

<sup>3</sup>Hezekiah opened the doors of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and repaired them. He did this in the first month of the first year he was king. <sup>4</sup>Hezekiah brought the priests and Levites together in a group. He met with them in the courtyard on the east side of the Temple. <sup>5</sup>Hezekiah said, "Listen to me, Levites! Make yourselves ready for the Lord's service. And make the Temple of the Lord holy. He is the God your ancestors obeyed. Remove from the Temple the things that make it impure. <sup>6</sup>Our ancestors were unfaithful to God. They did what the Lord said was wrong. They left the Lord. They stopped worshiping at the Temple where he lives. They rejected him. <sup>7</sup>They shut the doors of the porch of the Temple. They let the fire go out in the lamps. They stopped burning incense<sup>d</sup> and offering burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>So the Lord became very angry with the people of Judah and Jerusalem. And he punished them. Other peoples are frightened and shocked by what the Lord did to Judah and Jerusalem. They insult the people of Judah. You know these things are true. <sup>9</sup>That is why our ancestors were killed in battle. That is why our sons, daughters and wives were taken prisoner. <sup>10</sup>So now I, Hezekiah, have decided to make an agreement with the Lord, the God of Israel. Then he will not be angry with us anymore. <sup>11</sup>My sons, don't waste any more time. The Lord chose you to serve him. You should serve him and burn incense to him."

<sup>12</sup>These are the Levites who started to work. From the Kohathite family there were Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah. From the Merarite family there were Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel. From the Gershonite family there were Joah son of Zimamah and Eden son of Joah. <sup>13</sup>From Elizaphan's family there were Shimri and Jeiel. From Asaph's family there were Zechariah and Mataniah. <sup>14</sup>From Heman's family there were Jehiel and Shimei. From Jeduthun's family there were Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup>These Levites gathered their brothers together. Then they made themselves holy for service in the Temple. They obeyed the king's command that had come from the Lord. They went into the Temple of the Lord to purify it. <sup>16</sup>The priests went into the Temple of the Lord to purify it. They took out all the unclean<sup>d</sup> things they found in the Temple of the Lord. And they put them in the Temple courtyard. Then the Levites took these things out to the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup>They made the Temple holy for the Lord's service. They began on the first day of the first month. On the eighth day of the month, they came to the porch of the Temple. For eight more days they made the Temple of the Lord holy. They finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went to King Hezekiah. They said to him, "We have purified all the Temple of the Lord. We have purified the altar for burnt offerings and its things. We have purified the table for the holy bread and all its things. <sup>19</sup>When Ahaz was king, he was unfaithful to God. He removed some things from the Temple. But we have put them back and made them holy for the Lord. They are now in front of the Lord's altar."

<sup>20</sup>Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the leaders of the city. They went up to the Temple of the Lord. <sup>21</sup>They brought seven bulls, seven male sheep, seven male lambs and seven male goats. These animals were an offering to remove the sin of the people and the kingdom of Judah. And this offering made the Temple ready for service to God. King Hezekiah commanded the priests to offer these animals on the Lord's altar. The priests were from the family of Aaron. <sup>22</sup>So the priests killed the bulls. Then they sprinkled the bulls' blood on the altar. They killed the male sheep and sprinkled their blood on the altar. Then they killed the lambs. And they sprinkled the lambs' blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup>Then the priests brought the male goats before the king and the people there. The goats were for the sin offering. The king and the people put their hands on the goats. <sup>24</sup>Then the priests killed the goats. They made a sin offering with the goats' blood on the altar. They did this to remove the sins of the Israelites so they would belong to the Lord. The king had said that the burnt offering and sin offering should be made for all Israel.

<sup>25</sup>King Hezekiah put the Levites in the Temple of the Lord with cymbals, harps and lyres.<sup>d</sup> He did this as David, Gad and Nathan had commanded. (Gad was the king's seer,<sup>d</sup> and Nathan was a prophet.<sup>d</sup>) This command came from the Lord through his prophets. <sup>26</sup>So the Levites stood ready with David's instruments of music. And the priests stood ready with their trumpets.

<sup>27</sup>Then Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the singing to the Lord also began. The trumpets were blown. And the musical instruments of David king of Israel were played. <sup>28</sup>All the people worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpet players blew their trumpets. They did this until the burnt offering was finished.

<sup>29</sup>When the sacrifices were finished, King Hezekiah and everyone with him bowed down and worshiped. <sup>30</sup>King Hezekiah and his officers ordered the Levites to praise the Lord. They were to use the words David and Asaph the seer used. They praised God with joy. And they bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup>Then Hezekiah said, "Now you people of Judah have given yourselves to the Lord. Come near to the Temple of the Lord. Bring sacrifices and offerings to show thanks to the Lord." So the people brought sacrifices and offerings to show thanks to the Lord. Anyone who wanted to also brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup>For burnt offerings they brought a total of 70 bulls, 100 male sheep and 200 lambs. All these animals were sacrificed as burnt offerings to the Lord. <sup>33</sup>The offerings made holy for the Lord totaled 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep and goats. <sup>34</sup>There were not enough priests to skin all the animals for the burnt offerings. So their relatives the Levites helped them. They helped until the work was finished and other priests could be made holy for the Lord's service. The Levites had been more careful to make themselves holy for the Lord's service than the priests. <sup>35</sup>There were many burnt offerings. With them were the fat of fellowship offerings and drink offerings. So the service in the Temple of the Lord began again. <sup>36</sup>And Hezekiah and the people were very happy. They were happy that God had made it happen so quickly for his people.

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 King Hezekiah sent messages to all the people of Israel and Judah. He also wrote letters to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh. Hezekiah invited all these people to come to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord in Jerusalem. There they could celebrate the Passover<sup>d</sup> for the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>King Hezekiah, his officers and all the people in Jerusalem agreed to celebrate the Passover in the second month.

<sup>3</sup>They could not celebrate it at the normal time. This was because not enough priests had made themselves ready to serve the Lord. And the people had not gathered yet in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>This plan satisfied King Hezekiah and all the people. <sup>5</sup>So they made an announcement everywhere in Israel, from Beersheba to Dan. <sup>a</sup> They told the people to come to Jerusalem. There they would celebrate the Passover for the Lord, the God of Israel. For a long time most of the people had not celebrated the Passover as the law commanded. <sup>6</sup>So the messengers took letters from the king and his officers all through Israel and Judah. This is what the letters said:

People of Israel, come back to obeying the Lord. He is the God that Abraham, Isaac and Israel obeyed. Then God will come back to you who are still alive. You have escaped from the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>Don't be like your ancestors or your relatives. They turned against the Lord, the God their fathers obeyed. So the Lord caused other people to be disgusted with them. You know this is true. <sup>8</sup>Don't be stubborn as your ancestors were. Obey the Lord willingly. Come to the Temple, which the Lord has made holy for his service forever. Serve the Lord your God. Then he will not be angry with you. <sup>9</sup>Come back and obey the Lord. Then the people who captured your relatives and children will be kind to them. They will let them return to this land. The Lord your God is kind and merciful. He will not turn away from you if you come back to him.

<sup>10</sup>The messengers went to every town in Ephraim and Manasseh. They went all the way to Zebulun. But the people laughed at the messengers and made fun of them. <sup>11</sup>But some men from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun were sorry for what they had done and went to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>And God caused all the people of Judah to agree to obey King Hezekiah and his officers. Their command had come from the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>A large crowd came together in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread. This was in the second month. <sup>14</sup>The people removed the altars and incense<sup>d</sup> altars to false gods in Jerusalem. And they threw them into the Kidron Valley.

<sup>15</sup>They killed the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed. So they made themselves holy for the Lord. They brought burnt offerings into the Temple of the Lord. <sup>16</sup>They took their regular places in the Temple as the Teachings of Moses the man of God commanded. The Levites gave the blood of the sacrifices to the priests. Then the priests sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>17</sup>Many people in the crowd had not made themselves holy for the Lord. So they were not permitted to kill the Passover lambs. So the Levites were responsible for killing the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean. <sup>4</sup> The Levites made each lamb holy for the Lord. <sup>18-19</sup>Many people from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves for the feast. But they ate the Passover even though it was against the law. So Hezekiah prayed for them. He said, "Lord, you are good. You are the Lord, the God our ancestors obeyed. Please forgive everyone who tries to obey you. Forgive them even if they did not make themselves clean as the rules of the Temple command." <sup>20</sup>The Lord listened to Hezekiah's prayer, and he healed the people. <sup>21</sup>The Israelites in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. And they were very happy. The Levites and priests praised the Lord every day with loud music. <sup>22</sup>Some of the Levites understood well how to do their service for the Lord. And Hezekiah encouraged them. The people ate the feast for seven days. And they offered fellowship offerings. They praised the Lord, the God their ancestors worshipped.

<sup>23</sup>Then all the people agreed to stay seven more days. So they celebrated the Passover with joy for seven more days. <sup>24</sup>Hezekiah king of Judah gave 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the people. The officers gave 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the people. Many priests made themselves holy for the Lord. <sup>25</sup>All the people of Judah, the priests, the Levites, those who came from Israel, the foreigners from Israel and the foreigners living in Judah were very happy. <sup>26</sup>There was much joy in Jerusalem. There had not been a celebration like this since Solomon's time. He was the son of David and king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>The priests and Levites stood up and blessed the people. And God heard them because their prayer reached heaven, which is his holy home.

The Collection for the Priests

31 The Passover<sup>d</sup> celebration was finished. All the Israelites in Jerusalem

<sup>a</sup>Beersheba to Dan Dan was the city farthest north in Israel. Beersheba was the city farthest south. So this means all the people of Israel.

went out to the towns of Judah. There they smashed the stone pillars used to worship false gods. They cut down the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. They destroyed the altars and places for worshipping false gods. They destroyed all of them in the areas of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim and Manasseh. They destroyed everything used for worshipping the false gods. Then all the Israelites returned to their own towns and homes.

<sup>2</sup>King Hezekiah appointed groups of priests and Levites for their special duties. They were to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. They were to worship and to give thanks and praise at the gates where the Lord lives. <sup>3</sup>Hezekiah gave some of his own animals for the burnt offerings. Burnt offerings were given every morning and evening. They were also given on Sabbath<sup>d</sup> days and during New Moons<sup>d</sup> and other feasts commanded by the Lord's Teachings.

<sup>4</sup>Hezekiah commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give the priests and Levites the portion that belonged to them. Then the priests and Levites could give all their time to the Lord's Teachings. <sup>5</sup>Soon the king's command went out to the Israelites. And they gave quickly and freely. They gave the first portion of their grain, wine, oil and honey. They gave the first portion of everything they grew in their fields. They brought a large amount, one-tenth of everything. <sup>6</sup>The men of Israel and Judah who lived in Judah also gave. They brought one-tenth of their cattle and sheep. And they brought one-tenth of the holy things that were given to the Lord their God. They put all these things in piles. <sup>7</sup>The people began bringing their things in the third month. And they finished in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup>Hezekiah and his officers came and saw the piles. Then they praised the Lord and his people, the people of Israel. <sup>9</sup>Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the piles. <sup>10</sup>Azariah was the leading priest from Zadok's family. He answered Hezekiah, "Since the people began to bring their offerings to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord, we have had plenty to eat. We have had plenty left over. The Lord has blessed his people. So we have all this left over."

<sup>11</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded the priests to prepare the storerooms in the Temple of the Lord. So this was done. <sup>12</sup>Then the priests brought the offerings and the things given to the Lord. They also brought the tenth of everything the people had given. All these things were put in the storerooms. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of these things. Conaniah's brother Shimei was second to him. <sup>13</sup>Conaniah and his brother Shimei were over these supervisors: Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismahiah, Mahath and Benaiah. King Hezekiah and Azariah the officer in charge of the Temple of God chose those men.

<sup>14</sup>Kore was in charge of the special gifts the people wanted to give to God. He was responsible for giving out the contributions made to the Lord and the holy gifts. Kore was the son of Imnah the Levite. Kore was the guard at the East Gate. <sup>15</sup>Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemiah, Amariah and Shecaniah helped Kore. They served well in the towns where the priests lived. They gave from what was collected to the other groups of priests. They gave both to the young and the old.

<sup>16</sup>These men also gave from what was collected to the males 3 years old and older. These were males who had their names in the Levite family histories. They were to enter the Temple of the Lord for their daily service. Each group had its own responsibilities. <sup>17</sup>The priests were given their part of the collection. This was done by families, as listed in the family histories. The Levites 20 years old and older were given their part of the collection. This was done by their responsibilities and by their groups. <sup>18</sup>The Levites' babies, wives, sons and daughters also got part of the collection. This was done for all the Levites who were listed in the family histories. This was because the Levites always kept themselves ready to serve the Lord.

<sup>19</sup>Some of Aaron's descendants,<sup>d</sup> the priests, lived on the farmland near the towns. Some also lived in the towns. Men were chosen by name to give part of the collection to these priests. All the males and those named in the family histories of the Levites received part of the collection.

<sup>20</sup>This is what King Hezekiah did in Judah. He did what was good and right and obedient before the Lord his God. <sup>21</sup>Hezekiah tried to obey God in his service of the Temple of God. He tried to obey God's teachings and commands. He gave himself fully to his work for God. So he had success.

Assyria Troubles Hezekiah

32 Hezekiah did all these things to serve the Lord. Sennacherib king of Assyria came to attack Judah. He and his army surrounded and attacked the strong, walled cities. He wanted to take them for himself. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah knew that Sennacherib had come to Jerusalem to attack it. <sup>3</sup>So Hezekiah talked to his officers and army commanders. They decided to cut off the waters from the springs outside the city. So the officers and commanders helped Hezekiah. <sup>4</sup>Many people came to help. They cut off all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. They said, "The king of Assyria will not find much water when he comes here." <sup>5</sup>Then Hezekiah made Jerusalem stronger. He rebuilt all the broken parts of the wall. And he built towers on the wall. He also built another wall outside the first one. And he made the area that was filled in on the east side of the old part of Jerusalem stronger. He made many weapons and shields.

<sup>6</sup>Hezekiah put army commanders over the people. He met with these commanders at the open place near the city gate. Hezekiah encouraged them, saying, <sup>7</sup>"Be strong and brave. Don't be afraid or worried because of the king of Assyria or his large army. There is a greater power with us than with him. <sup>8</sup>He only has men, but we have the Lord our God. He will help us. He will fight our battles." The people were encouraged by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>King Sennacherib of Assyria and all his army surrounded and attacked Lachish. Then he sent his officers to Jerusalem with a message. The message was for King Hezekiah of Judah and all the people of Judah in Jerusalem. This was the message:

<sup>10</sup>Sennacherib king of Assyria says this: "You have nothing to trust in to help you. It is no use for you to stay in Jerusalem under attack. <sup>11</sup>Hezekiah says to you, 'The Lord our God will save us from the king of Assyria.' But he is fooling you. If you stay in Jerusalem, you will die from hunger and thirst. <sup>12</sup>Hezekiah himself removed your Lord's places of worship and altars. He told you people of Judah and Jerusalem that you must worship and burn incense<sup>d</sup> on only one altar.

<sup>13</sup>"You know what my ancestors and I have done to all the people in other nations. The gods of those nations could not save their people from my power. <sup>14</sup>My ancestors destroyed those nations. None of their gods could save them from me. So your god cannot save you from my power. <sup>15</sup>Do not let Hezekiah fool you or trick you. Do not believe him. No god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from me or my ancestors. Your god is even less able to save you from me."

<sup>16</sup>Sennacherib's officers said worse things against the Lord God and his servant Hezekiah.

<sup>17</sup>King Sennacherib also wrote letters insulting the Lord, the God of Israel. This is what his letters said: "The gods of the other nations could not save their people from me. In the same way Hezekiah's god won't be able to save his people from me." <sup>18</sup>Then the king's officers shouted out in Hebrew. They called out to the people of Jerusalem who were on the city wall. The officers wanted to scare the people away so they could capture Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>They said evil things about the gods the people of the world worshiped. They are only things people have made with their hands. In the same way the officers said evil things about the God of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>King Hezekiah and the prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz prayed to heaven about this. <sup>21</sup>Then the Lord sent an angel to the king of Assyria's camp. That angel killed all the soldiers, leaders and officers of the Assyrian army. So the king of Assyria returned to his own country in disgrace. He went into the temple of his god. There some of his own sons killed him with a sword.

<sup>22</sup>So the Lord saved Hezekiah and the people in Jerusalem. He saved them from Sennacherib king of Assyria and from all other people. The Lord took care of Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Many people brought gifts for the Lord to Jerusalem. They also brought valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah. From then on all the nations respected Hezekiah.

Hezekiah Dies

<sup>24</sup>At that time Hezekiah became very sick. He was almost dead. He prayed to the Lord. And the Lord spoke to him and gave him a sign.<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah was proud. So he did not thank God for his kindness. So the Lord was angry with him and the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>But later Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem were sorry and stopped being proud. So the Lord did not punish them while Hezekiah was alive.

<sup>27</sup>Hezekiah had many riches and much honor. He made treasuries for his silver, gold, gems, spices, shields and other valuable things. <sup>28</sup>Hezekiah built storage buildings for grain, new wine and oil. He built stalls for all the cattle and pens for the sheep. <sup>29</sup>He also built many towns. He had many flocks of sheep and herds of cattle. God gave Hezekiah much wealth.

<sup>10</sup>It was Hezekiah who cut off the upper pool of the Gihon spring. He made those waters flow straight down on the west side of the older part of Jerusalem. And Hezekiah was successful in everything he did. <sup>11</sup>But one time the leaders of Babylon sent messengers to Hezekiah. They asked him about a strange sign<sup>a</sup> that had happened in the land. When they came, God left Hezekiah alone to test him. He wanted to know everything that was in Hezekiah's heart.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Hezekiah's love for the Lord and the other things he did as king are recorded. They are written in the vision of the prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz. This is in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah died and was buried on a hill. It is where the graves of David's ancestors are. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem honored Hezekiah when he died. And Hezekiah's son Manasseh became king in his place.

Manasseh King of Judah

33 Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king of Judah. And he was king for 55 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. He did the hated things the other nations had done. And the Lord had forced these nations out of the land ahead of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Manasseh's father, Hezekiah, had torn down the places where false gods were worshiped. But Manasseh rebuilt them. Manasseh also built altars for the Baal<sup>d</sup> gods and made Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols. He bowed down to the stars and worshiped them. <sup>4</sup>The Lord had said about the Temple,<sup>d</sup> "I will be worshiped in Jerusalem forever." But Manasseh built altars for false gods in the Temple of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>He built altars to worship the stars in the two courtyards of the Temple of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>He burned his sons as sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He practiced magic and witchcraft.<sup>d</sup> He told the future by explaining signs and dreams. He got advice from mediums<sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers. He did many things the Lord said were wrong. And this made the Lord angry.

<sup>7</sup>He carved an idol and put it in the Temple of God. God had spoken to David and his son Solomon about the Temple. He had said, "I will be worshiped in this Temple and in Jerusalem forever. I have chosen Jerusalem from all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>8</sup>I will never again make the Israelites leave the land I gave to their ancestors. But they must obey everything I commanded them. They must obey all the teachings, rules and commands I gave them through Moses."<sup>9</sup> But Manasseh led the people of Judah and Jerusalem to do wrong. They did more evil than the nations the Lord had destroyed ahead of the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they did not listen. <sup>11</sup>So the Lord brought the king of Assyria's army commanders to attack Judah. They captured Manasseh and put hooks in him. They put bronze chains on his hands. They made him their prisoner and took him to Babylon. <sup>12</sup>As Manasseh suffered, he begged the Lord his God for help. He became very sorry for what he had done before the God of his ancestors. <sup>13</sup>When Manasseh prayed, the Lord heard him and had pity for him. So the Lord let him return to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord is the true God.

<sup>14</sup>After that happened, Manasseh rebuilt the outer wall for Jerusalem. It was in the valley on the west side of the Gihon spring. It went to the entrance of the Fish Gate and around the hill of Ophel. He also made the wall higher. Then he put commanders in all the strong, walled cities in Judah.

<sup>15</sup>Manasseh removed the idols of other nations. And he took the idol out of the Temple of the Lord. He removed all the altars he had built on the Temple hill and in Jerusalem. And he threw them out of the city. <sup>16</sup>Then he set up the Lord's altar. And he sacrificed on it fellowship offerings and offerings to show thanks to the Lord. Manasseh commanded all the people of Judah to serve the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>The people continued to offer sacrifices at the places of worship. But their sacrifices were only to the Lord their God. <sup>18</sup>The other things Manasseh did as king are written down. His prayer to his God is recorded. And what the seers<sup>d</sup> said to him in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, is recorded. They are all in the book of the history of the kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup>Manasseh's prayer and God's pity for him are written down. Also all of Manasseh's sins and how he was unfaithful to the Lord are recorded. The places he built for worshiping false gods and for the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols are recorded. He did all these things but later became sorry for them. They are all in the book of the seers. <sup>20</sup>Manasseh died and was buried in his palace. Then Manasseh's son Amon became king in his place.

Amon King of Judah

<sup>21</sup>Amon was 22 years old when he became king. And he was king for two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>He did what the Lord said was wrong. He did as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and offered sacrifices to all the carved idols Manasseh had made. <sup>23</sup>Amon was not sorry for what he did wrong before the Lord. He was not sorry as his father Manasseh had been. Instead, Amon sinned even more.

<sup>24</sup>Amon's officers made plans against him and killed him in his palace. <sup>25</sup>But the people of Judah killed all those who had made plans to kill King Amon. And they made his son Josiah to be king in his place.

Josiah King of Judah

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled 31 years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He did what the Lord said was right. He did good things as his ancestor David had done. Josiah did not stop doing what was right.

<sup>3</sup>In his eighth year as king, Josiah began to obey the God his ancestor David had followed. This was while Josiah was still young. In his twelfth year as king, Josiah began to remove the false gods from Judah and Jerusalem. He destroyed the places for worshiping false gods. He removed the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols and the wooden and metal idols. <sup>4</sup>The people tore down the altars for the Baal<sup>d</sup> gods as Josiah directed. Then Josiah cut down the incense<sup>d</sup> altars that were above them. He broke up the Asherah idols and the wooden and metal idols. He beat them into powder. Then he sprinkled the powder on the graves of the people who had offered sacrifices to these gods. <sup>5</sup>He burned the bones of their priests on their own altars. So Josiah removed idol worship from Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He did the same for the towns in the areas of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon. He did this all the way to Naphtali. And he did the same for the ruins near these towns. <sup>7</sup>Josiah broke down the altars and Asherah idols. Then he beat the idols into powder. He cut down all the incense altars in all of Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>In Josiah's eighteenth year as king, he made Judah and the Temple<sup>d</sup> pure again. He sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaeseiah the city leader and Joah son of Joahaz the recorder. They were to repair the Temple of the Lord, the God of Josiah. <sup>9</sup>These men went to Hilkiah the high priest. They gave him the money the people had given for the Temple of God. The Levite doorkeepers had collected this money from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and all the Israelites who were left alive. They also collected this money from all the people of Judah, Benjamin and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>Then the Levites gave it to the men who directed the work on the Temple of the Lord. And these supervisors paid the workers that rebuilt and repaired the Temple. <sup>11</sup>They gave money to carpenters and builders to buy cut rocks and wood. The wood was used to rebuild the buildings and to make beams for them. The kings of Judah had let the buildings become ruins. <sup>12</sup>The men did their work well. Their supervisors were Jahath, Obadiah, Zechariah and Meshullam. Jahath and Obadiah were Levites from the family of Merari. Zechariah and Meshullam were from the family of Kohath. These Levites were all skilled musicians. <sup>13</sup>They were in charge of the workers who carried things and all the other workers. Some Levites worked as secretaries, officers and doorkeepers.

The Law Is Found

<sup>14</sup>The Levites brought out the money that was in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. As they were doing this, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Lord's Teachings. These teachings had been given through Moses. <sup>15</sup>Hilkiah said to Shaphan the royal assistant, "I've found the Book of the Teachings. It was in the Temple of the Lord!" He gave it to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup>Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to Josiah: "Your officers are doing everything you told them to do. <sup>17</sup>They have paid out the money that was in the Temple of the Lord. They have given it to the supervisors and the workers." <sup>18</sup>Then Shaphan the royal assistant told the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from the book to the king.

<sup>19</sup>The king heard the words of the Teachings. Then he tore his clothes to show how upset he was. <sup>20</sup>He gave these orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan. He also gave them to Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan and Asaiah. Shaphan was the royal assistant. And Asaiah was the king's servant. These were the orders: <sup>21</sup>"Go and ask the Lord about the words in the book that was found. Ask for me and for the people who are left alive in Israel and Judah. The Lord is very angry with us because our ancestors did not obey the Lord's word. They did not do everything this book says to do."

him left. They went to talk to Huldah the prophetess.<sup>d</sup> She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas. Harhas took care of the king's clothes. Huldah lived in Jerusalem, in the new area of the city.

<sup>23</sup>She said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>24</sup>This is what the Lord says: I will bring trouble to this place and to the people living here. I will bring all the curses that are written in the book that was read to the king of Judah. <sup>25</sup>The people of Judah have left me. They have burned incense<sup>d</sup> to other gods. They have made me angry by all the bad things they have made. So I will punish them in my anger. My anger will not be stopped.' <sup>26</sup>Tell the king of Judah who sent you to ask the Lord, 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the words you heard: <sup>27</sup>You heard my words against this place and its people. And you became sorry for what you had done. You became sorry in my presence. You tore your clothes to show how upset you were. And you cried in my presence. This is why I have heard you, says the Lord. <sup>28</sup>So I will let you die. You will be buried in peace. You won't see all the trouble that I will bring to this place and the people living here.' "

So they took her message back to the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king gathered all the older leaders of Judah and Jerusalem together. <sup>30</sup>He went up to the Temple of the Lord. All the men from Judah and the people from Jerusalem went with him. The priests and the Levites and all the people—from the most important to the least important—went with him. He read to them all the words in the Book of the Agreement. That book was found in the Temple of the Lord. <sup>31</sup>Then the king stood by his pillar. He made an agreement in the presence of the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord and to obey his commands, rules and laws with his whole being. And he agreed to obey the words of the agreement written in this book. <sup>32</sup>Then Josiah made all the people in Jerusalem and Benjamin promise to accept the agreement. The people of Jerusalem obeyed the agreement of God, the God their ancestors obeyed.

<sup>33</sup>And Josiah threw out the hated idols from all the land that belonged to the Israelites. He led everyone in Israel to serve the Lord their God. While Josiah lived, the people obeyed the Lord, the God their ancestors obeyed.

Josiah Celebrates the Passover

35 King Josiah celebrated the Passover<sup>d</sup> to the Lord in Jerusalem. The Passover lamb was killed on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>2</sup>Josiah chose the priests to do their duties. And he encouraged them as they served in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>3</sup>The Levites taught the Israelites and were made holy for service to the Lord. Josiah said to them: "When David's son Solomon was king of Israel, he built the Temple. Put the Holy Ark<sup>d</sup> in that Temple. Do not carry it from place to place on your shoulders anymore. Now serve the Lord your God and his people the Israelites. <sup>4</sup>Prepare yourselves by your family groups for service. Do the jobs that King David and his son Solomon gave you to do.

<sup>5</sup>"Stand in the holy place with a group of the Levites. Do this for each family group of the people so you may help them. <sup>6</sup>Kill the Passover lambs. Make yourselves holy to the Lord. And prepare the lambs for your relatives, the people of Israel. Do everything the Lord through Moses commanded us to do."

<sup>7</sup>Josiah gave the Israelites 30,000 sheep and goats to kill for the Passover sacrifices. He also gave them 3,000 cattle. They were all King Josiah's own animals.

<sup>8</sup>Josiah's officers also gave willingly to the people, the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel were the officers in charge of the Temple. They gave the priests 2,600 lambs and goats and 300 cattle for Passover sacrifices. <sup>9</sup>Also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad gave the Levites animals. They gave 5,000 sheep and goats and 500 cattle for Passover sacrifices. These men were leaders of the Levites.

<sup>10</sup>When everything was ready for the Passover service, the priests and Levites went to their places. This is what the king had commanded. <sup>11</sup>The Passover lambs were killed. Then the Levites skinned the animals and gave the blood to the priests. The priests sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>12</sup>Then they gave the animals for the burnt offerings to the different family groups. This was done so the burnt offerings could be offered to the Lord as the Law of Moses taught. They also did this with the cattle. <sup>13</sup>The Levites roasted the Passover sacrifices over the fire as they were commanded. And they boiled the holy offerings in pots, kettles and pans. Then they quickly gave the meat to the people. <sup>14</sup>After this was finished, the Levites prepared meat for themselves and for the priests. The priests were the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Aaron. The priests worked until night, offering the burnt offerings and burning the fat of the sacrifices.

<sup>15</sup>The Levite singers were from Asaph's family. They stood in the places King David had chosen for them. They were Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, the king's seer.<sup>d</sup> The gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their places. This was because their fellow Levites had prepared everything for them for the Passover.

<sup>16</sup>So everything was done that day for the worship of the Lord. And it was done as King Josiah commanded. The Passover was celebrated, and the burnt offerings were offered on the Lord's altar. <sup>17</sup>The Israelites who were there celebrated the Passover and the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread for seven days. <sup>18</sup>The Passover had not been celebrated like this in Israel since the prophet<sup>d</sup> Samuel was alive. None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover like this. King Josiah, the priests and the Levites celebrated it. And the people of Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem celebrated it. <sup>19</sup>This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year Josiah was king.

The Death of Josiah

<sup>20</sup>So Josiah did all this for the Temple.<sup>d</sup> After this, King Neco of Egypt led an army to attack Carchemish. It was a town on the Euphrates River. And Josiah marched out to fight against Neco. <sup>21</sup>But Neco sent messengers to Josiah. They said, "King Josiah, there should not be war between us. I did not come to fight you, but my enemies. God told me to hurry, and he is on my side. So don't fight God, or he will destroy you."

<sup>22</sup>But Josiah did not go away. He wore different clothes so no one would know who he was. He refused to listen to what Neco said at God's command. So Josiah went to fight on the plain of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup>In the battle King Josiah was shot by arrows. He told his servants, "Take me away. I am badly wounded." <sup>24</sup>So they took him out of his chariot. And they put him in another chariot he had brought to the battle. Then they took him to Jerusalem where he died. He was buried in the graves where his ancestors were buried. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem were very sad because he was dead.

<sup>25</sup>Jeremiah wrote some sad songs about Josiah. Even to this day all the men and women singers remember and honor Josiah with these songs. It became a custom in Israel to sing these songs. They are written in the collection of sad songs.

<sup>26-27</sup>The other things Josiah did as king, from the beginning to the end, are written down.

They are in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. It tells how he loved the Lord and obeyed the Lord's teachings.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

36 The people of Judah chose Josiah's son Jehoahaz. They made him king in Jerusalem in his father's place.

<sup>2</sup>Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for three months. <sup>3</sup>Then King Neco of Egypt made Jehoahaz no longer a king in Jerusalem. Neco made the people of Judah pay about 7,500 pounds of silver and about 75 pounds of gold. <sup>4</sup>The king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim the king of Judah and Jerusalem. Then Neco changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz to Egypt.

Jehoiakim King of Judah

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for 11 years. He did what the Lord his God said was wrong. <sup>6</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Judah. He captured Jehoiakim and put bronze chains on him. Then Nebuchadnezzar took him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took some of the things from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. And he took them to Babylon and put them in his own palace.

<sup>8</sup>The other things Jehoiakim did as king are written down. The hated things he did and everything he was guilty of doing are recorded. They are in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiakim's son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king of Judah. And he was king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did what the Lord said was wrong. <sup>10</sup>In the spring King Nebuchadnezzar sent some servants to get Jehoiachin. They took him and some valuable treasures from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord to Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar made Jehoiachin's relative Zedekiah the king of Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah King of Judah

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. And he was king in Jerusalem for 11 years. <sup>12</sup>Zedekiah did what the Lord his God said was wrong. The prophet<sup>d</sup> Jeremiah spoke messages from the Lord. But Zedekiah did not obey.

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

<sup>13</sup>Zedekiah turned against King Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar had forced Zedekiah to promise to be loyal to him. And Zedekiah had promised, using God's name. But Zedekiah became stubborn. He refused to obey the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Also, all the leaders of the priests and the people of Judah became more wicked. They followed the evil example of the other nations. The Lord had made the Temple<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem holy. But the leaders made the Temple unholy.

The Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>The Lord, the God of their ancestors, sent prophets<sup>d</sup> again and again to warn his people. He did this because he had pity for them and for his Temple. <sup>16</sup>But they made fun of God's prophets. They hated God's messages. So they refused to listen to the prophets. Finally God became so angry with his people that he could not be stopped. <sup>17</sup>So God brought the king of Babylon to attack them. The king killed the young men even when they were in the Temple. He did not have mercy on the people. He killed both young men and women. He even killed the old men and those who were sick. God permitted Nebuchadnezzar to punish the people of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Nebuchadnezzar carried away to Babylon all the things from the Temple of God, both large and small.

He took all the treasures from the Temple of the Lord and from the king and his officers. <sup>19</sup>Nebuchadnezzar and his army set fire to God's Temple. They broke down Jerusalem's wall. And they burned all the palaces. They took or destroyed every valuable thing in Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took captive to Babylon the people who were left alive. And he forced them to be slaves for him and his descendants.<sup>d</sup> They remained there as slaves until the Persian kingdom defeated Babylon. <sup>21</sup>And so what the Lord had told Israel through the prophet Jeremiah happened. The Lord had said that place would be an empty wasteland for 70 years. This happened to make up for the years of Sabbath rests<sup>a</sup> that the people had not kept.

<sup>22</sup>[It was the first year Cyrus was king of Persia. The Lord caused Cyrus to write an announcement and send it everywhere in his kingdom. This happened so the Lord's message spoken by Jeremiah would come true.

"The Lord, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me. And he has appointed me to build a Temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Now all of you who are God's people are free to go to Jerusalem. May the Lord your God be with you."

<sup>a</sup>Sabbath rests The Law said that every seventh year the land was not to be farmed. See Leviticus 25:1-7.

The Return from Captivity

Cyrus Helps the Captives Return

1 It was the first year Cyrus was king of Persia. The Lord caused Cyrus to write an announcement and send it everywhere in his kingdom. And he also put it in writing. This happened so the Lord's message spoken by Jeremiah would come true. The announcement said:

The Lord, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me. And he has appointed me to build a Temple<sup>d</sup> for him at Jerusalem in Judah. <sup>3</sup>Now all of you who are God's people are free to go to Jerusalem. May your God be with you. And you may build the Temple of the Lord. He is the God of Israel, who is in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>Those who stay behind should support anyone who wants to go. Give them silver and gold, supplies and cattle. And give them special gifts for the Temple of God in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then the family leaders of Judah and Benjamin got ready to go to Jerusalem. So did the priests and the Levites. They were going to Jerusalem to build the Temple of the Lord. God made all these people want to go. <sup>6</sup>All their neighbors helped them. They gave them things made of silver and gold, along with supplies, cattle and valuable gifts. And they gave them the special gifts for the Temple. <sup>7</sup>Also, King Cyrus brought out the bowls and pans that belonged in the Temple of the Lord. Nebuchadnezzar had taken them from Jerusalem. And he had put them in the temple of his own god. <sup>8</sup>Cyrus king of Persia had Mithredath the treasurer get them out. So he made a list of the things for Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>There were 30 gold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 silver pans, <sup>10</sup>30 gold bowls, 410 matching silver bowls and 1,000 other pieces.

<sup>11</sup>There was a total of 5,400 pieces of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these things along when the captives went from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The Captives Who Returned

2 These are the people of the area who returned from captivity. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken them captive to Babylon. Now they returned to Jerusalem and Judah. Each one went back to his own town. <sup>2</sup>These people returned with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah.

<sup>59</sup>Some people came to Jerusalem from these towns: Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer. But they could not prove that their families came from the family of Israel. Here are their names and their number: <sup>60</sup>the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda—652.

<sup>61</sup>And these priests could not prove that their families came from Israel: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai. (He had married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead and was called by her family name.)

<sup>62</sup>These people searched for their family records. But they could not find them. So they could not be priests because they were thought to be unclean.<sup>d</sup> <sup>63</sup>The governor ordered them not to eat any of the food offered to God. First a priest had to settle this matter by using the Urim and Thummim.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>64</sup>The total number of those who returned was 42,360. <sup>65</sup>This is not counting their 7,337 male and female servants. They also had 200 men and women singers with them. <sup>66</sup>They had 736 horses, 245 mules, <sup>67</sup>435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

<sup>68</sup>That group arrived at the Temple of the Lord in Jerusalem. Some of the leaders of families gave special offerings. Those offerings were given to rebuild the Temple of God. It would be on the same site as before. <sup>69</sup>Those people gave as much as they could to the treasury. It was to rebuild the Temple. They gave about 1,100 pounds of gold, about 6,000 pounds of silver and 100 pieces of clothing for the priests.

<sup>70</sup>All the Israelites settled in their hometowns. The priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple servants, along with some of the other people, settled in their own towns.

Rebuilding the Altar

3 By the seventh month, the Israelites were settled in their hometowns. They met together in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests joined Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel. They began to build the altar of the God of Israel. That's where they offered burnt offerings just as it is written in the Teachings of Moses. Moses was the man of God. <sup>3</sup>They were afraid of the people living around them. But they still built the altar where it had been before. They offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord morning and evening. <sup>4</sup>Then, to obey what was written, they celebrated the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters. They offered the right number of sacrifices for each day of the festival. <sup>5</sup>After the Feast of Shelters, they had regular sacrifices every day. They had sacrifices for the New Moon<sup>d</sup> and all the festivals commanded by the Lord. Also there were special offerings brought as gifts to the Lord. <sup>6</sup>On the first day of the seventh month they began to bring burnt offerings to the Lord. But the foundation of the Lord's Temple<sup>d</sup> had not yet been laid.

Rebuilding the Temple

<sup>7</sup>Then they gave money to the stoneworkers and carpenters. They also gave food, wine and oil to the cities of Sidon and Tyre. This was so they would float cedar logs from Lebanon to the seacoast town of Joppa. Cyrus king of Persia had given permission for this.

<sup>8</sup>It was in the second year after their arrival at the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God in Jerusalem. In the second month Zerubbabel and Jeshua began the work. So did the rest of their fellow priests and Levites. And all who had returned from captivity to Jerusalem began to work. They chose Levites 20 years old and older to be in charge of the building of the Temple of the Lord. <sup>9</sup>These men were in charge of the work of building the Temple of God: Jeshua and his sons and brothers; Kadmiel and his sons who were the descendants of Hodaviah; and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers. They were all Levites.

<sup>10</sup>The builders finished laying the foundation of the Temple of the Lord. Then the priests, dressed in their robes, got trumpets. And the Levites, the sons of Asaph, had cymbals. They all took their places. They praised the Lord just as David king of Israel had said to do. <sup>11</sup>With praise and thanksgiving, they sang to the Lord: "He is good;

his love for Israel continues forever."
And then all the people shouted loudly, "Praise the Lord! The foundation of his Temple has been laid." <sup>12</sup>But many of the older priests, Levites and family leaders cried aloud. They had seen the first Temple. Now they saw the foundation of this Temple. But most of the other people were shouting with joy. <sup>13</sup>The people made so much noise no one could tell the difference between the joyful shouting and the sad crying. It could be heard far away.

Enemies of the Rebuilding

4 The people of Judah and Benjamin had enemies. They heard that the returned captives were building a Temple<sup>a</sup> for the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So the enemies came to Zerubbabel and the leaders of the families. The enemies said, "Let us help you build. We are like you. We want to worship your God. We have been offering sacrifices to him since the time of Esarhaddon. He was king of Assyria, and he brought us here."

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the leaders of Israel answered, "No. You people will not help us build a Temple to our God. We will build it ourselves. It is for the Lord, the God of Israel. This is what King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us to do."

<sup>4</sup>Then the people around them tried to discourage the people of Judah. They tried to make them afraid to build. <sup>5</sup>Their enemies hired others to delay the building plans. This went on during the time Cyrus was king of Persia. And it continued to the time Darius was king of Persia.

More Problems for the Builders

<sup>6</sup>When Xerxes became king, those enemies wrote a letter against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>Later Artaxerxes became king of Persia. Then Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and those with them wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in the Aramaic language.

<sup>8</sup>Also Rehum the governor and Shimshai the governor's assistant wrote a letter. It was to Artaxerxes the king. And it was against Jerusalem. It said:

<sup>9</sup>This letter is from Rehum the governor, Shimshai the assistant and others. They are judges and important officers. They are over the men who came from Tripolis, Persia, Erech and Babylon. They are over the Elamite people of Susa. <sup>10</sup>And they are over those whom the great and honorable Ashurbanipal forced out of their countries. He forced them to move and settle in the city of Samaria. And he forced them to settle in other places west of the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup>(This is a copy of the letter they sent to Artaxerxes:)

To King Artaxerxes.

From your servants who live west of the Euphrates River.

<sup>12</sup>King Artaxerxes, you remember the Jews who came to us from you. You should know they have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that evil city that refuses to obey. They are fixing the walls and repairing the foundations of the buildings.

<sup>13</sup>Now, King Artaxerxes, you should know what could happen. If Jerusalem is built and its walls are fixed, Jerusalem will pay no taxes of any kind. Then the amount of money your government collects will be less. <sup>14</sup>Since we must be loyal to the government, we don't want to see the king dishonored. So we are writing to let the king know. <sup>15</sup>We suggest you search the records of the kings who ruled before you. You will find out that the city of Jerusalem refuses to obey. It makes trouble for kings and areas controlled by Persia. Since long ago it has been a place where disobedience started. That is why it was destroyed. <sup>16</sup>We want you to know this, King Artaxerxes. This city should not be rebuilt and its walls fixed. If it is, you will be left with nothing west of the Euphrates River.

To Rehum the governor and Shimshai the assistant. To all the people with them living in Samaria. And to those in other places west of the Euphrates.

Greetings.

<sup>18</sup>The letter you sent to us has been translated and read to me. <sup>19</sup>I ordered the records to be searched, and it was done. We found that Jerusalem has a long history of disobedience to kings. It has been a place of problems and trouble. <sup>20</sup>Jerusalem has had powerful kings. They have ruled over the whole area west of the Euphrates. Taxes of all kinds have been paid to them. <sup>21</sup>Now, give an order for those men to stop work. The city of Jerusalem will not be rebuilt until I say so. <sup>22</sup>Make sure you do this. If it continues, it will hurt the government.

<sup>23</sup>A copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes sent was read. It was read to Rehum and Shimshai the assistant and the others. Then they quickly went to the Jews in Jerusalem. They forced them to stop building.

<sup>24</sup>So the work on the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God in Jerusalem stopped. It stopped until the second year Darius was king of Persia.

Tattenai's Letter to Darius

S Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo were prophets.<sup>a</sup> They prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. They prophesied in the name of the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak started working again. They worked to rebuild the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were there, helping them.

<sup>3</sup>At that time Tattenai was the governor west of the Euphrates. He and Shethar-Bozenai and others went to the Jews. They asked, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this Temple and fix these walls?" <sup>4</sup>They also asked, "What are the names of these men working on this building?" <sup>5</sup>But their God was watching over the older leaders of the Jews. The builders were not stopped until a report could go to King Darius. And then his written answer had to be received.

<sup>6</sup>This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, Shethar-Bozenai and the others sent to King Darius. Tattenai was governor west of the Euphrates River. The other people were important officers west of the Euphrates. <sup>7</sup>This is what the report they sent to him said:

To King Darius.

Greetings. May you have peace.

<sup>8</sup>King Darius, you should know that we went to the district of Judah. That is where the Temple of the great God is. The people there are building that Temple with large stones. They are putting timbers in the walls. The people are working very hard. And they are building very fast.

<sup>9</sup>We asked their older leaders, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this Temple and these walls?" <sup>10</sup>We also asked for their names. We wrote down the names of their leaders so you would know who they are.

<sup>11</sup>This is the answer they gave to us: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the Temple that a great king of Israel built. He finished it many years ago. <sup>12</sup>But our ancestors made the God of heaven angry. So God let them be defeated by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He destroyed this Temple. And he took the people to Babylon as captives.

<sup>13</sup>Later, Cyrus was in his first year as king of Babylon. He gave a special order for this Temple to be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup>And Cyrus brought out things from the temple in Babylon. They were the gold and silver bowls and pans that came from the Temple of God. Nebuchadnezzar had taken them from the Temple in Jerusalem. And he had put them in the temple in Babylon.

"Then King Cyrus gave them to Sheshbazzar. He had appointed Sheshbazzar as governor. <sup>15</sup>Cyrus said to him, 'Take these gold and silver bowls and pans. Put them back in the Temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the Temple of God where it was.' <sup>16</sup>So Sheshbazzar came. He laid the foundations of the Temple of God in Jerusalem. From that day until now the work has been going on. But it is not yet finished."

<sup>17</sup>Now, if the king wishes, let a search be made. Search the royal records of Babylon to see if King Cyrus gave such an order. See if he gave an order to rebuild this Temple in Jerusalem. Then let the king write us and tell us what he has decided.

The Order of Darius

6 So King Darius gave an order to search the records. They were kept in the treasury in Babylon. <sup>2</sup>A scroll was found in the capital city, Ecbatana. It is in the area of Media. This is what was written on it:

Note:

<sup>3</sup>King Cyrus gave an order about the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God in Jerusalem. This was in the first year he was king. This was the order:

'Let the Temple be rebuilt. It will be a place to present sacrifices. Let its foundations be laid. The Temple should be 90 feet high and 90 feet wide. <sup>4</sup>It must have three layers of large stones, then one layer of timbers. The costs should be paid from the king's treasury. <sup>5</sup>The gold and silver things from the Temple of God should be put back in their places. Nebuchadnezzar took those things from the Temple in Jerusalem. And he brought them to Babylon. They are to be put back in the Temple of God in Jerusalem.'

<sup>6</sup>Now then, I, Darius, give this order to you, Tattenai, governor west of the Euphrates. And I give it to Shethar-Bozenai and all the officers of that area. Stay away from there. <sup>7</sup>Do not bother or interrupt the work on that Temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the older Jewish leaders rebuild this Temple. Let them build it where it was before.

<sup>8</sup>Also, I order you to do this for those older leaders of the Jews. They are building this Temple. The cost of the building is to be fully paid from the royal treasury. The money will come from taxes collected west of the Euphrates River. Do this so the work will not stop. <sup>9</sup>Give those people anything they need. Give them young bulls, male sheep or male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven. Give them wheat, salt, wine or olive oil. Give the priests in Jerusalem anything they ask for. Give it every day without fail. <sup>10</sup>Then they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven. And they can pray for the life of the king and his sons.

<sup>11</sup>Also, I give this order: If anyone changes this order, a wood beam is to be pulled from his house. Drive one end of the beam through his body. And because he did this crime, make his house a pile of ruins. <sup>12</sup>God has chosen Jerusalem as the place he is to be worshiped. May he defeat any king or person who tries to change this order. May God destroy anyone who tries to destroy this Temple.

I, Darius, have given this order. Let it be obeyed quickly and carefully.

Completion of the Temple

<sup>13</sup>So, Tattenai, the governor west of the Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and the others obeyed. They carried out King Darius' order quickly and carefully. <sup>14</sup>So the older Jewish leaders continued to build. And they were successful because of the preaching of Haggai the prophet<sup>d</sup> and Zechariah son of Iddo. They finished building the Temple<sup>d</sup> as the God of Israel had said. It was also done to obey the kings Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes of Persia. <sup>15</sup>The Temple was finished on the third day of the month Adar. It was the sixth year that Darius was king.

<sup>16</sup>Then the people of Israel celebrated. They gave the Temple to God to honor him. Everybody was happy: the priests, the Levites and the rest of the Jews who had returned from captivity. <sup>17</sup>This is how they gave the Temple to God for worshiping him: They offered 100 bulls, 200 male sheep and 400 male lambs as sacrifices. And as an offering to forgive the sins of all Israel, they offered 12 male goats. That is 1 goat for each tribe<sup>d</sup> in Israel. <sup>18</sup>Then they put the priests and the Levites into their separate groups. Each group had a certain time to serve God in the Temple at Jerusalem. This was done just as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Is Celebrated

<sup>19</sup>The Jews who returned from captivity celebrated the Passover.<sup>d</sup> This was on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>20</sup>The priests and Levites had made themselves clean.<sup>d</sup> The Levites killed the Passover lambs for all the Jews who had returned from captivity. They also did it for their relatives the priests and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>So all the people of Israel who returned from captivity ate the Passover lamb. So did those who had given up the unclean ways of their non-Jewish neighbors. They worshiped the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>22</sup>For seven days they celebrated the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread in a very joyful way. The Lord had made them happy by changing the mind of the King of Assyria. So the king had helped them in the work on the Temple of the God of Israel.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

7 After these things<sup>a</sup> during the rule of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra came up from Babylon. Ezra was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Hilkiyah. <sup>2</sup>Hilkiyah was the son of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Ahitub. <sup>3</sup>Ahitub was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Meraioth. <sup>4</sup>Meraioth was the son of Zerariah. Zerariah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bukki. <sup>5</sup>Bukki was the son of Abishua. Abishua was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron the high priest. <sup>6</sup>This Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. He was a teacher. He knew the Teachings of Moses well. The Teachings had been given by the Lord, the God of Israel. Ezra received everything he asked for from the king. This was because the Lord his God was helping him. <sup>7</sup>In the seventh year of King Artaxerxes more Israelites came to Jerusalem. Among them were priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and Temple<sup>d</sup> servants.

<sup>8</sup>Ezra also arrived in Jerusalem. It was the fifth month of Artaxerxes' seventh year as king. <sup>9</sup>Ezra had left Babylon on the first day of the first month. And he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. God was helping Ezra. <sup>10</sup>Ezra had worked hard to know and obey the Teachings of the Lord. He also taught the rules and commands of the Lord to the Israelites.

Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

<sup>11</sup>King Artaxerxes had given a letter to Ezra. Ezra was a priest and teacher. He taught about the commands and laws the Lord gave Israel. This is a copy of the letter:

<sup>12</sup>From Artaxerxes, king of kings. To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven.

Greetings.

<sup>13</sup>Now I give this order: Any Israelite in my kingdom who wishes may go with you to Jerusalem. This includes priests and Levites. <sup>14</sup>Ezra, you are sent by the king and the seven people who advise him. You are to ask about how Judah and Jerusalem are obeying the Law of your God, which you are carrying with you. <sup>15</sup>Also take with you the silver and gold the king and those who advise him have given freely. It's for the God of Israel, whose Temple<sup>d</sup> is in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Also take the silver and gold you receive from the area of Babylon. And take the offerings the Israelites and their priests have given as gifts to the Lord. They are for the Temple of their God in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>With this money buy bulls, male sheep and male lambs. Buy the grain offerings and drink offerings that go with those sacrifices. Then sacrifice them on the altar in the Temple of your God in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>Then you and your fellow Jews may spend the silver and gold left over. Use it as you want and as God wishes. <sup>19</sup>Take to the God of Jerusalem all the things put in your care. They are for the worship in the Temple of your God. <sup>20</sup>And you may get anything else you need for the Temple of your God. Pay for it from the royal treasury.

<sup>21</sup>Now I, King Artaxerxes, give this order to all the men in charge of the treasury west of the Euphrates: Give Ezra anything he asks for right away. Ezra is a priest and a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven. <sup>22</sup>Give him up to 7,500 pounds of silver, 600 bushels of wheat, 600 gallons of wine and 600 gallons of olive oil. And give him as much salt as he wants. <sup>23</sup>Carefully give him whatever the God of heaven wants. Do it for the Temple of the God of heaven.

We do not want God to be angry with the king and his sons. <sup>24</sup>Remember, you must not make these people pay taxes of any kind: priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Temple servants and other workers in this Temple of God.

<sup>25</sup>And you, Ezra, use the wisdom you have from your God. Choose judges and lawmakers to rule the Jews west of the Euphrates. They know the laws of your God. And teach anyone who does not know them. <sup>26</sup>Whoever does not obey the law of your God or of the king must be punished. He will be killed or sent away. He will have his property taken away or be put in jail.

<sup>27</sup>Praise the Lord, the God of our ancestors. He caused the king to want to honor the Temple of the Lord in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>The Lord has shown me, Ezra, his love. He did this before the king, those who advise the king and the royal officers. The Lord my God was helping me. So I had courage. I gathered the leaders of Israel to return with me.

Leaders Who Returned with Ezra

8 These are the leaders of the family groups who returned with me. And it is a listing of those who were with them. They came back from Babylon during the rule of King Artaxerxes.

<sup>2</sup>From the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Phinehas, there was Gershom.

From the descendants of Ithamar, there was Daniel.

From the descendants of David, there was Hattush <sup>3</sup>of the descendants of Shecaniah.

From the descendants of Parosh, there was Zechariah. And 150 men came with him.

<sup>4</sup>From the descendants of Pahath-Moab, there was Eliehoenai son of Zerariah, with 200 men.

<sup>5</sup>From the descendants of Zattu, there was Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, with 300 men.

<sup>6</sup>From the descendants of Adin, there was Ebed son of Jonathan, with 50 men.

<sup>7</sup>From the descendants of Elam, there was Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, with 70 men.

<sup>8</sup>From the descendants of Shephatiah, there was Zebadiah son of Michael, with 80 men.

<sup>9</sup>From the descendants of Joab, there was Obadiah son of Jehiel, with 218 men.

<sup>10</sup>From the descendants of Bani, there was Shelomith son of Josiphiah, with 160 men.

<sup>11</sup>From the descendants of Bebai, there was Zechariah son of Bebai, with 28 men.

<sup>12</sup>From the descendants of Azgad, there was Johanan son of Hakkatan, with 110 men.

<sup>13</sup>From the descendants of Adonikam, these were the last ones: Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah. With them were 60 men.

<sup>14</sup>From the descendants of Bigvai, there were Uthai and Zaccur, with 70 men.

The Return to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>I, Ezra, called all those people together at the canal. It flows toward Ahava. We camped there for three days. I checked all the people and the priests. But I did not find any Levites.

<sup>16</sup>So I called these leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam. And I called Joiarib and Elnathan, who were teachers. <sup>17</sup>I sent those men to Iddo, the leader at Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, who are the Temple<sup>d</sup> servants in Casiphia. I sent them to bring servants to us for the Temple<sup>d</sup> of our God. <sup>18</sup>Our God was helping us. So Iddo's relatives gave us Sherebiah, a wise man from the descendants of Mahli. Mahli was the son of Levi. And Levi was the son of Israel. And they brought Sherebiah's sons and brothers. In all there were 18 men. <sup>19</sup>And they brought to us Hashabiah and Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari. And they also brought his brothers and nephews. In all there were 20 men. <sup>20</sup>They also brought 220 of the Temple servants. This is a group David and the officers had set up to help the Levites. All of those men were listed by name.

<sup>21</sup>There by the Ahava Canal, I announced we would all give up eating. We would make ourselves humble before our God. And we would ask God for a safe trip for ourselves, our children and all our possessions. <sup>22</sup>I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen. They could have protected us from enemies on the road. But we had said to the king, "Our God helps everyone who obeys him. But God is very angry with all who reject him." <sup>23</sup>So we gave up eating and prayed to our God about our trip. He answered our prayers.

<sup>24</sup>Then I chose 12 of the priests who were leaders. They were Sherebiah and Hashabiah and 10 of their relatives. <sup>25</sup>I weighed the offering of silver and gold. And I weighed the things given for the Temple of our God. I gave them to the 12 priests I had chosen. The king, the people who advised him, his officers and all the Israelites there with us had given these things for the Temple. <sup>26</sup>I weighed out and gave them about 50,000 pounds of silver, about 7,500 pounds of silver objects and about 7,500 pounds of gold. <sup>27</sup>I gave them 20 gold bowls that weighed about 19 pounds. And I gave them 2 fine pieces of polished bronze that were as valuable as gold.

<sup>28</sup>Then I said to the priests, "You and these things belong to the Lord for his service. The silver and gold are gifts to the Lord, the God of your ancestors. <sup>29</sup>Guard these things carefully. In Jerusalem, weigh them in front of the leading priests, Levites and the leaders of the family groups of Israel. Do this in the rooms of the Temple of the Lord." <sup>30</sup>So the priests and Levites took the silver, the gold and the special things that had been weighed out. They were to take them to the Temple of our God in Jerusalem.

<sup>31</sup>On the twelfth day of the first month we left the Ahava Canal. We started toward Jerusalem. Our God helped us. He protected us from enemies and robbers along the way. <sup>32</sup>Then we arrived in Jerusalem. We rested there three days.

<sup>33</sup>On the fourth day we weighed out the silver, the gold and the special things in the Temple of our God. We handed them to the priest Meremoth son of Uriah. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with Meremoth. Also the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binui were with them. <sup>34</sup>We checked everything by number and by weight. And the total weight was written down at that time.

<sup>35</sup>Then the captives who returned made burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They sacrificed 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 male sheep and 77 male lambs. All these animals were burned as sacrifices to the Lord. For a sin offering to the Lord there were 12 male goats. <sup>36</sup>They took King Artaxerxes' orders to the royal officers and to the governors west of the Euphrates. Then these men gave help to the people and the Temple of God.

Ezra's Prayer

9 After these things had been done, the leaders came to me. They said, "Ezra, the Israelites, including the priests and Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the people around us. Those neighbors do evil things as the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites did. <sup>2</sup>The Israelite men and their sons have married the women of these non-Jewish people. They have mixed the people who belong to God with the people around them. The leaders and officers of Israel did this first. And they caused the rest of the Israelites to do this unfaithful thing."

<sup>3</sup>When I heard this, I angrily tore my robe and coat. I pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down in shock. <sup>4</sup>Then everyone who trembled in fear at the word of the God of Israel gathered around me. This was because of the unfaithfulness of the captives who had returned. I sat there in shock until the evening sacrifice.

<sup>5</sup>Then, at the evening sacrifice, I got up from where I had shown my disgrace. My inner robe and coat were torn. And I fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the Lord my God. <sup>6</sup>I prayed,

"My God, I am too ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to you. I am in disgrace because our sins are so many they are higher than our heads. Our sins even reach up to the sky. <sup>7</sup>From the days of our ancestors until now, we have been very guilty. Because of our sins, we, our kings and priests have suffered punishment. We have been punished by the sword and captivity. Foreign kings have taken away our things and shamed us. It is that way today.

<sup>8</sup>"But now, for a short time, the Lord our God has been kind to us. He has let some of us come back from captivity. He has let us live in safety in his holy place. And so our God gives us hope and a little relief from our slavery. <sup>9</sup>Even though we are slaves, our God has not left us. He caused the kings of Persia to be kind to us. He has given us new life. So we can rebuild the Temple<sup>d</sup> and repair its ruins. And he has given us a wall to protect us in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>"But now, our God, what can we say after you have done all this? We have disobeyed your commands. <sup>11</sup>You gave these commands through your servants the prophets. <sup>4</sup>You said, 'The land you are entering to own is ruined. The people living there have spoiled it by the evil they do. Their evil filled the land with uncleanness<sup>d</sup> from one end to the other. <sup>12</sup>So do not let your daughters marry their sons. And do not let their daughters marry your sons. Do not wish for their peace or success. Then you may be strong and eat the good things of the land. And then you can leave this land to your descendants<sup>d</sup> forever.'

<sup>13</sup>"What has happened to us is our own fault. We have done evil things. Our guilt is great. But you, our God, have punished us less than we deserve. You have left a few of us alive. <sup>14</sup>We should not again break your commands by allowing marriages with these wicked people. If we did, you would get angry enough to destroy us. Then none of us would be left alive. <sup>15</sup>Lord, God of Israel, by your goodness a few of us are left alive today. We admit that we are guilty. None of us should be allowed to stand before you."

The People Confess Sin

10 Ezra was praying and confessing. He was crying and throwing himself down in front of the Temple. <sup>4</sup>A large group of Israelite men, women and children gathered around him. They were also crying loudly. <sup>2</sup>Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel the Elamite spoke to Ezra. Shecaniah said, "We have been unfaithful to our God. We have been marrying women from the peoples around us. But even so, there is still hope for Israel. <sup>3</sup>Now let us make an agreement before our God. We will send away all these women and their children. This is your advice. It is also the advice of those who respect the commands of our God. Let it be done to obey his Teachings. <sup>4</sup>Get up, Ezra. You are in charge. But we will support you. So have courage and do it."

<sup>5</sup>So Ezra got up. He made these people make a promise: the priests, the Levites and all the people of Israel. They promised to do what was suggested. <sup>6</sup>Then Ezra left the Temple. He went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he did not eat or drink. He was still sad about the unfaithfulness of the captives who had returned.

<sup>7</sup>Then an order was sent everywhere in Judah and Jerusalem. All the captives who had returned had to meet together in Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>Whoever did not come to Jerusalem within three days would lose his property. And he would no longer be a member of the community of the returned captives. That was the decision of the officers and older leaders.

<sup>9</sup>So within three days all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. It was the twentieth day of the ninth month. All the people were sitting in the open place in front of the Temple. They were upset because of the meeting and because it was raining. <sup>10</sup>Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful. You have married non-Jewish women. You have made Israel more guilty. <sup>11</sup>Now, confess it to the Lord, the God of your ancestors. Do the Lord's will. Separate yourselves from the people living around you and from your non-Jewish wives."

<sup>12</sup>Then the whole group answered Ezra. They shouted, "Ezra, you're right! We must do what you say. <sup>13</sup>But there are many people here. It's the rainy season. We can't stand outside. Also, this problem can't be solved in a day or two. We have sinned badly. <sup>14</sup>Let our off-cers make a decision for the whole group. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a non-Jewish woman meet with the older leaders and judges of each town. Let them meet at a planned time. Then the hot anger of our God will turn away from us." <sup>15</sup>Only these men were against the plan: Jonathan son of Asahel, Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, Meshullam and Shab-bethai the Levite.

<sup>16</sup>So the returned captives did what was suggested. Ezra the priest chose men who were leaders of the family groups. He named one from each family division. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to study each case. <sup>17</sup>By the first day of the first month, they had finished. They had dealt with all the men who had married non-Jewish women.

Those Guilty of Marrying Non-Jewish Women

From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and Jeshua's brothers, there were Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah. <sup>19</sup>(They all promised to divorce their wives. Then each one brought a male sheep from the flock as a penalty offering.)

<sup>23</sup>Among the Levites, there were Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

<sup>24</sup>Among the singers, there was Eliashib.

Among the gatekeepers, there were Shalum, Telem and Uri.

<sup>25</sup>And among the other Israelites, these married non-Jewish women:

From the descendants of Parosh, there were Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah and Benaiah.

<sup>26</sup>From the descendants of Elam, there were Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah.

<sup>44</sup>All these men had married non-Jewish women. And some of them had children by these wives.

NEHEMIAH

Rebuilding the Walls of Jerusalem

Nehemiah's Prayer

1 These are the words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah.

I, Nehemiah, was in the capital city of Susa. It was in the month of Kislev. This was in the twentieth year.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>One of my brothers named Hanani came from Judah. Some other men were with him. I asked them about the Jews who lived through the captivity. And I also asked about Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>They answered, "Nehemiah, those who are left from the captivity are back in the area of Judah. But they are in much trouble and are full of shame. The wall around Jerusalem is broken down. And its gates have been burned."

<sup>4</sup>When I heard these things, I sat down and cried for several days. I was sad and did not eat food. I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup>I said, "Lord, God of heaven, you are the great God who is to be respected. You keep your agreement of love with those who love you and obey your commands. <sup>6</sup>Listen carefully. Look at me. Hear the prayer your servant is praying to you day and night. I am praying for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites have done against you. My father's family and I have sinned against you. <sup>7</sup>We have been wicked toward you. We have not obeyed the commands, rules and laws you gave your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup>"Remember what you taught your servant Moses. You said, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations. <sup>9</sup>But if you come back to me and obey my commands, I will gather your people. I will gather them from the far ends of the earth. And I will bring them from captivity to where I have chosen to be worshipped.'

<sup>10</sup>"They are your servants and your people. You have saved them with your great strength and power. <sup>11</sup>Lord, listen carefully to my prayer. I am your servant. And listen to the prayers of your servants who love to honor you. Give me, your servant, success today. Allow this king to show kindness to me."

I was the one who served wine to the king.

Nehemiah Is Sent to Jerusalem

2 It was the month of Nisan. It was in the twentieth year King Artaxerxes was king. He wanted some wine. So I took some and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before. <sup>2</sup>So the king said, "Why does your face look sad? You are not sick. Your heart must be sad."

Then I was very afraid. <sup>3</sup>I said to the king, "May the king live forever! My face is sad because the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins. And its gates have been destroyed by fire."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to me, "What do you want?"

First I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup>Then I answered the king, "Send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried. I will rebuild it. Do this if you are willing and if I have pleased you."

<sup>6</sup>The queen was sitting next to the king. He asked me, "How long will your trip take? When will you get back?" It pleased the king to send me. So I set a time.

<sup>7</sup>I also said to him, "If you are willing, give me letters for the governors west of the Euphrates River. Tell them to let me pass safely through their lands on my way to Judah. <sup>8</sup>And may I have a letter for Asaph? He is the keeper of the king's forest. Tell him to give me timber. I will need it to make boards for the gates of the palace. It is by the Temple. <sup>9</sup>The wood is also for the city wall and the house I will live in." So the king gave me the letters. This was because God was showing kindness to me. <sup>9</sup>So I went to the governors west of the Euphrates River. I gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officers and soldiers on horses with me.

<sup>10</sup>Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite leader heard about this. They were upset that someone had come to help the Israelites.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem

<sup>11</sup>I went to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. <sup>12</sup>Then at night I started out with a few men. I had not told anyone what God had caused me to do for Jerusalem. There were no animals with me except the one I was riding.

<sup>13</sup>It was night. I went out through the Valley Gate. I rode toward the Dragon Well and the Trash Gate. I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem. They had been broken down. And the gates had been destroyed by fire. <sup>14</sup>Then I rode on toward the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool. But there was not enough room for the animal I was riding to get through. <sup>15</sup>So I went up the valley at night. I was inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned and went back in through the Valley Gate. <sup>16</sup>The officers did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the important men or the officers. I had not said anything to any of the others who would do the work.

<sup>17</sup>Then I said to them, "You can see the trouble we have here. Jerusalem is a pile of ruins. And its gates have been burned. Come, let's rebuild the wall of Jerusalem. Then we won't be full of shame any longer." <sup>18</sup>I also told them how God had been kind to me. And I told them what the king had said to me.

Then they answered, "Let's start rebuilding." So they began to work hard.

<sup>19</sup>But Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite leader and Geshem the Arab heard about it. They made fun of us and laughed at us. They said, "What are you doing? Are you turning against the king?"

<sup>20</sup>But I answered them, "The God of heaven will give us success. We are God's servants. We will start rebuilding. But you have no share in Jerusalem. You have no claim or past right to it."

Builders of the Wall

3 Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests went to work. They rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They gave it to the Lord's service and set its doors in place. They worked as far as the Tower of the Hundred, and they gave it to the Lord's service. Then they went on to the Tower of Hananel. <sup>2</sup>The men of Jericho built the part of the wall next to the priests. And Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate. They set the boards in place. And they put its doors, bolts and bars in place. <sup>4</sup>Mere-moth son of Uriah made repairs next to them. (Uriah was the son of Hakkoz.) Meshullam son of Berekiah worked next to Meremoth. (Bere-kiah was the son of Meshezabel.) And Zadok son of Baana worked next to Meshullam. <sup>5</sup>The men from Tekoa made repairs next to them. But the leading men of Tekoa would not work under their supervisors.

<sup>6</sup>Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They set its boards in place. And they put its doors, bolts and bars in place. <sup>7</sup>Next to them, men from Gibeon and Mizpah made repairs. Melatiah was from Gibeon, and Jadon was from Meronoth. These places were ruled by the governor west of the Euphrates River. <sup>8</sup>Next to them, Uzziel son of Harhaiah made repairs. He was a goldsmith. And next to him, Hananiah made repairs. He was one of the people who made perfume. These men rebuilt Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. <sup>9</sup>The next part of the wall was repaired by Rephaiah son of Hur. He was ruler of half of the district of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>Next to him, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs. He worked opposite his own house. And next to him, Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs. <sup>11</sup>Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another part of the wall. And they repaired the Tower of the Ovens. <sup>12</sup>Next to them, Shallum son of Hallohesh made repairs. He was ruler of half of the district of Jerusalem. His daughters helped him.

<sup>13</sup>Hanun and the people of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it and put its doors, bolts and bars in place. They also repaired the 500 yards of the wall to the Trash Gate.

<sup>14</sup>Malkijah son of Recab repaired the Trash Gate. He was ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He rebuilt that gate and put its doors, bolts and bars in place.

<sup>15</sup>Shallun son of Col-Hozeh repaired the Fountain Gate. He was ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it and put a roof over it. And he put its doors, bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam. It is next to the King's Garden. He repaired the wall all the way to the steps. They went down from the older part of the city. <sup>16</sup>Next to Shallun, Nehemiah <sup>a</sup>son of Azbuk made repairs. He was ruler of half of the district of Beth Zur. He made repairs up to a place opposite the tombs of David. He made repairs as far as the man-made pool and the House of the Heroes.

<sup>17</sup>Next to him, the Levites made repairs. Some worked under Rehum son of Bani. Next to him, Hashabiah made repairs for his district. He was ruler of half of the district of Keilah. <sup>18</sup>Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad and his

Levites made repairs. Binnui was the ruler of the other half of the district of Keilah. <sup>19</sup>Next to them, Ezer son of Jeshua worked. He was ruler of Mizpah. He repaired another part of the wall. He worked across from the way up to the storehouse for weapons. And he worked to the place where the wall turns. <sup>20</sup>Next to him, Baruch son of Zabbai worked very hard to repair another part of the wall. It went from the place where the wall turns to the entrance of the house of Eliashib. He was the high priest. <sup>21</sup>Next to him, Meremoth son of Uriah worked. (Uriah was the son of Hakkoz.) He repaired another part of the wall. It went from the entrance to Eliashib's house to the far end of it.

<sup>22</sup>Next to him worked the priests from the surrounding area. <sup>23</sup>Next to them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their own house. Next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah made repairs beside his own house. (Maaseiah was the son of Ananiah.) <sup>24</sup>Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another part of the wall. It went from Azariah's house to the place where the wall turned. And it went to the corner. <sup>25</sup>Palal son of Uzai worked across from the place where the wall turned. And he worked by the tower on the upper palace. That is near the courtyard of the king's guard. Next to Palal, Pedaiah son of Parosh made repairs. <sup>26</sup>The Temple's servants lived on the hill of Ophel. They made repairs as far as a point opposite the Water Gate. They worked toward the east and the tower that extends from the palace. <sup>27</sup>Next to them, the men of Tekoa made repairs. They worked on the wall from the great tower that extends from the palace to the wall of Ophel.

<sup>28</sup>The priests made repairs above the Horse Gate. Each worked in front of his own house. <sup>29</sup>Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shecaniah made repairs. He was the guard of the East Gate. <sup>30</sup>Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, made repairs. They worked on another part of the wall. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs. It was across from where he lived. <sup>31</sup>Next to him, Malkijah made repairs. He was one of the goldsmiths. He worked as far as the house of the Temple servants and the traders. That is across from the Inspection Gate. And he worked as far as the room above the corner of the wall. <sup>32</sup>The goldsmiths and the traders made repairs on another part of the wall. It was between the room above the corner of the wall and the Sheep Gate.

Those Against the Rebuilding

4 Sanballat heard we were rebuilding the wall. He was very angry, even furious. He made fun of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>He said to his friends and the army of Samaria, "What are these weak Jews doing? They think they can rebuild the wall. They think they will offer sacrifices. Maybe they think they can finish rebuilding it in only one day. They can't bring stones back to life. These are piles of trash and ashes."

<sup>3</sup>Tobiah the Ammonite was next to Sanballat. Tobiah said, "A fox could climb up on what they are building. Even it could break down their stone wall."

<sup>4</sup>I prayed, "Hear us, our God. We are hated. Turn the insults of Sanballat and Tobiah back on their own heads. Let them be captured and taken away like valuables that are stolen. <sup>5</sup>Do not hide their guilt. Do not take away their sins so you can't see them. The builders have seen them make you angry."

<sup>6</sup>So we rebuilt the wall until all of it went halfway up. The people were willing to work hard.

<sup>7</sup>But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the men from Ashdod were very angry. They heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls were continuing. And they heard that the holes in the wall were being closed. <sup>8</sup>So they all made plans against Jerusalem. They planned to come and fight and stir up trouble. <sup>9</sup>But we prayed to our God. And we appointed guards to watch for them day and night.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Judah said, "The workers are getting tired. There is too much dirt and trash. We cannot rebuild the wall."

<sup>11</sup>And our enemies said, "The Jews won't know it or see us. But we will come among them and kill them. We will stop the work."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Jews who lived near our enemies came. They told us ten times, "Everywhere you turn, the enemy will attack us." <sup>13</sup>So I put some of the people behind the lowest places along the wall. And I put some at the open places. I put families together with their swords, spears and bows. <sup>14</sup>Then I looked around. I stood up and spoke to the important men, the leaders and the rest of the people. I said, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord. He is great and others are afraid of him. And fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and your homes."

<sup>15</sup>Then our enemies heard that we knew about their plans. God had ruined their plans. So we all went back to the wall. Each person went back to his own work.

<sup>16</sup>From that day on, half my men worked on the wall. The other half was ready with spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers stood in back of the people of Judah <sup>17</sup>who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand. They carried a weapon in the other hand. <sup>18</sup>Each builder wore his sword at his side as he worked. The man who blew the trumpet to warn the people stayed next to me.

<sup>19</sup>Then I spoke to the important men, the leaders and the rest of the people. I said, "This is a very big job. We are spreading out along the wall. We are far apart. <sup>20</sup>So wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, assemble there. Our God will fight for us."

<sup>21</sup>So we continued to work. Half the men held spears. We worked from sunrise till the stars came out. <sup>22</sup>At that time I also said to the people, "Let every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night. They can be our guards at night. And they can be workmen during the day." <sup>23</sup>Neither I, my brothers, my men nor the guards with me ever took off our clothes. Each person carried his weapon even when he went for water.

Nehemiah Helps Poor People

5 The men and their wives complained loudly against their fellow Jews. <sup>2</sup>Some of them were saying, "We have many sons and daughters in our families. To eat and stay alive, we need grain."

<sup>3</sup>Others were saying, "We are borrowing money to get grain. There is not much food. We might not be able to pay back the money we've borrowed. Then we will have to pay with our fields, vineyards and homes."

<sup>4</sup>And still others were saying, "We are having to borrow money. We have to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. <sup>5</sup>We are just like our fellow Jews. Our sons are like their sons. But we have to sell our sons and daughters as slaves. Some of our daughters have already been sold. But there is nothing we can do. Our fields and vineyards already belong to other people."

<sup>6</sup>When I heard their complaints about these things, I was very angry. <sup>7</sup>I thought about it. Then I accused the important people and the leaders. I told them, "You are charging your own brothers too much interest." So I called a large meeting to deal with them. <sup>8</sup>I said to them, "Our fellow Jews had been sold to non-Jewish nations. But, as much as possible, we have bought them back. Now you are making your fellow Jews sell themselves to us!"

The leaders were quiet. They had nothing to say.

<sup>9</sup>Then I said, "What you are doing is not right. You should live in fear of God. Don't let our non-Jewish enemies shame us. <sup>10</sup>I, my brothers and my men are also lending money and grain to the people. But stop charging them too much for this! <sup>11</sup>Give back their fields, vineyards, olive trees and houses right now. Also give them back the extra amount you charged them. That is the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine and oil."

<sup>12</sup>They said, "We will give it back. And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say."

Then I called for the priests. And I made the important men and leaders promise to do what they had said. <sup>13</sup>Also I shook out the folds of my robe. I said, "In this way may God shake out every man who does not keep his promise. May God shake him out of his house. And may he shake him out of the things that are his. Let that man be shaken out and emptied!"

Then the whole group said, "Amen." And they praised the Lord. So the people did what they had promised.

<sup>14</sup>I was appointed governor in the land of Judah. This was in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes' rule. I was governor till his thirty-second year. So I was governor of Judah for 12 years. During that time neither my brothers nor I ate the food that was allowed for the governor. <sup>15</sup>But the governors before me placed a heavy load on the people. They took about one pound of silver from each person. And they took food and wine. The governors' helpers before me also controlled the people. But I did not do that because I feared God. <sup>16</sup>I worked on the wall. So did all my men who were gathered there. We did not buy any fields.
